

ALBRIGHT SUMMER SESSION TO OPEN JUNE 22ND

Regular Collegiate Courses To Be Supplemented By Special Educational Courses

SPECIAL CORPS OF INSTRUCTORS ENGAGED

The regular summer session of Albright College will open on Monday, June 22nd at 8:00 a. m. and will continue until Wednesday, Aug. 5th.

The summer session courses are planned so as to offer special advantage to students who need coaching in certain branches to enable them to qualify for regular classification in the College, to those who desire to obtain teachers' credits needed for advanced certificates, to those now holding provisional certificates who are to meet the requirements of the Pennsylvania code for teachers, and to those who desire to work off conditions. In the assignment of credits, one lecture or recitation hour daily through out the session, i. e., five hours a week, gives a credit of two semester hours. Two hours of laboratory work are equivalent to one hour of recitation or lecture.

Students may be admitted after the opening date, but no such students will be registered for credits toward degrees who enter after Monday, June 29th. Not more than three unexcused absences will be allowed.

The schedule to be followed provides for classes beginning Monday morning at 8:00 a. m. and ending at noon Saturday. Students will be allowed to take four courses. If additional courses are desired special permission must be obtained from the faculty.

The course offered will be the same as those offered during the regular collegiate year, under the (Continued on Page Three.)

THEMESIANS PRESENT THEIR ANNUAL REVIEW

Girls' Literary Society Entertains Enthusiastic Audience

Friday evening, March 6th at 8 p. m. the girls of the Thesemian Literary Society presented their annual Review before a large and enthusiastic audience.

The program consisted of parts of special programs rendered in regular weekly meetings. The Society was divided into four groups for this purpose, and each group gave a part of its original program.

The musical features were furnished by "Wrong's Harmony Hounds", the Thesemian Jazz Orchestra, led by Miss Wright. A Dutch song and dance number by Misses Wright and Stanford, and a solo by Violet Kinsinger completed the musical program.

A play, "The Mouse Trap", was presented by another group of girls. A series of pantomimes, portraying a family from King Tut's tomb provided other entertainment.

The Minstrel, with Phyllis Bicher as interlocutor, was mirth provoking with its witty attack on students and faculty.

"Wrong's Harmony Hounds" closed a very successful and entertaining program.

POLITICAL CLUB

The Political Club rendered the following program, Thursday evening, March 5th: Doings of the State; Legislature, Wm. Kelly; Remarks on the subject, Price, Clark, Grumbling, Miller and Hewitt.

Heads of School Publications Meet in Conference at F. & M., Lancaster

"BULLETIN" MANAGER, N. D. MILLER MAKES ADDRESS

The annual district conference of the Inter Collegiate Newspaper Association of the Middle Atlantic States was held, Friday and Saturday, March 6 and 7 at F. & M. College, Lancaster, Pa.

The conference was opened with a banquet on Friday evening at the Hotel Brunswick, at which the main speakers were Dean Omwake of F. & M., Dr. V. W. Dippel and O. J. Keller, editor of the Lancaster News Era. The Saturday morning session was devoted to reports by the representatives of the member papers and to a discussion of the major problems of the collegiate journalism, led by five speakers: "Function and Place of Editorials", H. D. Fague, editor of The Susquehanna; "Financing the Paper", N. D. Miller, manager of the Albright Bulletin; "Relationship of Faculty Advisor to the Paper", Dr. Paul Landis, faculty advisor of the F. & M. Student Weekly; "Internal Staff Organization, and Methods of Conducting Tryouts", G. W. Arnold, editor of The Gettysburgian; "Interchange of Advertising Data", C. A. Hurst, advertising manager of The Bucknellian.

This conference was attended by representatives from the Albright Bulletin, The Bucknellian, The Dickinsonian, The F. & M. Student Weekly, The Gettysburgian, and The Susquehanna. The success of (Continued on Page Three)

J. M. HORNER TALKS TO COMBINED "Y'S"

"The Youth Problem" Discussed By The Executive Secretary of Wilkes Barre Y. M. C. A.

On Tuesday evening, Mar. 3 the combined "Y's" were addressed by J. Milton Horner, executive secretary of the Wilkes Barre Y. M. C. A. Mr. Horner who is better known as "The Big Chief" to his associates, took as his theme "The Youth Movement". In the course of his talk he dealt with the present conditions existing in the world, the opinions of various men on those conditions and their cause. The older men regard the opinions of the youth lightly. Yet it must be remembered that it is the youth who are dissatisfied with present conditions which are not the best and are seeking means of bettering the world. No one will deny the fact that the world is "sick". Leaders who do not hesitate to face condition squarely in the face, say that the cause of the world's troubles is largely the conflict between the old nationalistic system as represented by the old line diplomats of the world, and the universal system as laid down by Christ two thousand years ago. World conditions can be bettered only by placing the national policies of the world in accord with Christ's teachings.

MISS McCAULEY PUBLISHES BOOK OF POEMS

Readers of the Bulletin will be interested in the announcement of the publication of a book of poems, "The Nugget", by Blanche McCauley, '27. This paper-bound, 6x4 publication contains sixteen short poems, mostly on nature subjects. The Bulletin has frequently printed Miss McCauley's poems in its Poet's Corner, one of them appearing in this issue. "The Nugget" is on sale at the College Book Room, price 50c.

MADAME LAWSON GIVES CONCERT IN CHAPEL

Noted Soprano Thrills An Appreciative Audience of Students and Friends

MME. LAWSON SHOWS FINE MUSICAL TECHNIQUE

Albright College presented Madame Franceska Lawson, Tuesday evening, March 3rd in the College Chapel. The chapel was filled with appreciative listeners.

Madame Lawson sang with a great deal of expression. Her technique was good. Her enunciation was clear. Her dramatic ability coupled with her wide range of vocal expression made for her a pleasing place in the Albright circle.

Her program consisted of the following:

- Classical Airs
 - "Nightingale's Trill"—Ganz.
 - "Passing By"—Purcell.
 - "Norwegian Echo Song"—Thrane.
 - Songs of Other Lands
 - Germany—"On Wings of Song"—Mendels-ohn.

MARRIAGES FIGURE IN LATE ALUMNI NEWS

Harry Wilhelm Takes Bride In New York—Grace Gobbie Weds. Noted Musician

Recently two weddings of great interest to Alumni took place, the first in Myerstown, the second in New York City.

On February 17, Miss Sara Grace Gobbie, '10, of Myerstown, and Robert Guthrie Willaman, of Des Moines, Iowa, were united in marriage by the bride's father, Dr. A. E. Gobbie. Mrs. Willaman has been Head of the Department of English in the Cheltenham High School, Elkins Park, Pa. Mr. Willaman is a musician of note, and is a graduate of the Damrosch School of Music, New York.

On Monday evening, March 9th, Harry Wilhelm, formerly a student at Albright, and Miss Bertha Stumpf, of New York, were married in the Second Church of Disciples of Christ, New York. The couple left for a wedding trip to Honolulu, where they will spend part of the summer in a cottage under the palms by the sea. Upon their return, they will reside at Lebanon where Mr. (Continued on Page Three)

ALBRIGHT QUINTET NOSED OUT BY LEBANON VALLEY—SCORE, 30--29

GIRLS DEFEAT URSINUS BUT LOSE TO STEVENS

Herr and Line Figure As Stars in Last Two Games of Season

Saturday afternoon, Feb. 28 the girls' varsity defeated the Ursinus girls' basketball team on the Albright floor, in a fast, close game. In the first few minutes the Ursinus girls led, but by the close of the half the home team was ahead. This lead was never relinquished but the game was in doubt until the final whistle had blown. The Albright team excelled in passing, and guarding was close on both sides. Herr starred for Albright with 8 field goals, one more than Cornogh, the Ursinus star. The final score was 25-23 Albright's favor.

Line-up:

Albright	Position	Ursinus
Herr	R. Forward	Cornog
Line	L. Forward	Leo
Benfer	Center	Evans
McCurdy	S. Center	Wattman
Hangan	Guard	Winger
Helm	Guard	Johnson

Substitution: Ursinus—McCabe for Evans, Evans for Winger.

Field Goals: Albright—Herr, 8; Line, 3. Ursinus—Cornog, 7; Leo, 2.

Foul Goals: Line, 3; Cornog, 3; Leo, 2.

Referee: Zeller.

ZETA FRATERNITY BANQUETS AT "TASTE GOOD"

Elaborate Chicken And Waffle Dinner Served Party

Monday evening, March 2 the Zeta fraternity held a banquet at the Taste Good Shop. Everyone was hungry, or at least gave evidence of the fact when a chicken and waffle dinner, with all the side dishes, was placed before them. After the meal, toastmaster, Glenn Raffensperger presided on Prof. Keiss, Wm. Derr, David Andrews, Miss Eisenberg, Hartwell Fasnacht, and Samuel Angle to respond to toasts.

The ladies present were Mrs. Keiss, Misses Mabel Hunsicker, Lois Helm, Freida and Kathleen Miller, Forne Stanford, Grace Snyder, Ruth Hetrick, Katherine Steltz, Lillian Eisenberg, and Violet Kinsinger. Fraters present were Prof. Keiss, Glenn Raffensperger, Edgar Bahney, Harold Andrew, Russel Zeller, Wm. Derr, Harold Landis, Henry Gasull, William Harris, Hartwell Fasnacht and Samuel Angle.

Prof. and Mrs. Keiss chaperoned the party.

SPANISH CLUB ENJOYS BI-WEEKLY PROGRAM

Thursday afternoon, March 5th the Spanish Club gave the following program: Lord's Prayer; Salute to Flag; Song, America; Roll Call; Reading, Hollenbaugh; Recitation, Helen Wagner; Song by the Club; Notes from the Echo, Ruth Livingston; Anecdote, Margaret Neast; Life of Cervantes, Elsie Shirk; Recitation, Phyllis Bicher; Play, Deborah Long, Loucks and Hood; Vocal Solo, Eva Wright.

Prof. Walton: "What is one way we can conserve the wild life of America?"

A voice in the class: "Repeal the Volstead Act."

Close Score Of Final Game Thrills Large Crowd

Referee's Decision At End of First Period Costs Game

RED & WHITE TEAM DOWNED BY F. & M. AT LANCASTER

The game with Lebanon Valley on Saturday, March 7th was the hottest and most fiercely fought battle either team had staged during the whole season. Both teams did their mightiest from beginning to end. One minute after the first tap off from center the 1100 fans who were seated on the first floor and balcony were thrilled by spectacular dribbling, passing and shooting. Wissler and Zellers opened the net for Albright by two shots from distant and difficult positions. The thrill, however, was not confined to the first few minutes of play. The whole game was a constantly speedy game, while frequent beautiful long shots were injected here and there to add spice and the spectacular.

The score during the first twenty minutes was tied at three different times, at 7-7, 10-10 and 13-13. After that Albright pulled near the close of the initial stanza and led at half time 16-13.

Had the field goal counted shot by Zellers at the end of the period probably the score would have been 31-30, but Referee Boyer ruled that the ball was not in the air when the gong was sounded.

Lebanon Valley came back in the second half with a terrific attack and took the lead at 18-16. Albright soon came back and tied the score at 18-18. Then the Anville team led again at 19-18. Hollenbaugh shot a long field goal and the Red and White jumped into the lead, 20-19. Shortly after that Lebanon Valley staged a rally that netted them a few points to take the lead never to be led again.

Y. W. C. A. DISCUSSIONS LED BY MISS SCURLOCK

Vocational, Religious, and Campus Problems Discussed

Thursday evening, February 26, Miss Agnes Scurlock, Y. W. C. A. Secretary, spoke to the girls of the Y. W. C. A. She led in a discussion of the various problems which confront the thinking young women of today. Some of these are, choice of a vocation, attitude on race and religious questions, and other campus problems.

On Friday morning, Miss Scurlock spoke in the Chapel service. Her talk was interesting and inspiring. Her theme was the Youth Movement. Today the youth of the country are banding together to bring about a better order of society. This task is not an easy one. Those who pledge themselves to it, must be willing to pay the price. We have as inspiring examples, all the reformers of past years. The world called them fools, and it will call us fools. But the world today acknowledges the worth of their sacrifice, and the gain to humanity.

Of the many barriers to the youth today, perhaps the greatest is the impossibility of educating the old people. The old way was good enough for them and it ought to be good enough for us! We are "fools" but the sacrifice is worthwhile. There is a place for you in this movement. Are you willing to enter the list?

COMPULSORY CHAPEL ATTENDANCE

"Students at Williams college recently voted on two questions dealing with compulsory chapel attendance: (1) Do you feel that required attendance at chapel service tends to improve the spiritual and religious life of the college? Result—Yes, 101; No, 385; Total 486. (2) Do you feel that required attendance at chapel service tends to breed disrespect for religious observance? Result—Yes, 314; No, 174; Total, 489." New Student, issue of March 7th.

The result of this poll is significant. It shows that trait in human nature that balks at any sort of pressure in religious matters. We appreciate the value of religious influence in our lives and realize the sad fact that we often neglect the religious side of our lives. In view of this fact, we also are in hearty accord with any plan which will connect more closely religion and our every day lives. But in order to make this connection, we must do nothing which causes the youth, especially, to develop any disrespect for religious service.

The students of Williams, which is located in conservative New England and draws its clientele from that section, from their own experience, believe that compulsion does not contribute to, but rather, hinders the cultivation of a proper religious attitude. This belief is shared by leaders in other student groups. It was shared by the fathers of our country who made it impossible to compel persons to have any religious belief.

Religious, or rather, moral instruction is necessary for the youth. But compulsory attendance at religious service for any person, old or young would soon meet with opposition in our country. The old adage, "You can drive a horse to water but you cannot make him drink" is applicable in the case of compulsory Chapel attendance. The question merits the attention of the framers of our college rules.

OUR CAMPUS

Whenever people speak of Albright, they usually connect with it a beautiful campus. If we would take proper care our campus would excel many others in beauty.

The time has come when we can either make or mar the attractiveness of our campus. We can make it more beautiful by refraining from throwing paper, orange peels, candy and ice cream boxes, and the like out of the windows. We wouldn't do it at home, would we? Then why practice it here? There are receptacles for such refuse.

We can make the campus still more beautiful by keeping on the pavements and walks. At this time of the year the ground is soft, and continual walking on the campus will kill the grass. The habit of cutting campus to Recitation Hall should be discouraged by everyone. The same thing applies to Mohn Hall and High School campuses. Already one can see places on the lawn where new paths have been begun. We will not do this sort of thing if we are striving towards a pretty campus.

Let us put all refuse in the proper places, keep to the paths, and Albright will become a college noted for its beauty.

Campus Chatter

The Parrot hangs his head. He feels ashamed to give even a weak little squawk, for he can't help knowing that at last he has made a mistake. He said spring was here and it wasn't, and so, ever since the last issue of the Bulletin, there's been pervading the campus a sort of damp, cold atmosphere that means disappointment and gentle reproach. Oh, Parrot has felt it sure enough. How could he help feeling it when that Steltz fellow has been mentioning it before his very face. Me miserable!

But if a person makes a mistake, of course there is nothing to do but try again. So Parrot tries again with the best of them. Spring may not have been here then, but he emphatically maintains at this time that it is here now for sure. There are lots of little green blades of grass shooting up on the campus; the tennis courts are quite far on the road to recovery; and Al Dodd has the spring fever. Those things prove it, now let blizzards contradict if they can.

Yes, we did have a pretty blizzard there for a few days. You know, we were really worried about Mr. Barto from Womelsdorf, and Bobby Wagner, and one or two others. It was a great relief to find them still with us when the strong winds subsided. For those stormy days, people like Mr. Loucks and Jason Snyder were a profound comfort to our hearts. We knew they wouldn't blow away and have to be rescued.

Did you know that Albright has a poetess in her midst whose very conversation is in a poetic strain? She told us the other day why so many people have colds in the spring. It's because sap always begins to run in the spring, she says. Isn't that a romantic turning for a phrase? But there seems to be just a slight flaw in your argument, Miss McCauley. The faculty gets colds, too, you know, and you aren't call them sap-heads.

For the second time this season "the old rivals" have met in contest. It was the kind of contest that makes you want to hold your breath. It was entirely evident that L. V. felt that there was no reason for them to rejoice, and A. C. did not feel exactly like crying, either.

But if there wasn't much excitement after the game Saturday night, Myerstown made up for it the following Monday. They furnished us with some big doings all of their own. Just before noon a barn near the station caught fire and burned with a grand big blaze. The fire bells rang and the engines dashed out (Pete Henninger was on one of them). Greater phenomenon ever than that, the streets were filled with people running. The students swelled the throng, Prof. Deck having dismissed his German class to go to the fire. The event was simply enchanting, that's all. Ruth Hetrick said it was the first time she'd had to run to anything since she's been at Albright. Well, that shows she rarely tries to get to breakfast.

After reporting this sensation Parrot's other news seems tame. It has been fairly entertaining to watch, at meal times over the week ends, the progress of the renowned "Dubbs and his harem". They have seemed to get along so well together. Mr. Dubbs certainly must be a diplomat of quality to manage them so successfully. We always knew he was talented.

The possibility of a chicken dinner last Wednesday raised a considerable agitation. By the time you read this, my college-diners, you probably have enjoyed the dinner or suffered from its after effects. So adieu, with sincere wishes for a felicitous state of your health.

Eccentric

The reason, according to rumor, why "Jimmy" Benfer gave up preaching this year, is that he was seriously neglecting his social life. In order to fulfill his duty, he resigned. Ask Janet. She knows.

Unofficial baseball practice, Monday, March 9. The "crack of the bat" was heard for the first time this season.

The dining room was deserted at noon, Monday, March 9, because of a fire in Myerstown. Student fire fighters (mostly spectators) caused a delay in Minnie's feed program. Morris's red top must have been mistaken for the blaze, but Holvey got the benefit of the water. This deprived the Sophs of carrying out their "wet program" in one more instance.

Incidents of the big fire: A bicyclist gave the fire engine a block handicap, then reached the fire first. The fire truck turned out for all other traffic.

In the old days, students could be spurred on to get to the head of the class. Now they are more interested in getting to the top of the batting order.

Educational magazines contain articles by authorities who say that the teachers should do "foundation work". This may be another way of reminding us of the sad fact that bricklayers are better paid than teachers.

College baseball is said to be colorful. We have seen some that was holler-full.

We have nothing against the girl of the "clinging vine" type. But we hope that for safety's sake such keep their tendrils from auto drivers.

We have often been told that we must climb the ladder to success. Naturally we wish there was an elevator.

: Who's Who At Albright :

EDGAR N. BAHNEY

Bahney is a native of Myerstown, and he is one of its choicest products. Since he is a day student with numerous duties of business and social variety, Albright sees him too little. We know, however, that he is in good hands when away from us.

Bahney's business duties consist in selling furniture and driving a hearse. Yes, readers, he is an undertaker, and a very distinguished looking one when seen sitting in state at the head of a solemn procession.

His social duties are quite as well known as his business ones, and are taken care of with the same thoroughness. Many of us know the splendid entertainment this lad can offer, especially since he has been operating a radio. Quite frequently students stop in at Bahney's to hear the radio. The other day I heard a student remark that Bahney's two interests were "Radio and Lil". They are surely absorbing ones.

RUSSEL R. GRUMBLING

Isn't it great to have a good voice and to have some one who has a good voice!

"Bus" has a good voice. We remember him as one of our most convincing speakers. He has been occupying an important place in our debating teams for the last two years. Perhaps he is deriving some of his training along this line from his active voice as a member of the Political Club. Another example of Grumbling's good voice is evident. He is a member of the Boys' Glee Club, which has been so successful in the past.

Since Grumbling is no longer an inhabitant of the College dorm, but prefers, instead, a town residence, the College hears little about his secret affairs. However, we do know that the week ends are of special interest to him, because that time sees the arrival of a special student in voice. It is a very beautiful voice, "Bus". It's great to have some one with a good voice.

CONFERENCES APPOINT STUDENTS TO CHARGES

Over the week end of February 26th the session of the East Penn. United Conference was held at Pottsville, Pa. A number of the faculty and students attended the sessions, among whom were Dr. C. A. Bowman, Prof. P. E. Keen, of the faculty. The students present were Messrs Hewitt, Oswald, Ruter, Clark, Harris and Price.

Clyde Hewitt was appointed to the Steelton charge, and Edwin Harris to the Charlton Church.

The following week end the Central Pa. Conference met at Milton. This session was attended by Dr. C. A. Bowman, Dr. A. E. Gobble, Rev. P. E. Keen, Messrs Dietz, Wilkes, Benfer, and Kneller.

Loucks: "Did they get the cows out of that barn that was burned?"
Wissler: "Yes, but the milk was pasteurized."

THE COMING OF SPRING

Get busy, get busy, ye merry men all!
The winter has left us; awake to Spring's call!
For there in the tree top on branches awing,
A red-breasted robin is waiting to sing.
A wee pussy-willow in silver and gray
Has nodded and flirted 'most all the day;
And merriest breezes in sprightliest
glee,
Have whispered a message to each sleepy tree.
Get busy, you farmers, and plow
every field,
Prepare them so, some day, rare
treasures they'll yield; Lay bare the rich earth to the warmth of the sun,
And whistle a tune 'till your day's work is done.
Let's watch the bright sunshine that gleams on the hills,
And echo the music that sounds in
the rills,
And mimic the trill of the bird's sweetest note;
Let music, and laughter, and love
be afloat.
For Spring has come back with her skies fair and blue,
With unfolding plant life that thrills us anew
And quickens the pace of the blood
in our veins;
So hail to Queen Spring, while she merrily reigns.

Town Notes

A Community Sewing Centre was opened in Myerstown on the 23rd of February. The course of instruction will continue for two weeks and many ladies were enrolled. Instruction was given by Miss E. K. Lof-berg and Miss Erma Donathan of the Extension Department of State College.

The local Girl Scouts rendered three excellent one act comedies on Thursday evening, March 12th, in the local high school auditorium.
The training of the girls was under the direction of the leaders of the troop. The plays were entitled: "A Case of Suspension", "Wrong Babies", "Sing a Song of Seniors".
The proceeds of the entertainment will be devoted to the fund for a trip to Washington, D. C. to take place in June.

A fire at 11:30 o'clock on Monday, March 9th, in the vicinity of the railroad attracted a large crowd of people. A large stable on the premises of E. Lininger was almost totally destroyed and several adjoining buildings were scorched, and saved from ruin only by the efforts of the local firemen who made a speedy response. Several horses and wagons were rescued from the burning structure but the remainder of the contents were consumed. The cause of the fire is a mystery, as the owner was in the building at the time and did not know of the fire until he heard cries from the outside.

Prof. Walton: "Good-night, Prof.
See you in church tomorrow."

Prof. Eisenmenger: "Alright."
(There was no church service scheduled)

Take A Weekly Trip Home—Over The Telephone

"I Passed My Mid-Years, Mother!"

PLEASANT NEWS for a Mother to hear. More than pleasant (almost exultant, one might say) for a student to tell! And the thrill that's found in the telling is entirely lost in a letter

Let your people at home really hear from you, really talk with you once every week of your college life. Tell them of your problems or your triumphs—over the Telephone

Find out how much pleasure and encouragement you can get from weekly telephone talks with Mother and Dad. Find out—tonight!

This little folder has been distributed on the campus. It tells you how low the rates really are.

If your home town is not included in the list, see the front pages of the telephone directory.

OUR FACULTY

MRS CORINNE D. EILLS Albright is fortunate in possessing as Spanish instructor, Mrs. Eills For ten years she was a resident of Porto Rico, and a student in Spanish at the Universities of Porto Rico and Madrid, Mrs. Eills is a very fluent speaker of the languages she teaches and every year her classes are filled with aspirants who desire the same art.

There are two outstanding characteristics, which the students have noticed as belonging to their Spanish teacher. One is her designation of every girl as "Senorita". Any Mohn Haller will tell you that a hurried staccato call of "Senorita, Senorita", resounding through the halls is a sure sign of Mrs. Eills' presence.

The other characteristic, one that is very much appreciated is a happy knack of entertaining the Mohn Hall girls at little teas. Very often an unusual amount of noise in the East end of the Hall indicates that Mrs. Eills is giving her guests an enjoyable tea. Mrs. Eills is a clever entertainer, and knows no end of interesting tales gained in her travels through the Spanish lands. There are pretty things to see, too, ranging from gorgeous lace Mantillas to odd blocks of tile. When speaking of this ladies entertaining we should not pass her latest popularity, a real honest-to-goodness Spanish Club entertainment.

MISS LUDWIG SENDS DIARY FROM ATLANTIC

Miss Anna Ludwig Former Albright Student Gives Events of Trip To Africa

Thurs., Nov. 20, 1924 Another day done. 213 miles nearer Port Said. You will well imagine that we count the days. We love the ocean, but we love the land better. This evening we had a short sing. I wish you could see us as we lounge around in the Music Room. Some are typing, some reading, some playing dominoes, and others simply lounging. We are beginning to eat a little better and feel much better.

Fri., Nov. 21, 1924

Now I am beginning to balance myself a little better. I feel able to tell you a little more about our party. As I mentioned before, we are twelve in number. Mr. and Mrs. Kentner and little Edna, and Miss Furness and myself comprise the A. I. M. party. Then we have two "River Brethren" girls going to India. Another young woman and her son, Jack, three and one half years old, are on their way to India to meet their husband and father. Besides, there are two Persian boys returning to India, and the other is an older Englishman whom I believe wants to go to India, too. So you see we can easily get acquainted and we are just like one big family. Edna and Jack keep us on our feet even when we would be still. We play shuffle and quints on the deck, and dominoes and chess inside. Only one of our party has not yet recovered from his sea sickness. It is one of the Persian boys. He takes all of his meals in his cabin. The rest of us feel real spry now. We have had no storm but some rough sailing. I feel somewhat at home when I look out of my cabin. For right outside the door are four holstein cows. Two are being taken to India and two to Africa. I feel so sorry for them, they have failed so much since they came on board. I suppose they are also seasick. News has come by wireless that N. Y. is having a cold spell. We are out of it. We sit and play on deck with only sweaters on our backs. We have gone 261 miles farther now.

Sat., Nov. 22, 1924

Just one week ago today I set my feet on the "Benares". Now I am halfway across the Atlantic. Thanks to the Almighty for safety, and recovered strength and energy. I am beginning to want to do some-

Albright vs Franklin Marshall

Albright lost a hard game to Franklin and Marshall on Wednesday, February 25 at Lancaster. It was Franklin and Marshall's closing game of the season and the Red Rose Lads were in the very best form of the season, Albright was tremendously handicapped by the unusual smallness of the floor, poor officiating and the disqualification of Griggs in the first few minutes of play. The Red and White athletes could not penetrate the Franklin and Marshall—defense for points while the Lancaster boys who were adapted to the tricks of the floor could twist through for the required number of points. The score at the final report of the gun was 40-22.

thing now. All I have done so far was to take care of myself, and read "Pollyanna". Thanks to the one who gave me that book to read on the way. I trust I shall do more than this this coming week. We had a drill on putting on our life belts today. Jack was frightened. He thought he was going to be thrown overboard. Edna enjoyed it. We are now all gathered in the Music Room. Four are playing dominoes, three are reading, one is typing, and our sick boy is lying on the sofa. Edna and Jack are in bed and I am just now finishing up my daily record before the coolie came for my bath, which I have ordered for nine o'clock.

QUIT GETTING UP NIGHTS

A Healthy Bladder Acts During the Day C. N. Shuman, Republic, Ohio, says: "Before taking Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula) had to get up six or seven times each night. Now I do not get up at all. You may use my name if it would benefit anyone with bladder trouble." Be careful not to take drugs that check the action of the bladder. You may have to continue its use. Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula) increases the action during the day. It cleanses the bladder as spasm salts do the bowels driving out foreign matter, neutralizing excess acids thereby relieving the irritation which causes "Getting Up Nights." The tablets cost 2c each at all drug stores or Keller Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, Ohio. LOCALLY AT H. S. DAVIS
