

Norman Cousins To Address 1955 Graduates June 5

Norman Cousins, editor of THE SATURDAY REVIEW and president of the United World Federalists, will deliver the address at the commencement exercises, June 5, 3 p.m., in the Physical Education Building.

Cousins, a world traveler and author of several books which have been widely translated, returned in the fall of 1953 from his third world-survey-tour in six years. During this trip, he interviewed and listened to thousands of people in the world's major crisis centers of Europe and the East. While in the Far East, he also interviewed a number of American soldiers who had just been released from Japanese prisoner-of-war camps.

In his book, Who Speaks for Man?, he discusses the need for survival of values as much as the need for the survival of man himself, and suggests as an affirmative answer ending the age of world anarchy and beginning the age of world law.

He has served as chairman of the Connecticut Fact-Finding Commission on Education, for which he received the annual Tuition Plan award of the educational writers of America for outstanding service to American education. He has also received the Thomas Jefferson Award for service to democracy presented by the Council on Democracy.

During the war, he was editor of the magazine USA, published by the government for distribution throughout the world. He is vice president of the PEN, world organization of writers, editors and publishers. He is currently serving on the Library Development Committee of Columbia University.

Cousins is a graduate of Columbia University, and has received honorary degrees from Boston University, Elmira College and Ripon College.

The loss left F&M with a 1-1 record. Ken Greenwald won the meet for the Lions by taking second place in the final event, the 220 yard low hurdles.

Gulianmen Split Two Contests; Goldman, Kovack Pace Lions

Last weekend, the Albright diamondmen split two games, dropping the first to Moravian and then rebounding to whip Franklin and Marshall 8-2.

Kovack Stars

Second baseman Bob Kovack stood out for the Lions as they were routed by Moravian 11-4, when he collected three hits in four trips to the plate, all singles. Bob Fiorindo and Dale Yoder picked up two hits apiece to follow Kovack's three hit attack. Tom Pollock started for the Lions and was given the loss, although both Ed McNeill and Bob Hoffman saw action as relievers.

After Moravian jumped out to a 1-0 lead in the first inning, Albright tied the game in the second, and then went ahead 4-0 on a three-run outburst in the fifth frame. Paced by Luke Kemmerer, the Greyhounds struck back in the sixth inning for nine runs to wrap up the ball game; they added their eleventh tally in the seventh inning. It was the fifth win of the season for Moravian, and the Lions third loss.

Dips Bow

The following day the Gulianmen dumped Franklin and Marshall on Kelchner Field 8-2. Senior Duane Goldman limited the Diplomats to just six hits as fine hitting by Roy Dragon, Bob Sulyma, and Bernie Seaman paced the Lion offense. Until two runs crossed the plate in the ninth inning, Goldman had a shut-out going for Albright. Pitching one of his best games, he struck out three, and kept the F. & M. nine puzzled with his clever curve ball.

Lions Score

Albright first scored in the third frame, after two walks and an error, Sulyma singled to score the first two Lion runs. They added another in the fourth inning, when Dale Yoder scored on a single by Dragon, after the former had walked. Again in the sixth, the Lions came alive when Yoder and Seaman crossed the plate on singles, an error, and a sacrifice fly. The Lions completed their scoring in the eighth, when singles by Kovack and Seaman, and a double steal behind three Diplomat errors produced three more runs.

Errors Produce

A single by Irv Anstadt and a double by Terry Packer started the Dips ninth inning rally. Errors by Kovack and Conrad allowed one run to score, while Mark Pincus, a pinchhitter, bunt-singled the second run home.

The six errors by F. & M. led to their defeat, despite some fair pitching by the Dips' Jim Bean, a righthander. The loss left the Diplomats with a 2-4 season record.

Relay Team Hopeful Of Capturing MASC Title

Tomorrow, the Albright College relay team will travel to Philadelphia for the annual Penn Relay games at Franklin Field. They will compete in the one-mile relay race for the Middle Atlantic College championship in that event.

Paul Gehris, Don Gottshall, Rudy Becker, and Ken Greenwald are the probable starters for the Lions, with Bill Shirk as a possible alternate. Gehris and Gottshall run the 440-yard dash while Becker excels in the 880-yard and the mile runs. Greenwald thus far this season has posted victories in the 100-yard and the 220-yard dashes, and the 220-yard low hurdles. Shirk runs the mile and two-mile races for the Lions.

Hawks Hopeful

St. Joseph's is defending champion in the event and is again hopeful of winning. Last year, their team consisted of Don Byrnes, Frank Manion, Phil McCloskey, and Frank McLaughlin. Only the latter will return as part of this year's team. LaSalle's Explorers took second in the event last year; previous to that, they had won the title for three consecutive years. Swarthmore edged Albright for third place, as the winning St. Joseph's team outdistanced the field by 35 yards. Thus far this year, the best time for the St. Joseph's team has been 3 minutes, 31.1 seconds, set at Convention Hall in January. Coach George Bertelsman of St. Joseph's is undecided as to his combination in the event tomorrow.

Rutgers Holds Record

The race was begun in 1923, when Lafayette emerged the victor. Rutgers, no longer in the association, won the title six times, with Lafayette and LaSalle each taking three firsts. Other winners include N. Y. U., Lehigh, Swarthmore, and Juniata.

The standing time record for the event was set in 1930 by Union College at 3 minutes, 21.8 seconds. Albright has competed in only one mile relay this season, in the informal meet at Delaware; the Lions were clocked in 3 minutes, 39.4 seconds.

Haverford Favored

In addition to St. Joseph's and LaSalle, Albright, Haverford, Scranton, and Swarthmore are the other standout teams that are entered in the event. Haverford is expected to be strong in this event, having clocked 3 minutes, 35.7 seconds earlier this season.

Perennial Problem

There is a situation at Albright that is little less than disgraceful. It is in need of change. We hope that this editorial will put you in a thoughtful frame of mind.

Almost two thousand years ago an event took place which started men thinking and has kept sincere men thinking ever since. Never before or since has any event stimulated such intense thought in the minds of men who search for truth. That event was the death of Jesus Christ.

Today behind the Iron Curtain, men who seek for truth are in great jeopardy. Men who seek for truth or any moral value eventually find their way to religion. Behind the Iron Curtain people are told by the Communists that they are fools if they suppose religion has any place for them. They are told that religion is nothing but an opiate of the people, a self-hypnosis that lulls by superficial beauty and symbolism so that the majority of those people who want to believe can be savagely exploited by their capitalistic bosses.

The Communists have the advantage of armed might to back up their accusations and desires, to pull down churches, imprison religious leaders and burn and destroy religious literature.

And they do.

Men who seek for truth behind the Iron Curtain have a tough job if they are sincere. We would like to tell them, if we could, the truth as we see it. Our Christian Religion is not an opiate to us, nor is any religion to any people. Unlike atheistic Communism our religion has a place for God in its philosophy and living. It does make us feel better, it gives us peace in times of trial, it gives us hope, love, sincerity, and kindness. It uplifts us, but not as an opiate.

It uplifts us as a truth. It gives our souls a spirit of goodness because of a free and sincere belief in God, in Jesus, in a new and good life that we have when we feel the reality of the things we believe.

There is no Iron Curtain in this country, nor on this campus. There is nothing to keep any mind from searching for truth. A sincere mind will know truth when it sees it. No one can fool his own mind and heart forever.

In the future when you are in chapel and the time for attention to a hymn, a responsive reading, or prayer, arrives, join in. When the speaker makes his address, pay attention, pay intelligent attention. These are by no means opiates to lull and enslave your minds.
