Student Council to Cancel Affiliation with Who's Who

Student Council, on the advice of the Faculty-Student Who's Who committee and after several weeks of investigation, dropped affiliation with Who's Who, a private organization with little college or university support.

This organization is strictly a commercial venture and is being operated for the money which is received from the sale of the publication and pins to students who are elected to the Who's Who honor. There is no standard, however, for electing students for recognition, which receives only local notice.

A number of Albright Alumni who had received this recognition were contacted by the committee. Many had listed their Who's Who honor in references filed with employers, who wrote to the organization for information. These inquiries were never answered.

Several business concerns interviewed in Reading had no knowledge of the group. In a survey which Drexel conducted in the Philadelphia area only two out of 60 firms indicated that they knew of Who's Who. A check made at the Library of Congress revealed the organization was not listed there.

Dean Levan P. Smith reported that 60 delegates at a Dean's meeting indicated that there is no value in the honor. N.S.A. has stated that it believes Who's Who makes money and little else.

R.K.O. Considers Producing Film On Local Campus

It has been officially announced by Albright's Office of Public Relations that R.K.O. film productions has selected this college among several under consideration as prospective campus sites to be used for the filming of a Sadie Hawkins Day movie short next spring. The production had been previously planned for this fall but the possibility of continued inclement weather postponed the schedule.

A final choice will be released by the film studio after visits are made to the colleges under consideration. Students would be used exclusively for the cast of characters originated by Al Capp in the Lil' Abner comic strip.

Albright had the honor of having Al Capp himself on campus for Sadie Hawkins Day, November 17, 1946. The whole-day affair has been held annually since that time, with students taking the parts in full dress as pictured by Capp. Albright was recommended among the other schools by Capp, who had on file many photographs taken in 1946 by the college's public relations office.

'Lion's Club' to Be Scene of Annual Ivy Ball Nov. 12

Smorgasbord Precedes Entertainment, Dance

Plans are being completed for the traditional Ivy Ball, semi-formal, which will be held at the "Lion's Club" on Saturday evening, November 12. A Smorgasbord will be offered at 7 o'clock, followed at 8:15 by entertainment by the freshman class, and at 8:45 by the dance itself.

Joyce Costenbader is the general chairman for the all-college Ivy Ball, annually sponsored by Student Council. This affair has traditionally marked the acceptance of the freshman class into the social life of the college. Robert M. White, president of Student Council, will give the official welcome.

The lobby of Union Hall, the "Lion's Club," will be decorated like a hotel lobby, with mats, palm trees and other properties. The ballroom decorations will be in red and white with green ivy. There will be a false ceiling for effect. A cloak room and ticket-collection station will be established in the lobby.

Four student waiters will serve the smorgasbord to the guests, who will be seated at tables in the balcony.

Variety Show Planned

Karol Ruppel, vice president of the freshman class, is in charge of the entertainment. Other members are Betty Martin, Carol Krecker and Bruce Weeber. A variety show is being planned under their direction. Stanley Taub, a senior, will assist the freshmen in planning the program.

Mrs. Lerch, of Laureldale, is the caterer for the smorgasbord. Chaplains will be the Rev. and Mrs. Eugene H. Barth, Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin H. Handorf and Prof. and Mrs. Clyde Harding.

Since this is the first major all-college social event of the year, the committee hopes that there will be a large attendance. Unsold tickets will be called for on Monday, November 7. Should any remain, they will be offered for sale during the week. The smorgasbord and dance cost $4 per couple; the dance alone, $2 per couple. Jack Keeney and his orchestra will play.

Committees Named

Chapel to Highlight Lecture, Talent Show

Highlighting the chapel program for next Tuesday, November 8, will be a talk by Mr. Darlington Hoopes on "The Responsibilities of Citizenship."

The following week on Tuesday and Thursday, November 15 and 17, Student Council will sponsor a musical program consisting of student talent from near-by colleges and universities. Beverly Bresler is in charge of the arrangements for this.

Foreign Students Expected Next Week; Reading Stores Furnish Clothing Supply

After a long wait, word has been received that Albright's two Displaced Students, Robert Asthon and Selig Wassner, will arrive in the United States within the next two weeks. Mrs. John B. Douds first received word from the World Church Service that Asthon is expected to arrive in Boston on November 5. Last Wednesday night Jay Shenk received a telegram, which came as a complete surprise, from the United Service for New Americans saying that Wassner is aboard the General Taylor which will dock in New York about November 7.

Wassner's telegram reads as follows: "Wassner sailing. Destined to Albright College. Aboard Gen. Taylor. Docking about Nov. 7. We will entertain and notify you arrival time Reading. (Signed) Dorothy Newer. United Service for New Americans."

Wardrobe Donated

Both D.P. students will be given an entire wardrobe by some of the Reading merchants. Asthon and Wassner will be interviewed by Mr. Frank Voss of WRAW when the gift certificates will be presented to them. The following stores are contributing: Walter Jones, slacks; Paul's Men's Shop, dress shirt, sport shirt and tie; Wetherhold and Metzger, shoes; Tommie Gray, belt; Croll and Keck, sweater; Reading Clothing Company, a $10 gift certificate; and Windsor Knitting Mills, operated by Mr. Mosser, a half dozen suits of underwear.

The committee which is making all arrangements for the arrival of the D.P.'s consists of Mrs. John B. Douds, Jack Snook, Jay Shenk, Doris Chanin and Stanley Taub.

Liberal Arts Student

Robert Asthon, a Liberal Arts student in the sophomore year, was born in Praga, Czechoslovakia, on May 31, 1925. From 1930-1943 he lived in Russia but he was deported to Germany in the summer of 1943 and spent the autumn of 1947 in Argentina. Asthon's father, a native of England, went to Russia in 1930 as an engineering specialist. He has been missing since 1938, when he was deported from Kiev. His mother, born at Sevastopol in the Crimea, has been missing since World War II. Asthon claims that he is a citizen of no country at the present, although he had an address at a D.P. hospital in Germany.

During the winter of 1948-49, Asthon was registered as a D.P. student at the Georg August University in Goettingen, from which he gets an allowance. He can read, speak and write Russian and German fluently and English and French fairly well. A Greek Orthodox, Asthon would like to train in applied art. He has no relatives or friends in the United States.

Selig Wassner was born June 12, 1923 in Jaworow, Poland. Since his parents were landed proprietors, Wassner was able to finish six classes in an elementary school and complete his course at the Gymnasium in Jaworow. He resumed his studies as a displaced student at the Dolmetscher Institute of the University of Heidelberg. Wassner will likely enter Albright as an advanced sophomore in the Liberal Arts field emphasizing language study.

Fluent in Languages

Interested primarily in languages, Wassner is able to read, speak and write Polish, Russian, English, German, Spanish and Hebrew. He passed an examination to become a translator on March 28, 1949, after only three terms of study, whereas candidates are admitted only after four terms.

Wassner is a member of the board of the Jewish Student Union in Heidelberg. He has relatives living in New York City.

It is important, the Bishop declared, that the school and the scholar together search for enduring values, adequate philosophy and a Christian interpretation of life. The Bishop stated that "Civilization advances not by wars and conquests but by building roads."

Council Changes Time of Meeting To Tuesday at 4

Student Council has changed its meeting time from Thursday at 4 o'clock to Tuesday at 4 o'clock. The motion to effect this change was made by Doris Chanin at the meeting held on Thursday, October 27.

The change will make it possible for The Albrightian to report Council news on the Friday following the meeting, instead of a week later as was necessary before because of the paper's deadline schedule.

The only other organization which meets at 4 o'clock on Tuesday is the Men's Glee Club. Those organizations whose representatives are members of both Council and Glee Club will have to make adjustments in their representation.

Dickson Accepts

Beverly Bresler announced that Dickinson College agreed to send several of its members to Albright for a chapel program which will be presented in a few weeks. Dickinson has asked Albright to send student talent to that college for a similar program. Anyone interested should contact Miss Bresler.

Miss Chanin, in Vincent Gentile's absence, announced that a sub-regional meeting of N.S.A. will be held on Saturday, November 19. Several Albright delegates will attend.

Bishop G. Batdorf Founder's Speaker

"Christian education must realize its responsibility in preparing young people to be builders on the highway of God," Bishop Grant D. Batdorf told a large Charter Day audience gathered in Union Hall in honor of the founding of Albright College in 1856.

Bishop Batdorf, Bishop Emeritus of the Evangelical United Brethren Church, noted that the purpose of a Charter Day observance is to pay a debt of gratitude to the past and to express hope and confidence for the future.

He said that the church-related college is the last citadel for complete moral and spiritual education, and must not be allowed to perish. "The church-related college must make religion basic in all its activities," he said.

Sadie Hawkins Day Begins At Sundown November 16

News flash straight from Lower Slobbovia Press correspondent—Albright's annual Sadie Hawkins Day will be held Thursday, November 17.

This holiday for eligible men and desperate women all began in 1937 in Al Capp's mythical town of Dogpatch when Mayor Hebezbiah Hawkins, in a last attempt to marry off his uncommonly ugly daughter, Sadie, hit upon a scheme that finally ended Sadie's 35 years of singleness. His Honor decreed a footrace to be held between all unwed males and females and ordained that any miserably man caught by a gal must marry her. The Mayor gave the bachelors a head start. Then he fired a second volley for the "howlin' mess of unwed gals to go 'a-scheechin and a-clawin' after 'em.

Sadie Hawkins Celebrations usually begin with the proclamation: "Know Yo' All, Wherefore and whereas, Ah proclaims: Yo Gotta Run Ketch or Be Ketched. Whereas, if yo' lays yo' achin' unmarried haid in a sack in Dogpatch; and whereas, if you is man or gal, hooman or otherwise; and whereas, if yo' ain't hitched to man, woman, animule, or post; Then yo' is eligibull. Yo' just gotta run—yo' pore mizzable onhappy fools; your mizzable unmarried days is over! Ah proclaims these rules for Sadie Hawkins Day. Signed and sealed (with a gulp) Hebezbiah Hawkins."

Sadie Hawkins Day here will begin at sundown on Wednesday, November 16 with a chase which will last until sundown Thursday. Everyone on campus is expected to be attired in regular Dogpatch style. A Sadie Hawkins Day Dance in Union Hall will culminate a full day's program. More details for the day will be posted soon.

Charlotte Winner, chairman, Nan Heckman, Alma Natanblut, Marilyn Metzger, and Joan Betty Park will serve as a committee for the activity which is sponsored by the Women's Student Senate.

Gounder to Star In Radio Drama

Jack Gounder will play the lead role of Bernick in "Pillars of Society," the Radio Workshop's next production over station WEEU, Walt Hayum, Director, has announced. The broadcast will be heard from 9:30-10 o'clock next Tuesday evening, November 8.

"Pillars of Society," by Ibsen, tells of the misplaced importance on position in life. It is the story of the struggle of one man caught in the web of conflicting ideals, and of the effect this has upon his family.

The complete cast for "Pillars of Society" follows:

Bernick	Jack Gounder
Mrs. Bernick	Nan Heckman
Aune	Art Wade
Lona	Dorothy McFarland
Diana	Doris Hill
Olaf	Marie Kaputo
John	Karol Ruppel

The cast for the third play of this month's series, "She Stoops to Conquer," by Goldsmith, to be given on November 15, is listed below:

Tony	Jay Kyle
Mr. Hardcastle	Art Wade
Kate	Nan Heckman
Constance	Judy Goodman
Hastings	Harry Nelson
Marlowe	Jack Gounder
Mrs. Hardcastle	Marge Sternberg

Vol. XLVI November 4, 1949 No. 8

Welcome at Long Last

A welcome surprise was handed to us on Monday afternoon when we read a brief, scribbled note that Robert Asthon, one of Albright's two Displaced Students, will arrive in Boston from Europe on his way to Reading and our campus. The whereabouts of Selig Wassner at present is not known, however.

Albright students have a right to be concerned about the delay in the arrival of the D.P.'s and the problems it ensues. What kind of class and academic standing will they have? How can they catch up in their work? Are they going to be supported next year? Through our efforts over $1200 were raised to finance Bob and Selig in their new venture to the United States. That's not too small an amount and we don't want to be left holding the bag.

The local committee and administration will no doubt have direct answers to these questions, so we must hold off rash conclusions ahead of time. A better idea is to make preparation for a fine welcome and program of orientation with a spirit of brotherhood.

Student Council in Action

Two questions of importance are on the list of current business handled by Student Council—the task of constructing a new constitution and the continuance of a Who's Who selection of seniors. The two items have been taken care of in opposite fashions.

Whether or not to continue a Who's Who survey has been handled correctly—investigation, opinions, and conclusions. This column feels that if it is definitely proved the sponsoring organization does not live up to its publicity and is not well known in business, its use by Albright College should be discontinued, for it would be serving only its own end. However, it should be decided whether or not to have an annual selection anyway, with all students and faculty-administration, or just seniors doing the choosing. We feel it ought to be a committee of faculty, administrative and senior representatives. The field of candidates should be wide open, and not limited to certain office-holders.

Student Council officers and representatives are to be commended on their method of deciding to sever relations with Who's Who.

On the other side of the ledger is the poor management of the revision of the constitution. Whatever is bungling the matter—playing of politics, lack of real effort, or parliamentary procedure—the log jam should be broken and some action taken. Squabbling over petty matters doesn't get the job accomplished. Full cooperation and attendance at the weekly meetings are vital parts of the task.

A Personal Interview

Fresh from the campuses of Michigan and Illinois, where he earned his bachelor's and master's degrees, Edwin R. Dunkle Jr. has become our new math, physics, and in the evenings, astronomy instructor de luxe.

He is 23 years old, free, single, and as of yet, has no special interest here on campus. Looking more like the students than the students themselves, he spends most of his time either in his office in the Science building or in the book store drinking coffee.

Prof. Dunkle, when asked his opinion of the campus said, "for a small campus it is very nice; I like it a lot. The students are friendly, and the professors are extremely helpful and cooperative."

Flashy neckties and casual clothes are his specialty. And speaking of specialties, "If anyone knows whom I am talking to the Ivy Ball," he said, "I sure do wish they would tell me."

The professor likes sports, and he participates in faculty bowling. And of bowling he had this to say, "Tell Professor Gates beware, for he is going to take last place this time. I'm going to bowl him over."

Our new math prof is now preparing for a doctor's degree which he hopes to have sometime in the near future. As the realistic interview came to an end, Prof. Dunkle revealed one of his goals on the Albright campus—"to get better looking fish in Selwyn pond."

LAST WEEK PROF. HOLLENBACH reiterated his famous decree for the final test for the paramedicine drawings of his general biology students. He said, "After you complete your drawing, drop it into a bucket of water. If the paramedicine swims away, the drawing will be accepted, and you might get a fifty for it." GENERAL PSYCHOLOGY STUDENTS are looking pale and lean lately. And why not? They are tackling monstrous algebraic formulae in their study of elementary (Dr. Geil says) statistics. Bill Heffner and Skip Eisenbrown, junior chem and math majors, are on the verge of mental collapse, for Dr. Geil has banned the use of all slide rules, and these two gentlemen contend that Prof. Speicher never taught them how to do long division—the long way.

IF A PROJECTILE WITH a mass of 10 lbs. is shot with an initial velocity of .007 ft. per milisecond from a cannon built in 1789 into curved space and covers a range of 20,000 ft. (pigs' feet, that is) over the earth's surface (compensate for the curvature of the earth), what is the name of the wife of the man who built the cannon? You many find this slightly confusing, but this is one of the simpler problems general physics students under Dr. Merritt have solved in their recent study of kinetics, gravitation, and falling bodies. In all sincerity we do welcome Dr. Merritt and Prof. Dunkle to our mathematics and physics departments.

POST-MORTEMES ARE NOT only conducted upon cadavers but also upon the poor, struggling, transitory junior pre-meds who have experienced for the first time the exhausto-stifling (derivation: out + to draw + to stop the breath) of anatomy tests of Prof. Green. Anatomy students are not alone in their misery, for the science fundamental students are still licking their wounds from their first test in astronomy. Incidentally you will not find these fundamentals students wearing such crude things as wrist watches, for they can now tell time by the apparent motion of the stars—sideral time, that is. Note the excellent opportunity for some young, aggressive student to sell Sloan's Liniment to stiff-necked star gazers.

AND, ALTHOUGH WE COMPLAIN and bemoan our fates as science students, we always return to the outstretched, welcoming arms and smiling countenances of our profs—ah-h-h—to the warm and hearty greetings—ah-h-h. Well, we return anyway.

"Since Ann had that last visit to the Psych Clinic, she's expressed herself more freely."

Hola, buenos dias, or something. We're not very talented along that line, but our Dandy is. A well-tailored job with blue eyes and a blonde curly top—that's our Dandy Lion for this week. This optimistic gal, who is famous for her bright and cheery smile, may regularly be found during the ten minute break between classes exchanging quips with the "crew" in that den of questionable repute, The Albrightian office (no refections). Who's our gal? —Joyce Thompson.

Joyce is really talented; she can converse with you in either Spanish or English (you just name it), those two languages being her major and minor, respectively. As with all Dandy Lions, Joyce has plenty of extra-curricular activities to keep her busy. She was one of our lively cheerleaders during her freshman, sophomore, and junior years, until her schedule became so demanding on the time element, Dandy Thompson, president of Sigma Tau Delta and a member of I.R.C., belongs to the Day Women's Council and consequently to Women's Student Senate also. As representative of the Day Women, Joyce is a member of Student Council and also holds the all-important position of chairman of the Pa. Regional Student Government Clinic of N.S.A.

Joyce has a passion for playing the piano and likes to listen to records, "classical of course". And she says that recently she has been "reading voraciously".

For the future, Dandy Thompson has ambitious plans to go to South America with the intentions of learning to speak Spanish fluently and then returning to the good old U.S.A. to teach the language. Ah yes, already we can see hundreds thronging to Senorita Thompson's private studio on Central Park West; atmosphere, exorbitant fees, and all that go with it. Sounds like a good future. Best wishes, Joyce.

Opportunity Knocks

To make with the rhyme
Requires a reason.
But lacking a reason,
We substitute teasin'.

Now if you gotta beef about some of your classes
Or maybe some guy on the trail of your lass is,
If our halfback ran when he should have delayed
Or the hand stopped dead when they should have played,

Then give us your cracks,
And if they're legit,
We'll hop on their backs
In rhymin' a bit.

We mean it, too. Here's your chance to unload your gripes on Mama Albrightian—you'll feel better, and maybe "sotaphun" can be done about it. If you accidentally have a good word, we could use that too. Leave your comments and suggestions at The Albrightian office. We'll welcome them—and you too, if you'd like to drop in.

A Subtle Moral

"Rock-a-bye-Baby, in the tree top,
When the wind blows, the cradle will rock;
Now go to sleep, dolly, and when you get awake, mama will take you to the movies."

Kathy laid the doll in its pretty pink and blue cradle as she cooed over it, and then sat down to sew on the new dress she was making for her "baby".

"Hey, Kathy, lookit what I got." The boy down the street rushed up the steps onto Kathy's front porch, waving his arms wildly. Kathy got up to see—he shoved a long, fat, squirming worm under her nose.

"Oh, you nasty boy, throw that ugly thing away, screamed Kathy. She rushed back into the corner, while he stood silently admiring his find. "If you don't kill him right away you can't play house with me."

Billy wondered as the worm slithered back and forth in his hand just how far he could stretch it. Not very far, he soon discovered, and he threw the two useless halves over the railing. "All right, Kathy, I threw it away. Let's play house."

"You be the daddy. I'll pack your lunch and you can go to work. And when you come home, I'll get the baby out of bed and we can go to the movies."

"Hurry up and eat your supper, baby. Daddy will be home soon and we're going by-by." She held the dolly just like Mama held the baby, and told her how little girls should behave. "Here comes Daddy," Kathy chattered. "He'll have to eat supper too before we go away." And she set the table.

"Wait'll you see what's over there at the edge of the woods, Kathy. C'mon, I'll show. Hurry up."

"No, Billy, you know we mayn't go over there. Mama said only bad girls go over there. I want to stay here and play house."

"But there's a big black spider spinning a web over there and you can see just how he does it, Kathy, c'mon." Billy was breathless with excitement over his new find.

But Kathy was adamant. She knew what little girls should do and should not do, and she wasn't going to be a bad girl. And Billy had to go by himself to see what life is like among the amoral creatures of the woods.

ROYALS, G-BURG NEXT ON LIONS' CARD

FEMME SPORTS

Hockey Playday Here

Next on the bill of fare for the Albright lassies' hockey squad is the Play Day tomorrow at 10:30 a. m., in which Kutztown, Moravian, and Cedar Crest will be Albright's guests. One of the three scheduled games will be played before luncheon intermission, while the two concluding games will be run off after the noon hour to decide the winner among the traditional rivals.

Court Confab Planned

On November 14 Marge Zecek and Marilyn Himmelstein will journey to a basketball conference at Temple University for the purpose of scheduling games between the colleges in this section of Pennsylvania. The lassies' basketball team will start work sometime after Thanksgiving.

W.A.A. Schedules I-M

The Women's Athletic Association is actively planning many intramural sports for the girls during the fall and winter months. Pat Miller and Claire Bailey were appointed to organize and prepare the freshmen for intra-mural hockey competition.

These I-M contests have not as yet been scheduled, but are likely to take place before the Thanksgiving vacation. The teams will represent the various classes with varsity members being eligible. Last year the frosh were victorious in the playoffs.

Hockey Clinic Given

Last Saturday the Middle Atlantic States Hockey Clinic conducted its referees' exams on Albright's hockey field. Several girls and older women alternated as referees for encounters between Albright, Mohnton High School, and Shillington High School. The games provided excellent practice and afforded the referees an opportunity to complete this final stage of their exam following a written test.

Dick Koch

... Lincoln Park is the home town of this 183 pound end, at present a starter on the defensive aggregation and completing his last year on the Albright gridiron.

Kissinger, Rancourt Reach Semi-Finals

Pavel Kissinger's forfeit victory over Pete Shanaman in the student tennis tourney placed him opposite Willy Rancourt in the second semifinal round. The winner of this match will face Jim Mengel in the final and deciding contest.

Mengel, a member of the varsity tennis squad, advanced to the final round by ousting Al Kasprowiez, 6-0, 6-0, and then defeating Tom Kane, a fellow varsity competitor, with scores of 4-6, 6-1, and 7-5.

Runners Tab First Win from Bullets; Face Royals Sat.

After taking their first win from Gettysburg, 20-40, Coach Gene Shirk's harriers will face Scranton University and LeMoyné College tomorrow at 11:30 a. m., in a triangular meet starting on the Dunmore High School football field.

Next Friday, November 11, the entire squad will journey to Muhlenberg College in Allentown to participate in the Middle Atlantic States championship runnings. Dick Flammer and Bruce Weeber will compete with other freshmen while the remainder of the squad will enter the varsity competition.

Watsin First

The Lions' cross country squad snapped their four game losing streak with a clear cut 20-40 victory at Gettysburg College on Tuesday, October 27. Although the Bullets record-breaker, Warren Watsin, led the field in 17 minutes and 31 seconds over the three and one-tenth mile course, Albright took the next five positions for the victory margin.

Charley Zellner crossed the line first for the Lions with a time of 17:50, his best for the year. Close on his heels were Roy Bousch and Gerry Ready, tied for third, while Dave Fulmer placed fifth, Dave Roland, sixth, Dick Flammer, eighth, and Dave DeWitt, tenth.

Anlian Nursing Foot

Except for squad Captain Ed Anlian, who is presently nursing a bad foot, the team is expected to be in tip-top condition for the coming meets with Scranton and LeMoyné, and the M.A.S.C.A.C. Championships at Allentown.

G-burg Summaries:

1, L. Watsin, G. Time, 17:31. 2, Zellner, A; 3, Bousch, A; 4, Ready, A; 5, Fulmer, A; 6, Roland, A; 7, Dillon, G; 8, Flammer, A; 9, Knauss, G; 10, DeWitt, A; 11, Nevninger, G; 13, Ansel, G.

Mackenzie Joins Bowling Circle

This week's faculty bowling saw Professor Donald N. Mackenzie as a newcomer to the competition, the addition boosting the total number of participants to 12. The team average rose to 143.6, up from last week's low of 131.3. Professor Lawrence H. Haag posted the highest individual score with a tally of 199, while Professor Dwight L. Scoles led the averages with 185.5.

Scores are:

			Avg.
Scoles	174	197	185.5
Haag	118	199	160.7

Hardwood Practice To Begin Nov. 15

Head Coach Eddie Gulian has given notice to all varsity, junior varsity and freshmen aspirants that basketball practice will begin on November 15 in anticipation of the approaching 24 game campaign.

Penn Military Drubs Susquehanna, 54-0

Pennsylvania Military College, the last foe on the Lions' schedule, November 19, has been entering the win column consistently after a rather poor start this season. Last Saturday the Cadets mixed aerials and a running attack to overpower Susquehanna, 54-0.

Tony Cain accounted for two of the nine tallies, scoring the first on a 37 yard run in the first period.

Boarding Students Cop Independent League Pennant

APO's Maintain Lead In Frat Competition

The Boarding Students copped the pennant in the Independent League with a card of seven wins and no losses and thereby earned the privilege of facing the fraternity victors in the playoffs. In last week's contests they shut out the All-Stars and Frosh by scores of 51-0 and 12-0, respectively.

The APO fraternity clinched their league's lead Tuesday afternoon by overpowering the third place Zetas 25-7 in a hard fought contest. Mel Telsy tallied three touchdowns for the victors, one on an 80 yard gallop after intercepting a fourth down Zeta pass which smashed the losers only scoring threat. Rip Idler scored the remaining T-D's, while Jerry Lakow grabbed a pass for the lone conversion.

The Pi Tau-Kappa game scheduled for Monday afternoon was not played since seven men did not show up for either side.

A.P.O.'s Edge Kappas

Last Thursday, October 27, the APO's barely managed to eke out a 6-0 victory over the fourth place Kappas. The winning margin came when Lee Katz caught a Paul Mueller aerial in the end zone. The Kappas threatened in a last period drive but were stymied on the victor's two yard line.

Meanwhile the Zetas refused to be pushed farther down the ladder and kept close behind the leaders by rolling to a 7-0 triumph over the KTX on Wednesday. The only score of this game came in the third period when Bob Ruoff intercepted a KTX pass and ran 25 yards to paydirt. A Pat Bieber pass to Earl Langford gave the victors their seventh point.

The All Stars dropped their Tuesday afternoon game to the Hornets with a forfeit. In another Independent loop fuss the Hornets tripped the last place Daymen 14-0, to clinch their second place spot below the Boarders.

The standings up to Tuesday afternoon are:

Fraternity League
	Won	Lost	Tied
APO's	6	1	0
Pi Taus	4	2	0
Zetas	4	3	0
Kappas	2	4	0

PLUGS GUARD GAP

Cal Cizewski

... Hailing from Wilkes-Barre, a 188 pound senior ably filling in the right guard slot on the first defensive squad; termed one of Albright's best defensive players in recent years.

Gulian Hopes for Upset Tomorrow over Scranton; Bullets on Win Rampage

Purple and White Favored to Conquer, Although on Three Game Losing Skid

Coming up on the football schedule for the Albright Lions are two tough battles—one tomorrow afternoon with the Royals of Scranton and the other, Saturday, November 12, at home with the Gettysburg Bullets. On tap for tomorrow at 2 o'clock in the Dunmore High School Stadium at Scranton, Coach Eddie Gulian's eleven are out after their first win against the Purple and White in the series which goes back to the 1946 inaugural game.

BULWARK AT TACKLE

Fred Rosen

... Senior guard hailing from Paterson, N. J., fills in the left side of the line on the defensive lineup; tips the scales with a hefty 195 pounds.

Cats Bow to L. V., 26-13; Fullback DiJohnson Stars

Coach Eddie Gulian's Lion charges submitted to Lebanon Valley's "rainworthy" backs last Friday night and dropped a 26-13 decision before 4,000 water-soaked fans in the home stadium. The Dutchmen's fullback, Hank DiJohnson, sparked his winning team mates with three touchdowns and stellar offensive dashes throughout the contest.

The Cats demonstrated an outstanding type of offensive play in the first eleven minutes of the fracas but weakened after the rains came. Bill Krohlo climaxed a first period, 45 yard drive, with an off tackle pass for Albright's first six points, but Floyd Rightmire's conversion attempt was wide.

DiJohnson Breaks Loose

DiJohnson broke loose with 32 and 21 yard runs in the second period to start Lebanon Valley's touchdown machine rolling. After a penalty against the Dutchmen put the ball on the Lion's 21 yard stripe, DiJohnson grabbed a screen pass from Fred Sample and jogged 17 yards for the score. Automatic Walt Gage's successful place-kick put the visitors ahead 7-6.

But only a few minutes later the Cats' Walt Tenley pulled his team back into the lead with a 63 yard tight-rope dash down the sidelines for paydirt. Johnny Krouse rounded right end on a fake place-kick attempt and left the score at 13-7.

Pass Scores TD

This was to be the Lions' last visit to the end zone, however. L.V.'s DiJohnson tied the score on a toss from Ray Dankoyski, climaxed a third period 70 yard march and in the final stanza raced 27 yards on a fake reverse for the tie-breaking six points. For the second time Walt Gage successfully place-kicked for the Dutchmen.

The visitors' last score did not come on their assaulting power but on an interception of one of Al Harnly's futile tosses. Joe Oxley grabbed the oval and dashed 55 yards down the sidelines for a quick, decisive tally, giving his squad the 26-13 margin of victory.

The Cats have been frustrated in their attempts to score T-D's since the first game where they piled up 19 points to the Royals' 34, while in the other two games the Pete Carlesimo men blanked us 43 to 0 in 1947, and 48 to 0 last year.

Coached by Pete Carlesimo, former Fordham flash, the Royals play a stronger schedule than Albright and the hosts have tabbed only three victories in seven starts. They have knocked off Muhlenberg 12 to 7, (Albright was reversed 21 to 7), Moravian 32 to 13 (likewise Albright won, 33-6), and Niagara 32-0. On the other side of the ledger, the Coal Miners bowed to St. Bonaventure 26-0, Fordham 33-13, Canisius 32-0, and got ploughed under by mighty Boston U., 46 to 6, last Saturday. Pete Mondati, the Royals' hard running fullback, tallied the lone six points on a long run against the Beantowners.

DeNoia Missing

Missing from last year's team are four aces who caused the Lions plenty of trouble. Among those who graduated are big Mike DeNoia, Len Modzeleski, Tony Capone, and their sling-shot passer Jim Giordina. This is no reason to start breathing easily, because twenty-one lettermen are returning to action.

The fullback position has been filled in by a wealth of material in co-captain George Yourishin and fleet Mondati, who have been in and out all season due to injuries but will be ready for this game. Fortifying the end position are veterans Jack Bolger and Joe Lebeda. At halfback will be co-captain Tony Orsini and fast running Jess Kru-lock. In the center slot is Harry Horan, and Al Applegate, with Wilbur Flanagan filling the bill at guard.

Bullets Ahead in Series

When the Lions meet Hen Bream's Bullets in their den on Nov. 12, it is hoped that they don't fall dead, but go out and get their first win against the G-burg aggregation. The Bullets have taken six of the nine games since 1913 while being deadlocked three times.

This season so far, the Bream men have dropped only one game out of the six played. They romped over Lebanon Valley, 33 to 14, Western Md., 21-0, Drexel, 21-0, and squeezed by Muhlenberg 9-6, and trampled Johns Hopkins 56-6, while they swayed to Lehigh, 33-20.

Sachs Ace Passer

Leading the Gettysburg attack is 160 pound, five foot eleven, Ross Sachs, who last year threw 13 touchdown passes and completed 76 throws for 1,036 yards. Also shining in the G-burg backfield are track star Dwight Speaker, and speedsters Junie Griffiths and Tony Cervino, who was a leader in rushing last year.

In all, the Orange and Blue have an experience-packed club with Bob McCausland and Bob Court as the ends, Jim Lentz and Al Reese in the guard positions, Walt Kirker and Jack Gilligan sharing the center role, Don Young and Bob Musselman rounding out the halfbacks, and Moe Moore and Bill Thomson at the tackle spots.

Probable starting lineups for tomorrow's game with Scranton are:

Albright	Scranton
Koskultz	LE	Lebeda
Bird	LT	Belardi
Martone	LG	Flanagan
Lee	C	Horan
Lattanzio	RG	Applegate
Hydock	RT	Nealon
Potts	RE	Bolger
Harnly	QB	Sheridan
Krouse	LHB	Kru-lock
Tenley	RHB	Orsini
Rightmire	FB	Yourishin

Dr. F. Lee Terry Explains Fellowship House Purpose

The members of the Y met at the Reading Fellowship House last Tuesday evening, November 1. Dr. F. Lee Terry, the speaker for the evening, told the group what Fellowship House is and what it expects to accomplish. The group went to Fellowship House so that they could get an inside view of the inter-racial project which the Social Responsibility Commission has adopted for the current year.

Dr. Terry pointed out to the group the American social system as he sees it—the wealthy class, the middle class, foreign born, Jewish-Americans, Negro Americans, Oriental Americans, Spanish Americans and American Indians. He stated that the status of the last five groups is fixed and regardless of how much money one has, he still can get only to a certain point and then has to stop. However, in the first three groups one is able to move up and down in the social ladder as he chooses.

The main objective of the Fellowship House, according to Dr. Terry, is to prevent anyone from developing stereotyped thinking about one of the last five groups. Without this one may meet people as they are and for what they contribute to society, regardless of their color of skin, their creed or their background. He mentioned that Fellowship House is trying to accomplish this goal through a special program for the older people, through a children's program and through Fellowship Church, which meets in a Negro church, a Jewish synagogue and a Protestant church.

At the conclusion of his speech Dr. Terry and his wife answered questions about different racial problems. The group was conducted on a tour of the Fellowship House by Miss Ehrns.

Plans for the Y meetings during the next two weeks are indefinite.

Travel Booklet Published by NSA

A revised edition of "Study Travel Work Abroad," published by the U. S. National Student Association, will be available January 1950. Craig Wilson, N.S.A. Director of Publications, has announced. The 40-page booklet will outline student programs in more than 30 nations of the world, all of which will be open to American students during Summer, 1950.

Preparation of the 1950 edition will be in the hands of Erskine Childers, N.S.A. vice-president for international affairs. He plans to send more than 800 students abroad under NSA in 1950. Information on other travel agencies, air rates, Fulbright Act, legal problems, will be included in the forthcoming booklet. Orders are to be accepted by the Publications Bureau of NSA, 304 N. Park St., Madison 5, Wis.

More than 600 students went abroad in NSA programs and thousands were aided in selecting other foreign projects.

Dr. Geil to Address Patrons Division

The Patrons' Division of the Women's Auxiliary will hold its monthly meeting on Wednesday, November 9, in Union Hall. Mrs. Alvin Neuroth will preside as president of the organization.

The program will consist of a talk entitled "Discovering Potential Aptitudes" by Dr. Milton Geil. The general theme is arriving at a keener appreciation of the breadth of aptitudes one possesses and becoming aware of job opportunities in which one's particular aptitudes can be expressed more completely.

Campus Groups Schedule Meetings

K. T. X.

Meeting on Thursday, November 17, the Kappa Tau Chi pre-ministerial fraternity will hear a discussion of "Preparing for the Kingdom through Science."

A business meeting will follow. Discussion will center around the annual banquet, field trips and a campus project.

French Club

Le Cerle Francais held its monthly meeting recently in the Music Studio. Members who presented excerpts of the works of Victor Hugo were Lois Gehris, Jacquelyn Artz and Victor Yarnell. The group listened to records and saw a film strip which showed scenes from the life of Victor Hugo.

German Club

The monthly meeting of Der Deutsche Verein will be held in the Lower Social room on Thursday, November 10, at 8 o'clock. Warren F. Gish, German instructor at Reading High School, will speak on the topic "My 25 Years as a Teacher at R.H.S." He will discuss his joys and disappointments, amusing happenings, successes of former students and other items. President Arthur Lockner announced that a business meeting and group singing would follow.

Sigma Tau Delta

The home of Dr. and Mrs. John B. Douds will be the scene of the next meeting of Sigma Tau Delta, honorary English fraternity. The meeting is scheduled for Thursday, November 10. Invitations for membership have been issued to students qualifying for membership in the fraternity. They will be initiated at this time.

F. T. A.

Mr. Joseph G. Plank Jr., a member of the Reading High School English department, spoke to the Future Teachers of America last night about their relation to the R.H.S. Chapter of F.T.A.

Spanish Club

New members will display their Spanish talent at the next meeting of La Sociedad Cultural Espanola, Monday, November 7 at 4:10 p. m. in Selwyn Parlor. Marian McGinthen, president, explained that before the new members can be inducted, they must present something in Spanish.

Doris Chanin, treasurer of the fraternity, urges all pledges to pay her before November 10, their national and local dues. No pledge may be inducted until these fees have been paid.

Memming Relates Details of Summer Tour in Germany

Memming Relates Details of Summer Tour in Germany

Dr. Gerritt Memming spoke in chapel on Tuesday, November 1 about his trip to Germany last summer, relating travel experiences and telling about the Goethe festival.

He said reconstruction was in evidence in many German cities, but it was slow and people were fighting austerity. Prices are high and wages low. Bread cost one hour's wages; clothes, one month's. Germany is faced with unemployment problems and British competition. In spite of an efficient president and good leaders, the majority of Germans are disinterested in government.

The Goethe festival, held the last week in August, highlighted his visit. Albert Schweitzer and students and scholars from all parts of the world were present to celebrate the 200th anniversary of the birth of one of Germany's most brilliant writers and fighters for political rights and freedom.

Dr. Memming compared American and German schools. He said 14-year-old German school children were exposed to nine years of Latin, six years of Greek and three years of Hebrew plus extensive courses in English. Universities and schools are crowded, strictly disciplined, and hard to enter.

In conclusion Dr. Memming said that Germans truly appreciate what America has done for them. The Marshall plan lunches for school children and food and clothing packages from American churches and individuals have made life possible for many desolate Germans.

Opportunities Open for Government Jobs

The Social Security Administration offers a career in Government through the Junior Professional Assistant Examination announced recently by the U. S. Civil Service Commission.

Social science graduates may compete for appointment to responsible positions in Social Security Administration Field Offices by taking the Junior Professional Assistant-Social Science Analyst Examination. Senior students may apply for this examination, but applications must be filed not later than Tuesday, November 8.

Application forms are available from the U. S. Civil Service representative at the local post office or from Professor Donald S. Gates in Room 310, Administration Building. Interested persons should ask for the application card Form 5000-AB and a copy of the JPA Announcement No. 192, which explains all the details.

Belgian Congo Exhibit Contributed by Alumna

An exhibit of handiwork made by natives of the Belgian Congo, Africa was contributed by the Rev. and Mrs. C. J. Jump, missionaries, for display in the Alumni Memorial Library this week. Mrs. Jump, the former Margaret Savidge, is an alumna of Albright, class of 1941, and the sister-in-law of Frank Bird, president of the present senior class.

The exhibition includes Rain, Fertility, War and Sickness idols. The Sickness idol is a small antelope horn which was worn around the neck of the native to ward off disease. A canoe fetish of the Bayaka River People and a mask made by a 14 year old boy when taken into the tribe are on display.

Handmade pottery, a woven cloth, belt and coaster, candle holders made from ivory and jewelry, all of which were made by the Belgian Congo natives, are also being exhibited.

Another Bird Born

Congratulations to Esther and Frank Bird on the arrival of Frank Bird, the 3rd. The husky nine pound boy was born in the St. Joseph's Hospital on Tuesday morning, November 1. Essie and the baby are doing fine.

Home Ec. Club

Heo Club held a short meeting Thursday, November 3, to wrap presents for the World Christmas Festival. These presents will be sent overseas.

The regular meeting is scheduled for Monday, November 14.
