ALUMNI TO MEET IN MID-YEAR RALLY AT ALMA MATER, JANUARY 30-31

Extensive Preparations Made For Large Assembly Over The Week-End

SATURDAY PROGRAM TO BE ESPECIALLY INTERESTING

Reasons Why Alumni Should Be And Should Want To Be Present At Rally

According to the custom of the last few years, and in harmony with the revised constitution of the Alumni Association, this call goes out to all loyal alumni of Albright College to gather at their Alma Mater for the annual mid-year assembly, Friday and Saturday, Jan. 30 and 31, 1925.

The attendance this year should be larger than ever. We want to make this mid-year function increasingly popular, a winter rally in the interest of the college and for alumni fellowship. You'll be there? Of course you will.

You will want to be present—

1. For the joy of association with friends of the past.
2. In order to make the acquaintance of new friends, including undergraduate students.
3. To note the progress your own college is making, and to study her present modes of operation.
4. To participate in a very important business meeting of the association.
5. To see the basket ball team in action.
6. For reasons of your own.

We are less concerned with the question as to why you have come, than we are that you shall be present. The alumni association and the college need your fullest support and interest.

A complete program for the Assembly will be printed separately.

Saturday, Jan. 31st, 1925, will be reserved as a day of general fellowship, and will probably close with a good time between graduates and undergraduates in the college reception room. For certain reasons it has hitherto been deemed inadvisable.

SWARTHMORE CHAUTAUQUA DATES JAN. 24-27

Interesting Program By Special Talent Will Be Presented on Each Day—Special Program Sunday

The Swarthmore Chautauqua program will be given in Myerstown, January 24-25-26-27. A fine program of exceptional talent will be presented on each day. The first day will feature Marchetti's Swiss Yodlers in the afternoon and Edward F. Miller.

The program for the second afternoon will be given by the Festival Ladies Quartet. Chancellor George H. Bradford is the speaker of the evening.

The Johns-Ringgold Recital Company will give a recital the last afternoon. The evening entertainment will consist of a presentation of the three act comedy "The Bubble".

A sacred program will be given on Sunday, to which there will be no admission, but a collection will be taken. Season tickets are on sale at several places in town and can be procured for $2.00.

CLERIC ELECTS M. K. DIETZ PRES. FOR SECOND SEMESTER

REV. J. A. HECK TALKS ON "BLIND ALLEYS"

Addresses Y. M. on Short Cuts to Education, Vocations, Bible Truths—Urged to Live Lives of Quality

Tuesday evening, January 6, the members of the Y. M. fresh from vacation, assembled to hear a former faculty member, Rev. J. A. Heck, now Professor of Theology at Schuylkill Seminary.

In his characteristic style he spoke on "Blind Alleys", ways that end unexpectedly. He discussed a number of these deceptive paths, as short cuts to an education, use of touts, giving money first place in the choice of a vocation, scientific agnosticism, reasoning without faith about bible truths, intellectual scepticism, practical aethism, ignoring God in life.

Everything we do has moral values. While this worth may not be inherent in the deed, yet the spirit of the doer invests it with moral value. Because of this Rev. Heck urged us to live lives of quality, for our characters as made here go out into eternity.

RETREAT PLANNED FOR L. V. C. AND ALBRIGHT Y. CABINETS

A Retreat has been planned for the Y. M. Cabinets of Albright and Lebanon Valley Colleges, Saturday and Sunday, January 24 and 25. This retreat was arranged by 'Shorty' Miller and the place of meeting is the Lebanon Y.M.C.A. On Sunday, 25th, the Y. W.'s of the two colleges will join the men in their sessions.

The purpose of this conference is to bring the Y's of the two colleges into contact with each other for the exchange of ideas and methods.

THEMISIANS ELECT OFFICERS

Election of the Themisian Literary Society was held on Monday night, January 12th. The following officers were elected for the second term:

- President.....Phyllis M. Bieher.
- Vice-Pres.....Violet Kinsinger.
- Secretary.....Eva Wright.
- Treasurer.....Helen Froelich.
- Chaplain.....Caroline Mowery.
- Ushers.....Mildred Lackey.
- Critic.....Janet Kaltreider.
- Historian.....Mary Shultz, Kathryn Dice.
- Historian.....Grace Hangen.

A number of subscribers have not as yet turned in their remittance for their subscription to the Bulletin for this year. As we have bills which must be met we would appreciate attention to the matter as soon as possible.

THEMISIANS ENJOY VAUDEVILLE AND MINSTREL

"Wright & Company Inc." Prove Excellent Vaudeville Entertainers—Minstrel Affords Spice To Society Program

PROGRAM REAL GLOOM CHASER

The "Themisian Minstrel Troop" entertained that Literary Society, Friday night, January 9.

The performers made a picturesque appearance in their elaborate costumes. The four end-ladies, Grace Hangen, Mabel Gindesperger, Ann Benfer and Lena Bertolet looked like typical negroes and they played their parts in style. Between snappy songs sung by the "company" they held conversations in which they related clever jokes with the interlocuter. Mabel Gindesperger gave a profound discussion on "Woman's Rights". Grace Hangen displayed undreamed of ability in her solo dance. Ann Benfer gave a speech on "Cases". Lena Bertolet talked about Albright's athletics.

Other members of the group, all of whom did exceptionally good acting were: Leader, and interlocuter, Phyllis Bieher; Mae Cooper, Kathryn Dice, Grace, Esthné and Dorothy Dundore, and Helen Froelich.

If any of the Themisians had the blues on Friday evening, Jan. 16, it was no fault of the entertainment, for the "Wright & Company, Inc., Vaudeville" cast were real gloom chasers. This program was the third of a series of special programs given by the Themisians.

Included in the evening's entertainment were motion pictures, piano solo, a short sketch, musical interpretations and last, but not least, "Wrong's Harmony Hounds". This

ALBRIGHT QUINTET LOSES FIRST TWO GAMES; BUT DEFEATS ST. FRANCIS

ALBRIGHT WINS FROM BLUE RIDGE, SCORE 42-29

Raffy and Griggs High Scorer, Team Shows Old-Time Form

Albright played Blue Ridge to the tune of 42-29 in the Albright cage on Saturday evening, January 17. Blue Ridge, on a two day trip, came to Albright after holding the fast Schuylkill College team to only two field goals on Schuylkill's floor and engaged the Red and White squad in what proved to be even a faster game than the one on the evening before. As the game began things looked bad for Albright. Blue Ridge quickly piled up a four-point lead on Albright by scoring the first two field goals. The score at the end of five minutes was 6-4 in favor of Blue Ridge. At ten minutes it was 10-16. At half time Albright held the lead at 20-17.

GIRLS GLEE PLAN TRIPS THROUGH NEW SECTION

Trips To Include Wrightsville, York, Baltimore, Red Lion, Glen Rock, Washington, Etc.

WEEK END CONCERTS TO BE ARRANGED

Although there are no definite concert dates arranged the manager of the Girls' Glee Club is planning an Easter trip in a section where Albright's Glee Clubs have never visited.

The first part of the trip is planned for York County with probable concerts in Wrightsville, York, Red Lion, and Glen Rocks. The second part of the trip will take the Club to a new territory, Baltimore and Washington. In Baltimore the Club expects to sing in one or more of our churches. In Washington the Club may sing for a Masonic order or in a Methodist Church.

Thus far no week end concerts have been arranged, but probably there will be one short trip before the Easter trip.

POLITICAL CLUB HOLDS IMPORTANT MEETING

Thursday evening, January 15 the Club elected officers for the second semester. The new officers are: Newton Miller, Pres., Howard Clark, Vice Pres., Wm. Kelly, Sec.-Treas. After the installation of these officers a discussion on the attitude of the supreme court for Child Labor legislation was held.

EXCELSIORS ELECT R. ZELLERS AS SECOND TERM PRES.

The Excelsiors held a short song and devotional service and followed this up with the election and installation of officers on Friday night, January 9. The men elected to fill the officers for the ensuing term are: President, Russel Zellers, Vice-Pres., Ruel Dubbs; Rec. Sec., Callaman; Asst. Rec. Sec., Hosterman; Cor. Sec., Ed. Harris; Pianist, Rutter; Critic, Glenn Raffensperger.

NEOCOSMIAN LITERARY SOCIETY, JANUARY 9

After the installation of the new officers, the following program was rendered:

Vocal Solo—Richard Schoenly. Educational Talk—Geo. Weiss. Critic's Report—Harold Andrew. In a short business meeting Clyde Hewitt was elected historian.

Small Floor Hampers Benfer's Flashy Five Who Lose to Gettysburg By 28-18

Albright Loses to Strong Lehigh Team After Long and Hard Ride

The Red and White Passes Win an Exciting Game From St. Francis By 32-30 Score

The basketball season for Albright opened on Saturday, January 10 at Gettysburg College. It was Albright's first game of the season and immediately after the Christmas recess and is, therefore not a real gauge of the strength of the Albright squad. The game was a close, hard and fast battle throughout, with Albright trailing only a few points behind the leaders until near the latter part of the game when Gettysburg took a more decisive lead.

Captain Peduzzi and Gerhart, the rangy six-footer who played center, were the individual stars for "G-burg"; Peduzzi having five field goals and Gerhart three. Captain Raffensperger and Griggs were the only men who could locate the basket on the small "G-burg" floor for Albright. Raffensperger tallied 3 and Griggs two.

The score as it stood when the whistle blew was, Gettysburg 28—Albright 18.

Line-up:

Albright	Position	Gettysburg
Griggs	Forward	Tuckey
Raffensperger	Forward	Peduzzi
Capt.		Capt.
Zellers	Center	Gerhart
Hollenbaugh	Guard	C. Bream
Wissler	Guard	Bourbour
Field Goals:	Griggs, 2; Raffensperger, 3; Bourbour, 1; C. Bream, 1; Gerhart, 3; Peduzzi, 5; Tuckey, 2.
Fouls:	Griggs, 3 out of 5; Raffensperger, 1 out of 1; Zellers, 4 out of 7; Gerhart, 1 out of 1; Peduzzi, 2 out of 6; Tuckey, 1 out of 3.
Substitutions:	For Albright, Garrett for Griggs, Derr for Hollenbaugs. For Gettysburg, Spangler for Bourbour, G. Bream for Gerhart, Heller for Peduzzi.

SNOW FALL BRINGS SLEIGHING WEATHER

Seniors Enjoy Party and Dinner at Bethel—Sophomores and Juniors Go To Newmantown

Two big sleighs arrived in front of Mohr Hall a little after 8 o'clock, Friday night, January 9. What did it all mean? Of course, the Sophomore fellows were entertaining the Sophomore girls at a sleighing party.

Taking the road leading to the little country inn at Newmantown, the party headed for the place where those delicious chicken and waffle dinners are served. The night air was ringing with the songs that this happy party sang.

Upon arriving at the inn, the party was taken into the dining hall where a bountiful chicken dinner was served. After dinner the toast-master, President Henry Gasull, called on several members of the class, including Misses Strasser and Flory, those sporty chaperons, to speak. All called upon responded with a toast.

SCIENCE CLUB HOLDS REGULAR BI-WEEKLY MEETING

A WEAKNESS

The curse element, once the primary weakness of swearing, is now obsolete. The South Sea Islander who revengefully muttered, "May fire blast the eyes of him who stole my bananas!" really meant it. Now, however, he who blunts out, "May the Devil take him!" rarely means it. Notwithstanding, swearing is yet a great weakness. Swearing in high places does not lessen the truth of this statement. "Hell and Maria!" says Dawes between strong puffs of his pipe, and Chas. M. Schwab leavens his speeches with a generous sprinkling of "damn". Yet these men are not famous because of this weakness, but famous in spite of it.

Let us briefly consider the outstanding phases of this weakness. Swearing ejected a flaw into good taste; live as a parasite in vocabularies; contaminates such a manly virtue as determination; for sometimes folk in verbally expressing this splendid virtue resort to such an inharmonious medium as profane language; burdens one with the fear of a "slip" in respectable society; reveals a vulnerable point in self-control; and finally it brings into the realm of expression that NAME which should only be mentioned in awe and reverence.

How shall such a weakness be eliminated? By increasing our stock of rugged words may partially answer this question, for persons often use a profane word for want of a rugged one. Then too, considering the source of many of our profane words would help remedy the situation. For instance, it is known to you that "Dear Me!" originates from "Dio Mio." Finally, the best way to learn to use good language is to use good language. To do this, Reader, we may have to turn out many of the relatives of Mr. Swearing. They are in the last analysis chips from the old block at any rate.

SENIOR THESES

During the past few weeks we have seen the Seniors "toting" books to and from the Library. Upon inquiring from them just what has caused them, at this late date, to become so studious, we are reminded that this is open season for Senior Theses and that these books are for reference purpose. If all these books are read and the contents digested, without doubt the education of the Seniors will be greatly augmented. On this ground, it must be admitted that Senior Theses are beneficial.

But!!!!!! Are Senior Theses beneficial? What is, after all, gained by the average student who writes a graduation thesis? He gains to the extent to which he thoroughly reads what some other person who is rated as an authority, has seen fit to spread over a wide area. After that phase is considered, we find little more on the positive side.

This policy is being pursued by most of the leading colleges in the east. Allegheny, Gettysburg, and Swarthmore are among these institutions. In addition to these, others are adopting this policy. Let Albright take her rightful place among the progressive institutions of the east by abolishing this obsolete requirement of Senior Theses.

NOTE TO SUBSCRIBERS

Due to the fact that the regular time for the appearance of the first January issue of the Bulletin occurred during our Christmas recess and that there was the customary accompanying lull in campus activities preceding and following the recess, the Staff was compelled to omit the first January issue of the publication.

Campus Chatter

Why, hello, strangers! It's quite a little bit of a long time since we've indulged in one of our regular bi-weekly gossip cordials, isn't it? But because it has been such a long time, the cup is full to running over, now, with a crystal liquid concocted from news and campus talk, which has been cooled to a proper temperature by the packing of pure, cold, white weather, in which it has been preparing for several weeks. It's a pleasing draught. Shall we drink to Albright?

The first sip that we taste is not at all unpalatable, but is, on the contrary, somewhat promising. (The Parrot begs your pardon for inflicting on you a pun. He knows it is a cheap form of wit, but thinks it is perhaps permissible to begin a jovial discourse such as this, with one.) But why is this first sip promising? For this reason, because we believe that to one of the girl students of this Institution the Christmas vacation has brought a great event. At any event, the lady in question appeared the other evening at Literary Society wearing a diamond on the fourth finger of her left hand. She is Miss Elsie Shirk. But no, it isn't really a diamond she says, but only a white sapphire. But it looks like a diamond, so what's the difference? It answers the purpose quite as well, we are sure. Is this not a promising sip?

The second taste of our cordial we may swallow with even more gusto than the first. Yes, it is truly scandalous. Oh, my dear! Those terrible Albright students! Do you know that at the movies one evening they acted so indecently that the town patrons of the show made complaint to the management, and the manager had to prohibit the admission of Albright students to the theatre? Those boys had the imprudence to laugh when the hero rescued the heroine, and they whistled when he kissed her. They spoiled the whole evening for sensible people who could appreciate the picture. What's this world coming to, and especially the younger generation who attend our colleges.

But now, with the next draught we are approaching the serious stage. And we ask you, in the name of all reason, and logic, etc., what the younger generation attending our smaller colleges is coming to. The purpose of all education, according to the most up-to-date authorities, is to prepare people to live more fully, which is in other words, to teach them how to use their brains. But consider for a minute the situation at our own Albright. When was the last time that you took an hour out to think? Preparing for recitations the way it is done here—that isn't thinking, you know. It's only training your memory. And when you aren't preparing lessons or at classes, where are you? Out for basketball—Glee Club practice—Bulletin Work—Science Club—working up a debate? Of course all these activities are useful and instructive, but even if one gets a great deal of information, and it isn't organized, what good does it do him? The Parrot just tentatively suggests that a good deal of the "scatter-brainedness" in the world is due to unorganized information. And he also just wonders if possibly the smaller colleges should be content not to imitate the larger ones in running so many activities.

But now the painful seriousness is past, and we quaff more of the sparkling liquid, we are beginning to feel a most agreeable hilarity taking possession of our spirit. Did you ever hear anything like it? We have a beauty connoisseur at Albright. Yes. And a very distinguished personage he is, too, so that all the girls may feel highly flattered by his notice. His position is that of waiter in the dining room, which probably accounts for his discerning propensities, and his name is William Harris. You wouldn't believe it, but girls, he has every one of you placed in a special notch in the scale of beauty. Wouldn't it be interesting to have him explain his scale to us sometime? For he is really a student of this matter, and his views carry weight. We can say, with conviction that we think he is an impartial judge in every case except perhaps one, in favor of which he is without doubt, prejudiced. However we would feel entirely justified in accepting his decisions, generally we think.

Ha, ha! Indeed we're feeling fine. Do you know what Mary Mohn said after dinner the other day? Because we're feeling so well is the reason why we thot of Mary just now. We pity her. She doesn't get enough to eat in the dining-room. This is what she gave as an explanation for taking a sandwich over to the Hall; "Well, I never get enough to eat. They make you eat so fast that you haven't time to satisfy your hunger. Why, I could have eaten two more dishes of beans, today." Now conditions like this ought to be remedied. It's sad to think of hungry students running around the campus this way.

The cup is not yet empty, but since we're in such a good humor, we think it the better part of valor to end the social round just here. However, more anon. And the Parrot wishes everyone a very happy New Year.

ECCENTRIX

Before vacation days our rooms were cool once in awhile, but now they are cold all the time. Many students have taken the advice of professors and wrapped themselves up in their studies to keep warm, but all in vain. We know now that the profs were suggesting a "little" study before exams.

Since vacation days the gym could be used as the College commissary and refrigerator. Minnie should be informed of this. But the cold gym does not prevent the carrying out of our basketball schedule. The home games offer an excellent opportunity for the cases to keep warm. We notice that they are making the best of it.

Since the weather has moderated somewhat the new danger zone is the entrance to Main Building. Show your speed as you enter or some one will help you along with a snowball.

The local movie house manager has recalled his "No Admission To College Students" since he deemed it wise from a business standpoint. The College students decided to go, admission or no admission.

The Pi Tau Betas take pleasure in announcing the active membership of "Pie", an imported half-full breed (Russian Cheese Hound) from the wiles of Belair Road, Baltimore. Pie has become very popular among the residents of Main Hall's Second Floor.

Who's Who At Albright

HOWARD E. CLARK

First you think of "cats", then you think of dining room service and—then of Howard Clark. Clark is head waiter this year and has proved himself a very efficient one. He is in an important position at Albright, and it behooves you, students, to acquire a good "stand-in" with the person so vitally concerned with this most fascinating of indoor sports.

Clark shines in other activities. He is Manager of the Boys' Basketball Team, an intensive Botany student, and a clever photographer. Are you interested in securing snaps of Albright events and students? See Clark. He has them all.

If you ask anyone their opinion of the gentleman under discussion, one of the statements will invariably be "a good sport". Clark is always ready and willing to help with any work under way, and has proved such a loyal aid in all class affairs that we think him fully deserving of that praise.

VIOLET E. KINSINGER.

Are you bored? Do you ever get blue? Do you like to listen to a vivacious talker who so loves to talk as to eliminate any necessity for your answering? Find Violet Kinsinger.

Violet is one of those very active girls, who is engaged in almost every thing that transpires around College, the sort of all-around girl that every college rejoices in having. Yet with all that she does, Violet has time for conscientious study.

Violet's administrative ability has been proved as a member of the Y. W. Cabinet. Her position in the Girls' Glee Club is a permanent one as she is a prominent alto. Last year we found out that Violet is possessed of a splendid voice, and she has been in demand ever since. Violet is usually singing when she isn't laughing or talking.

A friendly disposition, a smile, and a merry word of greeting are means to popularity, and since this natural with Violet we feel safe in saying that she is a pal to everyone. Your friends wish you all kinds of success, V.

THE HEIGHTS BEYOND

It isn't the level that calls us,
Nor the task that is easy to do;
But the mountains that stand in the distance,

All hazy, and lofty, and blue.

It isn't the thing that's before us,
Not the good we can reach at a bound;

It's always the flow'r that grows higher,
On steep and on treacherous ground.

It isn't the prize that is hanging,
On life's tree right in front of our eyes;

It's always the one that is dawning
Looms nearest the bright, glowing skies.

And so it's the heights that are calling,

That are urging us on to our goal;
The heights that are up near the cloud-land,

Which speak to our life and our soul.

Town Notes

On January 2, Lebanon and Berks counties had the severest snow storm experienced for many years. The William Penn highway was blocked to all traffic for several days, and many persons were obliged to abandon their machines along the roadway, being unable to proceed further. Many roofs in this section caved in due to the weight of snow. The most damage was done at the Ford garage on East Carpenter Avenue, where several machines were badly damaged by heavy timbers. The snow, which began falling early in the morning, continued until late in the afternoon.

A series of evangelistic services were conducted by Rev. Hershey, Dec. 29 to Jan. 17, in the United Brethren Church. Rev. Hershey was assisted by Rev. and Mrs. C. S. Thompson, well known singing evangelists of Plymouth, Indiana. Also, during the week of Jan. 13-17, Messrs. McFall, Getz, Hewitt, Oswald, and Ed. Harris of the College gave interesting talks at these services.

Gladly Wagner, pulling her new jazz tie. "Oh, don't you think I'm the cat's meow?"
Violet Kinsinger; "Oh, you are a puss!"

Kengle; "No, I've never ridden a donkey in my life."
Pete; "Say, you want to get on to yourself."

The cast was ably directed by Miss Wright, the leader of the group. The members of the group were: Grace Snyder, Jessie Statler, Helen Wagner, Gladys Wagner, Mary Wray, Fernie Stanford, Doretha Snyder, Charlotte Walt, Iva Statler, Rosaline Walter and Mary Schultz.

Hal Andrews: "What is a gold-digger?"
Raffly: "A gold-digger is a girl who takes a fellow for what he is worth."
Steltz: "Yes, and a gold fish is the fellow."

Kelly; on Junior sleighing party: "What is a waffle?"
Barnhart: "A waffle is a pancake with cleats on."

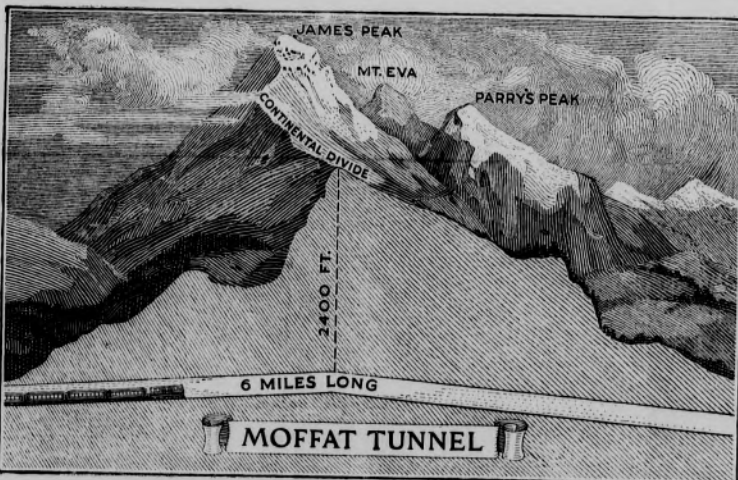

Education consists not in teaching people to know what they did not know, but in training them to behave as they do not behave.

Some parents wonder why the streams are bitter when they themselves have poisoned the fountain.

What a man or woman gets out of marriage largely depends upon what he or she puts into it.

It is dangerous for any man to find a spot that is sweeter than his home.

A pretty woman without religion is like a flower without fragrance.

Piercing the Great Divide

West of Denver is the Continental Divide; hewn in behind it is an undeveloped district twice as large as Maryland. That fertile area the new Moffat Tunnel will open up.

The General Electric Company includes many specialists—engineers who know about tunnels; engineers who know about street lighting; engineers who know about the electrification of factories. These men are helping to build the better and happier America in which you will live.

If you are interested in learning more about what electricity is doing, write for Reprint No. AR391 containing a complete set of these advertisements.

General Electric mine locomotives are carrying out the rock, and G-E motors are driving air compressors and pumping water from underground rivers.

The conquests of electricity on land and sea, in the air and underground, are making practical the impossibilities of yesterday. It remains only for men of ability to find new things to do tomorrow. Thus does Opportunity of 1925 beckon college men and women toward greater things as yet undreamed, and to a better world to live in.

: Alumni Notes :

Through the courtesy of the principal and faculty of Harford Vocational School, a copy of the first number of the Harford Echoes has been sent to us. This number is of special interest to the teachers and students of Albright because of the fact that Miss Ethel M. J. Varney '24 is assistant Principal and Miss Elizabeth Scott '24 is Director of Music and academic Instructor. Very complimentary references are made in this issue to these two popular Albright graduates. Harford is one of the progressive vocational schools for which Pennsylvania is becoming well known.

Another School of this kind is at Blaine, Pa., and its Principal is Chas. R. Smith '17. Principal Smith is succeeding very well in building up an excellent institution in that Perry County town.

On Dec. 13, 1924 Miss Ethel Heinze formerly of the class of '25 and Allen Dech '19 were united in marriage in Ashland by Rev. Hoffner. They will reside in Reading, where Mr. Dech holds a position in the Boys' High School.

A recent wedding of great interest to alumni was that of Miss Carrie Mae Witter '17, of Newmans town, to Prof. Joseph S. Black, Director of the conservatory of Music of Jamestown College, Jamestown, North Dakota.

Mrs. Black after her graduation from Albright, studied at Columbia and also under Oscar Saenger of New York City. Prof. Black is a graduate of New England Conservatory of Music.

News comes from Millersville State Normal School of the election of Miss Cora L. Frey '06 as the Assistant Supervisor in the training school there. Miss Frey was formerly Art Supervisor in Lancaster Schools.

ALBRIGHT QUINTET LOSES FIRST TWO GAMES; BUT DEFEATS ST. FRANCIS

Albright suffered a severe defeat at the hands of Lehigh University on Wednesday, January 14th at South Bethlehem, Pa. Little can be said except that Albright played on a foreign floor after a long and hard trip of five and three quarters hours from Myerstown to South Bethlehem, arriving there just in time to don their uniforms and hurry to the gym. But on the other hand Albright was not a match for Lehigh University's extremely fast and rangy team of men. It was the best team the Albright squad has played for years. Smith, who played forward for Lehigh and then shifted to guard was the individual star of the game having eight field goals. Wissler, a Freshman, played a good game at guard for Albright, allowing Captain Hess only one field goal.

Zellers, Griggs and Captain Raffensperger the most reliable shots on the Albright squad and veterans of last year were not able to pierce the Lehigh defense for more than one field goal apiece. Garrett made one goal in the first half which ran the total up to four goals. The score at half time was 31-7 and at the end of the game 62-11.

Line-up:
Albright Position Lehigh
Griggs Forward Smith
Raffensperger Forward Hess
Capt. Capt.
Zellers Center Gallagher
Hollenbaugh Guard Weinstein
Wissler Guard Schab, E.
Field Goals: Griggs, 1; Raffensperger, 1; Garrett, 1; Zellers, 1; Smith, 8; Hess, 1; Roberts, 1; Gallagher, 6; Weinstein, 6; E. Schab, 6. Fouls: Griggs, 3; C. Schab, 1; Gallagher, 1; Weinstein, 1; Smith, 2. Substitutions: Angle for Griggs; Garrett for Raffensperger; Holvey for Zellers; Brown for Hollenbaugh; Derr for Wissler; Henninger for Holvey; Griggs for Angle; Raffensperger for Garrett; Zellers for Holvey; Hollenbaugh for Brown; Wissler for Derr. For Lehigh: C. Schab for Smith; Roberts for Hess.

The Red and White passes came through the first home game of the season with a victory over the speedy St. Francis Club of Loretto, Pa. St. Francis came here from Hamilton, N. Y. after playing Colgate and holding them to a 35 to 28 score. The game in the Albright gym was intensely exciting from the very beginning. Albright lost and regained the lead several times during the game. In fact with only two more minutes to play Albright was trailing with the score at 29-30. Only one varsity man remained on the floor. The other four were substitutes for Wissler, Hollenbaugh, Griggs and Zellers. Then Garrett shot a foul to tie the score and shortly after that Henninger, a substitute center made a field goal which put Albright in the lead. On the next toss up at center the whistle was blown to end the game.

Griggs and Raffensperger deserve much credit for their floor work and all-around good play. "Raffy" tallied five goals while Griggs came through with four. Derr who substituted for Wissler played a good game while he was in and scored one beautiful field goal. Henninger's lone field goal in the last minute of play put down the finishing touches and spelled the last letter in victory for Albright.

Line-up:
Albright Position St. Francis
Griggs Forward Melvin
Raffensperger Forward Gustin
Capt. Capt.
Zellers Center Mickoley
Hollenbaugh Guard Joseph
Wissler Guard McLeavy

Field Goals: Griggs, 4; Raffensperger, 5; Hollenbaugh, 1; Derr, 1; Henninger, 1; O'Connor, 2; Melvin, 1; Mickoley, 4. Fouls: Griggs, 4; Raffensperger, 2; Garrett, 1; McLeavy, 3; Lynde, 1; O'Connor, 3; Gustin, 7; Mickoley, 1. Substitutions: Garrett for Griggs; Henninger for Zellers; Brown for Hollenbaugh; Derr for Wissler; Miller for McLeavy; O'Connor for Mickoley; Mickoley for Melvin. Score 32-30.

Y. W. NOTES

January 6th
The first meeting of the new year was lead by Violet Kinsinger. She spoke of the new year which we face, and called for discussion. Jesus Christ was set forth as our leader and guide.

January 13th
With Mildred Lackey as leader, the meeting opened. After a short devotional period Miss Lackey spoke on the topic, "Women in Korea." She gave an interesting talk on the customs of that land, showing the relatively low status of women there. The meeting closed with the Y. W. benediction.

OUR FACULTY

LEILA A. FLORY

Tall, and slender are two adjectives that might be used to describe Miss Leila Flory. Miss Flory appeared on Albright's Campus three years ago, when she assumed the position of Professor of Piano.

This genial teacher is quite an accomplished musician and every once in a while the students are treated to something worthwhile by being favored with a piano solo.

Miss Flory is a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music where she was graduated on Organ and the following year in Piano. She is also graduated from Westchester State Normal School of Progressive Series of Piano Lessons, and was a pupil of Ernest Hutcheson, and Austin Conradi.

Bangor is the name of the town from which she hails and the town can well be proud of her.

As a pal in the Hall, the girls find her real "peachy", and are glad to call her a friend. She is a good sport and always ready for a good time. It is also an open secret that she is a cross-word puzzle enthusiast.

ALBRIGHT WINS FROM BLUE RIDGE SCORE 42-29

White held the visitors while running up a score of 28-17 before Blue Ridge scored a point from the free throw line. From then on Coach Benfer made frequent substitutions until practically the entire second team was pitted against the Southern team.

Capt. Raffensperger and Griggs played stellar games at forward, Griggs scoring five field goals and 11 free throws while Capt. Raffensperger scored four field goals and three fouls.

The team on the whole showed the old time form and flash and a return to their natural stride.

Line-up:
Albright Position Blue Ridge
Griggs Forward Dunbar
Capt. Capt.
Raffensperger Forward Heberling

Zeller Center Gerlock
Hollenbaugh Guard Dunn
Wissler Guard Hoke

Field Goals: Raffensperger, 4; Griggs, 5; Zeller, 1; Henninger, 2; Gerlock, 1; Heberling, 1; Dunbar, 4. Fouls: Griggs, 11; Raffy, 3; Hollenbach, 1; Wissler, 1; Garrett, 2; Hoke, 1; Miller, 2; Dunn, 3; Gerlock, 5; Heberling, 2; Dunbar, 1; Speicher, 3. Substitutions: Garrett for Griggs; Angle for Raffensperger; Henninger for Zeller; Derr for Wissler; Miller for Hoke; Speicher for Dunbar; Musser for Speicher; McCreese, Boyer. Score: Albright 42, Blue Ridge, 29.

SNOW FALL BRINGS SLEIGHING WEATHER

rollicking good time, the tired, but happy Sophomores started on their way home. The sleighs reached Mohn Hall at an early morning hour. The girls gave the Boom yell for the boys, and the trip was ended.

On Thursday night, January 8th the Senior Class, chaperoned by Prof. and Mrs. Keiss, enjoyed the first sleighing party of the season. They journeyed to Bethel where they were served to a luscious chicken dinner at Hunsicker's Hotel. After the meal all enjoyed an old time sing. At about 11:30 P. M. they began their trip back to school, and in the wee morning hours they reached Albright. After a peppy Boom yell for the chaps the party dispersed.

The results of late hours were seen that morning in chapel session, for only five Seniors appeared.

Tuesday night, January 13, was chosen by the Junior Class for their sleighing party. Everyone was ready for a good time and by 8:30 the two sleighs were "packed" with a jolly crowd, chaperoned by Prof. and Mrs. Deck. On route for Newmans town and a chicken and waffle dinner, the spirit of fun took possession of all.

It was easy to do justice to the feast and it was rumored that some one ate a hearty meal plus eight waffles. When time stole round to the hours of morning everybody was ready to start back. The moonlight ride back was, if anything, more full of fun and real enjoyment than the trip out.
