

Seniors Revel In Final Whirl Of Festivities

In the series of special senior events which has been going on, the next will be the Alumni Dinner held in Whitner's Tea Garden, Friday, June 1, at 6 p.m. The committee in charge of this dinner for all seniors is Lydia Roland, '32, Prof. Paul I. Speicher, '27, Dorothy Gaul, '42, and Rev. Lester L. Stabler, '36.

Deans George W. Walton and Helen L. Cunliffe will entertain the seniors at breakfast at the Green Valley Country Club, Saturday morning, June 2 at 8:30. The breakfast will be followed by activities at the Club.

Phi Delta Sigma, the alumnae sorority, will honor its newly elected members this same day at dinner at 2 p.m. at the Wyomissing Club. The new members are Erna Leinbach, Janet Luckenbaugh, Mase Jean Fickling, Ruth Ritzman, and Betty Claire Voeste. The president, Mrs. Fred Luckenbill, and Polly Crossman are in charge of the dinner.

The climax of the social events will be the Junior-Senior on the evening of Saturday, June 2. The scene will be the Berkshire Ballroom from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m., with Whitey Meisky supplying the music. Lighting effects will be colored spotlights shining on the floor. The white programs, printed in black, will be embellished with colored circles.

1-2-3 Sing!

Glee Club members—sit up and take notice! The last rehearsal of the Mixed Chorus for the Commencement Exercises will take place this Thursday at 7 p.m. promptly in the Music Studio. New seating arrangement must be set up and gowns fitted. All who are participating in the Commencement program must be present for the final rehearsal.

Dominoes Learn To Be Earnest As They Dash Thru Wilde Play

By JEANNE SCHLEGEL

The Domino Club's production of "The Importance of Being Earnest" by one Oscar Wilde breezed into the chapel on the evenings of May 18 and 19 with nothing whatsoever earnest about it. Jack (or is it Earnest Teger?) those were his names in the play) well, anyway, mystery man Teger played the part of the dually-named hero, Mr. Jack Worthing, with his usual dash, swoon appeal, and stage presence. The inquiry of his sweet-heart concerning the durability of the curl in his hair brought an audible reaction from the audience.

Femmes Fatales
Speaking of his sweetheart, blonde Betty Fielitz played the part of his lovely if somewhat temperamental fiancée, Gwendolyn Fairfax, with poise and assurance. Miss Fairfax's "mamma," Lady Bracknell, was excellently played by Felice Epstein with all the qualities of the Normandy under full steam. The governess, Miss Prism, was primly portrayed by Helen Brown. Her admirable advice to her charge on the merits of studying could profitably be applied by the larger part of the play's audience; however, the audience will probably ignore it blithely just as did the young lady being governed. Miss Cecily Cardew. Cecily was sparkingly played by that very pretty little junior, Rita Duncavage. The subtle innuendoes which she slipped into some of her "girlish" lines were not lost upon the appreciative audience.

Deetz and Deysher
The "dignified deacon," the Rev. Chasuble, D.D., Rector of Woolton, was most adequately portrayed by "Deetz" Pottieger. In fact, he seemed to be a natural for the part. Could it be because he is pre ministerial? Well, they say that both ministers and actors have a touch of the same talent.

Paul Deysher played the role of the harassed hero's "bunberrying" friend, Algernon Moncrieff, to perfection. How he managed to enunciate his lines so clearly with his mouth full of cucumber sandwiches was really an achievement in diction. The pessimistic valet

New Chemistry Head To Take Over Dept.

Dr. Scoles, L. I. U. Prof. Signs for Reading Job

The appointment of Dr. Dwight L. Scoles as head of the chemistry department, replacing Dr. Joseph M. Almand who has been acting head, was announced by President Harry V. Masters last week. Dr. Scoles is a graduate of Berea College Academy, received his Bachelor of Science degree at Berea College, Master of Science degree at Iowa State College, and Doctor of Philosophy degree at Columbia University.

Starting his teaching career in the public schools in Knox County, Ohio, he later acted as student teacher at Berea College and then was teacher of science in the Monroe, Wis. high school. He was assistant professor at Iowa State College before accepting the position as head of the chemistry department at Wesleyan University, Ill. Later he traveled to Turkey, where he became head of the chemistry department at Robert College, Istanbul. He served as professor and head of the chemistry department at Long Island University from 1927 until 1945.

Dr. Scoles is a member of numerous professional fraternities and associations in the country, and has received recognition in five different who's who publications. Actively associated with research work, especially in the fields of inorganic, analytical, and physical chemistry, he has published several dissertations on different phases of his work in chemical journals.

'Y' Fireside Service Honors Class of '45

A fireside service in honor of the seniors, held beside Selwyn Hall Annex last Tuesday evening, was the last "Y" meeting of the year. Mary Jane Weber had written the service, which was conducted by Newell Wert, Marjorie Christ, and Robert Schneider.

The fireplace, built by Lois Wheeler and Margaret Hohl, was made of eight stones, each of which represented one characteristic of Albright. The A stone stood for ambition, L for love, B for breadth, R for readiness, I for independence, G for giving, H for height, and T for togetherness.

A quartet, consisting of Mr. Wert, Mr. Schneider, Charles Russ and Robert Holtzapfel, sang "We Would be Building." Inside this fireplace flanking twigs which stood for themselves, and from this the fire was made. The service closed with a friendship circle and the singing of the "Alma Mater."

Success Plus Looks

Jack Teger

"Two titles for Teger" claim the seniors as they placed votes for Jack for almost every position. "The Most Handsome Boy" is also the "Boy Most Likely to Succeed." A close second for the latter title was Allen Snyder.

Frosh Plan To Edit Vacation News Letter

At their final meeting last Tuesday, the freshman class discussed plans for compiling a news letter this summer which will contain information concerning the whereabouts of all freshmen. Warren Pfost, president of the class, will be in charge of carrying out these plans. A copy of the letter will be sent to every member of the class of 1946, including men in service. Herbert Hyman was chosen chairman of the class's service men's committee.

Class treasurer, Jack Shafer, reported a balance of $99.96 in the treasury. Of this sum, $73.18 was contributed by class dues and $10.00 by the social committee.

Kappas Hold Induction; Ebbert Takes Gavel

Induction ceremonies were held on May 14 by the Kappa Upsilon Phi fraternity for William Ebbert and Robert Kemp. At the last meeting a new member, Franklin Seifert, was pledged and will be inducted soon. The officers elected at the meeting are William Ebbert, president, Robert Kemp, secretary, and Franklin Seifert, treasurer.

Jane Tellsworth Will Speak For Graduating Class of '45

Jane Tellsworth will be the student speaker for Commencement Exercises for the class of 1945, according to an announcement by Dean George W. Walton today. Her subject will be "The Wider Meaning of Democracy."

At the Commencement Exercises which will be held on the campus in front of Selwyn Hall at 3:30 p.m. Sunday, Major General Lewis B. Hershey will deliver the main address on the subject "The Nation and the Returning Veteran."

Student Speaker

Jane Tellsworth

The seniors are lavish in their praises of Jane, who has never been known to foot her own horn. Not only do they rate her the best "All-Round Student" but they also think she is the "Girl Most Likely to Succeed." Bertha Blauch was a close second to Jane for the "All-Round Student" title.

Masters Presents Service Awards To Active Students

President Harry V. Masters, in the chapel program last Tuesday, presented awards to seniors and recognized underclassmen who had participated in certain campus activities. Mary Jane Weber, Felice Epstein, and Betty Claire Voeste received "THE ALBRIGHTIAN" keys for four years of service on the staff and having fulfilled a managerial or editorial capacity.

Musical Awards

After reading the names of organ and choir members who have served one, two, or three years, President Masters awarded orchestra pins to Anne Helms, Ruth Ritzman, Betty Anne Friedericks, and Mae Jean Fickling for four years of service.

For four year's participation in the Women's Glee Club, Ruth Ritzman and Betty Anne Friedericks were awarded appropriate pins. This year for the first time, the club will also purchase and award pins to those who have two years service: Martha Friedericks, Jean Harer, Elizabeth H. Pottieger, and Ferne Allen.

Council Keys

Student Council awards are decided by a faculty committee on the basis of attendance at meetings, performance of assigned tasks, contact with groups they represent, attitude toward activities of the Council, and general contribution to the Council. Those who qualified for Student Council keys were Paul Deysher, Jack Teger, Jane Tellsworth, Ann deFarges, Jeanne Miller, and Mary Jane Weber.

Following the awarding of these honors, a March of Time film, "Airways of the Future" was viewed by the assembly. On Thursday the Reverend Daniel J. Wetzel, pastor of the First Reformed Church in Reading led a worship service with the subject "What's Right with the World?"

Two honorary degrees will be awarded by the college. General Hershey will receive a Doctor of Laws degree, and the Reverend Levi Zerr, district superintendent of the Philadelphia District of the Methodist Church, will receive a Doctor of Divinity degree.

Baccalaureate

The graduating class will conduct its Baccalaureate Service Sunday morning at 10:45, in the Christ Evangelical Church at Twelfth and Robeson Streets. Colonel Ralph C. Deibert, Third Service Command Chaplain, Baltimore, Md., will be the speaker.

The Commencement speaker Miss Tellsworth, has been outstanding in positions of leadership on campus. As vice-president of the Y.W.C.A. this year, she was chairman of the Program Committee and helped plan the fall "Y" Retreat. A day student, she served as president of the daywomen last year and represented them two terms on the Daywomen's Council. In the newly organized Women's Senate, she has been adviser to the president, Anna Wartluft.

Who's Who

Elected to Student Council for the past two years, Miss Tellsworth was named chairman of the Student Activities this year. In publications, she worked two years for the "The Albrightian" and last year on the "Cue." She was one of the Albright seniors to be recognized in "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities."

Chosen as an officer of every organization she has joined, Miss Tellsworth this year served as vice president of Pi Gamma Mu, secretary of International Relations Club, and secretary-treasurer of Philosophy Club. She made her contribution to sports by being vice president of the Women's Athletic Association and playing in intramural basketball and softball.

Pi Tau's Install Procko as Prexy

Pi Tau Beta Fraternity at its last meeting elected the following officers for the coming year: president, Bohdan Procko; vice president, Reed Fredericks; secretary, John Kissinger; treasurer, Russell Luck; chaplain, Verner Hertzog; and pledge-master, Homer Angstadt. The new officers were administered the oath of office by the retiring president Robert Deach in the presence of Coach Neal O. Harris, Dr. Gerrit Memming, Charles Stump, and Sieven Winter.

A Memorial Day Picnic was planned by the fraternity as their last official activity of the year. In a discussion of future plans, the members resolved to rejuvenate the Alumni Association and maintain a closer contact with fraternity brothers in the service.

Future Teachers Elect Local Chapter Officers

At a meeting on May 14, the Phi Alpha Tau Chapter of the Pennsylvania State Education Association elected the following officers: president, Marie Bonner; vice-president, Anna Wartluft; secretary, Lucille Lott; and treasurer, Bohdan Procko. The meeting was in charge of President Betty Claire Voeste. Charge was given to the new officers and the function of the organization was also discussed.

Goodbye, Good Luck!

Friday will write the finis to the school year of 1944-45 for Albright undergrads. On Sunday, the class of '45 will make their last appearance as undergraduates. Everything nice that could be said to a graduating class has been said many times before. However, "The Albrightian" can't help but add its best wishes and hopes for the future to the seniors.

It is no cliché to say that the world looks to today's youth, and perhaps especially to college-trained youth, to shape the better world that we are all dreaming of and working for. The class of 1945 leaves Albright with the confidence of the school that it will give liberally of itself in the making of this better world.

And So To Bed

Amid all the "Au Revoir"-ing that is going on on campus these days, "The Albrightian" wants to add its two cents. We are unable to imagine a Thursday night without copy worries or a Friday night without printer worries. However, we enjoy our misery, so we anticipate publishing and mailing to you one issue this summer to keep you up-to-date on Albright news.

We'll be seeing you!

Socially Speaking

Sticky with glue and with copy pencils jutting from behind their ears, "The Albrightian" staff tore itself from the "hot copy" they were working on to attend M. J. and Felice's party Friday night in the small parlor in Selwyn Hall. The retiring editors said, "Most of the times you've seen us we've been hot on your trail for a story or something, so tonight we'd like you to see us just sociable!"

They were definitely sociable, with Felice serving a delicious punch made of gingerale and ice cream, and M. J. doing the honors with a heaping plate of cookies. Kenny Good shuddered with dismay when he walked in and saw all the feminine members of the staff assembled in formidable array. He wondered audibly what happened to the rest of his sports staff.

The news editors had the honor of being served first and were ushered up to the serving table by Barbara Pearsall and Jean Jaglom. So after refreshing themselves with punch and cookies, the editorial staff hid itself back to the madhouse called the Office of Student Publications, all ready for work again.

Albrightian No. 1

Class Clown

Mary Jane Weber

"The Senior Who Has Done Most for Albright" is what her fellow seniors rate Mary Jane Weber. M. J., who divides her time between student teaching, "The Albrightian," and Student Council, was runner-up for the "Girl Most Likely to Succeed." Paul Deysher seconded M. J. as the "Senior Who Has Done Most for Albright."

Jeanne Miller

Renowned as she is for humorous elocution and songs a la Beatrice Kaye, not to mention spontaneous humor, Jeanne Miller was destined to be called the senior "Class Wit." Paul Deysher placed second here.

Campus Carrousel

The last issue of "The Albrightian" for this year is now on the "news stands, which indicates that the school year has drawn to a close. Yet, even with the arrival of examinations, activities are still evident. The war bond-dance last week did not lack attendance by the students. Examinations could temporarily be forgotten. May-day too, had many onlookers, and the weather seemed fairly gracious to the occasion. . . . Among the onlookers we noticed the "familiar" face of Seaman Owen Henry, (My, my doc, what happened to that beautiful water-wave) . . . With summer breathing at the campus now and then, John Spindler joined the ranks of disillusioned "hair-cut-crusaders" . . . In the mood with spring, Robert Binder went downtown for the dormitory students to buy Italian sandwiches. Evidently he thought the occasion important enough to wear a formal suit consisting of tails-stiff-collor-bow-tie etc. because that's what he wore to town. . . . Someone asked me if I thought it was unlucky to postpone a wedding. Well, you know my answer: "Not if you keep on doing it" . . . Don't forget the junior-senior prom June 2 . . . The men-dormitory students have a new college yell, it goes "Lend-me-five-bucks" . . . Another fellow up there is now called "Jig-Saw"—every time a girl looks at him he goes to pieces . . . And now this is your Campus Carrousel reporter wishing the best of luck to the graduates of the class of '45 and saying so long to all of you others till next year.

This week Dandy roars his final salute to five pedagogues-to-be. The first two, Catherine Hill and Gloria Bast, are all set to make efficient cooks and seamstresses of feminine America. The second duo, the Misses Marian Barger and Rachel Villauer, intend to spend their vocational time correcting grammatical errors of high school English students. Jane Helms, the diminutive mite who makes the quintet complete, is planning to teach math.

Musical Trio

Jane, Rachel, and Marian are dorm students with a great deal of musical ability. Jane plays in the orchestra and band while Marian and Rachel lend their lilted voices to Glee Club and Mixed Chorus. Both our English teachers are members of Sigma Tau Delta and French Club. Rachel keeps the books for Sigma Tau Delta and Marian holds the same office in French Club. Jane is an active member in the Alchemists' Club.

Home Ec Duo

Catherine and Micky, as her firends call her, have much in common as their friendship would indicate. They are both day students and HEO Club members. Both are brunette and petite. Catherine is engaged and expects to tie the knot soon.

Dandy's growl is lusty with praise and good wishes for this quintet of future teachers.

Elegy To The Seniors

- We'll miss you, Class of '45—A statement trite but true!
- We'll miss you up at "Father's dive."
- We'll miss the things you do.
- We'll miss Bob Deach's graceful lops,
- Joyce Moyer's hearty laugh,
- Paul Deysher—Student Council's hope,
- M. J.—"Albrightian" staff.
- We'll miss Jack Tegar's sweet old hat,
- And Maddy's eyes so blue—
- And ev'ry Pat will miss each Pat,
- And ev'ry Mu, a Mu!
- We'll miss the Zetas on the field,
- The Kaps and APO,
- You'll go—our tears will be concealed,
- But oh, we'll miss you so!
- We'll miss you—hear our plaintive call!
- At school you'll not be found,
- But oh, we'll miss you most of all—
- When testing time rolls round!
- Marion Latta.

Lions In The Ranks

Dear Albrightians:

By the time you get this issue of THE ALBRIGHTIAN, I too, will be an Albrightian on the outside looking in. I just hope that all of you have enjoyed your time at Albright as much as I have. Next year Jean Harer of the class of '46 will take my place as your campus correspondent. Jean is a sociology major, so you will hear about the economic problems, instead of the trials of the science hall.

Golly, the mail surely has piled up since last week. Here is some—I hope all of it.

LT. VINCENT A. BERTOLINI USNR, ASO-NASID; Oxford Avenue and Mortius Mill Road, Philadelphia, Penna. wrote to say that he has been promoted to a full lieutenant.

T/SGT I. W. TROSTLE 31 023 207 Det. 47th Gen. Hospital; APO 706 c/o PM, San Francisco, Calif., wrote to tell us of his new address and to say that he almost met LT. SCHMERZLER, but missed him by a few days. At the hospital Bill is in personnel and administration work.

SG. W. W. CARSON, JR. 12 089 679; Ninth Sig. Det.; USS Biscayne, c/o FPO; San Francisco, Calif., said "Hope May Day was a clear day as it was here. Also that the seniors get their wish and have an outside graduation with perfect weather."

We had word that DONALD SPANG E. M. 3/o USNCB is somewhere in the Philippines and has recently been advanced in rank to petty officer third class. He has spent 18 months in the South Pacific.

FVT. HENRY L. ORR USMC; Marine Torpedo Bombing Squadron 245; c/o SPO San Francisco, Calif., says that he was recently moved from the states to the Mariana Islands. He likes what he has seen of it.

Two weeks ago CARL KERN was on campus. He returned from overseas last August. He can now be reached at Box 1142, Alexandria, Va. Carl was a member of the class of '46 and was here only a semester. OWEN HENRY, of Bainbridge was here last week. He is now a Seaman 2/c. LT. RICHARD GABLE has been around campus. He is to be discharged very soon with 93 points. When FFC. ROBERT MATTSON was here this weekend he informed us that he had 18 points. Bob and Rillie Lee brought a lot of memories with their piano playing. Here is an advance scoop. ENSIGN ROBERT DIEHL and Margaret (Honey) Sheppard are to be married in Glen Rock on May 31. Congratulations!

FVT. SANFORD ZIMET 12 189 784; wrote some time ago to say "I met PAUL MICHAELS, who still looks the same, haircut and all." I wonder where Sandy is being moved this time.

FFC. E.E. BOGAE 33 596 469; Unit Boat, FS-218; c/o PM, San Francisco, Calif., writes, "This year would have been my graduation along with the class of '45 if I would have been able to stay on at Albright. After leaving in '42 I tried to enlist, but had to wait to be drafted. I took my civil service job at Middletown, Penna., and after a year received my "Greetings." In April '43 I went into active duty." "Doc" says "Hello" to the Pottlegers.

LT. (JG) DONALD G. SANDS USNR Underwater Demolition Team 19; c/o FPO San Francisco, Calif., says that he is taking a short rest after having been at Okinawa before and all during the invasion. Don saw a lot of Jap suicide bombers. "They pick out their target and start into their dives. The ships put up an enormous amount of AA fire, but they still keep coming till they are blown up in midair or the pilot is killed and the plane crashes in the water."

Pfc. LAWRENCE LUTERI 33 759 401 Co. C 2nd Tng. Bn. RTS; ASFTC; Fort Lewis, Wash. writes to thank us for "The Albrightian" and to send in his address.

FFC. PAUL DIBLASSI 33 112 073 Co. A-51st Sig. OFN. BN. APO 464 c/o FPO, New York said that they said "Goodbye" to Florence, Italy and its beautiful signorinas. You mentioned the "Cue," Paul. Did you just get it, as did Ralph Bowers?

FFC. HAROLD ULMER 1253 Eng. (C) Bn. APO 405 c/o PM, New York says "I heard from Doc. Ritter this past week. I was part of an assault—east of the Rhine. I think often of school as do all the kids. We are hoping to return as soon as it is possible. The meaning of a college education has taken a greater depth than ever before. Many of us have had experiences which have taken us far beyond our years but we will return as we were before. Time has a strange way of losing itself when we are content at heart. The miles we cannot erase but we can make them less lonesome. Somehow we never went away."

PVT. DAVE VOIGT said that he saw BILL MILLER just before he left Keesler Field. Dave is at Scott Field, Ill.

ENSIGN C. C. MIESSE was in Boston last weekend, but he was there just long enough to load and go out again. He was in a harbor on "The other side" on V-E Day.

RICHARD HEBERLING USNR was on campus last week. He was at the combined sorority dance. Dick will soon be moved to the West coast. Medical Midshipman ROBERT RAVEL from Temple Med. School was also at the dance.

1st LT. RICHARD C. WEBER 1-3 2nd Marine Division; c/o FPO San Francisco, Calif. wrote to say how much he enjoyed hearing the news from Albright. "My congratulations to the basketball team."

LT. (JG) MICHAEL J. DUTZER USNR; USS Lowry DD 78; FPO San Francisco, Calif. sends his congratulations to the team and Coach Harris for the "exceptionally fine record they had this season." He is a Gunner Officer aboard the USS Lowry, a modern 230 ton Destroyer which has participated in every major operation in the Pacific since the start of the Philippine campaign.

We had a short letter from EVERETT WILSON (Fly-wheel) this week from Somewhere in Germany to say how welcome is "The Albrightian." His new address is: CPL. EVERETT WILSON; 33 490 620; 5334 Ambulance Co.; APO 350 c/o PM; New York.

We heard from ENSIGN GERALDINE BOWKER, who was here for the weekend, that Paul KIMMEL and DON BLACKMORE were together in Paris. Among other things they went to the opera. What other things?

Aphrodite

Madeline Gable

Madeline Gable, beyond the shadow of a doubt, is rated the "Prettiest Girl" in the senior class. Her reign over May Day has already proven the fact, even though Dick has known it all the time.

Senate Constitution Gets Council Okay

Student Council voted to approve the constitution of the Women's Student Senate of Albright College at its last meeting of the year. Anna Wartluft, president of the Senate, read the constitution to Council, after which it was discussed.

Agnes Snyder, chairman of the chapel committee, chose Marylouise Schappell, Robert Schneider, and Herbert Hyman to complete her committee. Shirley Sperans chairman of the dining hall committee, appointed Minna Silberman and Elizabeth Sanger to aid her.

BALLOT BOX

'Test Tube' Carter

The Alchemist Club had for its last meeting of the year a picnic on May 9, at Bernhart's Park. Phyllis Carter was elected president for next year, Marie Bonner, vice president; and Mary Eschwei, secretary-treasurer. Twenty club members and two prospective members were present at the picnic.

A La Schweimler

At a recent meeting, the French Club elected the following officers for the 1945-46 term: Christine Schweimler, president; Ruth Rehr, vice-president; Shirley Sperans, secretary; and Mary Briner, treasurer. Professor Elsie Garlach is sponsor of the club.

Skull and Plowfield

June Plowfield will serve as president of the Skull and Bones Club next year, according to an election held recently. Assisting her will be Marie Bonner as vice-president and Gloria Salfetty as secretary-treasurer.

Lit With Latta

Sigma Tau Delta, English fraternity, named Marion Latta as president for 1945-46 at their banquet on May 16 at the Thomas Jefferson Tea Room. Vice-president will be Martha Herrick and secretary-treasurer, Marian Fiedler.

Musical Marjie

Marjorie Christ was elected president of the college symphony orchestra at a recent meeting of the organization. Martha Friederick will be secretary and assist Miss Christ in her duties.

Thanks for the memory—
Of pickled pussy cats,
Tiny red-eyed rats,
Dissected frogs and slimy worms
all with which to drive us bats,
How smelly it was!

Thanks for the memory—
Of crucibles and tongs,
Bromine in our lungs,
The chem labs when we had to hear
so many old refrains sung,
How quiet it was!

Many's the day that we studied,
And many's the day that we wasted,
But then, it was life that we tasted,
Some sleep, some fun,
And now we're done.

So thanks for the memory—
Of nitric acid holes,
Students all with goals,
Perfected yields and nitro rings
combined with blo's woolly moles,
How baffling they were!

Thanks for the memory—
Of Prof. Green and his smile,
Those colored squares of tile,
Doc Horn as well as "Georgian"
Prof all dressed up in white at tire,
How helpful they were!

Smith Delivers Message At Last Bible Session

Professor Lewis E. Smith delivered a special message to the seniors at Bible Class last Sunday morning in Sylvan Chapel. Mae Jean Pickling was in charge of devotions and Jeanne Schlegel sang, "Heavenly Manna". Margarite Jungblut led Vesper Services Sunday evening.

Duddy's Music Students Sing At Norristown

Three Albright music students, Jeanne Schlegel, Betty Fielitz, and Elizabeth H. Pottierger, participated in the annual recital given by Professor John H. Duddy at the Valley Forge Hotel in Norristown, last Saturday evening. An afternoon and an evening recital were given by 80 piano and voice students of Professor Duddy.

Miss Schlegel sang "Pace, Pace Mio Dio" by Verdi; Miss Fielitz, also soprano, sang "Prayer of Salome" by Massenet; Mrs. Pottierger, contralto, gave "Still Wie Die Nacht" by Bohm.

Professor Duddy's other Reading students who appeared in the recital were Barbara Bowman, Joyce Monyer, Gloria Eschelman, and Margaret McWade.

Dear Prof . . .

Dr. F. Wilbur Gingrich was the senior's choice for their favorite professor. Modest man that he is, Dr. Gingrich's picture is not to be found in the Public Relations Office, but seniors grant him a place in their hall of fame, nevertheless. Professor Marcus Green was runner-up as the senior's favorite prof.

DOMINOES LEARN

and the happy butler were played respectively by Herbert Sigley and Robert Sokol. Sokol seemed to be enjoying the play as much as the audience.

And last but not least we come to Prof. Ruth Shaffer, who competently and patiently directed the play. She obviously had the production well in hand, and handed it to the public as a delightful evening's entertainment.

P.S. the settings were the loveliest to grace the Domino stage in many a thespian's appearance there. You may do them again sometime, Jeanie Jaglom.

SENIORS REVEL

Committee members working on the prom, the price of which is $3.25 per couple, are juniors: Marie Bonner, Margaret Hendricks, June Plowfield; seniors: Felice Epstein, Ruth Plowfield, June Ruth, and Betty Claire Voste. Co-chairmen are Rita Duncavage and Mae Jean Pickling.

President and Mrs. Harry Masters honored the faculty and seniors at tea last Sunday afternoon. Arrangements were made by Professor Florence V. Innis. Professors Anna H. Smith, and Ernestine Elder, Miss Marie Kleppinger, and Miss Anna Benninger were floaters. Mrs. George W. Walton and Dean Cunliffe poured. The receiving line was formed by Dr. and Mrs. Masters and Dean Walton.

Preceding this event was the Phi Beta Mu breakfast in honor of the senior sorority sisters Saturday, May 26. It was held in the Colonial Room of the Abraham Lincoln Hotel.

Initiating the round of social events was the all-senior-women dinner held at the Thomas Jefferson Tea Room, last Wednesday. The dinner was followed by entertainment, card playing, and various games. Janet Luckenbaugh and Eleanor Schubert were in charge of the event.

Dean Cunliffe was a guest.

Zetas Win Interfrat Title; APO Runner-up

APO's Garner No. 2; Hyman Winner Harting and Hagan Shine

The A. P. O. Fraternity took the runner-up spot in the inter-fraternity softball competition on Tuesday, May 15, by defeating a hapless Pi Tau aggregation, 18-7. Herb Hyman led the way for the A. P. O.'s by holding the Pi Tau scoreless for three innings.

Player-Coach Butch Harding, Ed. Lange, and Chet Hagan were the big guns for the A. P. O.'s garnering three hits each. Harding along with Jack Shafer, came through with the only home runs of the game.

The Pi Taus managed to hold the A. P. O.'s scoreless and even took the lead in the sixth inning; however, their efforts were in vain when the A. P. O.'s came through with a rally in the seventh chapter. The rally was started when Hyman laid down a bunt, and Lange hit safety.

Steve Winters was the losing pitcher going the full distance for the Pi Taus. Winters gave up a total of eighteen runs and twenty-two hits. Hyman, the winner, gave a total of seven runs and ten hits.

The Alpha Pi Omega team defeated the Pi Taus 22-16 in the first engagement. The Zetas handed the A. P. O.'s their only two defeats of the season.

First row, left to right: Warren Pfost, Dr. Virgil C. Zener, O. D. E. Pottleger, Fred Clewell, Charles Russ, Newell Wert, Dr. F. Wilbur Gingrich, William Landis.
 Second row: Robert Buxton, Robert Holtzapfle, Librarian Kenneth Raymond, Robert Schneider, Stewart McCleary, Robert Ziegler.
 Third row: William Beal, John Spindler, Thomas Price, Cecil Pottleger, Forrest Saylor, Ray Pottleger.

A high-powered Zeta softball combination snared the Inter-Fraternity softball league title on Thursday, May 17, 1945 by smearing the Pi Taus 13-8. The Zeta men this season sailed undefeated through all campus opposition, defeating both the A.P.O. and Pi Taus twice. In the other game with the Pi Taus, the Zetas were the victors 11-7 while in the engagements with the A.P.O.'s they came through 7-1 in the first contest and 9-1 in the second fust.

Zetas Come From Behind

In their brawl on Thursday, the Zetas were forced to come from behind in the first inning; however, the power which they displayed all year became evident in latter chapters, and they easily won.

Tiny Landis was the big gun for the Zetas when it came to run production, scoring three home runs. Forrest Saylor took runnerup honors by collecting a pair of home runs for the Zeta cause.

Pi Taus Get Good Start

The Pi Taus started off with a bang by scoring four runs in the first inning via two singles, two errors, and a walk. In the second frame, the Zetas came back to tie the score on two doubles, a walk, and an error. Also in this inning Tiny Landis came through with a three-bagger which helped them maintain a lead. During the next inning, they really put the game on ice with a barrage of six runs. In this rally there were two circuit clois, one by Forerster Saylor and the other by Bob Holtzapfle. The victors in this inning collected one triple, a pair doubles, and one single.

The Pi Taus came back with three runs in their half of the third which featured a spine-tingling triple by Bob Deach. The losers scored the final run on a walk, a stolen base, and an error. In the Zetas' half of the fourth, Saylor slapped out his second homer with one on to give them two more runs. They also scored a run in the final frame on a hit, an infield out, and an error. Saylor, the winning pitcher, was given credit for his fourth win of the season.

Sports a la Femme . . .

On Thursday, May 17, the softball team played in a nip and tuck game against Drexel. The girls really displayed their talents, but the game ended in a win for the opponents, the score being 7-6. The Albright lassies outthit the Drexelites 14-11, but were unable to capitalize on their advantage, while the Drexel girls took advantage of the Lion errors. Virginia Woerle pitched a swell game for Albright and also collected two runs for the home towners.

The Albright women's tennis team also engaged Drexel in a tennis match recently. Although a full record of the results was not available, it is reported that Albright racket-toters did alright when it came to smashing the ball. Marie Bonner and Maddy Gable are proving to be the tennis mainstays, and are the girls-to-beat on the Albright squad.

Side Lions

Berks county High School Tracksters garnered four state titles on Sat. May 26, when they traveled to Penn State for the all-state competition. Tony Dadamio, Birdsboro, led the Berks county contingent by capturing both the one mile and 880 yard titles. Bill Kline and Jim Lippincott won their specialties, the broad jump and the high jump events.

Chet Hagan, Reading Eagle reporter and Public Relations office employee, is getting into the swing of things by playing softball for the A. P. O.'s. Hagan plans to matriculate at Albright next year and also write sports for "The Albrightian." John Lyon, Albrightian from Jamaica, has proven himself quite the tennis player in recent competition. Johnny was a member of his high school team in Jamaica. Incidentally Lyon also plays a bang up game of cricket.

So long for now. Here goes Side Lions on the side lines until next year.

W.A.A. Holds Banquet; Women Get Awards

The Women's Athletic Association hold its annual banquet in the College dining hall on Monday, May 21, 1945.

Guest speakers at the dinner were President Harry V. Masters, Coach Neal O. Harris and Charles Gordon. Mary Eschwei newly elected prexy of the W.A.A. was the mistress of ceremonies and she introduced the guest speakers after which Erma Leinbach, past president, took charge of the meeting and presented the following awards: Numerals; Mae Jean Picking, Betty Bradley, Mary Ellen Hill, Esther Savidge, Gladys Savidge, Louise Trostle, Mary Alice Lippert, Kay Conners, Jean Harer, Fay Sheetz, Ferne Allen, Dorothy Bennett, Lynne Parr, Minna Silberman, Edith Scheirer, Jeanne Flickinger, Jean Borgstrom, and Elizabeth Sanger.

Letters: Joy Culter, Christine Calpin, Virginia Woerle, Elaine Schwartz, Madeline Gable, and Alice Hoyt.

Sweater Awards

Sweaters: Marie Bonner, Jane Teitsworth, Mary Eschwei, Margaret Hendricks, Phyllis Carter.

Keys: Bertina Blauch, Jeanne Miller, Erma Leinbach, Ann DeFarges.

The girls were awarded these honors according to their participation in various athletic activities. The W.A.A. has devised a point system by which each college woman can acquire merit for participation in sports. The point system is set up so that at various levels women receive token for their achievements. The first level is the numerals with the highest award being the key.
