

COMMENCEMENT PROGRAM OFFERS FINE GALAXY OF INTERESTING EVENTS FOR ALL

Week Opens June 3rd With Music Recital In College Chapel—Ends June 8th With Commencement Exercises—Dr. Edwin Watts Chubb Commencement Orator—Bishop Brown Delivers Baccalaureate Sermon

EVENT WILL PROVE ATTRACTIVE TO ALUMNI

The 1927 Commencement program offers a brilliant list of attractions for students, alumni, and friends together. The program this year opens on Friday 3rd, with a musical recital in the college chapel, and will close on Wednesday, June 8th, with Commencement exercises in the chapel.

During the interim, there will be something of interest going on at almost every hour. They are listed in the box on the right, and should prove of great interest, and will be both entertaining and instructive—a real treat is in store for all.

The musical recital on the first day on the calendar will be the final general musical recital. During the course of the year, a number of this type have been held, which have revealed the good work of the music department. This one, the climax of the season, will show the alumni and visitors what has been going on all year. On the following night the Red and White Quartet will be the cynosure of all eyes when they will make their last public appearance of the year. This talented group has done great work this year, and has established a state wide reputation. This concert will be held in behalf of the 1928 Speculum and an admission (Continued on Page Three.)

BUDGET FOR NEXT YEAR IS CHANGED SLIGHTLY

Speculum Raised Fifty Cents As Others Remain Same—Wadsworth Elected Treasurer

A few years ago there was inaugurated at Albright College a system of finance which has relieved many of the student organizations of a great deal of unnecessary trouble in financing their various activities. It has proven to be a great success, and it is to be hoped that it will be continued indefinitely.

The Student Budget Committee met last week and adopted a system of accounting similar to the one used last year. As was the case last year there is a difference in the total amount between the boys and girls.

Albright has been gaining a reputation for the type of college annual it has been printing, and since the cost is greatly in excess of the cost to the students the cost has been increased fifty cents. Then, too, with the inauguration of the men's student government there has been a demand for funds with which to keep up the organization for there will be an active organization next year come what may.

These are the only changes in the Budget and it is to be hoped that they will be approved by the student body as they have been approved by the Budget Committee. They are very necessary increases as can easily be seen by the thoughtful student.

The chance for student approval will be given after the Athletic Association meeting which will be held some time in the near future.

The Budget will be collected by a student committee at the opening of school next fall. The lump sum, $24.00 for boys, and $24.50 for girls, must be paid in one sum at the beginning of the year.

At this meeting Warren Wadsworth was elected treasurer of the Budget Committee for the coming (Continued on Page Four)

MAY DAY FETE HELD ON SOUTH CAMPUS TONIGHT

Postponed Three Times, Annual Gala Occasion Will Be Staged If Weather Permits—Program Unaltered

Tonight the annual May Day Fete will be held without fail—if it doesn't rain. This great spring event, awaited with great anticipation by the whole college has already been postponed twice by the unfavorable temperment and frowns of June Pulvis.

The Fete was originally planned to have been held on May 13th, but it rained. It was postponed to the following Monday—and again it rained. Then the girls thought that the next (Continued on Page Four)

Y. W. C. A. ELECTS DELEGATES FOR EAGLES MERE CONFERENCE

On Tuesday evening a short meeting of the Y. W. C. A. was called by the president for the purpose of electing delegates to the Summer Conference to be held at Eagles Mere. This Conference is to take place from June 10th to the 20th, and the following were elected to represent the Y. W. C. A. of Albright College: Mae Cooper, president, Carol Hefling, vice-president, Charlotte Walt, the chairlady of the World-Fellowship committee, and Susanna Heinze, chairlady of the membership committee. We are sure that the girls appointed will go and bring us back something that is worthwhile, and that will benefit us in our work for the coming year.

SENIORS SELECT FOUR NOMINEES FOR '26 MEMORIAL

Benfer, Gasull, Fessnacht, Griggs Named For Classmates As Eligible For Memorial Prize

WINNER ANNOUNCED LATER

At a meeting last week four Seniors were nominated by their classmates as eligibles for the Memorial Prize of the Class of 1926. The members of the present graduating class nominated Anna L. Benfer, Hartwell H. Fessnacht, Stein S. Griggs, and Henry R. Gasull.

A faculty committee, according to the provisions laid down by the class of 1926 must consider these nominees of the graduating class, and from them make a final selection. This committee consists of Prof. Dech, advisor of the class of '26, who will serve as Chairman of the committee, Prof. H. A. Kiess, advisor of the class of 1927, C. A. Bowman, President of the College, Dr. A. E. Gobbie, Dean of Men, and Mrs. Eills, Dean of Women. The announcement will be made Commencement (Continued on Page Four)

DR. FERM ACCEPTS POST AT WOOSTER

Popular Social Sciences Prof. Resigns From Albright Faculty To Accept Chair of Philosophy

Announcement has just been made that Dr. Vergilius FERM, professor of philosophy and the social sciences at Albright College, Myerstown College, Myerstown, has submitted his resignation as member of the college faculty.

Dr. FERM had two very attractive teaching positions offered him during the past few months, one from Gettysburg College, Gettysburg, Pa. and another from The College of Wooster, Wooster, Ohio. Some time ago the first call was declined and the latter accepted. Dr. FERM will be associated next year in the department of philosophy at The College of Wooster, one of the strongest Presbyterian Colleges in the country, numbering about 1200 students, and having fifty faculty members.

Besides his work at the college, Dr. FERM has throughout the year served as acting pastor of the Friedens Lutheran church, Myerstown. Through these various contacts he and his family have won many friends.

He will be the commencement speaker at the Myerstown High School this year, as well as at the Richland High school.

Throughout the year he has been engaged in the preparation of a book which will be off the press the latter part of this month. The Century Co., of New York, are the publishers and the book will carry the title, "The Crisis in American Lutheran Theology." A member of the Yale faculty has written the foreword to this book.

He has been invited to become director of a summer school and recreational centre to be conducted in New England this summer. This invitation has been received from a Young Peoples League of the state of Connecticut of which organization Dr. FERM was for five years its president while pursuing studies at Yale.

UNDEFEATED WELLERMEN CROSS BATS WITH L.V.C. IN DECORATION CLASSIC

Victorious in Eight Starts, Albright Stalwarts Will Have Hard Struggle To Make It Three Four Straight From Old Rivals

Monday, Memorial Day will see the "old rivals" once more in action as Lebanon Valley and Albright will cross bats on the Bethlehem Steel Field for the supremacy of the Diamond. Lebanon Valley has yet to win a ball game since the two schools resumed Athletic relationships, and the home team will be out to keep them from doing it this year, and also to keep their slate clean of defeats this year.

Albright has a record this year that equals any in the history of the school, to date they have played eight games and eight times have they returned victorious, and to crown a successful season a victory over their traditional rivals would be the capstone of the season.

Albright's chance for victory is more than good, their season has been more outstanding than that of their rivals, but past records mean nothing to them. "Hooks" Mylin always puts a team on the field that is never licked until the last man is out, and for Albright to win they will have to be at their best.

The probable batteries for the game will be Sherid or Shoap pitching for Albright, and Angle behind the bat; Lebanon Valley will pitch either Piella or Zappia behind the bat. If either Shoap or Sherid throws, Lebanon Valley will (Continued on Page Two)

MEN'S GLEE CLUB CLOSES SEASON IN HOME CONCERT

Entertain Students And Townsman As Club Closes To One Of Most Successful Years In Its History

Last Monday in the College Chapel the Men's Glee Club rendered the final concert of the 1927 season. The Glee has made an enviable record for itself this season and the recital in the Chapel was a typical one as far as success is concerned. It was boys sang with their usual gusto and harmony.

One of the big reasons for the great success of the Club this season has been the calibre and quantity of the special numbers. In this (Continued on Page Four)

SENIORS TOO BUSY TO GIVE CLASS PLAY

The Seniors have found after an attempt that there is no time to present their class play. With the postponement of May Day, Senior recitals, and various other things besides the regular work, the near-gods find that it is impossible to satisfactorily work up a play to be given before Commencement week. A play means long hard work, and the Seniors are at this time especially, working hard in order to give a final touch to the work they will soon complete.

They hope, therefore, that they will not be criticized too severely as a class, nor as individuals. For they put forth a strong effort to have a play, but found that there were too many conflicting events to (Continued on Page Three)

1928 SPECULUM IS SPEEDING TO CAMPUS

Books Shipped This Week Will Make Appearance Next Week Without Fail

The Speculums are on their way! As the Bulletin was going to press, a note was received from the Grit Publishing Company, Williamsport, that the books had been sent by express, and were on their way to Myerstown.

This announcement will doubtless put the quietus to the anxiety of the students who have been growing more and more restless as the days go by. This means that the books should get here some time next week, depending on the efficiency of the American Express Company, in whose tender care the "culmination of hopes" of students and alumni alike are at the present time.

Manager Hood has been receiving subscriptions and orders from friends and alumni right along, which is making the business staff feel pretty good. However, the assessments are coming in rather slow, and the books will absolutely not be given out until the majority of the assessments, both individual and groups are received.

The copyright application is in the hands of the staff at the present time, and as soon as the books arrive, they will be sworn out by the staff, and the books will be ready for distribution provided it is deemed expedient to do so considering the amount of assessments paid.

The exact date is, of course, uncertain, but they will be here in plenty of time. Although it is somewhat later than last year, when the books appeared sooner than before. The date this year will be no later (nor earlier, sad to say) than the average Albright book. But if the old adage that absence makes the heart fonder is true, the books will be all the more appreciated when they finally do come. And then there is the possible chance that the books will come soon enough anyway.

—The Bulletin brings Albright to you.

WELCOME TO THE DORMS!

It is drawing near commencement time and the problem of entertaining the hundreds of people who will attend during the week is before us.

For the good of the college should we not entertain our friends, especially the trustees in the dorms? We feel that were the trustees to spend several days in the men's dorms they might take action for some change in policy. Living and sleeping in the dormitories would bring the needed support for improvement in dormitory service and facilities. Let's divide up and let them try living as we do—for just a few days.

STAY FOR COMMENCEMENT!

We are beginning to notice more than ever a laxness of interest in our Commencement exercises, especially on the part of the students. It must seem very strange to Alumni and visitors to come back to the campus and find only a smattering of underclassmen remaining here to bid our departing Seniors a last farewell. For as soon as each student's examinations are over, away he goes to work, or home, and thus shows an alarming absence of the school spirit and pep we are trying so hard to cultivate and maintain at Old Albright.

This situation, of course, is found at other schools where the order of exams and commencement festivities is the same as ours, that is, one week for tests and the following one for graduation exercises. Such an arrangement means that the great majority of students will rush away from school before Commencement. The Campus, as a result, is a rather deserted place for the Seniors and their friends. We believe that there surely must be some way to keep at least the Sophomores and Juniors here.

As for the Freshmen, in some places it is a rule that they must leave immediately after their exams are finished to make room in the dormitories for visitors and alumni. This has not been necessary at Albright up to this time, on account of the particular situation mentioned above.

Why not delay some undergraduate exams until after Commencement? This would indeed be an effective way to hold underclassmen on the campus for the festivities. It can hardly be done this year, but why not think about, and get used to the idea? Sometime it is bound to happen, and since it works satisfactorily in other colleges why not here?

FOR THE ALUMNI—ALUMNI—WELCOME!

There will be plenty of attraction for the Alumni over the commencement season. In addition to the regular category of events which are of great interest to the alumni as well as the students, and which will more than justify their sojourn at the college at that time, there is some business ahead which will take the consideration and cooperation of every member of the association which can possibly attend.

There are some matters of business which they can do well to bring up in their annual business meeting on Tuesday, June 7th, of Commencement week. Although the Bulletin has no inkling of anything that will be brought up at this meeting, it can suggest several items of business which the grads can well afford to consider.

First, comes a little suggestion from the wizard librarian, Daniel Lubold, who by the way, every alumnus should meet when he comes, visit the library—speak with the librarian and be imbued with some of the enthusiasm and regard for the Albright library, which he will broadcast in no small measure. Some time ago Mr. Lubold suggested to the Bulletin that there are about a hundred new books which he would like to place in the library.—Books which are indispensable. As he was re-organizing and recataloging the library, Mr. Lubold found that he needed at least this number (a few more could be used to a great advantage) to fill out missing volumes here and there, which the library ought to have.

For the purchase of these books, about $500 would be necessary, but with careful consideration and selection in purchase, he thinks that he could possibly get along with less. And when it comes to buying books for a library, it can not be placed in better hands than those of this veteran librarian, who has practically spent a life time with books. A contribution to this worthy cause could not be put to a better use. The other was suggested in the Bulletin last week. The Supreme Court of the State has made its decision. A move, definite and rapid, for the "Greater Albright" is in order. IN YOUR BUSINESS MEETING, PLEASE DON'T FORGET THE NEW GYM.

CRANKY

No one should be afraid of being a definite individual, not a person shaped into the shapeless nothingness of the majority. The individual is constantly subjected to a cross fire of criticism, while countless fault finders pick flaws in his most perfect work, yet it is estimated that 87 percent of the statues are erected to men who were once called cranks. Perhaps criticism is irritating, perhaps it is very greatly needed, yet the person who is criticised is the one who is not laying back doing nothing, and careful thought on the subject matter of the comments will lead to further perfecting of the work in hand.

Entirely too many persons are called cranks simply because they think progressively along new lines, and are not willing to give up their thoughts because someone does not approve of them. Naturally enough, there are a lot of persons who are really cranky, inasmuch as their thoughts are worthless, lead nowhere, and are for no definite purpose. However, students should not shy from constructive thinking because they will be criticised.

BATSMEN LAY LOW LOYOLA AND MORAVIAN IN STIFF TILTS AS VAL GAME NEARS

Pitcher—Shoop; Umpire—Currey. Heller. Moravian was the eighth team to fall before the flying Wellerites, Shoop shutting them out without a run. Shoop was in wonderful form, allowing only two scattered hits and had the game in hand throughout. The hitting attack was weak, and Highfill slowed the Albright stick-smiths to seven hits, and only in the ninth inning were they able to buck them, getting to him in that inning for three hits and four runs.

Albright Scores In First

Albright scored in the first inning when Angle reached first on an error by the second baseman, stole second, took third when Shultz left Kerns roller go through him, and scored on a fielders choice. They held this one run lead until the ninth inning when they pushed four more counters across. Shoop had the Moravian hitters at his mercy and pitched to only thirty men, setting six down via the strike out route. Both of the hits obtained were scratch hits and lucky bounces, were all that separated Shoop from entering the hall of fame. Highfill pitched a nice game, but errors by his team mates kept him in trouble.

The Albright team gave Shoop wonderful support, only one error being made, and the whole infield made sparkling plays that helped in winning the game.

Flare Up In Ninth

In the ninth the Albright team put the game on ice, when they pushed their final four runs across. In that inning the team batted around, and when the smoke of the bombardment had cleared their were four runs across, and another ball game in the box for the home club. Weaver first up in that inning flied out to left field, Brown singled to left, and took third on Gasull's smash to center. Angle reached first safe when they tried to throw Brown out at home on Angle's rap to second, Brown scoring and Gasull taking third, Kerns skied to Trumbauer for the second out, Shoop backed out to Shultz, who errored, it, Gasull and Angle scoring. Gags hit to right for a safe blow. Shoop moving up to third, and scored when Trumbauer left Clemens' roller get away from him. Sherrid ended the nightmare by flying to Clark for the third out. With two out in the ninth Shoop and Sherrid changed positions for the final out. Sherrid threw three fast ones in and the game was over, and the eighth straight victory of the season was chalked up.

Come From Behind To Beat Loyola

For the first time this season the Albright team was forced to come from behind to win their game. Loyola broke the ice in the seventh inning and pushed their only run across, and led the home team for an inning, something no other club has been able to do. But the eighth saw the club come back strong and push three across and take the ball game.

Sherrid Fans Fourteen

Sherrid was on the mound for Albright and gave the opposition five hits, fanning fourteen and not issuing a pass. Schap pitched nice ball for Loyola, but his weakening in the eighth cost him the game. Sherrid fanned every man on the team at least once, and had the Loyola batters swinging wildly, but it was this wild swinging that put two over the fence for them, which counted for three bases. In the fifth Healey and Desmond singled but Sherrid tightened and fanned the next three hitters.

In the seventh when Loyola scored their first run it was the first run scored off Sherrid in twenty two innings. Tantan opened that inning with a triple over the right field fence, the next two hitters were retired easy, but O. Heir who had fanned on his other appearances at the plate dragged a hit over first, scoring Tantan. The next man fanned. The Albright team played errorless ball behind Sherrid, the left side of the infield had only one chance, that a little pop fly to Gasull.

Get Revenge In Eighth

The eighth saw the Albright team take the ball game, Brown first up reached first safe on an error by Kane, Gasull sacrificed him to second, Angle's hit to left advanced him to third, where Brown scored on Kern's hit to center, Angle was thrown out at the plate in trying to score, Shoop drove one to left for two bases, Kerns scoring, Shoop scored on Griggs hit to right. Clemens was hit by the pitcher, but Sherrid ended the inning by grounding to Kane who caught Griggs going to second. This was the hardest game the Albright team has had all year.

BEEKEY AND MILES IN GREAT RECITAL

Pair of Men Artists Entertain Large Audience With Lyric, Voice And Piano Technique

ONE OF YEARS HEADLINERS

Tuesday evening, May 24th, Cyrus Beekey, tenor, assisted by Harold Miles, pianist, rendered a very enjoyable recital before a large audience in the college chapel. It was another of the very pleasing and entertaining recitals given at the close of the school year by the students of the school of music.

Cyrus Beekey, senior, who with his lyric tenor voice charmed the audience, is an accomplished soloist who has established a great reputation in the former musical recitals of his college career. He has also sung for four years in the college Glee Club, being one of the main stays in the first tenor section. He was very well received by the audience. His voice showed talent and training.

Miles rendered his part of the joint recital very well, showing remarkable technique and expression which he has shown in the previous recitals which he has participated in thus far this year.

Altogether it was one of the most pleasing musical recitals of the year. It was one of the headliners in the musical recitals of the year. The School of Music can be complimented on the fine quality of work they have been doing this year.

COLLEGES PLAN DRASTIC CHANGE

Eastern Collegiate Heads Recommend Abolishment of Athletic Scholarships

Abolition of so-called "athletic scholarships" at colleges within the Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference was recommended at a meeting of presidents of Dickinson, Ursinus, Muhlenberg, Gettysburg and Franklin and Marshall Colleges and other representatives of these institutions.

The recommendation was in the form of a resolution, and was made to the conference council, which meets early in May.

Other recommendations were that "any commitments previously recognized by the conference rules are expected" and "the compensation, direct or indirect of a coach, shall not exceed that of a full professor."

Present at the meeting were: Dr. John H. Morgan and W. H. Hitchler, Dickinson; Dr. George Leslie Omwake, Ursinus; Dr. John A. W. Hans, Professor A. C. H. Fasig, Guernsey H. Afferbach and Harry A. Benfer, Muhlenberg; Dr. Henry A. W. Hanson, Dr. Richard A. Arms and John F. Dapp, Gettysburg; Dr. Henry H. Apple, Dean H. R. Omwake, William H. Hager, Dr. Theodore B. Appel and Wallace L. Robinson, Franklin and Marshall.

RED AND WHITE QUARTET WILL CLOSE SEASON ON JUNE 4 IN SPECULUM CONCERT

Famous Group Which Has Made State Wide Reputation Will Appear In College Chapel As One Of Features Of The Commencement Calendar—Program Divided In Three Parts—Skit Will Feature

This Plate is Copyrighted by "1928 Speculum"

"Red And White Quartette"

The "Red and White" Quartette will sing for sure, Saturday evening, June 4th. The faculty made an unusual concession last Wednesday when it allowed the "1928 Speculum" to run the concert with an admission charge. It is not customary to have any entertainments, during commencement week, but as it was to benefit a worthy cause, and would be a worthwhile entertainment the faculty gladly gave their consent to the agreement.

The organization has made an enviable name for itself, having rendered fifteen concerts this season in such places as Harrisburg, York, Baltimore, Shamokin, and Mt. Carmel. Everywhere they were received enthusiastically, and made a big hit with their audiences. After hearing one of their concerts Mr. Ralph Dunbar, the premier coach of musical comedies, pronounced them as being worthy of much praise.

Besides its independent concerts the "Red and White" boys served as the varsity quartette in the Men's Glee Club, and were largely responsible for the success of the Club.

The program on June 4th will be divided into three parts. The first part consisting of secular and operatic numbers, the second, a clever skit "Coming Home From College" and for the third part—a typical rehearsal of the boys will be enacted.

Tickets will be on sale a week before the concert and for alumni and commencement visitors admission may be paid at the chapel entrance.

COMMENCEMENT PROGRAM OFFERS FINE GALAXY OF INTERESTING EVENTS FOR ALL

tion of twenty-five cents will be charged—a low price for the quality of the concert.

On Sunday the annual Baccalaureate service will be held in the chapel in the morning, and in the evening the combined Y's will hold their annual Commencement Vesper Service, according to custom.

The nature of the class day exercises has not been determined as yet, but the Seniors have begun work already, and promise an interesting program which will be ready for announcement. At the present time it seems that the Seniors have something new up their sleeves. They will have all afternoon on the following Monday to show their wares. That evening will see a number of undergraduates trying out for the W. S. Harris prize in an impromptu speech contest, the subject not being known until the contestants get to the platform. This is one of the most interesting forensic occasions of the year.

Tuesday Alumni Day

On Tuesday, June 7th, the Alumni will be in the lime light, and will occupy the center of the stage. After the graduation recital in the college chapel—the last official musical event of the year—the "oldgrads" will pit their baseball skill against "Jake" Weller's varsity nine in their annual set-to which will be fought out on the athletic field at 2:30 in the afternoon.

After supper the alumni will get together in their first official meeting when they assemble for a business session at 6:45—just two hours before their annual reunion and banquet, which is always one of the great events of the year for the grads—and for the members of the graduating class which will also be "among those present."

Climax In Commencement Program

The climax of the week's events will be reached in the commencement exercises on the following day. The commencement oration will be delivered by Dr. Edwin Watts Chubb, Ph.D., alumnus and former president of Schuylkill Seminary, one of the progenitors of Albright College. This will be the last time the Senior class will assemble as undergraduates, for this ceremony will mark the end of the collegiate lives of the forty-one seniors, all of whom with the exception of several music and art students will receive their sheepskins, either A. B. or B. S. Other features of the program are awarding of prizes.

Why Alumni Should Attend

The Commencement Program will be one which will be of great interest to the alumni, and members of the association in general are urged to attend the event. A fine program is being worked up for their banquet and reunion, while an unofficial report has it that some important items of business will be brought up at that time, WHICH WILL NEED THE THOUGHT AND CONSIDERATION OF EVERY MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATION.

have a satisfactory practice. A play cannot be given without practice, and so instead of giving it just half worked, they thought best not to give it all.

So the Seniors will not present "Stop Thief" this year. It is unfortunate, that conditions prevent the staging of this comedy, which was to have been one of high class, especially so since the Seniors had spent considerable time practicing

VIRGINIA ZENER PLANS TO REPRESENT ALBRIGHT IN CONTESTS

Enters Railroad Essay Competition And Youth's Companion Fiction Contest

Virginia Zener is planning to represent Albright College in the school and college safety essay contest, sponsored by the American Railway Association. The essays are to deal with the subject, "Cross Crossings Cautiously," and contain original suggestions of practical use in the prevention of highway crossing accidents.

Miss Zener is also representing her college in a Junior Fiction Contest, which is being conducted by the Youth's Companion. The titles of her stories are "The Cameo Locket" and "Stolen Trophies," the latter of which deals with scenes laid around Albright. The stolen trophies happen to be the highly-prized debating cups of the literary societies.

SENIORS FALLING IN LINE FOR TEACHING

Are Signing Up As Instructors As College Days Are Nearing Close—Most Are Following This Profession

For the Seniors at Albright college life is about over. They have spent four years here or its equivalent and are now ready to go out into the world and earn a livelihood.

Most of the seniors have as yet not signed any definite contracts for teaching positions. However in the next few weeks they will have fully decided just where they are going to go, and what they are going to do. Some of the more fortunate ones have already signed their contracts. Hartwell Fassnacht has accepted an assistantship at Columbia University. He will work in the Quantitative Chemistry Laboratory.

Henry Gasull has signed a contract to teach and coach in the Mt. Union High School. He will take up his position in the fall.

Samuel Angle also has signed a contract to teach and coach in the Columbia High School, and will begin with the fall term.

At time of the Bulletin going to press some of the girls have been said as having secured positions but nothing definite is known.

Elizabeth Pettee has accepted a position in the Jefferson Building in Williamsport, only a few miles from her home, at Warrensville.

Without a doubt before the beginning of the Fall terms next year all of the Seniors will have secured positions.

day after that would certainly be O. K., but again dampness interfered. Then it was decided to postpone it until this afternoon.

The Queen of the May, Cinderella, the Fairy God-mother, the attendants, and all the rest have been waiting for several weeks—the directress must not be forgotten—and are anxious to go. Although the enforced delay was unwelcome by a decided, yes, unanimous majority, the girls had all the more practice for their pageant, which will be better than it would have been in all probability.

Immediately after supper the huge crowds will assemble on South Campus, and soon will witness the procession start from Mohn Hall. The exact time is 5:45.

The affair is conducted entirely by the Thesimian Literary Society, which includes all of the girls. The notables in the ceremony tonight are Ann Benfer, May Queen, Margaret Haak, Cinderella, which will correspond to the usual Maid of Honor. The program is entirely as it was scheduled several weeks ago, the theme of the pageant being the fairy story "Cinderella." Besides this pageant which will be complete in itself, there will be an abundance of various dances, and the quips and pranks of the jester, Catherine Steltz.

SCRAPS

CONCERT BY THE SKILLET 7

Kitchen Orchestra of Nation-Wide Fame

Don't miss this grand concert, folks. This kitchen orchestra has caused more burnt biscuits than you'll ever see. It is the housewife's delight, the cause of the working-man's indigestion. It is composed of the most famous noise-makers of the world, and will leave shortly for an extended tour of the Sahara Desert. Come prepared for a treat (don't forget your Aspirin).

The originality displayed in the choice of instruments is refreshing. Why, to see Miss Benfer alone, pounding away on her shiny dish pan with a wooden spoon is worth the two pips admission. Can she keep time? When, and how. Mr. Gasull spent twenty years of his life perfecting a new horn, made from an ordinary funnel. You'd be surprised to hear the noise he gets from the thing.

Then there are the stringed instruments. Miss Pettee is very efficient with her skillet violin, and handles it as accurately as though she were frying eggs. And that corn popper cello! The way Paul Hartrauff manipulates his fingers up and down the strings is marvelous. Mr. Harris, with his dust pan mandolin, is the star soloist of the troupe, and always has dozens of curtain calls.

You can't keep your feet still when you see Caroline Mowry shake her gaily decorated tamborine in her gypsy fashion. Just a secret, it's a colander, with bells fastened to it. Isn't that a splendid idea? Miss Herr presides over a washboard with a clothespin.

You can't afford to pass by the opportunity of hearing these talented musicians. They've been having practices on the sly here at Albright in the kitchen, when you thought they were doing the dishes. The concert is scheduled for 12 P. M. Sunday. Admission two (2) pms.

"When you play, play hard; when you work, don't play at all."—Theo. Roosevelt.

"I believe in gittin' as much good outer life as you kin—not that I ever set out to look for happiness; seems like the folks that does, never finds it. I jes' do the best I kin wherever the good Lord put me at, an' it looks like I got a happy feelin' in me 'most all the time."—Mrs. Wiggs.

What has been the most indispensable article of apparel the last three weeks? Count, guesses, and the first two don't count.

"Noah was six hundred years old before he knew how to build an ark—don't lose your grip."—Elbert Hubbard.

Y. W. HOLDS DOGGIE ROAST FOR SENIORS

Rain Again Interferes With Plans—Held At Mohn Hall Instead Of Canal

The Y. W. C. A. Annual Doggie Roast for the Senior girls was held Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Again the rain interfered with the girls' plans and instead of holding it down by the old canal, where it is always held, they were forced to hold it in the Mohn Hall reception hall—a peculiar place for a Doggie Roast. Canal or Reception Hall the Doggie Roast was a success.

After consuming many "doggies," sandwiches and pop the Senior girls were called upon to entertain the crowd. They very skillfully presented "A Country School," which kept their audience in an uproar throughout the whole presentation. With the singing of college songs and a few yells the Senior girls had witnessed their last Doggie Roast at Albright.

The motorist who buys his tires from a mailorder house ought to get his free air and water from the same place.

ALBRIGHT'S TIN SALEMEN ATTEND CONFERENCE

"Wear Ever" Trio Spend Busy Day Eating and Learning Culinary Art In Harrisburg

The tin salesmen of Albright, last Saturday attended a Conference of "Wear-Ever" men of the Capital Division in the Domestic Science Kitchen at Harrisburg.

The program lasted the biggest part of the day, and included Health talks, lessons of salesmanship, and a big feed. Besides the all-year men attending there were summer men from Juniata, Dickinson, Gettysburg and Lebanon Valley Colleges. Albright was represented by "Banker" Bates, "Elsie" Hood, and High-Pockets' Youse.

respect the Glee Club is more fortunate than the average Club. Manager Morris, besides being a wonderfully efficient manager, is the mainstay of the club on the concert stage. He is a capable violinist and the first tenor in the Varsity Quartette.

Bernard Zener is also another reason for the success of the Glee. His cello has been a very necessary part of the concert program. Although he has not been playing regularly during the entire season, Hartwell Fassnacht with his trumpet has been a very welcome number on the program. Then, too, there was Gunther and Miles, who furnished the novelty numbers during the latter part of the season.

The program on Monday was affected in a very favorable way by the absence of the full dress suits of the boys. This is possibly the first time in the history of the Glee Club that the yearly concert of the Club has been given without the customary "Monkey Suits" of the club.

Although the audience was not very large the numbers were given a generous applause. Most of the numbers of the Club had been heard before by most of the students, but nevertheless they were well received.

ment morning when the prize of fifteen dollars will be awarded.

The specifications under which the committee must make the final selection, according to the provisions of the '26 class and four years residence at Albright College, high academic standing, qualities of leadership on the campus, sound Christian character, and lastly, participation in athletics.

This is the first year that such a prize to be awarded, as it was made only last year by the graduating class as their memorial! It is only a temporary arrangement, pending definite information, etc. concerning the college, and when this is established, the large fund which this class had accumulated, of which the interest is paying the Memorial Prize, will be given to some permanent, and material memorial.

As the memorial is worked at the present time, a prize of $15 is given to a member of each graduating class who is selected under the conditions named above, from a list of nominees selected by the class itself. The present senior class is fortunate in having a large number who can easily qualify, and the selection of any one named will win popular approval.
