

77 Per Cent Participation Yields $17,920

City and County Drive
Tops Goal by $2,934

BULLETIN

Up to noon yesterday $17,920.15 had been contributed by 527 students to the field house campaign. This represents 77 per cent participation and $34 per pledge. Yesterday's report was 79 pledges and $1,985.15. The freshmen led with 25 pledges and $750. The over-all leader to date is the junior class with 150 pledges and $5,440.

Exceeding the goal of $100,000 by $2,934.75, the general city and county campaign for the proposed field house ended with the final report meeting Tuesday night. Including bonuses, advance gifts and student contributions up to Tuesday, $334,654.36 of the total goal of $410,000 had been reached.

Including bonuses, Mr. Benjamin D. Barr's Group A, Divisions 1 to 8, reported a final total of $127,974.36. Mr. William E. Maier's Group B, Divisions 9 to 16, accounted for $125,445. Advance gifts brought in $65,300, and the student campaign, $15,935.

The faculty division, headed by Prof. Lewis E. Smith and Mr. Charles L. Gordon Jr., paced all the sections with a total of $37,916. Every team in this division exceeded its team quota. Dr. C. A. Horn's team reported a total of $8,190. Seven teams in all reached their quotas.

Students Report $15,935

The student campaign, with $15,935 reported up to Tuesday noon, is nearing its goal of $20,000. Sixty-five per cent of the students have participated. The number of pledges is 448, while the average amount per pledge is more than $36.

With $1,689 reported, the junior class led at Tuesday's meeting, followed by the freshmen with $1,341. These two classes each reported 46 pledges. The sophomores listed 43 pledges and $1,241; the seniors, 40 pledges and $944. Tuesday's total report was 175 pledges and $5,215.

Betty Bratton, a senior, reported more pledges than any other team captain, 15. Although Terry Connor, a junior, trailed the leader in this respect with 12, he led in total contributions, $566. David Smith, also a junior, ranked next with 11 pledges and $371.

Monday, March 6, the first alumni group will meet to organize its participation in the campaign. This is the Quaker City Club, which will assemble in the Robert Morris Hotel, Philadelphia. Dean George W. Walton and Mr. Barr will be the speakers. The alumni goal is $50,000.

Visitations Team To Address Y's

A Christian vocation visitations team composed of Dr. Carl Eshbach, personal secretary of the Department of World Missions; Miss Marion Baker, associate secretary of Young People's Work and former missionary to the Philippines; and Miss Florence Barnhart, a missionary to West Africa, will address the next Y meeting, Tuesday, March 7. Their talks will concern Christian vocations. The speakers will be available for conferences on this subject any time during their stay on campus.

Rabbi Abraham Holtzberg spoke on Brotherhood to the Y group on Tuesday, February 28. After his talk Y members discussed the topic with the speaker and got his views on other issues.

Parents' Weekend Committee Named

Albright's annual Parents' Weekend will be held May 19, 20 and 21. Barbara Kast and Doug Ebling will serve as co-chairmen.

The following people will participate in the planning: Ray Schlegel, publicity; Marion Miller, registration; Ruth Bray, banquet; Ben Reynolds, programs; Ethel Harris, invitations; and Women's Student Senate members, coffee hour.

Union Hall to Get Television Set

Through the contributions of eight individuals and firms which Albright College patronizes, the installation of a television set in Union Hall has been made possible.

The set, a 16" Bowers model, goes into use today. It was purchased through special arrangement with the Bowers Radio and Television Company.

Purchase of a television set was suggested by a friend of the college. Those whose contributions made it possible are: George Fisher, Reading plumber; the Bee Hive Towel Supply Company; the Reading Wholesale Confectionery Company; DeTurek Tile Company; Keystone Meat Market; College Seal and Crest Company; St. Lawrence Dairy Company; and Bender and Shoemaker, commercial refrigeration.

With the installation of the television set, several regulations will go into effect regarding its use. Dean Levan P. Smith has announced. Use of the set will be confined to the regular hours in which the hostess of Union Hall is on duty, from 12 noon to 5 o'clock Monday through Friday, and 9 to 12 o'clock Saturday.

On nights when a regular school organization has the use of the building, use of the set will be determined by the officers and advisers of the organization.

Final Vespers Sunday

The final program of the Student-Faculty Vesper Services will be held on Sunday, March 5, at 5 p. m. The guest speaker will be the Rev. Homer Trickett of the First Baptist Church of Reading.

91 Albright Students Gain Honor By Maintaining Dean's List Ratings

Thirty-one students have won recognition from Dean George W. Walton for maintaining an average of A during the first semester. An additional 60 students attained the A plus list. Four per cent of the total student enrollment during the first semester of '50 attained the A list, while eight per cent were on the B list.

The Dean's List cites the following students as having attained an A average for the first semester:

Juniors: William Emerich, Kathleen Guenther, Robert Hohl, William Kehler, John Grouse, William Schaeffer, Burton Schaffer and Raymond Schlegel.

Sophomores: Francis Carney, William A. Heck, Winifred Kaebnick, Paul Kissinger, Howard Peiffer, John Rhoads, Richard Sweet, Alfred Thomas and Russell Weigley.

Freshmen: Henry Bialas, Patricia Scheerer and Marilyn Young.

The following students have averaged B plus:

Sculptor Paul Manship to Present Illustrated Talk In Union Hall

Mr. Paul Manship, outstanding American sculptor, will present an illustrated talk entitled "Sculpture in the Making" as the fourth presentation of the 1949-50 cultural program series, on Thursday, March 9, at 11:10 a. m.

Mr. Manship is widely known for his precision and painstaking craftsmanship as a sculptor. He began his art studies at the St. Paul Institute of Art, and studied sculpture with Solon Borglum in New York and also with Charles Grafly in the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts. He won a scholarship which entitled him to three years of studying at the American Academy in Rome.

In 1914 he won the Widener Gold Metal, Pennsylvania Academy; in 1915, the Gold Metal, San Francisco Exposition; in 1921, the Gold Metal of the American Numismatic Society Metal, and in 1925 the Gold Metal of the Philadelphia Art Association.

In recognition of his distinguished work, Mr. Manship has been made an Academician of the American Academy of Arts and Letters; Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Science; Academician of the National Sculpture Society, and Chevalier of the Legion of Honor.

Mr. Manship is represented in the Metropolitan Museum of New York, the Chicago Art Institute, the Musée de Luxembourg, The

Paul Manship

Corcoran Gallery of Art, and the museums in Boston, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Detroit, St. Louis, Providence, Minneapolis, St. Paul and Toronto.

Among his many works, he is more widely known for his War Memorial and Hercules Fountain, American Academy, at Rome, Italy; Heroic Statue of Abraham Lincoln as a Youth at Fort Wayne, Indiana, and Prometheus Fountain at Rockefeller Center, New York City.

Judges Selected For Stunt Night

Albright's annual Stunt Night will be held on Friday, March 24, at 7:30 p. m. in Union Hall, William Skinner, chairman of the event, has announced. Jack Gounder will be master of ceremonies.

Judges for the event will be Jerry Kobrin, Reading Eagle columnist; Priscilla Parker, director of radio publicity for a local department store; and George Snell, impresario of the Green Hills Theatre.

The following organizations have indicated to date that they will participate in Stunt Night: Alpha Pi Omega, Kappa Upsilon Phi, Zeta Omega Epsilon, Pi Tau Beta, Kappa Tau Chi, Phi Beta Mu and Pi Alpha Tau.

Inter-frat Council Plans in Action

The Interfraternity Council constitution has been approved by the four campus fraternities. Robert M. White, appointed moderator of the Council, has announced that there will be a meeting soon to discuss plans for putting the constitution into working order.

The Council would be established in order to contribute more adequately and successfully to the primary functions of the college. As it is set up now the Council would have power to regulate and plan interfraternity functions and actions in the social, athletic and academic fields. Each fraternity is to have one vote, and issues before the Council are to be passed by a unanimous vote. The fraternities would have the right to make recommendations to college authorities or to individual fraternities by a three-fourths vote. The vote of the representatives would count individually only in the election of Council officers.

All representatives to the Council are to be recognized members of a social fraternity, academically approved by the Dean and elected for one school semester.

Election Returns To Be Published

Student Council decided at last Tuesday's meeting to have the numerical returns of the all-college elections this spring printed in The Albrightian.

The N.S.A. Committee asked that any person who wishes to participate in the cultural program to be held in Philadelphia in April should contact Vincent Gentile. Arrangements will be made to try to provide transportation to the cultural in which colleges of the Philadelphia area of N.S.A. are participating.

The Council has asked its president to check into the cost of installing a telephone on the main floor of Selwyn Hall. This phone could be used for emergencies since all other phones are located in the girls' dormitories.

Contestants Chosen For Sports Night

Two Winning Teams
To Receive Trophies

Tonight the Sports Carnival, sponsored by the combined Y's, will be held in Union Hall. The events will start promptly at 7:30 o'clock. Trophies will be awarded to the winning men's and women's teams.

Joyce Costenbader and Jerry Pedota, co-chairman, announced Tuesday that the participants would be as follows.

The activities will begin with ping pong. Contestants will be: Pats, Marge Zeck, vs. Daywomen, Nancy Loose; Mus, Barbara Kast, vs. Dorm Women, Jane Pollack; A.P.O., Arthur Wool, vs. K.T.X., Jay Shenk; Kappas, Edward Fleming, vs. Pi Taus, Howard Brenner; Zetas, Kenneth Wagner, vs. Dorm Men, Robert Dunschweiler.

Badminton Opponents Named

Lois Gehris and Jane Roney, Pats, will oppose Dolores Genetti and Marian McGinithen, Daywomen, in badminton. Another contest will pit Charlotte Winner and Marjorie Gardner, Mus, against Joan Betty Peck and Joanne Schenkemeyer, Dorm Women.

In the hop-skip-jump, Miss Zeck will oppose Kay Collins of the Dorm Women. Nan Heckman, a Mu, will oppose Judy Leinbach, a Daywoman. The referee will be Walter Drazek.

Four women, Grace Cunningham, Shirley Johnson, Nancy Stump and Joan Boyle, will represent the Pats in Steal the Bacon. They will oppose Alma Natanblut, Jean Magee, Barbara Wisley and Ramona Latorre of the Mus. In a similar match, June Christman, Miss Schenkemeyer, Dorothy McFarland and Miss Peck of the Dorm Women will oppose Miss Loose, Mary Swartz, Miss Leinbach and Miss Genetti of the Daywomen.

Zetas vs. Dorm Men

Zetas John McKenna, Robert Bernhardt, Neil Hill and George Simmons will compete against Dorm Men Jerry Schwartz, Robert Zapora, Frank Freedman and Albert Weidman in the Men's Tag of War. The Pi Taus will send Richard Chambers, James Boaman, Paul Kohl and Lou Brenner against William Colten, Peter Young, Charles Klinger and William Wal-

SCM to Sponsor Conference Here

The Student Christian Movement will sponsor an inter-racial, intercultural conference on the Albright Campus on Saturday and Sunday, March 18 and 19. The theme of the conference will be "That All May Be One," the theme of the World Student Christian Federation.

The Rev. Eugene H. Barth and Prof. Elmer Smith will lead discussion groups. The Rev. Hart Helmich, of the regional Student Christian Movement staff, will take part in the conference. He was on campus Wednesday, February 22, meeting with Rev. Mr. Barth and the members of the planning committee.

The committee includes Jane Reynolds, publicity; Ethel Harris, worship; Fred Mech, housing; Gordon Farscht, meals; Jack Snook, the social program for Saturday night; Phoebe Hunter, secretary of the racial equality commission of the Y; Devere Pomroy, literature display; Ted Whitby; Joanne Schenkemeyer; and Patricia Peirce and Jay Shenk, co-chairmen of the social responsibility commission of the Y.

About 61 colleges of the eastern seaboard area are expected to send delegates. All Albright students are invited to attend.

For Good Leaders

This month nominees will be chosen for the positions of leadership in the most important campus organizations. Among the positions to be filled are the highest offices in Student Council, the Young Men's Christian Association, the Young Women's Christian Association, the class organizations and the day and dorm students' groups.

It is needless to say that the success or failure of any organization depends to a large extent upon the qualifications of the leaders who guide it. Although the final choices of leaders will be made by the students in the All-Campus Elections in April, we must not minimize the importance of the initial step in the selection process, the choice of nominees. It is exceedingly important that those charged with the responsibility of naming candidates be so careful in their selections that only the cream of the potential talent shall appear on the final ballot.

In some cases the responsibility for the choice of nominees rests with a comparatively small group of present officers and committee chairmen. An example of this is the nomination of Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A. officers by the Cabinets. In other cases, such as the class organizations, the entire membership may participate in the nominating process. Whatever the method of choice, certain criteria of good leaders should be kept in mind.

Three Chief Criteria

The chief criteria for the choice of nominees should be ability, reliability and conviction.

A potential leader should be an able person. He should understand the nature of his office and the duties as well as the privileges which go with it. He should understand thoroughly whatever technical skills may be necessary to good leadership in his particular organization. He should be able to command the respect of those with whom he must work directly as well as of the college in general.

A potential leader should be a reliable person. He should be able to assume responsibility well. He should recognize the importance of his position in directing an organization's activities, in influencing others and in representing his organization to the administration, the alumni and the community. There should be no doubt that his leadership would result in achievements both for his organization and for Albright College.

A good leader should be convinced of the value of his organization to the campus community. He should have within himself the vision of an ideal of what his organization is to accomplish. His conviction should be so strong that neither an apathetic student body nor other difficulties can defeat him. Above all, he should be certain that his ideals and the activities of his organization are in harmony with the ideals and purposes of Albright.

If all of the candidates on the final ballot have these principles of good leadership, there can be no doubt that the final choices in the election will be extremely difficult to make.

My Lovely Rut

Notice to Readers—

The following is reprinted not with the aim of filling space, but because we think that to all harassed members of the Aspirin Age herein is a message:

Because I do the same things daily, because I care about present and future before saying to the butcher, "Give me two slices of bacon," because I make plans for many and various projects and because I seem to enjoy the whole thing there are those who, with serious and sincere motives, say "You're in a rut."

'Tis true. I am, and I like it. I have a lovely rut and most of the time I stay in it, happy in my ignorance and contented in my lack of initiative. On occasions and on days when the sun shines brightly, I climb up the side and peek over and in times of emergency I climb over the top and sash around in other folk's business but always when such unusual events take place I get back as soon as possible to enjoy the luxury of the old beloved place.

One of the big questions is why there is so much objection to ruts . . . I plead for a chance to stay in my lovely rut with my lovely ideas, my lovely prejudices, my lovely habitual routines, my lovely phobias, my lovely cock-eyed dreams and my lovely tricks for being lazy. Let those who wish live reckless, ruthless lives, but let those who like ruts keep them, love them and live in them.

Hospital Gossip

OR—REASON NO. 1673 FOR BUILDING A NEW GYM.

Early Monday morning, The Albrightian received a telephone call from the Community General Hospital; a patient wanted to talk to an Albrightian reporter. The reporter went to the hospital and heard the following pitiful story.

The man, an ardent basketball fan, had gone to see the Albright-Dickinson basketball game last Saturday night. He had taken a seat in the bleachers next to the table where the scorer and timekeeper sit. As half-time drew near, the man was absorbed in the game. When the half-time gun went off, so did this spectator. He was so startled by the blast that he leaped from his seat, tripped, struck his head on the floor and suffered a concussion.

The doctors say he will recover from the concussion, but that the blast has caused permanent deafness. This unfortunate fan wants to contribute 50 dollars toward the erection of the new physical education building with the provision that the money be used to purchase a new type of signal to replace the gun.

There is no doubt that a change is necessary. Although this man is the first to be permanently injured, the nerves of countless spectators have been shattered by the loud report of the gun. What, however, can be used instead of the gun? A cheerleader, a spectator and a varsity player have consented to voice their opinions on this topic.

Cheerleader: I think a set of chimes should be put in the new gymnasium to signal when time is up.

Spectator: When time runs out, just put the lights out. The game would have to stop.

Varsity Player: The best way to stop the game would be to have a cheerleader grab the basketball and run. Most of the players would chase her.

"And what size stocking will you have?" he asked. "Oh, I do believe I will take a size six," he answered. "Excuse you are," he said. "Oh, no, no, no!" he exclaimed. "Those are much too dark. They will never compliment my complexion."

By now the bewildered readers (and we use the plural daringly) probably feel that they have been transplanted to the bargain basement at Macy's on dollar day. That is not the case, however. In the preceding dialogue was quite prevalent last week in organic lab as Mr. Haag distributed nylon stockings to his sensitive ingenue in organic chemistry. No, he didn't win the grand prize on a give-away show, but we would certainly like to know where he got them.

You may remove the cotton from your ears. At last the general physics students have completed their study of noise—excuse me, I meant sound. Actually you have never heard anything more lovely than the combined effort of Pat Leavitt on the sonometer, Jesse Hunsberger on the resonance tube, Jack Larkin on the Kundt's tube, and Prof. Dunkle on the tuning fork playing the Johnson Rag in two flats.

If you happened to hear the anatomy students using some awful words lately, don't report them for swearing. They were merely discussing the muscles of their cats. Dick Taylor has proved himself especially adept with the scalpel. Whenever he had trouble finding a muscle, he very dexterously wielded his trusty scalpel and, presto, created a muscle where it was supposed to be.

General biology students are having a great time with their earthworms. Walt Fox is still trying to figure out which side is the worm's back and which is its belly, while Mary Ann Gerhard, after two torturous weeks, has finally accepted the fact that she must touch the worm if she is going to dissect it. Don't give up folks. The course will be given next year, you know. Incidentally we welcome Mrs. Woyrnarowski as the new instructor of the Wednesday-Friday biology lab.

Let us terminate this quantum of slanting wit with the derivation of "anatomy." Anatomy is a composite of two Greek roots which must mean "sweat" and "to evoke."

From the teaming metropolis of Port Carbon, Pa., we have this week's Dandy Lion, John McKenna. Always quiet, always smiling, and always around when you need him, tall, dark and handsome John is one of our dandiest Dandys. He and side-kick Cappel are liable to turn up almost anywhere around campus and there one can always find music or laughter or both.

Dandy McKenna holds down the prexy's chair of the Zeta Omega Epsilon fraternity and wields the gravel with efficiency. Being interested in social science, John is a member of Pi Gamma Mu; being interested in teaching, he is a member of Future Teachers of America, and being interested in International Relations, John is a member of (three guesses)—The International Relations Club.

We've all cheered for Johnnie on the basketball court, and he deserves it. This ball-hawk (guard, to you) has always been outstanding in the game and this is a good opportunity to wish him and all the guys good luck in the next two games—especially that one next week!

Talking to John usually ends in a sporting discussion about music or a musical discussion about sports—which ever you prefer. His accomplishments on the basketball court are only equalled by his style at the piano. Both draw attention from anyone who happens to be in the vicinity—just ask the girls in Chapel Dorm whom he wakes up regularly every Saturday morning with sweet strains from the Chapel piano.

John is noted for his collection of "interesting" ties which always add to his smart appearance. Pinball machines have a strong attraction for John, apparently, because he is strangely drawn toward them quite often. And then there is that beam that comes over his face when he sees a dish of ice cream, or blonde Doris.

John is taking majors in both social science and history. He takes due pride in his article on "Early Welsh in Berks County," part of which was recently reprinted in the Historical Review. Plans for the future include graduate school and hopes for a master's degree in education. We'll give you a recommendation any time, John, and we wish you all good things in the future.

Stolen From—

The Student Weekly, F&M College: "Tuition at F&M will be upped $50 from the present $500 rate to $550 per year as of September, 1950." Also "The College's coalpile has been depleted to a supply which may last only another week and a half." Things are tough all over.

Comenian, Moravian College: "Final plans have been approved for a western tour by the College Glee Club and the group will leave Easter Sunday, April 9, to present a series of concerts in Minnesota, Wisconsin, Indiana and Michigan. The group will cover approximately 2800 miles on the tour, which will last until April 23." Take note.

Brown and White, Lehigh University: A new cut system has been instituted which allows "freshmen and sophomores as many unexcused absences as their total number of credit hours, and allowing juniors and seniors an unlimited number of cuts, the average Lehigh student cut 10 classes during the recent fall semester." Several of the upperclassmen there have overdone themselves however. . . . three juniors and five seniors soared over the 100 mark in obtaining cuts, and one member of this group cut between 100 and 140 classes."

The Lafayette, Lafayette College: "Establishing a completely new program for foreign study, Lafayette College announces its own "Around-The-World Flight" course to all students who wish to combine travel and study during the 1950's summer session with the benefit of earning credits toward a degree. The chartered plane will hold forty-eight passengers plus the two directors. The college has quoted the total cost for the course at $1532." Gulp!

Also from The Lafayette, is announcement of the forthcoming production of Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night," and The Proscript of Richmond Professional Institute shows "The Tempest" on the schedule of The School of Dramatic Arts. Indication of a trend?

APO's and Kappas continued their two-way tie for the leadership of the fraternity section of the Intramural Basketball League as the former rolled over the K.T.X., 36-23, and the latter overpowered the Zetas by the score of 41-26. A 16's defeat of the Independent League leading Nohawks threw that loop into a four-way first-place tie.

Paul Muller and Bill Wesner paced the APO's to their sixth in eight starts by cutting the cords for 16 and 12 points, respectively. Joe Czutno's 14 points and Chauncy Krout's eight told the story in the Kappas' rout of the fifth place Zetas as they overcame an 8-4 deficit to chalk up their sixth win and hand the losers as many setbacks.

Nohawks Deal Blow

In the Independent Loop the league-leading Nohawks were dealt a severe blow by the 16's as the latter roared to a 31-23 conquest. Les Maurer and Bill Phillips spearheaded the victors' attack by sharing 15 tallies.

The second place Joy Boys capitalized on the Nohawks' misfortune and swept into the first place tie by downing a stubborn APO B squad, 28-25. Donald Moyer and Al Harnley bore the brunt for the winners with 24 points between them while Ron Romig and Fred Rosen divided 16 for the losers.

Red Rockets Top Pi Taus

A loaded Red Rocket squad nailed down second place all for themselves as they rolled to a 69-35 win over the Pi Tau Betas. Billy Mayer's 21 and Connie Dettling's 16 points paced the Red Rockets' entry while Dick Koch tallied 17 in a losing cause for the Pi Taus.

In the final Independent League battle the Aces, led by Don Grigsby with 20 points, outlasted the Cats, 57-33. Dick Cooke and Floyd Rightmire each tallied 12 points to second Grigsby's winning effort.

Baby Lions Wallop Dickinson, 71-55

Elizabethtown is scheduled to battle Albright's Jayvees tomorrow night in the preliminary at Northwest at 7:15 p. m., while next Tuesday, March 7, the Kittens will hit the road against West Chester. In their initial meeting on Saturday, December 17, the Junior Rams ousted Albright's freshman squad, 78-49.

Displaying one of their best offensive showings of the season, Coach Lloyd L. Parsons' Baby Lions trounced the visiting Dickinson Frosh, 71-55. Working smoothly and effectively to avenge an early season, 75-57 setback at Carlisle, five of the Kittens hit the double column in scoring.

McCarty Leads Scoring

Don McCarty was the offensive star with seven field goals and three charity buckets for 17 points. Lanky Rod Shipr contributed 12 points, while Earl Gernert, speedy Blackie Moyer, and Roy Boush each

Gulianmen Beat Red Devils, 100-75; Season Marks Set

Sparked by Captain Eddie Anlian's 32 points, Albright's cagers avenged an early season 71-73 defeat by Dickinson College, as they buried the visiting Red Devils, 100-75, under an avalanche of baskets at Northwest last Saturday night. But a league defeat at the hands of Moravian last Wednesday, February 22, dropped the Cats back into a tie with Scranton, who also lost to Moravian last Saturday night, and gave the fighting Lions their present seasonal record of 13 wins and seven losses.

The victors broke two scoring marks in their romp with Moravian. Anlian set a new one-game scoring mark for the season by erasing Lee Cappel's previous high of 30 against Lebanon Valley, and the entire squad set a new team mark for this year with their 100 tallies. The fracas also sent Anlian's all-time Albright scoring record up to 1,547 for four seasons of play with an excellent possibility of reaching the coveted 1,600-point mark.

Lions Pour It On

It was all Albright after they overcame an early 8-7 Dickinson lead, and by the time the first period ended the ultimate victors were on the long end of a 23-17 score. After walking off the floor with a 48-37 half-time bulge the Lions outscored the visitors, 21-18, in the third stanza and then really poured it on for 31 big points in the final period.

At the 85-point mark Coach Eddie Gulian sent in his capable reserve squad who continued the scoring spree until lanky Gerry Potts tallied the final deuce giving the winners their 100 points. Lee Cappel, towering Lion center, finished the night's proceedings next to Anlian with 24 tallies, while Dick Zilling, Dickinson ace, was high for the losers with 20 points.

Greyhounds Ruin Albright

The Moravian Greyhounds pushed Albright's basketeers temporarily out of undisputed first place in the Western Division of the Middle Atlantic Conference as they trimmed the visiting Lions, 76-66.

It was junior star Bill Werpeshoki, sensational Greyhound forward, who racked up 27 points on nine field goals and the same number of foul conversions that virtually ruined the Cats single-handed. Held to nine points in their previous meeting, the sensational junior went wild in this contest.

The Red and White cagers started fast and furious and as the first period closed they were on the long end of a 19-18 score. They soon slowed up, however, and Moravian managed to pass them and build up a 41-31 halftime lead. The Lions continued to falter and were on the long end of a 66-44 third period score and the final 76-66 tally, after a belated last period rally was cut short by the gun.

Anlian Earns Rank With All-time Best

Tops 1,500 Pt. Mark; Averages 16.4 Per Fray

In last Saturday night's battle with Dickinson, Eddie Anlian, high-scoring captain of the Lion squad, racked up 13 field goals and six free throws for 32 points to boost his four-year varsity scoring record to a grand total of 1,547 markers. With the Dickinson game Anlian has scored 367 points this season and has five games remaining in which to boost his total still higher.

In his first year as a varsity basketball player in 1946-47 at Albright, Anlian piled up his best record to date. Out of the 24 games played that season he scored 432 tallies for an average of 18 per contest. For the next two years Eddie dropped below this average. In his sophomore season he scored 364 points in 23 games, an average of 15.8 per game, and last year clicked for 384 tallies in 29 contests, an average of only 13.2 a game. He made one-third of shots attempted.

But this season Anlian has come back true to form. He has built up an average of 18.4 points a contest by scoring his 367 points in only 20 games. He has again shown himself an ace at the free throw line with 84 foul shots made.

Broke Individual Record

Last year Anlian broke Albright's individual scoring record with his 1180 tallies, three better than Dick Shollenberger's 1,177 record set from 1939-43. But after going over the 1,500 mark at Moravian, Capt. Eddie grabbed himself a spot on a plane with the 13 great all-time scorers in small college competition recognized by the NCAA who have scored from 1,500 to 2,161 points. The only other Pennsylvania ever to attain a position on this honored list was Frankie Keith, who racked up 1,872 points in four years at Elizabethtown before being graduated last year.

AIMS FOR 1,600

Even in major college competition only 13 basketball luminaries have ever reached the coveted 1,500 point mark, the highest among them being Jim Lacy's (Loyola) 2,199. Judging from these figures Albright's Anlian now rates among the best 26 college basketball players ever to grace the hardwoods and has an excellent possibility of even raising his present standards by piling up 1,600 points in four years.

Loss of Frank Keath Weakens Blue Jays; Sport Tall Team

Visit to Rams Scheduled for Tuesday; Albright Copped First Fracas, 56-52

With only two more home games on tap, the Lions play host to the visiting Elizabethtown quintet on the Northwest hardwoods tomorrow night at 8:30 p. m. Packing their bags for the season's away finale, the Guliannmen take off for West Chester and seek to reverse the hard fighting Rams a second time on Tuesday evening.

Flying into the Lion's den with a six and fifteen record, the Blue Jays of E-town sport an up and coming squad made up of eight returning lettermen and a contingent of always dangerous sophomores.

Lionesses Prepare For Temple Battle

Cop Two Out of Last Three Hoop Contests

Having posted their seventh win in nine starts this season by downing Beaver College, 44-28, Monday afternoon at Jenkintown, the Lionesses now point their guns for the final stretch of a rugged schedule this Saturday when they will play host to the Owlettes of Temple, with the tap-off for the varsity game slated for 10:30 a. m. The femme Cats are more than determined to avenge the 50-33 setback handed them last year on the Temple court. With the scoring chores centered around Captain Margie Zeock, who has amassed a total of 192 points thus far for a 21.3 average, Mosser's charges will go all out to overtake the high and mighty phys. ed. majors from Temple.

Having cancelled the scheduled game with the femmes of East Stroudsburg, the Lionesses will enjoy a week's stay of freedom from a grueling schedule which has kept them stepping. Then on Saturday, March 11, the Lionesses will take to the road for the first of their last two games, when they travel to Millersville to meet the State Teachers lassies. In last year's encounter between the two teams the Albright lassies came out the victors by the sound score of 52-30.

Cop Two of Last Three

The plucky Lionesses proved their basketball abilities by coping two out of their last three games, bowing only to Immaculata by a thrilling score of 62-55. Playing the "Mackies" for the first time gave the fems a Cats an opportunity to meet a smooth, well organized outfit under the guiding eye of Miss Jean Harrigan. The game was packed with plenty of thrills and spine chillers. The final score was not determined until the last quarter when the visitors poured 16 points through the cords to the hosts' 11 crucials to sew up the game. The period scores were 14-13, 26-22, and 36-44, all in favor of the Blue and White visitors. High scorers were Zeock with an overwhelming 42 tallies and Frank and Giehr for the victors with 29 and 21 points respectively.

The Gettysburg tilt, which the Red and White won, 45-40, was quite unlike the Immaculata contest in that the play was much less impressive. However, the Lionesses, after being held to a first period 10-10 deadlock, forged ahead to maintain a lead that could not be overtaken. Zeock for the winners and Dicker for the losers poured 29 and 28 points through the hoops to take high scoring honors. Stump with her timely 13 tallies helped to seal the victory.

Subdue Beaver

Traveling to Beaver the Albright Lionesses again recorded another victory by subduing the Jenkintown lassies, 44-28. Captain Margie continued to rack them up, this time garnering 27 tallies, with Ulmer of Beaver hitting for 14 to lead her team's point production.

The luckless baby Lionesses dropped all three of their Jayvee games, but the score does not indicate the fight and determination these up-and-coming yearlings put into their games. The scores were Immaculata, 35-23; Gettysburg, 40-19; and Beaver, 43-20.

With the loss of All State sharpshooter Frank Keath, the Herr combine is having trouble equaling their outstanding record of seventeen and seven of last year.

Leading the Blue and Grey squad into Reading, is six foot two Bill Foster from Norwood, who is trying to fill Keath's shoes and is doing a pretty fair job. Also back are John Berger from the local surroundings, big two hundred pound, six foot three senior Bill Helm, streaky LeRoy Trupe, and rangy center, Ed Brunner with his brother John. In last year's battle, the Cats came out on top with a close 62-59 score. Pacing the E-town attack was Keath with 18 markers, followed by Ed Brunner with 13, and Foster gathering 12 tallies.

Some of the scores against mutual opponents were two convincing wins over Juniata by scores of 67-53 and 62-57 the second time. The Birds had their wings clipped when Gettysburg squeezed by with a 48-50 win. Further trimmings came at the hands of the Flying Dutchmen of L.V., when the Mease crew pounded them twice, 84-77, and 77-67. Moravian and St. Joseph's inflicted more injury by scores of 94-70 and 76-59, respectively. Average scoring to date for the Blue Jays has been 62.5 per game while their opponents have averaged 65 per contest.

Travel to West Chester

Traveling to West Chester next week, the Albright five will more than have their hands full as they come up against the hard charging Rams, who are sporting a bright record of fourteen triumphs in sixteen starts. The two losses were inflicted by the Guliannmen on the Northwest floor, 55-52, and by the Greyhounds of Moravian, who got defeated the first time, but surprised the Teachers with an 80-60 wallop.

Last Saturday the pedagogues had a close call, when the University of Delaware threatened with a final period rally, but staved it off to come out on top, 48-47. Big gun for the night was Art Nazigan with 15 points and trailed by big Pete Monska with 10 markers. Coach Earl Messikomer will probably use the same starting lineup as he used the first time with Ulr Voss and Ed Malikowski up front, towering Nazigan at center, and Captain "Schneitz" Oshero and Monska in the guard positions.

Lions, Royals Tied

Moravian's stunning 79-70 upset of the Scranton Royals last Saturday night in Bethlehem dropped the Royals into a first place tie with the Lions in the Middle Atlantic States Western Division pennant chase. The decisive meeting of the rival leaders will take place in the final league game on Saturday night, March 11, in the Northwest court when the Lions will be gunning to retain the league title. This will be the final Middle Atlantic fracas as no post-season play-offs have been scheduled.

Prof's Give General Approval To New College Cut System

According to a cross-section survey of the various fields of instruction, the professors feel that Albright's new cut system is not being abused. This system places the entire responsibility for class attendance upon the student. There is no specific "limit of cut allowance."

Typical of the opinions which were given to The Albrightian early this week is that of Prof. Paul I. Speicher, of the mathematics department, who said, "I have noticed no difference in regard to cutting. The new system has brought no noticeable changes in my classes."

Prof. Ellery B. Haskell, head of the philosophy department, said that, although he has noticed no change thus far, "the real test will come later, closer to the time of the Easter holidays."

Expresses Different View

A different view was expressed by Prof. Paul Rusby, of the business administration department, who said, "I think that some students are taking advantage of the new system. However," he added, "I am so prejudiced for democracy that the situation would have to get much worse before I would complain."

Prof. Lewis E. Smith, head of the political science department, said that he had trouble in his classes during the first week under the new system. However, absences diminished after he talked to his classes and reminded them that a college student is expected to realize that class attendance is his own problem, and that the sooner he realizes what he wants in life, the better.

The most flagrant misuse of the cut system which The Albrightian's interviewers noted was in the physics lecture classes conducted by Prof. Edwin Dunkle, who reported as many as six absences per period. The students taking advantage of the system, he warned, are the ones who need the work most, and consequently, their cutting will have a definite effect on their grades.

On the other hand, Miss Ernestine Elder has reported that in her laboratory classes there has been no increase in absences since the two hour period is one which most students can't afford to miss. They know, she indicated, that the work will have to be made up later in any case.

"I can see no difference since the introduction of the new policy," Prof. Harry W. Mengel, of the education department, said. "The number of absences which I have noticed," he explained, "cannot be attributed solely to the new system."

More Absentees Noted

Dr. Milton G. Geil, head of the psychology department, said, "There are more absentees. However, I am not certain whether any significance can be attached to them as yet."

"The students are very fair with the cut system thus far," Prof. John W. Khouri, of the history department, said. He emphasized the words "thus far."

Miss Elsie Garlach, French professor, said that it is too early to draw conclusions. Mr. Robert White, newcomer in the English department, said that he could not express judgment since he never taught at Albright under the former system.

Foreign Students Continue Studies

Selig Wassner and Robert Ashton, Albright's two D. P. students who arrived on the Albright campus in November, resumed their studies on February 6.

Selig Wassner is a liberal arts student, majoring in Spanish, and minoring in French. He is carrying 15 1/2 credit hours this semester. He resides at the home of Miss Lydia B. Weiler, 1325 North 12th Street, and now holds a part time job with the Pensupreme Ice Cream Company on Lancaster Avenue.

Robert Ashton, also a liberal arts student, is making French his major. He is carrying 16 1/2 credit hours this semester. He resides at the home of Mr. Homer Seidel, 1245 Alsace Road. Alfred Thomas is his roommate. Ashton is now employed by the Crystal Restaurant on Penn Street.

Dr. Carl Eshbach, personnel secretary of the Department of World Missions of the Evangelical United Brethren Church, will be the featured speaker at the Chapel service next Tuesday. Other members of the Christian vocation visitation team will appear.

Rabbi Abraham Holtzberg of the Jewish Chautauqua in Cincinnati spoke to the Chapel audiences this week on the function of religion in the modern world.

Rabbi Holtzberg stated that modern civilization brings dissatisfaction to those who desire peace of mind. Up to the 13th century, he said, religion was the "all." Now with emphasis placed on individuality, there has been a decrease in idealization, an increase in sensation.

Reading Hour Set for March 17

Students from the college speech classes will present a Reading Hour on Friday, March 17, at 3:15 p. m. in the Chapel. One student from each of the eight speech classes has been selected by vote to represent his section. These students will read some of their favorite prose and poetry.

The following students will take part: Robert Aston, Dolores High, Joseph Ustynski, Bruce Kurzweg, Eugene Snyder, Robert Myers, Judith Goodman and Margery Sternberg.

Women's Senate To Hold Luncheon

The Women's Student Senate will hold a luncheon at the Crystal Restaurant on Saturday, March 25. The object of the luncheon is to better acquaint the women of Albright with the Foster Parent Plan through which Women's Senate has supported a w. s. s. plan.

Miss Alice Blue, representative of the Foster Parent Plan, will speak and show a film taken of conditions in Europe. Miss Blue has traveled in Europe for the organization and has seen the great need for American support of orphaned Europeans.

All Albright women are urged to attend the luncheon. Senate has not as yet voted on whether or not to accept the responsibility of supporting an orphan for another year.

Campus Clubs Plan Meetings For Coming Weeks

Kappa Tau Chi

Kappa Tau Chi pre-ministerial fraternity held its annual banquet at the Thomas Jefferson Tea Room last night. Highlighting the program was an address by the Rev. Mervin A. Heller, Executive Secretary of the Greater Reading Council of Churches, on "Standing in the Living Present."

At its last business meeting, held on February 23, K.T.X. discussed the possibility of having more frequent meetings with the Divinity Students' Society of the Evangelical School of Theology. It was pointed out that the mutual fellowship would be beneficial to both groups.

The regular March business session will be held on Thursday, March 16. Detailed plans have not yet been formulated.

Alchemists

A J. Arthur Rank production will be shown at the Alchemists meeting in the Science Hall at 8 o'clock on Wednesday, March 8. The film will deal with radioactivity, explaining the different stages in its development from Becquerel down to the present, including Einstein. All the explanations are on the layman's level. The meeting will be open to everyone.

Skull and Bones

Dr. O. Herkelin Dressler, Dean of the Philadelphia School of Osteopathy, spoke at the Skull and Bones meeting on Wednesday, March 1. His Subject was "Osteopathy."

Pi Gamma Mu

William Bitler will present a paper on "Borough Governments" at the Pi Gamma Mu meeting on Wednesday, March 8, at 7:30 p. m. in the Lower Social Room. Richard Bausher will read a paper on "Capitalism vs. Socialism." Pledges will be inducted.

Der Deutsche Verein

Der Deutsche Verein will meet Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the Lower Social Room. Though plans are still indefinite, the program will be appropriate to the Lenten season.

Mrs. Shirk to Speak At Leadership Meeting

This week's Leadership Training Program featured a talk by the Rev. Eugene H. Barth on discussion groups and how to lead them. Rev. Mr. Barth discussed the roles of a chairman and the members of the group in keeping the discussion functioning successfully.

Next Thursday at 4 o'clock Mrs. Annadora Vesper Shirk will talk on techniques of public speaking. The meetings are held in room 103 and all students and faculty members interested in leadership are urged to attend.

ker of K.T.X. In the third Tug of War, Frank Bird, Art Halprin, Fred Rosen and Pedota will represent the A.P.O.'s in competition with Drazek, Andy Hydock, Charles Martone and Tom Savage, Kappas.

The Horse and Rider contests will pit Kappas Arthur Diaz and Savage against Dorm Men Tony Phillips and Freedman; Zetas Hank Miller and John McKenna against Pi Taus Kohn and Boaman; and A.P.O.'s George Gartell and Bird against K.T.X.'s Klinger and Young.

Miss Johnson will participate for the Pats in the Indian Hand Wrestling against Kathleen Guenther of the Mus. The Dorm Women will send Anona Serfass against Miss Swartz of the Daywomen.

In the Men's Indian Leg Wrestling, Pedota will fight for A.P.O.'s against Martone, Kappas; McKenna, Zetas, against Jack Snook, K.T.X.; and Chambers, Pi Taus, against Floyd Rightmire, Dorm Men.

James Harring, K.T.X., will wrestle Rodney Shippe, Pi Taus, in the 160-169 pound class, and Joseph Nunes, Dorm Men, will wrestle Alfred Thomas, A.P.O. In the 180 pound class, Kappa Russell Miller will wrestle Zeta McKenna. The referee will be William Heidelberg.

Parsons to Referee Boxing
The final event of the evening will be boxing, with Coach Lloyd Parsons as referee. In the 140-149 pound class, Harris Nissenon of the Dorm Men will box Richard Stinson of K.T.X. The 150-159 pound class will bring together Richard Steely, of the Zetas, and Jesse Ervin.

The judges for the men's events will be Coach Edward Gulian, Coach Parsons, Dean Levan P. Smith and Mr. Eugene Shirk. Women's judges will be Mrs. Eva Mosser, Mrs. Annadora Vesper Shirk and Mrs. Frank Voss. Score keeper will be Lee Katz. William Krohto will act as timer.
