George Henry Wins Presidency Of Senior Class

George Henry was named president of the 1940-41 senior class during elections in the registrar's office last Wednesday.

Other senior officials are: Vice president, George Eppheimer; secretary, Esther Sippel, and treasurer, Dick Westgate.

Junior class officers elected Wednesday are: President, John Nugent; vice president, Donald Blackmore; secretary, Woodrow Witmer, and treasurer, Natalie Brant.

Winfield Morgan was elected president of the sophomore class, James Eves was name vice president; Donald Leman, secretary, and Frederick Schucker, treasurer.

APO's To Hold Spring Formal

Spring Formal dance of the Alpha Phi Omega fraternity will be held in the Berkshire Hotel tomorrow night. The Royal Manhattans will play.

At its meeting on Monday night, the fraternity formally initiated twelve new members. Those initiated were: Jerry Felter, Jack Gundlach, Robert Bennett, Earl Stetler, Robert Richards, Robert Davis, Robert Richter, Edward Arnold Thomas Frystack, Donald Blackmore, Alois Makovsky and Willis Heisey.

The newly-elected officers for the fraternity are: President Marshall Popelka; vice president, Woodrow Witmer; secretary, Jerry Felter; treasurer, Albert Falcone; corresponding secretary, Rodney Weaver.

Dr. Graham Cook was unanimously re-elected fraternity advisor.

Woodrow Witmer was elected fraternity representative to the Student Council.

Doud's Family At New York Fair

Over the weekend, the Douds family visited New York and were present at the reopening of the World's Fair. While in New York Dr. Doud submitted poetry contest entries to faculty members of Columbia and Brooklyn College, who will be two of the judges.

"Robin Hoods" To Compete

Archery under the direction of Dean Norton is now being actively engaged in by the co-eds.

There will be an archery contest at Lebanon Valley as well as tennis matches. Phyl Kaltreider is tops among the feminine bow-handlers.

CROSS-COUNTRY TRIP'S WAITING FOR SOMEONE

Do you want a ride to California and back? It's going to be approximately 8,000 miles long. Daniel Spatz is looking for someone to make the cross-country jaunt with him. He'll give details to anyone interested.

Alumni Plan Active Group

A representative group of Alumni and the senior girls of the active chapter of the Phi Beta Mu sorority met in the Selwyn Hall parlors Monday night to form an active Alumni association.

Mrs. Lloyd Stutzman acted as chairlady until Miss Geraldine Kershner was chosen as president for this year. Other officers elected were secretary, Margaret Maurer, and treasurer Esther Fenili.

Plans for the year were discussed. A sorority breakfast will be held at nine o'clock on Saturday morning, June 8. At that time, the senior girls will be installed as members of the association. The committee in charge of this affair includes Mrs. Jane Baer, Eleanor Ramsay, Anne Mast and Mrs. Betty Hill.

Dr. Geil Speaks At Park Church

"Youth has every right to be somewhat critical of the legacy which is their's today," Dr. Geil told an Anniversary Day audience at Park Evangelical Church last Sunday.

"With one third of the nation's young people unemployed, a new war has now been placed on the doorstep to make matters more complex," he said. "The youth of today is living in a world where lies and deceit are accepted as everyday weapons.

"What has youth to say about whether a war should be waged? Is it youth's day to fight a war, not declare it," he said.

He compared the plight of youth 300 years ago to that of today and said that there was not much difference. He said that youth has vision, enthusiasm, a stout heart and a creative mind. Investment of these possessions will extend new frontiers in science medicine, religion and industry," he added.

Day Students Hold Picnic

The Girl's Day Students Club held a picnic at Egelman's Park, Wednesday at 5.00 p. m. Club members and their guests enjoyed a supper of hot dogs and onions, potato chips, marshmallows, soda pop and ice cream.

A pick-up baseball game was one of the outstanding features which helped to make the outing a huge success.

Rain Pushes Greek Day Program To Next Thursday

Chinese Student Chapel Speaker

Homer Loh, a Chinese student at the Crozet Theological Seminary in Chester, will be the chapel speaker next Wednesday.

Mr. Loh, a former Y. M. C. A. secretary in China, will discuss student conditions in present-day China. He will be available for informal discussion with students and faculty during the day.

Mr. Loh's speech will launch the Y's campaign for funds to help the refugee students in Chinese colleges and universities.

PAT's Spring Dance Tonight

The Pi Alpha Tau Sorority's Spring Formal dance will be held tonight at nine o'clock. The Pats will dance to the music of the Royal Manhattans.

Chaperons will be Professor and Mrs. Harding, Mr. and Mrs. Harris, and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon.

The sorority held an election of officers. The following people were elected: President, Eleanor Trounman; vice president Emma Shenk; secretary, Marion Plummer; treasurer, Marjorie Loto and student council representative, Jane Louise Haupt.

French Club Names Officers

Marjorie Lebo was elected president of the French Club at its regular meeting Tuesday afternoon.

Others who will serve as officers next year are: Vice president, Christos Bratisios, and secretary Marion Plummer. Robert Work will again be treasurer.

Miss Garlach suggested that the club buy a portable phonograph and gradually accumulate recording for it.

The Albrightian staff joins the entire student body in expressing its sincerest sympathies to Professor Henry G. Buckwalter whose mother died last week.

Stage 'Alcestis' On Science Steps

Jupe Pluvius' violent outburst yesterday afternoon caused postponement of Greek Day activities scheduled for 4.30 p. m.

Euripdes' "Alcestis" will be staged next Thursday, May 23, according to an announcement late in the afternoon yesterday, by Robert Work, director of the production.

"Alcestis" is a Greek tragedy. It will be presented on the science hall steps as part of the annual Greek festival at Albright College. Last year Sophocles' "Electra" was produced.

Ada Gossler, in the title role, Alcestis, will ring down the curtain on her collegiate dramatic career.

Other principals in the cast will be: Harold Anderson, Apollo; Paul Ackert, Thanatos; Bessie Knerr, Handmaid; Dean Allen, Admetus; Arthur McKay, Hercules; Albert Falcone, Pheres; Donald Burger, Seruant; Tommy Masters, little boy; Barbara Gingrich, little girl; George Henry, leader of chorus; William Bottonari, second elder; Charles Miesse, third elder, and Donald Blackmore, choric speaker.

The chorus of elders will be played by the Men's Glee Club. Handmaids will be Jane Buttorff, Myrtle Stegman, Virginia Black, Margaret Thompson, Miriam Weidner, Caroline Hastings, Virginia Jackson and Marjorie Frundt.

Attendants will be: Edward Halfoster, Henry Czaikowski, Nicholas Schneider, and James Kane.

The production is under the direction of Robert Work. Miss Elder and Edna Bialek are in charge of costumes and Margaret Hollenbach is prompter.

Dominos Elect New Officers

Domino Club elected officers for next year at a meeting in chapel at 10 o'clock this morning. Fourteen new members were inducted into the organization.

Officers are: President, George Henry; vice-president, Margaret Hollenbach; secretary, Marjorie Frundt; and Treasurer, Jerome Denner.

Amateurs All!!!

By Seymour Mendelsohn

Recently, this writer had the unusual opportunity of visiting the auditioning room of America's foremost entertainers of the future. The scene was the second floor of the largest C. B. S. theatre in New York. The time was about noon some Thursday in the past. The characters—well let's see.

Beside me, an elderly lady with a fatigued look sat very erect in a modernistic folding chair. I first became aware of my peculiar neighbor when I located the source of a most irritating rasping sound which went something like this, "do-do-do mi-mi-mi hhm-m ah-h, etc., ad infinitum. At first, I thought that we had animal visitors. Maybe it was the fleas (on the dog) whispering to each other. All my ideas on the subject were dispelled when I noticed the lips of Amateur No. 1 (no commercial announcements are allowed in this column) moving rapidly in an awkward fashion. This was sufficient. I realized then that the lady was just testing her vocal cords and trying her best to remain calm in face of the terrific ordeal which was soon to overtake her. Reluctantly, I resolved myself to the horrible waiting which would only end when the "Lady with the Tin Voice" would enter into the inner sanctum to perform before her masters.

To relieve the torturous monotony of the incomparable, unceasing vocal cords besides me, I studied Amateur No. 2 who sat near me. This was a case. The creature dressed in a black shirt with white polka dots, dirty and torn chaps which showed long and hard use, and a silky, black sombrero was none other than Yodelin Joe of the

Prof. Buckwalter Serves Tea

Prof. Henry G. Buckwalter entertained at a tea at his home Saturday afternoon from four until five o'clock.

His guests included members of the faculty and their wives and fraternity brothers of Z. O. E. and their guests.

Among the guests were Dr. and Mrs. Harry Masters, Dean and Mrs. George W. Walton, Dean Ethel Norton and Mr. and Mrs. John C. Evans.

Science Notes

By Harold Werner

On Tuesday, May 21, science will again bring to our campus one of its distinguished proponents. This time, however, it will be one of our own alumni. The occasion which brings this visitor to our campus is the 10th anniversary meeting of the Reading Chemist Club.

After an anniversary dinner in the college dining hall with the club and speaker as guests of the college, Dr. Benjamin G. Wiles of the Mellon Institute of Pittsburgh—a graduate of Albright College, Class of 1929, Myerstown—will speak on the subject: "Detergents."

Dr. Wiles a graduate of Columbia, specializing in organic chemistry, is an authority on this subject. He has written many articles to scientific magazines and has spoken before the American Chemical Society.

Dr. Clarence Horn spoke to a McCann's Business School sorority on Tuesday on the subject: "Physiology of the Female Reproductive System."

The May 10 new edition of "Industrial and Engineering Chemistry" contained an excellent account of the annual I. S. C. Convention which was held at Albright on April 20. The article gives a very fine reflection on Albright's hospitality.

The month of May is "Tuberculosis Educational Month." The medical profession is attempting to make people more "tuberculosis-conscious." Dr. Horn is taking an active part in this movement. On Tuesday, May 22, he presented a lecture on tuberculosis at a P. T. A. meeting at Kutztown. The seniors were given tuberculin tests this week.

Dr. Graham Cook attended a meeting of the Association of Collegiate Schools of Nursing in Philadelphia, May 10.

Tonight a group from Albright will attend the meeting of the Lehigh Valley section of the American Chemical Society. The guest speaker will be Dr. Wanda K. Farr of Boyce Thompson Institute, Yonkers, N. Y., Dr. Farr will speak on the subject: "Formation and Behavior of Crystalline Cellulose in Living Cells."

The Skull and Bones held its monthly meeting Monday evening. The following topics were presented: "Metabolism of Carbohydrates," Bessie Knerr; "Haematoxiline," Howard Diamond; "Injurious Insects of Berks County," Donald Sands; "Sir William Osler," Martin Epstein; "Robert Koch," William Butcher.

All Bright Observations

By ALFRED COMSTOCK

In the Spring a young man's fancy lightly turns from books, tests and terms papers 'n all that sorta stuff to a whole lot of other kinda stuff!

While getting in my final hours of observation down at Northeast Junior, last week, and feeling very much like the "man who comes around," I had time to do a good deal of ruminating about the whole situation.

In the course of my vernal cogitations, I have come to the following conclusions:

The Springtime is THE time of the year. It is the last part of the school year, and it's the last part that counts. It is the growing time . . . the joyous blooming time, for both love and flowers those two inseparable and insuperable life ingredients.

As applied to Albright and Reading, and openly manifested these last two weeks, it is in the springtime when the Chapel magnolia helps to make the Chapel really beautiful; that prostrate and semi-prostrate Albrightians line the banks from the science hall terrace to the Theolog walk; that peripatetic ice cream wagons make their rounds to dispense with their cargoes of frozen assest; that 15 Zeta house inmates congregate on the Zeta House porch Tuesday nights and hold songfests for over an hour and a half; that picnic outings, softball games, and formal dances monopolize the college calendar; that Anne Benninger travels around campus on a bicycle; that Albrightians take past-midnight rambles and stop the three a. m. "St. Lawrence Special;" that Moser's is kept open after 11.00 o'clock; that the town is terrorized with Hell Week antics; that eminent Reading collegians enjoy strawberry-ries and double size servings of butter in the dining hall, forsake the parlor for the great out-of-doors, and oh, any number of other things.

Incidentally, where else could the campus become so completely Hell-enized that three whole days are given the appellation, "Hell Week?"

Springtime? Lifetime! Ah yes! And, as Robert "Love All" Work observed, "The spring's the thing!—next to the Greek play!"

Inter-Frat Loop In Home Stretch

Inter-Fraternity softball enters into its last week of play with the championship very much in doubt. Seven games are scheduled for next week and three postponed games are yet to be played.

The T. F. B., leaders in the first three weeks of play dropped their first game to the Zetas, 8-3, thus allowing the Zetas to get within one-half game of the rung while victories over the A. P. O.'s and Pi Taus kept the Kappas in third place.

An important game will be played tonight when the Kappas meet the T. F. B. in an after-supper affair. The Kappas must win to keep in the championship race while the T. F. B. must win to hold the first place.

The standings today:

T. F. B.	6	1
Zetas	5	1
Kappas	4	2
A. P. O.	2	3

Trackmen Meet St. Jos' In Postponed Cinder Affair

Lose To Ursinus; Netmen After Second Win

Two sophomore sensations, Clem Boland and Jim Breen, will lead the Lions this afternoon in Philadelphia against St. Joseph's College in a postponed dual meet. The Quaker City school is looking for its third successive win over Bill Dietz's squad.

The Red and White's hope for their first track victory of the short season is carried on the shoulders of these two second-year men who collected 19 of Albright's 44-points garnered for a losing cause against Ursinus last Tuesday. The Bruins, of Collegeville, handed the Lions a 82-44 lacing for their second successive loss. Dickinson administered the first defeat two weeks ago. Susquehanna will be visitors in the stadium on Tuesday afternoon for the final track meet of the season.

Clem Boland, former Mt. Penn High flash, stood out for the Red and White with sensational victories in the 220-yard dash and the quarter mile. The sophomore cracked the stadium record for the 440 with a 51.9 gallop and copped the 220 with an excellent 21.9 effort which was two-fifths of a second off the Bear stadium mark.

Jim Breen collected his nine points by annexing the century in the fast time of 10.2 trying for first in the pole vault with Paul Petrucka and Ken Kochel, and finishing third in the 220.

Summaries:

Track Events

120-yard hurdles—Won by Ingham, Ursinus; second, Sonine, Ursinus; third, Sehl, Albright. Time 17 seconds.

100-yard dash—Won by Breen, Albright; second, Irvin, Ursinus; third, Raban, Ursinus. Time 10.2 seconds.

One mile run—Won by Wadsworth, Ursinus; second, Golis, Albright; third, Jowitz, Ursinus. Time 4:58.6.

440-yard run—Won by Boland, Albright; second, Irvin, Ursinus; third, Thorpe, Albright. Time 51.9 seconds (New Stadium record).

One-half mile—Won by Jowitz, Ursinus; second, Mulligan, Ursinus; third, Killany, Albright. Time 2:14.7.

220-yard dash—Won by Boland, Albright second, Irvin, Ursinus third, Breen, Albright. Time 21.9 seconds.

220-yard low hurdles—Won by Ingham, Ursinus; second, Conine, Ursinus; third Bertino, Albright. Time 26.3 seconds.

The tennis squad will attempt to post its second straight triumph today when it meets Susquehanna on the latter's courts. A victory over the up-state school will give the Lions a .500 percentage as they captured their first match last Friday, topping Wyomissing Polytechnic Institute, 7-2. As you remember, Coach Resch's boys dropped their first two matches of the season, falling victim to Muhlenberg, 9-0, in the opener and to Drew, 6-3, in the second match.

On Tuesday, the squad will travel to Bethlehem to meet Moravian College for the last intercollegiate match of the abbreviated season. The only other match scheduled is with the Alumni on June 8.

The team came through with some impressive scores in the Polytechnic match last Friday on the 11th and Pike courts. Ray Hain gave only two games to his opponent while Captain Burger whitewashed his man by allowing nary a game.

The Polytech summary:

Singles: Hain beat Heim, W.P.I., 6-0, 6-2; Burger beat Rosendale, W. P. I., 6-0, 6-0; Walton beat Erst, W.P.I. 6-3, 6-4; Winnesik, W.P.I., beat Williams, 6-0, 2-6, 6-0; Spatz beat Miller, W.P.I., 7-5, 4-6, 7-5.

Doubles: Hain and Burger beat Heim and Erst, W.P.I., 6-1, 6-2; Williams and Heisey beat Wirneick and Palmisano, W.P.I., 4-3, 6-3; Pappas and Joseph, W.P.I., beat Walton and Pomeroy, 2-3, 8-6.

2-mile run—Williams, Ursinus; second, Adams, Ursinus; third, Victor Gigli, Albright. Time 11:15.

Field Events

Discus throw—Won by Ehlers, Ursinus; second, Selfridge, Ursinus; third, Golis, Albright. Distance 119 feet, 6 inches.

Broad jump—Won by Frohner, Ursinus; second, Bitting, Albright; third, Conine, Ursinus. Distance 20 feet, 3 1/2 inches.

Pole vault—Triple tie for first between Petrucka, Breen and Kochel all of Albright. Height 11 feet.

Shot put—Won by Morrow, Ursinus; second, Zecky, Ursinus; third, Westgate, Albright. Distance 39 feet, 4 inches.

High jump—Won by Huckel, Ursinus; second, Levallan, Ursinus; third, Michaels, Albright. Height 5 feet, 9 inches.

Javelin—Won by Johnson, Albright; second, Tulan, Ursinus; third, Jowitz, Ursinus. Distance 156 feet, 2 inches.

Well, it finally happened. The long postponed touch-football championship has been decided. On Monday afternoon, the Kappas and the Pi Taus had it out on the field and the Kappas emerged victorious by the score of 6-0. Bud Brandenburg ran 80 yards for the winning touchdown and the championship. The members of the winning squad are Bishop Halfoster, Jack Boardman, Sam Sehl, Joseph Morris, Bud Brandenburg, and Stanley Rosanski.

Tomorrow afternoon the annual inter-fraternity track meet will be held at the Stadium. No one who has earned his letter in track or is a member of the present track squad will be eligible. The Day Students are the defending champions. The student body usually turns out in full force to see the fellows do or die for their fraternity. And some really die, so come down and see the fun.

The girls' activities were very limited this week. There was only one softball game played and in that game the Non-Sorority girls took the measure of the Mu's, 12-11. Today, the girl's archery and tennis teams travel to Lebanon Valley College at Annville for matches.

Bob Giomotti is just another of the Albright baseball players making good in the Berks Recreation League. Bobby plays a lot of shortstop for the Temple team as he has yet to make his first error at the infield post. The little sophomore is also setting a terrific pace for the Temple team with the willow. Last Sunday he had a perfect day at the dish gathering three hits in three tries.

This column wants to salute Clem Boland for his record breaking performance at Ursinus, last Tuesday, when he ran the 440 in 51.9 seconds. The sophomore sensation got off to a bad start at Dickinson but has now definitely established himself among the "greats" in Albright's track history with his record.

AMATEURS ALL

Rusty Two-Bar Ranch. At his feet, there lay a shepherd dog—a husky animal who kept eyeing our songstress with suspicion. Yodelin Joe appeared as if her had stepped out of the corral (after leaning on the old top rail) into the room without stopping to change clothes or tobacco. He seemed very adept at rolling his own. He informed me in the rather unenlightening conversation that, he and his dog, Sandust, had traveled "10,000—no, only 2,000 miles in the last two—er—I mean five days." Imagine the urge that must have seized this hombre of the West to travel two-thirds across the country to yodel into a little metal box—screened, dimensions 5x2x2, and fired on the top of a 5½ foot stand. Imagine, if you can, the hardships and pains which we had to endure before he reached the Atlantic coast. Of such material are some amateurs and fools made. I was sorry that Yodelin Joe had not told me by what means he came to New York. After looking at his untidy figure, one immediately ignored the possibility of certain media. He surely didn't come by train, car, bus, or airplane—unless it was in the baggage compartment. Curiosity took hold of me. I gazed out of the window into the street and was satisfied to learn that no horse was tied to the sign pole which proclaimed the intersection to be W. 53rd and Broadway.

Across the room set a trio: Boy-friend, daughter (Amateur No. 3), and mother. One was for guidance and the other for inspiration. The girl was a vocalist, but did her practicing at home. She was fortunate in being chosen for the next broadcast.

In one of the practice rooms, six boys were warming up harmonicas. One of these, Amateur No. 4b, had an excess of instruments: three in his vest, two in side pocket, special one for hot licks in his back pocket, and old faithful—in his mouth. They played everything from Auld Lang Syne to Tuxedo Junction.

A very interesting group were the outlaws from East Orange. The outlaws (they looked a little tame) were dressed in the characteristic garments of those notorious gunmen who roam the Woolly West. Complete, except for six-shooters, spurs, lariat and bowie knife, the outlaws presented a sharp contrast.

By 1 P. M., the audition room had emptied its occupants and peace once more reigned. Gone were the "Tin Voice," "Yodelin' Joe and Sandust," the "Harmonica Wizards," the "Jersey Outlaws," and the "Colored Mammy with the Crystal Clear Voice." Only Hugo, the janitor, remained. And with a weary spirit, he muttered, "Amateurs all, bahl!"
