

Pastor to Speak At Lenten Service Of Combined 'Y's

The Rev. Carl Schneider, pastor of the Juniata Park Evangelical Church in Philadelphia, will speak tonight at the third Lenten service to be held in the College Chapel at 7:30 p.m. John Spindler is in charge of the worship service.

In 1936-37 Rev. Schneider attended the Theological Seminary of the Reformed Episcopal Church, and received the last two years of his

The Rev. Carl Schneider training at the Evangelical School of Theology, Reading. He was graduated in May, 1940.

At last week's Lenten service Rev. Q. Wallace Copper discussed the question, "Who Sent Jesus to the Cross?"

An hour of music will be held at the "Y" meeting on Tuesday, March 13. Marjorie Christ and Robert Holtzapfel are in charge of planning the program.

Bible Class
Lucy Smith lead the worship of Bible Class on Sunday, March 11, with Prof. Lewis E. Smith, teaching the lesson, "Jesus Teaches Forgiveness."

Go-to-Church
Because of the trolley strike, the Go-to-Church group postponed its visit to Zion Baptist Church, previously scheduled for February 25. The date set is Sunday, March 11, the group meeting in the "ad" building at 6:45 p.m. This visit will take the place of Sunday evening Vesper Service.

Midday Devotions
Leaders for midday devotions this week are: Warren Loesch, Tuesday, March 6; Marjorie Christ, Wednesday, March 7; Berwin Hainley, Thursday, March 8; Irene Fisher, Friday, March 9; Jane Teits, work, Monday, March 12.

Case, Cardin Speak in Chapel This Week With Homrighausen, Masters on Rostrum

Dr. Harold C. Case, pastor of the Elm Park Methodist Church, Scranton, will be the speaker in the chapel service to be held this Thursday morning, March 8, in the College Chapel at 10:00 a.m. As the first number of the Little "Culture Series," sponsored by Student Council, Fred Cardin, spoke in chapel this morning. A member of the music department of Reading High School, Mr. Cardin gave a talk on Indian culture and music, supplemented with records and instrumental music.

Dr. Homrighausen
Dr. E. G. Homrighausen, during the chapel program on March 1, gave an inspiring talk based on the visions of the prophet Isaiah, as found in the sixth chapter. Professor of Christian Education at Princeton University, Dr. Homrighausen stressed two aims which govern our lives, vision and vocation. He stated that too much of the former quality resulted in a visionary type of person. If vocation is over-stressed, a "pragmatic" personality is the result.

Dr. Homrighausen stated that a man becomes really aware of God when "he reaches the extremity of his own powers" and realizes that material things are not to be worshipped and coveted.

Stressing the three things that Isaiah saw, Dr. Homrighausen stated that all people must be able to see them in their true light. First, they must see God, "enthroned and transcendent." Second, they must be able to see themselves clearly as creatures of sin, who are forgiven by God. He stated that stealing, swearing, etc. should not be stressed as sins, but results of a sinful attitude. The third vision, the realization of the purpose of creation, cannot be achieved without the first two.

Masters Speaks
New plans for enlarging and

Joint Student Senate Holds First Meeting

"Open House" Date Set; Day Council Meets

The Women's Student Senate held its first meeting last Friday, March 2, in Dean Helen Cunliffe's office. It discussed a definite time and will be held April 21 at the also the problems and projects such a group can handle to benefit the women of Albright.

The Senate is composed of the dorm women's council advised by Dean Helen Cunliffe, and the day women's council supervised by Professor Anna Smith.

"Open House"
March 18 is the date set for "Open House" in the women's dormitory. It was announced at a meeting of the resident women held last Wednesday night, February 28. Ann deFarges is chairman of the invitation committee with Irene Fisher head of the entertainment committee and Mae Jean Picking of the reception committee. Prof. Lewis E. Smith, professor of political science, spoke to the women at the meeting on world politics. Refreshments were served.

Daywomen's Council
Anna Wartluft, newly elected president, had charge of the meeting of the Daywomen's Council, Thursday, March 1, held in the Lower Social Room, Selwyn Hall Annex. The following committee chairmen were appointed: Lucille Lott, publicity; Mildred Kaufmann, social; Mary Briner, property; Mary Elien Hill, bulletin board. After a talk by Professor Anna Smith, adviser, on the phases of student government, there was discussion on the participation in the Friday afternoon teas held in collaboration with the dormitory women.

Case, Cardin Speak in Chapel This Week With Homrighausen, Masters on Rostrum

Dr. Harold C. Case, pastor of the Elm Park Methodist Church, Scranton, will be the speaker in the chapel service to be held this Thursday morning, March 8, in the College Chapel at 10:00 a.m. As the first number of the Little "Culture Series," sponsored by Student Council, Fred Cardin, spoke in chapel this morning. A member of the music department of Reading High School, Mr. Cardin gave a talk on Indian culture and music, supplemented with records and instrumental music.

Dr. Homrighausen
Dr. E. G. Homrighausen, during the chapel program on March 1, gave an inspiring talk based on the visions of the prophet Isaiah, as found in the sixth chapter. Professor of Christian Education at Princeton University, Dr. Homrighausen stressed two aims which govern our lives, vision and vocation. He stated that too much of the former quality resulted in a visionary type of person. If vocation is over-stressed, a "pragmatic" personality is the result.

Dr. Homrighausen stated that a man becomes really aware of God when "he reaches the extremity of his own powers" and realizes that material things are not to be worshipped and coveted.

Stressing the three things that Isaiah saw, Dr. Homrighausen stated that all people must be able to see them in their true light. First, they must see God, "enthroned and transcendent." Second, they must be able to see themselves clearly as creatures of sin, who are forgiven by God. He stated that stealing, swearing, etc. should not be stressed as sins, but results of a sinful attitude. The third vision, the realization of the purpose of creation, cannot be achieved without the first two.

Masters Speaks
New plans for enlarging and

Must We March Even Into April?

Because of the second city-wide transit strike this year, Albright College has been in a state of isolation for more than one week. With classes proceeding as usual, daystudents have their transportation headaches as the share-the-ride plan is in full swing.

As the paper goes to press there was no sign of settlement and back to work for trolley and bus drivers. Campus driveways have taken on a pre-war appearance as some of the more fortunate daystudents have gotten extra gas coupons. Then, too, some daystudents and dorm students have taken to the healthful exercise of walking.

Evening meetings have been greatly curtailed because of the transportation difficulties, although most students managed to get to the Gettysburg basketball game last Saturday night. And since headquarters of the ALBRIGHTIAN is 20 blocks from the printer, publication has been late for the second straight week.

Students Choose Gable, Leinbach To Reign In May Day Coronation

Madeline Gable

Erma Leinbach

May Queen for the 1945 May Day festivities will be Madeline Gable, with Erma Leinbach as maid of honor. These selections were made as a result of a campus-wide election, conducted by the Student Activities Committee of Student Council. 130 votes were cast.

Miller Chairman
Sponsored by the Women's Athletic Association, the coronation will take place on May 12. Jeanne Miller Luckenbaugh serving as custodian of the crown.

Mrs. Gable is an English major and is currently doing her student

Next Culture Event March 15 to Feature Wellington Ezekiel, Noted American Basso

Wellington Ezekiel, American basso, will be the attraction in the next Cultural Series program to be held Thursday, March 15, in the College Chapel at 10:00 a.m. Mr. Ezekiel's program will include musical numbers of early French and German music and present day American concert songs and ballads.

Well known in the field of sacred music, Mr. Ezekiel has sung for many oratorio societies. This year will mark Mr. Ezekiel's fifth season for the New York Oratorio Society, where he will sing Bach's B Minor Mass.

Included in his college engagements for the year are Colgate University and University of Michigan. He will also make his third appearance with the Mendelsohn Society of Pittsburgh.

Born in Allentown, Mr. Ezekiel comes from a Pennsylvania Dutch family. He was educated in the Allentown schools and at Muhlenberg College. While in Allentown he was a member of the Bethlehem Bach Choir. His vocal instruction was received under Olaf Olsen, New York instructor.

After his appearance at Albright, he will give a recital at the First Evangelical Church, Market and Packer Streets, Wilkes-Barre.

Picking, Duncavage Head Jr.-Sr. Prom Committee

With the naming of the dance committees, work is being started on the traditional Junior-Senior Prom, sponsored jointly by the junior and senior classes. Mae Jean Picking is chairman of the senior prom committee, with Rita Duncavage heading the junior committee.

Miss Picking's committee, selected at a meeting of the senior class last Friday, March 2, consists of Ruth Plowfield, June Ruth, and Betty Claire Voeste. The junior committee includes: Marie Bonner, Margaret Hendricks, and Marian Latta.

Nominations for vice-president of the senior class were also made at its meeting. Nominees are Betty Claire Voeste and Allen Snyder. Voting will take place at the next class meeting.

Council to Hold Program To Orient Frosh Students

Student Council has decided to sponsor a modified freshmen orientation program for the second semester frosh. Plans were made at Council's meeting, last Thursday, March 1. The duration of the program will be three weeks. Frosh will be required to wear dinks and identification tags and will attend weekly meetings for instruction. At the end of the three weeks' period there will be a short induction ceremony to take place before the student body.

Agnes Snyder was appointed as Council's representative on the joint faculty-student chapel program committee. She replaced Anna Wartluft.

Home Ec Major

A home economic major, Miss Leinbach, maid of honor, is also student teaching at Northeast Junior High School this semester. President of the Women's Athletic Association, Miss Leinbach is active in varsity athletics and has played on the varsity hockey and basketball squads since her freshman year. She is also basketball leader, vice-president of the Heo Club, and a member of the Phi Beta Mu sorority.

Queen's Court

Members of the Queen's Court include: Christine Calpin, Ann deFarges, Charlotte Eck, Ruth Ritzman and Ruth Plowfield. No definite plans have been made as yet for the coronation ceremonies, but there will probably be the traditional May Pole dance by the junior women and rhythmic dancing by the underclasswomen.

Aviation Ground Course To Start Classes Mar. 7

Classes of the aviation ground school will begin this Thursday, March 7. The ground school course is given in preparation for private flying license. Classes are held Tuesday and Thursday of each week from 7 to 9 p.m.

Civil Air Regulations will be offered from March 8 to 27, followed by Servicing of Aircraft. Courses in meteorology and navigation will conclude the program. Four semester hours of college credit are given to qualified students.

Prof Harding to Conduct Junior Oratorical Contest

The annual Junior Oratorical Contest will be held on Thursday, March 15, in the College Chapel at 8:00 p.m. Aspiring orators will compete for first and second prizes of $10 and $5 respectively given by Charles S. Kelchner, former Albright professor. Interested students may apply to Professor Clyde Harding.

The Albrightian

THE ALBRIGHTIAN is published weekly during the school year by the students of Albright College, Reading, Pennsylvania.

MARY JANE WEBER Managing Editor
 BETTY CLAIRE VOESTE Business Manager
 FELICE EPSTEIN Associate Editor
 CATHERINE PHANTZ News Editor
 HAZEL CALDEN Feature Editor
 WILLIAM EBBERT Sports Editor

News
Kathleen Calaman	Virginia Hallacher	Eileen O'Neil
Edward Daniels	Verner Hertzog	Barbara Perfect
Doris Ferris	Lura Heverly	Ericka Setzkorn
Irene Fisher	Leroy Hertzog	Agnes Snyder
Jeanne Flickinger	Herbert Hyman	Robert Ziegler
	Celia Konczewski
Features
Alice Albright	Regina Jaglom	Marilyn Jacobson
Betty Bradley	Patricia Kramer	Mae Jean Picking
Walter Hayum	Marian Latta	June Plowfield
Sports
Jean Brogstrom	Kenneth Good	Shirley Sperans
Ann deFarges	Robert Kemp	Newell Wert
	James Hedglin
Business
Herbert Hyman	Henrietta Morrison	Mary Louise Schappell
Betty Jacobs		Lucy Smith

The editorial columns of this publication are open to criticism and communications at all times are to be taken as the opinions of the editors, unless otherwise indicated. No anonymous communications will be published although names of signed communications will be withheld at the writer's request.

Entered as second class matter, July 15, 1941, at the post office Reading, Pennsylvania, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Vol. 1 March 6, 1945 No. 17

Don't Have To Be 21

Since Albright is once again on the verge of election-time, we would like to urge all Albrightians to use their privilege of voting for campus-wide offices. Now that ballots are given out at the end of chapel programs, students have less work than ever in voting. Out of a total of more than 230 students, 130 voted in the recent May Queen election. This means that if there were only 190 in chapel last Thursday, deducting for absences, there were 60 students with ballots who did not use them. Voting is supposed to be an important part of the democratic process, even in college.

Press Praise

Last night's sports banquet proved to be one of Albright's outstanding social events of the season. With the many day-students and other guests, the dining hall was really crowded—as of old. But what we liked about it was that it gave Albrightians a chance to show their solidarity in honoring an outstanding basketball team. Having the banquet open to all students in an innovation this year. And we think it's a good idea. As our toast to the team, THE ALBRIGHTIAN wishes to add that it has tried to report accurately and fairly the games as they have been played, and we shall continue to support our team—win or lose—via the printed page.

Foul Ball — Strike Two!

With the trolley strike more than a week old, commuters to Albright are getting used to sharing rides or walking. And, although classes have proceeded on schedule, we feel that enough is enough. The strike has caused many students to curtail extra activities so that they may dash home as soon as a means of transportation appears. Of course, our inconveniences are small compared with those of many war workers. But we feel that going to college is helping the war effort too. So for the sake of all, students are interested in seeing the strike settled. But, in addition, we are interested in knowing what the strike is all about. Reading papers are especially vague on the point. Getting down to the cause of the evil is a difficult thing if no one knows what the evil is. Whoever is at fault, we hope that both strikers and transit company get a little American patriotism and settle their disagreements.

Let's Get Acquainted

Although Council was late in getting started, it has made plans for a small-scale orientation program for the second semester frosh. Since this is supposed to be on the constructive side, upperclassmen should not get the idea that they're going to see eight frosh in lineup antics. We feel that this "accelerated" program is a good thing, for it will help the upperclassmen to get to know the newcomers and will help them in turn to become acquainted with their new school. (See page 1 for complete details.)

The Inquiring Reporter

June is the month of brides, roses, and sheepskins, and June 3 is only 97 days away, seniors, so we ask: What do you think of an outdoor commencement?

Jeanne E. Miller, lab tech, '45: Definitely, yes. The commencement doesn't seem as effective off the campus.

Marilyn Jacobson, psych, '45: Since we do not have an auditorium of our own it will provide more of the Albrightian spirit.

Eleanor Schubert, homg ec, '45: Wonderful! Our campus is so beautiful. Commencement won't seem the same off campus.

Phyllis Abrams, soc., '45: Perfect! Especially since we have such a beautiful campus.

Helga Ancona, pre-med., '45: I think it would be very nice and very different.

Fred Clewett, pre-min., '45: Excellent in fact that would be a grand finish.

Betty Claire Voeste, lib. arts, '45: I can't imagine a better way to finish our college career—on our very own campus.

Ann deFarges, psych., '45: It would be grand. There are many lovely and appropriate spots for such an event on our campus.

An Ode To Jack Teger's Hat

Written by Helen Brown

I think that I shall never see
 A hat that can compare with thee—
 Thou landmark in the field of knowledge,
 Thou hat that went to Albright
 College.

Day after day thy owner were
 thee;
 Until his friends could not ignore
 thee.

You clung as brother unto brother,
 'Til none knew one without thee
 other.

Thou hat, that, I have heard it said,
 Hast nestled on Bill Shakespeare's head,
 Didst whisper in his ancient ear
 Those "jokes" to wring from stone to tear?

Thou hast, tho' venerable thou art,
 No respect, a callous heart—
 To cover up and rudely hide
 That golden head of hair inside.

Apart from that we love thee true,
 Although you spoil that heavenly view,
 We'll miss you more when you depart

These lofty halls of liberal art.

Oh may thy memory never perish,
 Thou hat, that we have learned to cherish.

Poems are made by fools like me,
 But none could quite compare with thee.

"Where, oh where is sweet little Eleanor?" asks Bandy as he seeks the guest of honor for the week, Eleanor Schubert. He knows that Eleanor can be at one of many places—a busy miss is she.

A home economics major, Eleanor can be found in the sewing or cooking labs taking courses or helping out as lab assistant. Then, too, last semester she spent most of her time helping to manage practice house. And this semester she is practice teaching in home ec.

But there is more between Eleanor and home ec. She's prexy of the Heo Club. And that Navy fiancé of hers will be glad that she knows a lot about the culinary art.

Try the Phi Beta Mu sorority meeting, if you're looking for Eleanor, for she is vice-president of that sisterhood. Another of her positions is secretary of the senior class.

But, wait, that's not all. Eleanor used to spend part of her time in THE ALBRIGHTIAN office, for she was news editor of the paper for the first semester. She is manager for the women's varsity basketball team, too.

Campus Carrousel

Under the heading "GOOD SPORTSMANSHIP" it is the opinion of this reporter that the Allentown newspapers have done enough to encourage their coach and team. Certainly, team spirit is appreciated everywhere. There is, however, no justifiable reason for continued bickering over their defeats. We didn't hear our Coach Harris complain when Albright lost its game in Allentown, and he DID have several excellent, solid excuses for his team at that time . . . IN THE WORK AND FIGHT DEPARTMENT: It was encouraging to see that almost the entire men's dormitory was willing to operate trolleys to deliver a petition to the car-barn with the names of the trolley "men". Nice going, Bob. How about becoming a union leader? . . . STARS ON PARADE; Professor Horn has joined the ranks of the "living" again, to the joy of every Bio student . . . Barbara Iearshall has joined the dormitory in Selwyn Hall as a permanent member (You'll be sorry) . . . Warren Pfost is haunting Reading with the slogan: Does your movie look different lately? . . . Mr. Soft Ball and Mr. Hard Ball have already started to go in and out of windows freely. Their arrival was welcomed on the campus with a bang . . . For those who have not known it yet: Thomas Price IS definitely back on campus again. How could anyone overlook him? Sergio Cuevas is missing a sports jacket lately! Will the finder please return same to him eventually? Or wasn't it lost? . . . Jim Hodglin, commonly known as the "Gnat" is healthy and happy once more . . . Calling all cars! Be a lookout for Mr. Memming Jr., local explorer . . . And now, and with heaps of smiles, this is your loyal reporter hoping for your sake and his that the trolleys are working again, Sunday, Monday or . . . ?

"A chick, chick here, a chick, chick there, a chick, chick everywhere"—this is the phrase which explains the situation confronting the half dozen embryology students.

For the first few labs—eggs (the edible variety) seem to be consuming hours of attentive study with both the human eye and the microscopic lens. Under the guidance of Prof. Marcus H. (for those who always were curious about that "H"—Herbert is the correct name) Green, this group of biologists is searching for the many, many parts which most "egg eaters" never realize exist in that four inch ellipse.

One student (a future bride at that) showed up one morning with a brad-bolled egg for the "runny" transparent type; while another (male this time) brought forth a badly flattened egg resembling mashed potatoes. (Looks may be deceiving, but those eggs certainly weren't—could be that the scientists need a course in "boiling eggs"). This advanced course offered to pre-meds and lab techs requires night classes in addition to those from eight to four-thirty (see what you liberal arts students are missing?). Thus, every Monday evening—seven to nine—these few embryologists go into session for another study of the complexity of life.

Shading sticks and colored pencils of all sizes and descriptions ranging from the short, squat type to the long, slim style are constantly in use when drawings are to be made. These scientific masterpieces become so involved to some students' minds that it has even been reported that nightmares and dreams about such microscopic monsters have resulted.

Nevertheless, this group of six seniors "digs in" to the work with so much enthusiasm that the race is on to see how much can "accurately" be accomplished in as short time as possible.

CALENDAR

- Tuesday, March 6
 7:30 p.m.—"Y" Lenten Service of Worship.
- Wednesday, March 7
 1:00 p.m.—THE ALBRIGHTIAN Staff
 7:30 p.m.—W.A.A.
 7:30 p.m.—Skull & Bones
- Thursday, March 8
 10:10 a.m.—Crane—Dr. Harold C. Case, Speaker
 Pastor, Elm Park Methodist Church, Scranton
 12:45 p.m.—Freshman Class Meeting — College Chapel
 3:30 p.m.—Women's Glee Club
 4:30 p.m.—Student Council
 7:30 p.m.—Kappa Tau Chi
- Friday, March 9
 4:30 p.m.—Debate with Gettysburg—College Chapel
 7:30 p.m.—Women's Basketball with Moravian—Home
- Sunday, March 11
 8:45 a.m.—Bible Class — College Chapel
 6:45 p.m.—"Go-to-Church" at Zion Baptist — Meet in Administration Building
- Monday, March 12
 3:30 p.m.—Orchestra Rehearsal
 4:30 p.m.—Band Rehearsal
- Tuesday, March 13
 7:30 p.m.—"Y"—An Hour of Music

Polishin' The Paddles

If you see any queer creature wandering over campus, don't become frightened or blame it on hte spring weather. The truth is that it's pledging time for the sororities and fraternities.

For the sisterhoods, the pledges have already been inducted and will begin their kollege kapers any day now. So queer hats, hair-do's, and costumes are the order of hte day.

Fraternity bids were coming out as the paper went to press. Better beware. There will be some antics on the male side too. In preparation for the big event, several fraternities held parties for prospective pledges. But, speaking from experience, they're just fattening the pledges up for the kill . . .

On guard, everybody, it's here again: RUSHING TIME.

Home E melet

In case you've heard the new grace of the sophomore home ec girls, don't worry about it—this is Good Posture Week for them. Each girl put her name in a hat and drew another name which is being kept secret. Each one observes the sitting, standing, and walking posture of the girl whose name she draws, and then, at the end of the week, makes helpful suggestions for improvement. Sounds like a good idea!! Careful, girls, you never know who's looking!

Spring Styles

The new Parisian silhouette calls for a very tiny waistline obtained, if necessary, by tight corseting of the type great-great-grandmother used to wear. You can be sure the women of Albright will never bow to that requirement—we're much too comfortable.

Matter?

Inside out or upside down, it's all the same to Minna. She was putting a skirt together and got the right pieces in the wrong positions. And when someone called her attention to it, she asked, "Does it matter?"

Students Plan

The students of the sewing department have been invited to plan a program for the Women's Patron's Division for April 18. The girls are choosing the theme and are beginning to work on their plans.

In her spare time, Elaine Kyle may be seen in the sewing lab, making many of the smart outfits she wears. Someday she'll be one of our leading dress designers, we predict.

Pin Shortage

All sorts of shortages are being blamed on the war. Other years Miss Elder always kept the pin cushion on her desk well supplied with pins the girls dropped on the floor. This year they've had to look too long and too hard for good pins, so they appreciate this simple tool and treat it with respect. The poor cushion on the desk is quite bare. C'est La guerre!

CLUB RELEASES

Debate Squad

Another debate on the compulsory military question will be held Friday, March 8, in the College Chapel at 4:30 p.m. This time the opposing team hails from Gettysburg. The debate is again part of the public speaking class, and those who will uphold the negative side of the question for Albright are Celia Konczewski and Henrietta Morrison.

The debate between Albright's regular debating team and Moravian College has been postponed. As yet, another date has not been set.

K. T. X.

At a meeting of the Kappa Tau Chi, this Thursday night, new members will be inducted. The meeting will be held in Selwyn Hall Annex at 7:30 p.m.

I. R. C.

The meeting of the International Relations Club, scheduled for last Thursday night was indefinitely postponed. At the meeting there will be a faculty-student discussion panel on current events.

FOR CONVENIENT RELIABILITY BETTER SERVICE BUY AT BOYER'S DRUG STORE
Thirteenth and Amity
"DRUGS THAT ARE"
VISIT OUR FOUNTAIN
All the Other Students Do!

Men's Military, Work and Sportswear
JASLOW'S
READING'S ORIGINAL
ARMY-NAVY STORE
In Reading, Pa., 817 PENN ST.
In Chambersburg, Pa.,
123 SOUTH MAIN STREET

"The Sportsman's Store"
Nucleus
Cor. Ninth and Penn Streets
★
Headquarters for
ATHLETIC SUPPLIES
★
Special Service for Schools and Colleges • Phone 4-2288

LIONS IN THE BANKS

Dear Albrightians-in-Service:

I hope this stack of letters prove to be as interesting as they look. Who has been on campus this week? ENSIGN GERALDINE BOWKER of Washington, D.C.; PVT. MARIAN CHRIST of Fort Wayne, Va.; and RAMONA HILTERBRICK S 1/c, who is stationed at Arlington Farms, Va. She attended Albright in '41-42. Also here were SEAMAN RICHARD HEBERLING who was a fresh last year; PVT THOMAS CLARKE; PVT. AARON TAUB; LT. RICHARD GABLE, who returned this week from England where he piloted a bomber over Germany. He is married to Madeline Haag. LT. (jg) ADA GOSSLER was seen at the Phi Delta Sigma pledge service.

From LT. OLIN R. SHIREY comes a V-Mail that said he met LT. FRANCIS FLETCHER, who is stationed a few miles away. Olin said, "It's a great life, for dogs. Sure wish I was back eating some of Albright's 'terrible' food." It wasn't so bad today. Olin, we had steak and onions, but don't worry, we will be having mystery balls, meat balls, and stew for the rest of the month.

LT. (jg) JOHN T. DEININGER MC, USNR; AROU No. 1; c/o FPO, San Francisco, Cal., writes from the Admiralty Islands, Southwest Pacific. He says that he hasn't met any Albrightians since he has been overseas, April 1944. Any of you nearby? He is attached to the Naval Aviation Repairs Unit. He and another doctor take care of the medical needs of the men. He met JACK GUNLACH last year in Rhode Island. John was in the class of '35.

1st LT. GUS COHEN; 593 SAW Bn; APO 374, c/o PM, New York is in Scotland attending school at an RAF base. He has visited Edinburgh, Glasgow, and London. When his course is over, Gus expects to go back to the continent.

A letter from S/SGT. GEORGE MORFOGEN said that he and 1st LT. "PLUG" ESHELMANN had run into each other. I'm glad you two got together.

We got a change of address for PFC. JAY WILLIAMS 38642080; 3139 Signal Mtr. MS Gn Co.; APO 687; c/o PM; New York. Jay, you have the same APO number as SGT. PAUL A. KIMMEL 13173776; G-2, Hq.-ETOUS A; APO 887; New York. I hope you two are somewhere near each other and can get together. LT. DICK GABLE said that he and Kimmel were with each other in Paris. Wow!

PFC. PAUL S. CARLS 13178209; Co. E 335th Inf. APO 84; c/o PM; New York wrote from somewhere in Europe that he was billeted with a very nice family. The "Mama" bakes five or six apple pies daily for the squad. He said, "I can't decide which is rougher — Prof. Green's zoology lab or war." I don't know.

Here is another change of address: CAPT. R. W. SEELY USMC. Ass't Operations and Training Officer; 9th Marine Air Wing; Cherry Point, N.C. He said that he got the list of addresses on February 16. The postmark was September 16, 1944. He said that it was water-marked and that part of it was rotted off.

PFC. JOHN W. F. FROMM; Co. C. 32nd Repl. Draft; 1st Marine Division T.M.F.; c/o FPO, San Francisco, Cal., wrote to say that he got his Christmas card. I'm glad so many of you have written to say that you enjoyed the greeting. It helps all of us feel that we are doing something worthwhile.

CAPT. WILLARD G. BOLLINGER Co. F. 381st Inf.; APO 86 c/o PM, San Francisco, writes that he is commanding officer of a front line infantry rifle battalion in the 66th Division. On Oct. 20, he was in the first wave among the first troops to set foot on the Philippines. "I dodged about all the Japs could offer, having many close calls. My luck held out until Nov. 8, when I was slightly wounded. Luckily, it didn't require hospitalization, just minor first aid treatment." He returned immediately to the front and has been there ever since.

ENSIGN CHARLES MIESSE wrote to say that he, PFC. WINFIELD MORGAN, and AL COMSTOCK were planning to get together last week. Charlie celebrated the Muhlenberg victory with ENSIGN POLLY WALLS.

C. LINDSAY MARTIN, Ph. M. 1/c. CHANGE OF ADDRESS:
USNR

Lawrence Unit
U.S. Naval Hospital
Great Lakes, Ill.
PVT. HENRY L. CONN 966508
M.W.S.S. 2
M.C.A.D. Miramar
San Diego, Calif.
PVT. RICHARD C. MOYER
3534142
Co. B. 2nd Bn. ASFPD
Camp Beale, Calif.

LT. D. W. BOLLMAN USNR
AATD BO Q
Port Hueneme, Calif.

LT. WILLIAM V. BOTTONARI
020958

V.M.F.—214 M.C.A.S.
Goleta, Calif.

LT. ELDEN SPANGLER
244 California St.
San Francisco 11, Calif.
A. S. STERLING RICHENBACH
SAAB
Santa Ana, Calif.

PVT. CARL KERN 33618040
739 MP Bn
Camp Haan, Calif.

LT. (JG) R. GIAMOTTI USNR
Bos 93
VR-11 Navigation c/o FPO
San Francisco, Calif.

CPL. SAMUEL S. SEHL 3336039
727 Sig. AW Co.
APO 235 c/o PM
San Francisco, Calif.

LT. M. H. HOLLINGER USNR
NAS Navy No. 24 c/o FPO
San Francisco, Calif.

CHAPLAIN GEORGE ARTHUR
WRIGHT USN
USS Yorktown c/o FPO
San Francisco, Calif.

ENSIGN WALTER H. HAUSER
USNR

Ward No. 19 U.S. Naval Hospital
Navy No. 10, c/o FPO
San Francisco, Calif.

JOHN SPANGLER SMITH
Navy 919 c/o FPO
San Francisco, Calif.

1st LT. THEODORE KOBRIN
0649368

Hq. 8th Fighter Group
APO 321 c/o PM
San Francisco, Calif.

LT. JOSEPH R. ZEOCK O-777397
467th Bomb Group, 871st Sq.
APO 17177 c/o PM
San Francisco, Calif.

ALLEN R. DE LONG AMM o/c
AROU—2 c/o FPO
San Francisco, Calif.

LT. (JG) DONALD G. SANDS
USNR

VDT No. 19 c/o FPO
APO 321 c/o PM
San Francisco, Calif.

LT. (JG) THEODORE R. MURY
USNR

USS Daniel T. Griffin
AFD 38 c/o FPO
San Francisco, Calif.

CAPT. E. R. WEAVER O-41063
475th Fighter Grp. 431st F. Sqdn.
APO 72 c/o PM
San Francisco, Calif.

PVT. CHARLES H. MENSCH
32837617

Troop C 121 Cav. Rcn. Sqn.
APO 738 c/o PM
New York

ENSIGN WALTER DUNCAVAGE
USS BRANWELL c/o FPO
San Francisco, Calif.

CPL. EVERETT WILSON 33490620
533 Ambulance Co.
APO 18259 c/o PM
New York

1st LT. DENNIS J. ERTEL
O-1288721

C. G. 346th Inf.
APO 448 c/o PM
New York

PVT. RALPH TOBERMAN
176 General Hospital
APO 17172 c/o PM
New York

PVT. ROBERT MARKEL
Co. C 377 Inf.
APO 85 c/o PM
New York

READING CLOTHING Mfg. Co.

500 North 3rd Street

Reading, Penna.

Do you have a brother, sister or friend in the service?
Why not send them an attractive patriotic package of Reading's delicious BUTTER PRETZELS?

★
Phone 4-2281 . . . We'll do the rest

★
QUINLAN'S PRETZEL CO.

READING, PENNA.

Win-Happy Lions Get Set For Crack at Garden Tournament

Lions Take E-town For Win Number 18 With Tally of 85-45

Rolling up their highest score since 1930-1931, the Albright College team won its eighteenth game of the season by completely outclassing Elizabethtown, 85-45. The contest was played on the E-town floor last Wednesday night, February 26.

The entire squad of eleven men saw action. The game was never in doubt, as Albright jumped to a 21-8 first quarter lead, and held a 24-19 half time bulge.

Guided by "Cookie" Wagner with 19 points, Forrest Saylor with 12 points, and Jimmie Braun with 11 points, the boys dumped in a record 31 points in the third period to take a 65-32 lead.

As usual, Elizabethtown's only threat was Guy Buch, sensational one-handed shot who now scored 338 points in 14 games. At North-west he made 24 of his team's 37 points, and last Wednesday he made 33 of their 45 points.

ALBRIGHT
	G.	F. P.
Landis, f.	4	0 8
Deach	1	4 6
Procko	0	0 0
Euxton	4	0 8
Wagner, f.	9	1 19
Braun, c.	5	1 11
Pullis	2	0 4
Saylor, g.	6	0 12
Ervin, g.	3	1 7
Seifert	3	2 8
Harting	1	0 2
Totals	38	9 85

ELIZABETHTOWN
	G.	F. P.
Buch, f.	15	5 35
Meyers, f.	1	0 2
Hershey	0	0 0
Whitacre, c.	4	0 8
Bucher, c.	0	0 0
Markey, g.	0	0 0
Lefever	0	0 0
Totals	20	5 45

Cagers Receive "A" At Sports Banquet

Fourteen Roaring Lions received their varsity sweaters and letters at a sports banquet in their honor held in the College Dining Hall last night. Josh Cody, coach of the Temple University squad, was the speaker of the evening.

Students, faculty members and wives, basketball players and their parents were guests of the college at the banquet. Neal O. Harris, Albright coach, arranged the program.

Players receiving letters are: Bob Deach, Bill Landis, Bill Wagner, Jimmy Braun, Jesse Ervin, Forrest Saylor, Frank Seifert, Hampton Pullis, Bill Harting, Bohdan Procko, and Bob Buxton. Former Lions now in the armed forces are Ray Chelius, Stew Beyerle, and Bill Miller.

A.C. Seeks Fame In Bigtime Court

Ever since the Lion win over Muhlenberg, speculations have been running at fever pitch about the possibilities of an Albright bid to the Invitation Basketball Tournament to be held in Madison Square Garden, starting March 17. Now that the season is over, the Lions will have a definite "yes or no" any day. At presstime hopes were at a peak as students noted especially the cheerful appearance of Coach Neal O. Harris. We're not promising anything, but don't we didn't warn you

By William Ebbert

Last Saturday night, Albright's V-team rang down the curtain on the most successful basketball season in the history of Albright College. The team was successful in more ways than one. First, credit must be given to Coach Harris, who took what local material he could find and made with it a team that defeated every opponent it met. Second, a lot of praise must be handed to the boys who were out on the basketball court night after night to learn basketball. Few people realize what a tough grind those practice periods were.

Just as a matter of records, the season's percentage was .950, representing 19 wins and one loss. The boys scored 1122 points during the season against 792 for their opponents. This means an average of 56.1 points per game, compared with 39.6 for their opponents or a 16.5 point margin.

Note: During the past weeks, Jesse Ervin has passed his physical for the merchant marine and will be leaving within the next three weeks.

Thought for the future: Looks like the coach will have to start almost from scratch for next year's cage team. We wonder what would happen if he could keep a team in tact for more than a year. We're not complaining, of course.

Side Lions

According to one Alf Deach, Robert (Alfy) Deach is the best basketball player in the eastern United States and Canada. . . The trolley strike should put all day students into good condition for the coming spring P.T. courses. . . There should also be a method similar to frosh orientation to teach upperclamen the cheers—they always yell "fight, team, fight" instead of "team, team, team." Tommy Gomez, as been reported wounded in Germany. . . Tommy was an air cadet stationed at Albright last year, known for his boxing ability. . . As the paper went to press Temple, Penn State, Muhlenberg, and Albright were the four Pennsylvania teams being considered for a bid to the Invitation Tournament at Madison Square Garden on March 17.

Albright Terminates Big Season With 61-41 Win Over G-Burg Five

Attaining the most successful basketball season in Albright history, the Lion cagers brought the 1944-45 campaign to a close by easily defeating the Gettysburg Bullets, 61-41. It was the last home game, played Saturday night, March 3.

During the course of the game, Bill Landis received the most valuable player award.

Dandy Landy

Albright's Bill Landis received his share of honors for his work as forward on the Lion cage squad by being awarded the Ron Regar trophy for the most valuable Lion on the 1944-45 team. Picked by Reading cage officials and sports writers, Tiny was given the trophy at the Gettysburg game last Saturday night by Jack Flowers, prominent official. Last year's winner, John Durko, was on hand for the presentation.

Main cog in the Albright victory wheel, Bill Landis also was given recognition for his courtmanship by being named to the second team of All-state cagers, polled by sports writers of Pennsylvania. Landis, narrowly edged out of a first team position by Bob Williams of Bucknell, has a total of 269 points for the season.

Albright's "Cookie" Wagner, first string forwards was given an honorable mention. He has totaled 163 points for the season so far, a veteran of one year's varsity experience.

Named to the first team was Muhlenberg's wonder man, Oscar "Red" Baldwin, who has a total of 337 points for the season and has set a new Mule scoring record. Baldwin, a Navy V-12 man from London, Kentucky, attended Union College before his entrance in the Navy. Also on the honorable mention list is Luke Ludwig, Kutztown's star man.

first, with accurate shooting by the Lions bringing the first quarter score to 10-2. Billy March accounted for the lone G-burg point. In the second period, both teams continued a slow pace, missing many long shots. The Bullets could not sink the long ones that almost gave them a former victory on their own court.

In the final quarter, both teams began rolling up the score as Tiny Landis, Jimmy Braun, and Jess Ervin began dropping them ni from all angles. Landis showed his appreciation for the trophy by sinking ten field goals to take high scoring honors.

ALBRIGHT
	G.	F. P.
Landis, f.	10	0 20
Wagner, f.	2	2 6
Procko	0	0 0
Harting	0	0 0
Pullis	0	0 0
Braun, c.	5	1 11
Saylor, g.	3	0 6
Ervin, g.	5	1 11
Dexon	0	1 1
Deach	0	2 2
Seifert	2	0 4
Totals	27	7 61

GETTYSBURG
	G.	F. P.
Moore, f.	3	0 6
Andrews, f.	1	0 2
Shepherd, c.	5	1 11
Martin, g.	3	3 9
March, g.	5	1 11
Tegg	1	0 2
Totals	18	5 41

Fouled committed: Albright, 10; G-burg, 15. Referees: Ziegenfuss, Sherman.

Meet the Coaches, Mrs. Mosser

"Which one is the coach?" That's the question that visiting teams ask the women's varsities of Albright. How true that one can seldom distinguish Coach Eva Mosser from her players. Dainty and vivacious, Mrs. Mosser is the woman whom one can recognize at the faculty dinner table by her radiant smile, her colorful sweaters, and "bobby socks."

In spite of her youthful appearance, Mrs. "M." is an old hand at the game—any game. She has a world of ability and it is her ingenuity and patience which makes her teams work smoothly. In addition, she encourages good sportsmanship and teamwork at all times.

If you see her with that certain gleam in her eye, you'll know that it's either hockey or basketball time. Not only does she take pains

Grunt and groan—that's what it sounds like on the morning after, for the Albright lassies, under Mrs. Mosser's influence, are encouraged to keep trim with many different kinds of exercises. Graceful and talented, she participates in all these activities along with her students.

Well known in the County, Mrs. Mosser is president of the Reading Basketball Clinic and is a referee for county high school cage games.

So take a bow, Mrs. Mosser—gracefully.

TRY OUR DELICIOUS Sandwiches MOSER'S LUNCH ROOM Where All Students Meet

WM. G. HINZ, Inc. Your Stationery Since 1883 FINE STATIONERY Books • Games • Gifts Greeting Cards • Wallets Fountain Pens • Bibles Accounting Forms 838-840 PENN STREET

MANSION BOWLING CENTRE and LUNCHEONETTE Latest in BOWLING EQUIPMENT Air Cooled and Air Conditioned "THE BEST IN BOWLING" Meet your college chums at the MANSION

MAJORING IN SPORTSWEAR the Kins store corner 5th and Penn

Sports Ala Femme... With a batting average of .750 the Albright lassies gained their third intercollegiate cage win by defeating the Drexel Institute six, 28-16, last Tuesday afternoon, February 27. The game was played on the home court. Ginny Woerle again sparked the Lions' attack with a total of 13 points.

DREXEL
	G.	F. P.
Eberson, f.	3	0 6
Schultz	0	1 1
MacMullen, f.	1	1 3
Schindler, f.	3	0 6
Totals	7	2 16

ALBRIGHT
	G.	F. P.
Woerle, f.	6	1 13
Eschwei, f.	2	2 8
Sperans	0	0 0
Carter	0	0 0
Bonner, f.	1	1 3
Flickinger	1	4 8
Totals	10	8 28

Drexel guards: Barron, Engle, Friedel, Baldwin—Albright guards: Schwartz, Borgstrom, Leinbach. Fouls committed—Drexel, 13; Albright, 6. Moore and Metcalf.

You'll Meet Your Friends at the Crystal! ... after the game! ... after the show! ... after everything! CRYSTAL RESTAURANT 887-47 PENN STREET — On the "SQUARE" Since 1911

KEYSTONE MEAT MARKET READING, PA.

Use Ticket Books and Help Speed Up Service Ticket books are sold at the General Office, 12 South Fifth Street, and at the Inspector's Booth, northwest corner of Fifth and Penn Streets. READING STREET RAILWAY COMPANY

Reading's Smart at Shop for Men London Shop 540 PENN SQUARE Morris Goodman