Gosch Awarded First Place Trophy In 'Y' Talent Contest

Robert Gosch, '58, was awarded the first place trophy in the annual Y Talent Show last Tuesday, Sept. 28 in White Chapel before a well-attended audience. Gosch received this honor with his rendition of a medley of popular tunes on the piano. Second place trophy was awarded to Albert Ellis, '58, for his interpretation of "Dragnet".

Other performers included Synde Matz, '56, who sang "Mink Smink"; Marilyn Teeter and Lois Anderson, both of '57, harmonized to "I Believe"; Velma VanLiew, '58, who rendered her piano talents to the audience. The Pick-up, a sextet of males, added a bit of humor to the show.

Between acts, chairman of the 'Y' commissions explained the purpose of each group. Rev. Eugene Barth judged and presented the trophies.

Domino Club To Cast One-Act Plays Today

Ros Cowen announced that try-outs will be held for the one-act plays on September 30 and October 1 at 8:00 p.m. in White Chapel.

Also, there is going to be a party held for all freshmen who are interested in the Domino Club. They are asked to meet in the Blue Room, Selwyn Parlor, on Thursday, October 7 at 7:30 p.m. The party will be held at the Friendly Association.

Band Starts Practice

With David Lubba as student conductor, the 1954 Marching Band started practice on Monday, September 27, for the Pretzel Bowl Game. Further practices will be held every Monday from 3 to 5 and every Wednesday from 4 to 5.

The band will play at every home game and will travel to one away game. Anyone interested in joining this group should contact Henry Greenawald, business manager, Dave Lubba, acting student director during the illness of Dave Reinsel, or Mr. William Levan, director.

Octet Holds Try-out

Try-outs were held Wednesday and Thursday, September 22 and 23 for the Albright College Octet. A new second soprano, Josephine Seyfort, and a new second bass, Dale Ringsdorf, have been chosen for this year's octet.

Upperclass members of the Octet include: Sonja Flicker, first soprano; Sally Bubeck, first alto; Kathleen Forry, second alto; Robert Reeser, first tenor; Dr. Samuel Shirk, second tenor; and Dave Serfass, first bass.

The octet's first engagement will be held on October 31, at Emanuel E. U. B. Church, in Reading.

Frosh Have Party

The Day Women's Council held a party for the freshmen day women students on Tuesday, September 28 at noontime in the Pine Room.

All the Day Women at their lunch together and refreshments were served to the freshmen. Afterwards, everyone gathered together to sing songs accompanied by Betty Miraszewski and Eleanor Hinner-shotts on ukeleles.

Kathleen Forry and Mary Jo Barbera were in charge of the arrangements for the party. Dean Morton, who also helped with the party, attended it.

W.S.S. To Sponsor Tea

The first autumn tea sponsored by W.S.S. will be held this afternoon from 3:00 to 5:00 in the Blue Room, Selwyn Hall.

American Chamber Orchestra Will Be Presented In First Cultural Program Thursday, October 7

Cheering Squad Shows Spirit In Season's Opener

Hetrich Reports Lag To Student Council

Student Council was to have met on Tuesday, September 28, in Teel Hall but Jim Hall informed those members who were present that since there wasn't a quorum, they would just have a discussion about the agenda for the meeting.

In the discussion, Hall mentioned that committees will be appointed at the next meeting to work on Homecoming and to look into the matter of joining the National Student Association. Hall asked the members who were present to publicize the dance to be held in Krause Hall tonight after the pep rally in their various organizations.

Paul Hetrich, chairman of the Orientations Committee, said that there has been a lag in the enforcement of customs so that in the remaining period of customs, upperclassmen will be advised to be more spirited in their enforcement of customs.

Classes Will Change Time For Assembly

The class schedule for the morning of Thursday, October 7, will be changed because of the presentation of the American Chamber Orchestra in the first program of the Cultural Program series in Krause Hall.

Period one will be from 8:10 to 8:45. Period two will be from 8:55 to 9:30. Period three will be from 9:40 to 10:15.

Miss Anna R. Benninger, Registrar, has asked that students go to Chapel promptly in order that everyone may be seated by 10:30.

Hoffert Is Speaker At Women's Auxiliary

Mrs. Earl Huber, president of the Albright College Women's Auxiliary, presided over the meeting of the organization held in the Dining Hall on Wednesday, September 30. A light lunch was served.

Guest speaker for the afternoon was Mr. Hoffert, who was the interior decorator for all the newly decorated buildings on campus. After his speech, the auxiliary made a tour of these buildings.

Sylvia Greul Chosen As Head Cheerleader

On Friday afternoon, September 24, Mr. Eugene Shirk, Mrs. Eva Mosser, Jim Hall, Stella Tryka and Sylvia Greul acted as judges in selecting the cheerleaders for 1954-55.

Sylvia Greul, '56, was chosen by last year's cheerleaders to serve as captain this year. Sylvia, who is from Lincoln Park, is very active in Phi Beta Mu, HEO, and Student Council, of which she is corresponding secretary. She is also secretary of the junior class.

Other members of the cheerleaders include Pat Brown '56, Bev Walsh '56, Marilyn Wertz '57, Judith Cohen '57, Sheila Green '58, and Jonathan Hole '58.

There will be no junior varsity cheerleaders this year. Instead, the varsity cheerleaders will have two alternates. The first alternate is Betsy Domenick '58 and the second is Jean Dufford '58.

Glee Club Will Tour

The Glee Club will give its 45 members will put on its first concert, October 10, at the Ebenezer Evangelical United Brethren Church, at 333 N. 9th St. On December 5, they will put on a Christmas program at the First Reformed Church. On December 12 they will go to Norris-town to give a concert, and on December 14, they will put on a Christmas program here on campus.

The Glee Club is planning to make two tours in the spring. The first tour, which will be a short one, will be in February, and the second one includes tentative plans for a trip to Syracuse and Buffalo, New York.

Y Choir To Rehearse

The "Y" Choir will start rehearsing Tuesday night, September 28. Rehearsals are held in White Chapel Hall, Tuesday nights from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m.

This group sings quite frequently for Tuesday chapel services. Anyone who enjoys singing a great deal may become a member of the "Y" Choir.

Dr. Rees Addresses Protestant Rally

Approximately 2,000 people attended the Protestant rally held in the Physical Education Building on Sunday, September 26.

The Reverend Dr. Elvan Rees, advisor on refugee affairs to the World Council of Churches, Geneva, Switzerland, was the principal speaker at the fourth annual rally held in the form of the opening service of the second assembly of the World Council of Churches in Evanston, Illinois, last month. About sixty ministers of the Reading area participated in the event. Choirs of twelve churches took part.

In charge of a service of preparation was the Reverend Paul Price, chairman of the commission on ecumenism of the Greater Reading Council of Churches, sponsor of the rally. Several clergymen took various parts in the service including the Reverend Dr. G. Robert Helm, president of the Ministerial Association of Reading.

Women's Council Reviews Open House

The first meeting this semester of the Dorm Women's Council was held last Monday evening, September 20, at 7:30, in the Pine Room with Rachael Kaebnick presiding. At the meeting, Lucy Schuman was elected as the new Secretary-Treasurer.

Plans were also made for Selwyn and Teel Hall's Open House, which was held last Sunday, September 27, from 2:00 to 5:00 in the afternoon. The dormitory girls were to remain in their rooms during this time and the counselors, Dean Morton, and head hall residents were to act as guides. As part of the Council's publicity program Rachael Kaebnick appeared on a radio show to advertise Open House and Nancy Hitchner, Jean Filbert and Sally Lanz appeared on television programs.

Open House was considered successful and was well attended.

Robert Scholz To Direct Ensemble In Assembly

The first in a series of cultural programs will be presented in Krause Hall on Thursday, October 7. The American Chamber Orchestra, a superb ensemble of string and wind players dedicated to the performance of symphonic masterpieces in the authentic manner of their period, will perform the classical and preclassical compositions of Bach, Haydn, Mozart and their contemporaries under the direction of Robert Scholz, founder of the organization.

The over-all aim of the organization is to recapture this great heritage of immortal but rarely heard music for the modern audience, and to secure that complete participation of the listener which constitutes a true musical experience.

Scholz Is Mozart Authority

Robert Scholz, a native of Austria, started his musical career at the age of fourteen. Maturing within the shadow of Mozart's birthplace, Scholz became a profound student of that master's works and he is today an outstanding Mozart authority. He edited Mozart's piano works for the Universal Edition, based on the original manuscripts and facsimiles, and in 1937, he was made an honorary professor of the Mozarteum.

In 1950, Mr. Scholz was awarded the Bruckner Medal by the Anton Bruckner Society of America for his outstanding New York performances of Bruckner's orchestra and choral works.

Mozart Presentation Acclaimed

In the spring of 1953, Robert Scholz conducted an outdoor performance of Mozart's opera, "The Abduction from the Seraglio," with a Metropolitan cast and the Mozart Orchestra under the auspices of the Westchester Friends of Music in the courtyard of "Caramoor," a private estate at Katonah, New York. This exquisite performance was compared by the New York critics with the famous Glynedebourne performances in England.

On Tuesday, October 5, the Reverend Mr. George Carvell, pastor of the First Evangelical Congregational Church, will be the main speaker at the chapel service.

The freshman class will be inducted officially in a special chapel program on October 19.

Classes Start Plans For Fall Activities

Seniors

Seniors will be posing for class pictures in coming weeks. On Thursday at a class meeting, committees for the senior prom and also graduation announcements and other class activities were set up.

Juniors

The picnic which was to be held by the junior class last Tuesday at Hampden Park was canceled due to a hockey clinic which was scheduled for the same day. The class however, may have a cake sale in the near future.

Sophomores

A class meeting which will be held in October will organize class activities for the sophomore class.

Freshmen

In October elections are going to be held for class officers. The freshmen will be inducted on October 19 and will then organize their class.

Follow the Banner Bearers

Having established the fact that Albright this year is bigger and better than ever before, let us proceed to the question of school spirit. According to all the laws of geometric progression, a bigger and better school should automatically inspire a bigger and better school spirit. This theory, at least as evidenced during the first two weeks of this school year, ain't necessarily so.

Before we proceed to berate the student body in general for the feebleness of its esprit de corps, let's pause to salute one group in particular, which all by itself puts the rest of us to shame. We refer to none other than that heroic group of loyal fans who faithfully followed the football team to Easton last week, bearing a mighty banner which, in bold red letters yea high, directed the team to "BEAT LAFAYETTE". This sturdy nucleus of the Albright cheering section defended their banner against all comers, even at the cost of a torn slip. (It isn't as bad as it seems—the poor girl just happened to be sitting on the banner when the gentlemen of Lafayette decided to confascitate it, and in the resulting confusion some near-sighted Lafayette freshman grabbed the wrong thing.)

We've got plenty to be proud of, so let's get with it. Going gung ho is not a sin in collegiate circles—the only sin is not contributing as much as possible to campus life.

Let's Beat Those Book Lines

After spending many long hours standing in book lines, we beg, beseech, and implore that something be done. If the student body continues growing at its present rate, next fall will find long lines of book seekers, equipped with camping equipment, cookstoves, and portables, stretching way down yonder behind Sherman Cottage.

We have a suggestion. Couldn't a list of required books and supplies for each course be mimeographed and passed out on registration day? This would reduce the confusion and give both the students and the bookstore a head start on the year.

Another improvement that could be made in the book buying system would be the establishment of a sort of second-hand book bureau, possibly run by the Student Council. When the used book market is unorganized, as it is now, the involved process of hunting the books one wants is complicated by rumors and misunderstood messages as to which book was promised to whom and at what price. Often the book is delivered and paid for by what amounts to an inefficient relay system.

The trend on campus is toward increased organization to handle the growing student body. Let's continue this trend by streamlining book-buying.

Penny for Your Thoughts

At the risk of being anti-climatic, the Albrightian hereby announces that it, too, has a new look. We have a new printer, Mr. F. A. Woerner, and consequently a new style of type. If you will be patient while we experiment with headlines and so forth, we believe we will give you the kind of Albrightian you want.

Some comments have already been expressed on our last issue. We'd like to hear more opinions. Anyone on the staff will be glad to listen to constructive, destructive, or in-between-ative criticism. Letters to the editor are also invited. Both formal statements for possible publication and quick notes to let us know what you think are welcomed.

The Albrightian-Cue office, for the benefit of those who never went on the cook's tour, is located in the basement of the administration building. There's a sign hanging up on the door, so no one can miss our cubicle. The slot in the middle of this door is not for ventilation, but for the deposit of your comments.

'Good' Old Days??

The phrase "Remember the good old days" is one that is often heard among the graduates of Albright. Well, the good old days may have been good, but as you hear the tale of the good old days of freshmen customs, you'll thank your lucky stars that you are a freshman of today. The customs as they have changed down through the years have become less and less strict until they are practically nothing compared to the "Frosh Commandments" used by Albright from her merger in 1931 until the year 1938. Read on, and know the true horrors of the past.

1. "Thou shalt wear thy lid at all times—except on the Sabbath when thy head may be adorned with any covering.

2. "Thou shalt worship seniors and members of the faculty and signify so by removing thy hat.

3. "Thou shalt keep thy pockets void of matches, neither wilt thou smoke on campus.

4. "Remember, that thou must wear the black tie at all times because it was made for thee, and encompass thy feet with black socks and garters. Dare not appear without thy coat and when thy coverest thy lower limbs with knickers, black stockings must be worn.

5. "Honor thy Alma Mater by being true to its traditions. Thou must take part in all class activities, be present at all college meetings, cheer at rallies, and at all athletic contests.

6. "Thou shalt neither wear High or Prep School insignia, or a hairy upper lip.

7. "Thou shalt not let thy feet stray away from the side walks or paths, or allow them to cross the Chapel threshold late, neither wilt thou rest thy body on the steps or any of the buildings.

8. "Thou shalt observe class precedence at all times.

9. "Thou shalt not be seen in presence of the opposite sex.

10. "Thou shalt speak first to every Albright man and professor before being spoken to.

11. "Thou shalt admit thy humbleness by entering the buildings from the rear and the campus through the driveways only.

12. "Thou shalt beware of thy unwillingness to button when called upon to do so.

13. "Thou shalt never admit thy lowly presence in the dining hall before the lordly presence of an upperclassman.

14. "Woe be to the freshman who does not appear before the Sophomore Tribunal when notified and above all carry thy guide and abide therein at all times."

These commandments were law for many years until the year 1939, when the costume for boys appeared and the boys chafed somewhat.

Combine a magnetic personality, the love of all sports, and an active Albright celebrity, and you have our dandy lion of the week—John Sherman. Yes, with the firm belief that variety is the spice of life, John pursues a variety of activities which include all phases of college life. This 6'1" senior who tips the scales at 175 pounds is a dayman who resides at 914 Birch Street in Reading and can be reached by dialing 3-6584. The fact that John is a dayman, though, does not prevent him from participating in such activities as being senior class president, business manager of the Cue, and (his first and last love) holding the presidency of the Pi Tau Beta.

Also included on his long list of activities is his active participation on the orientation committee where John got his first impression of the freshmen class. When asked his opinion of this new class, John remarked that although he has not had any previous affiliation with any freshman class, he admired the spirit of the "Frosh" and believes that the new additions to our campus will be greatly interested in all the campus activities. Our 21 year old Senior expressed his views on a great many other subjects but would not commit himself when asked about his views on the new Christian Dior fashions.

Here's wishing the best of luck to John in his studies (math major, history minor) and hoping that his hobbies (sports, music) and broad field of experience and education will lead him to the success that he deserves.

The girls wore black tams, buttons, black cotton stockings, green anklets, and cosmetics or jewelry. The boys appeared in dinks, buttons, black socks, red four-in-hand ties, and green garters. The rest of the commandments remained the same. In 1940, red and white appeared as the colors for the dinks, tams, sox, and ties. The girls, however, wore red sox over white cotton stockings. These were the customs until 1945 when white stockings for girls were dropped. As the years went by, the customs were dropped one by one until in 1948, the present required customs came into effect.

The Snake Pit

Rumors are flying that Albright-on-Schuykill will soon boast a whole new department, offering courses in Correct Camera Angles, Overcoming Mike Fright, and Conceptions of the Unseen Audience. Seems there's going to be some movie-making in progress for publicity purposes—casting office third door on the left, and don't forget your equity card. Speaking of publicity, Rachael Kaebnick, Nancy Hitchner, Jean Filbert and Sally Lanz have been doing a good job advertising Albright on local radio and television programs.

Hidden Talents Department

Selwyn Hall shelters a doubly famous personage, too modest to reveal her true identity. This talented gal is not only Miss Long Beach Island of 1954, but also won a cup in the Women's National Water-Skiing Tournament. Competition was tough, but her 360 degree turn on the 5 foot jump did the trick. Her autobiographical novel, Fourth Trip Over The Rail, will soon be ready for publication via the grapevine.

Back To The Hills

Co-educational studying was dealt a severe blow with the new women's dorm parlor rules. Now that girls are not allowed to study with or entertain boys during the daytime, it looks like the only thing to do is climb up the mountain. Not so bad now, but when snow flies we recommend that a special staff of St. Bernards be engaged to beat the bushes for frozen fraternizers. Gives one a better understanding of convent life, at least.

On the other hand, Lady Nicotine's recent admittance to the Sub marks a milestone in female emancipation. The day the gals are allowed to wear jeans to lab will be the living end. A rough estimate of the money spent replacing clothing ruined in chem labs alone placed the figure somewhere near that of the national debt.

Frosh Fanfare

Orchids to the football team for sticking to their training rules when this year's crop of feminine freshmen is just about the cutest ever. Not only are they beautiful, but they button charmingly too. While we're on the subject of buttoning, we think that making freshmen button from the security of a window high above their heads belongs in the same class with spotlighting deer.

Maybe we'd better provide our women with an armed guard when they go to away games, since it seems that the gentlemen of Lafayette can't resist the temptation to beat up our girls.

Intellectual Rainbow

A rainbow of intellectual honor or a first day fantasy? Whichever it was, the upperclassmen, as well as the freshmen, were really unnerved when the faculty procession appeared at the Opening Convocation.

Now, really, any fashion wise college student should know that the variegated colors on the hoods of the academic costumes stand for variegated honors. But which is which??

The proper point at which to begin description and purpose of the "Intellectual Rainbow" would be the size of the hoods, since no student was seen carrying a foot-rule that first morning. It is stated by the proper authorities that the holder of the bachelor's degree should wear a hood three feet long; when this foresaid degree man has money and time he can add a half-foot to his hood by earning a master's degree. To really baffle the student body, the "hep" professor can earn a doctor's degree and adorn a four foot hood with a rounded base, plus a startling gold tassel on his academic cap.

The hood is a modern three-way gadget; its primary function is as a head covering, secondly it serves as a cape, and last but not least, it

Mules Arrive Here Tomorrow for Pretzel Bowl Game

In The Lion's Den

by Dave Widland
Post-Mortem

Line coach Harold (Truck) Yentsch has a right to be proud of his proteges after the fine showing they turned in against Lafayette last week. Although reserve strength told in the second half, the Red and White forward wall more than held their own in the first two periods, twice holding the Leopards inside their own five-yard line.

The weakest part of the Lion offense seemed to be the passing attack. Three of Roy Dragon's tosses were intercepted, two of these steals leading to touchdowns. Mike DePaul's pass to Ed McNeill, who then lateraled to Bob Wetzel for a net gain of 25 yards, was the only Albright aerial effort of note.

The Gullianmen seemed slightly nervous in their opening encounter, for they committed several costly fumbles. With this game under their belts, the Red and White forces should give Muhlenberg a fine battle in the Pretzel Bowl tilt next week.

For Intellectuals Only

Last year Albright was undefeated in only one sport, chess. Coached by Adolph Butkys, the boardmen were victorious in eight straight matches. Coach Butkys is now issuing a call for all who are interested to try out for the team now.

Diamond Dust

On the major league baseball scene, all seems quiet.

The outcome of the series will probably depend on Cleveland pitching and Giant hitting and fielding. The Indians are slight favorites to take the laurels, but the Giants will be in there fighting all the way.

M-Berg Opposes Lions In Annual Shriners' Game

On Saturday, October 2, the Albright Lions and the Muhlenberg Mules will clash in the fourth annual Pretzel Bowl Game at Municipal Stadium here in Reading. This game is presented annually by the Shriners' Hospitals for Crippled Children, and the proceeds will go to this worthy cause.

In the Pretzel Bowl Game's four-year history, Albright has participated in every game. In 1951, the Lions bowed to West Chester State Teacher's College, 32-9. In 1952 the Red and White were victorious over Pennsylvania Military College, 20-0, while last year the Gullianmen dropped a 13-0 decision to Lebanon Valley's Dutchmen here at Albright Stadium.

The Mules from Allentown were defeated last Saturday by the Bucknell Bison's, 33-13, in the Harrisburg Rotary Bowl game at Hershey Stadium. Brilliant in defeat was the Mules' running seatback, Jackie McDonald, and their fine passer, Bill McKeeny, both of whom hail from Pottsville. McDonald provided the bulk of the Mules' scoring punch last year, and he and Keeny both scored in the loss to Bucknell.

In the other halfback slot is Harry Kreuzberg, a service returnee, who will handle most of the punting chores. Muhlenberg has two fine tackles in Pete Ascione, the lone senior on the team, and Tony Saddler, a junior. Other stellar linemen are hard-working Tom Naratil at center and Dick Werkheiser, a great pass receiver, at right end.

Lions All Veterans

Coach Eddie Gullian's Lions, who were defeated by Lafayette 26-0 in their opening game last Saturday, have thirteen players who have participated in previous Pretzel Bowl games. In the starting backfield will be Roy Dragon at quarterback, Tom Pollock and Willy Smith at halfbacks, and Chris Wenger at fullback. Bulwarking the forward wall will be Bob Krize and Ed McNeill at the ends, Fred Hess and Wally Goss at tackles, Bob Sulyma and Frank

Hill and Dalers Start Practice

Albright Harriers begin training for a nine meet season. The first meet will be held on the home course, the thinclads playing host to Haverford College on October 15. Upperclassmen returning to the squad this year are Bill Shirk, Paul Gehris, Don Gottshall, Allen Lentz, Dean Kriebel and Bob Fox. There are several frosh hopefuls, who are Jack Hauf, Dick Thrasher and Ernie Firestone. Last year the team was paced by ace runner Bill Shirk, who completed the season with only two defeats.

The schedule for 1954 includes seven dual meets and two Championships. Four of the dual meets will be held on the grueling home course. The Middle Atlantic Championships will be held for the second consecutive year at Muhlenberg, while the IC4-A will be held in Van Courtland Park, Uew York City.

1954 Cross-Country Schedule

1. Fri., Oct. 15—Haverford—Home
2. Wed., Oct. 20—Lafayette—Home
3. Sat., Oct. 23—Franklin & Marshall—Away
4. Fri., Oct. 29—West Chester—Home
5. Fri., Nov. 5—Muhlenberg—Away
6. Tues., Nov. 9—Pennsylvania Military College—Home
7. Fri., Nov. 12—MASC Championships—Muhlenberg College
8. Fri., Nov. 19—Delaware—Away
9. Mon., Nov. 22—IC4-A Championships—Van Courtland Park, New York City

Goldstein at guards, and Jack Hutzinger at the pivot slot.

Other veterans of past Pretzel Bowls who will see plenty of action are Mike DePaul, Fred Ardito, Jack Clopper, Ray Stoneback, Bob Reller, and Bob Wetzel.

Albright Loses Opening Contest To Powerful Leopard Squad, 26-0

Last Saturday Albright opened its 1954 football campaign by absorbing a 26-0 defeat at the hands of Lafayette. A crowd of 6,000 fans watched the game at Easton.

Although the Lions played a commendable game they proved to be no match for a strong, veteran Lafayette team. Bryon Satterlee led the attack for the Leopards with three touchdowns, one of which was a 57 yard scoring run on a punt return. It was the reserve strength that stood out for Lafayette, which substituted freely, while Albright showed signs of tiring in the latter periods. Halfbacks Willy Smith and Bob Wetzel together with fullback Chris Wenger led the Lion attack with occasional flashy runs, but the Red and White could not seem to keep a sustained attack going.

Lion Fumbles Costly

Satterlee's long return of Tom Pollock's punt set off a parade of four maroon touchdowns. Albright received the opening kickoff and Pollock returned it to his own 22. The Lions showed signs of nervousness as Smith fumbled on the first play and Lafayette recovered. Two plays later Bob Sulyma recovered a Lafayette fumble on the 20. Albright tried to get its attack rolling as Wenger went for five yards. Following this Pollock hit for a yard. On fourth down Pollock punted and Satterlee ran it back for the first of his three scores. The extra point try was missed and Lafayette led 6-0.

Albright took over following the kickoff on their own 29, but soon lost the ball when Bartlett intercepted Roy Dragon's pass on the Lafayette 39. The hosts then advanced the ball to the Red and White 22, but superior line play by the Lions stalled the Maroon advance.

Dragon again took to the air and this time his toss was taken by Satterlee and run back to the one. On the next play he bucked over for the score. This time Mattison split the crossbars and Albright trailed at the quarter 13-0.

Lion Snuck Stalls

Both teams exchanged punts to start the second period. It was at this time that Albright started its only long drive of the afternoon from its own 20. Wetzel launched the attack with a five yard advance which, followed by Pollock's five yard run netted Albright a first down on the 31. Wetzel and Wenger banged out another first down. Mike DePaul started the Lions most sensational play of the day when he tossed to Ed McNeill who lateraled to Wetzel for a gain of 25 yards to the Maroon 39. Here the Albright advance stalled again and Pollock went to the air with an attempted pass which was snared by Lafayette's Brown. Lafayette marched to Albright's five but here the Lions line again showed good strength to bury the Maroon offense. Late in the same period Albright tried desperately to score as Dragon filled the air with passes. The half ended as he completed a fine aerial to Pollock on the Lafayette 25. At the half the hosts led 13-0.

Albright kicked off to start the second half. Starting on their own 43 Lafayette marched to the Albright 10. The drive was climaxed as Satterlee took it over from the ten for his third touchdown. The conversion was good and Lafayette led 20-0.

Leopards Score Again

Lafayette set off another drive in the last period as they went to the Lion six, but Albright's line held and the Red and White took the offense. Smith ran to the ten but fumbled and Lafayette recovered. McCarthy then took it over for the final score of the afternoon. Dragon again tried to pass the Gullianmen to a score, but the game ended as one of his aeriels was intercepted.

Albright was outplayed for much of the game as Coach Steve Hokuf of the Maroons kept sending in fresh reserves. Even in defeat the Lion line looked good, having held the Lafayette team on three critical occasions.

Although the Lions did lose they showed enough fine playing to promise a great Pretzel Bowl Game with Muhlenberg this week.

Lionesses Open Hockey Season With Play-Day

Clubs Decide On Future Meetings; HEO Plans Calendar, Field Trip

HEO

The Home Economics Organization held its first meeting on Monday evening, September 27 in Sherman Cottage. Officers of HEO are Leda PasYotis, president, Ruth Schaumburg, vice president, Joyce Gundy, secretary, and Ruth Mengel, treasurer.

Plans for a program for the entire year entitled, "You and Your Career" were discussed. Tentatively, the plans call for a Metropolitan Edison field trip in October; a speaker from Botany Wool Co. in November; a Christmas Party in December; a state nutritionist, Miss Stapler, in January; a trip to the Wernersville State Hospital in February; a discussion of home economics and journalism in March; and a discussion on how to apply for jobs in April.

Delta Phi Alpha

The Delta Phi Alpha fraternity has two meetings planned for this year. Its officers include President, Gordon Anke, Vice-President, Henry Greenwald, Secretary, Shirley Schaeffer, Treasurer, Rodney Bentz.

The first meeting of this honorary fraternity for German students will be held in November. The meeting is planned for prospective members. The theme of the first meeting will be cultural.

The second meeting of the Delta Phi Alpha fraternity is planned for April. At this time the new members will be initiated. The students who have done the best work in the German language will be given prizes at this meeting. A prominent citizen will be the guest speaker at the initiation banquet.

Chess Club

The 1954-55 season of Albright's chess club will get under way this afternoon in room 210 of the Ad Building from two until five. This year's tournament competition will include Gettysburg College, Pennsylvania Military College, and Reading's professional Marshall Club. All freshmen and upperclassmen are invited to this first important meeting.

A. C. S.

Election of officers will be held at the first meeting of the American Chemical Society on October 13, at 7:30 p.m. in Science Hall. The program will also include talks by student chemists.

All students interested in chemistry are invited to attend.

Der Deutsche Verein

The reorganizational meeting of Der Deutsche Verein will be held on Thursday evening, October 14. At this meeting, Dr. Memming will describe his trip to Germany this summer.

All German students are invited for folksinging and German conversation.

Open Forum To Meet

The Reading Open Forum, a debating group, will meet in Krause Hall in November, January, and March. Membership costs five dollars for the three debates. Membership cards are transferable.

Dr. Samuel B. Shirk, vice president and program chairman of the organization has announced this year's programs. The debates are as follows:

1. Where are we going in Washington?
2. Should the U. N. admit Red China?
3. Segregation and the Supreme Court Decision.

If anyone is interested in attending the discussions, he should contact Dr. Shirk.

Intellectual Rainbow

can be used as a bag for the collection of alms.

Each professor can decorate his hood according to his own likes, providing his academic and color views are harmonious. The borders of velvet which decorate the hoods are also measured in width according to the degree held. The colors of these borders are governed by the reading of the degree earned and not the field of specialization. If more than two degrees are earned the color of the highest degree is worn; when the degrees are of equal importance the binding velvet is divided between the two indicative colors. These border colors have been selected on a basis of interpretative associations. Green was chosen for the field of medicine because of its association with the color of medical herbs. The law takes the royal purple of the king's courts, while to philosophy is assigned blue, "the color of truth and wisdom." Each special field has its own color.

The colors in the lining of the hoods are those of the graduate schools; thus, fellow students, all faculty processions are as bright and meaningful as the one you have witnessed.

Women's Senate Will Put On Fashion Show; Albright Co-eds To Model In Krause Hall

5 Frenzied Females Frighten Squirrel

When Mary Althouse, practicing home management in Sherman Cottage, reached into a bottom drawer this week, she didn't expect to grasp a fur coat.

But fur coat it was, enclosing a very lively and rambunctious squirrel. A merry chase ensued, with the resident girls running several ways and the squirrel another.

Finding the squirrel in the second drawer, they called for help and the night watchman came to the rescue. The animal was finally relocated in the top drawer, from whence he made a quick getaway through the window.

Last Wednesday afternoon, September 22, the first meeting of the WSS was held in the Blue Room with Mary Althouse presiding.

On November 18, an "Ann Lucia Fashion Show" will be held in Krause Hall at 8:00 p.m. The committee in charge of this includes Jean Filbert, Ann Stalenecker, Jean Hagenbuch, and Sally Lanz. The entire program will be enacted by Albright co-eds.

The first autumn tea will be held on Friday, October 1 from 3:00 to 5:00 in the Blue Room. Kathleen Forry was appointed chairlady of teas for the year.

Mary Althouse appointed Rachael Kaebnick, Jeannette Mayer, Mary Jo Barbera, Leda PasYotis, and Natalie Filbert to the Sadie Hawkins' committee.

WSS has purchased material for drapes to redecorate the Pine Room.

Adolph Butkys Wins Financial Aid On TV

Albright students were surprised this summer to see a fellow classmate appear on their television screens. Adolph Butkys was even more surprised to be a guest on the "Strike It Rich" program over the CBS network.

Adolph was vacationing with friends of his at the time in New York City. His friend, who happens to have connections with the CBS network, made plans to attend the "Strike It Rich" program. While Adolph was sitting in the audience, Warren Hull, who is master of ceremonies for the program, called to Adolph and started asking questions about his financial status. Adolph replied that he could use some money for school this semester. Hull then asked Adolph to be on the program.

After receiving his box of "Fab," Adolph started on the questions. He found the questions easy but he had a "subconscious feeling of nervousness."

"the KING says..."

"October is here and winter is just around the corner."

"How about your shoes?"

"Are they in condition to withstand the rough winter weather? Better bring them to the KING NOW and have them put into shape."

"Our materials are the finest... our craftsmanship unexcelled and our prices—REASONABLE."
