BUILDING PROGRESS AT ALBRIGHT

Progress is being made in building at Albright. The addition to Mohn Hall is well under way. The third and second floors are plastered. The two upper floors are being finished first so as to provide quarters for the ladies at the earliest moment. The first floor will be the last section to be completed.

The progress at the main building is not so marked. Owing to a solid rock formation under the building, progress has been exceedingly slow. No blasting could be done on account of tearing loose the strata upon which the present building rests, consequently the rock had to be loosed by chisels and crowbars. The foundation for the section jutting out from the building is about completed and the contractors are pouring concrete for the dining room floor. After the work under the old building is completed the work will move more rapidly. It is planned to complete the dining room first so as to provide more suitable dining quarters, after which the third floor of the building will be completed in order to relieve the crowded conditions in the old "dorm." The chapel will be the last completed.

The old chapel is at present being used for a dining hall and the gymnasium as a chapel. Neocosmian Hall has been taken by Dr. Gobble as a class room. It is hoped that the improvements will be completed by the first of the coming year.

ALBRIGHT LOSES TO F. & M.

Albright opened her 1921 Football season on Sept. 24th, by losing to F. & M. college at Lancaster by the score of 7-0. The game was decidedly rough, and the Red and White boys, greatly outweighed, took terrific punishment at the hands of their opponents. Each member of the squad suffered some injury and most of them were inflicted after the man was down, kicking and slugging being F. & M's chief diversion. Saltern and Kingsley suffered the bulk of the punishment.

Albright started the game with a bang and tallied two first downs. Miller went 10 yards around F. & M's left end for the first gain of the contest. A fumble by F. & M placed her on her own 10 yard line, but an equally disastrous fumble by one of the Albright backs gave F. & M. the ball again, and she punted out of danger. Here Albright lost her brightest chance to score.

Fumbles and penalties played an important part in the fray, with Albright gaining the greatest number of first downs. The Lancaster collegians won the game in the second quarter, when one of her men blocked Kingsley's kick, and picked up the ball for a touch-down. Kingsley had been injured severely just prior to the punt and this prevented him from getting started with his usual speed and brilliancy.

Each player on the Red and White squad played a good game and what they lost in weight they regained by their splendid fighting spirit. Albright

STUDENT GOVERNMENT AT LAST

Student Government has been a long felt need at Albright. Many have had the vision for it remained for the members of the present faculty to also catch the vision. During the spring term of last school year a plan was presented by Rev. Heck for a students' code. This plan was shaped by students elected by their respective classes and presented at a students mass meeting. This plan had the support of only about fifty per cent of the students. The plan stated what should be done but failed to provide means for enforcement. Fault was also found in the methods to be used to remove existing conditions. Failing to find support for this plan and finding that the opponents of the preceding plan would support a genuine student government proposition, the plan was dropped. A second committee meeting discussed the plan of student government and decided to ask Rev. Heck and Coach Benfer to draft a plan for student government. During the vacation period the plan, that is printed on another page, was drafted.

At a meeting of the student body held in the dining room September 21, Rev. Heck presented the newly drafted plan for student government. Coach Benfer likewise attended the meeting. The proposed constitution was read by Rev. Heck. On motion it was decided to withhold a vote on the plan until Friday September 23 so as to allow discussion. On Friday the constitution was again read to the student body.

separate vote was taken by the men and the ladies, both resulting in favor of student government.

The constitution must now be presented to the faculty for ratification. As this plan has been unofficially discussed and favorably commented upon by faculty members, the plan is certain of ratification by faculty action. After ratification by the faculty representatives will be elected by the classes as provided in the constitution to draft the code by which the students will be governed. It remains for the student representatives to draft a sane plan for student government, otherwise the rejection of the code will mean the rejection of student government for Albright.

Consider well your representatives.

The text of the constitution follows:—

Tentative Sketch of CONSTITUTION

The Student Council of Albright College

Article I—Name

The name of this organization shall be THE STUDENT COUNCIL OF ALBRIGHT COLLEGE.

Article II—Object

The object of this organization shall be the creation and the fostering of the most wholesome student sentiments, the co-ordination of student interests and activities, the securing of greater sympathy and mutual understanding between faculty and student body, and the enforcement of the principles set forth in the student code.

Article III—Code

The student code shall be constituted of the principles and regulations adopted by two-thirds vote of the student body present at a regularly called meeting of the body, and ratified by the faculty of the college.

This code may be modified any time under the same conditions as above stated and shall be supplemented by regulations in harmony therewith enacted by the council as deemed necessary.

Article IV—Power and Authority

The authority of the council shall be vested in it by action of the faculty, to whom in turn it shall be responsible for all of its decrees.

The council shall have full power to regulate student life and activities within the limits prescribed by the accepted code.

It shall also have jurisdiction in the enforcement of all its regulations, with authority to make disciplinary recommendations to the faculty.

In matters pertaining to purely student relationships, of a non-institutional nature, enforcement shall be solely in the hands of the council, provided however that the council shall be responsible to the faculty for any actions of questionable character.

Article V—Faculty Representative

A faculty representative shall be chosen to sit with the council in all of its sessions in the capacity of counsellor.

This representative shall be elected by the faculty upon nomination of the council.

Article VI—Membership

Membership upon the council shall be representative of each class group, and shall be distributed as follows: four representatives from the Senior Class, three from the Junior Class, two from the Sophomore Class, and one from the Freshman Class.

These representatives shall be elected from among the most capable men of each class, by the men of their own class group.

Election to membership on the council shall take place before the first day of October of each year, at which time the council-year shall begin and end.

Article VII—Officers

The officers of the council shall be a President, a Vice-president, a Secretary and a Deputy.

The President of the Council shall be the recognized President of the Student Assembly (viz. the whole student body), and shall be elected by majority vote of the Assembly present at a regularly called meeting of the Assembly, from among the Senior representatives on the Council.

The Vice-president and Secretary shall be elected by the Council, from among the upper class representatives on the Council.

The Deputy shall be elected by the council from among the Seniors of the group, to act in the capacity of enforcement officer, and shall be responsible to the council for all of his actions.

Article VIII—Duties of Officers

The President shall preside at all meetings of the Council and of the Student Assembly, shall call according to the constitution all meetings of council and assembly, appoint all delegates and committees unless otherwise provided for, render decision in every case of a tie vote in the Council, and fulfill all such responsibilities as normally pertain to his office.

The Vice-president shall fulfill the functions of the President in his absence, or upon his request.

The Secretary shall keep an accurate and detailed record of all the proceedings of both Council and Assembly, shall preserve a careful roll of all members of council present at each meeting of the council, and shall act as correspondent in all matters pertaining to the presentation of resolutions, writing of letters, etcetera.

The Deputy shall be charged with the responsibility of enforcing the decrees of the council, in which he shall have the assistance of a committee selected by the council. He shall be responsible to the council for all of his actions and the actions of his committee.

Article IX—Meetings

Regular meetings of the Student Council shall be held once a week at a time designated by them.

Special meetings of the council may be called in case

378.748

A. Q. v. 19

1921-22

Albright, Room

16965

of emergency either by the President, or upon petition of five members of the council.

No meetings of the council shall be held in which less than three seniors, two juniors, and one sophomore are present.

An annual meeting of the student assembly shall be held the first Monday evening of October, for purposes of organization and re-adoption of the code. A special meeting may be called at any time by direction of the council. All meetings of the Assembly must be announced at least twice, the first announcement not later than two days before the time of meeting, and at the same time the purpose of the meeting shall also be stated.

Article X—Disciplinary Procedure

The President of the Council, or any member thereof, shall be informed of every violation of the principles of the code. The President in turn, or any member of the council possessing such information shall be under obligation to bring such information before the Council at its next meeting, without divulging the name of his informant. The council shall take all matters into careful consideration, investigate thoroughly, pass judgment, and if deemed necessary fix penalty.

No decision of the council against a student shall be rendered unless the person involved shall first have had opportunity to appear before the council in his own defense. In no instance shall a decree be valid unless it shall have the support of a majority vote of the entire membership of the council (viz., at least five votes).

Decrees involving the demeriting, suspension, or expulsion of students shall be submitted to the faculty in the form of a recommendation for ratification by that body. In such case the proceedings of the council shall be subject to review by the faculty.

In all other cases the decree shall be placed in the hands of the Deputy for official enforcement.

Article XI—Impeachment

If at any time it becomes apparent to other members of the council, that one of its members has proven himself unworthy of the responsible position which he holds, either by neglect of duty, commission of an offense, or unfairness in his attitudes, he shall be held accountable for such conduct to the council.

If in the judgment of the council, the offense is sufficiently serious, and has been proven against the offender, he may be removed from his seat in the council by a majority vote of the council, and a successor elected to fill the vacancy. Every impeachment action to become effective shall be ratified by the faculty.

Article XII—Amendments

Amendments to this constitution must be presented at least one year prior to their enactment.

Amendments may become effective only upon two-thirds vote of those present at a regularly called meeting of the Assembly, and upon ratification by the faculty of the Institution.

Albright Loses to F. & M.

bright looked the better of the two teams all thru the game.

But it was Albright's game from the beginning and but for the fluke which turned the tide, the victory would have been hers. Coach Benfer is highly pleased by the showing made by the boys and feels confident that they will more than atone for the loss of this game when they meet the P. M. C. eleven at Chester next Saturday.

The score and line-up:

F. AND M.	ALBRIGHT
Roberts, L. E.	Deck, L. E.
Kurtz, L. T.	Buechner, L. T.
Gilbert, L. G.	Sheeley, L. G.
Madison, C.	Hartzler, C.
Birney, R. G.	Lackey, R. G.
R. T.	Jago, R. T.
E.	Klein, R. E.
	Miller, Q. B.
B.	Wagner, L. H. B.
	Saltner, R. H. B.
B.	Kingsley, F. B.

With the opening of the 1921 Football season at old Albright, Coach Haps Benfer and students alike, are encouraged with the splendid prospects for a successful season. Altho handicapped by a late start due to the postponement of the college, the team has progressed wonderfully. With but a single weeks preparation, Coach Benfer has whipped his proteges into fine shape in preparation for the opening game with F. & M. at Lancaster.

Despite the fact that several of last year's men have been lost to the squad this year, it promises to be one of the best elezens ever representing Albright on the Gridiron. Hartzler, center; Lackey, right guard and Kline, left end, are the only old varsity men remaining on the line, and are the bulk of the experience and training for the rest of the line. Dech and Sheeley, two of last year's scrubs, are holding down the right end and left guard positions, respectively. Buechner, of Hogan A. C., Allentown, and Jago, of Penn Argyl, the left tackle and right tackle berths. The entire backfield remains the same as last year, consisting of Kingsley, fullback; Miller, quarter and Wagner and Cpt. "Goof" Saltern at half-backs. This veteran back field is one of the best ever seen at Albright, and promises to be far more effective than during the 1920 season.

Other promising candidates are Knecht, Crumbling, Luckenbill, Kyle, Kochel, Kreuger, Rabuck, Leinbach, Mawry and Mahaffie, all of whom are fighting for permanent berths on the squad.

Christ, a former Pottsville and Bethlehem Prep. star, suffered a broken shoulder in the early days of practice. His services will be lost to the team for the entire season, a loss which will be keenly felt, as he is a fast and aggressive player, and was making a promising bid for a backfield position.

EDITORIALS

EDITORIAL POLICY

It is the aim of the present Bulletin Staff to make the editorial columns of special interest. In these columns we propose to laud objects of merit and to all progressive movements in and about the college. On the other hand we propose to point defects which in our opinion should be remedied, giving adequate reasons and suggestions for the remedy of the conditions at fault.

We do not want the faculty, student body or alumni to regard us as knockers if we criticize too harshly, it is only our sincere desire to make conditions around Albright ideal.

We will welcome all contributions and criticisms for it is only by your friendly co-operation that we will be able to make the Bulletin a success. A contribution box will be placed in the hall of the Main Building for news items, jokes and all articles of interest to the faculty, student body and Alumni.

Alumni, we want you to feel that this is your paper more than the paper of the student body, for it is the best by which you can keep in touch with your Alma Mater. Your suggestions and criticisms will be appreciated.

Let us work together for a "Greater Bulletin" for a "Greater Albright."

INITIATIVE

All the big prizes in life go to the man with initiative whether he be in college, the business world or the professional world. We might look thru dictionaries to find a definition but none would meet or satisfy the definition given by a well known financier. He defined initiative as "doing the right thing without being told." Next to doing the right thing without being told is to do it after you have been told once.

College training should develop the student's initiative. Whether it does or does not rests with the student. The student who sees opportunity and siezes upon it is developing his initiative. The student who sees the opportunity and allows it to slip away the casual comment, "Let George do it," is not only allowing opportunity to slip but is lowering his mental powers and dulling whatever ability he may have to do the right thing without being told. These students are going out into the world giving the colleges of the country a black eye and cause business men to point to themselves with pride because they have been successful without a college training while examples are cited of college graduates who have failed.

The larger colleges of the country have begun to limit their enrollment. The weeding process has begun. There are many willing students who stand outside the door and wish to take your place. There is no room in the business and professional worlds for the man or woman who is not willing to develop his or her initiative, and the time is coming when there will be no room in the collegiate world for students of that caliber. Develop your initiative.

TWO NEW MEMBERS OF THE FACULTY

Among the other new faces at the opening of the school year, we were glad to welcome two new members of the faculty, Miss Bowman and Miss Garlach.

Miss Miriam Bowman, the daughter of Dean Bowman, has accepted the position as assistant in the Department of Piano. To the old students especially, Miss Bowman needs no introduction, for she has always been a hearty participant in all the college activities. Miss Bowman took her A. B. degree at Albright in 1915 and graduated in music three years later. Since that time she has had two years of graduate work at the University of Michigan.

Miss Garlach comes to us as the head of the French Department. She was a member of the class which graduated from Gettysburg in 1907, and for several years thereafter taught French in various private Schools and Academies in Vermont, Florida and North Carolina. After that Miss Garlach taught four years at Irving College following which she went back to the High School at Gettysburg, her native town, where she has been for the last three years.

Miss Garlach took her Master's degree at Columbia University in '16 and for the past three years has been working for her Master's degree in French at the same place.

We are glad indeed to welcome these two competent instructors among us, and are all anticipating a very pleasant year's work together.

"So she refused you?"

"That's the impression I received."

"Didn't she actually say no?"

"No, she didn't. All she said was 'Ha-ha-ha!'"—National Republican.

"For months I have been trying to get a girl with little success."

"What girl have you been trying to get?"

"Central."

OBITUARYMrs. Kiess

Shortly following the close of school last spring, the many friends among the faculty and student body of Albright were shocked to hear of the sad death of Mrs. Kiess, wife of the head of the Mathematics Dept. Mrs. Kiess had undergone an operation at the Kelly Hospital in Baltimore and died very suddenly on Sunday, July 3.

Mrs. Kiess was highly respected and a high favorite among the entire student body. We would desire to extend to Professor and daughter our sincerest sympathy.

* * *

Miss Dorothy Ault

The class-mates and many other friends of Miss Dorothy Ault, a member of the class of '22, were saddened, not to say stunned to learn of her death, July 27, 1921 at the home of her aunts, the Misses Carrie and Mary Duth, in Lebanon. Miss Ault had been ill but a few days with membranous croup, and all efforts to save her life were unavailing.

To say that we miss "Dot" is to put it too lightly. To her classmates and all who knew her, it seems that a little of the sunshine has disappeared with the passing of the sweet, jolly girl whom "to know was to love."

ITEMS OF INTEREST
IMPROVEMENTS IN TOWN

Myerstown and Albright are developing hand in hand. While we are carrying out a building campaign, the town is also taking splendid strides forward. The Myerstown Nat. Bank structure, facing the Bahney House, is quite an addition to the square.

Just opposite this building is an up-to-date department store. The Albright Hallers, especially, will note the change from the deserted storeroom to this attractive place.

Shell's Electrical Supply Store stands as one of Myerstown's best looking and attractive stores.

A large department store is being erected on the former site of the shoe-repairing shop opposite Davis' Drug Store.

"The Tasty Shop", which formerly supplied Albright students with cakes and doughnuts, is now a neat little restaurant.

Not the least of the improvements is the playground to the rear of Liebovitz's factory. This park contains two tennis courts, five quoit alleys, one volleyball court, and one basketball court. Watch Myerstown Grow.

* * *

On Thursday afternoon the boys held a "comrade" meeting in the gym. While Mr. Heller entertained at the piano, hearty grips were exchanged until all the boys were acquainted. Mr. Polk sang several solos. The "Asthma Orchestra," led by Mr. Blank took its turn and swung into a march while a bread-line was formed. Three, four and five times this line passed the stand over which appeared rolls and sizzling hot "dogs." Such was the gathering which started many friendships.

* * *

Girls, both old and new, got together in Mohn Hall reception room Tuesday evening, Sept. 20, for the purpose of getting acquainted as well as having a jolly time. The affair was staged as a preventative and sure cure for homesickness. Each old girl was characteristically introduced and spoke a few words of welcome to the new girls. All entered merrily into the jolliest sort of games for the remainder of the hour.

FRESH—SOPH ENCOUNTERS

Not Macbeth, but Sophs "murdered sleep" as they inaugurated their "reign of terror." There was a frightful din in the wee small hours of the night; a ghostly procession slowly wending its way thru the halls; a series of weird, unearthly chants; trembling Freshmen aroused to apologize to Seniors for past offenses. Next morning a motley procession of Freshmen was personally conducted to breakfast. Hideous coiffures and boudoir caps, embellished with green ribbons and all the usual bizarre effects, met the casual gaze.

By noon the Freshmen not being properly subdued and there being a rumor that their banquet was scheduled for that night, the energetic Sophs detained them on the way to dinner, and proceeded to lock them in a third story room. A free-for-all ensued between the valiants of both classes. Neither class had leisure to appear in the dining room at dinner. However, when Mrs. Mohn came upon the scene, the imprisoned ones were set at liberty and set off across the campus on the run closely followed by the Soph Vigilance Comm. The interference of Rev. Heck and Coach Benfer put an end to further hostilities. A council of war—and peace—was held and the Freshmen were permitted to pile into their truck and set off for their banquet. In fitting recompense of the strenuous activities of the hour the gallant Sophs took the girls of the class to Bordners' for their lunch.

FRESHMAN CONDUCT

As usual there are green freshmen, know-it-all freshmen, quiet freshmen, wise freshmen and fresh freshmen. The green freshmen will begin to realize that they are slowly learning; the know-it-all freshmen will find that they are learning—to know less; the quiet freshmen will see the others taught; the wise freshmen will learn unresistingly, but the fresh freshmen will learn that their Nemesis in the guise of a watchful Soph is always ready to administer a lasting and thoro reprimand. FRESHMAN WATCH YOUR STEP.

CLASS ROLLS

The new year shows several changes in the student body other than the incoming class. The Senior and Junior classes lost one member in each class but gained also one new member. The Sophomore class lost five and gained five. The Freshmen class numbers forty-two.

STUDENT WELFARE WORK

We'll cheer Eagles Mere,
We'll cheer Eagles Mere,
We'll cheer, cheer, cheer,
we'll cheer Eagles Mere,
And altho we're rival colleges

The best of friends we'll be,
We'll cheer, cheer, cheer,
Eagles Mere.

This was a song heard frequently at Eagles Mere, the site of the Y. W. C. A. summer Conference. It rightly the friendliness that existed among the girls from different colleges and normal schools. There was a loyal spirit among the girls and altho it was impossible to become personally acquainted with all in that short time, however we felt that we had made a few friends.

The Lectures given daily in the auditorium by prominent men, were inspiring and helpful. Classes convened each morning and were taught by men and women with wide experience in their line.

The afternoons were given over to recreation. In swimming, boating, tennis or hikes there was something for everybody.

The Delegates from Albright will never forget the wonderful spot on the top of the mountain. Having once seen the place, all wanted to go again. The Y. W. C. A. was represented at Eagles Mere by Misses Pewterbaugh, Willard, Woodring and Gilmore.

The beginning of a new school year is always a busy time for the Y. W. C. A. Its members started their work by meeting the new girls at the station. The majority of the Y. W. girls kept in touch with the new girls during the summer by correspondence. On Wednesday evening 21st we had a "get-acquainted" party in Mohn Hall reception room. Other parties are planned with the thought in mind of having us become better acquainted. We are ably guided in our affairs by our worthy President, Miss Pauline Brower.

Y. M. C. A.

The new year has started with remarkable promise of progress and development along the lines of "Y" activities. With one of the largest enrollments of new students the college has ever had in its history, the outlook seems very hopeful for strong and aggressive work in this important organization, not only along the lines of mental development, but social and spiritual as well. It is important that we at this time the importance of aligning themselves with this organization, for the influence of the "Y" upon our lives here at college is one which is very valuable in our development for the lines of work in which we shall be engaged after we leave the halls of our Alma Mater. The influence of the "Y" upon our lives can hardly be realized while here at college, but after we get out into our life's work, then we really discover of what value this organization has been in the formulation of our characters and in the complete rounding-out of our education. Come and we will help you to adjust yourself to the college atmosphere and to enjoy your time while at this institution.

On the evening of September 26 those who attended the meeting of the "Y" were inspired by the talk of the students secretary for the state Y. M. C. A. work. Mr. L. M. Miller, the state secretary, is an Albright man. He brought to us in a message that left an impression the fundamental things in life that the "Y" stands for.

A Hint?

The girls were watching the machines leave for Lancaster. Miss Statler called to Willard Mohn: "Oh, can't you squeeze me in the truck?"

Heard in the Hall Wednesday evening "Mr. S. wanted at the phone at Dr. Hunt's residence." You know the rest.

"A man I know still cherishes the trunk strap with which his father chastised him in the old family woodshed."

"A matter of sentiment, eh?"

"Sentiment and common sense. He has the best behaved boys in our neighborhood."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Big Man in audience, turning around—Can't you see anything?

Little Man (pathetically)—Can't see a streak of the stage.

Big Man (sarcastically)—Why, then, I'll tell you what to do. You keep your eyes on me and laugh when I do.

"Is this a fast train?" the salesman asked the conductor.

"Of course it is," was the reply.

"I thought it was. Would you mind my getting out to see what it is fast to?"—Sonora Bell.

Simpson (greeting his old friend)—Why, Jones, it's ages since I saw you last. Married now, aren't you?

Jones—No, no, old man, it's not that. Just business worry and nerves.—Sydney Bulletin.

Irate Father—Your dilatory habits annoy me. It has been my rule through life to be at my desk early and late.

Incorrigible Son—Same with me, dad. Sometimes I get there early and sometimes late.

Jones—Women certainly go by contraries.

Bones—That's the truth. You tell a woman she is dull and she will turn around and cut you.—Cartoons Magazine.

"How old are you, Marjorie?"

"I'm five, and mother says if I'm good an' eat lots of oatmeal, I'll be six next birthday."—Baltimore Sun.

Poetic Young Man—Do you care for Browning?

Young Lady—Oh, do be careful, please! My husband has an awful jealous disposition.

LITERARY

IN THE LITERARY SOCIETY HALLS

The Themesian Literary Society held its first meeting of the college year Friday, September 23, the meeting was well-attended both by old and new girls. The society elected the following officers for the fall term:

Pres.—Grace Pewterbaugh.
Vice Pres.—Marguerite Willard.
Secretary—Edith Trostle.
Treas.—Mary Kiess.
Critic—Pauline Brower.

* * *

The Excelsior Literary Society held its first meeting for the new year in the Gymnasium. The election of officers resulted as follows:

Pres.—Arthur Fahl.
Vice Pres.—Fred Super.
Rec. Sec.—Ralph Kaufman.
Critic—Orville Bennet.
Treas.—Harry Sheely.

Dr. Hunt and Coach Benfer were present. Each gave us a short talk in which they urged upon us the necessity and the privilege of literary society work. Mr. Brown favored us with several violin solos after which Harry Wilhelm delighted the boys with a number of piano selections. Eleven of the new men present decided to cast their lots with the Excelsior group. Everybody is going to pull hard for a big year.

* * *

The first Neocosmian meeting showed an unusual amount of quiet determination to make this year one to be remembered. Stirring talks by several upper classmen disclosed the high aims of the entire society. The Neocosmian Motto is "Onward." Watch us.

The officers chosen for the first term are:

Pres.—Emerson G. Hangen.
Vice Pres.—Ray Lackey.
Secretary—Harry Crumb-ling.
Treas.—Gordon Burgett.
Critic—Howard Blank.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO THE ALUMNI AND FRIENDS

Many of the Alumni and friends of the college who have received a request to subscribe to the Bulletin have not yet replied. The Bulletin as a bi-weekly is a new venture for Albright and a big one when you consider that instead of eight issues there will be nineteen issues. To make it a success we will need the support of you who are interested in the activities of their institution. We will send copies to you beginning with this the first issue but if you fail to give us a guarantee of your support we will have to discontinue sending the Bulletin.

Please give this matter your prompt attention.

—o—

We suggest the following questions to Mr. Edison:—

When will the addition to the Main Building be completed?

When will the Latin students stop using trots?

How much will it cost a college student to attend the society events during the college course?

Will all the rooms in the main building be warm this winter?

When are we going to have fried chicken for Sunday dinner?

When will Albright College get a new Gymnasium?

Why do only some of the rooms in the main building have a veranda?

When the girls at Albright be privileged to smoke on the campus?

—o—

Generous

Basom: "Why do you call Swank Scatter brained?"

Shaffer: "Because he gives everybody a piece of his mind."

Fairies

Anne Ritter (watching bathrobe parade): "I don't see what those fellows are over here in their kimonas."

Brown painted his floor like a checker board. Human checkers are used. When a checker becomes king he is "crowned."

CACKLES

Tough

Basom: "Yes, when I met Sheely I thot he was a hard guy."

Bennet: "Oh, but he is. Hard on easy chairs, beds—in fact, hard on anything but work."

The Objective Case

Raebuck, nominated for sergeant-at-arms in Neo. Society, said: "I wish to decline the nomination. I hope you'll accept my declension."

Snatched

Mary Miller (at the train): "Are you a new freshman? I'm so glad to welcome you."

Miss Garlach: "No, I'm merely the new French Teacher."

Miss Ewing: "Did you do much traveling this summer?"
"Honk" Polk: "Yes, by someone's else foot."

Wise Saying of Bennet

The secret of health is the eating of onions. The trouble lies in keeping it a secret.

Regular

Hangen: "What did you earn this summer?"

"Pete" Henninger: "Fifteen dollars a day—once a week."

He'll Soon Learn

Grace Statler, directing freshmen from station, "Go straight up Railroad St. until you come to the Duck Path."

Dumb Bell

Carpenter: "I just finished fixing the dumb waiter."

Freshman: "Which one."

"Gabbleton tells a funny story of how he shortchanged a taxicab driver."

"The infernal liar!"

"Ah! You know Gabbleton?"

"No, but I know taxicab drivers."—Kansas City Star.

"Do you ever sit down to dinner at your house with 13 at table?"

"What do you think I am, a millionaire?"—New York Sun.

ALUMNI DEPARTMENT

The Alumni Editor is desirous of making the Alumni Department of the "Bulletin" the biggest success that it has ever been. This can be accomplished only by the most sympathetic cooperation of all Alumni. Please do not fail to send to Rev. J. A. Heck, Myers-town, Pa., any items that might prove of interest. We are glad to tell our friends that the Editor-in-chief has allowed the Alumni a maximum space of one full page, for their exclusive use, in each number of the paper. This is your department, fellow-Alumni; help us to make it a live page.

Annual Meeting

The following notes represent an abstract of the minutes of the annual business meeting of the Alumni Association, held June 7, 1921.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The members of the class of 1921 were received into the active membership of the association.

Rev. I. E. Spangler presented the report of the committee on alumni representation on the Board of Trustees as follows: (We print here only the most important sections) "In pursuance to the foregoing resolution (The resolution here referred to was adopted at the previous meeting of the Board of Trustees, and provided for a revision of the school charter so as to allow an increase of two members on the Board, said two additional members to be elected by the Alumni Association.) and after some discussion as to plans the following was adopted:

"Resolved that the charter be so amended as to give proper Alumni representation and that Mr. Becker be authorized to secure the charter and prepare the proposed amendment.

"We also recommend that voting membership in the Alumni Association be fixed by the payment of annual dues the amount to be determined by said Association. We further recommend,

"That the Alumni representatives be elected by ballot by mail and direct vote by the Alumni Association subject to confirmation by the Board of Trustees. And,

"That no nominee be referred to the Board of Trustees unless a total minimum number of one-hundred votes has been cast. Also,

"That the matter of church-relationship shall not enter into the qualification of Alumni-representation on the Board of Trustees." This report was adopted.

The committee on revision of the constitution was directed to incorporate in the constitution of the association, provision for the election of Alumni Representatives on the Board of Trustees, and to report at the next annual meeting.

The following officers and committees were elected for the ensuing year: Pres., N. L. Hummel '14; 1st V. P., C. D. Becker '10; 2nd V. P., P. E. Keen '12; 3rd V. P., N. S. Miller '18; Rec. Sec., Emily Brenner '09; Cor. Sec., Mary Crumbling '17; Treas., R. D. Smoyer '04; Program Committee, I. C. Keller '07, Emily Brenner '09, J. A. Heck '16; Banquet Committee, H. A. Kiess '99, Mrs. Luella Mohn '90, H. A. Benfer '15; Lit. and Sci. Committee, A. E. Gobble, S. E. Bertolet '94, Rebecca Tice '16.

The annual report of the treasurer follows:

June 1919, Balance on hand	$22.61
June 8, 1920, Dues received	49.00
	$71.61
Paid Out
June 8, 1920, Progresses	$ 5.50
June 8, 1920 Circular Letters	34.82
Mar. 23, 1921, Expenses of Field Agent	2.66
Mar. 23, 1921, Cards	5.50
	$48.48
June 1921, Balance on hand	$23.13

The committee on revision of the constitution made report:

The amendment regarding dues was adopted as follows: "The regular annual dues of the association shall be one dollar."

The amendment regarding associate membership was adopted as modified: "Associate membership shall consist of all non-graduates who, prior to June 1902, were connected with either of the institutions referred to above, or who, since 1902 have been regularly qualified students during a period of one year or more."

Rev. J. A. Heck '16 was elected Alumni Editor for the "Bulletin."

Upon motion the Campaign Fund Committee was ordered to be reorganized.

Mr. C. D. Becker offered the following motion concerning a special election to insure Alumni representation on the Board of Trustees in 1922: "That the president of the Association forthwith appoint three tellers, who shall conduct a special election of two alumni trustees, by mail ballot and direct vote to close at the time of the mid-year assembly of 1922. The one receiving the highest number of votes to be qualified for two years, and the one receiving the next highest number of votes to be qualified for one year; which election shall also be a referendum on the question of whether the alumni memorial shall take the form of a gymnasium or a library." The "three tellers" called for in this motion were appointed and consist of C. D. Becker '10, A. H. Young '08, Emily Brenner '09.

Thirty members of the Association paid their annual dues of $1.00 up to the close of the annual meeting.

Personal

P. M. Hartzler '15 will enter Harvard Medical School this Fall.

Del Roy White '21 and Miss Elizabeth Stauffer '20 were married during the Summer. We extend our best wishes.

"Albright" was well represented at the Summer Session of Columbia University. The following attended this school for a period of six weeks: Emily Brenner '09, Mrs. W. P. Bowman '09, Mabel Crowell '09, Mary Crumbling '17, Blanche Strickler Wallace '18, Denton M. Albright '15, Karl Ware '16.

ment, Western Union College, Lemars, Ia., conferred the honorary degree Doctor of Divinity upon Rev. A. E. Hangen '98 who is at present Editor of "The Evangelical" with headquarters at Harrisburg, Pa. This was a most fitting recognition of acceptable service to the church and of scholarly attainment.

A baby girl came August 13th to brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bird, Abington, Pa. Both mother and father were members of the class of 1909. The little one has been named Grace Irene.

"I saw Brown the other day. He was treating his wife in a way I wouldn't treat a dog."
"Too bad! What was he doing?"

"Kissing her!"

Algy—Is you sister making up her mind whether to see me or not?

Tommy—It isn't her mind she's making up.

Jim—Does Sybil roll 'em?
Sam—Roll which—stockings, or cigarettes?

Jim—Well, does she roll either?

Sam—Yes; she rolls both.

Stella—Interested in Edison's questionnaire?

Bella—No, any girl can get a life job by just saying "yes" to one question.—New York Herald.

Life Insurance Agent—My dear sir, have you made any provision for those who come after you?

Harduppe—Yes, I put the dog at the door and told the servant to say I'm out of town.

The Boss—What do you mean by such language? Are you the manager here or am I?

Jones—I know I'm not the manager.

The Boss—Very well, then, if you're not the manager, why do you talk like a blamed idiot?—The Stenographer.

Albright Loses to F. & M.

Coach Benfer is doing his utmost to produce a winning team, and barring further injuries to his squad, will whip into shape a well-balanced, speedy, and formidable eleven.

The only thing to mar a complete schedule is the failure of Gettysburg and Dickinson College to appear on the Albright schedule. These two schools have appeared on the Albright schedule for many years. It is hardly possible that Albright could have been dropped because of not putting up a good fight in view of the 6—0 victory over Dickinson in the opening game and the 20—10 defeat at Gettysburg, Albright being the first team to score on the strong Gettysburg team on their home grounds in three seasons. Especially one would think Dickinson would be anxious to revenge the defeat of last year. Dickinson and Albright are two evenly matched schools and this game should be considered one of the classics in college football in Penna.

The following is Albright's schedule for 1921:

September 24th, Franklin and Marshall at Lancaster.

October 8th, Swarthmore at

THE VALUE OF EXCHANGE

One of the important departments of the college paper is that of exchange. This department is often slighted in many papers. If the other departments require more space than usual then the exchanges are pushed out. Some editors don't deem this department important enough to have a fixed place in the college paper. If there is room enough a few exchanges are printed.

This is the wrong attitude to take entirely. Exchange does something for the college paper. It helps us to see us as others see us. The college paper which has no room for exchange is generally faulty in some respect.

A person who holds himself aloof from society lives in a narrow sphere. He or she is not conscious of faults which hinder them in their life plans. They think they are right and everyone else is wrong. Their outlook on life is narrow.

Thus it is with the colleges who do not exchange with other schools. There may be one department which is a favorite one and all energies are concentrated on this department. The success of the paper is measured by the success of the department. If they would exchange their paper with other colleges and receive criticism in the proper spirit, much benefit might be derived.

Criticism is highly important in all angles of life. By this is meant not the criticism that discourages and is the cause of disinterestedness, but that which is kind and an incentive to improvement and advancement. This is the type of criticism that is beneficial to college papers. If such criticism is offered thru the exchange departments of papers, all should profit by it.

We welcome the opinions of others gladly and hope that we will profit by them and make our paper a better one in the future.
