41 To Leave On Y Retreat

Program Prepared For Group of Campers

More than 40 young people will travel to Camp Fernbrook tomorrow for the annual Fall Y Retreat. A program of recreation, worship and fellowship planned around the general theme, "How God Guides," has been prepared for the group.

Leaving the parking lot at 1:00 p. m., the campers will arrive at the camp site at 2:30 p. m. After looking around and getting settled, the first seminar will begin at 3:30 p. m. Rev. Homer L. Trickett, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Reading and speaker for the retreat, will use the topic, "One Increasing Purpose," for the first seminar. A discussion period will follow the meditation. Time will be given for recreation at 4:45 p. m. before supper at 6:00 p. m.

"Living Presence—Guides Us," is the title of the second seminar at 7:00 p. m., followed by an outdoor campfire at which time there will be group singing, entertainment and roasting of marshmallows and hotdogs.

Sunday will start with breakfast at 8:30 p. m. Everyone will then hike up Hopewell Mountain where Rev. Eugene Barth will conduct a short meditation. Dinner will be served at 12 noon. A communion service conducted by Rev. Barth will close the Fall Retreat.

Chaperones are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jordan and Rev. Barth.

Committees Appointed For Domino Fall Play

Committee chairmen for the Domino fall production, "Bell, Book and Candle," have recently been appointed. These include: make-up, Claire Spiedel; properties, Marianne Tipper; costume and stage design, Ruth Fry; tickets, Roslyn Cowen; stage, Neal Krape and James Zafferes; ushers, Judith Canfield and prompters, Virginia Mangin.

The play will be presented on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, October 29, 30 and 31.

DANDY LION

This week, Dandy Lion tips his red and white hat and salutes the senior class' vivacious Cue editor, Margaret Israel. Margy, an English major and history minor, hails from York and hangs her coat in Chapel Dorm's "fishbowl."

Besides being the chief cog in the wheel of the Cue, Marg serves as vice prexy of the Pi Alpha Tau sorority and also their social chairman. How well she remembers folding dance programs! Domino Club claims her as a make-up artist and a four year member.

Beauty and brains, too! Marg signs "respectfully submitted" to the minutes of Sigma Tau Delta, national honorary English fraternity, and has just been bid to Pi Gamma Mu, national honorary social science fraternity.

Known for her corny jokes, her unique ideas, that infectious giggle, and an unbeatable personality, Marg will be an asset to the teaching profession, come June (Speaking of June, ask this Chapel Dormer what her plans are regarding an "old '53 grad," Bill Locher. The diamond on her left hand tells the whole story.)

Ivy Ball To Launch '54 Homecoming

Queen's Crowning At Intermission To Be Highlight

The annual Homecoming Weekend, which will get under way next weekend, is scheduled to begin this year with the traditional Ivy Ball on Friday evening, October 23, in the physical education building. George Halle and his orchestra have been selected to provide music for the affair, which will begin at 9:00 p. m.

The theme of this year's first all-campus formal affair will be "Autumn," John Fetterman and Harry Houck, '54, co-chairmen of the Ivy Ball committee, have announced. The freshmen are scheduled to provide entertainment during intermission as part of their "welcome" into the social aspect of college life.

Alumni Plan Luncheon

The highlight of the evening's festivities will be the crowning of the Homecoming Queen, who will reign over the weekend's program. The queen was chosen at an all-campus election Thursday, October 15, from five candidates selected by various campus organizations. Nominees for the Homecoming crown are: Evelyn James, '54, and Stephany Bartolett, Barbara Burbank, Alma Grove and Margaret Kane, all '56. Robert Bieler and Bruce Eickhoff, '54, are in charge of the Homecoming Queen committee.

A run-down of the weekend's activities includes "open house" for all campus buildings on Saturday morning together with registration to be held in Krause Hall from 10:00 a. m. until noon. Also slated for Saturday morning is the Alumni Citation luncheon to be held in Krause Hall at 12 noon.

Lions Host To Diplomats

At 2 p. m., the Albright Lions will play host to the Diplomats from Franklin and Marshall on the Albright gridiron. Following the game, the alumni of the sororities and fraternities will meet with their respective active groups.

From 5:30 to 6:30 p. m., a buffet supper will be served in the college dining hall. Open house in Krause Hall from 7:00 to 9:00 p. m., is scheduled to end the day's events. The committee in charge of the open house is headed by Michelina Cacciola and Nancy Lou Walker, both '54.

General chairmen for the weekend include Dr. Samuel Shirk, representing the college faculty, Rev. Dean Allen, Alumni president, and James Barrett, '54, student representative.

Y, IRC Groups Combine For Panel Discussion

"Christian Responsibility in World Affairs," is the topic for the panel discussion of the "Y" next Tuesday evening, October 20. The discussion, being held in conjunction with the International Relations Club, will have several professors as the panel leaders.

More than sixty Y members enjoyed an evening of eating popcorn and watching movies at last week's meeting in the lower social room. The movies included a film, "The Barrier," a comic strip, and a short film of college songs.

Committee Heads

Extensive planning has gone into the arrangements for the annual Ivy Ball these past few weeks. The hard-working "college Joes" pictured above have been responsible for much of this planning. They are (l. to r.) Bruce Eickhoff, queen committee; Jim Barrett, Homecoming student representative; Bob Bieler, queen committee; Harry Houck, Ivy Ball committee; and Jack Fetterman, Ivy Ball committee.

Noted Dancer Begins Series

Irene Hawthorne, well-known dancer and choreographer, will be featured at the first cultural program of the season in chapel next Thursday morning, October 22.

Critics have stamped Miss Hawthorne's approach to her art as distinctively American. A native of San Francisco with Scottish-Spanish ancestry, she possesses an unusual endowment of fire and grace. She has appeared as the premiere danseuse of the Metropolitan Opera Association for two seasons, as premiere danseuse and as choreographer for the Opera Nacional, Mexico, for two seasons, and as prima ballerina in the Theatre Guild's Broadway musical, "Sing Out Sweet Land."

Miss Hawthorne has also been presented as guest soloist with both the San Francisco Symphony and the New Orleans Symphony, and has toured extensively with her own concert company. Her solo programs range from the traditional Spanish dances to the most exacting modern ballet.

Council Slates Dance

Student Council will sponsor a dance tonight in Krause Hall from 8:30 to 11:30 p. m., Paul Hetrick, chairman of the Friday night dances, has announced. The dance is an open affair and all students are invited to attend. Music will be furnished by records.

Rocktashel Elected Daymen President

James Rocktashel, '54, is the newly elected president of the Daymen's Organization. Richard Bauer, '56, is vice president; John Catalano, '56, treasurer; and Robert Brown, '56, secretary. The elections took place last Thursday.

Possibilities of a judicial committee was also considered, their duty to administer punishment to persons who deface the daymen's room and do not obey the standards set for the men.

Local Merchants Contribute Gifts For Attendants

Numerous gifts have been donated by local merchants for the Homecoming queen, runner-up and the other candidates, it has been announced by the committee. Barbara Burbank, Michelina Cacciola, Janet Lanfranke, Elissa Topperwein, Robert Bieler and Harry Houck visited many merchants during the past two weeks, and additional contributions are expected this week.

The trophy that the queen will receive when she is crowned during intermission is now on display in the glass case in the administration building. The trophy was the gift of the Alumni Association.

The gifts received thus far and the donors, include the following: 2 pair nylons, Reading Hosiery Outlet; three dollars worth of dry-cleaning, One-Hour Martinizing; four movie passes, Loew's Theatre; two pair of hose, Leonard Shops; wrapped gift, Smart Accessories; movie passes, Warner Theatre; wrapped gift, Joyce Sports Shop; nylons, Famous Maid Shops; jewelry box, Kins; album of records, Chiarelli Bros.; album of records, Zeswitz Music House; bracelet, Memo Gift Shop; cuff links, Babs Shop; camera and film, Hollywood Camera Shop; blouse, Tersuhow's; five dollar gift certificate, Martin's; and a pair of earrings. The queen will get the largest share of the gifts, but all participants will be honored with some of the contributions.

Ticket Sellers Named

The following people have been appointed to sell tickets for the Ivy Ball, by Joseph Kiersted, chairman of the ticket committee: Gail Ade, Patricia Brown, Roselyn Cowen, Alma Grove, Evelyn James, Walterine Szalay and Frank Guenther.

Lie To Open Tour On Albright Campus

Trygve Lie, former secretary-general of the United Nations will open his nation-wide lecture tour on the Albright campus on Monday, October 19. He will appear under the sponsorship of the Reading Town Hall Association.

Mr. Lie's talk will be based upon "The United Nations and the United States." He will be introduced by Dr. Samuel B. Shirk, director of public relations at Albright and chairman of the program committee of the Town Hall Association.

The Town Hall Association is scheduled to present three more attractions during the coming season. To date, membership in the group numbers 534 persons from Reading and the vicinity.

These are the facts. On the night of Oct. 23 George Halle has been booked on a 9:01 to a 11:59 at the Albright gym. You're right. It's a dance. The Ivy Ball. We haven't played a hunch—just the facts. Only the price has been changed to give you a break — $2.50 per couple.

Campus Organizations Meet; Plan For October Sessions

Pi Gamma Mu

Pi Gamma Mu, honorary social science fraternity, held a meeting last Thursday evening, October 8. The group discussed plans for their next two meetings. At the first of these new members will be inducted. Also at this time Dr. Kistler will speak on fellowships and scholarships for graduate school. The following meeting will be at Christmas time, and will be a Christmas dinner.

Debating Club

"Should the United States Adopt the Policy of Free Trade?" is the topic for debate scheduled by the Debating Club for Monday, October 19. The regular meeting date has been changed from Wednesday, October 21. The meeting will take place in 103 of the Administration Building at 4:00 p. m. At last week's session, Professor Paul Rusby spoke to the club on the topic, "Free Trade."

IRC

George Rhodes, congressman of Berks County, will speak to the International Relations Club Wednesday, October 21 at 8:00 p. m. in the lower social room. He will use as his subject, "How Our Foreign Policy Affects Our Domestic Affairs." The meeting is open to the entire student body.

Kappa Tau Chi

Members of Kappa Tau Chi, honorary ministerial fraternity, had a meeting last evening in the form of a doggie roast at Egelman's Park. Plans for the coming year were discussed. Max Nusher was in charge of the meeting. Plans were also made for the accepting of new members, which will take place at a communion service at the next meeting.

Sigma Tau Delta

The first meeting of Sigma Tau Delta, honorary English fraternity, was held in Selwyn Parlor on Thursday evening, October 8. Miss Priscilla Morton, Dean of Women, spoke to the group on teaching English in high school. Plans were discussed for the next meeting, which will be in the form of a banquet. At this time new members will be inducted.

The group also discussed the possibilities of bringing a classical film to campus and of the group going to Hershey to see a play.

Philosophy Club

The Philosophy Club met last Monday evening at the home of Professor Ellery Haskell to tentatively plan the schedule for the remainder of the year. Each member will give his philosophy of life sometime during the year. Plans were also discussed for a trip to hear a noted philosopher to replace the annual spring banquet.

Fashion Flashes In Fall Forecast Note Accessories

... Leather ... from head to toe, you'll wear leather accessories to complement your finest fall fashions ... jewelry of natural colored pigskin and metal, kidskin collars tied with velvet ribbons, accents of white leather against dark backgrounds, and the smart looking capeskin jacket.

... Fur ... what could be as becoming as a gentle shirtrwaist dress of black wool jersey collared in white angora ... a leopard belt to add sparkle and zest to the dark basic dress of your wardrobe ... mink collar and cuffs on a striped winter cotton?

... Lorette ... the new fabric which has the beauty of wool and the washability of cotton ... 55% orlon and 45% wool. Look for this fabric in separates, dresses and suits and save dollars on cleaning bills.

... Man shirts ... copied from dad's wardrobe ... strictly tailored, French cuffs, pointed collar ... perfect partners for your pencil-slim skirts or pegged slacks.

... Rain togs ... be in style with a bright colored slicker which has the look of a fireman's coat ... the trench coat with a military smartness ... or an all-weather corduroy with matching cap.—S.G.

New Members Join Glee Club Octet

The Glee Club octet under the direction of Ivan Moyer has added several new members to round out this year's group. Members of this year's octet, which will be presenting recitals at several area functions in the near future, are: Sonia Flicker, soprano; Ann Kocher, soprano; Nancy Dobbs, first alto; Kathleen Forry, second alto; Robert Reeser, first tenor; Dr. Samuel B. Shirk, second tenor; David Serfass, first bass; and Ivan Moyer, second bass.

The Albright College marching band, comprised of approximately thirty-five members, made its first appearance on the field at the Albright-Gettysburg football game last Saturday evening. Mr. William H. LeVan, newly appointed director, led the band in the evening's program.

The college orchestra will not begin practices before the close of the football season.

HEO Club

The HEO Club met on Monday evening, October 12, in Sherman Cottage. The guest speaker was a Wave officer from Philadelphia who spoke on "Feeding in the Armed Services." Ruth Fry, Sally Aicher and Lois Anderson were in charge of the program.

Shirk Sets Track Record At Philly

Sophomore Bill Shirk shattered the Haverford College course record Tuesday as his Albright College cross-country mates were bowing to Haverford, 20-43. Shirk's clocking over the four-mile course was 19:50.

The previous standard was set by Joe Stein, of St. Joseph's College, Philadelphia, who registered a 19:53 timing in 1949. Shirk's clockmark is the best in the course's 70-year history.

Haverford, in recording the easy triumph, scored second, third, fourth, fifth and sixth places in tallying its 20 points. The Lions' Mahlon Frankhauser was ninth; David Kushner, tenth; John Pfaltz, 11th, and James Rocktashel, 12th.

Coach Gene Shirk's team now has a record of one-and-one. The Lions defeated Gettysburg, 21-40, last Saturday as Shirk came in first. Tuesday's results:
1. Shirk, 2. Cornelius Klotz, H. 3. William Gage, H. 4. John Hershey, H. 5. Robert Gage, H. 6. Robert Schwartz, H. 7. Jonathan Albright, H. 8. Donald Crane, H. 9. Frankhauser, A. 10. Kushner, A. 11. John Pfaltz, A. 12. Rocktashel, A. 13. Allen Lentz, A. 14. Francis Gallagher, A. 15. Richard Flammer, A. 16. Paul Gehris, A. 17. Harmon Howorth, H. 18. Harold Friedman, H.

Bullets Trounce Albright Gridders In Third Setback

The Gettysburg Bullets, paced by sophomore, Frank Gagliardi, and veteran back, Joe Ujobai, handed the Albright Lions their third setback in four starts. Ujobai, the leading Gettysburg ground-gainer, averaged 14.4 yards per carry, as he personally accounted for 216 yards in the quick-opening, Bullet ground attack. Gagliardi, the sparkling sophomore quarterback, scored one touchdown himself, and passed for two others.

Gettysburg scored after ten minutes of the first period. Their opening drive stopped with a fumble on the Albright six-yard line. But the Bullets bounced back to score on a pass from Gagliardi to Eppleman. Again in the second quarter, the visitors marched deep into Albright territory, and Gagliardi raced 15 yards around right end for Gettysburg's second tally of the evening.

Albright came to life when Ujobai's kick went out on the Albright 35. Two passes, one from Sudol to Krize for 13 yards, and another from Dragon to Sudol highlighted a drive that took the Lions to the Gettysburg 32, but the threat ended with an intercepted Albright pass. The Lions got their best scoring opportunity in the final quarter, when Mackler recovered a bad pass from center on the Gettysburg 23. Sudol then went around end to the Bullet 12. Albright then lost eight yards, and a completed pass from Del Rocco to McNeill on the fourth down, failed to make the needed first down, and the Bullets again took over.

On the next play, Ujobai raced 89 yards for the third Bullet tally and then added the extra point. Later, Frank Gagliardi passed to end Fred Allewa for the final score. The Lions are idle until they meet Franklin and Marshall, in the Homecoming game on Oct. 24.

Lionesses Look Good In Playday Opener

The Albright Lionesses traveled to Cedar Crest last Saturday to participate in a hockey playday along with Moravian Women's College, Kutztown State Teachers College and Cedar Crest. This was the first encounter for Coach Eva Mosser's team and the match resulted in two tied scores and one defeat. The Lionesses battled to a 1-1 tie with Kutztown, deadlocked Cedar Crest, 0-0 and then gave in to Moravian, 1-0. Elissa Toepferwein scored the goal for Albright.

The next scheduled game is set for October 21 with Ursinus College at Collegeville.

Those who saw action in the playday were: Kramer, Vogeler, Hook, Toepferwein, M. Althouse, C. Althouse, Hagenbuch, Bartolett, Marick, Grove and Filbert.

Also, Kocher, Ade, Arnold, Stalnekker, Zimmerman and Trevasakis.

Punter

It looks as if senior back, Jack Sudol, may again lead Pennsylvania's punters. In the four games played thus far, Jack has averaged 40 yards per punt, an average that should return Sudol to the top of the pack, provided that he continues to punt at his present clip. In last Saturday's game against Gettysburg, Jack punted nine times, for an average of 46 yards.

Doughertines, 12-6. The tennis tournament, under the direction of Potskian and Schiavo, got under way Tuesday, with 14 netmen in the opening day pairings. This tournament should produce the Albright courtmen for the spring sport, and is studded with great potential.

Harriers

The Lion hill and dale array got started on the right foot by handing the Gettysburg harriers a 21-40 setback. Shirk and Becker set the pace for Albright finishing first and second. Shirk was clocked at 18:53 for the course. Gettysburg took third and fourth honors, but Shirkmen finished fifth through eighth to sweep the meet from the visiting Bullets.
