

The Albrightian

VOLUME XXXVIII

READING, PA., MARCH 27, 1942

No. 23

"Youth and War" Topic of Discussion At State Convention

Forensic "Congress"
Drafts Resolutions
At Penn State

To draft resolutions on the general topic of "Youth and the War," about 125 young men and women representing 26 colleges and universities met at Penn State last week for the annual state convention of debaters.

If the debaters had been members of Congress, the subsequent resolutions would have been enacted into the federal law. Colleges throughout the country would institute a scientific program of vocational guidance for all students to aid them in selecting the career for which they are best fitted so that they could contribute most to the war effort.

College women would enroll in classes for one or more of the following fields: civilian defense, nursing, stenography, business, nutrition, and technology. Also, all women between the ages of 18 and 35 inclusive would be registered for such training and service as Congress would provide.

Youths between the ages of 16 and 20 would be organized into a special reserve category to receive instruction in military tactics and technical skills for defense. Youth not in the armed forces would be conscripted for civilian defense.

The legislators would also extend government loans and increase N.Y.A. aid to college students who depend upon summer work to finance their education.

The right of freedom of speech, press, and radio would not be abridged and free elections would continue unhampered. No attempts would be made to restrict political opposition aimed at improving the war effort.

These are only a few of the resolutions adopted at the convention. They represent, however, careful thinking and deliberation and are proof that college youth understand the nature of the present war.

Bustles In Vogue At Bizarre Tonight

The Bustle Bizarre presents tonight at 9:30 in the chapel, the racey melodrama, "Fireman, Save My Child!" This bit of drama features curvish femininity, brawny masculinity, and sniveling, moustache-twisting, "cur-idity."

There will be ice cream served at 7:30 p. m. in the romantic atmosphere of an old-fashioned ice cream parlor, the girl daystudents' room. Strawberry blondes and beau brummels will do the serving.

In the dining hall there will be other, quite different, features to entertain the party-goers. With everything set in the best finery of the Gay Nineties, one will be able to find fun and frolic in various pastimes such as, fishing for pickerel and bass in the fish pond, deducing the experts in guessing weight, age, etc., and bicycle riding.

(Continued on page 3, column 2)

A B C To Elect Officers On Wednesday At Noon

The Albright Business Club will hold election of officers at 1:00 p. m., Wednesday, April 1, 1942. The nominations were held this week.

Field Trip Taken By German Class

Refugee Entertains
At German Club

On Tuesday afternoon of last week Dr. Gerrit Memming and his class in Pennsylvania German, which has been studying the history of the Pennsylvania German culture, took a field trip to the Berks County Historical Society Museum. Miss Marjorie Hollenbach spoke on the subject, "Die Schwenkfelder."

On the same Tuesday, in the evening, the German Club had as its guest, Frau Johanna Meyer, a German refugee. Before she left Germany in 1938, she was noted in Berlin and its environs as a lecturer, and dramatics teacher. Frau Meyer has the distinction of being the first woman ever to broadcast from Berlin; this took place in 1924. She entertained the club by giving a brief summary of radio broadcasting and the advances it has made in Germany. Frau Meyer ably demonstrated her dramatic ability with several German readings, including ballads from Goethe and Schiller. To climax the evening she read a German version of one of Anderson's fairy tales.

Mu Magic Lotion Makes Hands Smooth, Also Good For After Shaving Creme

By PEG HENRY

"Do you have hands a man dreams of? Are your hands romantically appealing? If not, why don't you put your problem into the hands of the Mu Sorority, sole distributors and manufacturers of 'Mu Magic'?" Yes, at last, we have put on the market a hand lotion whose secret ingredients have been handed down among the Mu's for many sorority generations.

"It takes only a few seconds every day to have almost professional care for your hands . . . right in the dorm. 'Mu Magic' smooths on in a jiffy . . . never feels sticky.

"Now every Albright woman can keep her hands invitingly soft, endearingly smooth . . . in spite of the work they do. Try it and prevent that work-conscious look that spoils the charm of your hands.

"The biggest miracle is that 'Mu Magic' is only ten cents and we are trying to fill orders as quickly as possible."

You've guessed it. It's "Mu Magic" propaganda, being spread as thick as molasses, by the new Frosh pledges of the Phi Beta Mu Sorority. Not only are the women being swept off their feet by the gentle, but insistent patter of the appealing female salesmen, but it's rumored that the opposite sex have also fallen for it . . . good after shaving lotion is the alibi.

Ann deFarge, one of the agents of the product, explained that the

John Garfield Tells Albrightian Of Plane Flight To Reading

Holy Week Services To Begin On Monday

"Jesus" Is Theme
Of Religious Services

On Monday evening at 7:30 P. M. in the College Chapel, the first of four special Holy Week services sponsored by the campus "Y's" will be held. Other services will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at 7:30 P. M.; a service of Holy Communion will be held Thursday morning at 6:00 A. M.

The general theme is "Jesus"; the various meetings will consider different aspects of his personality and life.

On Monday evening, Prof. Marcus Green will speak on "Jesus, Son of God"; Harry Buck will lead the devotions. Tuesday evening, Dr. Morris S. Greth talks on "Jesus, Son of Man"; Esther Glingrich leads the worship service. In the last of the evening meetings, Wednesday, Rollin Reiner, student in the Evangelical School of Theology, graduate of Albright, leads the thought on the topic, "Jesus, Lamb of God"; Bruce Knisley conducts the devotions. The final service, one of Holy Communion, Thursday morning at 6:00 A. M., finds Prof. Lewis E. Smith as the leader, assisted by Woodrow Witmer and Art McKay.

All students are urged to attend these meetings. They will all be held in the College Chapel.

Reporter Has Lunch With Movie Star At Berkshire

By ANN de FARGES

Last Saturday I interviewed the great Mr. John Garfield, motion picture actor, in the Berkshire Hotel where he appeared at a luncheon given for the drive to sell Defense Bonds and Stamps. I found that the glamour the movie stars possess on the screen is merely "heaped on" and not real.

The glamour surrounding Mr. Garfield is very becoming, but after talking to him, I can see that he does not like it, and that it is not necessary to give him natural charm. He has an individual graciousness that one cannot see on the screen. He is quiet, unassuming, and serious, and has a winning smile which flashes only briefly and occasionally.

Although he looks no more than 25, he is a very serious young man. Perhaps that is because he was born on the East Side, and has had quite a struggle getting where he is today. In the minds of most of the people of America, he is a typical gangster and is perfectly suited to the parts he plays. But underneath this assumed veneer, I am inclined to think that he has a heart of gold.

Mr. Garfield, exhausted and disheveled, told me about his rough flight through heavy rain and fog that had grounded the commercial planes. He told me that he had arrived safely in the private plane piloted by its owner, Mr. Harold G. Evans, general chairman of the Berks County defense saving staff. Apparently my numerous questions concerning this flight interested and pleased him, because

(Continued on page 2, column 4)

Faculty

At the left are visible the facial features of Miss Ethel Norton, capable Dean of Women and Assistant Professor of English. This very sweet and gracious lady received her B.A. degree from Antioch and her M. A. from Columbia.

Professor W. I. Miller addressed the Rotary Club of Kutztown, Monday at 6:30, on "Propaganda—the Bane of Democracy."

Dr. Vilhjalmur Stefansson in a letter to Dr. Milton Hamilton announced that he is sending three of his books as gifts for the library. They are entitled "Hunters of the Great North," "Iceland, the First American Republic," and "Unsolved Mysteries of the Arctic."

Professor Henry G. Buckwalter will be at Bryn Mawr College, Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania, on Sunday to attend the sessions of the Model League of Nations. Professor Buckwalter, who is a member of the International League of Nations, attends as an observer for this group.

The Albrightian

Editor-in-Chief: HAROLD M. WERNER

Associates:
 ROY CONNER ARTHUR MCKAY DENNIS STRAWBRIDGE
 MARJORIE FRUNDT SEYMOUR MENDELSON MARGARET THOMPSON
 JANE LOUISE HAUPT DOROTHY REBER MARY JANE WARD

Business Manager: HARRY BITTING

The ALBRIGHTIAN is published weekly during the school year by the students of Albright College, Reading, Pa.

The editorial columns of this publication are open to criticisms and communications at all times and are to be taken as the opinions of the editorial staff unless otherwise indicated. No anonymous communications will be published, although names of signed communications will be withheld at the writer's request. Address letters to the editor of the ALBRIGHTIAN.

Entered as second-class matter July 15, 1941, at the post office at Reading, Pennsylvania, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Subscription Rate, $1.50 Per Year. Individual Copy, 10¢.

School Spirit

We had a concert two weeks ago. The dining hall was filled by an audience of one hundred and fifteen, a very gratifying sight for those who had spent quite a bit of time and effort on this concert. The setting was elegant; the ushers did a laudable job; and the orchestra presented the finest concert in its four-year's history. But where were the faculty and student body for whose benefit this concert was presented? (Yes, the band—the representative of Albright College—is as much your organization as it is Hans Nix's or mine.) The statistics show us that there were but twenty-two student tickets used, as compared to twenty-six cultural program tickets, and sixty-six patron tickets. Certainly a worthwhile program which is organized by students, presented by students, and given for the benefit of the students, should draw more than ten percent of the student body, if the school spirit is anywhere near to what it should be.

Undoubtedly we band members aren't the best of salesmen; we've made plenty of blunders; and we didn't do as much as we could have done to scare up ticket sales. But I'm convinced that there's a lot more behind it than these ticket sales, or lack thereof. True, there were many who had no interest whatsoever in music, and there were also many who had tests the following day to prepare for; but what about that mob of master-minds a bit too unambitious to make the long journey to the dining hall, or too fond of "Luckies" and sweets to squander a whole quarter on some ol' concert?

And what about these tests which required preparation and cramming on the night of the concert? It is interesting to note that there were no less (maybe more) than seven major tests given on the day after the concert. It might be a good idea for the faculty, as well as the student body, to take the Albright College Calendar into consideration, especially when scheduling major tests. And what about the Cultural Program Committee? After the Orchestra contributes its services to this Cultural Program, it is gallantly rewarded by the scheduling of several tests by members of that very committee! Something's wrong somewhere, and I feel sure that it can and will be remedied in the future.

Undoubtedly I've said enough; perhaps I've said too much. I'm not trying to put in a plug or two for the Band and Orchestra, nor am I purposely stepping on anybody's toes. My aim in writing this commentary is but to endeavor to stir up a bit of real school spirit on the part of both students and faculty. You can help—YOU WILL HELP—to build the Greater Albright of Tomorrow! Let's be All out for Albright!

—Charlie Miesse.

LITTLE THINGS

The increasing excavations in the driveway . . . Valentine's Day . . . bond structures in organic . . . the irresistibility of a candy machine . . . six cuts in chapel . . . Titus . . . 13th and Union becoming collegiate at 3:30 . . . "Chattanooga Choo Choo" . . . the tension in the balance room . . . practice teaching . . . sauer kraut and hot dogs on Saturday . . . the tragedy of over sleeping . . . Lenore Linden's fur coats . . . the authority wielded by the calendar . . . Ye olde Meeting House (Room 103) . . . the minimum of privacy afforded by the Day Student mail box (No news is everybody's news) . . . the lock on the refrigerator in home ec lab . . . the unimportance of time when you have no more classes that day . . . Ken Schuster . . . the informality of German classes . . . the "literature" found on the writing boards in the chapel . . . Dr. Klein's portrait hanging in the dining room . . . the telephone book in the frosh dorm . . . the jumbled mess that's the bulletin board opposite the book store . . . the impression Woody Witmer makes on green freshmen . . . yellow paper . . . dawn lectures . . . the confusion on registration days . . . how much better an A can make you feel . . . the A.P.O.'s ability to keep subdued during programs in the chapel . . . Miesse "jitterbugging" . . . the modern version of Damon and Pythias—Spangler and Bertino . . . forgetting your number when the Bible marks are published . . . Tommy Masters distributing peanuts at Xmas . . . "Chatterbox" Wright (or left, you can always hear her) . . . the knickknacks at the windows of Sherman Cottage . . . the possibilities of "einstellen" . . . Pop Moser's . . .

Home-Ec News

The biennial kiddies fashion parade will be held in Selwyn Hall Parlors Saturday, March 28. Mildred Reubsamen will act as commentator on kiddies fashions—dresses made by Home Ec '35 and also fashions from the J.C. Shoppe. Invitations were designed by Edith Bitler. The hostesses are Polly Brossman, Ruth Smith, and June Hausman. The foods and decoration committee is composed of Margaret Eneppard and Grace Cramp. Regina Seidel and Alda Matz will provide entertainment for the kiddies. Blowing up balloons is their specialty. Tea will be served to the mothers. The third and last formal dinner of the meal-planning class will be cooked, served, and eaten by members of the meal-planning class. Jane Louise Haupt is hostess.

Miss Florence Innis will attend the Philadelphia Nutrition Council at Harrisburg, March 27-28. This will be the first intra-state Home-Management Conference. Dr. Paulina Nickell of the Home-Management Department, Iowa State College, and co-author of a new book on home-management, will be speaker. Dr. Clifford Adams, Department of Education and Psychology of Pennsylvania State College, will speak on "Marital Adjustments."

A questionnaire was sent out to representatives of the 25 colleges in Pennsylvania, teaching home economics. A topic to be discussed and chosen from these questionnaires is, "What shall the students load be while in home-management?"

BY ANNE ONYMOUS

Nominated for the wisest Zeta pledge—Les Pushman.

Dates? Pet Nappi will have "nun" of them—and that involves a good story.

Ravel's First Aid equipment was recently complimented by an airplane wing.

We hear Gene and Millie are trying to get used to the idea of a trolley from now on; they started out with a packard the other night.

Watch Marie Stein's face light up when you ask her about the weekend.

Rudy Bricker seems to come to Reading from Millersville quite often, doesn't he, Mary Jane.

Hint for Pete: New York's special drink "Crack-a-Jap"—a glass of water and a defense stamp, 10¢.

Sign of the week — on Felice's door: "Men in Uniform—Hop In."

Bert and Jeanne spent the weekend at home in Philly. Isn't it a coincidence that Al and Bud also took the trip.

A certain Reading Eagle reporter is acting strangely lately—falling off bicycles into ditches and leaving banquets in the middle of speeches! What do you know about this, Marilyn?

Eleanor Shubert: "I'm not going to get married till I'm 26, that is, not unless I'm swept off my feet."

Don't the P.A.T. pledges look cute with their pig-tails? As some bright young man mentioned—all they need is an inkwell.

What freshman girl cuts classes because she stayed up too late the other night before making doll dresses? We noticed Mary Nicol has a doll.

Cecil had his first mishap as a waiter when he dumped the tray of ??? (ask Jan) down Bert's back.

Carl Friedericks is getting an education about Korea via Betty Ann.

How did the army like open house, Ruthie???

Lucille Griswold isn't going to the parade on Friday night to see the soldiers. She's going to see the equipment.

The burning question of the week: "What nice boy will contribute his services to help me fix my bustle . . . bazaar booth?"

Prof. Evans: "What is the average variable cost?"

Kinginger: "Well — that varies."

We've noticed quite a change in Dot Scheib lately. Move over, Veronica!

John Garfield

(Continued from page 1)

he seemed to open up and become more friendly. After my first question, Mr. Garfield looked at Mr. Evans who was standing a few feet away, and then turning back to me said, "There is a man with whom I would trust my life. Several times today, I was beginning to think that we'd never be able to reach Reading. We almost hit several objects, because of the poor visibility, but somehow or another Hal brought us through it, and we're both glad to be here."

In the last few minutes of our hurried interview, Mr. Garfield said that he was returning to New York immediately to continue his personal appearance tour for the sale of defense bonds and stamps.

Kappas Win Frat Cage Crown

Within the next two weeks, Albright College students will have a new playground. The new playground will be located north of Bern street, that is the area across the trolley tracks behind Selwyn Hall.

Work has already been started to level the ground and make it suitable for the intra-mural softball games. There is also a possibility that if the necessary materials can be obtained two tennis courts will be built. That's just a possibility, however. When the new field is completed, ball playing will be forbidden on the Science-Theology field. Here's a suggestion. Why not call the playground MacArthur Field?

Eastern Penn Collegiate League basketball members at a meeting last week in Lancaster decided to eliminate the championship race for next year. Two of the member schools claimed that they would be unable to compete because of transportation difficulties. So, it looks as if our present Lion cagers won't get their chance to gain the crown for Albright. The league, however, will be in operation as soon as those d— Japs and Germans are put in their places.

We witnessed that Kappa-Zeta battle for the intra-mural cage crown last Tuesday. Those lads may be lacking in basketball finesse but they certainly make up for the lack of it by their spirit. Better than a cat and dog fight. With due credit to the Kappas, Tony Stish's set shots, and the K. U. P.'s cheering section — we think the Zetas would have given a better account of themselves if they would not have fallen the victims of a little propagand.

Seems as if three of Z.O.E. regulars were informed by unmentionable sources that the contest would start at 8 o'clock. But at 6:30 p. m., the

Pi Taus Lose Two As Softball Starts

A. P. O., Theologs Win Openers

STANDINGS
As of Tuesday, March 24

	Won	Lost	Per.
A. P. O.	1	0	1.000
Theologs	1	0	1.000
Zetas	0	0	.000
Kappas	0	0	.000
Daymen	0	0	.000
Frosh	0	0	.000
Pi Taus	0	2	.000

Neither snow nor biting cold weather stopped the intra-mural softball league from getting off to a bang-up start last Monday afternoon.

The A. P. O.'s started off on the right foot by bombarding the Pi Taus, 12-0. Steve Plaskonos and Bob Bennett limited the losers to two bingles in registering their first win of the season.

In the second league fray, the Pi Taus again took it on the chin, losing to the Theologs in five innings, 5-2. Al Therghesen, hurling for the losers, gave up only three hits, but eight costly errors accounted for five unearned runs.

Ralph Frymoyer, former Daymen stave, was on the mound for the Theologs and was nicked for four hits and two runs.

A. P. O. 0 0 9 0 3-12
Pi Taus 0 0 0 0 0-0
Batteries—A. P. O.: S. Plaskonos, Bennett, and Heisey; Pi Taus: Therghesen and Deutsch.

Pi Taus 0 0 1 1 0-2
Theologs 0 1 1 3 0-5
Batteries — Pi Taus: Therghesen and Deutsch; Theologs: Frymoyer and Bull.

Bustles In Vogue

(Continued from page 1)

ing around the Albright Greens. All these great sports can be purchased for the mere sum of a few pence.

Zeta team was notified that the game would start at seven or else the championship would be forfeited. They played with three reserves while the three regulars arrived just in time to play the last quarter. Somebody slipped somewhere!

Second-Half Champs Beat Zetas As Michaels, Gigli, Schneider Star

Albright Women Organize Ball Teams

Sophomore Cagers Win Loop Crown

Two leagues have been organized for softball—a class league and a sorority-non-sorority league. In the class league, the juniors and seniors will combine to form a team. The sorority—non-sorority league will be composed of the Pats, Mu's, team 1, consisting of sophomores, juniors, and seniors, and team 2, composed of frosh. Jeanie Bomgardner has requested that these teams choose their own captains and managers as soon as possible.

The schedules:

Sorority-Non-Sorority League

Tues., April 7, Mu's vs. Team 1.
Thurs., April 9, Pats vs. Team 2.
Tues., April 14, Mu's vs. Team 2.
Thurs., April 16, Pats vs. Team 1.
Tues., April 21, Mu's vs. Pats.

Class League

Thurs., April 23, Frosh vs. Juniors-Seniors.
Tues., April 28, Frosh vs. Sophs.
Thurs., April 30, Sophs vs. Juniors-Seniors.

A field goal made in the last minutes of the game broke the 17-17 deadlock between the sophs and the junior-senior teams and enabled the sophs to win the basketball class league. "Mouseie" Matz, at forward, and "Queenie" Seidel, at guard, played their best games for the sophs.

The lineups were as follows.

Sophs	Juniors-Seniors
Griswold, f 6	Shade, f 9
Platt, f 8	Weaver, f 2
Matz, g 5	Bomgardner, f 6
Seidel, g 0	Whitehead, g 4
Wentz, g 0	Reber, g 0
Leiby, g 0	Strawbridge, g 0
Seltzer, g 0	Geib, g 0
Lavery, g 0	—
—	19
—	17

Ten Albright senic athletes will long remember the eighth annual Berks County Sports Officials banquet held at the Berkshire Hotel, Thursday a week ago. Seated at the Albright table were the members of the Athletic Council along with coaches Dietz and Harris.

The presence of John DeGrosa, the Hale America program, whose fiery talk kept the 300 sportsmen on the edge of their seats for over an hour was epic.

Boland, Carls Keep Losers In Contest

A driving comeback in the third quarter of the playoff game with the Zetas Tuesday night, enabled the Kappas to salt away the intramural basketball crown. As Paul Michaels, Vic Gigli, and Nick Schneider dropped shots through the cords with regularity, the second-half champs overcame a 10-8 half-time deficit and rolled on to win.

Even the late arrival of Herb Vogt and Frank Bertino to bolster the Zeta attack and the ejection of individual scoring leader, Paul Michaels, on personals, couldn't stop the boys of the Phi, who coasted to victory.

The Zetas took the lead on Clem Boland's "swisher" from mid-court and didn't relinquish it until the avalanche struck in the third period.

In the slow, rough, first-half, Boland and "Puffy" Carls connected just enough times to keep the Zetas in the lead, while Nick Schneider kept the Kappas in the game with one-handed stabs.

The second-half Kappas, however, looked like the Albright varsity in action and the Zetas faded quickly. When their reinforcements arrived, the Zetas rallied, but the harm had been done.

On Monday night the Kappas earned the right to the playoff by beating the Zetas, 30-28, in two overtime periods. The score was tied at 26 all, when time ran out. The first overtime period saw Tony Stish match Clem Boland's shot. In the final sudden-death period Vic Gigli turned "Frank Merriwell" and sank the deciding double-decker.

Other games Monday night saw the Daymen beat the Frosh, 63-41, and the A.P.O.'s come from behind to trounce the tired Pi Taus, 52-31.

Kappas			Zetas
G.	F.	P.	G.	F.	P.
Stish, f	3	3	9	Carls, f	2	0	4
Schneider, f	4	0	8	Weber, f	2	0	4
Michaels, c	4	0	8	Boland, c, g	4	0	8
Harpster, c	0	0	0	Bertino, c	0	0	0
Gigli, g	3	1	7	Peters, g	0	0	0
Klein, g	2	1	5	Vogt, g	0	2	2
Mertz, g	0	0	0	Dem'vich, g	0	0	0
Totals	16	5	37	Totals	8	2	18

Score by periods:
Kappas 5 8 27 37
Zetas 8 10 12 18
Referees: Hain and S. Plaskonos.

Separate Dept. for Men

Reliable Convenient Economical

TRANSPORTATION BY TROLLEY AND COACH

Reading Street Railway Co.

A Short Walk from the Campus

HOWARD'S LUNCHEONETTE
1444 BIRCH STREET
LUNCH SODAS GIFTS

Order Your Standard College Jewelry Now

Samples and Prices in the Treasurer's Office
RINGS-KEYS-PINS & GUARDS CHARMS

TRY OUR DELICIOUS HAMBURGERS

MOSER'S LUNCH ROOM
WHERE ALL STUDENTS MEET

JACKETS and SLACKS

You've never seen better than on our racks... popular for school and dress-up!

CROLL & KECK
622 Penn Street

FOR CONVENIENCE RELIABILITY BETTER SERVICE

BUY AT BOYER'S DRUG STORE
Thirteenth and Amity
"DRUGS THAT ARE"
VISIT OUR FOUNTAIN
All the Other Students Do!

WM. G. HINTZ, Inc.
Reading's Oldest and Largest STATIONERY STORE
BOOKS - FOUNTAIN PENS
GIFTS - GREETING CARDS
ACCOUNTING FORMS
838-840 Penn St.

ALTON E. BOWERS
KODAKS - SUPPLIES
PHOTO FINISHING
Motion Picture Equipment
416 North Fifth Street
Reading, Pa.

JOURNAL OF SCIENCE

By DENNIS STRAWBRIDGE

SPECIAL FOR SCIENTISTS
 On Thursday evening, April the second, the HEO club and the Skull and Bones Society will hold a special combined meeting. The meeting will feature colored motion pictures on nutrition. Two films will be shown, "Proof of the Pudding" and "Nutrition and Health." The Berks County Nutrition Council and the Health Division of Social Agencies will be the guests of the HEO club and the Skull and Bones Society.

LOOKING AHEAD
 Four senior laboratory technicians have announced their acceptance at the St. Joseph's Hospital. They are Mary Levan, Marian Myers, Katharine Geib, and Ellen Whitmoyer.

Donald Walley, a sophomore veterinary student has been accepted at the University of Pennsylvania Veterinary School.

HOW ABOUT A LUNCHEON?
 Dr. Clarence Horn, who is chairman of the health division of social agencies, invites all interested students to a luncheon meeting of the agency. The luncheon will be held at the Wyomissing Club. Dr. George Leiby who is director of the Bureau of Infectious Diseases for the state of Louisiana will speak on the topic "Public Health in War." The price of the luncheon tickets is seventy-five cents per capita. This talk should prove of unusual interest to the pre-medical students and all other students interested in their own and their neighbor's health during this time of war.

ABOUT ALUMNI
 We hear that Mary Etta Filbert is getting up in the world these days. Mary Etta, who was a member of the class of '40, has recently accepted a position as laboratory technician at the Baptist Memorial Hospital at Memphis, Tennessee. She is working on the eighth floor of the hospital in a modern and completely equipped laboratory.
 Esther Sipple, a member of the class of '41, is serving a student internship in dietetics at the Mayo Clinic.

WARNER THEATRE · 755 PENN ST.
STARTS FRIDAY

WHAT THRILLS!

"WILD BILL HICKOK RIDES"

CONSTANCE BENNETT
 BRUCE CABOT
 WARREN WILLIAM

Embassy
 NOW PLAYING
 They Keep 'em Laughin' with Their Lovin'!

Henry FONDA
 Gene TIERNEY in
RINGS ON HER FINGERS

A 20th CENTURY-FOX PICTURE
 EXTRA ADDED
 "Evergreen Playground" (Sports)
 Terrytoon Cartoon Latest News Events

LOEW'S
 THE GIRL AND THE GESTAPO!
"NAZI AGENT"
 with
 CONRAD VEIDT
 ANN AYERS

PLUS
 Short Subjects
 News

ASTOR
 NOW PLAYING
 NEW Thrills! NEW Terror!
The GHOST of FRANKENSTEIN

SIR CEDRIC HARDWICKE
 RALPH BELLAMY
 LIONEL ATWILL
 BELA LUGOSI
 EVELYN ANKERS
 and
 LON CHANEY

Screen Play, W. Scott Darling Original Story, Eric Taylor
 Directed by ERLE C. KENTON
 Produced by GEORGE WAGGNER

DO YOU DIG IT?

Albright College Gingrich Library

ENGLISH TRANSLATION
 This glamour doll is telling her pals to close their books because the boys are slicing a birthday cake (with candles on it) and Pepsi-Cola's being served with it. What could be better!

WHAT DO YOU SAY?
 Send us some of your hot slang. If we use it you'll be ten bucks richer. If we don't, we'll shoot you a rejection slip to add to your collection. Mail your slang to College Dept., Pepsi-Cola Company, Long Island City, N. Y.

