Commencement Proves Most Impressive Ever At Albright

Twenty-eight Receive Bachelor's Degree Two Receive Master's Degree

DR. FINEGAN ADDRESSES GRADUATING CLASS

Commencements have come, and they have gone, and each has left it's own memories, which at once please and pain. This season saw the culmination and fulfillment of a faith of years in the happiest, most successful commencement ever. The graduating class was the largest for several years; alumni and friends returned to a new, greater Albright, one which they hardly realized was the Alma Mater of the past, Albright was here, Albright, dressed in new garments, with new strength and beauty. A wave of pride and a thrill must have surged through us all and a new sense of belonging and ownership descended upon us.

Fraternities gathered old fraters into their brotherhoods; sororities held their mysterious orgies; classmates with the varied degrees of difficulties caused by time and the elements, recognized and welcomed their friends of the days as long ago.

Commencement Day itself, always signifying triumph, this year was more significant than ever. The exercises were the first of their kind to be held in the handsome new chapel. At 9:30 o'clock, of the morning of June 14th, the procession consisting of the President, Dr. Finegan, the speaker, the trustees, faculty and graduates gathered in the Mohn Hall Reception Room, from where they proceeded in a long dignified procession to the chapel. Here in the presence of proud parents and friends the graduation exercises of the class of 1922 were held. Rev. J. Q. Curry, of Johnstown opened with a mighty invocation which was followed by the rendering of Handel's Magnificent Hallelujah Chorus by the combined Glee.

The big feature of the day was the presence and addresses of Dr. Finegan, Supt. of Public Instruction Pennsylvania. Dr. Hunt appropriately introduced Dr. Finegan who proceeded with the address of the day. Dr. Finegan in a brief, yet satisfying and excellent delivery, spoke to the class of the pride they should feel in graduating from so fine an institution and of the pride Pennsylvania takes in her educated men and women. He spoke of the need for teachers, of the prospects of such a vocation and the value of education to the state. If the resources of Pennsylvania can be reckoned in dollars and cents, so can the value of her citizens, and all the (Continued on Page Two)

FUNERAL SERVICES OF PAUL M. HARTZLER

All that was mortal of the late P. M. Hartzler was laid peacefully to rest in Terre Hill cemetery, Thursday, June 15th, 1922. The funeral was private. The following faculty members were present—Dr. L. C. Hunt, Dr. C. A. Bowman, Profs. Dech, Zener, Eisenmenger, and Benfer. Rev. Heisler of Reading spoke comforting words to the friends and relatives after Prof. Zener had read the scripture. Dr. Hunt then paid comforting tribute reminding us of the words of Jesus, "what I do thou knowest not now—thou shalt know hereafter." Prof. Benfer then read "Abide with Me." The following fraters acted as pallbearers—fraters Roland, Blank, Hangen, Luckenbill, Kyle and Hoffman. Deceased was 27 years, 5 months and 3 days old at time of death, Sunday, June 11th. To the senior class and many friends thanks is extended for the splendid flowers given.

Baccalaureate Is Held in New Chapel

A beautiful morning and a new chapel was the combination that made the Baccalaureate services held on Sunday, June 11th, one of the best ever known at Albright. The Chapel was well filled with students, friends and relatives of the graduating class, who had come to attend the other activities of Commencement Week.

The Class of '22 led by Pres. Hunt and members of the Faculty marched in a body and took their places on the front seats. Following the reading of the Scripture by Dr. Gobble, the anthem, "O, Daughters of Zion, Rejoice" was rendered by the local church choir. Prayer by Dean Bowman and a solo by Mrs. H. A. Benfer preceded the sermon by President Hunt.

The sermon taken from Gen. XI:4; XII:2 was delivered with great earnestness. In the course of his sermon Dr. Hunt said: "The Bible teaches this lesson,—that when men co-operate with God they succeed; when their plans clash with God's plans, they fail. To teach men this great truth is the Mission, not only of the Bible, but also of the world. There is a plan of God for every life. The Supreme Example of this is the life of Christ, who from the beginning to the end of his earth life, held steadfastly to the Divine Plan."

Numerous examples of men were quoted, whose lives give evidence of working in harmony with God's plan. Such lives mean service to their fellow men, strength and comfort to themselves and will be permanent in their influence.

REV. HANGEN SPEAKS TO Y. M. C. A. AND Y. W. C. A.

The services, held by the Christian Associations of the College, in the Chapel on Sunday evening, June 11th was well attended by the students, a large number of town people and visitors. Miss Frances Faust secretary of the Y. W. C. A. read the scripture lesson and Mr. Ray Lackey, President of the Y. M. C. A. offered the opening prayer. Those present were given an excellent treat by the choir which rendered the anthem, "Oh, Be Joyful in the Lord" and by Mrs. Benfer and Miss Sara Stetler who gave the selection, "I Waited for the Lord" (Mendelssohn).

An inspiring sermon was delivered by Rev. George W. Hangen, of Allentown, Pennsylvania. With the text, "If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them." As a nucleus he built around it a splendid discourse. The three main points, drawn from the text—which he emphasized, were Information, Occupation and Exaltation. "Spiritual illiteracy is," he maintained, "the greatest evil of the age." Then, speaking about occupation, he said that it is not that we have but one talent but that we fail to use it. He closed the sermon by stressing the happiness and exaltation that we derive from serving God.

The Christian organizations are to be commended for securing the services of Rev. Hangen and for the well arranged program of the evening.

ANNOUNCEMENT

This issue is a special one and is being financed by the College and the Alumni.

To Our Subscribers

The Bulletin Staff announces thru this special issue a change in the form of publication. The form used during the past year was chosen only as a temporary experiment. The new form used in this special issue, institutes considerable saving in space and cost of publication. The Bulletin itself will be produced upon the same general principles, will be of the same nature, as during the past year. It will be published bi-weekly, and the price remains $1.50 per annum. It is our aim to make next year's Bulletin the best and snappiest ever. Watch for our special issues next year. There are to be several new, unique features. Have you renewed your subscription? Have you showed the New Bulletin to patrons and friends of Albright, as well as alumni who are not on our subscription list? Help us to make next year the best ever for the Bulletin. We promise to produce quality,—we ask you to help us to be able to issue quantity.

Mixed Glee's Render "The Ten Virgins"

Oratorio Received as Feature of Annual Commencement at Albright

On Saturday evening, June 10, the combined Glee's rendered Gaul's "Ten Virgins", to an audience that filled the chapel to its capacity. The rendition of an oratorio is an old custom of the Albright Commencement season, but for several years it has been abandoned. The renewed interest in a form which accompanied it in this year's revival, shows exactly how greatly it has been appreciated. The concert was even more successful than ever and is one of the delightful remembrances of the commencement.

The narrators were taken by the bass soloists, Teter and Luckenbill. The tenor soloists were Glenn Raffensperger, and Basom. Soprano solos were beautifully executed by Edith Trostle, Mary Miller, and Jane Fray. Marguerite Willars, Verda Wetzel and Sara Stetler sang the contralto numbers.

At the close of the concert Miss Phillips, the efficient leader and vocal instructor, was presented with a large basket of flowers by the Male Glee, and a beautiful silver mesh bag by the Girls', as a small expression of the great regard and esteem in which they hold her.

ORATORICAL CONTESTS

The oratorical contests were held at 8 o'clock Monday evening, in the College Chapel. Rev. Heik was chairman of the evening.

In the Temperance contest, which was held first, there were but two contestants, H. V. Jewery, whose subject was "Who is Thy Neighbor", and Frank Kyle, with the subject, "Christianity and the Eighteenth Amendment". Mr. Kyle was adjudged the winner of this contest, for which the Hendel Prize of $15 in gold is given.

There were four entrants in the impromptu, which was immediately after the Temperance contest. They were F. G. Livingood, Arthur Fahl, E. G. Hangen and F. P. Kyle. The contestants were given ten minutes each to think of and five minutes to speak upon, the subject, "Should the U. S. Government assume the additional obligation of a Soldier's Bonus?" Mr. Livingood was adjudged the winner of the contest, for which the Harris prize of $15 in gold is given.

DEDICATION OF NEW BUILDINGS CONDUCTED

Informal Reception For Dr. Finegan Precedes

Following the Commencement Exercises of the morning, a dinner was served by the college, and at 1:45 an informal reception was held in Mohn Hall reception room for all to meet Dr. Finegan. An hour was passed in friendly intercourse, and all who met Dr. Finegan were impressed with his kindly intellectual personality.

At 2:30 the dedicatory exercises were held in the chapel. Dignified and impressive, they expressed the Christian objective of the institution. Rev. A. A. Water gave the scripture reading from the Psalm, "The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof" which was followed by prayer given by Dr. Dunlap, former student of Albright.

Dr. Finegan again expressed his admiration for Albright in a brief address, congratulating us on the Christian emphasis which is dominant, and told of his favor of the small college.

The audience was again favorably impressed by Dr. Finegan. The hymn, "The Church's One Foundation" was sung and, at the close, Rev. Detweiler, President of the Board of Trustees, performed the dedication. His address cannot be abbreviated. It is found in its entirety in another column. The solemnity and gravity of the exercises were further carried on in the singing of the Doxology and the services ended with the benediction by Dr. Schlegel, Sec. of the Executive Board.

PASTORS, ALUMNI, FRIENDS ATTENTION!

The aim for the student body for the next year has been set at 250. In the interest of the canvass to reach this aim we solicit the aid of pastors, alumni, students and friends in general who know of high school graduates ready to enter college next September. Send us the names and addresses of these and catalogs will be mailed to them. As soon as possible an effort will be made to get into personal touch with them if necessary. Send these names at (Continued on Page Four)

Matters in Interest of Albright Discussed in Annual Business Meeting

OLD SPIRIT DISPLAYED IN ALUMNI DAY PROGRAM

The Commencement Season this year was marked by an unusually large attendance of former students and graduates of the College. Many were on hand as early as Monday, and by Tuesday morning the Alumni were everywhere much in evidence. Quite a number were present who had not visited their Alma Mater for some years.

Everyone was highly pleased with the improvements recently made at the college, and expressed the hope that what was done should be but the beginning of more extensive development.

The main alumni event of the day prior to the evening meeting and luncheon was the Alumni-Varsity base ball game in the afternoon. As usual, the game was hotly contested, and the cheering of the Alumni was at times deafening. The most sensational moment was when the alumni slugger knocked pitcher Hobson Wagner of the Varsity out of the box.

The account of this game will appear elsewhere in this issue. We want simply to say that the alumni aggregation this year was one of the strongest that has been brought together here in recent years. It was a snappy contest, full of interest from beginning to end.

ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING OF THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The following represents an abstract of the minutes of the annual meeting of the Alumni Association held Tuesday evening, June 13, 1922, at 6:45 P. M.

President N. L. Hummel called the meeting to order.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. C. D. Huber. The minutes of the preceding sessions were read and approved. The class of 1922 were received to vote in to the active membership of the Association.

The Nominating Committee submitted its report, which was accepted as read. The election of officers for the ensuing year was conducted by ballot and resulted in the election of the following officers for 1922-23: President, P. E. Keen, '12; First Vice-Pres., J. A. Smith, '14; Second Vice-Pres., L. M. Miller, '20; (Continued on Page Two)

ALUMNI BANQUET IS USUAL SUCCESS

The annual alumni reunion and banquet was unusually well attended. As usual the luncheon was served immediately after the business meeting, and in the dining room of the college—this time, however, in the fine new dining room. The menu was very well prepared under the efficient direction of Mrs. Lizzie Church of Allentown.

The program of music and toasts followed. Rev. I. E. Spangler, '92 acted as toastmaster. The orchestra of the college rendered splendid music. Toasts were given by S. H. Chubb, '82; W. H. Brown, '97; W. E. Peffley, '02; S. S. Short, '12; E. G. Hangen, '22; and Pres. L. C. Hunt of the college. In addition to the fine music of the orchestra we were favored with a well-rendered piano duet by Mrs. Hattie Coover Kieck, '07 and Miss M. Irene Kline, '07, and with a pleasing vocal solo by Miss Elizabeth Light, '17. The singing of Alma Mater concluded the program, and marked the close of a very happy day of alumni fellowship.

EDITORIALS

A SPECIAL NUMBER

This extra number of the Bulletin is being issued for two objects primarily. The first object the Staff has had in mind in the issuing of this special Commencement number, is to give the prospective fellow students of next year a little further insight into what we are doing at Albright. Our second purpose is to urge our Alumni and friends to aid us in increasing our subscription list at least one hundred per cent next year.

First of all to you.—Prospective sons of Albright! We are eagerly looking forward to your joining us next September. We are already planning for your arrival, and you will find your own particular niche all ready, and waiting for you to step into it, and make it peculiarly distinctive. Perhaps you have been watching up our progress this past year. If you have, you will recognize that you are entering Albright in the most interesting and most vital period of her history. We have merely entered upon what promises a continuous series of expansions during the next few years. New surprises will be awaiting us next September. Come and help us grow. We are looking for you.

Then to our old subscribers, and Alumni and friends who have not yet been put upon our subscription list. It has been our dearest ambition and resolution to make next year the best financially and otherwise than the Bulletin has ever known. The Staff of the past year has done all within its power to keep you in touch with everything at Albright, to give you just what you would like best to read in the pages of the Bulletin. Judging by comments sent in by various subscribers, you have been more than satisfied with the new Bulletin. It remains for next year's Staff to insure future success of the paper by establishing a wider circulation, and so put the Bulletin on a sounder basis. Only by so doing can the plans for the Bulletin of future years materialize.

This special Commencement Number will, we hope, serve as an advertisement to attract further subscriptions. Our aim is to reflect the life of Albright for the benefit of our subscribers. Will you help us to send a little bit of Albright wherever you think should go?

WHY YOU SHOULD COME TO ALBRIGHT

With this issue, the Bulletin goes to rest. It will not renew its appearance until the summer has past and gone. In many respects we, as a Bulletin Staff, are sorry to discontinue our work. Although we have met many hardships, yet it has been a joy for us to work in this capacity.

Now, as we are about to leave our work for a brief space of time, we feel it necessary to say a few words to the prospective student. In fact, I feel that we can go a step further and say that we desire to offer a few words to the non-prospective student as well.

Undoubtedly, there are many young men and women of today who are looking forward to a college training. The person possessing this outlook should be commended. Perhaps YOU are one of the aspirants to such a future. If so, why not clinch your decision, lay your plans, and undertake the future?

YOU need a college education. When you once become the possessor of this training, you will never regret it. If you fail to make use of these available opportunities, you will regret the fact in future life. A college education is truly a wedge into life. It is a key to future success. It is the open door to social leadership. While at college you not only become efficient in one line, but are greatly benefited in many respects. Especially can we say this if you choose a small college of the type of Albright.

There is an opportunity afforded at college which makes for leadership. No where else can this be acquired as readily as at college.

The scholastic phase of college life is, beyond question, one of unquestionable value. Without this training one is deplorably handicapped in his association with fellow-men.

Again, there is the social and athletic element which deserves no little credit. The absence of either is certainly a detriment to the life of any young man or woman. Without strong bodies our education will be impaired. By omitting the social life which college stimulates, one is apt to become a recluse. Thus, we feel that from every angle, you, Prospective Student, will be benefitted by a college training. Furthermore, we know that after you possess the same, you will be repaid many times.

May we, as representatives of the school through the Bulletin, ask you to come to Albright? We feel that Albright is a school which will give to you all that any other school can give. From the scholastic standpoint, we rank high. From an athletic standpoint, we've taken our place with other colleges of far greater strength and size. One need only look at the Football, Basketball, and Baseball scores of the past year, to ascertain this fact. As for socialability, we know that you would be more than pleased. It is a traditional fact, that Albright is noted for its unusual sociability. The new student is always greeted with a hearty handshake, "What's your name?" and "We want you to feel at home." Thus, every student who comes to Albright joins a family of exceptional friendly characteristics.

Prospective Students, the entire school sends out a most hearty invitation for you to join her ranks this coming September at the Fall opening.

resources of Pennsylvania do not mean as much as her 1,700,000 school children.

Dr. Finegan briefly touched on the responsibility a college graduate comes to face, and of the place that is waiting for each to fill.

It was a stirring address and Albright and her patrons feel flattered and gratified at the interest taken by Dr. Finegan. We have a friend who appreciates our struggles and successes, and who will keep an eye over our activities in educational spheres.

After Dr. Finegan's address the combined Gleees rendered "Inflammatus" in an excellent manner.

The awarding of prizes was then undertaken by Dr. Hunt. The awards were as follows:

Highest Unconditional Freshman standing-prize of $15—Hobart Heller.

Art Prize $15—Grace Reasey.
Sociology prize $50—Howard Blank.

Senior Bible $15—Howard Blank.

Sophomore Greek and Latin $15—Ethel Varier.

Junior English $15—Arnita Miles.
Impromptu speaking $15—F. E. Livingood.

Oratorical contest $15—C. Rafensperger.

Temperance contest $15—F. P. Kyle.

Dean Bowman then presented the names for diplomas, and after the class had received the rewards of their four years labors, the benediction was pronounced by the Rev. J. A. Heck, the college pastor.

Two members of the class were not present to graduate, but received diplomas. Paul Reharg Frey was ill, having had a very serious operation, and John O. Hartzler was absent because of the sad death of his brother.

ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING OF THE ALBRIGHT ASSOCIATION

Third Vice Pres., Miss Esther E. Eilenberger, '20; Secretary, Miss Emily M. Brenner, '09; Treasurer, R. D. Smoyer, '04.

Rev. G. Wes Marquardt, Prof. S. S. Short, and Rev. W. E. Peffley were constituted a committee to prepare resolutions of sympathy for the family of Paul Hartzler, '15, who passed away so suddenly during Commencement Week, following an operation in the Lebanon hospital.

Reports from the Banquet Committee, the Program Committee, and the Literary and Scientific Committee were heard and accepted. The report of the Treasurer of the Association was also heard and received. The report showed the following totals:

Balance, June 1921 .....$ 23.13
Receipts for the year..... 224.09

.....$247.22
Expenditures for the year --$ 97.37

Balance, June 13, 1922 ----$149.85

The auditing committee was appointed, and was constituted as follows: H. W. Buck, W. H. Schlappich and M. W. Stuch.

The Committee on Revision of the Constitution presented its sketch of the revised constitution for final adoption. The constitution was adopted without amendment. (This revision was published several months ago in the "Albright Bulletin").

The same committee also submitted its draft of the Article numbered "X" covering the method of election of Alumni Trustees. This draft was held over for final adoption until next year's meeting. The provisions of the article were however adopted tentatively to govern the election of trustee for the coming year.

Nominees for the position of trustee of the Association upon the Board of the College were then balloted for. Balloting resulted in the selection of the following four men, one of whom will be elected in due time as provided for: A. H. Young '08, W. E. Peffley, '02; N. L. H. '08, '14; Dr. C. H. Venus, '08.

Rev. G. Wes Marquardt reported for the Alumni Memorial Campaign Committee. They recommended that a committee of five be appointed to select a site and prepare plans for the construction of a new gymnasium. The report was upon motion accepted. In this connection it was decided to appoint a committee to continue the work carried on by the former committee.

Mrs. Luella M. Bowman, Treasurer of the Campaign Fund, presented her report. The auditing committee appointed last year presented the following report under date of June 22, 1921:

Total amount subscribed to date .....$7595.00
Total amount received on subscriptions .....$2850.61

Total receipts .....$2896.14
Total expenditures ..... 238.58

Balance in Bank .....$2657.56
Liberty bonds on hand ..... 150.00

Total on hand .....$2807.56

Mr. C. D. Becker suggested that inasmuch as the Association will not meet again for some months, the Building Committee be sufficiently large that it may be entrusted with the prosecution of the plans. A motion was made that this committee be given power to select a site and secure plans for the proposed memorial, and to proceed in conjunction with the building committee of the college, if the amount of funds in hand warrant such action. The motion carried.

J. A. Heck spoke in the interest of "Albright Bulletin", and urged that the Alumni Association assist in defraying the expenses of the proposed special Commencement Number. A motion was made that the Alumni Association appropriate $20 for this purpose. Motion carried.

The following bills were ordered paid: for programs, $3.50; for orchestra, $15.00; for secretary's book, $1.50.
Adjourned.

ALBRIGHT COLLEGE—ITS HISTORY

The Fourth Link

Encouraged by the manner in which that letter was received by the General Conference he laid the same matter again before the Board of Trustees of Central Pennsylvania College at the annual meeting in 1895. On motion of Isaiah Bower, one of the trustees, the Board appointed the President of the College a committee to visit the four eastern conferences and lay this matter before them. He visited the Pittsburgh and Ohio conferences in the fall of 1895 and laid the same matter before the East Pennsylvania and the Central Pennsylvania Conferences in the spring of 1896. All four conferences appointed delegates to a joint committee to take up this matter.

That committee met in the United Evangelical Church at New Berlin on Thursday afternoon, June 18, 1896. The outcome of this meeting was a disappointment as nothing definite was accomplished. One reason was that each side wished to control the new or consolidated institution and have the other party play seconds. Under such conditions no merger can be brought about, unless one party is strong enough to crush the other and force a merger. Such was not the case in this instance.

More, however, was accomplished than appears on the surface, as we shall soon see. A beginning was made. Some of the brush was cleared away. Both sides went to work their respective fields to raise an endowment. Agents were placed in the field both at Albright College and Central Pennsylvania College, and both met with fairly good success.

In the mean time both colleges tried to devise means to obtain state recognition. The trustees of Central Pennsylvania College appointed a committee to secure the necessary legislation. After several meetings and conferences the chairman of the committee prepared a bill which was placed in the hands of Hon. B. K. Focht, State Senator from Union county, who presented and looked after the bill in the Senate. In the House Hon. A. W. Johnson, of Union county and Hon. Adam Smith of Snyder county looked after the bill on their side. This bill amended the bill of 1895 and under its provisions both Central Pennsylvania College and Albright College were placed on the approved list.

Between the time this bill passed the House and was signed by the governor the East Pennsylvania Conference revived its committee of 1896 and sent Rev. J. D. Woodring as a delegate to visit the Central Pennsylvania and Pittsburgh conferences to reopen the subject of consolidation. This was in the spring of 1901. He was received with open arms and his message was hailed with delight. Both conferences appointed their quota to meet the delegates of the East Pennsylvania Conference in joint committee on consolidation. The joint committee formulated a plan which was approved by all the conferences and in the summer of 1902 the merger was consummated under the amended charter of Albright College and in September the students of both colleges met at Myerstown as members of the consolidated college then popularly known as "The Greater Albright".

REV. DUTWEILER'S DEDICATORY ADDRESS

The fact that you are here tells me that you are interested in Albright College and that you desire its prosperity. We are glad of this. It's what we are interested in that we like to talk about and do for. Where there is little love for an object there is not interest enough in it to give to it and make sacrifices for it. But where there is much love there is the desire of heart and readiness of mind to make sacrifices to achieve the purposes we have in view. We are admonished, in the word, not to despise the day of small things and we are told the end is better than the beginning. We cannot tell how many have despised the day of small things. Some have done it, in our church, as far as institutions of learning are concerned. Our own schools were too little and too insignificant for them to send their sons and daughters to them. They must needs send them to an institution that was bigger and more widely known than our own. Some of them, but not all of them, have done it to their sorrow. They know now that their sons and daughters would have been truer to the faith of their fathers had they sent them to their own church schools. We are not here to cast any reflections on any institution of learning, be it great or small, but we are here to say there is no better place to send your sons and daughters than to your own church school. In saying this we do not mean that they should be narrow and bigoted in their views of truth and duty but we do desire to see them have their early religious impressions deepened and not destroyed. We desire to see them hold fast to that which is good and to endure as seeing Him who is invisible. It is well known that some who have gone to larger institutions of learning have had their confidence in the entirety of the word destroyed. They no longer believe, as they once did, that "all scripture is given by inspiration of God and that it is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness that the man of God may be perfect thoroughly furnished with all good works". The Bible is not to them what it once was. Much as we prize learning and fervently as we wish we had more of it we hesitate not to say frankly and positively your sons and daughters better not go to college at all than to go there and have their faith in the verities of the word destroyed. Our college here in Myerstown and many more denominational colleges stand for that which is purest and best. This being the case, as friends of Albright College, we should gladly do what we can to sustain it and to further its interests. Let us purpose in our hearts that we will be true to this institution which has done so much for us and for many more, who are not here to-day. Every advanced step that is taken should serve as an incentive to us to do greater things for greater Albright. So may it be.

We shall now proceed to set apart these buildings for the purpose for which they were erected:

With glad hearts we come before the Lord and praise Him for giving us the desire and ability to put up these buildings and now that our purpose has been accomplished we desire to dedicate them to Him to be used for His Glory in imparting useful knowledge to those who come here to gain it. May all who love Him when they come here seeking instruction learn more of Him within these walls and may all who are destitute of the christian hope when they come attain unto it while here. Hear us our Father, we humbly pray thee, accept these buildings as we here and now give them to thee and do Thou accomplish thine own purposes in and thru them we ask in His name who loved us and gave Himself for us.

ALBRIGHT DEFEATED AT FRANKLIN & MARSHALL

When Coach Whitely Price, of F. & M. left the field here last week he made the remark that he would beat Albright over there. He evidently made good his threat, for F. M. scored nine runs to our four in the game played at Lancaster yesterday. The game wasn't five minutes old before we knew what to expect. Miller, the first batter hit the first ball for a single, went to third on an error, and while the elongated Harris was meditating, stole home. The umpire waved him out, thus robbing us of a run. The Albright batters got busy in the third and sent Harris the showers when Yost hit for four bases with two on. Price then sent in a new battery and after this the game was over as far as Albright was concerned, for if the umpire was off on base decisions he was weaker still on balls and strikes. Everything Mohrbach threw that was near the plate was a strike, while Yost was compelled to groove the plate for a strike. Outside of the umpiring, the game was well played. The hitting of Cragin was the feature.

LASALLE vs. ALBRIGHT

June 12 saw the final intercollegiate baseball game for the 1922 season between La Salle and Albright. From the time the first ball was thrown to the end of the game the Albright boys showed that they still know how to play a good brand of baseball. The opposing team was not so very strong, nevertheless the good work of Rafferty, pitcher, and Steinman, catcher made the Albright boys work. Raffensperger '25 played his first varsity game for the season and made a very fine record, chalking up three-base hits for himself. Albright took the lead in the beginning, and was never in any danger of losing. The score stood 15-7 in favor of Albright. The line up was as follows:

Albright	LaSalle
Yost	P
Schell	C
Wagner	1B
Deck	2B
Knecht	SS
Jones	3B
Miller	LF
Stock	CF
Raffensperger	RF
Woonery	Umpire

ALUMNI LOSE TO VARSITY

On June 13 the Alumni, Students and friends of Albright College gathered once more on the diamond to prove that the old spirit and pep of Albright never languishes, but instead is always increasing. Throughout the entire game, the shouts of encouragement from the grandstand kept rolling out to the hard working teams. Rev. D. Longsdorf kept the pep of the Alumni to a high pitch, even tho the odds were very much against them, throughout the entire game. The student body at all times showed the Alumni that they can yell as well now as formally. The battery for Albright was Lincoln and Schell; for the Alumni Zinn and Jacoby. Eisenberger substituted for Zinn in the fourth inning and the score soon took a different appearance. But the rally lasted only a short time, and the Alumni soon fell back into their old rut of striking out. The score ended with the Albright Varsity in the lead to the tune of 16-5. The line was as follows:

Albright	Alumni
Lincoln	P
Schell	C
Wagner	1B
Deck	2B
Knecht	SS
Jones	3B
Miller	LF
Stock	CF
Yost	RF
Zinn	Umpire

Eisenberger substituted for Zinn. Helsey for Buck. Umpire, Himmelberger.

—Come to Albright.

DEAR PROSPECTIVE STUDENT

The question, "Why we need you at Albright," can be answered in this manner: "We need you at Albright because you need us." It is very true that we need you, but only in a subordinate sense. The primary need of your coming to Albright, is because of the fact that you cannot get along without us. By not coming to Albright you are neglecting a phase of your life which can only be supplied by enlisting in our group. Enlist yourself as an Albright student and supply that need. We are looking for you next year. Your college friend,

J. G. BROWN.

Dear Student-to-be—

I've been thinking about you, and I wonder just what your thoughts and expectations are. While I was in High School, I thought I could never enjoy school life more than I did then. It took me just two weeks to believe differently. If you enjoy "living", I know you will enjoy Albright. The friends I made in the dorms, are the closest friends I ever had.

You who are coming in next year, will know an Albright that none before you have known. The campus was beautified by additions to the main building. Most of the classes know nothing of this new Albright. We who are here, have lived through the stage of change. These days will live always in our memories.

You, however, will meet a welcome in beautiful buildings and campus. Also, we want to assure you a welcome to our college. We're waiting for you.

DAVE SECHRIST.

Mohr Hall, Myerstown, Pa., June 14th, 1922.

Dear Future Fellow Student—

I am sure you have been thinking of the hours which you will spend outside the class room. A great many of these hours you will be in Mohr Hall. Here the girls are just like one big family. Perhaps you are used to being with only a few people, but here you have an excellent opportunity to associate with many.

Life in the Hall is an education in itself, for, if you learn to live with, and enjoy the association of many girls, you have learned a very important thing. My own private opinion of the matter is, that a girl's school life is not complete without the "dorm" life. Through it the girls all become more intimate and it is with great eagerness that we return after vacations to the friendly walls. I am sure you will enjoy this part of life at Albright as much as we all do.

Sincerely yours,

MARY K. DICE '24.
