Debaters Lose to Susquehanna Team; Western Md. Next

Debate Conducted According to Old Plan; Will Send Two-Man Team to Western Md. Friday

On Friday evening, March 4, the Albright debaters lost to the Susquehanna team by the unanimous decision of the three judges. The debate was staged at Selinsgrove, the question, "Resolved that Capitalism as a method of economic organization is unsound in principle." The Albrightians upheld the negative side of the question.

The Albright team was composed of John Fay, Leroy Brieningner, and John Davis. The home team representing Susquehanna was made up of Clapper, Houser and Burger. Doctor Houk, coach did not accompany the team on this trip.

This debate unlike the first of the season, was conducted on the conventional plan of three ten minute speeches and three five minute rebuttal speeches. Last week the debate here with Juniata was run according to the so-called "Oregon" plan which provides for such features as cross-examination, no rebuttals and open forums.

This Friday the men will journey to Western Maryland to contest the same subject of the soundness of Capitalism with that school. Coach Doctor Houk has not announced who will be sent but Albright will be represented by a two-man team using the old plan of two speeches and two rebuttals.

NEW FEATURES COMING

Next week the Albrightian's sports writer, Russ Bonney will review the winter's sport season. The ups and downs of the Lion Athletes at home and abroad will be recounted in Russ' inimitable style. Watch for it on the sporting page.

The Reverend Schloerb of Chicago is the guest of the campus during the week of prayer. He has kindly consented to an interview on his personal friend that grand old man of football, Alonzo Stagg, Sports writer MacCarroll will write an interesting feature.

Int. Relations Club Told of Germany's Attitude to Peace

Professor Gode Von Aesch is Speaker at Bi-Monthly Meeting; Gives Geneva Background

The International Relations Club held its meeting Thursday, March 4 in the upper Social Room of Selwyn Hall. Professor Gode Von Aesch spoke to the club on "Germany's Attitude Toward World Peace." He said that Germany wants peace, for peace is necessary for prosperity. Germany is a middle European country, facing both East and West, so she has not been able to balance herself, thus she is easily assimilated by other countries. Germany ardently desires peace yet the economic structure of post-war times has caused a great hatred which can only be wiped out by either abolishing war reparations, or by tearing down the custom tariffs. Germany is ready to cooperate, let all the other countries help do so.

The six delegates to the Model League of Nations at Syracuse are to be chosen by Professors Hamilton and Smith.

Hafer Wins Trophy in Men's Day Club Ping-Pong Tourney

Indoor Tennis Proves Popular Innovation in Club's Rooms; Will Present Cup at Banquet

Kenneth Hafer is the winner of the First Albright Indoor Tennis Tournament (better known as Ping Pong). He defeated Joe Paul in the final playoff last Tuesday. The scores stood 11-21, 16-21. The semi-finalists were Harry Crystal, vice-president of the club and Harry Rosenthal.

The tournament was the first of its kind ever staged on the campus. It was sponsored by THE ALBRIGHTIAN and The Men's Day Students' Club. Harry Crystal and Sam Halperin were the promoters. The matches covered a period of ten days occurring at ten o'clock and one-thirty each day. Some fifty fellows engaged in the play.

The winner is to be awarded a large cup at the annual banquet of the Club which is to be held some time in June. His name and the name of the club will of course appear thereon. The contest was declared the most popular idea the group has put thru. It is to be a regular semi-annual feature in the club's program in the future.

Dr. C. P. Harry Holds Campus Open Forum

Dr. C. P. Henry of the Executive Board of the L. S. A. A. met with the Lutheran Student Group of Albright on Thursday, March 3. He discussed the function of prayer in the life of the student. An open forum of great interest followed his talk.

The Reverend Mr. Luke Sweitzer of Nativity Lutheran Church will present to the group on March 10 a review of The Christ of Every Road by E. Stanley Jones.

Lengthen meetings are held every Thursday from 3:30 to 4:30 o'clock.

Difficulties at Geneva Discussed at Friday Chapel

"The Background of the World Disarmament Conference" was the subject of a talk by Prof. Hamilton in the chapel Friday. Professor Hamilton outlined efforts at disarmament prior to the present attempt stressing the Washington Conference of 1922 at which the 5-5-3 ratio was adopted for capital ships, at the same time fixing the status quo in the Pacific; the Geneva Conference of 1927 at which the cross purposes of Great Britain, Japan and the United States prevented a treaty from being ratified; and the London Naval Conference of 1930 which effected a limitation in cruisers although conditioned upon the attitudes of France and Italy who did not sign the treaty. All of these attempts he felt had contributed to the welfare of the cause of disarmament, even if some were without concrete results and occasioned another kind of competition.

The work of the League Preparatory Commission in laying the foundation for general disarmament should not be overlooked. After five years of study and negotiation a "Draft Convention" was made by that body, and it is this document which will form the basis for whatever treaty comes out of the present conference. Professor Hamilton also commended Ambassador Hugh Gibson's proposal of a "yardstick" for the comparison of navies of different types.

Finally the speaker referred to the present World Disarmament Conference at which all types of arms, their limitation, and political questions attendant thereon are considered. He said it would take months before the five committees which are now considering the details of various proposals could work out any treaty. These committees deal with Air, Land, and Naval armament, Political Questions, and reduction of expenditure, respectively. Charts were displayed showing the growth and reduction of naval armament, and the increase in expenditures of the various nations on national defense.

INTERNATIONALIZING EDUCATION

A broad-minded intellectual of the existing social order can hardly over emphasize the importance attached to the necessity of increased study upon the problems arising out of the international aspects of people, politics, governments, world religions, finance and world markets if we are to approach an economic order that would be desired and direfully needed by all mankind.

I write this editorial after spending one afternoon in one of the most inspiring—most influential, both educationally and internationally, settlement in the entire world—the International House at 500 Riverside Drive, New York City.

This institution, situated in the most integrated educational center in the world, stresses the importance of a mutual understanding among intelligent and serious minded students who are pursuing graduate study in their particular field interest. Here are gathered some 500 students—men and women representing over 70 nationalities throughout the vast continents. Here are assembled in an institution afforded by Rockefeller Foundation the best living conditions in the city of New York—perhaps the most unique environment from an educational and social standpoint in the world, which is only advisedly stated because of similar institutions, founded by the same Institution in both Paris and Pasadena.

Seated today in the large main reception room I was attracted by ominous "lobbyists" discussing problems of economic and world importance from every conceivable angle; religion and war, capitalism and the Soviet, Manchuria and Japan, Ghandi and Lindbergh. They were so many discussion groups that it was impossible to choose one knowing that another, equally interesting and significant, was to be tearfully neglected.

In the game room there was a Chinese student who majored in International Law, playing chess with an opponent studying World Religions—a Hindoo from the northern section of India. From the music room on the upper foyer came the strange strains of Russian melodies where upon my visit reveal five of their native countries settled in squat style on pillows and cushions playing queer looking instruments similar to our violins. And so on throughout the ten story House on which is carved on the entrance facade—"That Peace May Prevail."

We need more institutions like the International House.

LITERARY

LIVES AND LETTERS

By Rudolf Shook

Miss Edna Ferber's American Beauty is an engaging novel. It is about a fascinating family, the Oakes, and their New England from 1700 to 1930. The Oakes are vividly and colorfully presented from the glamorous Orange and his lovely orchid-like wife, Judith to Tamor and her handsome warm-blooded husband, Ondia Olzak the Pole. Miss Ferber employs a delightful, faintly satirical, humor, but she is sympathetic with her characters. She writes of an important cycle in our history, and is to my mind, the second best of her creations. She exhibits a deep understanding of that harsh, lonely and, beneath the surface, tender old maid.

I feel that I have not done this excellent novel justice in this review, but it is difficult to analyze its peculiar charm, in which humor, tradition, glamour and homeliness are subtly blended.

I was about to add a note about the author when I remembered her opinion on the subject, expounded in her usual vitriolic manner in a recent magazine. " . . . I am good and sick and tired of Intimate Glimpses into the Private Lives of Our Authors. I wish they'd keep their lives to themselves. The real business of the writer is to see life being lived and to set down what he sees in terms of his own chemical processes. The man who beats the big bass drum in the parade probably attracts more attention and has a better time than the one who stands at the curb. But you've got to decide whether you'd rather see the parade or march in it. You can't very well do both."

The March member of the Flop-of-the-month Club ("a new department": Walter Winchell; because his Lucky Strike "gossip today that becomes the news of tomorrow" recounts little more than the martial difficulties of cinema actresses (mostly second string) and the peccadillos of opera singers who have just sent in their free testimonials for Luckies; because his O. K. San Francisco makes one's teeth feel gritty; because every time chatter runs low he fills up his columns with witticisms (I suppose he thinks so) about Garbo's feet; because he employs the public prints to wage (exhaustingly as well as exhaustively) his private quarrels, notably with Mr. Earl Carroll; finally, because he would undoubtedly be much amused could he read this.

In despite of all this, he is a very interesting columnist, and since we are ending up with a tear in our voice, I confess that I read his daily word avidly.

Woman's Club Will Feature Reader of New Negro Poetry

An event of unusual significance is the appearance of Miss Truda Weil in this city under the auspices of the Literature division of the local Woman's Club. Miss Weil will read from the Negro Poets, at the club house on North Fifth street, Thursday evening, March thirty-first, at eight-fifteen.

Miss Weil teaches dramatics and English Literature at the Brooklyn Ethical Culture School. She also directed the dramatic fete in the Greco-Roman theatre at Arles, Provence, in 1929. She will select her poems from Countee Cullen, Langston Hughes and James Weldon Johnson.

This is an opportunity for Albrightians to enjoy the poetry of the Negro at its very best. There will be an admission charge, to High School and College students of twenty-five cents.

Fraternity Notes

BETA DELTA SIGMA

The fraternity intends giving full support to the Week of Prayer Services held on our campus this week. May they be a great help.

Credit is due members of the Junior Class who took part in the Class play and those in charge of arrangements for a most enjoyable and successful evening last Tuesday.

Fraters Patrick and Castetter spent the week-end at their homes in Shamokin.

Fraters Keller and Sheetz week-ended in Lebanon at the latter's home.

Frater Wolbert attended a formal dance over the week-end given by a fraternity at Lehigh University.

Definite plans are being drawn up by the organization to triple its housing space for next year. The order for new furniture let this year will be doubled in 1932-33. A regulation size pool table is a recent addition in the fraternity quarters.

PHI DELTA BETA

The annual Alumni Smoker and basketball game will be held Saturday evening, March 13. The Alumni will have a strong club but the Active Chapter is anticipating victory.

The fraternity will hold its closed dance on Saturday, April 23.

The A. P. O. basketball team plays Westwood High School on Tuesday evening.

"Pup" Male and "Duke" Weigle spent the week-end at Pen Argyl. "Duke" says he went in the interests of Geology, a research problem in slate. We hope he was successful.

Mr. and Mrs. Vanness and Arthur Bartolet visited Paul Vanness over the weekend.

Now that the basketball season is over, Basler, the manager can now give his undivided attention to his social activities.

COLLEGIANA

New York speakies are making a special plea for Princeton students. The Princeton Alumni Weekly reported that admittance cards, on the backs of which is a New York-to-Princeton time table, are being circulated among the students.

The Petrel, the newspaper of Oglethorpe University, carried the following headline in a recent issue: "Rho Damsit Rho Beats Omicron Delta Kappa to Oglethorpe."

Officials of Centre College ousted the editor of the college Cento when he editorially attacked marriage as "the stupidest of all institutions in existence today." The former editor insists that he has done some thinking on the subject and that he has a legal right to continue to think on it.

Two students were badly injured and considerable damage was done by an explosion in the mining building of Toronto University. One student, it is reported, was mixing liquid air and nitrobenzol.

Despite the fact that attendance of classes had been made compulsory in order to raise the scholastic standard at North Carolina University, over a third of the students failed or barely got a passing mark.

A student-faculty curriculum committee at M. I. T. is soliciting the opinion of students on the suggested abolition of compulsory military training.

The annual "Circus" at M. I. T. will omit the usual "bar" this year. This precaution is necessary in order to do away with the danger of flying pop bottles when students become too frisky.

The Columbia University "Spectator" carried the following notice recently: "Connoisseurs of Columbia Extension curiosa will be interested to discover that the newest additions to this strictly academic institution's prize is a course of Baseball for Women."

An I. P. dispatch in the Bradley Tech reports an odd competition, won by George Saleeby of New York. He grew the longest beard in a contest at Colgate University. It measured one inch in length.

(By Russell N. Bonney, '33)

Only one game remains to be played in the Eastern Penna. Collegiate Basketball League, but what a game that will be. Gettysburg and F. and M. meet on Wednesday night. If Gettysburg wins they clinch the pennant but if F. and M. wins the race ends a tie. Standing of the clubs:

	W.	L.	Pct.
Gettysburg	9	2	.818
F. and M.	8	3	.727
Lebanon Valley	8	4	.667
ALBRIGHT	5	7	.416
Drexel	5	7	.416
Muhlenburg	3	9	.250
Ursinus	3	9	.250

The first season of the league has been a big success. It added a great deal of interest in the cage sport at each school and the quality of ball played by the league teams was of high order. The teams are evenly matched also. The teams at the bottom this season are just as apt to lead the league next season as not.

Our local athletes finished the season in anything but a blaze of glory. Defeating F. and M. on the previous Saturday they turn about and receive an ignominious defeat from the tail end Muhlenburg team. Then to finish it they drop a second half defeat to our arch rivals Lebanon Valley, to finish the season with a losing per centage of 8 wins and 9 losses.

Saturday's game marked the farewell appearance on the court for three outstanding Red and White dribblers. Capt. Haines, with a record of four years of sterling play as a varsity courtman, will be missed next year. Johnny Fromm, who played the entire season with remarkable steadiness, and Eddie Andrews, who starred at the close of the season, are the other two major losses. Congratulations to the Seniors!

It sure was Lebanon Valley's year at basketball. No Lion team was able to score a basketball victory. Saturday was a bad day for Albright as the girls', the Frosh and the varsity all took decisive defeats. Prospects are better for next year with the present Freshmen coming thru and developing into dependable courtmen. So baseball and tennis remain. Our nine should defeat the Anville boys in fine fashion and our tennis squad also looks good.

This week's football slant concerns the elimination of the flying tackle and the flying block. This rule was designed to insure greater safety to both ball carrier and tackler. One can easily see how the rule will provide greater insurance against injuries but the elimination of the flying tackle will remove many a thrilling moment from the game. A smashing flying tackle in the open field adds greatly to the spectacular element of the game and its abolishment will rob the game of its color. It will also be hard for the official to call.

The "Bulletin" of Barnard College defines the word senior in this fashion: "She is definitely afraid of remaining single. She wears woolen underwear, its fashionable. She has given up wearing Saturday night's orchids Monday morning. She can crack her gum. She no longer says "lousy."

The Drexel Triangle reveals that a survey at the University of Missouri found bad checks being passed in the college at the rate of seventy-five per day.

An election at Purdue University was held invalid when it was found that 130 freshmen cast 182 votes, according to the St. John's Torch.

RED & WHITE QUINTERS SUFFER REVERSAL OF FORM IN DOUBLE CARD; BREAK IN SECOND PERIOD

Horine of the Mules and Heller and Focht, Valley Warriors, Prove too much for Albright Hoopsters; Osliso, Haines, Andrews, Dittman and DeFranco Hold Lion Five Together

In an amazing reversal of form, the Albright Lions lost a close game to Muhlenburg on Wednesday night by a score of 45-39. The Lions played winning ball in the initial period but struck a snag in the final period when Horine of the Mules staged a scoring spree.

With Capt. Haines and Andrews leading the boys, the Lions outplayed the Mules at the start of the contest and the first half ended with the Lions enjoying a 24-13 lead, and another Albright victory seemed highly probable.

At the start of the final half, Horine stuck up seven buckets from near the center of the court and placed his team on the way to victory. Nixon and Carney also helped in the second period assault.

Andrews played a splendid game for the Lions and gathered 13 points, Capt. Haines following with 11. Osliso played his usual defensive game.

Horine with 18 points was the home team's luminary.

LOSE TO LEBANON

The Albright Lions traveled to Lebanon on Saturday evening and dropped a hard fought game to Lebanon Valley, the final score being 47-40. The game brought down the curtains on the Lion basketball season and was the ninth reverse of the season. Eight games were placed in the win column. The game was fast and thrilling and the Valley second half spurt gave them the decision.

The first half belonged to Albright. The Lions got the jump in scoring and, while the score was close all the way, the half ended with Albright sporting a 29-23 advantage.

In the second half Heller and Focht got started and staged several scoring sprees to take the lead and run up a ten point margin. In the closing minutes Osliso and DeFranco tried desperately to even the count but the gun barked with the Blue and White holding a seven point margin.

The Lions missed Fromm at his guard post but Conway proved a capable substitute.

Fine Floor Work by Osliso

The outstanding Lion on the floor was Osliso. The brilliant guard was in fine fettle and his long shots were the features of the game. Osliso made the longest shot of the game, an almost impossible toss from deep in his own territory. His defensive game was also fast and smooth. Capt. Haines and DeFranco led the Lion scorers with 11 markers each. Osliso had five buckets while Andrews gathered four. The game was the last appearance for Haines and Andrews.

Capt. Heller was the home team's best bet. This athlete, who has been an Albright nemesis for the last several seasons, played one of his best games. He out-jumped both Haines and Smythe and dropped 21 markers thru the nets. His passing was also a big factor. Focht was next in line with 13 points while Stewart also played a good game.

Frosh Cagers Have Successful Season; Hepler and Shippe Star in Last Two Games

The Albright Frosh cagers closed their season with two defeats. These games give the Frosh a season's record of 9 wins and 7 losses.

On Tuesday evening the Frosh lost a hard game to the Reading Shops by a 36-30 count. Hepler with 12 points and Wick with 10, led the Frosh while Cox also played good ball.

On Saturday evening the Frosh lost their final game to Lebanon Valley Frosh by a 37-21 score. The Frosh made a good start but in the second quarter the Valley Frosh started and soon had a commanding lead which they gradually increased. Hepler led the Frosh with 8 points while Shippe played a fine game at center. Barthold led the Valley crew with 14 markers.

TELEPHONE
Date with Home

JUNE... Commencement... the college year's over! Congratulations, Seniors, and good luck!

What a year it was! Remember those telephone chats with Mother and Dad? Those words of encouragement? That sound advice? You'll agree that of all the four years taught you, nothing means more to you than your appreciation of Home.

That's a worth-while lesson! Wherever you go... whatever you do... let the telephone keep you in touch with home. Share your news with Mother and Dad. They'll always be eager to hear your voice.

Now, and whenever you feel the urge, give the Operator your home telephone number. The thrill of "voice visits" never grows old.

FOR THE LOWEST COST AND GREATEST EASE

Set your "date" for after 8.30 P.M., and take advantage of the low Night Rates. (A dollar call is 60c at night; a 50c call is 35c.)

By making a date, the folks will be at home. Thus you can make a Station to Station call rather than a more expensive Person to Person call.

Just give the operator your home telephone number. If you like, charges can be reversed.

"THE EXPERT" AT THE ASTOR
The Astor Theatre presents "The Expert," starring Charles (Chic) Sale and Dickie Moore, to continue Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday with an all new vaudeville bill.

"The Expert," Warner Bros. and Vitaphone picture, presents in the leading roles two actors who were hits in "The Star Witness," Chic Sale and diminutive Dickie Moore. The Astor's vaudeville program is headed by the greatest international juvenile revue, "Sweet and Hot," with Little Larry, Jean Goodner, Marion Bailer and the Roberts sisters. The supporting program follows: Cliff Crane, late dancing comedian of Earl Carroll's Vanities, "Just for Laughs," Jack Strouse, popular blackface comedian, in "Over the Phone," Parker Weinberg and company, "Mirth Making Mountebanks," The Three Jacks, in "Happiness in Every Hop."

EMBASSY THEATRE

Dropping the rose-colored lenses from its cameras and turning the searchlight of reality and humanness upon that too often glorified theme, "mother love," Hollywood has turned out a picture that will rank with the year's best in "After Tomorrow," the Fox drama, which is now playing its local engagement at the Embassy.

Charles Farrell in the leading role gives a performance that exceeds anything he has done in many a day and that ranks with his memorable "Chico" in "Seventh Heaven." Opposite him plays Marian Nixon but a different Marian Nixon than you have ever seen before. Her wistfulness reminds one of Janet Gaynor.

Admirably suited to their roles of the two mothers are Minna Gombell and Josephine Hull.

"ARSENE LUPIN" AT LOEW'S

Spellbinding mystery, sophisticated humor and the engaging romance of a master criminal and the feminine spy who is hired to track him down, are expertly blended in "Arsene Lupin," at Loew's, presenting the first appearance together on the screen of John and Lionel Barrymore.

As the suave drawing room thief Lupin, John Barrymore gives one of the most delightful and entertaining performances of his distinguished career, while Lionel Barrymore, as the detective, has never been seen to greater advantage. Between the adventures of the two, the audience is given more than its usual share of cinema diversion.

The story is filled with unique situations. There is a dramatic episode in which the spy attempts to besmirch her honor in order to create an alibi for the thief.

STATE THEATRE

When Kay Francis was a screen fan, long before she ever thought of becoming an actress, one of her "heroes" was a tall young man with the old Kalem Company.

This same actor, Earle Foxe, plays a villainous role in support of Miss Francis and Frederic March for the Paramount comedy romance, "Strangers in Love," which the State Theatre is now showing.

Foxe switched from hero to "menace" characterizations several years ago. He alternates between acting and serving as president and general policy founder of one of the largest private military academies in the West, located in Southern California.

MEET

Meet that genial recluse of the Science Hall, Ernie Pastorella better known as "Pastie." When Ernie is buried in the gloomy halls presided over by Professor Horn, he finds time to serve on the staff of THE ALBRIGHTIAN and as secretary in the Alpha Pi Omega Fraternity. He has also served as one of those enthusiastic delegates who return to tell us what great times they have had. The Skull & Bones claims him as their president.

Fifty per cent of the senior ballots at Franklin and Marshall college showed that their authors wore garters; were worn "occasionally," "usually," "not often" and "sometimes."

The Rollins College publication suggests that with $50,000 they would either upholarster the stone benches on the campus or publish a scandal sheet.

A questionnaire is being sent to students of the University of Rochester to determine when, where, and what they eat.
