COMMENCEMENT PROGRAM OFFERS THE USUAL ARRAY OF INTERESTING EVENTS

Commencement Week Opens Tonight With Music Recital in College Chapel—Ends June 10th

DR. WYATT BROWN, OF BALTO., THE COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

This Year's Graduating Class Numbers Thirty-Five—Alumni Association Meetings and Banquet Show Prove Interesting This Year

The Commencement Week program this year offers the usual interesting array of activities. The program for the week opens on Friday, June 5th, with a musical recital in the College Chapel, and ends Wednesday morning, June 10th with the Commencement exercises. The other events of interest for the week are listed in the box to the right, and should prove a real invitation and temptation in itself to all Alumni members of the school and all friends and parents of graduating students, to return for the week's program.

The Senior Class this year numbers thirty-five, only two of whom are music students, the rest being candidates for the A.B. or B.S. degrees. They will be together as a class for the last time on Wednesday morning, and will be addressed at that time by Dr. Wyatt Brown, D.D., Litt.D., of Baltimore, Md., who is the Commencement speaker this year. Other features of the Commencement exercises will be the awarding of diplomas and the awarding of prizes.

Members of the Alumni Association in general are urged to attend the Commencement exercises this year. The following classes are requested to have their reunions: beginning with the Class of 1890, all classes whose years end in either five or zero. The Annual Alumni Banquet will be held as usual on Tuesday evening in the College Dining Hall. An excellent program is being arranged for this event. KAPPA UPSILON PHI HOLDS SPRING PARTY

Annual Spring Party and Banquet Held at Hershey Park and Proves A Most Delightful Affair

On Monday afternoon and evening, June 1, the Kappa Upsilon Phi Fraternity held its annual Spring Party and Banquet. The Fraternity went to Hershey Park again this year, making the trip in machines, and had one of the most successful and most enjoyable parties the Fraternity has ever had. The event, which was attended by fourteen couples, and chaperoned by Dr. and Mrs. Bowman, included a tour of Hershey Park, a banquet at the beautiful Hershey Cafe, and a theatre party at the Park Theatre.

The party left Mohn Hall at 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon in five well-filled machines, and before they sat down to the banquet at the Cafe, had given Hershey Park the once-over. The banquet room was beautifully decorated and the tables arranged in a particularly unique manner; and before the banquet was over all agreed that the plates were most beautifully decorated also, and well arranged—with cats. After this part of the program the Kappa party hurried to the Park Theatre where they enjoyed a delightful play. The evening ended where it started—the same old place; Mohn Hall.

1926 SPECULUM MAKES APPEARANCE ON CAMPUS

Student Greet Annual With A Rush—Many New Features Make The Book A Great Success—Dutch Art Scheme

CONTEST CREATES INTEREST

The "1926 Speculum", Albright's fifteenth volume of her yearbook, appeared on the campus Thursday noon, May 28. The book this year has been dedicated to Prof. W. J. Dech, and at the noon meal on Thursday, the Speculum was officially dedicated to him in the College Dining Hall by the editor-in-chief of the annual. After dinner there was a rush for books.

The 1926 edition of the Speculum contains many new features, among which is the contest conducted by the Speculum earlier in the year. This perhaps was the biggest surprise, with John Smith, '26 and Lois Helm, '25, being chosen the most popular; Caroline Illick, '26, and Glen Raffensperger, the best looking; John Smith, the best athlete; Clyde Hewett, '26, the best speaker and the most studious; Arthur Henninger, '25, the brightest; Glen Raffensperger, the most versatile; Harold Landis, the wittiest; R. F. Dubs and Mary Mohn, both '26, the best case; while Millard Dietz, '25, does the (Continued on Page Six.)

NEOS ELECT THEIR OFFICERS FOR FALL TERM OF NEXT YEAR

On Friday evening, May 29, the Neos held their elections for the Fall Term of next year. Millard Dietz, '25, president during the past term, was in the chair and conducted the elections. The following men were elected to serve the Neos-men next fall.
 President.....Dale H. Gramley.
 Vice Pres.....Homer Heisley.
 Critic.....Clyde Hewett.
 Secretary.....Leon Hood.
 Treasurer.....Fred Glosser.
 Chaplain.....Bernard Zener.
 Pianist.....Warren Wadsworth.

TWO GIRLS WIN HIGH HONORS IN '25 CLASS

Miss Janet Kaltrreider High Honor Student With Mark of 92.78; Miss Jessie Statler Second With 92.28

Two girls copped the high honors in the Senior Class this year as far as academic work goes. Miss Janet Kaltrreider, with an average of 92.78 for her four years' work, has been declared Valedictorian of the Class of 1925; while Miss Jessie Statler, with an average of 92.28, just .5 below Miss Kaltrreider, has been declared Salutatorian of the class. There was a group of students who hovered just below these marks, between 90 and 92, and the order of their ranking has not yet been announced.

Miss Kaltrreider and Miss Statler have both been quite studious throughout their college courses and deserve the honors that now come to them. However, we find that both these students have not confined their efforts to academic work alone, but have been very much interested in the extra-curricular activities of the school.

VALEDICTORIAN

MISS JANET KALTRREIDER

Miss Kaltrreider has been manager of the Girls' Glee Club, a member of the Thesian Debating team during her Junior year, a member of the 1925 Speculum Staff and last year's Handbook, and also President of the Y. W. C. A.

SALUTATORIAN

MISS JESSIE STATLER

Miss Statler has to her credit the presidency of the Thesian Literary Society, membership of the Thesian Debating team for two years, the literary editorship of the 1925 Speculum, and the editorship of the Bulletin during the past year.

BUDGET ADOPTED

Student Body Unanimously Votes To Adopt New Budget As Drawn Up By Budget Committee

BUDGET TOTAL IS $28.50

On Thursday morning, May 21, the report of the Budget Committee was presented to the student body for approval. Prof. H. A. Benfer represented the Budget Committee in giving its report and explained the changes which have been made in the budget of last year. Without much discussion whatever, the student body unanimously decided to adopt the budget as drawn up by (Continued on Page Six.)

FACULTY APPROVES AND GIRLS ADOPT GOV'T.

New Women's Student Government Will Go Into Effect Next September—Many New Privileges Granted To Mohn Hallers

HONOR IS THE KEYNOTE

The girl students of Albright College who live in Mohn Hall have adopted the constitution of the Women's Student Government Association as drawn up by the officers and committee elected by them some time ago, and recently approved by the College Faculty. At a meeting of the Mohn Hall girls, held the evening of May 31, the constitution was adopted with little or no opposition, and starting with the opening of the school term next September, the girls will govern themselves in Mohn Hall, in the vicinity of the College, at social functions, and in intercourse with men students of the college.

The new rules for the girls, as laid down in the Student Gov't Constitution, are much more liberal than heretofore, and should prove popular with the girls and the male students as well. Violation of these rules will leave the punishment of (Continued on Page Six.)

RAFFENSPERGER AND MISS HERR CROWNED TENNIS CHAMPIONS

An important event of the week end of the Junior prom was the playing of the finals of the boys and girls tennis finals on Sat., May 16, thus closing the official tennis tournament of Albright for 1925.

The final among the girls was played between Arline Herr and Dot Diebert, Miss Herr coming out on top by the score of 6-4, 4-6, 7-5.

The contestants in the boys finals were McHaffie and Raffensperger, with Raffensperger winning the set by the score 6-1, 6-4.

In each case the prize offered were Spaulding Rackets, that were donated through the kindness of A. J. Snavey, dealers of athletic goods, Lebanon, Pa.

Shoap's Double, After Hartzell and Smith Had Singled, Sends Home The Winning Runs, 4-2

RAGGED PLAY IN THE FIELD PROLONGS CONTEST UNTIL 12th

Albright's Six Errors Make Game The Closest and Most Exciting of The Year, With Thrills In Every Inning—Shoap Has 12 Strike-outs

Coach Benfer's fast-traveling baseball team defeated Albright's old rivals on Decoration Day by a 4-2 score in twelve thrilling innings on the Bethlehem Steel Field in Lebanon, and made it eleven straight victories for the Red and White. The game was a pitchers' battle throughout, with Shoap having slightly the edge on Reigle, his Lebanon Valley opponent. Six errors by the Albright team put Shoap in bad holes several times and was responsible for prolonging the game beyond the regular nine inning period.

Hartzell's single in the twelfth, Smith's scratch hit in beating out his bunt, a force at first for Kengle after he lifted Smith at second but succeeded in advancing Hartzell to third, and Shoap's double counted for the winning runs and spelled ruin and defeat for Lebanon Valley, 4-2. The history of the other innings is told play by play in the following summary.

The game was the best of the Albright season and was declared by many to have been the best ever played on the Steel Field in Lebanon. Two worthy rivals met, and the length of the game was worthy of both. For previous to this game, Albright had won straight while Lebanon Valley had won ten out of thirteen.

The stands and bleachers on the Steel Field were crowded to their capacity and everything was tense throughout the game. Every inning was filled with some thrill or other as is testified by the fact that in every inning except the first there were (Continued on Page Four.)

PRES. BOWMAN GIVES BANQUET TO SENIORS

A Most Delightful Evening Spent By The Seniors As The Guests of Dr. and Mrs. Bowman—Banquet in College Hall

The Senior Class was given a delightful banquet, Friday night, May 22nd, in the college dining hall by President C. A. Bowman. Each year President Bowman gives the graduating class a banquet near the close of the year, and the banquet this year was a most pleasing affair.

At 8:00 o'clock the Seniors gathered at President Bowman's residence, where they were received and entertained with a short program by members of the Senior Class. Miss Helm and Miss Kinsinger each sang a solo and Miss Gindlesperger gave a reading. The entire class and their hosts, President and Mrs. Bowman, then retired to the college dining hall.

The banquet tables were neatly arranged in one end of the dining hall, each beautifully decorated with the Senior class colors, Buff and Brown, and bouquets of yellow tea roses, the class flower.

The banquet which was a sumptuous lay-out, was prepared by the college kitchen force and was served by college waiters.

After the banquet, Dr. Chislett, (Continued on Page Six.)

THIS WEEK'S PROVERB

"Every student is occasionally what he ought to be perpetually."

ALBRIGHT'S NEW BUDGET

The Albright student body should be commended for its unanimity of action in accepting the new 1925-26 Student Budget, as drawn up and presented to them by the Budget Committee. The student body showed a high degree of fairness, a liberality of viewpoint for all organizations, and a recognition of general student welfare, as well as expressing satisfaction in last year's budget, when they accepted the new student budget.

The student budget, which was largely sponsored by Coach Benfer, organized and put on a working basis by him last year, is undoubtedly the greatest step ever introduced in student activities here at Albright. It has proved itself a boon not only to the student organizations which benefit by it, but also to the students themselves, who are emphatic in expressing approval of the budget. Student organizations have prospered greatly during the past year, due to the success of the budget, and many of them have made improvements in organization efficiency and advances in their various types of service, which justify many times the adoption of the budget.

Surely Albright was blessed when the Student Budget became a part of extra-curricular interests here.

VACATION SPENDING—HOW

"How shall I spend my vacation?" This timely and important question demands, of each student, an immediate answer. A wise and intelligent answer involves a program for the summer months. Here are a few hints.

WORK. Work, if possible, out of doors. Remember, you have just had nine months within doors. Work at something yielding reasonable financial returns. Those who pay their own college bills will naturally do this. If you are using your father's purse as a crutch, lay it aside, and make some money for yourself. If you have an avocation, work at it, thru the summer months. Rest by doing something other than your usual routine rather than by doing nothing. Better still let your summer months be a "lab" to your winter months. If you intend, finally to preach, seek a little church for the summer; if to teach, seek a position in the vacation schools; if to direct athletics, link yourself with an athletic league of some sort. Thus you will be able to supplement the theoretical with the practical.

PLAY. The proverb, "All work makes Jack a dull boy", is very true. Auto about; roam mountains; play tennis; fish; paddle your canoe. Do not overexercise nor underexercise; but exercise enough.

READ. Read, by all means, or your brain will lose its edge. Read temperately, however. Five books a month are sufficient. Use a light reading diet—fiction. Be selective, of course. There are, at best, fifteen outstanding fiction characters; as Hamlet, Becky Sharpe, David Copperfield, Leatherstocking, Uncle Remus. Fifteen books, one for each character, would be a very profitable summer course in reading.

Work, read, play, by all means, or you may need a vacation to recover from your vacation.

IS THERE anyone who forgets those long periods of bitter cold weather that we had last winter? And do you remember all that snow that piled up and piled up until it was almost waist deep some places on the campus? Sometimes even where the paths had been shoveled it would drift over and make walking almost impossible. Last winter, surely, was a winter not easily forgotten.

But do we remember as well, that, although out-of-doors it was bleak and cold, in the halls there was all the cheer that warmth could bring? Do you remember how every morning during the cold weather, almost before it was daylight, the radiators would begin to creak, and soon we would be warm for the day? And do we remember that scarcely had that snow piled up either freshly fallen or in drifts, before there was a path shoveled through it again for us to go to classes with dry feet?

Of course it is needless to say that now, we all appreciate and enjoy our beautiful spring-time campus. The grass is so green and well mowed, the paths are so straight and even that none can help admiring them, and we do.

But who is it who has done all this for our comfort? Whose was that slender, bundled up figure that fired up the furnace before daylight last winter and kept busy all day shoveling paths for us through the snow? And who is the industrious worker that is everywhere about the campus, now, making it beautiful for us? That is he, ever there on the boy's campus raking leaves isn't it? Yes, and yesterday and for several weeks before he has been working at the edges of the paths of Mohn Hall campus. First he straightened them and then poured acid all along to kill the weeds. Other days he and Mr. Shaeffer have been mowing the lawn. Busy for our comfort all the time. Who is he? Mr. Stoner, of course, our janitor. He is surely the power behind our comfort. Let's not forget to thank him.

: Campus Chatter :

Good morning Faculty, seniors, juniors, sophomores and freshmen. I'm wondering how you survived the Junior Prom and the May Day festivities, and Rev. Keon's very interesting talk on his prairie experiences. Wasn't it all great, and wasn't the weather man in a good humor? He even smiled on some so benignly that he left an impression of his warm heartedness. Just ask McCurdy. His only celebration was a few fourth-of-July antics among the stars but this just added to the general excitement that already charged the air, so he is a pretty good friend after all, to the Juniors.

The rain is falling on the roof, and by it's quick patter, and by the sound of the wind in the leaves I know they have a message for me. I wish I could understand. Now I know, and this is it. The Lebanon Valley game will soon be here. Of course we are all anxious for it and rather confident of the outcome, because we have ten games to our credit and no defeat. Some record—well, rather. No wonder the wood-pecker on the telephone pole by Mohn Hall announces to the world in general that he is an Albright bird. He is proud of the title and acts accordingly.

North, south, east and west are seniors—with nothing to do. Oh the boon of a vacation in hot weather. That is why the dining-room rings with the sound of their laughter and their dignity steals out the door on tiptoe. Seniors on vacation and dignity at its best cannot go hand in hand, so dignity retreats and waits around the corner until it shall be needed again. But why should they be dignified when they have almost reached the "pot of gold at the end of the rainbow"—in this case a diploma and a degree, and the right to prove their independence and conquer the world. Keep on laughing seniors, we like it, and we're unanimous in wishing you success.

Since Commencement is drawing near and we will soon be leaving, why not say good-bye to our good friends, Captain Lizzie and First Mate Bill of the Bonny ship Taste-Good, that braves the storms of the Myerstown seas so successfully. Then too,

It's good-bye to school for three months more— But think of the joys that the days hold in store; Adventure ahead—and the sun and the moon. The summer's gay madness that comes with the June. So, though it's good-bye and a bit of adieu, To seniors and friends and goodness knows who, Let smiles touch your lips and brighten your eyes, Till their brightness rivals the blue of the skies; And wave a gay hand at the halls and the trees, And turn your face homeward to do as you please.

By the time airships are as numerous as autos we hope monkey wrenches and other tools will be equipped with parachutes.

: Who's Who At Albright :

CHARLES LAVERNE YOST

This robust young gentleman comes from Carlisle, Pa., and popularly known as "Charlie" or "Beb'y". His fine manly physique and calm, straight-forward attitude characterize him as being distinguished. This reputation "Charlie" has backed up admirably during his three years at Albright. After he leaves here in June everyone will miss hearing his voice around the halls of the dormitory, and in the Glee Club concerts and music recitals. He has helped make the Glee a success for three seasons, being president this year. Some more of his qualities are,—a reader of no mean ability and—now we think of the baseball diamond. Much credit must be given our tenor soloist whose arm is also good enough to bring about, in no small measure, the many victories on the diamond.

In all these attributes Yost is a modest fellow, whose modesty has won the friendship of all. Let us whisper in closing—he has gained the close friendship of a young lady. This, we believe, he considers his greatest achievement.

OUR FACULTY

REV. PAUL E. KEEN

Keen is a very good description of the man himself. His untiring energy and determination may be seen in all his work. He is usually "Reverend" on Sunday and "Professor" during the week. In both these roles he is perfectly capable, since there is an attractiveness in his delivery of sermons and much interest in his Bible and public speaking classes. He has aided greatly in putting Albright on the map in the way of debating. Under his tutelage the teams have closed a successful season.

Perhaps his varied experiences in practical life make him so able to interest, but the man has one characteristic which is very noticeable. It is his optimism. Everybody likes an optimist—therefore, everybody likes "Prof." Keen.

HERSHEY AND DICKINSON AND HAVERFORD FALL

Shoape Repeats Victory Over Dickinson, And Rubs It In By Shutting Them Out—Haverford Game Was The Best of Home Season

A. C. vs Hershey A. C. Three more victories prior to the Lebanon Valley game were added to the already brilliant chain, Albright defeated the strong Hershey A. C. team on the Albright diamond on May 16 by the score 8-4. Yost was the hurler for the Red and White. Score by innings:
A. C. 3 1 0 3 1 0 0 0 x-8
Hershey .. 1 0 1 0 0 0 2 0-4

A. C. vs. Dickinson

Shoape repeated on Dickinson in his own back yard on May 20. His work on the mound in this game was outstanding. He allowed but five hits throughout the game, these were scattered over five innings. Besides that, Dickinson went home with a shutout. Score by innings:
A. C. 0 4 1 0 1 0 2 0 x-8
Dickinson .. 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

A. C. vs Haverford

Yost allowed only three hits in defeating Haverford at Myerstown on May 23. It was a hot day, just suitable for Yost. Incidentally he turned in one of the best games of the year.

Three errors in the seventh inning of the game left in two runs to tie the score and prevented the shut out for which Yost had been striving. Score by innings:
Albright .. 0 0 0 0 2 0 0 2 x-4
Haverford .. 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 0-2

G. HEIL GRAMLEY
President of Y. M. C. A.

This Gramley has been elected to the presidency of the Y. M. for 1925-26. He is also editor of the Frosh Handbook for next year; business manager of the Speculum this year; and varsity debater; etc. We look for a successful year for the Y. M. C. A.

THE 1924-25 BULLETIN STAFF

The above Staff, with Miss Jessie Statler as editor-in-chief, and Newton D. Miller, as business manager, enjoyed a successful year in publishing Albright's bi-weekly newspaper. Miss Kininger and Kenneth Bonfor, editorial writers, and Glen Raffanperger, feature writer, also graduate this year along with Miss Statler and Mr. Miller.

MISS GRACE HANGEN
President of Y. W. C. A.

Miss Hangen has been elected President of the Y. W. for 1925-26. Besides her interest in the Y., she is also much interested in art, being the winner of the Art Prize last year. She won her "AC" in basketball this year also.

GEORGE D. WEISS
President of the A. A.

Weiss, the barber, will head our Athletic Association as president during the coming year. He is a fellow who is interested in sports, being a member of the football and basketball squads for the last three years. He is also assistant manager of baseball this year.

THE 1925 DEBATING TEAM

Albright's Debating Team enjoyed another successful season in forensic activity this year. The Negative team, which was composed of Arthur Henck, '25, Captain, Dale Gramley, '26, Clyde Hewitt, '26, and Paul Price, '26, alternate, won 13 out of a possible 15 Judges' votes, defeating Muhlenberg, 2-1, Juniata, 2-1, Elizabethton, 3-0, Westminster, 3-0, and Ursinus, 3-0. The Affirmative team was composed of Kenneth Benfer, '25, Captain, Russell Grambling, '25, Heil Gramley, '26, and Milton Wilks, '26, alternate. This team lost four hard fought debates to Muhlenberg, Elizabethton, Juniata and Bucknell, all by 2-1 scores.

MILTON WILKS
Senior Class President

Wilks has recently been elected president of the Senior Class for next year. Besides this honor, Wilks was a member of the Affirmative Debating team this year, and also a member of the Handbook Staff last year and this year. He was assistant manager of basketball this year.

MALE GLEE CLUB

The Male Glee Club enjoyed a short but successful season this year, closing their season with their annual home concert in the College Chapel, May 15th. The Club gave concerts at Harrisburg, Newport, Lewistown, Schaffersstown, and Shillington.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

The Girls' Glee also had a short season this year, but their efforts were attended with success at every appearance. They sang at York, Red Lion, Wrightsville, Berwick, and their annual home concert. Both the Girls' Glee and the Male Glee will unite in giving a special cantata here tomorrow night in the College Chapel.

1924 BASEBALL TEAM

This is one of the best teams ever to represent Albright on the baseball field, winning 10 out of 13 games last year. Most of these men are playing on Coach Benfer's championship team this spring, only Capt. Deddy Miller having graduated. This bunch also put it over on Lebanon Valley by a 7-2 score. Left to right they are: (front row) Gasull, ss.; G. Raffensperger, rf.; Capt. Deddy Miller, cf.; Captain Charles Yost of this year's team, p., rf.; Hollenbaugh, c.; (second row) Henninger, utility; Kengle, 2b.; Smith, 1b.; Leinbach, 1b.; (back row) Snyder, manager; Griggs, utility; Hartzell, 3b.; Coach "Haps" Benfer.

LOIS HELM

Most Popular Girl

Miss Helm was selected as Albright's most popular girl in the 1926 Speculum contests this year. She has been a 'Y' worker for four years, a member and president of the Glee Club, and also a member of the Girls' Basketball team. She graduates next Wednesday.

JOHN S. SMITH

Most Popular Boy

"Johnnie" has been selected as Albright's most popular male student by a vote of the students in a contest conducted by the 1926 Speculum. He was also selected as the Best Athlete in this contest. He is Captain of football for next year and a member of our baseball team.

COACH "HAPS" BENFER
Athletic Director and Coach of All Sports

Coach Benfer is just rounding out his seventh year as the successful coach of athletic teams at Albright. During this time he has put our school on the map in the athletic world, and has made us the one school most colleges want to defeat. This year he has given us, especially, the best baseball team we have ever had.

CLYDE E. HEWETT
Winner Jr. Oratorical Prize

Hewett has just realized another of his great ambitions in winning the Charles Kelchner Junior Oratorical Prize. He is much interested in public speaking of all kinds, being a member of the Negative Debating team this year and Manager of Debate. He preaches in Steelton regularly.

SHOAP'S HIT IN TWELFTH SPELLS RUIN FOR L. V. AND ENDS PITCHERS' BATTLE

men on bases. Shoap's ability to hold up in the pinches had everything to do with the final result. He pitched well at times, but is capable of doing much better work, and has been doing so all year. He worked hard, however, and had twelve strike-outs to his credit.

Following is an accurate account of the game, play by play:

First Inning, A. C. At Bat

Reigle started the game by throwing two balls to Leinbach, then a strike. On the next pitched ball Leinbach cracked a grounder to second base and was put out at first. Hartzell struck out.

Smith hit a hot liner to the third baseman who dug it out of the dirt and made an assist to first.

L. V. C. At Bat

Richards hit a high fly to Griggs, and gave Griggs his only chance of the game in the field.

Pierce next hit a high fly to Leinbach.

Gilbert struck out.

Second Inning, A. C. At Bat

Kengle hit an easy grounder to Reigle who made an assist to first.

Shoape struck out on four pitched balls.

Griggs hit a high fly into the hands of the left fielder.

L. V. C. At Bat

Piersol started the ball rolling by making a drive to right field for two bases.

Reigle sacrificed Piersol to third with a hot grounder to Gasull who assisted to first.

On the next play Hartzell made a wild peg to first after fielding Nitrauer's grounder. This left Piersol go home and Nitrauer go to second.

Metoxin got in the way of one of Shoape's slow balls and drew a walk to first.

Shoape hit Finn and filled the bases.

Smith next hit a roller to Gasull who came running in, scooped up the ball, and started a beautiful double play to Angle to Leinbach.

Third Inning, A. C. At Bat

Angle hit a roller to the second baseman who made an assist to first. Gasull was retired after his high infield fly was caught by the short stop.

Raffy drew a walk.

Leinbach hit an easy grounder to the third baseman.

L. V. C. At Bat

Richards hit a hot drive through Gasull to Smith.

Pierce bunted a fly to Shoape.

Richards stole second after Gilbert came to bat.

Hartzell put out Gilbert by catching a foul fly.

Piersol retired the side by striking out.

Fourth Inning, A. C. To Bat

Hartzell opened the four inning with a hot drive into the hands of the center fielder.

Smith hit a drive to the right fielder.

Kengle started something by sending a sizzler through the legs of the short stop, but Shoape retired the side with an easy infield fly to the third baseman.

L. V. C. At Bat

Shoape displayed exceptionally good form in this inning when he struck out Reigle and Nitrauer, first two men up, on eight pitched balls. Metoxin retired the side when Angle caught his high foul fly.

Fifth Inning, A. C. At Bat

Griggs started the ball rolling and made Albright's first hit of the game. It was a clean two bagger, the ball bounding against the fence in right field.

Angle is put out by his foul fly to the first baseman.

Then Shorty for the second time in succession flies out to the short stop.

Raffy, however, came through at the crucial moment with a single over the first bag which sent Griggs home.

Leinbach came through this time with a single to right field which sent Raffy to third. Hartzell went out on a fly ball to the second baseman.

L. V. C. At Bat

Finn struck out. Smith reaches first on an error by Gasull.

Richards hit a hot liner to Gasull for a P. O. Gasull attempts to catch Smith at first but fails.

Pierce hit a short grounder which Angle scooped up and made an assist to first.

Sixth Inning, A. C. To Bat

Smith hit one to Griggs' spot of fence and went to second.

Kengle fanned.

Shoape grounded an easy one to the shortstop who made an assist to first. Smith, however, was advanced to third.

Griggs was called out on strikes. This pulled Reigle out of a bad hole.

L. V. C. At Bat

Gilbert poked a short fly over the third baseman.

Piersol sacrificed Gilbert to 2nd by bunting.

Reigle again fanned on three of Shoapes drops.

With two out, Shoape disregarded the runners and allowed them to run wild on the bases. However, he concentrates all of his effort on Metoxin and strikes him out.

Seventh Inning, A. C. At Bat

Angle made his first hit of the game to right field.

Gasull sacrificed him to second. Raffy hit a grounder to Reigle which bounds off his glove, into the air and down into the glove of the short stop, who made an assist to first. (Angle on third.)

Leinbach retired the side on a fly to the center fielder.

L. V. C. At Bat

Angle caught another high foul fly.

Smith singled with a hot grounder over second.

Richards was put out on his high fly to Raffy in right field.

The next man, Pierce, fanned.

Eighth Inning, A. C. At Bat

Hartzell hit a very short roller which the catcher picked up and threw to first. The play was very close and questionable.

Reigle walked Smith on four straight balls to take a chance on Kengle.

Kengle hit the best drive of the game to right field, scored Smith, which gave Albright a one-run lead, and, himself, slid safely into third.

Shoape hit a roller to the short stop who made an assist to get Kengle at home.

Griggs sent another bounder to the short stop who assisted for the third out to second.

Score: 2-1.

L. V. C. At Bat

Angle gave Shoape an advantage by putting out the first man up when he caught another high foul fly.

Piersol hit safely over second.

Reigle hit a roller to left field.

Nitrauer loaded the bases by another hit to left field.

Coach Mylin went in a pinch-hitter for Metoxin.

Angle attempted to catch a man off third, but the umpire's decision was that the runner was safe.

The pinch-hitter struck out. A bad break for Albright came when Finn hit a ball which rolled along the base line, foul by almost two feet. When Hartzell was about to pick up the ball it hit a clump of grass and bounded just inside the bag. The runner on third immediately started for and made home.

This tied the score at 2-2.

Ninth Inning, A. C. At Bat

Angle hit a fast roller to the second baseman who assisted to first. Gasull lined out a single to center field.

Then Raffy was put out on a fly ball to center field.

Leinbach hit safely over third.

Hartzell, with two on, grounded to the second baseman who made an assist to the short stop.

L. V. C. At Bat

Hartzell picked up Richards' bounder and make an assist of it to Leinbach.

Pierce next gave Hartzell the same pleasure.

Gasull made an error on a fast ground ball hit by Gilbert. Gilbert then stole second and went to third on Angles bad throw.

Piersol, the big first baseman, then thrilled the crowd when he crashed out a long drive to left along the foul line. At first it appeared as though the ball would drop fair and score Gilbert; however, it curved out and dropped in foul territory.

Leinbach retired the side when he happened to be camping in the path of Piersol's red hot liner thus enabling him to catch the ball and thereby also saving the game.

Tenth Inning, A. C. At Bat

Smith hit a slow roller along the foul line and tried to beat it out. Reigle caught the ball just as it rolled fair and upset Smith who is called out.

Kengle tapped a bounder to the second baseman and was put out. Griggs struck out.

L. V. C. At Bat

Reigle grounded out to the short stop.

Nitrauer fanned. Hellman fanned.

Eleventh Inning, A. C. At Bat

Angle rode the ball over the head of the short stop.

Gasull sacrificed. Raffy fanned. Leinbach hits rolled to second and is put out at first.

L. V. C. At Bat

Shoape made an assist on Finn's bunt. Gasull made assist of Smith's.

Richards lined a hot one to Hartzell who made a put out without raising a foot.

Twelfth Inning, A. C. At Bat

Hartzell started the beginning of the end when he shot 'the ball' to center field.

The third baseman next made a wild throw on Smith's hit to him. Kengle then hit to the short stop who made an assist to the second baseman.

Shoape then came up, due for a hit, and dealt the blow which was needed. The ball shot to center field and gave Hartzell and Kengle plenty of time to get home. Shoape himself went to second.

Griggs was put out at first. Lefty tried to go home on the same play but was caught at the plate.

L. V. C. At Bat

Pierce struck out. Gilbert reached first on a bad peg by Shorty.

Leinbach caught Piersol's high fly. Reigle surprised and lined out a double to right field.

Then came Shoapes last bad hole. Nitrauer came to the plate with two men on and two gone. With three and two on the batter, Shoape wound up and delivered the ball. The bat cracked and the ball went hurtling through the air. However, it proved to be a lofty infield fly which was easily taken in by Leinbach. This ended the game with the score at 4-2.

ALUMNI NOTES

Emerson Hangen, '22, received his bachelor degree in Theology at Princeton, May 12th. He has been appointed to a Chaplain's position on the Constellation, the oldest ship in the United States, which is stationed at Newport.

I SEE BY THE ALBRIGHT BULLETIN THAT--

The Senior Class Play has been called off. Dissention in the ranks seems to have been the main trouble. The play which was selected in the first place was thought to be immoral by several of the class members, and was finally dropped. The play which was selected was "Be An Optimist".

Mr. and Mrs. Neast and Mr. and Mrs. Heckert motored to Albright from Mauch Chunk to visit their daughter over the week-end of May Day and the Junior Prom. Both the men are great baseball fans and have great respect for the Albright team.

Swarthmore College won the track championship of the Middle Atlantic States Conference, which was held at Haverford College on May 22 and 23. Haverford was second and Lafayette third.

Yes, Angeline, we never heard of the president of any organization casting a vote in an election except in the case of a tie, until the Sophs pulled it on us last week. Oh, yes, quite unusual.

The track meet which was to be held on Monday afternoon, May 25, was called off because of lack of interest on the part of the student body and especially the Sophomore class. It's a pity more interest cannot be aroused in an inter-class affair of this kind.

Albright's first elocution recital was a decided success. The student body seemed to appreciate every number, and many were especially sorry that there were no encores. Mrs. Landis and the students who participated are to be commended for the treat they gave us. Come again, say we.

Susquehanna University will put out their initial Frosh Handbook during the summer. It is being published by the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A.

Mr. Stoner has certainly improved the appearance of the gravel walks about the campus. Things look well-groomed for Commencement. It wouldn't be a bad idea if some of the windows in Main Building were washed for a change.

Basketball receipts at the University of Washington this year were greater than the football returns. There were 54,000 spectators who saw Washington play on the court.

About 15 of the graduates of the Myerstown High School will enter the Freshman class here at Albright next year. Two of them are well known to Albright students, Kathryn Dech, and Kathryn Steltz, both of Faculty Heights.

Another mix-up occurred concerning the supposed game with Temple University, of Philadelphia. Philadelphia papers announced our game with them for Tuesday, while our schedules called for Thursday. Temple then wired that their team had disbanded and there would be no game at all.

Charles Kachel, '24, is a member of the staff of "The Schuylkill News," the paper published at Schuylkill College, of Reading. Kachel is an assistant editor and graduates from the School of Theology this year. While here at Albright, he was a member of the Bulletin Staff.

Dr. Gobble, popular Latin teacher and secretary of our Faculty, sails June 20th for a trip of several weeks to Europe. He intends to tour quite a bit and also do some studying.

Miss Thelma Kreiser, '27, is reported as being almost entirely O. K., that is, with the exception of her appendix, which were removed.

The Kappa Upsilon Phi Fraternity will hold their 25th Anniversary Banquet on Monday night of Commencement Week. About 50 fraters are expected to attend.

Albert W. Johnson, '94, has been appointed judge of the middle district of Pennsylvania, and received his commission on Saturday, May 23.

The laying of the cornerstone for the new Auditorium-Music Building, at North Western College, Naperville, Ill., took place Wednesday, May 20th. This college is a sister school of Albright, being one of the Evangelical colleges.

The 1926 Speculum is the first one to be dedicated to Prof. W. J. Dech, in 26 years of service here at Albright.

The common mosquito, magnified 24 times, is a truly fearsome object

But this electric pumping station effected a remedy.

Do what Toledo did

Once Toledo had a nuisance, a tract of swamp land near the lake, a breeder of mosquitoes, foul odors and fogs.

Study what electricity is doing to make a better and happier America; remember that you will live in an electrical age, full of surprises, and full of new services to humanity. The monogram "G-E" which you see above is placed on the epoch-making products of the General Electric Company.

If you are interested to learn more about what electricity is doing, write for Reprint No. AR391 containing a complete set of these advertisements.

But an automatic pumping station, equipped with motors made by the General Electric Company, turned the swamp into dry land—and abolished the menace to the city.

This is one example of what electricity can do. As you meet life's problems, think of electricity as a valiant and ever-ready ally.

ley baseball game, Captain Charles Yost, of the Albright nine was called home, due to the death of his sister. The Albright Bulletin extends the sympathy of the student body to Yost in the loss of his sister.

The editor-in-chief of Dickinson's yearbook this year was a high school classmate of the editor-in-chief and the business manager of Albright's yearbook this year.

The Albright baseball team will get gold baseballs this year because of their great victory over Lebanon Valley. They surely deserve something for their eleventh straight win. In these eleven games Albright has scored 119 runs to 46.

This is the last number of the Bulletin to be issued this year. We bid you good-bye for awhile.

PRESIDENT BOWMAN BUSY AS COMMENCEMENT ORATOR

President C. A. Bowman has been especially busy during the past week or so, filling engagements to speak at different high school commencements. On Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week he filled successive engagements at Stouchsburg, Lackawanna, and Bernville High School Commencements, as the Commencement orator. The Commencement at Bernville was especially unique in that Mr. F. Henry Moyer, who graduates with the Class of 1925, is principal of the High School there.

NEW "Y" PLANS DISCUSSED AT MEETING

The first meeting of the Y. M. C. A. under the new administration was held Tuesday evening, May 12. It was opened with a song service.

The special music for the meeting was an instrumental trio by Messrs. Morris, Lehman, and Zener. Mr. Heil Gramley, the new president, made a plea for more subscriptions to the "Intercollegian."

A discussion of a program for next year's work followed. A number of suggestions were made, including the Big Brother plan, improvement of the moral atmosphere and condition of the dormitories, deputation work, and the elimination of cribbing and gambling.

The Bulletin brings Albright to you.

most for Albright; and Glyn Morris and Mary Schultz bring up the rear as the most popular Freshmen.

The art scheme of the book is Dutch, printed in blue, and proves very appropriate for the Myerstown community. In the art work, the drawings and sketches of Miss Grace Hangen, art editor, help make the book the great success that it is. The Junior pages are exceptionally attractive, with sketches underlying the printed matter on the page, while the write-ups of each Junior are clever, being done in book form, with three chapters for each biography. Chapter I is the history of the early life and an explanation of why each student came to Albright; Chapter II tells about the individuals life at Albright; while Chapter III is a prophecy. The other literary work of the Speculum is also a feature of the book.

Books may still be had from the business management of the Speculum at $3. per.

Dale Gramley was editor-in-chief of the 1926 Speculum and Heil Gramley, business manager.

President Bowman then spoke to the class very fittingly. He complimented them upon their loyalty to the school during their years at Albright, and mentioned the fact that the Budget Committee and presented by Prof. Benfer.

The principal changes in the Budget are the addition of the Speculum, and a raise of 50c in the price of the Bulletin and also in the debate and oratory fee. The library and band fees were retained again on the budget. The entire budget is to be paid at the opening of school next year instead of playing part at that time and part at the beginning of the second semester. The total amount to be paid by each student is $28.50.

At a meeting of the Junior Class, Tuesday noon, May 26th, the work for the Junior year was ended. President Reuel Dubs dismissed all outstanding committees, cleared things up and then held the election of officers for the coming Senior year.

The following officers were elected:

President—Milton Wilkes,
Vice President—Dale H. Gramley,
Secretary—Frieda Miller,
Treasurer—Gordon A. Oswald.
