T O T H O S E W H O

To those unnamed and countless numbers of men and women throughout the past who unselfishly have devoted their lives to the quest for truth and enlightenment in every field of endeavor. . . .

To the pioneers who pushed out the frontiers of science, releasing us in great measure from the grip of ignorance, fear and prejudice, broadening our vision and the scope of our comprehension of the natural phenomena about us. . . .

To the prophets who brought us our first vision of the day to come, and to those who now continue to proclaim it, who showed us the face of a God Who is the Father of all mankind, and awakened us to a fuller consciousness of our own vast potentialities as brothers in a universal Brotherhood....

To the teachers in every age who gave themselves humbly, in great places and small, to the great task of sharing the experience of the race with us, asking for no return but that we should take up the lamp of truth and pass it on. . . .

AN APOLOGY

To edit a book such as this with the world in flame and revolution has been no easy task. The threats of war and finally war itself made writing difficult. The impulse to instill into the year book the feeling and mood of students aroused to war fever was suppressed.

As you read the pages contained within the covers of this book, you will perceive that they were written under the illusion that our nation was not engaged in a life and death struggle.

The misrepresentation in depicting the spirit of the students and the college was deliberate.

Because of this, an apology is given. The members of the graduating class of 1942 will never forget that they pursued their senior studies while the nation fought to survive and that they helped in making that survival possible.

In the years to come when we reminisce of our college days, let us remember our ambitions, desires, dreams, and hopes and let us strive to make them come true in a world free from war. Only thus shall we fulfill the promise of our dedication and stand not upon the threshold but upon the foundations of a better world.

ALMA MATER

Come cheer Alma Mater
With song and with laughter,
And fling abroad her colors, red and white.
O'er hill, dale and valley,
Now bid the echoes rally,
And sing aloud the praises of Albright.

Each stairway and hall
And ivy clad wall,
Is a storied urn of pleasures ever new.
Each charm so alluring
Will make our love enduring
And pledge us sons,
All loyal men and true.

Chorus:

Hail, Hail the red and the white
Hail Alma Mater with a cheer,
With eyes bright and glancing
The red and white advancing
We'll sing the praise of Alma Mater dear.

 Second Vice-President...Rev. Dr. A. F. Weaver
 Secretary Rev. Dr. E. E. Stauffer
 President Emeritus of Albright
 College.....Rev. Dr. J. Warren Klein

GERRIT MEMMING, Professor of German, only says "Guten Tag" when he enters the classroom late smoking a pipe. CHARLES L. GORDON, Acting Treasurer, is the man the students least want to see, but whom they see most often. EVA MOSSER (Mrs.), Instructor in Physical Education for Women, keeps her buoyant youth to the amazement of the rest. NEAL O. HARRIS, Director of Physical Education, is best known for his bow ties, frankness, and seriousness. WILLIAM H. DIETZ, Director of Athletics, has beautiful paintings and an office which is rarely occupied.

Left to right: H. LEROY BRININGER, Director of Public Relations; LOUISE EASTLAND, Librarian; KATHARINE F. FREELAND (Mrs.), Assistant Librarian; ANNA R. BENNINGER, Assistant to the Dean and Registrar; MARIE M. KLEPPINGER, Secretary to the President; MARY E. ROBISON, College Nurse; WILSON I. MILLER, Registrar.

JOHN W. VANDERDERFF, Assistant in Accounting, is the newest addition to the business faculty. HENRY G. BUCKWALTER, Assistant Professor of Business Administration, is famous for his quickness—quick camera, quick walk, quick blush. JOHN C. EVANS, Professor of Finance and Accounting, easily makes each student feel his or her immaturity.

ELSIE A. GARLACH, Professor of French, impresses the student with her deeply religious nature and her strict adherence to carefully planned schedules. ESTHER FENILI, Assistant in Spanish, is the favorite chaperone on campus and does a good job illustrating the beauty of the Spanish language.

U L T Y

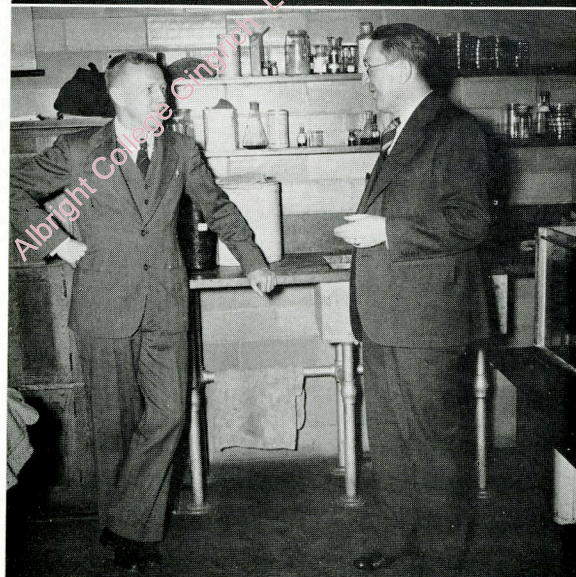

CLYDE A. HARDING, Assistant Professor of English, makes every student appreciate the value of reading American literature. RUTH C. SHAFFER, Associate Professor of Latin, loves philosophy, poetry and plenty of fresh air. ETHEL S. NORTON, Assistant Professor of English, exhibits poise and control. JOHN B. DOUDS, Professor of English Language and Literature, is noted for his exams and sharp criticisms.

OLIVER M. GEORGE, Professor of Mathematics and Physics, is custodian of sound equipment and godfather of the Lion pilots. PAUL I. SPEICHER, Assistant Professor of Mathematics and Physics, is the political philosopher of the campus and the friend of the students.

MARCUS H. GREEN, Assistant Professor of Biology, is a disciplinarian and a lover of field trips. CLARENCE A. HORN, Henry Pfeiffer Professor of Biology, displays a hard shell, but upon dissection will show a warm and kind inside. GEORGE W. WALTON, Professor of Botany and Geology, is the exponent of rock structure and the answer to mid-semester "valentines."

MILTON S. GRETH, Professor of Philosophy and Sociology, is admired for his stimulating and profound lectures. MILTON W. HAMILTON, Professor of History, is remembered by the catchy plaid ties and the freshmen maps. MILTON G. GEIL, Professor of Psychology, is an expert at argumentation. LEWIS E. SMITH, Professor of Political Science, can be proud of those silver hairs and bright eyes.

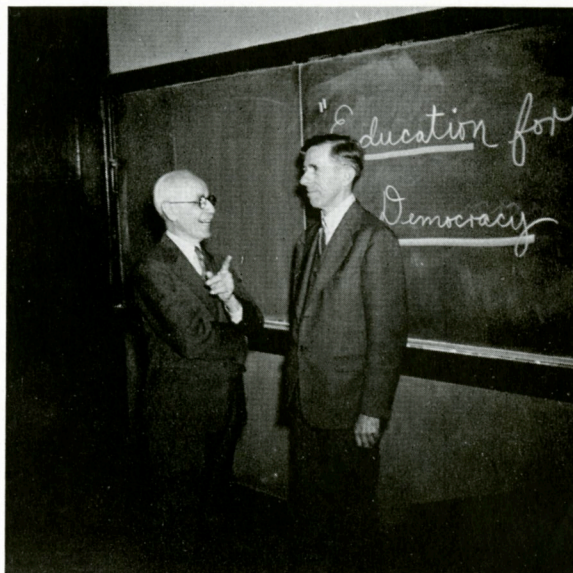

F. WILBUR GINGRICH, Professor of Greek and Religion, knows how to mix humor and religion. RAPHAEL FENILI, Professor of Romance Languages, is a grand imitator with original sound effects. PAUL SCHACH, Instructor in German, is sure to laugh when the joke is on himself.

ERNESTINE ELDER, Assistant Professor of Art and Home Economics, has an artistic ability the students all envy. FLORENCE V. INNIS, Professor of Home Economics, is the "first lady" of Sherman Cottage. ANNA H. SMITH (Mrs.), Assistant Professor of Home Economics, is the student's champion in every cause.

U L T Y

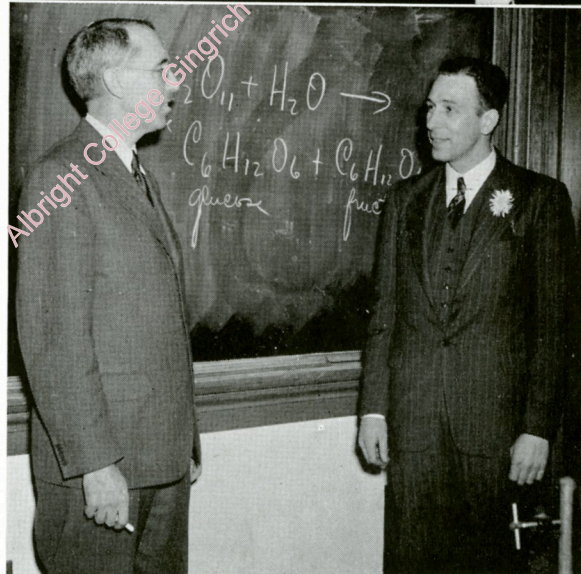

VIRGIL C. ZENER, Professor of Education, is the student's unanimous choice for the immortal Mr. Chips of Albright. WILSON I. MILLER, Professor of Education, is the freshman's guide and the student teacher's topic of conversation.

JOHN H. DUDDY, Professor of Voice, Piano, and Organ, has charm and facial expressions which students never forget. HANS NIX, Director of Orchestra and Band and Instructor in Instrumental Music, is temperamental like all true artists and effective in getting results.

GRAHAM COOK, Professor of Chemistry, never fails to tell people that he comes from the Lone Star state. NEWTON S. DANFORD, Assistant Professor of Chemistry, is a blessing in disguise to bewildered and confused science students.

ADMINISTRATION

ALBRIGHT YEAR

The history of Albright College, covering a span of eighty-eight years, is very fascinating and goes back to the days before the Civil War.

The present day Albright College is the outgrowth of the merging of Schuylkill College of Reading, Central Pennsylvania College of New Berlin, and Albright College of Myerstown.

The Albright Collegiate Institute, named after the founder of the Evangelical Church, Jacob Albright, was established in 1895 at Myerstown. This institute became Albright College in 1897. Five years later, Albright College and Central Pennsylvania College of Reading were merged under the name of Albright College in Myerstown.

Prior to 1887, Central Pennsylvania College had been Union Seminary. The Central Pennsylvania Conference of the Evangelical Association had founded Union Seminary in 1856.

Schuylkill Seminary was founded in 1881 in Reading for the thorough moral and literary education of persons of both sexes. In 1886, the Seminary moved to Fredericksburg and in 1902 moved back to Reading. This was the same year that Central Pennsylvania College merged with Albright in Myerstown. The Seminary became Schuylkill College in 1923.

On February 15, 1928, the resolution was adopted that Albright College and Schuylkill College should be merged or consolidated under the name of Albright College of the Evangelical Church to be located in Reading and that is how the Albright College of 1942 came into existence.

THE YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION fosters a wholesome religious atmosphere on campus and provides a program of religious activities designed to gain student participation.

The "Y" has charge of the fellowship banquet and picnic for the frosh. It stimulates church attendance on Sundays and holidays. A Tag Day was held to raise money for a social service project.

The women cooperated with the men in sponsoring Religious Emphasis Week, the "Y" retreat at Camp Arcola, a Hallowe'en party, a panel on labor-industrial relations, and meetings to improve inter-racial and inter-denominational understanding and good-will. Members bought food and clothing for a poor family in the community and knitted clothing for refugees.

THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION has the same purpose as the Y.W.C.A. and carries on many of its activities jointly with the women's group.

Dr. Heck spoke during Religious Emphasis Week. The annual W.S.S.F. drive was very successful. The Thanksgiving Service and Christmas matins were impressive and well-attended.

The men assisted in planning Stunt Night and conducting the Christmas carolling. They also participated in Tag Day and the "Y" retreat at Camp Arcola.

The Y.M.C.A. must rank as one of the most constructive organizations on campus for the upbuilding of the individual personality.

The DOMINO CLUB presents excellent drama and fosters an appreciation of the literature of the theatre. Interested students work for membership through such activities as acting, stage management, costume, and setting design construction, make-up, and other phases of stage work.

In the fall, the Domino players presented "The Male Animal" by Nugent and Thurber. The annual passion play contributes much to the college in the way of religious drama.

In addition to presenting original one-act plays by students, the Domino Club sponsors campus appearances of the Hedgerow Theatre and other prominent actors and lecturers. This year Hedgerow gave "Mr. Pim Passes By."

DEBATING is a rapidly expanding activity on campus. The squad participated in the state debating association meeting, the Shippensburg contest, the state debater's convention at Pennsylvania State College, and scores of contest debates and forums with near-by colleges and universities.

The forensic questions dealt with the sending of an American expeditionary force, government regulation of labor unions, the exercise of freedom of speech in war-time, an English-speaking union, and a Western Hemisphere union.

TAU KAPPA ALPHA, National Forensic Fraternity, fosters the interests of intercollegiate debating and membership in it is a mark of distinction already attained. The Mid-Eastern District convention of 1942 was held at Albright.

ALBRIGHTIAN

THE ALBRIGHTIAN is the college weekly newspaper. It is issued every Friday morning and contains news, feature articles, and editorials.

This year, the Albrightian staff has endeavored to make the newspaper more interesting and achieve a better coverage of the available campus news. The front page and the sports page contained more pictures than any previous year. Also, the business staff solicited more advertising than the preceding year.

The feature page included several outstanding columns. "Strictly Partial" was a farcical analysis of the latest war developments. Comments on sports were headed "Lion Tales." Critical observations of the world in general were titled, "As I See It." The "Journal of Science" contained the latest bits of interest from the science building and home economics laboratory.

The greatest contribution of this year's staff to the development and improvement of the Albrightian was the effective reorganization of the staff so that work could be done more quickly, participation by the students increased, and reporters observed more easily.

The 1942 Albrightian has much to be proud of for it has served the college well.

STUDENT COUNCIL

STUDENT COUNCIL is the most important student government organization on campus for the regulation of student activities, as well as the expression of organized student opinion.

The council is composed of the representatives from each recognized student group, the presidents of the four classes, and a committee of the faculty.

The student assembly meets bi-weekly and considers matters of policy in regard to campus life and student-faculty relationships. By means of well organized committees, the council is able to sponsor many worthwhile activities designed to enrich and broaden life on campus.

Since September, 1940, the student government has made great strides in molding student council into a strong and dynamic organization. Overthrowing a long-established tradition, council assumed complete control of freshman customs, established a student tribunal, and organized a four-week orientation program.

Representative government made a notable gain when the membership of the council was doubled and juniors comprised half of the membership.

Eager to show that it could lead campus life, student council conducted the first Mother's Weekend, the first all-college election, and the first all-college affair—an Ivy Ball. With the outbreak of the war, the council assumed charge of the defense program and assisted the administration in arranging the newly-planned calendar for a shortened semester.

The tremendous effort put forth by the council in the past two years is positive proof that a promising future awaits the newly-elected members of Student Council.

WOMEN'S GLEE CLUB

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

THE WOMEN'S GLEE CLUB offers the students an opportunity to cultivate an appreciation of the best types of music. A great part of the year's activities consists of practical experience in choral work before various audiences.

The chorus gives concerts on campus, in Reading, and in surrounding communities and has made for itself a fine reputation. In January, the Glee Club took part in the Mid-Winter Musicale of the College.

The students who maintain active membership for two years are eligible for the receiving of engraved glee club charms.

THE ALBRIGHT SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

has now become the outstanding musical organization on campus, having been in existence only four years. This remarkable achievement has resulted from the efforts put forth by the student musicians and the director.

In January, a winter concert was given; and in the spring, a concert was given to raise money for the band. Last year, the orchestra played a benefit performance, the proceeds of which went to purchase new band uniforms.

The symphony has also provided dinner music for various banquets at the college and in downtown hotels.

THE COLLEGE BAND leads the team to victory by marching and playing at all games. In the spring, it gives a lawn concert. The band members sell tickets for the orchestra concert in March.

The marching band is an important part of the football program. It inspires pep and enthusiasm in the players and the spectators. The pep rallies would be failures without the snappy tunes and colorful uniforms of the band.

This season saw the band members with new uniforms, including white sweaters, red and white capes, and red trousers. This added new color to the band formations.

SIGMA TAU DELTA

PI GAMMA MU

SIGMA TAU DELTA, National Honorary English Fraternity, encourages worthwhile reading, promotes the mastery of written expression, and fosters a spirit of good fellowship among teachers and students of the English language and literature.

The Rho Beta Chapter sponsored an old-time movie night and gave a tea for the new members. The annual banquet climaxes the year's activities.

Members are elected from a group of English majors who excel in character, scholarship, and general promise. This scholastic honor is signalized by the privilege of wearing the society's gold key.

PI GAMMA MU, National Social Science Honor Society, serves as a means of scholastic recognition, as an incentive to the study of the social sciences, and as a cultural broadening activity.

The program of a Zeta Chapter meeting consists of the reading of an original paper dealing with some sociological problem in which the member is interested.

Some of the papers read during the year were as follows: "Archaeology and the Bible," "German Propaganda in America," "Judaism in the Age of Realism," "The Hostel Movement," "A Sociology in Swimming Pools." At the end of the year, a formal initiation banquet is always held.

KAPPA TAU CHI is an organization of all pre-ministerial students on campus. At their bi-weekly meetings, the members discuss problems relating to the field of the ministry and the profession.

The Deputation team of the organization visited numerous churches in the surrounding communities and presented services of music and sermon. The services have served as a rich source of experience for the members.

The group attempted to enliven the spiritual atmosphere of the campus through the quickening of the religious life of the pre-theological students.

THE ALCHEMIST CLUB is an honorary society composed of students interested in chemistry. It fosters an appreciation especially in the field of industrial chemistry.

The members heard talks delivered on the following subjects: the manufacture of glass apparatus, synthetic tanning materials, and spectrographic analysis.

At various times throughout the year, joint meetings were held with the Reading Chemist's Club. A picnic for the members is usually held in the spring.

PHILOSOPHY CLUB

HEO CLUB

PHILOSOPHY CLUB aims to promote a general interest in philosophy on campus. Membership in the club is limited to students of the philosophy department with high scholastic standing.

Meetings are held twice monthly when papers are presented by various members on subjects of current philosophic or religious interest. Some of the reports were as follows: "Background of the Philosophies Leading up to Christianity," "The Patristics—The Early Church Fathers," "St. Augustine," "Thomas Aquinas," "The Reformers (Calvin and Luther)."

HEO CLUB has a membership selected exclusively from the department of home economics.

During the year, the club participated in child welfare work and in the health program of the college. The members now boast of a completely modernized laundry and a furnished early-American recreation room.

One of the many field trips taken was to the city food and health standardization laboratory. A lecture was given by a representative of the House of Houbigant of New York. Also, the members heard a talk in "Floral Arrangements." A movie film in nutrition was also shown.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB holds bi-weekly meetings devoted to the discussion of problems of international relations and their political, social, and economic effects.

Two outstanding speakers of the current season were D. Fedotoff White and Dr. Eugene Miller, who discussed the Soviet Army and the Far East, respectively.

Representatives attended the regional conference at Lehigh University. A radio forum on the sending of an A. E. F., and a student discussion of America's foreign policy were also held. Two meetings a year are devoted to book reviews.

BUSINESS CLUB

DER DEUTSCHE VEREIN

THE ALBRIGHT BUSINESS CLUB is composed of students taking courses in business administration. The club aims to stimulate a wider interest in the business world and to promote fellowship among business students. Business meetings are held twice a month. A special meeting in the evening is held every month at which time a prominent person associated with the business field speaks to the group.

During the year the club made two field trips. Also a field agent of O.P.M. spoke to the members at one of their evening meetings.

DER DEUTSCHE VEREIN promotes interest in German culture, music, and art. At their informal meetings, the members are encouraged to speak German, sing German songs, read papers, recite poetry, and participate in German dramatizations.

The highlight of its activities is its presentation of the annual Christmas play. A fastnacht spiel is also held. In the spring, the group participates in the Cultural Olympics Festival of the University of Pennsylvania. On this occasion, the German Club has often received an award of merit.

Attempts are being made to form an Albright Chapter of Delta Phi Alpha, the national German Honorary Fraternity.

LE CIRCLE FRANCAIS promotes interest in French culture, music, literature, and art.

A Christmas party is held every year. In the winter, a French movie is procured and shown in the chapel.

The regular bi-weekly meetings of the French Club are devoted to a discussion of various French authors and literary figures. The members also study sections of France in regard to language, scenic, religious, and economic characteristics. The French peasant and his folk-songs are described by the students.

THE PI TAU BETA fraternity ranks high in scholarship. In athletics, their record is not too impressive. They had an excellent table tennis team, however, and their softball team of last year was quite good. In October, they held a party for freshmen and later had a semi-formal dance.

The members sponsored the "N" campaign and a pep rally to raise the campus spirit. They were instrumental in having a famous jazz band play a song over the radio and dedicate it to the college.

A SALUTE

With the shadows of late afternoon creeping over the gridiron on a beautiful Thanksgiving Day, and the strains of "Alma Mater" merging with space, the curtains of another football season of the Albright Lions were rung down. As we watched the boys running from the field to the locker rooms for the last time, (the last time for all times for the twelve departing seniors) something inside told us that this spectacle was not just the completion of a hard schedule, not just the finale of a scheduled football season, but it was something more meaningful, more purposeful.

We had followed the boys for three months. We watched them on the gridiron, and associated with them in the class rooms, in the fraternities, and in other various social and religious gatherings. We learned to know them for what they represented. We shared their hurts and pains. Their losses became our losses; their victories, our victories. Knowing them as we did and sharing with them these things, we were thus restrained from thinking of their departure on the gridiron as only a routine of terminating a scheduled season. To us they represented something more fundamental, more alive. They dramatized to us life with its great need of sacrifice; they portrayed for us a spirit of cooperation which is so needful in the world today; they taught us that even in defeat, one can be victorious. These all represented the 1941 football squad of our Alma Mater.

Our team was a lion-hearted team. Hard luck fell upon it even prior to the opening of the schedule season, when, due to the infantile paralysis epidemic, it was forced to abandon its training camp near Myerstown after having been there only one week. Throughout the season Coach Dietz was dogged by injuries to such key men as Plaskonos, Killiany, Bennett, Breen, and Kuklis so that at no time during the season with the possible exception of the last game, could he enter any game with the team at full strength.

But in the face of these and other obstacles, we offer no alibis; for when its reputation as a lion-hearted football team was endangered, the boys rose to great heights and played hard and well.

Our team was our team. It did not play for itself, nor did it play primarily for its coaches. It played for us, the students of Albright College; it played for our Alma Mater. So, to the men who represented the football team of 1941, a good team, a lion-hearted team, our team, we trust that in the days and years to come you may each continue to represent in life the spirit you have represented to us on gridiron. We, your fellow-students, salute you.

BLUE RIDGE—0

The Roaring Lions of Albright opened the season with a night tilt, meeting a Maryland team. Approximately five thousand fans saw the Dietzmen chalk up their first win by an impressive score of 20 to 0. The much talked about razzle-dazzle play did not occur. Sticking to straight, hard playing, the Red and White outclassed the clever passing aggregation from Blue Ridge. Dutzer, Kuklis and Moholick tallied with Bertino converting.

ALBRIGHT—0

CARNEGIE TECH.—12

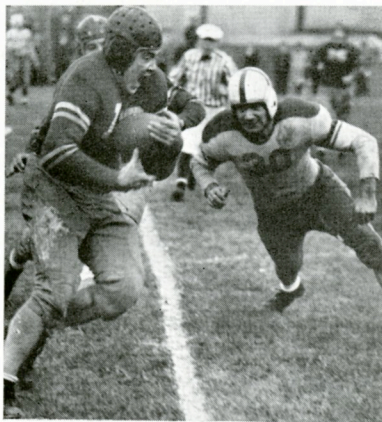

The Skibos of Carnegie Tech invaded Albright for one of the biggest games of the season. The fray marked Albright's entrance into big-time football. After a first half with the Lions dominating the play, the Tech men got rolling and pushed across two touchdowns to win the game 12 to 0. A steady rain and a highly spirited Skibo team proved too much for the lighter Red and White seven. Bob Bennett, stellar back, gleamed throughout the contest. His fine kicking and hard running pulled the team out of many tight spots.

ALBRIGHT—14

MUHLENBERG—3

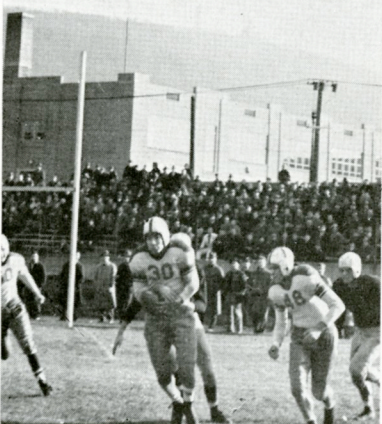

Travelling to Allentown for their second game, the Lions opened fire and trounced the traditional rival team, 14 to 3. For the fourth consecutive year, the Mules succeeded in gaining three points by virtue of a field goal. Coach "Doggie" Julian woefully saw his charges outclassed by the very much aggressive Reading team. The Red and White forward wall spent the afternoon in the Mule backfield much to its own delight.

ALBRIGHT—6

WEST CHESTER—0

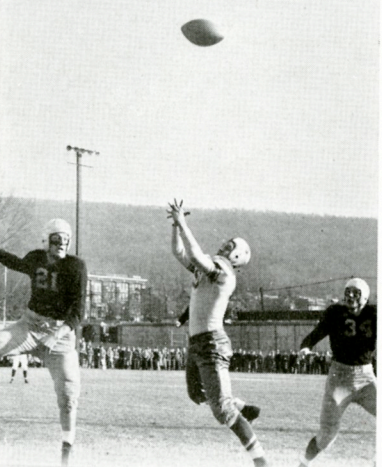

West Chester Teachers, with " . . . their cohorts gleaming in purple and gold," came down like a wolf on the fold. The mighty Teacher team was determined to repeat last year's 6-0 performance. The Fighting Lions, equally determined that the Purple and Gold should not win, exhibited fine spirit and drove across the final white line for the much desired touchdown. The game was a see-saw affair with tough playing by both teams.

ALBRIGHT—13

LEBANON VALLEY—27

Struggling under adverse weather conditions, the favored Lions wilted under the inspired attack of the Lebanon Valley team. The hard-driving Dutchman eleven ended a six-year jinx. Bennett again led the Red and White to two touchdowns. Bertino and Dutzer scored with the former converting. The ability of the Annville team to capitalize on breaks proved the deciding factor of the game. Seven fumbles and three pass interceptions ruined Albright's chances to win.

MORAVIAN—0

That we had a powerful team was evidenced when the Lions met the highly-favored Moravian Greyhounds on the Stadium field. Big Bill Spangler, rugged end, made sure that last year's 9-0 defeat was avenged. On a razzle-dazzle play that only our inimitable Dietz could concoct, the big end twice streaked around the Moravian team for touchdowns. Bertino, the terminal on the other side of the forward wall, accounted for the single conversion of the game. A scoreless first half was kept alive by a punting duel between Bennett and Moravian's Griffith with our own "Corning Express" getting the edge. His long booming punts kept the Greyhounds from progressing beyond the Albright 45-yard line. An amazingly refreshed Lion team entered the field for the second half and proceeded to mop up the visitors. The rough and tough Albright line spilled the greatly surprised Moravian backfield for huge losses to clinch the victory.

ALBRIGHT—12

FRANKLIN & MARSHALL—13

Handicapped by a rain soaked Williamson Field and the absence of Bob Bennett and Pat Nappi, the Albright Lions failed to hold an early lead and gave way to the Diplomats by the margin of one point. The Dietzman failed in the waning minutes of the melee to push across a much needed touchdown from the six inch line. Breen, who scored Albright's two touchdowns, got away for sizeable gains behind crisp blocking. Again the forward wall of the Dietz team played a commendable game.

ALBRIGHT—27

PENNA. MILITARY COLLEGE—20

The Dads Day fans were kept out of their seats more than in them by a blitzkrieg at the expense of the P. M. C. aggregation. The pigskin changed hands so frequently that the interested spectators were baffled. The Red and White hard-charging line was in the Shavetail backfield most of the afternoon. Two pass interceptions and a blocked kick added to the joy of the Albright fans. Spangler, Breen and Bennett shared the scoring honors. The P. M. C. team rolled up their share of the score while the Dietz regulars were taking a hard-earned rest. The Shavetail backs had the Albright defense in a dither in a last period passing attack.

ALBRIGHT—0

BUCKNELL—42

The stadium was the scene of a field meet when Coach Al Humphrey's Bucknell eleven turned on the heat. The Bisons proved their superiority by scoring in every period of play and by giving the Lions the worst set-back any Lion team had had for many years. The only real Lion threat came late in the third period when Mike Dutzer intercepted a pass and advanced the oval to the Bucknell 28-yard line.

ALBRIGHT—26

MILLERSVILLE TEACHERS—13

Thanksgiving Day brought beautiful weather and a final win for the Lions. An improved Albright team plowed through a much heavier Millersville eleven to win 26 to 13. Albright's line looked unconquerable as they opened huge holes in the Teachers' forward wall and held the opponents to short gains through the line.

In this, the final game of the current season, the entire Albright squad played heads-up ball and each man was a star in his own right. Unfortunately, this contest was the final game for twelve seniors: Frank Bertino, end; Bob Baum, tackle; Roy Conner, guard; Paul Michaels and Sam Coccodrilli, centers; Tom Lubin, guard; Steve Plaskonos, tackle; Burd Miller, end; Stan Kuklis, Mike Dutzer, Chuck Klein, and Jimmy Breen, backs. These boys will be missed but the Lions shall roar again next season, for many stalwart men remain. The Junior regulars were Jim Harpster, tackle; Dick Weber and Bill Demidovich, guards; Bill Spangler, end; John Killiany, Wash Maholick, Vic Gigli, and Bob Bennett, backs.

BASKETBALL

The Albright College up and down basketballers ended a highly successful campaign with 13 victories and 7 defeats. In Eastern Pennsylvania League competition, the Roaring Lions ended in a tie for third place with 8 wins and 4 losses.

The Lions passed their initial test by drubbing Moravian 51-42. Before 2000 spectators the Red and White team wore the "Greyhounds" into the floor-boards as Bill Spangler netted 16 points. The Bucknell "Bisons," next absorbed a 57-43 defeat. Led by Dick Shollenberger, Dewey Boltz, and Bill Spangler, the Lions swished their way to their first conference win. The third straight victory was at the expense of Kutztown Teachers. Chinny Rhoads sank 14 points to lead the Lions to a 52-30 triumph.

Reading's introduction to bigtime collegiate competition came when the "Cowboys" from the University of Wyoming galloped over the Northwest court. Playing superbly but lacking height, the Lions won the enthusiasm of the overflowing crowd although going down to a 73-54 defeat.

Journeying to West Chester, the Harrismen annexed their fourth victory 43-41, by virtue of a dazzling last half rally sparked by Dewey Boltz. In staking their second league victory the Albright lads mauled Ursinus 80-33. The Red and White cagers suffered their first league setback when defeated by the F. and M. "Diplomats" 59-50. Highly touted Villanova went down to defeat 54-40. Proving superiority over Berk's rivals the Lion Five swept Kutztown 55-41.

Playing Long Island University in the season's headliner, the Fighting Lions kept a record crowd of 3000 spectators on the verge of nervous prostration before bowing to the superb shooting of Dick Holub and Co., 59-54. Kenny Hopkins was the big gun for Albright, hitting pay-dirt for 18 points.

The 49-46 conquest of Ursinus gave Albright its third league win. Albright took undisputed possession of the second rung on the league ladder when Gettysburg was downed 63-47. The Red and White's smooth court combination cut Muhlenberg's lead to one half game as Dewey Boltz and Dick Shollenberger paced the Lions to a 48-46 win over the "Bisons."

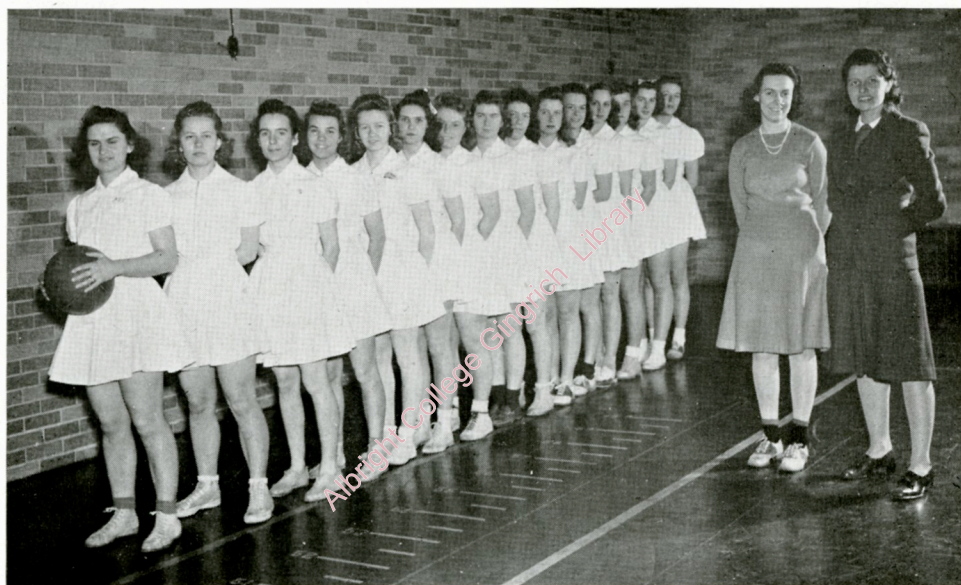

The "Diplomats" jinx held as Franklin and Marshall sank a foul in the last two seconds of action to win 37-36. Moravian settled grievances with the Lions winning a 53-51 battle. Albright then bounced back to squash Lebanon Valley 64-58. Seeking their second win over Gettysburg, the Roaring Lions suffered a severe setback 42-24. Two days later, the Lions were tumbled out of the race by Muhlenberg 44-39. The Harrismen finished the season in championship form when they trounced the "Dutchmen" 57-36, and returned home to upset Muhlenberg in the final game 58-46.

The frosh corps won 15 out of 19 games to set an enviable record for future frosh aggregations. Members of the freshman squad are: Walter Hauser, Les Pushman, Dick Stark, Jim Bunn, Russ Guensch, John Patrician, Bill Deardon, Frank Gable, and Jim Brusch.

WOMEN'S HOCKEY

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

THE WOMEN'S HOCKEY SQUAD did not do so well against the more experienced Moravian, Lebanon Valley, and Reading Hockey teams. The co-eds battled furiously to save their team from a shut-out and gave their opponents a hard fight. The upper classmen and more-practiced contenders had preference in participating in the matches.

Three games were played by each team in the class league. The senior eleven captained by Betty Jones was victorious in all of its games. The sophomores placed second, the frosh next, the juniors last.

Members of the squad attended hockey conferences at Adelphi College, Long Island, and at Wyomissing. The latter was sponsored by the Central Pennsylvania Association.

THE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL SQUAD began one of their most ambitious varsity programs in many seasons on Thursday, January 16. Some of their opponents were Moravian, Lebanon Valley, Gettysburg, Rider College, and St. John's Church.

Preceding the opening of the season, six teams headed by Elaine Shade, Mary Levan, Esther Whitehead, Jean Bomgardner, and Kitty Geib played for a referee's examination.

In the intra-mural contest, class teams, sorority and non-sorrority teams vied for honors.

THE WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION includes every woman student in its membership and sponsors a well-rounded sports program to provide an opportunity for individual, intra-mural, and varsity competition, to promote good feeling among women on campus, and to build up a sense of sportsmanship and fair play.

President Mary Levan
 Vice-President Jean Bomgardner
 Secretary Katharine Geib
 Treasurer Joan Belmont
 Senior Representative Elaine Shade
 Junior Representative June Strawbridge
 Sophomore Representative Betty Laverty

WOMEN'S TENNIS TEAM includes Olga Bitler, captain and manager, Kathryn Muhs, and Edith Bitler. The 1942 season was cancelled because of the emergency. Last year, the coeds defeated Lebanon Valley and McCann and lost to Ursinus.

TABLE TENNIS is sponsored by the W.A.A. A ladder is drawn up and the competition is very keen. Some of the participants are: June Strawbridge, leader, Betty Miller, Dorothy Reber, Lucille Griswold, Elaine Shade, Katharine Geib, Mary Levan, and Emma Cora Hafer.

MEN'S TENNIS TEAM played a hard but rather unsuccessful season last year. The spring sport was dropped for 1942 as an emergency measure. The members of the squad are: Ray Swett, manager, Robert Starr, Al Thergeson, Richard Weber, Dennis Strawbridge, and Willis Heisey.

THE INTRA-MURAL ATHLETIC COUNCIL has for its purpose the development of interest in sports and the establishment of good-will and impartiality among the fraternal groups. The council regulates and promotes all intra-mural sports and legislates on all questions of management and control dealing with the sports program. Touch football, basketball, softball, and track comprise the program of the council.

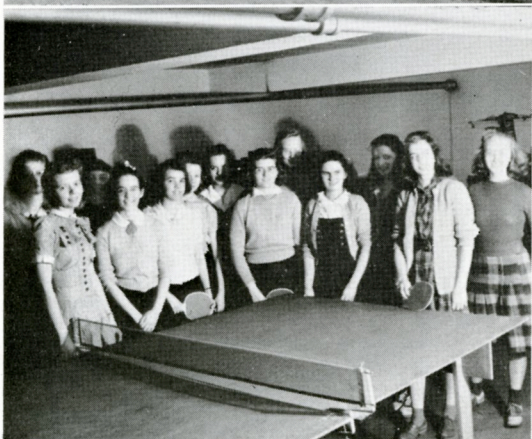

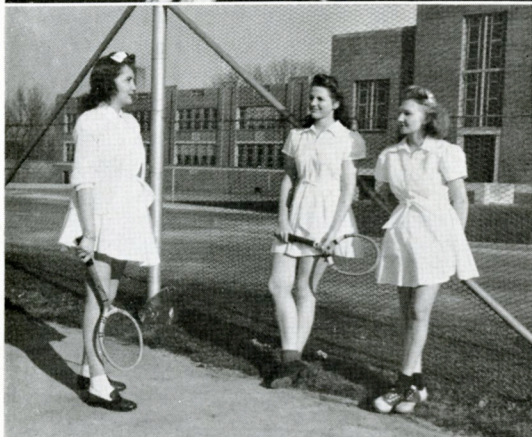

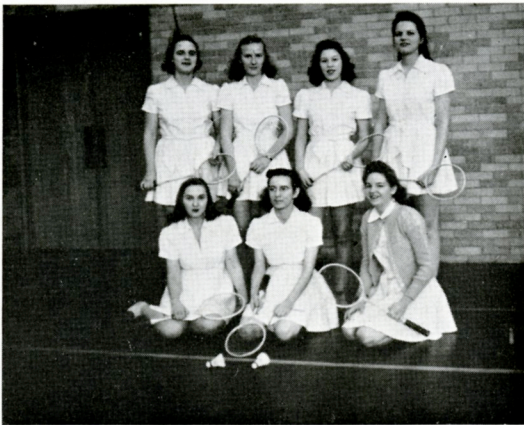

President Raymond Swett
 Vice-President Clement Boland
 Secretary Richard Major
 Adviser Neal O. Harris

BADMINTON is a favorite sport among the coeds. It is included in the gym classes and also in the special sports program. Some of the participants are: Dorothy Reber, leader; Mary Jane Koch, Romona Hilterbrick, Marian Christ, Dorothy Scheib, Ruth Jaslow, and Kathryn Muhs.

ARCHERY PRACTICE for the women is an excellent pastime in the early fall and spring. The line-up on the picture includes: Dorothy Gaul, leader; Jean Bomgardner, Regina Seidel, Edith Bitler, and Olga Bitler.

WOMEN'S SOFTBALL program features an inter-class and sorority league. Games are sponsored by the W. A. A. and form an important part of the spring sports program. Jean Bomgardner is the leader and Alda Matz is doing the swinging on the picture.

SOFTBALL is played by the physical education classes and by the fraternities. The athletic council gives a trophy to the championship team. Allen DeLong is doing the pitching, while Lois Smith does the calling.

VICTORY SONG

March men of Albright

Forward today

Your Alma Mater

Proudly points the way

Sing a song of victory

And raise the chorus

Cheer with all your might

To the skies

For old Albright.

FEATURES

WHEN A YOUNG MAN'S FANCY TURNS TO

SPRING FEVER

... "in the springtime a young man's fancy and so's a girl" ... on the left Tom uses a window to tell Polly and Millie something ... Marie and Ginny just relax ... Natalie listens attentively to Fritz ... Sally, a combination of beauty and personality ... aimless chatter ... above, Rusty does some concentrating ... Esther takes to the open road ... ice cream and Zaffy are inseparable ... an enviable foursome ... a delightful trio of two Bettys and Whitey in the middle ... a garland of flowers for Miss Betty ... Queen Ella in a pensive mood ... Titus illustrating the ecstatic moment ... pretty little Betty listens to Prof. Mike ... a tradition that will never grow old as long as there is spring ...

ORIENTING THE FROSH

... tribunal makes Sandy love Stevie ... some unscrupulous soph concocted this prank ... an eyeful of coeds gaze upon those poor frosh, tch, tch ... a pillow battle enlivens an otherwise dull line-up ... a picture of innocence stands before her masters ... a rear view explains a lot of things ... here are some fresh college men to amuse the upperclassmen ... Winnie and Jerry plan some smart strategy for the next line-up as Marie chuckles ... button frosh ... louder ... tail it ... better report to tribunal tomorrow night ...

... another old Albrightian custom called "Hell Week" ... the men from Mars in full regalia hide their Kappa skin ... the Zetas dress in their Sunday best to serenade the clouds ... Sir Joseph, a rawther distinguished country gentleman ... the Mu's laugh and have more fun than their tormentors ... the Scottish Highlanders from up Pi Tau aways ... Polly displays quite an outfit behind the broom ... a commercial aspect of initiation ... Irma makes a swell-looking bait ... a refugee from Loch Lomond, Brother John in disguise ... assume the angle, suh ...

FUTURE BROTHERS AND SISTERS

... Music and romance headline the social life of campus as King Rhythm and Queen Charm meet in Melody Lane ... the spring of 1941 features the traditional Junior Promenade ... five gentlemen and a lady pose for the camera ... the class prexy knows committee talent when he sees it ... surrounding delovely Ella Propst are Jim Pomeroy, John Nugent, Ray Hain, Ray Swett, and Charles Werley ... with twinkling stars studded against a deep blue curtain of sky, the scene of Romeo and Juliet is enacted somewhere in Berks ... these Romeos didn't need a ladder ... the balcony is ideal ... Mim finds Jimmy interesting and nice ... Sally and George simply smile in a peculiar sort of way ... music and romance? ... definitely, but let's make it a heavenly trio ... music, romance, and YOU ...

TIME

Albright College Gingrich Library

... a pretty girl is like a melody ... a handsome boy provides the harmony ... a dancing couple make a symphony ... Remember the Ivy Ball? ... 'twas the eleventh of October in the year 1941 ... the college broke tradition and the faculty joined in fun ... there was food and chatter, song and laughter ... Remember the Ivy Ball? ... a fifteen-minute intermission and couples seek a rest ... the dancing continues but the hour grows late ... every loyal son and daughter sings the "Alma Mater" ... then it's homeward bound ... a lingering good-night and silence ... Remember the Ivy Ball? ... May 1, 1942, that's a date we'll remember too ... the Senior-Junior Ball brings down the curtain on four years of treasured memories ... yesterday was frosh line-up ... tomorrow is graduation ...
