PRESIDENT'S RESIGNATION ACCEPT

The Albright College Board of Trustees meeting in Interim Session on the campus Friday accepted the resignation of Dr. Arthur L. Schultz, president for the past twelve years, who will assume a similar post at Ashland College, Ohio. The trustees also approved the idea of two student advisory members to the board, and announced the promotion in rank and tenure of faculty.

In acknowledging Dr. Schultz's 12 years of leadership as president of the college, the trustees commented on the expansion of physical plant, growth of fiscal resources and balanced budget, development of academic program and renewed interest by its constituencies as contributing to the college's stature as one of the finest among those affiliated with the United Methodist Church and the nation's small liberal arts college.

In resolution the board stated, "(we) hereby express our sincere appreciation to Dr. Schultz for his outstanding commitment and contribution to Albright College and congratulate him upon his new appointment, and assure him and his devoted wife Louise of our continued interest and well wishes for a most successful career."

Next the trustees moved to allow two student representatives, elected by the Student Union, to attend future meetings of the board as advisory members. These students have yet to be elected so drop a line to the Student Union and let them know who you think is best.

Concerning new additions to the campus hear this!! We now have a "parcel" of land at the northeast corner of Eleventh and Rockland St. (Beer off-campus maybe?)

For academic wonders the Trustees pulled these out of the hat: The Home Economics Dept. beginning with the class of '78, can have graduates in dietetics, foods and nutrition, and food industry and management. These students will be awarded a bachelor of science degree instead of the present bachelor of arts.

Congratulations go to the following faculty members as they advanced in rank: Dr. Daniel, biology to full professor; Dr. Birdsall, chemistry, Dr. Fahey, history, Dr. Meyers, sociology, and Dr. Moyer, economic to associate professor; and Dr. Jung, mathematics, Dr. Khan, home economic, and soon-to-be Dr. M. Androne, English, to assistant professor.

Given tenure by the board were: Drs. Birdsall and Jung; Dr. Cowan, home economics; Dr. Fuchs, education; Dr. R. Heller, biology; and Dr. Stillman, librarian. Elevated to emeriti faculty were Dr. Haskell, philosophy; Dr. Leinger, chemistry; Mrs. Sack, sociology; and Mrs. Jordan, Spanish.

Reporting on the "Years of Challenge" capital funds campaign and annual giving Mr. Finch (Director of Development) said that gifts from all private sources in the current annual giving year total $756,861.00 and that gifts and pledges to the campaign approach the $2.9 million mark.

In closing they disclosed the search is on: a presidential search committee was authorized by the president of the board which is to consist of 15 members, including eight trustees, three faculty members, two students, and two persons from the National Council of Alumni, Parents, and Friends. Good Luck to this group and to Dr. Schultz with his new position!

Weeks Enjoys Week

Mr. Wayne Weeks, General Manager of the Reading Western Electric Plant spent five days on the Albright campus observing and participating in the college experience.

Residing in North Hall, Mr. Weeks attended classes, student organizational meetings and faculty meetings to become better acquainted with college life. Playing the role of a student he became familiarized with the exact situation that a college student encounters when preparing for his or her future.

After a hard day of lectures, meetings, and of course study at the library, he would sit around the television set munching out on a treat from Piggers and giving students the benefit of his experience and wisdom. Mr. Weeks was well behaved during his stay in the dormitory and gave the Resident's Assistants no trouble. It should be noted that Mr.

Weeks refused to participate in a water fight.

Students were able to talk with Mr. Weeks on a personal level as he spoke of the importance of a college education, family life and the role of big business in today's society.

Mr. Weeks was impressed by the maturity and leadership quality of the students on campus. He felt that students had a great deal of responsibility for the school and that the radicalism of a few years ago is gone and each individual is planning his future to fit into society. He believes that the courses offered here give the students a realistic view of the business world. He is appreciative of having the opportunity to spend this past week on ALBRIGHT'S campus.

Pre-Sessions Trial Run

An experimental 3-week pre-session will be added to the 1977 summer program. Students will be able to schedule an additional 3-or 4- hour course during the June 1 through 17 session. Both day and evening courses will be available, with exact class days and hours to be determined by the instructor.

Noting a national trend to intensify summer programs, Dr. Samuel Shirk, Summer Sessions Director, and Paul Sable, Evening Division Director, anticipate advantages for both students and faculty. Albright students and those from other colleges can accelerate their academic work at the current $70 per credit hour.

Featuring a new botany course, the program will include mostly General Studies requirement type courses that lend themselves to the "crash" approach.

Albright Summer Sessions—Registration Mail or in person registration is available. In person registration is in the Registrar's Office, east entrance to the Library-Administration Building.

Courses may be cancelled by the college for insufficient enrollment. A student may normally schedule no more than 15 semester hours in any combination of day and evening classes in the three sessions.

Withdrawal from courses—Once registered, a student may officially withdraw without a penalty only through the proper procedure. Discontinuing class attendance is not considered an official withdrawal. Students are required to notify the Summer Sessions Office in person, letter, or by telephone call. The official date of withdrawal on which the office is notified of the student's decision to withdraw.

A grade of WD(withdrawn) will be given if the student withdraws no later than June 3, June 22, June 24 or July 20, depending upon the session attended. WF(Withdrawn Failing) will be assigned for a course from which the student withdraws after following proper procedure.

There is no penalty for official withdrawal before the appropriate deadline dates except that $10 of the charge, which is considered to be the registration fee, is not refundable. Other wise, no deductions or refund are made for absense or for withdrawal from courses.

Transfer of Credits Credits earned in Albright College Summer Sessions may be transferred to other institutions. Students may at the time of final registration, request this service by filling out a form indicating to which institution credits earned should be transferred.

Quality/Non-Quality Certain courses may be taken on a Q/NQ basis. Q work is defined as work minimally at a C-level Any course fulfilling an Albright General Studies requirement or being taken as an elective may be scheduled Q/NQ basis. A course fulfilling a concentration or related-field requirements may be taken only if the department involved grants permission, for its own concentrators to take courses on this basis. Grades on the Q/NQ option are not counted in the cumulative average; both Q and NQ designations, however, appear on the student's transcript.

1ST FOUR-WEEK SESSION

June 20 through July 16

Day ClassesSummer Treat

Berks County residents, as well as Albright students and summer conferences, will be treated to a novel summer theater experience, as outlined by Dr. Lynn S. Morrow, Albright's director of theater.

An original musical revue will be offered as dinner-theater in June.

A nucleus of experienced drama students will compose the acting family in the yet unnamed work based on a contemporary serio-comic version of the Book of Job. Opening in connection with the June 8th Women's Auxiliary Garden Party, the revue will be performed in connection with the traditional dinner served in the College Dining Hall. It will later in the month—and available for future bookings—be open to the public as well as to the summer conference groups.

NEWSBLURBS

Congrats to MJ Androne, English, whose dissertation has been accepted at the Univ. of Pa. She will receive her Ph.D on May 22 at their commencement exercises.

Recognition dinner for those who are retiring at the end of this academic year will be held on Wed., May 18th. A Social Hour starts at 5:45 PM and dinner begins at 6:45.

Alumni Day Festivities are this Saturday, May 7th. Say Hi to an old familiar face. Dr. Robert E. McBride will be featured as guest speaker for the 50+ club.

Congratulations to Deb Hallisey for being the first one on campus to buy an ACONS insurance policy. Hope it comes in handy, Deb.

Looney Toonz

Although I mentioned that REO Speedwagon was to be renewed this week I shelved it in favor of an article on the Flamin' Groovies. "What" you say. Yes, that's right, the Flamin' Groovies. No, despite the fruitcake name, the Groovies are one damn good rock and roll band.

To this date they still have only a cult following which is a shame since their best work may be behind them. Led by guitarist Cyril Jordan and lead singer Ron A Loney (catchy name) the Groovies cut a series of albums which are almost impossible to find these days. Starting with "Sneaders" and "Supersnazz" which contained ragged material they progressed to the monumental "Teenage Head" and "Flamingo", the former which has become a prized collectors' item. "Teenage Head" contains some of the best rock and roll to be found anywhere. For pure energy it even beats some to the early Stones albums. Choice cuts are "High Flyin' Baby," Randy Newmans "Have You Seen My Baby?", "Evil Hearted Ada" (a great Elvis take-off), and the rhythmic "Doctor Boogie."

This fine recording was marred by the lackadaisical production and lack of promotion by Kama Sutra, the Groovies' record company. Shortly after this economic failure, Ron A. Loney left the band and the rest of the guys transplanted to England. Here they took an entirely new direction, that of rock and roll revivalist. Going back to the Sound of the early Byrds, Beatles, the Who and the Stones, the Groovies achieved limited success in the 'islands where rock and roll revivals are always in vogue.

Switching to Sire Records they grabbed legendary producer Dave Edmunds (of "I Hear You Knocking"—Fame) who specializes in achieving the primal 60's sound. Out of this union came the current "Shake Some Action" album. Upon first listen the average listener will write it off as another Beatles rip-off. However, it just ain't true! Even though "Yes, It's True" sounds like a Beatles tune, it isn't really and you'll soon find yourself humming it when you least expect it.

All these tunes sound so fresh that they make all the MOR and disco dreck that comes out of the radio sound limp. Do yourself a favor and buy this record. You'll hear what real rock and roll is supposed to sound like and then maybe you'll realize how music has slipped and why nothing sounds like those old Stones and Beatles records anymore.

Incidentally, Kama Sutra has released "Still Shakin'", a re-issue of select cuts from "Teenage Head" and "Flamingo." It also contains a live side containing a definite version of "Louie, Louie."

Seniors Honored

Albright College seniors were honored Monday night by the college's National Council of Alumni, Parents, and Friends at a buffet dinner in the Campus Center Dining Hall. More than 190 members of the Class of 1977, faculty and administrators were in attendance.

The vice president of the National Council Terrence E. Connor, welcomed the graduates into their association. He charged them to be active alumni supportive of their college and concerned with its future.

Dr. Arthur Schultz, Albright's president, spoke to the class of its achievements, indicating that their success away from college reflects on the education and preparation they received as students. A slide presentation by the alumni office staff recalled a variety of events of the past for the class of '77. This along with wishes of Good Luck concluded the program. It's now onto bigger and better things!

Guest Conductor to Appear

The 40 piece concert Band, under guest conductor Henry A. Gass, will present its annual spring concert Sunday May 8th, in Memorial Chapel at 8 PM. Novelty numbers, dixieland, "pop" and concert selections and marches.

Among the featured compositions are selections from the rock opera Godspell; music by Lennon and McCartney; a new novel selection of "Little 'Bop' Riding Hood"; and other varied musical selections. The works of Otto Nicolai, Ralph Vaughan-Williams, and Franz Josef Haydn have been added to round the program out.

Guest Conductor Gass is now a practicing attorney in Reading. Before entering the legal profession he had extensive training and experience in professional music. He has earned his degrees in music from Columbia University. He will conduct the piece he composed "Casa Grande" while in Serving as chief arranger for the US Air Force Band. He will conduct a number of other pieces and Mr. Hinkle, Albright's Band Director will conclude the program by conducting his half. Free admission is granted to all Albright students and community. Hope to see you there!

Planning for Class of '81 Underway

Work on next year's Orientation program is underway. The theme of it will be 'FOCUS' and will reflect many different goals into just one aspect. Forty orientation leaders have been chosen and they will go through two training sessions this spring.

The period itself starts September 8 and continues until the beginning of classes on the 12th. The activities have been planned to try and achieve personal and peer group development with the hope of unifying the Class of 1981 from the beginning. These activities include the old reliables; scavenger hunt, activities fair, and faculty home visits; as well as, new ones being incorporated.

Phon-a-thon Pays OFF

Interested students participated in a phon-a-thon to contact all parents of Albright College students on Sunday, May 1st and Monday, May 2nd. "Why?" you ask. Do you remember hearing about a project that was being formulated in the Senate to renovate the Campus Center Sub. The project for a non-automated snack bar has been approved in theory by the College Trustees and is now being examined by the Finance Committee. Mr. Finch and Mr. Dodge both active with the Annual Fund campaign have stated that the Annual Parent Fund for 1977-78 will be dedicated to the student project for the renovation to the Sub.

This is when the idea of the phon-a-thon blossomed. Active students made an all out effort to contact all parents and raise a goal of $10,000. In the two nights approximately 30 students contacted 2/3 of the parents and raised $9,000 in pledges from the parents contacted. It looks like the non-automated snack-bar will be reality along with the renovations desired.

Greenberg Goes

Elected to the top two positions of next year's Resident Student Association are Michael Greenberg, president, and Bruce Wishnov, vice-president.

The two sophomores are presently planning to establish better communications among individual dormitory councils and to create a better atmosphere for resident students.

Good luck to the new administration and the outgoing president Robbie Pattison.

American College Theater

Seeks Playwright

Chicago, Ill. Two original plays on the Black experience in America, which at this moment may be drafts in a desk drawer or an idea in some student's mind, will receive the 2nd annual Lorraine Hansberry Award in the spring of 1978.

The award, funded by McDonald's Corporation, honors the memory of playwright Lorraine Hansberry the youngest author and the only black ever to receive the New York Drama Critics' Award for Best Play of the Year. That play was the now-classic 'A Raisin in the Sun.'

The plays entered are judge by the regional and national judges of the American College Theatre Festival, which every spring, brings to Washington the year's best student plays and productions. Some of the plays and authors are introduced at the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts.

The first-prize winner of the Hansberry Award will be presented by McDonald's with a check for $2,500 and the college that produces the play will get $750. The runner-up will get $1000 and the school will receive $500 toward the production of the play.

This year's award winner, Judi Ann Mason, a graduating senior at Grambling University in Grambling, L.A. will see her play produced by the Back Alley Players in Washington, D.C., on May 31.

To be eligible for the award, the play must be a regular entry in the Playwriting Award Program of the American College Theatre Festival, and meet all of the festival's rules and regulations. The playwrights must be full or part-time students enrolled in accredited graduate or undergraduate schools. However, a student may submit a play up to one year after graduation. The play must be an original, copyrighted work and has to be fully produced by a college or university.

The complete information and application forms can be obtained from the Producing Director, The American College Theatre Festival, John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts, Washington, D.C. 20566.

Concert Choir Sings

The Albright College Concert Choir under the direction of Roy Hinkle, conducted their Spring Tour Home Concert this past Sunday. The theme was "Music Celebrating Life through God." The program was arranged to include secular choral selections. This included a collection of some of the choir's finer pieces performed during their recent Concert Tour through Central Pennsylvania.

Some of the highlights of the evening: The theme of the Pink Panther arranged by Henry Mancini, A-Roving arranged by Norman Luboff, and MacArthur Park written by James Webb. Hope you got to hear this evening of good music!

Drum Major- Majorette Needed

The Albright College Marching Band is presently looking for a Drum Major or Majorette. It is necessary that the applicant possess some knowledge of music. However, formal knowledge of Drum Major/Majorette skills are not required since the band operates on a scatter march method. A letter of interest for the position should be placed in Campus Center Box 10 (Music Dept.) within the next week since a new uniform is being designed and measured now, for next year. If anyone has further questions about the position, they should get in contact with Mr. Hinkle whose office is located next to WXAC in the Campus Center.

Deutsch Spring Banquet

Guten Abend! Wie geht's? Hast du dein Gedicht? Such were the greetings that were heard at Lincoln's Restaurant on April 22nd as members of Albright's Beta Psi chapter of Delta Phi Alpha (the national honorary German Fraternity) met for their 36th annual Spring Banquet.

Few people know about Delta Phi Alpha, which is celebrating its 50th anniversary this year in America. The purpose of Delta Phi Alpha is to further the study of the German language, literature, and culture by the formal recognition of excellent German students. The Albright chapter was founded in 1942, and since then, over 300 qualified Albright students have been admitted to the organization. Students are selected on the basis of their excellence in German studies (at least 200 level) their interest in German culture, and overall academic record.

A further requirement of prospective members is to compose an original Frühlingsgedicht (spring poem) in German, which is to be read before the members and guests at the banquet. Prizes were awarded to Jörg Homberger and Jeffery Rigg for their exceptional poems.

The induction ceremony followed led by the faculty adviser, Dr. Luther Brossman. Dr. Donna Cowan was inducted as an honorary member in addition to eight new student members: Mark Albright, Jörg Homberger, Beverly Koch, Cathy Kalbach, Theodore Leininger, Jeffrey Rigg, David Snook, and Wendy Webber. Following the ceremony the officers for 1977-78 were elected: President-Ronald Setzkorn, Secretary-Barbara Brunner, Vice-President-Scott Fetterman and Treasurer-Dawn Felber.

The guest speaker, Frau Hildegard, from the Nomad Travel Service in Whitehall, introduced two excellent films, made by Lufthansa, on Bavaria and Austria. The good food and fellowship provided an enjoyable evening for all.

NATASHA CHMYREVA

The Russians Are Coming !

On Wednesday, May 11th the Albright College Field House will be invaded by the Soviet National Tennis Team. They will be confronted by the Boston Lobsters at 7 PM in the first Pennsylvania appearance of the Soviets.

The players to compete at Albright are some of the world's finest. The Soviets are headed up by Alex Metriveli, Olga Morozova and Natasha Chmyreva. Metriveli and Morozova have been past Wimbledon finalists. Chmyreva, who is only 18, may be the top junior player in the world.

The Lobsters will be sure to provide good competition for the Soviets with such top players as Roy Emerson and Tony Roche. Australian Roy Emerson, holds more major titles than any other player. The number one Romanian player, Virginia Ruzici, adds her talent to the Lobster team.

The Soviet general manager, John Korf, was quoted as saying, "The Soviets are really excited about coming to Reading for it gives them the opportunity not only to play in big cities, but to bring World Team Tennis action to people in smaller towns. The exciting style of World Team Tennis should have the Albright College Gym rocking with cheers and excitement all during the two and a half hour match."

The match is being sponsored by the Berks County Division of the American Heart Association. The proceeds will go to helping the Berks County AHA remain a chapter in 1977. Tickets can be obtained at the Athletic Office at the student rate of $5.00. If you've never seen professional team tennis in action, don't miss the great opportunity to see some of the world's finest!!

Spring Sports Continue Winning Ways

Albright College's spring sports teams continued their winning ways this past week by winning four of six contests in four sports. The men's tennis team led the way with two league victories over Juniata and Wilkes Colleges with identical 6-3 scores. The trio of soph Greg Westman and freshmen Ben Bucca and Mark Harri have been the big guns for the Lions, winning consistently after overcoming a slow start that saw the Lions drop their first matches of the season. Since breaking the losing streak the netters have gone 5-2 to post a 5-5 record overall and an impressive 4-1 mark.

The baseball team was impressive this week as they dealt the visiting Diplomats of F&M an 11-2 loss. Reading High grad John Fromuth was the spark for the Lions, driving the five of the Lions' runs. Freshman Bob Jims went the distance to pick up the wins for the Lions.

In golf, the Lions picked one victory and one loss in a triangular match. Wilkes College edged both the Lions and Juniata 407-411-411, the Lions winning against Juniata on a matching of cards. Soph. Doug Artz posted a low score of 75 for the Lions.

The women's softball team was dealt its first loss in its short history when the Golden Bears of Kutztown State downed them 7-4 at Albright.

Head Coach Robert Boucher of the softball team, who has the distinction of being the head coach for both new varsity sports at Albright this year (Soccer and softball), got off to a better start with his second team than he did with his first as the softball team routed visiting Allentown College 20-10. Kim Kehler keyed the Lion victory with a three run homer while Kim MacDonald also accounted for three RBI's.

The track team was idle this week. They'll finish their regular season schedule this coming Tuesday with a triangular meet in Gettysburg against the Bullets and Johns Hopkins. The MAC track championships will be held Saturday at Dickinson College.
