CO-EDS WILL BE ENABLED TO WIN "A-C" THIS YEAR

A System of Points Has Been Worked Out Which Will Enable Girls To Win Athletic Insignia

BASKETBALL, HIKING, TENNIS, AND TRACK THE "A-C" SPORTS

Basketball itself is letter sport while hiking, tennis, and track are the sports in which points only are given—500 points necessary

The girls of Albright who are interested in athletics met in the chapel on Tuesday and Wednesday, October 20 and 21, at 12:30, to discuss and draw up new regulations for the winning of athletic insignia. The following are the rules and regulations agreed upon by the girls, together with the added events in which they may participate.

ARTICLE 1 LETTERS

Section I. The letter shall be a (5 in. "A C" Block).

Section II. Each girl receiving an (A C) shall receive a certificate attesting the same from the Athletic Association.

Section III. The letter (A C) shall be awarded to those girls who shall have been awarded 500 or more points during the collegiate year.

ARTICLE 2 BASKETBALL

Section I. The (A C) shall be awarded to those varsity girls who shall have played (50) percent of the full halves of the basketball during the season.

Section II. One hundred and twenty-five (125) points shall be awarded to those girls who shall have played (25) percent of the full halves during the season.

ARTICLE 3 HIKING

Section I. Two hundred fifty (250) points shall be awarded to those girls who shall have hiked one hundred miles of organized hiking during a semester. Organized hiking shall consist of three girls hiking at least three miles.

Section II. One hundred twenty five (125) points shall be awarded to those girls who shall have hiked 50 miles of organized hiking during a semester.

ARTICLE 4 TENNIS

Section I. Two hundred fifty (250) points shall be awarded each year to those girls who shall win their class championship in Singles or Doubles.

ARTICLE 5 TRACK

SCPHOMORES HOSTS AT ANNUAL HALLOWE'EN PARTY

On Thursday night, Oct. 30, following an old custom the Sophomore Class held a Halloween Party in the gym. The majority of the students, garbed in varied and unusual costumes, turned out to enjoy the fete. The gym was fittingly decorated in the various tokens of Fall—cornshocks, and gayly colored leaves—mingled with the class colors. Weird lights furnished a finishing touch to the scene. Here witches and ghosts, Pierrots and Pierettes, as well as unnameable characters promenade in odd and queer combinations. A program of games had been prepared which added fun and frolic to the occasion. As a climax to the evening, appropriate refreshments were served: sandwiches, pumpkin pie, and cider.

At a late hour the students returned to the dormitories, voting the latest Halloween Party one of the best ever.

VARSITY DEBATING SELECTIONS ANNOUNCED

Eight Men Chosen To Form Albright's Debating Team This Year—Sub Squad Also Selected

After a week of suspense for the men who tried out for debating, the list of those who made the varsity and sub debating squads was finally posted Wednesday A. M., Oct. 22. The selections were made with the stipulation that in the case of any demotion the sub squad would supply the deficiency. The following men were selected for the varsity positions, K. Benfer, Dale Gramley, Heil Gramley, A. Henninger, Russel Grumling, Clyde Hewitt, Paul Price, Milton Wilkes. The sub squad is as follows: Donald McFall, Karl Krimmel, Homer Heisley, Gordon Oswald, Clarence Miller.

THEMISIANS WILL AGAIN PRESENT GROUP ENTERTAINMENTS

The Program Committee of the Themisian Literary Society has arranged for four special programs to be held after the Inter-Society Debate. The Society members were divided alphabetically into four groups at the head of which Phyllis Bicher, Ruth Hetrick, Eva Wright and Avril Heckert were placed.

If the groups work in cooperation with the capable leaders it is certain that the programs will be even better than those presented the past two years.

The first program will be given by Group I, Nov. 21, with Ruth Hetrick as leader. The other groups will entertain in the following order: Phyllis Bicher, Eva Wright, Avril Heckert.

STUDENTS TO PARTICIPATE IN CHAPEL

New Plan Being Tried Out This Year By Dr. Bowman Was Inaugurated With the Political Club In Charge

Student participation in the chapel exercises at Albright College, is being tried out this year. It is planned to devote the Friday morning Chapel periods each week to this organized student participation. The period for Chapel has been lengthened on Fridays and it is now possible for the students to take part in a more comprehensive way.

It is planned that the various societies and organizations of the school shall head this new plan by taking charge of the program on succeeding Fridays.

On Friday, October 17, the first of the Student Chapel services was held with the Albright Political Club in charge. After the usual devotional exercises President C. A. Bowman spoke to the students concerning the new plan and introduced the Political Club as the first organization to participate in the chapel exercises.

The program of the Political Club was very appropriate in view of the coming elections and included speeches by three members of the club on the leading candidates for the presidency. Russel Grumling, president of the club, spoke on Coolidge as the Republican party's choice; Clyde Hewitt presented the Democratic party's man; John W. Davis, and Heil Gramley spoke on LaFollette, the leader of the Progressive party. The program also included the singing of several patriotic songs, and proved an undeniable success.

THEMISIAN DEBATING TEAM

On Friday night, Oct. 17, the Themisian Literary Society elected the members of their Society Debating Team for this year. The girls who were thus chosen to represent the Society in the Inter-Society debate are: Phyllis Bicher, Fern Stanford, Grace Snyder, Jessie Statler. Alternates, Caroline Illick.

BOTH GLEE CLUBS ANNOUNCE NEW MEMBERS

Girls Accept Eleven New Members While Boys Admit Seven To Take Vacant Places

Thursday, October 16, was "try-out-day" for the Glee Clubs. In the afternoon the try out for alto positions on the Girls' Glee was held. Those who were chosen were: Misses Dundore, Grace Snyder, Hess, Kreiser and Zener. Other new members of the Girls' Glee are, Misses Line, Mowry, Mohn, Long, McCauley and Kathleen Miller.

In the evening the try out for positions on the Male Glee Club was held. A few days later Miss St-asser announced that the following men would fill the vacancies, first tenor—Garrett; second tenor—Krimmel, Price, Kleinginna; first bass—Holvy, Weiss; Second bass—Heisley.

ALUMNI NOTES

The following alumni were visitors at the College on Sunday, Oct. 26: Ann Ritter, '24, Carlisle; Edith Rosser, '24, Frackville; Grace Otto, '24, Schuylkill Haven; Anna Mengel, '24, Trevorton; Francis Wolfersberger, '24, Sunbury; Ray Lackey, '23, Carlisle; Fred Luckenbill, '23, Shillington.

Other visitors at the College were: William Zeigenfus, formerly of the Class of '26, Owen Jones, formerly a prep student, Messrs. Malleck and Metzger, all of whom are now students at Muhlenberg College.

EVALUATION OF COLLEGE PROPERTY MADE

Total Evaluation Over $500,000 while Endowments Raise Albright's Material Work to the Million Mark

On Saturday, October 18th, Mr. J. C. Winter, Builder and Contractor, Williamsport, Pa., and Mr. A. A. Ritcher, Architect, Reading, Pa., were at the College in consultation with the President for the purpose of evaluating the buildings and grounds. That work has since been accomplished and to their estimate has been added the estimated evaluation of equipment, furnishings, and apparatus, as well as the library. The total evaluation reaches over $500,000. The endowment of the College was estimated at $412,000, $14,000 of which has been added during the past six months, an additional $132,000 for endowment purposes is still outstanding in the form of subscriptions, $100,000 of this amount is considered very good so that the immediate and prospective endowment amounts to $512,000 giving the College as a whole a material evaluation of over $1,000,000. There is practically no indebtedness against the institution. This is a very satisfactory condition and indicates an excellent management of the affairs of the College during its recent history. Additional amounts for buildings and endowments are also expected from forward movements now being conducted in the church.

EXCELSIORS SELECT TEAM

During the regular business session of the Excelsior Literary Society on Oct. 24, Grumling, Benfer, and Wilkes were elected to represent the Society in the annual Inter-Society Debate to be held Nov. 14.

ALBRIGHT LOSES TO DICKINSON IN HARD-FOUGHT GAME

Red And White Team Puts Up Good Game At Carlisle After Week's Lay-Off, Susquehanna Cancelling

TEAM HOLDS DICKINSON SCORELESS IN FIRST HALF

Dickinson's Passing Game and Poor Officiating Beat Us In Second Half By 25-0 Score—Gasull and Frock Out on Injuries—Smith Outstanding Star

Due to the cancellation of the game for Saturday, Oct. 18, by Susquehanna University the Albright squad was given a week end rest. Most of the players took advantage of this opportunity and left for home as early as Friday afternoon. They all returned on Sunday evening and once more settled down to the hard grind of football.

The week of October 20 to 25 was one of the most successful quintets of days in the last two years. Instead of the usual light work out for Monday, Coach Benfer gave his team a heavy scrimmage. Scrimmage was held on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday with the scrubs using the Dickinson formations. Then on Friday a light work out and on Saturday the big game with Dickinson.

It certainly looked bad for Dickinson in the first half and all but two minutes of the third quarter. The game was started with a beautiful kick-off by Gross P. Rupp, receiving the ball on the goal line and ran it up to the twenty yard line. C. Rupp punned immediately but managed to send the ball only as far as midfield. On the first play "Shorty" Gasull ran the ball for three yards around right end. Then captain Smith carried the ball on a trick play for the first down; but an error (which was admitted after the game) by the officials the play was called illegal and the team was penalized fifteen yards. This, instead of depressing the spirit of the Red and White fighters, served to raise the fighting spirit. From then on the line held like a stone wall on the defensive and many a time the formidable backs, Carpenter and the Rupp brothers were stopped dead on or behind the line of scrimmage.

"Fog" Smith was the outstanding star on the line. Following his example and aided by his encouragement the boys fought until completely worn down by the fresh substitutes on the Dickinson line and in the backfield. "Fog" was in every play; making many tackles and getting through to spill the interference. In short the eleven apparent (Continued on Page Four.)

TOWN NOTES AGAIN MAKE APPEARANCE IN BULLETIN

The contract for the paving of the remainder of West Main Avenue to the end of the Borough limits, has been awarded to the Continental Construction Company, a Baltimore concern. The distance to be paved is 1399.5 feet. The expense to be incurred will be divided among the property holders, the State, and the Street Railway Co. The paving is to be of the latest type reinforced concrete construction and is expected to be completed in forty days.

Both the Republican mass meeting, held Oct. 17, and the Democratic held Oct. 23, drew large crowds. The former was held on Railroad Street opposite the Bahey House and the latter in the Majestic Theatre. Music for both meetings was furnished by the Acme Band. Mr. Wm. Noll, of Quentin, presided at the Republican meeting and introduced the speaker (Continued on Page Three)

ALBRIGHT SPIRIT

Every one is wondering what has become of the old Albright spirit. Is it lost, never to return? Or is it possible that some unforeseen act may revive it?

It seems as if every year it becomes the duty of some one to give all hands a grand dose of something to combat peppitis. This year it is worse than previous years. The student body has been showing symptoms of the malady for the last four weeks. It is hoped that the germ will soon be rooted out and killed.

To be sure the first home game—the one with Loyola—ended favorably for us, but that wasn't due to an excess amount of cheering from the side lines. We did come closest to the old pep the night before the F. & M. game, when we had that good old time pep meeting. And didn't the boys feel that we were back of them, when our spirit was carried throughout the game? Since then there has been a great drop in the pep.

Now for the remedy! We need to get back the old pep for the remainder of the games. Especially do we want to be brimming over with it by the time of the Lebanon Valley game. Let everyone be present at scrimmage and cheer the boys on. How about having pep meetings once in a while? And a band wouldn't come amiss to be sure. It takes music to make the squads feet travel.

Let's all do our part. Are you willing?

WILL you agree with me when I say that our Literary Societies are not giving the intended literary value? If one does not care to take part, it is very easy to stay away, or little thought and preparation is put upon the work. Aren't the programs varied enough? Speaking of variations, there is a great danger that programs may become either too conventional or too frivolous. We need a judicious combination of humor and solid literary value.

Is there any danger of stagnation? It is no wonder that the Societies here have gotten into a rut? They have so little to do with each other. We read the bare outline of program from each in the "Bulletin" every two weeks. That is all one Society knows of the others. How about sending representatives from one to another once a month? Surely a helpful exchange of ideas would be the result. And would it be possible to have joint meetings once each term instead of once a year? When we do hold a joint meeting, we don't get enough practice to make it good.

There's another way, too. Have you ever noticed any keen rivalry among the Societies? And they say that rivalry makes the world go round. Let's see which Society can put on the best program.

Iva Statler—"Yes, he and Lois Helm get it on their knees and wiggle it around."

Campus Chatter

A poet once wrote something to the effect that the days were on, steadily calm and bright, and time seemed so weary that it almost stood still. And another one said something about October's bright blue weather. Perhaps they were sentimental but it seems to the parrot that they oughtn't to be blamed, if they lived through a month of weather like this past month of October we've had. Under such a stimulus, we think that even a chemist like Prof. Eisenmenger could write poetry. Just listen to how it affects us. The sky is a deep blue crystal bowl, against which the golden trees glitter like costly ornaments. The morning mists are like draughts of sweet wine, and the sunsets touch the soul like soft, caressing music.

Yes, that's the way it is with us just now but though Albright may feel poetically inclined, it doesn't feel lazy or shiftless, as real poets are supposed to feel. Albright is still pursuing diligently it's daily round of toil, and the L. V. game, Thanksgiving, Christmas, and exams are approaching as inexorably as ever.

Just at present everyone is looking forward to the Lebanon Valley game, as the closest "crucial moment" of the school year. The team is 1, 2, 3, hepping hard, and the rest of the students are preparing their minds for a shock, for it is certain that there will be a big one. That's one known factor in a game, at least. If we win, we'll be very exceedingly pleasantly shocked, and if we lose, the blow will be likely to take our breath away in the opposite direction. So everybody, let's be ready to receive, like good sports, whatever comes.

According to the old saying, there's nothing new under the sun, but that doesn't apply to the girls in Mohn Hall. Yes, since the last Bulletin issue, they've discovered another form of athletic adventure. The latest is that next spring a girl's track meet is to be held. It's to be one of the regular organized sports, and points are to be awarded for meeting standards. That makes the number of organized sports for girls, four—tennis, hiking, basket-ball, and track. If the organization project continues with as much enthusiasm as it has begun, it will mean a big addition to the interest in campus life at Albright.

Yes, and even Miss Flory, one of the most esteemed members of our dignified faculty, has taken up the slogan of health. One night several weeks ago, she became so interested in learning to bowl that she forgot supper and had to come in late. And everyone knows about her tennis enthusiasm, for she issued a broadcast challenge to any and all who may care to play against her. Even she has almost succeeded in enticing Miss Strasser to wield the racquet in contest. The physical culture craze seems to have taken a firm hold at Albright.

Mohn Hall seemed to have a moment's rejuvenation Sunday before last, when five of last year's graduates blew into their old haunts. Perhaps the rejuvenation was more than momentary too, because all of the alumnae looked so prosperous that they brought to the still remaining students a tangible hope of future success. Welcome to these members of last year's class, and we hope they'll come again.

Good gracious, but Miss Flory is getting into the limelight lately; now she's made herself almost notorious by her actions in progressive series class. The other day she forgot herself so far as to address Mr. Beekey, of Myerstown as Cyrus. Yes, it's only too true. The whole class was shocked, but probably not as much as Miss Flory herself. Tongues will twist, sometimes, but probably Miss Flory's never will again in that connection.

In one of the popular magazines, the parrot faced the other day, the statement that "contrary to popular ideas, our colleges are not breeders of frivolity but centers of the most serious and searching thought in our country." We believe this to be a correct statement as far as colleges in general are concerned. Is it true of Albright? Are we seriously trying to find out the truth about God and life, or are we taking college as a rather tiresome joke? Let's remember that we are here primarily to learn how to live, and not merely to expose ourselves to certain courses for the sake of getting a diploma.

Eccentrix

The young people are not only learning a lot from their professors, but the former have an opportunity to acquire the latest slang.

Coods don't need to think that they must paint up quite as red as Mother Nature tints the autumn leaves.

The Excelsiors and Neos are arranging a debating contest. The boys seem to be rushing things a little as they will get all they want of such debates after they get married.

If the roof of Main Building were only as impervious to rain as the heads of some folks are to ideas a lot of repair work would be saved.

College students know all the current events if they know the football scores.

Many are now not only spending the last quarter of the year, but also the last one in their pockets.

NOTABLES ON THE CAMPUS

MABEL I. GINDLESBERGER

Last year a new reader was discovered at Albright. To the intense satisfaction of the College this proved to be no other than Mabel Gindlesberger, a quiet little girl, seldom heard from before. Mabel is the reader of the Girls' Glee, and was much applauded for ability along that line last year. Since then she has read at many Albright functions, and always features as an attractive number. You who have heard her will admit that she was a good discovery. Mabel is a music student, and holds her place in the Glee in that capacity as well.

The above statement of Mabel's quietness no longer holds. The reason is that Mabel now does her calisthenics in the third floor hall. A process by no means quiet. It has been rumored that the calisthenics are not having the desired reducing effect. We wonder what next.

GLENCOE W. RAFFENSBERGER

You've surely noticed the lad of curly hair and laughing eyes, usually to be found in the chemistry or biology lab. "Raffy" has joined in so many of Albright's activities that it would be impossible to miss him. Besides being a brilliant student he has found time for the exercise of a delightful voice and is an important member of the Boys' Glee. He has also won distinction in athletics at Albright, not only in basketball and baseball, but also in tennis. For two years he has been our tennis champion. He is also quarter-back on the scrub football team.

Glen applies the same vigor to all his activities. This fact has caused his election to several important offices, President of Excelsior Literary and Bulletin Staff member.

Glen expects to complete his medical course at Johns Hopkins.

ers. Schwartz, Beidelman, Bahney and Schrist. Dr. A. E. Gobble of town presided at the Democratic meeting. The speakers were Attorney Wm. Schaaf of Lebanon and Guy Bard, candidate for State Senate. At both meetings the issues and platforms of the parties were thoroughly discussed.

Friday evening, Oct. 31, a Halloween parade was held in Myers-town under the auspices of the Acme Band in cooperation with several industries of the town. Various prizes amounting to $50 were offered, and all children were presented with horns. The parade formed off Railroad Street opposite Mohr Hall and started to move at 8 o'clock. After the parade the Band gave a concert and furnished the music for the dances in the paved block of North Railroad Street. The street was illuminated with electric lights and refreshments were sold at a stand conducted by the Band.

OPEN DISCUSSION IN Y. W.

The Y. W. held a very interesting meeting on Tuesday evening, October 21. The topic was based on the fourth Commandment, and Grace Snyder led. Mary Shultz delighted the group with a piano solo. Then followed a discussion on observance of the Sabbath, in which almost every girl took part. These discussions challenge the interest, and broaden the views on the topic. By thus making each girl part of the meetings, better Y. W. programs result.

Thomas A. Edison and Charles P. Steinmetz in the Schenectady laboratories of the General Electric Company, where Dr. Steinmetz did his great work

Steinmetz

The spirit of Dr. Steinmetz kept his frail body alive. It clothed him with surpassing power; he tamed the lightning and discharged the first artificial thunderbolt.

Great honors came to him, yet he will be remembered not for what he received, but for what he gave. Humanity will share forever in the profit of his research. This is the reward of the scientist, this is enduring glory.

Emerson tells how the mass of men worry themselves into nameless graves, while now and then a great, unselfish soul forgets himself into immortality. One of the most inspiring influences in the life of a modern corporation is the selfless work of the scientists in the laboratories, which it provides for their research.

OUR FACULTY

DR. A. E. GOBBLE

Albright's professor of Latin Language and Literature—Dr. Gobble. Dr. Gobble is also secretary of the faculty and a very busy man. The new student quickly gets acquainted with him, for it is Dr. Gobble to whom they must go to arrange for classification; to him they take their conflicts and other puzzles which rack the mind of the Freshman. In addition to filling all these advisory duties Dr. Gobble also has charge of the library. It is certainly no small job that he has elected to hold down, and we admire while we wonder at his energy.

Dr. Gobble secured his A.B. and A.M. at Franklin and Marshall College, and his D.D. at Lebanon Valley College. Albright is very glad to have him on the faculty and would be lost without him.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS?

Y. W. C. A. BAZAAR

The Christmas shoppers of Albright College will find some unique suggestions for gifts at the Y. W. bazaar to be held this year in Dr. Davis' store-room on Main Street. The probable date will be the first week end of December.

The Japanese counter will enable everybody to select clever and unusual gifts. Hand embroidery, hand painted pictures, and toilet articles will be on sale. Also, homemade candies which will delight everybody's "sweet tooth" will be there, in an abundant supply.

All shoppers who desire to save money, time, and energy start saving your money now and patronize the Y. W. Bazaar.

MILLARD DIETZ HONORED BY PARTY ON BIRTHDAY

On Saturday evening, Oct. 18, a party was held at the home of Grace Kleinginna on Faculty Heights in honor of the birthday of Millard Dietz. Various games were played, in which all took part. A delightful luncheon was served after which the guests departed wishing Mr. Dietz the best of luck in his "new year."

Those present were: Misses Grace and Doretha Snyder, Mary Shultz, Blanche McCauley, May Cooper, Charlotte Walt, Grace Kleinginna, and Mrs. Kleinginna; Messrs. Millard K. Dietz, Paul Price, Hiesley, Clark, Kelly, Gasull, Mehaffie and Kleinginna.

Y. MEETINGS VARIED

Tuesday evening, Oct. 21, marked an innovation in the usual "Y" program. An open forum, under the leadership of Paul Price, was held.

The point at issue was the Japanese Exclusion Act. Pros and cons were given not only during the meeting but also after it had adjourned. Those who favored the Act gave as their reasons, Japanese standard of morals, her conduct in California and her program of imperialism.

On the whole the meeting was profitable and paved the way for future open forum discussions.

REV. KEEN DELIVERS HELPFUL
AND INSPIRING
TALK TO CLERIC

Monday evening, October 27, Pres. Benfer called the meeting of the Cleric to order. After devotions there was a discussion concerning an additional form of initiation for the new members.

The speaker, Rev. Keen, was then introduced, and took for his subject, "The Vanishing Vision of the Christian Minister". He presented some facts which have come out of his own experience. He stated that there is a reshaping of one's vision in actual service, and that the many temporal duties which a minister is called upon to do often detract from his own devotional life. He also stated that the vision of the minister diminishes through his awakening to the selfishness of other ministers and through disappointment in people. The fact is that a minister is often discouraged because of defeat in many of his undertakings. Prof. Keen closed with an appeal to do one's best conscientiously—for Him.

The talk was frank, concrete, practical, and applicable to the life of every minister. All but three of the members were present and a fine spirit prevailed.

NON-RESIDENT CO-EDS ARE GUESTS

Mohn Hall has experienced an unusual event, one which has not occurred in late years. What was it? The day students were the guests of the Mohn Hall Themisians at a party in Mohn Hall reception room, Thursday night, October 23.

The room was cleverly decorated with pennants and crepe paper of lavender and white.

A program committee with Violet Kinsinger at the head arranged the evening's entertainment. Miss Jessie Statler, the Themisian president, gave a brief address of welcome to the guests. Then games, humorous and interesting were played. A quartet consisting of Misses Helm, F. Miller, Wright and Gindesberger sang. Ruth Hetrick read an original poem, which introduced the feed. This included sandwiches, cocoa, cake, ice cream.

Phyllis Bicher thanked the Mohn Hallers in behalf of the day students for their entertainment. The old "Boom Yell" given by the day students for their hostesses concluded the party.

PROF. KEISS AND WIFE HOSTS TO ZETA FRAT.

On Saturday, Oct. 18, the Zeta Fraternity was entertained by Prof. Keiss. The entertainment was in the form of a picnic held in Monroe Valley, a few miles from Myerstown. The day was spent in hiking and, as usual, eating. It is reported also that some ducking was in order among certain members of the party. However, this did not dampen the spirit of fun which prevailed.

The trip was made in a vehicle, called a "Ford", which Japs Landis provided. The following persons made up the party: Misses Kinsinger, Shultz, Gladys Neger, Frieda and Kathleen Miller, Herr, Grace Snyder and Helm; Messrs. Andrews, Rafensperger, Zeller, Harris, Derr, Gasull and Fassnacht. Mrs. Keiss, Miss Moyer, Mary Keiss and Kathryn Steltz were also present in the party.

FACULTY NOTES

ALBRIGHT LOSES TO DICKINSON IN HARD-FOUGHT GAME

ly were completely baffled. They had arguments among themselves while on the field which would surely have spelled defeat had they not been backed by fresh and equally strong substitutes.

The backfield also played well. Statistics of the game show that out of eight attempted forward passes in the first half only one was completed and one was intercepted by Captain Smith.

In the last two minutes of the third period Books accepted a forward pass and ran across the goal line for the first touchdown. His try for the point was good. Score 7—0.

In the final period a forward pass resulted in another touchdown, a 55 yard run by Carpenter tallied another, and still another was made on a wide end run just as the game ended.

The Albright line was weakened somewhat in the second quarter when Frock, the big tackle severely injured his ankle. He will be out of the game for the rest of the season as there is a small bone fractured. Dale Gramley took his place and showed up well.

In the third period just before the first touchdown was scored "Shorty" Gasull received a torn ligament in his side which will keep him out of the game for a time.

Following is the line-up:

Albright	Position	Dickinson
Smith	Center	Lashley
Snyder	Right Guard	Snell
Frock	Right Tackle	Keller
Wissler	Right End	Roth
Gasull	Quarter Back	P. Rupp
Garrett	Left Half Back	C. Rupp
Eberts	Right Half Back	Books
Gross	Fullback	White

Touchdowns: Books, Nye, Carpenter, C. Rupp. Point after touchdown: Books. Substitutions: Carpenter for C. Rupp; Peck for Beynon; Beynon for Peck; C. Rupp for Carpenter; White for Nye; Carpenter for C. Rupp; Sweeley for White. Albright: D. Gramley for Frock; Angle for Gasull, Harris for Ebert, Shirk for Angle, Dodd for Wissler, Mahaffey for Loucks.
