certs In Western Part of State

TRAVEL OVER 500 MILES

Cancellations Endanger Trip, But Girls Make Good And Put It Over

The western trip of the Girls' Glee Club ended on April the sixteenth, when the group returned from the city of Johnstown in their auto-buss. Due to cancellation of two dates before the trip, it was almost impossible to send the club out, but in spite of these misfortunes a successful tour was managed. The concerts were very well received everywhere, especially the full sacred concert which was given three times during the week. The trip was also a success financially, for expenses and a small amount above were brot home to the treasury.

On Monday the ninth, the buss left Lebanon with some of the girls. At Harrisburg the rest of the group was taken on, and then came the trip to Jennerstown, over the Lincoln Highway. A stop was made there over-night, and the next morning the buss took the club into Pittsburgh. Dinner was eaten at Donahue's Cafeteria, and then all the girls went to the theatre, where they saw Clara Bow in "Red Hair." The first concert was given by the club that nite (Continued on Page Two.)

COMMENCEMENT ORATOR DEFINITELY DECIDED

Judge Wickersham, Prominent Pennsylvania Jurist Accepts Dr. Bowman's Invitation To Be The Speaker

The Commencement Orator for this year as announced by Dr. Bowman, last Friday morning in Chapel, will be Judge Frank Borbridge Wickersham, of the twelfth Judicial District, Harrisburg, Pa.

Judge Wickersham is a product of Pennsylvania's State Normal School System. He also holds degrees of Master of Arts and Doctor of Laws from Gettysburg College. Previous to practicing law he was a public school teacher. Judge Wickersham is a nephew of the great Pennsylvania Educator, Dr. James Wickersham, a former Superintendent of Public Instruction, and is one of the most prominent judges in Pennsylvania today.

The acceptance by Judge Wickersham of Dr. Bowman's invitation assures us that that part of the Commencement program will be a great success.

Albright can be proud to obtain such a brilliant man as Judge Wickersham as Commencement speaker.

DRAMATIC CLUB GIVES TWO ONE ACT PLAYS

"The Maker Of Dreams" and "The Travelers" Well Done In The Club's
Initial Appearance

If you did not tune in on your radio Tuesday evening and hear the two plays broadcast by the Dramatic Club, of Albright College, from station ACDC, you are the unfortunate one, for those who availed themselves of this opportunity considered it a rare treat.

The chapel, from which the evening's entertainment was broadcast was practically filled.

"The Maker of Dreams", a royalty play, which was put on by special permission from Samuel French, was (Continued On Page Two)

Y. M. C. A. ELECTS 1928-29 OFFICERS

Carl Gunther Named President of Organization In Close Ballot Against
"Ben" Wilkes

"BOB" LUNDY VICE-PRESIDENT

The "Y. M. C. A. Smoker", held in the "Y" room, April 17th, was a great success, not only from the standpoint of attendance, but from the standpoint of jolly good fellowship.

Songs were sung and cigars passed before the regular business of the evening, i.e. the election of officers was taken up.

Those who were elected to take up the work for next year are as follows:

President—Carl Gunther.
Vice President—Robert Lundy.
Secretary—J. W. Burger.
Treasurer—Lester Williams.

Refreshments were served, after which Paul Price, of the class of '26 gave an interesting talk on the work of the Y. M. C. A. He referred to the organization as having done very good work on the Campus and urged (Continued on Page Three)

MEN'S GLEE CLUB HAS SATISFACTORY JOURNEY

Well Received By Enthusiastic Audi-

OTHER CONCERTS SCHEDULED

The men of the Male Glee Club always look forward with a great deal of anticipation to the annual Easter trip. For years it has been a very delightful trip, as well as a profitable one. This year, because of the radical changes in the size and appearance of the club, the outcome was at first doubtful.

But the suspense was not long. After the first number in the concert at Ringtown there was no doubt but that the Club was as good if not better than any that had preceded it. The trip was uneventful and there wasn't a single flat tire on any of the automobiles. Of course there were a few headaches, but they were ironed out at the Williamsport Y. M. C. A.

The club made a fine appearance in their white flannel trousers and (Continued on Page Three)

SOPH BOYS DEFEAT FROSH IN TITLE GAME

Intramural Championship Won In Hard Fought Battle By Small
Score of 9-8

When the Frosh girls gave the Sops an overwhelming defeat on Tuesday afternoon, April 17th, by a score of 39-5 it tied the contesting teams for the championship of girls' interclass basketball. This necessitated the playing of the deciding game on Thursday afternoon. With enthusiasm running high on all sides, the opposing teams entered the final and most exciting game of the intramural league. No game this season has been so fast or so hotly contested as this one. The Frosh forwards scored first, but the Sops soon overtook and outscored them. At the end of the half the score stood 9-5 in favor of the Sophomores. Both teams came back into the game with renewed fighting spirit. The Frosh with diligent effort raised their tally three points before the referee's whistle put (Continued on Page Two)

SPEAKERS CLUB HAS A REORGANIZATION

Wilkes Elected As First President—Constitution Discussed And Amendments Are Passed

At the final meeting of the Social Problem Class, Thursday night, the Speaker's Club of Albright College was reorganized, and the following officers were elected:

President—Benjamin Wilkes.
Vice President—Norma Michael.
Sec'y-Treas.—LeNora Hemstreet.

The question of the Constitution of the Speaker's Club was discussed, and an amendment made to Article II, thus making all varsity and sub members of the debating teams likewise members of the Speaker's Club. The following activities are included in the Speaker's Club: Inter-society Debating, Men's Debating, Ladies' Debating, East Penn. Oratorical Contest, Constitution Oratorical Contest, Peace Oratorical Contest. A new activity will be added to this list next year, that of an annual Frosh-Soph debate.

Plans were made to begin the Debating season at the opening of school in Sept. The season will be (Continued on Page Four)

RECITALS AND MUSICAL PROGRAMS SCHEDULED

Remaining Weeks Of School Year To Be Filled With Recital And Other Musical Numbers

For lovers of music the most enjoyable time of the school year is fast approaching. The seniors and juniors in the Department of Music will soon be heard from the platform in the college chapel. This year there is an abundance of material in these classes and wonderful things are expected. The piano students have been under the tutelage of Mrs. Welker almost entirely and we know her ability. The voice students have been coached entirely by Miss Strasser and there again we are sure of fine work being displayed. (Continued on Page Four)

EDITORIALS

OUR POLICIES

1. Fair treatment for all.
2. Full support of all student enterprises.
3. Athletics for all.
4. Progress in all respects—curricular and extra-curricular.
5. Increased student activity and honor.
6. An Albright individuality.

"THE ENDING of the old regime and the beginning of the new." That is how they labeled the announcement of the new staff members as well as the laying aside of the old ones. And, as the old staff members have served you faithfully, recording, praising, blaming, to the best of their ability, so may the new staff members serve you just as much, perhaps more sometimes, and criticizing as there is need for criticism.

Old or new we can but do our best—and so our very best is what you shall have.

COMPENSATION

The question, "How much?" we say is being asked too often in our generation. We preach that one should not work for merely the compensation that one will receive.

But there is a just reward for earnest efforts and it is an inevitable one. Probably not always a visible or material one, but nevertheless the deserving one is rewarded. We have just lately heard the good news that one of our alumni has just been honored at Columbia University. He deserved the reward and the honor because he had worked.

We cannot hope to receive an honest reward without earning it through diligent efforts. Those of us who are still in college would do well to consider this. We all want success and material blessing, and we all are so egotistic as to appreciate being honored. Do not be deceived. Only through earnest effort can we attain any one of these means of compensation.

But there are exceptions. Some receive without earning. But it is not lasting. It soon dies and a panic results. Let us who want success and material blessing no longer continue to deceive ourselves. Let us work hard and long, and never give up the ship until we shall be called to realms beyond mortal comprehension and physical magnitudes.

ATHLETICS FOR ALL

Athletics for all—Albright's lasting tradition is again evident when we take note of the fine shape into which the tennis courts are being placed by the managers, with the help of the Freshmen boys. We are glad to see that the tennis court on the Main Hall campus is receiving attention along with the other two courts. This spring ought to witness a great tennis season for Albright, not only because of the probable use of the third court, but because general enthusiasm is running high. Tennis is a sport which even those who do not take part in any other form of athletics can play. So when the courts are again ready for use let's keep up the tradition and try to make tennis a sport for everyone.

very well presented. The scene was that of a room in an old cottage. The plot, that of two minstrel singers who are putting on a show. The singer becomes discouraged with life, but hopes are revived when the manufacturer, who is a maker of dreams, tells him of a real dream which has been made for him. He awakens to find his partner the real answer to his dream—the celebrated dream called "Love."

The scene of "The Travelers," a comedy, is laid in an out-of-way town in Sicily, where two American families have stopped at an inn for the night, each ignorant of the other's presence. They become greatly frightened at the various sounds, flickering lights, pallid people, etc. Morning proves their fears to have been false, the two families find each other, and continue their journey together.

The scenery, costumes, make-up and acting of these plays showed the result of efforts and talent on the parts of both the members of the club, and of Mrs. Landis, the coach. Both major and minor characters were equally well given, and the Dramatic Club is to be complimented on their first real production, which has proved to be very successful.

She—You must be very fond of automobiles.

He—What makes you think that?

She—I heard you have a truck farm!

"Parrakeet's Prattle"

Hello Folks—Here's Parrakeet Talkin' to you all again after a wonderful Easter vacation, with nothing but happiness, happiness, happiness. Not that Parrakeet isn't happy when he's talking—oh, no, don't think that for a minute.

Parrakeet feels sort o' inexperienced today. Feel 's if he didn't know a thing, but was just startin' out in life. That may be 'cause some animals (the kind wha skeers birds) have nine lives, so 'guess maybe Parrakeet's entitled to two.

Just before Parrakeet was taking the delightful vacation, he was flying around outside Mohn Hall and happened to look in one of those Reception room windows—What 'ya think he saw? Boys and girls, more boys and girls, most boys and girls. My lands, they were having a good time—and Parrakeet heard a whisper flutter by that said, "The Freshman Party."

Rain, rain, rain—Parrakeet doesn't really like it 'cause it rumples all his feathers when he tries to fly around and besides—it takes away the things he likes most to prattle about—Cases! When the weather is beautiful and sunny, he can see the boys and girls strolling around together and sometimes Parrakeet thinks they don't look familiar, so then he knows it's time to yell "New case, new case!"

Oh, oh, oh—Parrakeet's so happy—he was looking at the calendar and (of course, even Parrakeet can read) was counting up the weeks until time to go home. Only six more, but the bestest part is all the nice things that will happen between now and then. It's so much fun to go snoopin' around and enjoyin' everything with everybody. Pick up lots of pep, Girls and Boys, 'cause Parrakeet's just brimming over. Rah, Rah!

Last night Parrakeet woke up with a sudden start and looked around—how disappointing! He must have been dreaming! He had seen a beautiful queen—a Queen of May and a Maypole with characters of Mother Goose fitting around it. Everything was so pretty and Parrakeet wanted to see more, but he opened his eyes on only the same green campus. Just think tho' what is in store for Parrakeet—May Day is coming!

GIRLS GLEE CLUB RETURNS AFTER SUCCESSFUL TRIP

in the Lorenz Ave. Evangelical Church. To say the least, it "went over big."

Wednesday afternoon, the club came into South Fork thru an annoying snowstorm. By request the sacred program was given in the Evangelical Church of that town.

Arrangements had been made to sing in the Adams Township High School, of which Howard Blank, an Albright alumnus, is principal. A very peppy secular concert was given in the chapel service, and it was greatly enjoyed by the pupils. That evening the scheduled program was given in the Evangelical Church in Moxham to a most appreciative audience. This seems to have been the best concert given by the girls on the trip, according to several reports.

The next nite the concert was given in the First Evangelical Church at Johnstown, and on Friday a spirited concert was given in the Dale High School.

On Sunday morning the quartette sang in Dale, and other members of the club appeared in other churches. The club then gave their sacred concert in Dale church in the afternoon to a large audience which enjoyed the program to the full. A very liberal offering was lifted for the club. The evening concert was given in the Moxham church, to the largest audience of the tour. A record offering was also lifted, inspired by the splendid rendition of the sacred numbers on the programs.

At eight o'clock on Monday morning the club left Moxham for Myerstown, stopping for dinner in Huntingdon, and reaching the college shortly before seven o'clock. The trip as a whole was the most profitable and enjoyable one ever taken west, thanks to the kindly reception by all the churches where concerts were presented.

ALBRIGHT'S BEST WURST

This Week's Conundrum

When is a music teacher like a base-ball coach?

RED & WHITE QUARTET SINGS AT SCHUYLKILL

Last week-end the Red and White Quartette made two journeys, one to Schuylkill College and the other to Baltimore, Md. Thursday evening the Quartette made its way to Schuylkill, where they were served with dinner after which they gave one of their best concerts that they ever rendered before a capacity house. The concert was under the auspices of the Theological Students for the purpose of promoting better friendship between the two schools. They were given a reception after the concert, and discussed the merger of the two schools, and how to create better feeling amongst the students of both.

Friday they went to Baltimore, where they made their third appearance. That evening they sang in the Brooklyn Evangelical church before a large and appreciative audience.

Saturday they sang in the St. Matthew's Evangelical Church of which Milton R. Wilkes, of the Class of '26, is the pastor. Here they gave their concert in good style. At this same church they gave a sacred concert Sunday morning.

Honor, and the other attendants will be the Misses May Cooper, Dorothy Dundore, Margaret Ebling, Irene Wolfe, Irene Wright, Virginia Zener and Catherine Kulp.

The theme of May Day this year will be "Mother Goose" and once again the many characters that captured our imagination in our childhood days will greet us, and delight our eye with their fantastic dress and dance.

Miss Ellen Miles was elected dress-tress this year. Miss Cooper and Miss Steltz are the executive assistants of Miss Miles.

blue coat, and it was the unanimous decision of all the audiences who had heard the Glee when it wore the full dress that the change was a great deal for the better.

The program was a varied one and one that would suit the average American audience. There were classical numbers, negro spirituals and popular numbers. The special numbers were exceptionally well received, especially the Red and White Quartette. Morris and Zener, playing violin and cello respectively, were received everywhere with great applause and certainly deserve it. This is the second year of their appearance on the program and their success has always been a fact.

Several receptions were given to the members of the club at different places, but usually the boys were able to take care of themselves after the concert. Nevertheless the boys appreciated the little parties after their strenuous efforts during the concert.

Several places deserve special mention for their efforts in filling the auditorium or church to capacity, and in the fine entertainment which they offered to the boys. Milton has in the past several years been one of the finest Albright boosters. Two years ago they filled the High School Auditorium to capacity, and although this year the crowd was not so large, it was a very appreciative one, and the people who were acting as the sponsors are to be highly commended. The reception after the concert by the Milton Male Chorus was an attractive and well planned one.

Probably one of the best audiences to sing to was the one that greeted the club at Millifenburg. Despite its smallness, it was a very agreeable one, and showed its appreciation voluminously.

At Lock Haven the glee sangs to the largest audience. The Evangelical Church was filled to more than its capacity and several hundred were turned away.

At Jersey Shore, too, the church was filled to capacity and a wonderful concert given.

Although at the other places the audiences were not so large and so appreciative yet the concert was well received and showed that the boys were working hard and that their efforts were being rewarded.

There are a few more concerts to be given this year. We are hoping that they will be even more successful than any of the others.

Miss Strassner is to be highly commended in the selection of music and for her earnest efforts and her coaching of the club.

RONALD COLMAN—VILMA BANKY CO-STARRED IN "THE MAGIC FLAME"

Samuel Goldwyn, producer of "The Night of Love", "The Dark Angel" and other distinguished films, offers as the piece de resistance of his career the new Ronald Colman-Vilma Banky film, "The Magic Flame", coming to the Myerstown Theatre this Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Directed by Henry King, maker of "Stella Dallas", and adapted by Bess Meredith from Rudolph Lothar's play, "King Harlequin", "The Magic Flame" is a story of clowns and counts, circus and court, love and laughter.

Samuel Goldwyn emphasized in a wire to Manager Kreiser, when the latter booked "The Magic Flame" through United Artists Corporation that the new Colman-Banky film has been made by practiced, expert hands.

Next week, on Thurs. Fri. and Sat., Ramon Novarro and Norma Shearer will be seen in "The Student Prince." This picture comes direct to Myerstown from the Astor Theatre in New York City, where "The Student Prince" played for seven months at $2.00 prices. It is showing here next week at our regular prices.—Adv.

NEGATIVE OUTDEBATES AFFIRMATIVE IN LEBANON

State Spirited Forensic Encounter Before Rotary Club After Eating Italian Dinner At Moyer's

ROTARY AUDIENCE DECISION

"All those in favor of the Affirmative say 'aye.'"

Silence reigned. A match stick was heard dropping on the floor.

"All right, all in favor of Negative."

Aye, Aye, and the sound of men's voices filled the hall with a thunderous din.

Such was the conclusion to the debate staged between the Albright affirmative and negative teams before the Rotary Club in Lebanon, last Tuesday—the same day that the Albright students returned from their Easter recess. In a spirited forensic contest held in Moyer's restaurant sixty Rotarians were convinced that the direct primary system should be retained. The solution that the affirmative had been inadequate.

The speakers for the affirmative in a two-man fray were Heckert and Captain Hood, with Wadsworth speaking for Hood in rebuttal. The main speeches were cut down to eight minutes, and the rebuttals four, because of a lack of time. The speakers for the victorious negative team were Flory and Captain Loucks.

Dr. C. A. Bowman who is a member of the Rotarian club acted as chairman of the debate after the Rotarian president handed the program over to him after dinner had been served and a short business meeting transacted.

Before the debate was held a special Italian dinner was served, in which the debaters participated along with the rotarians. The dinner was held in honor of the Premier of Sicily, Monsignore Sattia.

The evening and entertainment were declared a great success by the Rotarians, who gave the debaters a glowing write-up in the Lebanon dailies the following day.

SENIORS DEFEAT JUNIORS—FROSH TROUCE SOPHS IN INTER-CLASS BASEBALL

A new sport has been found on the campus of Albright, in the form of an out-door base-ball league. On Tuesday, the Seniors and Juniors opened the season with the Juniors defeating the Seniors in a hard fought battle. Everyone was held in suspense until the final put-out. This sport has created a great deal of interest and enthusiasm about the school. This was especially noticed in the first game when all the girls from the hall turned out to witness the game and cheer their respective teams.

Thursday, the "frosh" and Sophomores hooked up with the yearlines, finishing on top by a one-sided score of 15-1. Each team is preparing to strengthen their teams for the next games and it is hoped that each class will have a score-keeper on the scene so that an authentic one can be received for publication.

C. E. ELECTION POSTPONED

The Christian Endeavor Society met in the college chapel Sunday evening, shortly after six o'clock. The purpose of the meeting was the election of officers for the coming year. As the attendance was small Kneller suggested that the election be postponed to a later date. His suggestion was put in form of a motion and was unanimously accepted. A song service was substituted and enjoyed by all.

Father—How is it that you failed on every subject at school?

Son—I had an absent-minded professor and he forgot to pass me.

WRITERS' CLUB HOLDS INTERESTING MEETING

Dr. Weber Gave Enjoyable Talk To Members At Meeting In Mohn Hall

Dr. Weber gave a very interesting speech at the regular meeting of the Writers' Club, in Mohn Hall reception room, Wednesday evening. His talk was greatly enjoyed by all present, and it is hoped by the club that it may have the opportunity of again hearing him. Following Dr. Weber's speech, which was the outstanding feature of the evening, was held the regular Open Forum, at which time various members read their contributions and had them criticized by the club.

UNUSUAL CHAPEL SERVICE HELD FRIDAY MORNING—PROF. NAGRO SOLOIST

The chapel service last Friday morning was of more than usual interest. Besides the song service led by Glynn Morris, president of the Y. M. C. A. Prof. Nagro head of the newly organized Violin Department, played two selections. He first played, "Broken Melody" by Biene, the number was well received and he responded with Kreisler's arrangement of the "Old Refrain." Both numbers were rendered in a true musical style. Prof. Nagro is a very able violinist and he is also taking work, leading to an A. B. degree.

HELEN UHRICH NEW GIRLS DEBATE MANAGER

The Girls' Debating teams met Wednesday afternoon, April 18th, and elected as their business manager for next year, Helen Uhrich, a member of the present Affirmative team, and Henrietta Spangler, a member of the present Negative team, as assistant business manager.

In appreciation of the splendid work of Virginia Zener, as Business Manager, Helen Uhrich, assistant Manager, Irene Wright, affirmative captain, and Henrietta Spangler, Negative Captain, a rising vote of thanks was given by the girls.

MYERSTOWN HIGH PRINCIPAL APPOINTED TO EPHRATA HIGH

Chester H. Hartzler, '14, has been appointed as supervising principal of the Ephrata Schools for next year. For the last four years he has been filling this same position very creditably in the Myerstown schools. He goes to a town about twice the size of Myerstown, and the system is also twice as large. This will be a promotion which he has well deserved.

AN IDEAL VACATION JOB

SHOULD BE PROFITABLE, ENJOYABLE, AND EDUCATIONAL.

Students are earning exceptionally good wages selling Donald Brushes. In many instances students have earned more than a year's expense at College, during the three months of Summer Vacation.

Students find selling Donald Brushes a pleasant occupation.

Salesmanship as learned by actual experience in the selling field will be of great value later in your professional life.

The Donald salesman is able to offer real service to housewives as the highest quality material and workmanship go into the manufacture of all Donald Products. Every Donald Brush bears our trade-mark of Quality, is fully guaranteed and endorsed by the Good House Keeping Institute.

A letter of inquiry will bring details of our proposition to students.

ALBRIGHT NINE OPEN SEASON SPLITTING EVEN

Struck out by Hamil 8, by Fritz 2.
Base on Balls—Hamil 1.
Double Plays—Wads, McGrath,
Wads.
Umpire—Immell.

Playing the first game of the 1928 season in their own balliwick, the Albright sticksmiths came into their own after dropping the opening game of the season to the powerful Lafayette crew and reversed the fortunes of war, making Bloomsburg Teachers' College, the first victim of the new season, by a count of 6-2.

With Harvey Hamil, the former Shippensburg luminary on the hurling peak, hurling his fast ones at his former normal school rivals the Red and White nine looked like the old apple crushers that they did last year, when they went through a thirteen game season undefeated. Besides hitting the old apple often and consistently, the Albright tossers also turned in some flossy fielding for an opening game. If the fielding was not up to mid-season form it did revel good prospects for the future game. After the boys can do more practicing on Albright field, they will be a much stronger defensive club.

Big "Ed" Waitkus continued to blaze the way for the batters, smashing out a double and single. As the new third sacker garnered two hits over at Easton his average is .750, showing the way to all the other members on the club. Besides striking terror into the hearts of the enemy twirlers, "Ed" also played a nice game at the "hot corner."
"Doug" Brown had the longest hit of the day, a screaming triple down the left field foul line. Later in the game "lefty" Shoap grabbed his first hit of the season, duplicating Brown's feat by smashing one of Fritz's fast ones against the fence in deep center field. It missed clearing the barricade by only a few inches. Besides Brown, Shoap and Waitkus the most effective swinging was done by Wentz, the new keystone guardian, Sherid and Hartzell, all of whom had two safe bingles.

Hamil kept the future schoolmasters in submission at all stages of the game except in one inning when McGrath lifted one of his offerings over short right field for three bases and came in on a sacrifice fly. It seemed to be a great day for three masters. Golden, the fleet alien center fielder grabbed the fourth of the day. Besides these, only two other hits found their way into the Bloomsburg credit column. Harvey's effectiveness is revealed by the mute witness of eight strike-out victims. Sherid and Gilbert formed the Albright battery in the last inning, holding the teachers in check.

The next home game will be played on May 9th, when the Wellermen cross bats with the Schuykill Lions.

Lafayette Game

Last Wednesday afternoon the Wellermen journeyed to Lafayette to pry off the lid for the present baseball season. Our boys were to open the season before the Easter vacation, but due to the weather conditions they were kept idle until after vacation.

Lafayette had the better of the conditions as they were on a trip through the south, during their spring recess. They had just returned from their trip and opened the home season, when we met them.

Sherid though hit hard, retired elude men during the fray via the strike out route. This looked mighty good for the opening game, and with a little more seasoning Jakes boys will be coming through with a good many wins before the season closes.

The work of Ed. Waitkus at the plate was the best of the day. The big third sacker accounted for three safe bingles in as many times to bat.
Brown also showed up well in the field. Looks like he has at last found his batting eye, for he collected two nice hits at opportune times.

Morrison, besides winning his game on the mound, came through with two timely hits. Two runs in the seventh inning after Albright had come from behind to tie the count

Both Morrison and Sherid, the rival hurlers, were hit hard, Lafayette connecting with Sherid's tosses for eleven safeties and Albright getting ten from Morrison's delivery. Albright was unable to make seven hits registered in the first four frames

"Can you fix me up to look like a German or a Spaniard or even a Hottentot?" asked the nervous man, who had dropped into the costumer's shop.
"Just what's the idea—do you want a costume for a masquerade party or what?" asked the puzzled shopkeeper.
"No," replied the man. "I am an Englishman and I have to go to Chicago on business."
The auctioneer, who had been whispering excitedly to a man in his audience, held up a hand for silence. "I wish to announce," he said, "that a gentleman here has had the misfortune to lose a wallet containing $2,500. He tells me that a reward of $200 will be given to anyone returning it."
After a silence a man in the crowd shouted: "I'll give $250!"
Elmer—Do you talk you sleep?
Roy—No; my wife says I'm perpetually exasperating—I only smile!

The month of May will be full for there will be a recital every Tuesday evening. The first recital will be given on the first day of the month, and will be a miscellaneous one. Piano and voice students from all classes will be on the program and a great deal of good music is promised.

On the following Tuesday, Miss Kathryn Dech and Miss Loretta Eisenhower will appear in the first of the senior recitals. Miss Dech will play and Miss Eisenhower, a soprano will sing.

The following Tuesday the second senior recital will have Miss Susanna Heinze at the piano and Miss Catherine Kulp will sing. Miss Catherine is a contralto with a very pleasing voice.

The next recital will involve three of the seniors. Miss Eisenhower and Miss Kulp will play while Mr. R. W. Feger will in all probability do both.

All of the seniors are artists of no mean ability and there is every reason to expect wonderful recitals.

The last recital in May will again be a miscellaneous one, similar to the first one in the month. Into this there will be introduced some instrumental music, in addition to the piano and voice numbers. In these varied concerts there is always something new in the way of talent that is deserving of commendation.

Mr. Harold Miles and Mr. Valentine Bashore are Juniors in the piano department, and a very talented pair they are, too. Miss Eva Loucks and Mr. Elwood McGuigan are Juniors in the Voice department, and we also know their ability. We are expecting the Junior recital to be as good as the senior recitals.

The Bulletin will devote space each week in announcing the coming programs until the end of the year, and sincerely hopes that the students will take advantage of the splendid opportunity afforded to the students of Albright College. The townspeople, too, are given a hearty invitation to attend the recitals.

The persons appearing in the first recital are: Misses Emma Immell, Mary Hetrick, Dorothy Dundore, Blanche McCauley, Violet Pontz, Flora Gross, Dora Elizabeth Miller, and Erma Kauffman. Messrs. David Thomas and Glenn Garrett will uphold the male side of the recital.

In addition to these piano and voice numbers there will be a strong quartette which promises to make this recital one of the best in the history of the school.

SPEAKER'S CLUB HAS A REORGANIZATION

Sorted through a Forensic Social and a jolly good time for everybody, and will close with a post-season banquet for the members.

The Speaker's Club cooperating with the local chapter of the TKA national debating fraternity, will publish a booklet, or pamphlet advertising these two organizations to be sent to all prospective Albright students. In this, as well as the Handbook, will be published a complete schedule of both Men's and Ladies' Debates for 1928-29, which will be arranged by the Debating Coach and officers of the Speaker's Club.

Following the business meeting, Manager Heckert suggested that the members of the club, including Dr. Weber, Debating Coach, celebrate the close of their season by a "feed" at the Taste Good Shop. This suggestion met with unanimous approval, and the result was an hour of fun and frolic, lots of good eats, a good time for all, and a laugh in every minute.

Employee—I would like an increase in salary, sir, as I am going to be married.

Employer—And you would like to have a little bigger fund to draw on for household expenses?

Employee—No, it isn't that. My future wife knows exactly how much I get, and I would like a little extra for my own use that she doesn't know about. London Passing Show.

QUESTION IS RAISED ABOUT "OLD RIVALS"

Can Albright College afford to be on the "outs" with Lebanon Valley College, and can Lebanon Valley College afford to be on the "outs" with Albright College? That is the question being asked in Lebanon today, partly because there seems to be little if anything doing in baseball, and partly because of the spirit of intense rivalry that always marked any games between the rival colleges.

Fans of both schools have been asking questions and debating whether the statement handed out by Coach Mylin is fact or merely talk. Actual information on the severing of relationships between the two Colleges seems hard to get, whether in regards to the baseball game on Memorial Day, or in any other athletic contest.

Teacher—Why is it necessary for us to chew our food?

Johnny—Because we have no giz-zard.
