THE ALBRIGHTIAN Serving Albright College Since 1904

READING, PA., MARCH 12, 1954

Vol. L

Council To Vote On Nominations For Presidency

On Tuesday, at the last meeting of the student council, it was announced that at the next meeting the group will vote on nominees for officers of next year's council. Due to the Lenten season, danc-

Due to the Lenten season, danc-ing has been discontinued at the social hour in the lower social room each evening. If anyone has suggestions for other recreation at this time they are urged to tell the committee.

Donald Van Liew, who is in charge of the council committee for limiting one-hour examinations in one day, stated that the com-mittee had met with the faculty and that here are used when the faculty and that plans are now under consideration

The "Meals for Millions" cam-The "Meals for Millions" cam-paign has been scheduled for the second week in April, it was an-nounced by Claire Speidel, chair-man. A proposal was made at Tuesday's meeting that council re-quest the installation of a water cooler in the science hall.

No answer has yet been received from the registrar's office regard-ing council's request to tell stu-dents the number of chapel cuts they have when the students make they have wh this request.

Robert Bowers was appointed parliamentarian at the meeting.

Film To Be Shown Film To Be Shown The film production of John Steinbeck's immortal "Of Mice and Men" will be presented to the student body on Friday evening, March 19, at 8:00 p.m. in the Science Hall. Tickets will be on sale next Thurs-day and Friday. Admission price is twenty-five cents.

Y Candidates To Be Chosen

Nominations for president of the YWCA and YMCA will take place at the Y meeting next Tuesday, March 16 in the lower social room at 7:30 p. m. Two candidates for each office will then be submitted on the all-campus ballot to be voted upon in April. Last Tuesday a mock fashion show was presented by a group of students. Participating were Terry Szalay, Nancy Cachin, Cynthia Winner, Lois Anderson, Frances Wolf, Robert Fox, Oscar Benson, Allen Lentz and James Rogers. The "Pause that Refreshes" is the theme for the Y evening of March 23 when refreshments will be served and games played for students stopping in at Krause Hall during the evening, between studying for mid-semester exams.

Name Committees

For Senior Dance

favored setback First Annual 'Church Day' Planned For Students, Pastors On April 13

The first annual "Church Day" to be sponsored by the college is scheduled to take place on Saturday, April 3, according to Rev. Paul Price, director of church relationships and general chairman Pledgeship Period for the event.

The program is designed to acquaint prospective students with Applicants for the pointer as business manager are also being accepted by Herbert Mackler, pres-ent business manager. Those inter-ested please contact Mackler at the earliest possible date. the background and activities of Albright and to give them an opportunity to visit the college with their ministers. Announcements have been forwarded to all EUB pastors.

have been forwarded to all ECB pastors. A tentative program has been set up by the committee in charge of the "Church Day" program. It will include: registration in charge of present EUB students; assem-bly in the White Chapel including introductions of faculty and st-dent campus organization leades: and an address by President Karry V. Masters and Rev. Europe H. Barth; group tours of the Sampus; luncheon; tours of the Sampus; l

Shirk

Rev. Mervin Heller To Be Chapel Speaker

Rev. Mervin Heller, Executive Secretary of the Greater Reading Council of Churches, will be the t chapel speaker on Tuesday, March 16. Student Council will sponsor the program on March 18. Robert McFerrin, baritone, en-tertained Albrightians with Ger-man Lieder and Italian operas yes-terday. Rev. C. Lamar Derk, pas-tor of St. Matthews Evangelical and Reformed Church in Kenhorst, addressed the student body on Tuesday.

Sororities Issue Bids For Spring

Annual Stunt Night Competition Set For

Tonight As Six Groups Vie For Trophies

The Phi Beta Mu sorority has issued bids for spring pledgeship to the following women: Patricia Weiherer, '55; Elissa Tropperwein and Naomi Robinson, '56; Sally Bubeck, Judith Cohen, Jean Hag-enbuch, Lynn Nagenbuch, Doris Holmes, Janet Lanfranke, Barbara Ross, Gretco,n Vogeler and Marilyn Wests, '57.

Louise Muellerschoen and Jane Zerk, will compose the committee for the Pat-Mu tea, which will be Nold this Sunday, March 14.

Pi Alpha Tau

Pi Alpha Tau Bids for spring pledgeship have been issued by the Pi Alpha Tau sorority to the following women: Althalinda Herschner, Sydne Matz and Beverly Walsh, '56; Jane Arey, Sarah Joralemon, Carole Smith, Mildred Tims, Elizabeth Trevaskisand Francis Wolfe, '57. Jean Dirmitt and Janet Gehres will serve on the committee for the joint sorority tea to be held tomorrow.

Octet Gives Concerts

The Albright octet was guests of two neighboring high schools Thursday, March 11. At 1 p. m. they gave a program at the Wom-elsdorf High School and at 2 p. m. the group visited the Wernersville the group visited the Wernersville High School in Wernersville. The programs consisted of secular numbers.

The octet includes the following Albrightians: Sonia Flicker, Ann Kocher, Nancy Dobbs, Kathleen Forrey, Robert Resser, Samuel Shirk, David Serfass and Ivan Moyer. Richard Smoker is the ac-companist for the group and Ivan Moyer is the director.

Nat Wright Is Guest Moderator For Program

No. 17

Six campus organizations will put forth the best of their talents tonight to compete for the award-ing of the annual Stunt Night trophies. The program, which is sponsored each year by Student Council, will be held in Krause Hall and will get under way at 8:00 p.m. 8:00 p. m.

The participating organizations will appear in the following order: Kappa Upsilon Phi fraternity, Al-pha Pi Omega fraternity and Phi Beta Mu sorority. At this time there will be a brief intermission when refreshments will be sold for a Student Council benefit. The pro-gram will continue with the Zeta Omega Epsilon fraternity, Pi Al-pha Tau sorority and Pi Tau Beta fraternity. fraternity.

fraternity. Nat Wright, disc jockey from the WEEU-TV station, will serve as master of ceremonies. This year's judges will be Mrs. Bonnie Borelli, local women's commenta-tor; Earl Henry, local disc jockey; and James Lynagh, disc jockey for station WRAW. Mr. Lynagh served as a judge for last year's Stunt Night.

Night. The three judges will vote se-cretely and separately on four ba-sic points and will not compare viewpoints when voting. The four basic points of judging are origin-ality of stunt, preparation, enter-tainment and continuity of the skit. skit

A gold-plated trophy will be awarded to the first place winner by Raymond Horan, chairman of the Stunt Night committee. The second place winner will also re-ceive a trophy. William Corrigan was in charge of the purchasing of the trophie the trophies.

The regulations which have been stipulated for the organizations by the committee are the following: The acts must be performed in a 15 minute time limit interval; there will be a point penalty for each minute overtime. No pledges may be used in actual perform-ance but they may be used as stage assistants. The minimum of par-ticipants will be ten. Performances shall not be centered around one "star performer" and should be spread out among all the partici-pants; however, this excludes nar-rators. The regulations which have been rators.

Over the stated fifteen minute time limit, the judges will subtract a progressive number of points from the total score. All organiza-tions should check with Mr. Pierce uons snould check with Mr. Pierce about special props and equipment. Each organization will be allowed a minimum of five minutes to clear the stage after their stunt is com-pleted.

The scoring system will consist of 15 points for first place, 10 points for second place and 5 points for the third spot.

points for the third spot. The committee representatives from the various organizations are: Kappa Upsilon Phi-Peter Nicho-las; Alpha Pi Omega — William Corrigan; Phi Beta Mu-JoAnne Duffy; Zeta Omega Epsilon — Peter LaRocco; Pi Alpha Tau-Peter LaRocco; Pi Alpha Tau-Martha Little; Pi Tau Beta-Ray-mond Horan. Last receives State Wicht der blig

Last year's Stunt Night trophies went to the Alpha Pi Omega fra-ternity for their French cafe scene and to the Zeta Omega Epsilon fraternity who reminisced over the "good old college days."

DANDY LION

"And all night I was haunted by the thought, 'How will these people get through life without knowing about reflexive pronouns ?' "

ing about renexive pronouns?"" These immortal words were first said by Fraulein Phyllis Gruber during one of her many jaunts from campus to Reading High and room 219 where she is currently engrossed in making German the favorite subject of many of her students.

We, however, will remember Phyllis for reasons other than her ability to make the third declension glamorous . . . her warmth and generosity . . . her willingness to serve . . . her special subtle sense of humor . . . her famous

Committees have been appointed for the senior dinner-dance, it was announced by John Fetterman, president, at the class meeting on Tuesday. Carole Althouse is gen-eral chairman, and the committees include: publicity, JoAnne Duffy, Jean Filbert, Ann Kocher and Mahlon Frankhauser; programs, Phyllis Gruber and Nancy Lou Walker; favors, JoAnn Duffy and Evelyn James; decorations, Miche-lina Cacciola, Dorothy DeLaney and Evelyn James; chaperones, Martha Little and Nancy Lou Wal-ker; and collectors, Barbara Far-ris, Martha Little, Robert Beiler, John Fetterman, Peter Nicholas and Curtis Zillhardt. No date has been selected as to serve . . . her special subtle sense of humor . . . her famous blonde hair. You already know all these things if you attend Delta Phi Al-pha meetings, watch the gals on the varsity basketball team, are a member of the Pi Alpha Tau so-rority or ever go to those well known Deutsch Verein parties. You may know Phyll from the occa-sional articles she does for local members of the fourth estate, from a chat over a cup of coffee (usually black) in her reserved seat in the SUB, or from last fall when she and the photography staff of the Cue went slightly mad trying to figure out novel ways to get you to say "cheese." Interested? Our very dandy, dandy lion claims she comes to campus daily from Robesonia in a Pontiac (and not in a Conestoga Wagon as someone once facetious-ly suggested.) Talk to her about Hemingway, a tour of Europe or Browning (preferably as "The Great White One") and you'll make a good im-pression. On the other hand, don't ever say the obvious or you'll b down in one of her numerous black books as somewhat beyond the pale. If you are one of the few who and Curtis Zillhardt. No date has been selected as yet, but tentative dates voted on by the class for the event were Thursday, June 3, or Friday, June 4. It was also announced that the committee has made arrangements for the class gift to the school. Letters will be sent to parents of the seniors in the near future re-garding the number of announce-ments each will want. The an-nouncements will be chosen shortly. All seniors are urged to pay their class dues as soon as possible. These may be paid to any of the class officers — John Fetterman, Mahlon Frankhauser, Michelina Cacciola or Thomas Schultz.

pale.

If you are one of the few who still doesn't know this week's gal (Continued on Page 2)

Tryouts for the position of edi-tor for the Albrightian will be held in the near future, Dorothy A. De Laney, editor-in-chief, an-nounced. Persons interested in ap-plying for tryouts should contact Miss DeLaney as soon as possible. The new staff will assume duties following the Easter recess. Applicants for the position of business manager are also being

Albrightian Post Tryouts To Begin

Foreman Drives For Goal

HEO Sees Bakery; Discusses Plans For Mardi Gras

Maier's Bakery was the meeting place for the March session of the Home Economics Organization on Monday evening, March 8. The group was conducted through a tour of the plant as a part of their program.

committee was named to plan A committee was named to plan Mardi Gras activities. It will in-clude Rachel Kaebnick, Marilyn Wertz, Cynthia Winner and Ann Stalnecker. Those who will have charge of the April meeting, which will feature a talk by a represen-tative of Botany Mills, Inc., are: Joan Nielson, Lorraine Wagner and Leda PasYotis.

Officers for the coming year will e voted upon at the April meeting.

WSS

At the last Women's Student Senate meeting on Wednesday af-ternoon, it was decided that WSS would buy a television set and new curtains for the lower social room

WSS is now working on a revi-sion of its constitution for the Wo-men's Handbook for 1954-55. The committee in charge of this in-cludes Mary Bysher, Claire Speidel and Helen Zelinski.

KTX

Rev. George B. Carvell, pastor of the First Evangelical Congrega-tional Church at 8th and Court Streets in Reading, will adress the Kappa Tau Chi fraternity Thurs-day, March 18 on the subject, "The Work of an Urban Pastor." May Nuscher senior pre-minis-

Max Nuscher, senior pre-minis-terial student and president of the organization, will preside over the business session.

Via The Mailbag

From the Susquehanna Weekly:

From the Susquenanna weekly: Frosh: What do you mean by slinging the bull? Soph: To sling the bull is to prevent the professor from realiz-ing that you are saying nothing in a great many words. Junior: To sling the bull is to say little in a great many words so as to give the impression that you are familiar with what the test you are familiar with what the test is covering. Senior: To sling the bull is to say as much as possible in well chosen words so as to convey the impression that you are familiar with the material under examina-tion in spite of the fact that you have been unable to devote suffi-cient effort to study adequately an unduly difficult assignment.

One: Her neck's dirty. Other: Her does?

"Etc." is a sign used to make believe you know more than you

From	West	Chester's	Quad
Angles:

Angres: Stranger in Paradise — First time on Dean's Lister. I've Got My Love to Keep Me Warm-Vicinity of main dorm, 10:30.

Rendezvous—Library stacks. Pack Up Your Troubles — Long veekend.

eekend. I Thought You Might Be Lonely o I Called You—Main Dorm, 10:30 to 11:00,

By Jack Lewis From The Bleachers

I believe that for one time even I believe that for one time even the most pessimistic observer was pleased with a Lion performance. The Gulian-Men proved to all ob-servers of the last two games that they have a much better team than their final average would lead you to believe. First the Lions took unmerciful revenge on the team that earlier pulled what looked like an unavoidable defeat out of the fire-the Lehigh Engineers, fire—the Lehigh Engineers, then they ruthlessly ravaged F&M Diplomats. The latter the nd th and the F&M Diplomats. The latter victory was the paramount game of their season's play, marked with excellent rebounding, defensive play and scoring. It was the kind of game that pleases all types of fans—except F & M's. Mike De-Paul was the high man, making shots from every angle with 29 points. He as followed by Bruce Riddell with 23 well-timed points. Riddell also did a fine job in hold-ing F. & M.'s gigantic pivot star, Gus Lovett, to 14 points, far be-low his season's average. Bill Gus Lovett, to 14 points, far be-low his season's average. Bill Spaide looked brilliant in relief, showing quite well what a sub-stitute can do for a team. Captain Jim Croke received an ovation which he more than deserved when he left the game via the foul route in the fourth quarter. George Con-rad was presented with the Ron Regar Most Valuable Player Award. George's all-around sea-

Award. George's all-around s sonal play made him the proud sonar play make num the product ec-ceiver of the coveted trophy. This final effort by the Lions gave them their first winning season of the past three. We here present a "standing ovation" to the Albright Basketsers who in the next two "standing ovation" to the Albright Basketeers, who in the next two seasons should be the nemesis of all their opponents—and who, this season, provided all loyal fans with a versatile display of athletic

Unsung Heroes

Unsung Heroes We would like to devote this small amount of space to those who did so much to help make Al-bright's basketball season a suc-cessful one. Joe Rouse, equipment manager; Don Wise, assistant trainer; David Widland, student manager; and Bernie Gissen, as-sistant manager, all did their jobs quietly and efficiently every day, yet never saw their names in print. To them, Albright's unsung heroes, go our sincere thanks for a job well done. go our si well done

Kurtz Plans Devotions

"Happy are they who realize their spiritual poverty; they have already entered the kingdom of reality." This verse, the first beau-titude, taken from an unfamiliar translation of the Bible will be used by Jonathan Kurtz at morn-ing devotions Tuesday, March 16 at 7:30 a. m. in the employees din-ing room of Selwyn Hall. Students are encouraged to attend this early morning meditation group.

THE ALBRIGHTIAN

Published by the students of Albright College, Reading, Pa

Dorothy DeLaney, '54, Editor in chief Herbert Mackler, '54, Business Manag Editorial Board: Barbara Farris, '54, Assistant Editor; Helen Schoemer, '5 Patricia Weiherer, '55, Co-Feature Editors; Rachel Kachenke, '56, Ner Editor; John Lewis, '54, Sports Editor; Lois Hughes, '56, Exchange Editor Photographer, George Spencer, '54

her, '54 Member, Associated Collegiate Press and Intercollegiate Newspaper Asso ciat cration. Entered as second class matter, July 15, 1941, at the post office, Reading, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879. Subscription rate $2.00 per year.

Basketeers Defeat Lehigh University; 93-77 Win Over Diplomats Ends Season

Lions Revenge Former Victory In Close Game

Before a sparse crowd at Albright College's Thirteenth and Bern Fieldhouse, Lehigh University's Engineers went down to defeat before Albright's Lions, 74-64. The victory helped to erase the stain of an early-season loss at the hands of the Engineers, 62-61 at Bethlehem. Coach Eddie Gulian's starting five played the entire game without relief.

G-Men Lead First Half

Lehigh opened the scoring when guard Eddie Cahn dropped in a one-hander from twenty feet out. guard Eddie Cahn dropped in a one-hander from twenty feet out. The Engineers quickly opened up a 15-11 lead at the end of the first period. In the second stanza, Mike De Paul and George Conrad accounted for fifteen points be-tween them; Conrad's jump shot with five seconds to go gave the Lions the lead for the first time in the game, and a 31-30 halftime edge. The third period was all Al-bright, as the Red and White war-riors outscored the visitors, 24-15, to lead, 55-45, at the end of the stanza. In the fourth period both teams dropped nineteen points through the hoops, and the margin at the end of the game remained ten points.

Four Lions scored in double fig-ures, De Paul leading with 21 counters, followed by Bruce Rid-dell with 19, Conrad with 16 and Jim Foreman with 10. Eddie Cahn led the loser's cause with 19 mark-ers, trailed by Bruce Thompson with 11.

JV's Defeat Hamburg

JV's Defeat Hamburg In the preliminary game, the Baby Lions defeated Hamburg, champions in their Class A rec-reation league, 82-52. Dale Yoder was high scorer for the victors with 24 counters, followed by Ron-nie Pisano with 18 and Myron Hal-lock with 16. Bob Yoder led the visitors with 16 markers, trailed by Al Bachert with 12. by Al Bachert with 12.

ATS WILL 1 Bachert Hamburg G. F. P. 3 2 8 2 8 4 4 Albright J G. ano f 7 rnhardt f 4 Pisano f 7 Bernhardt f 4 Levine 0 Hallock c 7 Daugherty g 3 Yoder g 8 Yerger c. Bachert g Yoder g Balthaser 2 16 2 8 8 24 Totals 29 24 82

Albright G. F. J. Albright 6 4 10 9 6 19 6 10 8 Lehigh G. F. P. 5 9 Conrad f DePaul f Riddell c Foreman g Croke g f Tota.s ... 26 22 74 0 2 3 10 5 11 n g

Alumnus To Address Group On Plastics

"Plastics as Fibre and Fabric" is the topic for the third in the series of Albright College lectures in textiles, scheduled for Wednes-day, March 17.

Richard Derr, representing the Firestone Corporation, will be the speaker. Derr is an alumnus of Al-bright, class of '46. The lecture will be given in the Science Hall at 1:10 p. m.

The lecture series is under the auspices of the department of home economics.

Fox To Conduct Vespers

Robert Fox, freshman pre-min-isterial, will conduct the weekly Sunday evening vesper service in Sylvan Chapel March 14 at 7:00 p. m. A mid-week service will be held at the same place Wednes-day, March 17.

George Conrad, sophomore standout, receives the annual Ron Regar trophy, awarded each year to the most valuable player.

About Nothing

We've heard about musicians be

We've heard about musicians be-ing organized, having to doff their berets in the direction of Petrillo and all that, but Dick Smoker came up with the weirdest twist yet. He claims he's got a job play-ing piano between the acts at a one-act play. This is better than a job from 1 P. M-2 P. M. with an hour and half for lunch. Et u, you brute As long as there are ninth grade students, English teachers and printing presses, boys with crack-ing voices will struggle over the toga wearing "friends, Romans and countrymen" while the girls make appropriate squeals of hor-ror at the picture of Caccius (of the lean and bengry Cassiuses) and crew dip'sg their swords in the blood of the noblest Roman of them all. The kids will have a break, however, come next week when 'ulus Caesar, Brutus, Mark Anto-y and a padded part for Cal-ryon a and Portia (to provide for Ne usual sexy Hollywood build-up aimed at the adolescent?minded mass movie mind) bow in at a lo-cal theater. Eleano Toick will get to see a mass movie mind) bow in at a lo-cal theater. Eleanor Dick will get to see a rather public sneak preview of the epic tomorrow morning. This lucky gal is in the process of help-ing Julius to "shuffle off this mor-tal coil" at Northeast Junior High. Lots of luck, Ellie, and may your students never translate the fa-mous line of the murder scene as our classmates did way back when. It came out (with appropriate ges-tures?) You, too, you Brute. (Ex-punt, the noblest Roman of them all). all).

punt, the noblest Roman of them all). Aside to Bill Heck (but you may read, too) department: In answer to your note about our February 19th column advising young men to go east on N. 13th Street and your comment that to do this of the street to de the to do this your comment that to do this of the street to the other, may we say: We must have his placed our handy dandy compass issued with our student teaching kit the day we wrote so erron-cously. However, we still meant in an eastward direction relation our position at said writing. Since up may be down and east west if one is down where he usually has been up, we apologize only with reservations. Besides, we were who said, "Go west, young man," and hot, "Go in a westward direction

Lions Produce Finale Upset Against F and M

Last Saturday night, an underdog Albright five upset an overconfident Franklin and Marshall aggregation, 93-77, before a near capacity crowd in the Albright gymnasium. The Lions, out to prove that an earlier 27-point setprove that an earlier 27-point set-back at the hands of the Diplo-mats was an impossible accident, appeared to be fired up to their peak, as they played perhaps their best game of the year. Gus (Goon) Lovett, star F & M center, was held to a mere 14 points by the catilike defensive play of center Bruce Riddell.

Conrad Receives Award

Between the third and fourth Between the third and fourth quarters, the Ron Regar trophy was awarded. The recipient of this trophy, awarded annually to the outstanding Albright courtman of the season, was George Con-rad, Albright's leading rebounder rad, Albright's leading rebounder and second leading scorer. Hen Eberle opened the scoring for the Dips with a free throw. Seconds later Riddell's layup put the Lions in front, 2-1. The lead then see-sawed back and forth for the entire first period, Albright holding a slim 22-20 edge at inter-mission. Eberle opened the sec-ond stanza with a jump shot to knot the count at 22-all, but Mike DePaul's set shot put the Lions back in front for good, 24-22. DePaul Scores 29

DePaul Scores 29

DePaul scores 29 DePaul was the Red and White's leading point-maker with 29 tal-lies, a season's high, followed by Riddell with 23. Eberle led the los-er's cause with 21 markers. In the preliminary game, the Lion Cubs succumbed to the Junior Diplomats by a 65-54 count. Rudy Koenic, former Reading High star

Koenig, former Reading High star, and Dick Hamilton were high for the victors with 21 points apiece, while Ronny Pisano led the losing cause with	17 markers.

F & M Frosh	Albright JV
G. F.
	21 Pisano f 5 7 17
Hamilton f 8 5	21 Bernhardt f 0 2 2
Ziegler c 2 2	6 Hallock c 2 4 8
Ziegler c 2 2 Pohner g 2 0 Schiff g 1 3	4 Yoder g 4 2 10
Schiff g 1 3	5 Daugherty g 5 3 13
Randall g 3 0	6 Levine 2 0 4
Sandoe g 1 0	2
	- Totals 18 18 54
Totals23 19
	Allelaka
F&M	Albright
G. F. 1	P. G. F. P.
G. F. 1	P. G. F. P. 21 Conrad f 5 1 11
G. F. 1 Eberle f 8 5 1 Ritter f 3 5 1	P. G. F. P. 21 Conrad f 5 1 11 11 DePaul f 14 1 29
Eberle f 8 5 Ritter f 3 5 Bean 7 0	P. G. F. P. 21 Conrad f 5 1 11 11 DePaul f 14 1 29
Eberle f 8 5 Ritter f 3 5 Bean 7 0	P. G. F. P. 21 Conrad f 5 1 11 11 DePaul f 14 1 29 14 Spaide 4 1 9
G. F. 1 Eberle f 8 5 1 Ritter f 3 5 1 Bean 7 0 1 Lovett c 6 2 1	P. G. F. P. 21 Conrad f 5 1 11 11 DePaul f 14 1 29 14 Spaide 4 1 9 14 Riddell c 9 5 23
G. F. 1 Eberle f 8 5 Ritter f 3 5 Bean 7 0 Lovett c 6 2 1 Davis g 0 2	P. G. F. P. 21 Conrad f 5 1 11 11 DePaul f 14 1 29 14 Spaide 4 1 9 14 Riddell c 9 5 23 2 Foreman g 4 5 13
G. F. 1 Eberle f 8 5 1 Ritter f 3 5 1 Bean 7 0 1 Lovett c 6 2 1	P. G. F. P. 21 Conrad f 5 1 11 11 DePaul f 14 1 29 14 Spaide 4 1 9 14 Riddell c 9 5 23 2 Foreman g 4 5 13 5 Croke g 2 3 7
G. F. J. Eberle f 8 5 Ritter f 3 5 1 Bean 7 0 1 Lovett c 6 2 1 Davis g 0 2 Pitoek g 5 5 1	P. G. F. P. 21 Conrad f 5 1 11 11 DePaul f 14 1 29 14 Stadel e 9 5 23 2 Foreman g 4 5 13 5 Croke g 2 3 7 - Pryor 0 1 1
G. F. 1 Eberle f 8 5 Ritter f 3 5 Bean 7 0 Lovett c 6 2 1 Davis g 0 2	P. G. F. P. 21 Conrad f 5 1 11 1 DePaul f 14 1 29 14 Spaide 4 1 9 14 Riddell c 9 5 23 2 Foreman g 4 5 13 5 Croke g 2 3 7 - Pryor 0 1 1
G. F. J. Eberle f 8 5 Ritter f 3 5 1 Bean 7 0 1 Lovett c 6 2 1 Davis g 0 2 Pitoek g 5 5 1	P. G. F. P. 21 Conrad f 5 1 11 1 DePaul f 14 1 29 14 Stadel e 9 5 23 2 Foreman g 4 5 13 5 Croke g 2 3 7 - Pryor 0 1 1

Dandy Lion

(Continued from Page 1)

(Continued from Page 1) about town, run, don't walk, to the SUB some time in May when Phyli will be finished with student teach-ing and there will be time to talk about such memories as: the morn-ing after the night before (and Sydne's pajama party) when this pixish lady whisked the bleary-eyed guests off to church, the day she "rowed" a cance at the Pat spring weekend, star gazing for Science Fundamentals (her favor-ite subject) and, of course, Curt. To the girl who claims she can charge an electroscope but can't set an alarm clock, we say bon voyage (or the German equivalent of it) in that trip to Europe and those pedagogical days ahead.

Totals ... 20 12 52 Schifflin Picton Cahn g Thompso Siegel