

Women's and Men's Music Clubs Return From Lengthy Tours

Gleesters Spend Week Giving Concerts; Travel by Bus to Near-by States

The Men's Glee Club started on Tuesday afternoon for York, where they rendered a sacred concert in Grace Evangelical Church. On Wednesday afternoon they broadcast over station W.O.R.K. in York and in the evening rendered another concert at Wrightsville Evangelical Church.

Thursday afternoon the club sang before one of the Baltimore High Schools. In the evening a secular concert was held in Faith Evangelical Church. On Friday morning the club sang to an audience of 2000 students at City College High School at Baltimore.

Friday evening a delightful concert was given in the Evangelical Church at Red Lion, and Saturday night and Sunday sacred concerts were rendered in Lancaster Evangelical Churches.

The tour was made with four cars, a delightful and enjoyable time was had by all members, who were royally entertained by members of the various churches. The club returned Sunday night.

Both Trips at Same Time

The Women's Glee Club made a tour at the same time as that of the Men's organization. The trip according to Mildred Wissinger, manager of the club, was very successful from all angles. Concerts were given in Carlisle, on Monday evening, Mechanicsburg, on Tuesday and then on to Johnstown for two concerts on Wednesday and Thursday. Friday saw the group in Somerset and Saturday with no concert scheduled was used as a much needed day of rest. On Sunday, April 3, the club gave two concerts, morning and evening, in Lemoyne and Lebanon. The girls arrived on the campus at ten o'clock Sunday night.

The club's officers are President Lydia Schober; Manager Mildred Wissinger; Pianist Irene Fray, and its charming director Miss Margaret Geberich. The club plans to give a concert in the College Chapel very soon.

Y. M. C. A. NOMINATIONS TO BE VOTED ON TONIGHT IN CHAPEL

Nominations for officers of the Albright Y. M. C. A. were made last week and will be voted upon tonight, in the chapel. Nominations for President are Edwin Minnich, Leroy Breininger, and Russell Bonney. It has been agreed that the nominee receiving the second largest vote for this office will be made Vice-President. Nominations for Secretary are Lester Stahler, Paul Vanness and Guy Evely. Nominations for Treasurer are Otho Hoofnagle, William Bassom, Ralph Weigle and Arthur Daub. Officers for the Y. W. C. A. have been elected for some time.

Summer Session To Offer More Courses; Mail Announcement

Lists of Probable Courses Now Available; Schedule To Be Made from Requests

Bulletins have been mailed from the Registrar's office announcing the Summer Session to be held at Albright this year. This session has become rather an important institution and is attended by teachers from the city and county as well as numerous students of this and other colleges.

Professor Smith Director

Professor Lewis E. Smith is the director of this session. He explains that the bulletins announcing probable courses are sent out at this time only to secure information of what courses will be most in demand. Persons receiving such an announcement will check off what courses they need and return the sheet. This data will be used in making up the final schedule. In order to have a course made a part of the curriculum, it is necessary that at least four persons ask for it. Those receiving the blanks are requested to check second and third choices.

Starts June 27

The session will start on June 27 and will continue till August 5. The departments represented will be those of English, Latin, French, and Spanish. Education and Philosophy will be taught as well as the physical subjects. Professor Smith as well as being director of the session will instruct classes in Political science and history.

Debate Season Ends With M'Burg Match; Co-eds Meet Ursinus

Last Contest of Year Will Be Freshman Meeting with Allentown School

The final participation in inter-collegiate debating for women occurred on Friday evening at eight, when the Albright team met that of Ursinus College here in a no-decision contest.

The debate was staged in the Albright College Chapel with Professor H. Buckwalter presiding. The subject was "Resolved, that Capitalism as a System of Economic Organization is Unsound in Principle." There were of course no judges and no decision in keeping with the Oregon plan. The Ursinus debaters were Ethel Price and Dorothy Gray; the Albrightians, Bettye Wannier and Agnes Bittle. The Albright team supported the affirmative side.

There is but one more scheduled meeting for an Albright debate team before the close of the season. This is the contest of the Albright Freshmen with those of Muhlenberg College. The debate will take place on April 14.

The debaters are announced by the team's coach, Doctor R. A. Houk as: Elliot Goldstan, Bernard Levin, Alfred Kuhn, alternate: Lester Stahler and (Continued on page two)

BERKS COUNTY ALUMNI MEET IN SELWYN HALL

The Berks County Chapter of the Albright College Alumni met on Monday evening at Selwyn Hall. The group had an excellent turn-out, over forty people attending, according to Miss Isabel Willard, secretary. President Willard Mohn, presided at the meeting.

Professor Gode Von Aesch read his paper on Goethe as part of the German Club's celebration of the birth, two hundred years ago, of the poet. Refreshments were served.

Japanese Student Describes Collapse of Eastern Religion; Sees Opening for Christianity

Seminary Student Tells of Turmoil in Japanese Student Life Today; Radical Societies in Constant Conflict with Conservative Student Groups; University Men There Favor Communism.

On Sunday, Albright Students had the opportunity to hear an important speaker on the Orient when Mr. Yoshiyuki Nakagami addressed morning and evening groups on the break-down of the ancient oriental religions.

Mr. Nakagami is a student at the Union Theological Seminary and is referred to as a Japanese Evangelical. He feels that Christianity has an unequalled chance to gain ground in the Orient today because the religions that have been so important there for centuries have failed to meet the needs of the day.

Japan's rapid development in the seventy-odd years since Commodore Perry opened the country has not been without its harmful effects, said the speaker. "Much of the progress has been of the mushroom variety, in that it assimilated the materialistic aspects of western civilization without the corresponding spiritual elements. In fact, due to the widespread circulation of

BIOLOGY PROFESSORS ATTEND CONVENTION

The Biology Department of Albright was well represented at the annual convention of the Pennsylvania Academy of Science recently held at the West Chester State Teachers' College.

Professor C. A. Horn read a paper on his experiments with rats, the full title of which was "Malignancy in Speleneotomized Rats." Professor Green, also of the Biology Department read a paper on the subject of abnormal rodents. It was entitled, "The Development of a Technique in a Crainodectomy of Young Rats."

Albright Chemical Seminar Students Hosts to Local Men

Professor La Mer Will Speak on Ionization; Once Taught Doctor Cook

Dr. Victor LaMer, associate professor of chemistry at Columbia University, will be the guest speaker at a meeting of the Reading Chemists' Club in the Science Lecture Hall, Tuesday, April 12 at 8:00 P. M. His subject will be "Old and New Theories of Ionization."

Professor LaMer is one of the foremost authorities in the United States on the physical chemistry of solutions. He directed Dr. Cook in his work on high valence electrolytes for which our own professor received his doctor's degree.

To Speak at State

Immediately after his local lecture, Prof. LaMer will have the distinguished honor of delivering the annual Priestly Lectures at Pennsylvania State College. Prof. LaMer also had the honor of holding a visiting professorship at the Leland Stanford University in California for 1931 year.

Prof. LaMer's lecture will be open to the students of Albright.

Control Board of "Albrightian" Picks Bonney for Editor

Rudolf Shook Receives Post of Associate Editor; Will Take Over Duties Next Week

At the election held on March 22, the editor and associate editor of THE ALBRIGHTIAN for next year were appointed. Russell Bonney, '33 was chosen to head the staff while Rudolf Shook, '33 received the berth of associate. The men were elected by the Albrightian Board of Control, established by the constitution drawn up last year.

Succeeds DeMoss and Fritch

Bonney and Shook will succeed John DeMoss and Luther Fritch retiring editors and will publish the issue of the seventeenth of this month. The new editor did not care to make any statement regarding his staff. Appointments and promotions have not yet been completed. It was learned that Bernard Levin, '35 was advanced to the position of assistant managing editor.

Theologs to Sponsor Annual Reception; Feature Fellowship

Affair Will Be Staged by Society of Divinity Students in Theology Chapel, Thursday

On Thursday, April 7, the Divinity Students' Society will sponsor the annual reception program which has become an event toward which the students all look forward. This reception will be held in the Evangelical School of Theology, and promises to be one of excellent fellowship and fine entertainment. A cordial invitation is here extended to all the students of the college who are preparing for the ministry, or some phase of Christian work.

This opportunity of becoming more intimately acquainted with the school and its faculty and students, will be a distinctive advantage in building up a close friendship which one will fully appreciate.

ALBRIGHT TO BE HOST TO COUNTY SCHOOL ATHLETES

The Ninth Annual Berks County High School Track and Field Meet will be held in Albright College Stadium, Saturday, April 16, 1932. Albright College is as heretofore, the sponsor.

The events of the day are as follows: 1000-yard dash 200-yard dash 880 yard run; mile run, and a mile relay; high-jump; broad-jump, and shot-put.

Beside these, there are added features for girls and Junior High Schools: for girls a fifty-yard dash, and a 440-yard relay; for Junior High School; 75-yard dash, and a 880-yard relay.

Individual prizes of gold, silver, and bronze medals will be given to placers. Cups will be awarded to groups averaging the greatest total of points.

The admission will be 25 cents for adults.

EDITORIALS

..... And with blessings surrender Thee o'er"

With the publication of the next issue of THE ALBRIGHTIAN the present editors will pull the covers over their typewriters for the last time and in accordance with the natural order of things, move on to make place for their successors.

It's not going to be as matter of fact as all that incidently. One gets rather attached to this rag in the course of a year. But the phenomenon of change is after all good medicine. New heads and new views are needed in the passing show. It is our hope only that the new editors will see farther than we ever could and that they may go beyond anything we could ever find the strength to attain.

THE NEW EDITOR

We take this opportunity to acknowledge our appreciation of the appointment to act as editor of the school's paper. We realize the responsibility connected with the position and we shall put forth our best efforts to meet its requirements.

Our aim shall be to have THE ALBRIGHTIAN be in reality the school's paper. We have no desire to have the school organ exist as a personal affair. This pre-supposes the necessity of co-operation on the part of all who have any connection with the production of our paper. Being a school paper, we shall welcome all school news and it will always be given consideration in proportion to its actual importance. We shall always endeavor to have THE ALBRIGHTIAN be an adequate mirror of the life and activity of the college.

It is impractical to attempt to formulate anything that resembles a policy at this stage of the game. We shall try to entertain a progressive policy and we shall naturally be receptive to anything in the line of constructive criticism.

So with a promise of "best of our ability," we ask an attitude of tolerance toward our plans and procedures in our process of maintaining the high standard of THE ALBRIGHTIAN.

LITERARY

LIVES AND LETTERS

By Rudolf Shook

One of the genuine thrills in book-reviewing is the occasional discovery of an out-of-the-ordinary book that has been left more or less unnoticed by the critics. Such a book is James Gould Couzens' S. S. San Pedro, and rather surprisingly, too, since it, was the first story published in Scribner's $5,000 prize contest and since the Book-of-the-Month club, through the enthusiastic Mr. Christopher Morley, warmly recommends it. It is a brilliant and compact short novel; a kind of restrained and sophisticated melodrama. Based on the sinking of the Vestris, it recounts the terror on board the doomed San Pedro, and the efforts of the crew to keep the passengers quiet and to save the ship. Against this background move unforgettable people—the girl who wants to know if the ship is sinking because a girl must have some kick out of life; Anthony Braddell the second senior officer; Captain Clendinning, the old dying seaman; Mr. MacGillioray, who ran the ship efficiently and who likes women to call him "chief" and laugh at his oft-repeated quips; Miro, the author uses a conventional device well when, at the beginning of the story, he introduces a cadaverous physician, who inspects the boat before it sails, as a symbol of the Death to come. This memorable tale is exceptionally well written, with an economy of words, a terseness and a vividness that make it impressive but nicely restrained.

Overheard at Tarzan: a singularly unimpressive youth explaining to a local Garbo how "this jungle lure" always "gets" him.

During the Easter recess the editor and I and some friends motored down to Philadelphia to see Katharine Cornell in her Barretts of Wimpole Street. It is superfluous, of course, after everyone has been reading (better) reviews, to report that the play was excellent. Even the banal comedy, which was rather an annoyance than a "relief," could not mar the otherwise sterling qualities of Rudolf Besier's now-famous drama. Miss Cornell as Elizabeth Barrett, was superb, and Charles Waldron as her father, Brian Aherne as Brownling, and Margalo Gilmore as Henrietta were outstanding. The costumes were lovely.

Sorority Notes

PI ALPHA TAU

The Pi Alpha Tau sorority held its regular weekly meeting, Monday night. There were a number of the Alumni present, and plans were discussed concerning the forth-coming formal dinner-dance to be held sometime in May. The sorority takes this opportunity to wish for the speedy recovery of Dr. Teel.

PHI BETA MU

Members of the Phi Beta Mu Sorority returned from a week's visit at Johnstown and vicinity with the college Glee Club. Members who took the trip are—President of the Glee, Lydia Schober; Manager, Mildred Wissinger and Irma Stahl, Helen Buck, Emily Yocum, Dolores Marconi, Sarah Hoffman and the club director Miss Margaret Geberich.

Phi Beta Mu Sorority welcomes Dean Walton back to the campus.

And extends to the College President, Doctor Teel, heartiest wishes for a speedy recovery.

PHI DELTA BETA

The sorority served an informal tea on Monday evening, in Selwyn Hall Parlor. A number of guests were present among them, Mary Cutlip, Esther Harner, Jean Goodling, Gladys Novaky, Margaret Paul, Myrtle Seigfried, Ethel Frieberger, and Mrs. Gode Von Aesch who is an Honorary member of the sorority.

Fraternity Notes

ALPHA PI OMEGA

The A. P. O. Fraternity has some interesting events on its spring calendar for members and friends. Extensive preparations are now under way for its annual Spring Dance. This event promises to be one of the finest of this year's activities and is being looked forward to with great expectation.

Clyde Mullen and Howard Leiphart spent the week-end at Red Lion.

John Wyle and Charles Gabriel have just returned from one of the Glee Clubs' most successful trips.

The A. P. O.'s have signified their willingness to cooperate 100 per cent in the preparation and presentation of the year's outstanding event; the Washington Bi-Centennial Celebration.

Quite a few of our men are bidding for places on the varsity and freshmen baseball teams.

BETA DELTA SIGMA

Gloom again floated over our campus with the news that Dr. Teel is again confined to his home. Beta expresses the hope that he may soon again assume active leadership of our Alma Mater.

A hearty welcome is extended to Dean George W. Walton upon his return to Albright after a month's absence.

Our hats are off to the Glee Clubs. Much favorable comment has come to the college from all parts of the state touched by them. They proved themselves true representatives of Albright.

Beta Delta Sigma takes this opportunity to state that the quarters of the organization at 1318 Union street are open to the inspection of the faculty, at any time. Open house will not be held until fall, therefore, it is hoped that faculty members will take advantage of this invitation.

Alumni members in communication with the fraternity during the past-week were: Elmer Mohn, Willard Mohn, Howard, Teel, Kindt, Glosser, Gramley.

The Annual Spring Dance will be held on Saturday evening at the Green Valley Country Club. The music will be furnished by the "Perodians," from Philadelphia.

The fraternity takes this opportunity to make public the names of the officers elected for the following year: Wilbert Bolton, President; Mark Matz, Vice-President; Lawrence Hatton, Secretary; Stanley Brookes, Treasurer; Ralph Suydam, Steward.

Frater Dale Gramley, Professor of Journalism at Lehigh, will address the ALBRIGHTIAN Staff at the annual Staff Banquet, to be held at the Abraham Lincoln Hotel, Friday night. "Bob" Smythe spent the week-end at his home in Pensauken, N. J.

John Showalter spent the week-end at his home in Myerstown, Pa.

"Pinky" Purnell (the younger) was at his home in Pottstown, Pa., over the week-end.

"Pete" Foltz, chairman of the dining room committee demands that the committee be treated with the respect due it.

"Art" Weiss is the first to try outdoor swimming this year. He is quoted as saying that the lake is still a bit too cold.

A couple of boys gave the Glee Club a very hearty welcome back to the campus.

The fraternity takes great pleasure in announcing the honorary membership of Charles Gordon.

The frat. welcomes Professor Stutzmann back after his trip to Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Howard will act as chaperons with Dr. and Mrs. Horn at the fraternity dance on Saturday night.

SPORT LIGHTS

(By Russell N. Bonney, '33)

The spring sport season is with us at last. This year the athletic calendar will contain more dates than ever before. As we glance at the stadium these days we see the host of athletes we rest assured that the current sport year will be finished with a bang. With baseball, track and tennis, Albrighians should have their athletic appetites properly satisfied.

Wednesday will officially inaugurate the local baseball season when the Lion varsity will tangle with the Kutztown S. T. C. nine. The Kutztown institution usually produces capable teams and the game should be an interesting struggle. Neither team can be expected to be in mid-season form but a classy article of play will be on exhibition. Coach Smith will have three veteran hurlers from which to select his starting pitcher and either man should show a winning brand of pitching. It would be a fine thing for the students to really support the baseball team this season. We have a good club so let's be on hand to give them a little encouragement.

The track and tennis fans will have to wait a while longer for their season. The first track event will be the Berks County H. S. Meet in the stadium, on April 16. Albright annually plays host to all high schools of this vicinity and the meet last year was a huge success. This meet is always worth seeing as rivalry is keen throughout the county and the local schools possess a high quality of track material.

Capt. Andrews has a large squad of track candidates working out daily. There seems to be a good supply of talent in our student body and a strong team should be the outcome. The first college meet is scheduled for April 22, which will be a dual meet with Stroudsburg S. T. C. in the local stadium. Then April 30, the Penn Relays at Philadelphia.

The tennis squad will soon be on the courts getting in shape for their first meet which is carded for April 23, with East Stroudsburg as the opponent. Veteran material is available and the net squad will be strong. Undoubtedly the local campus tournament will be played and all local tennis enthusiasts will have a chance to do their stuff.

Coach Smith is also trying to have an inter-class hardball league. There are plenty of baseball players in each class who are not on the varsity and a good league should result. The only thing remains is for each class to show a little class spirit and trot out their ball club, excluding varsity men.

NEW EDITORS ELECTED

The newly elected men will be formally presented at the annual Staff Banquet to be held at the Abraham Lincoln Hotel this Friday evening. This affair altho an annual function was neglected last year. It will be formal and closed to members of the Staff. Mr. Dale Gramley of the School of Journalism at Lehigh and the Professors Ginrich and Smith and their wives will be the guests of the Staff. Covers are being laid for thirty persons. The affair is scheduled for half past six in the evening. The gold and silver awards for three and two years of service will be presented at this time.

From the University Hatchet of George Washington University we learn that a questionnaire at the University of Minnesota revealed no desire on the part of two-thirds of the co-eds to pet, drink, or smoke.

LIONS TO PLAY OPENER WITH KUTZTOWN; VARSITY SELECTED; FROSH MEET AJAX NINE HERE

Coaches Smith and White Optimistic in Spite of Limited Chance for Practice; Hurlers Look Promising as Nine Shapes for Tilt with Teachers; Eighteen Candidates Try for Varsity Positions.

Varsity Beat Frosh in Practice Game: Score 4-2

For the past week Coach Johnny Smith has had his baseball hopefuls working out in the stadium. Bad weather prevented early practice and Coach Smith has had to bring his men along fast in order to have the team ready for the first game with Kutztown State Teachers' College on Wednesday, April 6.

Coach Frankie White has also had his Frosh baseballers out on the diamond for daily practices. This will be the first Freshmen team to represent Albright and at present it looks like a good one.

Pitchers Take It Easy

Each coach has been permitting his hurlers to take things easy as the cold weather is hard on pitching arms. It is doubtful if any pitcher will be ready for more than a few innings work on Wednesday and Coach Smith will doubtless have to use his entire staff in short tricks. Attention has thus far been centered on hitting and the boys will soon be meeting the apple consistently.

Eighteen men are aspiring for varsity jobs. The receiving corps include: Larry Hatton, Daub and Karlovich. Wenrich again appears to be the ace of the staff and will be supported by Betz, Brookes and McNaughton. The infield finds Oslislo at first, Orr at second, Hino at short and DeFranco at third. Vanness, Flichbach and Conway are also after infield jobs. The opener will see Andrews, Cruttenden and Franny Hatton doing the outfield chores.

Yearlings Open Season

The Frosh open their season on Saturday with the Reading Ajax as the opponent. Coach White has a squad of twenty candidates. Hepler, Yench and Danford are after the catching assignment. McGovern, Enders, Gass, Gilbert, Heckler and Paul are the prospective pitchers. The infield will find Shippe at first, Gruzzis at second, Purnell at short and Cox at third. Slack, Haldeman, Holland, Reedy and Broome are the outfield candidates.

Saturday's practice took the form of a game between the Varsity and Frosh with the Varsity winning, 4-2.

Tennis Squad Holds Try-Outs This Week; Three Berths Open

All Candidates Must Report by Saturday; Freshman Material Looks Promising

Tryouts for the tennis squad are being held this week, the first call having been issued by Captain Jeff Snader some time ago. Those interested must positively report before April ninth, Saturday.

There are but three men remaining from previous campaigns, Alan MacCarroll, Matz and Snader, himself. These, however, have had considerable experience in tournament play and should form an excellent nucleus for a crack squad.

Three Berths Sought

There are three berths open at this writing and some stiff competition is expected for them. Among the material which looks particularly good to Capt. Snader are Lustig, Soph, flash, Schmerzler, of indoor tennis fame, Burger and Wike. Oritsky, runnerup in the Pennsylvania indoor tournament this winter, should prove a pillar of strength when the club is finally organized.

The rumor that the school will lay several clay courts this spring is unfounded as far as THE ALBRIGHTIAN could learn.

All-American Star Will Wrestle Here

Len Malcaluso, former Colgate All-American football hero, and Andy Brown, Lithuanian are expected to furnish one of the season's greatest mat duels at the Reading Armory, Tuesday night. These two heavyweights come together in the feature attraction of Promoter Joe Kennedy's weekly bill.

Behind this wind-up, Kennedy has arranged an all-star program.

The semi-final between Adolph Kirschmeyer and John Spellman, former Brown All-American grid star, would be a windup match in a number of New England cities. It will be the German's first appearance in Reading. He is one of the biggest men in the game, standing 6 feet 4 inches and weighing 240 pounds.

In the second bout Pat McKay, Memphis, Tenn., is scheduled to take on Pat Fraley, San Antonio, Texas. This bout is booked for 30 minutes.

The opener will find Karra Pasha, the spectacular Turk, squaring off against Rudy LaDizi, Hungarian youth from Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

Keep a Regular TELEPHONE Date with Home

... Commencement ... the college year's over! Congratulations, Seniors, and good luck!

What a year it was! Remember those telephone chats with Mother and Dad? Those words of encouragement? That sound advice? You'll agree that of all the four years taught you, nothing means more to you than your appreciation of Home.

That's a worth-while lesson! Wherever you go ... whatever you do ... let the telephone keep you in touch with home. Share your news with Mother and Dad. They'll always be eager to hear your voice.

Now, and whenever you feel the urge, give the Operator your home telephone number. The thrill of "voice visits" never grows old.

FOR THE LOWEST COST AND GREATEST EASE

Set your "date" for after 8:30 P.M., and take advantage of the low Night Rates. (A dollar call is 60c at night; a 50c call is 35c.)

By making a date, the folks will be at home. Thus you can make a Station to Station call rather than a more expensive Person to Person call.

Just give the operator your home telephone number. If you like, charges can be reversed.

"TARZAN, THE APE MAN," FEATURED AT LOEW'S

"Tarzan, the Ape Man," based on the hair-raising story of jungle adventure by Edgar Rice Burroughs, is now at Loew's. Johnny Weissmuller, world's champion swimmer and considered to have one of the finest physiques of any man living, plays the true role of the strange white man who lives in the jungle like the apes. Prominent roles are also played by Neil Hamilton, Maureen O'Sullivan, C. Aubrey Smith, Doris Lloyd, Forrester Harvey and Ivory Williams. The picture was directed by W. S. Van Dyke, who achieved such sensational results with "Trader Horn." The story, laid for the most part in the beast-infested Lake Alberta region of Africa, concerns the attempt of a handful of English adventurers to find the mysterious "Elephant's Burial Ground," where they hope to secure a fortune in ivory.

CHEVALIER AT EMBASSY

Anniversary Week at the Embassy will be celebrated starting today and for the festive occasion the management is presenting Maurice Chevalier in his greatest picture, "One Hour With You." Once again the celebrated French actor is surrounded by a star cast, including the charming Jeannette MacDonald, George Barbier, Genevieve Tobin, Charles Ruggles, Roland Young, Richard Carle, Josephine Dunn and Charles Judels.

Among the song hits are "One Hour With You," "We Will Always Be Sweethearts," and "What Would You Do?"

The anniversary program includes Andy Clyde in a comedy hit, "Half a Holiday," "Paramount News," and Screen Souvenirs.

"GAY CABALLERO," AT ASTOR

Offering a fine idea of the present West as compared with the gun-toting, rip-roaring Western pictures of the past, "The Gay Caballero," appears for the last times today at the Astor. The vaudeville program to be presented for the last times to day is headed by Stone and Seydel, in "Parisian Surprises."

Beeche and Rubyatte, company appear in an athletic routine.

Herbert Faye and Ted Mack are seen in "Laughology."

Jim and Betty Page appear in "Two Pages of Comedy."

The Lang Brothers give an entertaining number, "A Musical Melange."

NEW SHOW AT PARK

The Marcus players begin their third week's stay at the Park Theatre today with an entirely new presentation, "French Follies," a popular Broadway revue, consisting of 15 different scenes of a gorgeous and spectacular nature, of a gorgeous and spectacular nature.

Scene of beauty are "The Blues," "Jungle of Love," "Jig Time" and "Something Simple." Clever and entertaining skits include Elmer Cloudy in a comedy arrangement; Ben McAttee, singing and talking sketch; Hershey Surkin, in a trap drum exhibition; Maybelle LaCouver, songs and comedy; Leon Miller, Ben McAttee and Elmer Cloudy, comedy trio; Morris Nelson, in songs.

MEET

LUTHER S. FRITCH

Meet that rara avis, a really good low bass, who, is actually on the Men's Glee Club. Fritch learned to sing while enjoying A. M. shave. He owes his place on the club however to the fact that he looks well in a tux.

He has found time also to act as Assistant Business Manager of the "Cue," head the Lutheran Club and bing among Doctor Cook's bright young men. Nice going there, Fritch, old pal!

The current screen attraction on the same program is a first howing picture, "Murder at Dawn," featuring Josephine Dunn, Jack Mulhall, and other well-known stars.

At a certain eastern college an instructor called for note books. One efficient student purchased a tattered book from one who had successfully passed the course. A few days later, the instructor, who had been graduated a few years before, returned the book with the comment, "It's a good book, but I can do better now." This we learn from the Tomahawk.
