'60 Elects Officers

The senior class of 1960 recently elected alumni class officers which will serve five-year terms. Alexander J. Stewart was elected president, Michael W. Teitleman was voted vice-president, and Nancy Keeley was chosen to be the secretary-treasurer.

These elected officers will serve until their class reunion in 1965. They will, in turn, appoint a reunion chairman.

Delta Phi Alpha Holds Banquet

The German National Honorary Fraternity, Delta Phi Alpha, Chapter Beta Psi, held its initiation banquet at the Reading Liederkranz on April 20. Part of the requirements for joining is the writing of an original spring poem in German. These poems were read by Dr. Gertrud Memming, professor of German, who also addressed the group on the subject "Education in Germany."

Albright Hosts Twelfth Parents' Weekend; Queen's Coronation Highlights Activities

Assemblies Set For May 17-19 Conclude Year

The last chapel program of the school year will be held, May 17, with the Reverend William R. Marlow, college chaplain, delivering the main address. The nature of the address will touch upon the idea that college students tend to become lax in their quest for learning when the advent of the summer vacation is at hand.

Jazz entertainment will be the highlight for the last assembly program schedule for the 19th of May. The "Four Moods" will present jazz renditions after which a question-answer period will be held. Questions concerning topics such as the nature, theory, or composition of jazz will be discussed. Stanley Michalak, '60 and Wilbert Wollenhaupt, '61 are two of the quartet who are Albright students. Danny Brosey and George Grimes are the other members of the combo.

Albright College will host the twelfth annual Parents' Weekend festivities tomorrow and Sunday. Included as a highlight of the activities is the coronation of the 1960 May Queen. Co-chairmen of the affair are Susan Mock, '61, and Michael Teitleman, '60. Chairman of invitations is Nancy Keeley, '60.

Registration of parents and guests in the dining hall lounge from 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon will kick off activities. Open house in all buildings

Marlow, and Gayle Ann Bohn, sister of Dennis Bohn, '60, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn C. Bohn. Council Activities Reviewed By Past-President Stitzell

The 1959-1960 student council president, Willard Stitzell, has submitted an outline of this year's activities and accomplishments of the student council for publication in the Albrightian. He feels there were fourteen main accomplishments of this year's student council and in cooperation with the Albrightian wishes to review these points for the interest and benefit of the student body.

(1) Investigation of the possibilities of a student-union building: Reports were received and filed from Gettysburg College, University of Scranton, William and Mary College, Lycoming College, Allegheny College, Kutztown State College, Slippery Rock State College, Swarthmore College, Ursinus College, Thiel College, Grove City College, Elizabethtown College, and Wilkes College.

(2) Establishment of a Judiciary Committee with Alexander Stewart, '61: The student constitution had provided for such a committee to aid in the judgment of special student cases brought to the attention of the administration, but heretofore no such committee had been established.

(3) Friday night activities: Student council bought a full year contract for ten movies to be shown throughout the term. In this way movies of higher quality were obtained at a lower price because of the long-term arrangements.

(4) Approval and support of "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities."

(5) Arrangement for buses for student transportation to away football games this year: This, of course, enabled more students to see the championship Albright football team in action away as well as at home.

(6) Reactivation of old idea of eliminating the tax of college textbooks: Council assisted Pennsylvania representative, Gus Yatron, by petitioning all colleges in Pennsylvania (151). Approximately 10,000 signatures were obtained from the colleges throughout Pennsylvania.

(7) Preparation of a student directory: This was done for the entire student body, free of cost.

(8) Sponsoring of All-College Dances: Council sponsored the fall dance, "Halls of Ivy" for which the services of the Tillman-Fisher Orchestra was obtained. In the spring, Lester Lanin was hired for the "Illusion in Crystal."

(9) Negotiations for a joint-sponsored (Student Council and Senior Class) Senior Prom: President Stitzell requested such a program of student council. However, the senior class president, Gerald

Albright Opens Campus May 15, To Reading, Berks Residents

A dinner meeting was held in the Albright College Dining Hall, Tuesday, April 19, at 6 p.m. for the purpose of discussing what plans have been carried out thus far for the "Open House" for alumni and the public at Albright College.

Present at the meeting were Dean Kopp, Rev. Robert Smethers, Dr. Samuel B. Shirk, Roy Burkholder, George Kohler, Mary Fry Good, William Shirk, Gaylord Grozier, Frank York, Freda Zettlemoyer, and Ed Traves. The committee was told that the date of the "Open House" had been changed from May 1 to May 15 with the rain date being May 22.

The publicity committee headed by Mr. Grozier related its plans. News releases are planned for the newspapers; two ads, of invitation type, to Mr. and Mrs. Berks County, will be placed in the newspapers the Wednesday before and the day before the "Open House". Dr. Shirk had contacted WGAL-TV and its representatives will be on campus that day. A flyer will be made up and sent to all the service clubs in the area and to the local ministers to put in their Sunday bulletins and/or announce to the congregation. There will be radio announcements the week preceding the event.

The committee felt that posters placed in prominent places downtown would be very beneficial. A large one with glossy prints will be placed in the Crystal Restaurant. Other posters will be given to the schools to be placed on their bulletin boards. Also, an announcement of "Open House" will be sent to each school principal for announcement. Posters are to be placed in each community in Berks County. Alumni are to be contacted to help with delivery of the posters.

Dr. Shirk, Ed Traves, and Craig Lefler are taking care of the special edition of the Albrightian. Rev. Smethers felt that some exhibits should be used, such as the language machine from the language laboratory. Ed Traves will get microfilm from the Reading Eagle, possibly on the merging of the college and the seminary, to be shown in the library. It was decided that the faculty should display whatever it wishes.

The number of people who attend the campus "open house" will be counted by the number of maps handed out. It was suggested that a banner be placed across downtown Penn Street. Mr. Shirk will check the cost of such a banner and the publicity committee will take it from there.

Picnic At Egleman's Slated For May 17, Closes Y Year

Egleman's Park will host all campus picnic May 17. Sponsoring the event is the campus Y.Y.W.C.A. Highlighting the affair will be the installation of officers by the past-presidents, Dorothy Seigel, '60, and John Price, '60.

According to chairmen Audrey Schropp, '62, John Walsh, '61, and Agnes Oaks, '61, there will be baseball, volleyball and horseshoes, followed by a hot dog roast. To be installed are co-presidents Agnes Oaks and Ernest Geise, '61, and co-vice presidents Beverly Barthold, '61, and John H. Weaver, '61. Treasurer-elect is John S. Weaver, '61, and secretary-elect is Bonnie Burns, '62.

Final business for the year will be concluded at the May 12 meeting of cabinet. Then, too, will the cabinet for next year be approved by the present group. New policies for the ensuing year will be outlined. Chairmen of the Fall 1960 Y- Retreat, William Vogt, '62, and Mary Ann Richards, '62, will accept suggestions for the topic to be discussed.

Dr. Adams, a member of the Temple University psychology department, presented a film and tape concerning "Brainwashing Techniques" at the May 3 meeting of Y.

SC Minutes Are Reviewed

Last Tuesday's student council meeting with the new president, Stephen Lipkins, presiding produced the following results. New officers-holders are: Vice-president, Harold Bailey, '62; Secretary, Susan Mock, '61; Treasurer, William Vogt, '62; Recording Secretary, Catherine Patterson, '62; and Chaplain, John H. Weaver, '61.

The following committees were appointed with the positions to be filled by the request of individual council members: Friday Night, Orientation, Elections, Ivy Ball, Homecoming, Spring Dance, Parents' Weekend, Stunt Nite, Campus Chest, Publicity, Constitutional Revision, Chapel Program, Who's Who, and the Dining Hall Committee.

It was announced that an engraved gavel is to be given to former president, Will Stitzell, at the Awards Banquet.

In reference to the Book of the Semester Program, Dean Hellerich said that one book is to be selected by a student-faculty committee which will be read and discussed during that semester. This way the entire college community can be familiar with at least one intellectual subject. The committee will be comprised of three students appointed by council president Lipkins and two faculty members ap-

Letters To The Editor

To The Editor:

Have we been so long time with you and yet hast thou not known us?

May I refer you to the Albright catalogue in which you will find that the very able head of the Chemistry department is Dr. Handorf.

Do come over and get acquainted with the Chemistry department before you leave. Dr. Burkey, who so efficiently conducted the meeting of the Pennsylvania Association of College Chemistry Teachers, and Dr. Leininger who gave a very interesting and instructive paper are respectively secretary and chairman-elect of the Lehigh Valley section of the American Chemical Society. So your Chemistry faculty as well as your fellow chemistry students have been unusually honored this year.

Dr. Handorf, Dr. Burkey and Dr. Leininger are very well known in Chemical circles, and very actively advancing worth while chemical enterprises and sending out some very excellently trained students. Meet your own staff!

"Dear Doctor Raith:

Your very kind donation, which you designated for some worthy social service work in Korea, has been forwarded by Ambassador Limb.

As we wanted to use the $100.00 in the best possible way, it was decided that five little pigs would be purchased for the Seoul Children's Home. This home is an annex to the Central Social Workers' Training Institute, and the director and staff are most grateful for the gift. Arrangements are being made to house the pigs, and it is planned that care and feeding of the animals will be part of the "trade training" program of the home. Also, through time, the children will have an extra source of food.

I am enclosing a receipt which you may wish to have for your records.

We deeply appreciate your thoughtfulness in sending this money for our people."

Yours sincerely,

Mrs. Syngman Rhee

(The money referred to in this letter is that which Dr. Benjamin C. Limb, chief Korean envoy to the United Nations, declined as his speaking fee and donated to the World University Service and a Korean orphans' fund.)

pointed by college president, Harry V. Masters. This committee will determine how the book is to be presented and discussed. There is no compulsory element in the program.

John H. Weaver asked that Student Council find out if the tennis courts can be opened on Sundays for student use.

A petition, signed by 93 members of the junior class, which protested the junior class election was presented. The election, however, was deemed valid by Student Council on the grounds that only 58 juniors out of the 135 present in chapel remained after chapel with enough concern to vote. President Lipkins said, "Voting is as much an obligation as a privilege. If you're not going to vote, then don't ask about a rule violation."

record and demonstrated capacity for independent study are also necessary. Preference is given to applicants under 35 years of age who have not previously lived or studied abroad.

Applicants will be required to submit a plan of proposed study that can be carried out profitably within the year abroad. Those who plan to take dependents may be asked to submit a statement of their financial ability to provide for their round-trip transportation and maintenance.

Applications for Fulbright and IACC scholarships for 1961-62 will be accepted until November 1, 1960. Requests for applications must be postmarked before October 15. Interested students who are now enrolled at a college or university should consult their campus Fulbright advisers. Others may write to the Information and Counseling Division, Institute of International Education, 1 East 67th Street, New York 21, New York or to any of IIE's regional offices.

For Consideration

Does anyone remember a mention of an honor system which was proposed for the campus of Franklin & Marshall College and which was cited in this corner in the Albrightian of April 8? Well, fellow Albrightians, that honor system is no longer a proposal. It is now an established procedure, unanimously approved by the student council of F&M. What's that? You don't know what all this gibberish is about! Maybe you didn't read the Albrightian when it took a few words from the Student Weekly of F&M about establishing an honor system.

For those students who have forgotten, those who never heard about it, and especially those apathetic individuals who don't care, the point is again that Albright students might take notice of the revolt against academic dishonesty at F&M and what those students have done about it. Read the parts of the letter which have been extracted from The Student Weekly, a letter which was sent to the editor by the creators of the proposed honor system at F&M.

"To the editor:

"The grand irony is a proctored ethics exam. Yet actually, of no lesser offense is any college test in which the student is policed on suspicion of his being dishonest. Such procedure calls to question first, the integrity of the student; secondly, the professor's dedication to his task of teaching; and thirdly, the intention of the college to make its practices conform to its ideals.

"One might say that Franklin and Marshall has been surprisingly successful as such an institution for a great many years. Before making this remark though, it is necessary that one consider exactly what the purpose of college is. If it is only to train men in specific disciplines so that they may enter graduate school or obtain positions, then it has fulfilled its obligation. But does college not seek to do more than this? It is impossible to produce a declaration of principles and aims—of any college—that does not set character development as one of its fundamental objectives. Therefore, if in any way the college fails to meet this aspect of its program, it cannot be said to be successful.

"How then is such an atmosphere of academics and ideals established? Many believe that the existence of an honor system is the beginning. Before considering what such a system is, or could be, it must be first admitted that this is not an all-complete "machine" for turning out perfect men. It is foolish to assume that it will have an effect on all, for truthfully there are always those members of any community for which we have no hopes. But this number is as small as that of those who do not need the influence, so that we may proceed on the premise that the code will have a very positive effect upon the 90% of us who are "greys" and stand between the 10% who are "blacks" and "whites"!

"At the March 31 meeting of the Student Council, a tentative plan for an honor system was proposed. After thorough discussion by the Council and interested visitors, the plan was amended and unanimously accepted. When considering an honor system they asked, and you must two questions: (1) What does it propose to accomplish? (2) Will it be successful in achieving these aims?

"Will the honor system work? Yes; it has been proved many times over in schools throughout the nation. Will it work here? It will without doubt if the students conscientiously support it. How good is the plan now proposed? Very good, but not perfect. It is not ideal because the ideal can only be realized only after much time of practice. An ultimate system would be to have no pledge, no method for reporting violations and no punishments if they did occur.

"Some object to this particular system for it seems merely to shift the responsibility of monitoring from the professor, to the student. Yet, we must realize that the student is not asked to be "his brother's watcher." He is not compelled to report an offender. He may do if so disposed, and rightfully so, much more so than a professor, for it is not the professor who is being harmed by cheating, but the other students. (And we must be cognizant of the fact that we all suffer when a fellow student cheats.) Some little thought on the issue should make a further discussion redundant here. The student is asked only to report, if he happens to notice an instance, that cheating did occur. In this way the professor may take action as he deems appropriate to rectify the violation."

Is that enough? Albright might not need an honor system, but it does have a problem of academic dishonesty. Think about these things. I dare you to deny the truth of the preceding remarks. I dare you to deny any moral obligation in this matter.

An Opinion On Events In Korea

(Editor's note: The following article is presented in place of a questionnaire which was originally intended for this space. In view of the lack of knowledge and concern on the part of many students in reference to "The Castro Regime" questionnaire found in the Albrightian of March 16, it was decided that student interest might first be evoked in response to an article which was published in Human Events — "The Washington Newsletter." The present Korean situation invites comparison with Castro's Cuba. The article does not present the editor's opinion. Read and relate your comments to the Albrightian.)

Comparison

"Korea—Another Cuba? Capitol Hill early last week pierced the smokescreen of State Department propaganda on Syngman Rhee and Korea, when it read in the papers that (1) Red China had been broadcasting appeals to Korea to overthrow Rhee; and (2) Secretary Herter blessed mob rule in Seoul to oust the tough old President, overwhelmingly elected by popular vote just a month ago.

"This picture tipped off members of Congress that the same old 'soft on communism' clique in the State Department that had sold free China down the river to the Reds, and more recently had helped install the Communist Castro regime, were at work again undermining the Free World Front against the Kremlin. This element in State had its mouthpiece, Secretary Herter, intervene on the side of mob rule with a public note rebuking Rhee when he sought to put down the riots. Even State Department functionaries admitted that the note had no precedent in our diplomatic history.

"Ironically, the State Department circles assailed Rhee with the epithet 'stubborn,' just when Congress enthusiastically received French President De Gaulle, long criticized by our officials for being 'stubborn.'

Communist Action?

"A stormy session in the White House between President Eisenhower and Republican leaders followed the extraordinary action of Secretary Herter. Ike weakly echoed the State Department denial that any Communist influence was behind the coup d'etat. GOP members of Congress tartly replied, "We don't believe that."

"Congressmen quoted extensively from the Washington Evening Star which led the press attack on the policy pursued by the State Department. This old, retrained and usually placid organ and two fiery editorials denounced Herter for aiding mob rule in Korea and asked: 'Are Mr. Herter and his associates really prepared to do business in Korea with a new leader—possibly one cast in the Fidel Castro mold?'

Repercussions

"Diplomatic sources pointed out that Herter's action would be interpreted in Asia as 'pulling the rug from under' the Rhee anti-Communist regime and would react badly on Chiang Kai-shek in Formosa, on the Philippines and on Pakistan—the string of Asian 'reliables' in the bulwark against the Red tide.

"In Japan, diplomats reminded reporters, the repercussions would be bad. Week before last, the Japanese Diet failed to ratify the US-Japan Mutual Assistance Treaty, after a socialist, fellow-traveller and Communists opposed it.

"In Washington, those who know the drift of State Department policy today believe that the Herter inter-

Music Aids In Reverent Worship

By Myles W. Edwards

Albert Schweitzer once remarked, "The struggle for the good organ is to me part of the struggle for the truth." This is a different approach to the idea of church music from that of many people today. We often think of music as a tool to worship rather than as an expression of divine truth.

In the very beginnings of Biblical history, however, we read of music as an integral part of the spiritual life. Music was not introduced to enrich worship; music was worship. It was the natural, unskilled expression of man's response to God.

"O come, let us sing unto the Lord; let us make a joyful noise

... " Many congregations today fear to sing out with enthusiasm in our churches because they are embarrassed by a lack of musical training. Hymns are a part of the Christian service because they provide a beautiful means of worship for the whole congregation. Early in the second century, Pliny wrote in a letter to Trajan that it was the custom of the Christians of Bithynia "on a fixed day to assemble before daylight and sing by turns a hymn to Christ as God." This was not music assisting worship, but worship through music.

Reluctant Singers

Our congregational reluctance in singing has led to the specialization of the art as exhibited in the paid choirs of our larger churches. Church musicians and church people often find themselves separated by an appalling and frustrating gulf. Musicians in their effort to raise church music to its proper station are often moved to exclaim with Robert Browning,

"God has few of us whom he whispers in the ear;

The rest may reason and welcome; 'tis we musicians know."

Church music must not be sung at the people, it must be sung by the people. The church has many great anthems which can be sung only by a trained choir if the truth they tell is to be clearly presented. Yet the church has also a huge treasury of magnificent hymns capable of being sung by all people which tell more clearly than any other means of the love of and for God.

"Word strain,
Crack and sometimes break, under the burden,
Under the tension, slip, slide, perish,
Decay with imprecision, will not stay in place,
Will not stay still."

(T. S. Eliot.)

To say what words cannot say, we have music.

When we next have an opportunity to raise our voices with our friends and fellow students in praise of God, let us sing with the uninhibited enthusiasm of the Christians of the early church, who knew the meaning of true worship. "The better the voice is, the more it is to honour and serve God therewith; and the voice of man is chiefly to be employed to that end."

Juniata Indians Outlast Albright, 7-6

Softball All-Stars

If the member teams are interested, the ALBRIGHTIAN sports department will co-operate in the selection of an intramural all-star softball team. The softball team will be selected in the same manner that the basketball team was. Each fraternity sports committee chairman will receive a letter from the ALBRIGHTIAN requesting him to ask the members of the softball team to select an all-opponent team. Results will be published in the issue of May 20, if all the ballots are returned before May 16.

An Albright tennis player, Sam Zehner, serves to his opponent as the Lions continued their winning ways against Susquehanna, 9-0, on their way to an 8-1 season record.

Renkenmen Win Two; Record Stands At 8-1

The Albright College tennis team continued its winning ways this week by defeating Susquehanna, 9-0, on Thursday and Juniata on Saturday. This increases the Netters record to 8-1 this year.

Al Kutner breezed past Len Purcell in court four, 6-0, 6-1. In the final singles match Jim Kurtz defeated Jim Rhoades in another lop-sided match, 6-1, 6-2.

The Red and White were also able to capture all three doubles events against Susquehanna. Bowen and Reinhart prevailed 6-3, 6-0, in the first doubles match. In court two Kutner and Kurtz defeated Williams and Snyder. Sam Zehner and Roger Handorf had some rocky moments in the first set as they defeated Purcell and Pressley, 7-5, 6-0.

Against Juniata

Against Juniata the Lion netters also had little difficulty. Bruce Bowen, the number one Albrightian, won both games as he defeated Jack Merrill, 6-0, 6-0. In a very close match, Jack Reinhart defeated Ray Prognor, 5-7, 6-1, 6-4. In court three Juniata won its only match of the day with Stan Conner defeating Glenn Ruoss, 7-5, 6-2. Seventh Inning Rally Of Four Not Enough Withstanding Albright's four-run upsurge in the top of the seventh inning, the Juniata Indians outlasted the Lion diamondmen, 7-6, last Saturday at Huntingdon. A home run by Bill Berrier in the Juniata fifth added that one run which was enough to beat the Lions.

By the third frame the Indians had built up a 6-0 advantage before the tossers of Coach John Potskian could push across two runs in their half of the fifth, bringing the Red and White to within four, 6-2. In the next half-inning Berrier clouted what proved to be the game-winning hit.

The Lions came alive in the top of the seventh as four Albrightians crossed the plate and the Red and White were behind by one, 7-6. Neither team was able to score in the remainder of the contest.

Five Runs

Five of the Lions' runs came from the bat of freshman fielder Jim Huie, who singled two runs across in the fifth and unloaded a three-run homer in the seventh. A single by Mike Morano preceded Huie's four-bagger and knocked the Lions' fourth man across.

Albright pitchers Tom Katancik and Dick Greene shared mound duties for the Lions and allowed a total of eight hits between them. Katancik was the loser. Albright batters also reached the Juniata pitchers for eight hits.

Thursday, April 30, second baseman Mike Matto drove in the necessary two runs with a single in the tenth inning to give the Lions an 8-7 triumph over Susquehanna University. Albright surged to a 4-0 lead in the first inning, which the Crusaders matched in the second to produce a 4-all tie. Both teams scored two runs to set up a 6-6 deadlock in the fourth which lasted until the top of the tenth as Susquehanna put a man across the plate to take a 7-6 lead. The Lions retaliated bringing two men home in their half of the same inning to bring the Red and White an 8-7 victory over the crusading Susquehannans. Hurler Joe Wertz battled Susquehanna's Fisher but was later replaced by Ray Sommerstad who chalked up the win over the Crusader's reliever Herb.

Lions Athletic Squads Face Full Schedule As Year Nears End

The Albright College athletic teams face a full schedule of activity as the spring sports season moves into the second week of May. With more than half of the season gone, the Lion tennis team now owns a record of seven wins and one defeat. The baseball team squad has compiled a log of four wins and three losses.

Today the Albright track team travels to Lancaster to compete in a triangular meet with Franklin and Marshall College and Bucknell University.

Tomorrow both the netmen and the diamondmen of Albright will be off-campus. Coach Will Renken's winning tennismen will do battle with Moravian College in Bethlehem, while the baseball team takes on Lebanon Valley at Annville.

On Wednesday, May 11, the Blue Hens of the University of Delaware will come to Albright Stadium to meet Albright in track and field competition. Next week-end, May 13 and 14, the Lion track team will compete in the Middle Atlantic States Conference championships at Gettysburg. They will travel to Dickinson on May 17.

In the next two weeks the Red and White tennis squad will complete the 1960 schedule. On Thursday, May 12, they will travel to Gettysburg, and a week from today they will be at home with Wilkes College. After home and away matches with LaSalle and Dickinson, respectively, the netmen will ring down their 1960 curtain against Ursinus at Collegeville on Saturday, May 21.

After the Lebanon Valley tussle, the baseball aggregation will journey to Lafayette on Tuesday, May 10, and then Wilkes will provide the opposition on Saturday, May 14, at Kelchner Field.

Track First

Diehm registered the Lion's lone track first by clearing both the 120 high hurdles and 240 low hurdles. Albright placed second in the mile relay; third in the 220-yard dash, 440-yard dash, 880-yard run, and 120-yard high hurdles; fourth in the 100-yard dash and 220-yard low hurdles.
