International Relations Club Conducts Annual Model U. N.

The Albright College International Relations Club sponsored its Tenth Annual High School Model United Nations last Saturday. Ten schools from Berks County were represented by over 300 delegates.

The mock U.N. is a yearly affair which serves to introduce teenagers to the workings of the international organization as well as to introduce them to the Albright campus.

Assembly Officers

I.R.C. President Jose M. Sanchez, '66, served as Secretary General for the General Assembly. He was aided by committee advisors Linda Reed, '67, Jo-Ellen Ammarell, '67, and Sharyn Pullen, '66. James Butler and Susan Chapman, both freshmen, worked on the staff of the Secretariat. I.R.C. faculty advisors Dr. Charles A. Raith, Prof. Philip A.

Eyrich and Prof. William R. Bishop were on hand for the entire proceedings.

The program got underway at 8:00 with registration. An opening plenary took place at 9:00 in Krause Hall. At this time, the conference heard from keynote speaker Dr. Theodore Zoupanos, adviser to the Mission of Cyprus to the U.N. Dr. Zoupanos is also an assistant professor in international law at Vassar College. He spoke on the Cyprus crisis and U.N. efforts in the island.

Caucuses Held

Various bloc caucuses started at 9:45 and at 10:25 the conference split up into three committees which would tackle three different problems. Committee I, meeting in Room 8 of Masters Hall, debated the Cyprus question; Committee II tackled the issue of Expanded Membership in rooms 206-207 while Committee III convened in rooms 306-07 to handle the Financial problem.

After a break for lunch, the committees met again in the afternoon. At three o'clock all meetings came to an end and resolutions from each committee were presented to the plenary meeting in Krause Hall.

The I.R.C. officers involved were also assigned the task of evaluating each delegation in order to determine the winning school. Delegations are tested on their knowledge of the country's position, their attitude toward officers, their behavior in caucus and the quality of their resolutions.

Winning Schools

Totals showed that Muhlenberg High School (representing the United States) finished first. Other schools and their countries included: second, Wilson High School (Soviet Union), third, Reading High School (Albania), fourth Reading (Cyprus) and fifth, Mount Penn (India). Individual delegates chosen for their outstanding skills were Michael Cogan (Reading), Barry Evans (Wilson) and Jack Latteman (Muhlenberg).

Several of the student delegates were the guests of the college at the Elizabethtown-Albright basketball game. The International Relations Club will employ the small profits made in organizing the conference for their own Intercollegiate Model General Assembly in New York City March 4-7. Harvard University is the sponsoring school and Albright will be representing the country of Iraq.

Lycoming to Sponsor Music Competition

The Fourth Annual Intercollegiate Music Competition, sponsored by the Student Union of Lycoming College will be held at Lycoming in Williamsport, Pennsylvania, on March 25 and 26, 1965. This annual affair provides an opportunity for college vocal and instrumental groups to compete for cash awards totaling $800.00, as well as trophies, and other prizes.

The Grand Prize winner for 1964 was The Only Two, a folk group from Dartmouth College. Other winners were The Rum Runners from Lehigh University and The City Folk from Bucknell University. These winners, in addition to other first place winners in previous years will not be eligible to compete in the 1965 I.M.C.

Instrumental groups of less than full orchestra size will compete on one evening. Prizes of $250.00, $100.00, and $50.00 will be awarded for these winning groups. Any style of music is permitted, except "rock and roll".

For further information on the 1965 I.M.C., groups may write to I.M.C., Box 39, Lycoming College, Williamsport, Pennsylvania.

New Student Center Plans Discussed By Architects

A corner with a comfortable chair and an ash tray for relaxation and conversation with good friends and new friends, a place to shoot billiards and fill empty stomachs, and rooms for organizations to meet are requests Albright students have voiced will soon become reality. After months of planning these ideas have taken form in the proposed Student Union Building. On Tuesday, December 15, President Masters presented two of the architects, Mr. John Vardis and Mr. Robert McWater, to the students in the chapel at 4:15 for an explanation of the building and a question period.

Part of the new structure will be built over the foundation of the present Krause Hall and extended to the dining hall with a foyer connecting the two sections. The first floor will contain a formal lounge, a small anterior to the cafeteria for waiting in line, an open informal lounge suitable for a dance floor, an office for information service, a large bookstore, and a theater with modern lighting and a seating capacity of 275 people. The lower level is expected to include a radio station complex, storage rooms for band uniforms, costumes, props, and settings, theatrical make-up and dressing rooms, billiard and ping pong tables, a snack area for about 200 persons, a series of offices and meeting rooms, and lockers for day students. If there is enough student interest, bowling alleys may also be installed.

At the end of the explanation questions arose concerning the size of the theater, the bowling alleys, and the dining hall which would be enlarged to serve 900 students cafeteria style for most meals. Since the purpose of the Student Union is to meet the needs of Albrightians and since the plans are not final, opinions and suggestions for the new building are encouraged.

GLEE CLUB GIRLS SEEK TO RAISE FUNDS FOR TRIP

Can you imagine thirty-some Albright coeds plus male director hitchhiking along the Pennsylvania Turnpike? Neither can the administration or the thirty girls!

The male choir from the University of Pittsburgh has invited Albright's female voices from the Glee Club to sing with them in Pittsburgh on March 6. In addition to the "Te Deum" by Flor Peeters to be sung with the Pittsburgh choir, the girls have been asked to sing one or two numbers of their own. The group will leave early Saturday, March 6, participate in the concert in the afternoon and be guests at a banquet in honor of Pittsburgh's choir in the evening. They will leave for Albright Sunday morning.

The girls will leave, however, only if they can earn the $300 transportation money they desperately need. Their fund-raising activities so far have been the bake sales November 30 and December 14 which have produced $40. Another bake sale is on the calendar for Monday, December 11. The sales are held in Selwyn Hall and in the Science Hall.

Please support Albright's singing coeds—it's a long walk to Pitt!

Domino Club Set For Production

"Monique" by Dorothy and Michael Blankfort will be presented by the Domino Players Friday and Saturday, January 15 and 16 in Krause Hall at 8:15 p.m. The play, to be presented arena style, will be open to the public. Special invitation will be given to students of local high schools.

Tickets can be reserved any time after the holidays for either $1.50 or activity stub number 28 and 14 cents. Students who wish to obtain tickets may do so in the glass-enclosed lounge at the Treasurer's Office.

The cast includes Mick Benderoth '67, Frances Rinehart '67, Margaret Fritz '68, Carole Frantz '67, Sharon Morrison '67, Mark Wasickanin '67, Ronald Delp '67, Peter Beitchman '67, Harry Schob, Clarissa Malohy '68, and Karen Detwiler '68.

The stage effects and off-stage sound effects will be under the direction of Dave Martin '67, technical associate. Joann Carvell '66 is stage manager and prompter. Nancy Hyde '66 is in charge of tickets and costuming for the play is under the direction of Judith Adams '66. The campus service fraternity and soror-

CHILDREN TREATED TO FILM, GIFTS AT PARTY

The YM-YWCA group arranged a Christmas party for children ranging in age from four to ten, on Sunday, December 13. All Albright students were welcomed to "adopt" a child or children for $1.00 each, to cover the cost of the dinner and party.

At 12:30 Sunday afternoon a busload of adopted children arrived at Albright, and the "parent" students and children assembled in Krause Hall where children and students were paired together. At 1:00 P.M. dinner was served in the dining hall, and following, a Christmas party was held in Krause Hall. Each child was given a bag of cotton candy and toys from Santa Claus. A film on "How the Animals Discovered Christmas" was shown.

ity are taking care of ushering for the evening.

Another up-and-coming activity of the Domino Players is a program of play readings to be performed for a special group at the Wernersville State Hospital on January 11. The program will be performed by Edwin Rineheimer '67, and Joann Carvell '66.

Day Student Party Held in Pine Room

On Thursday, December 17, the Pine Room was the scene of a Christmas party for all Day Students. The Daywomen were in charge of the lunch, and a record player was provided.

Jo-Ellen Ammarell, Beryl Boyer and Audrey Haines who were in charge of the party expected about 60 or 70 students to be present.

Each year the daywomen have a Christmas party in the Pine Room with a fire in the fireplace, and sing carols, but this is the first year that they have been joined by the daymen.

Recently the girls acquired a record player which was donated to the organization. Accompanying the player is a collection of 40 albums of classical music. Lately, the record player, which also contains an FM-AM radio, has been in constant use.

Along with the Christmas Party, the daywomen held a Christmas Cookie Sale on Monday, December 7, the profits of which helped finance the party. They sold the various kinds of cookies in the first floor of Selwyn Hall, and since they were so well received, the girls are planning on holding the same type of sale again, next year.

PI TAU BETAS ANNOUNCE SITE, THEME OF ANNUAL RUSH DANCE

The Pi Tau Beta fraternity will present its annual Rush Dance on Saturday, January 9 at the Orioles' Home, S. 8th St. The theme for the dance will be "Around the World in Eighty Days," and all independent male students are welcome.

Dennis Petricoin, '66, is in charge of the affair and he will also direct the building of the head decoration piece: a huge balloon similar to the one created by Jules Verne in his classic novel. Petricoin is well remembered for his superb replica of the Eiffel Tower for last year's rush dance. He feels that the balloon could well surpass the tower in the level of artistic achievement.

Favors will be presented to all the co-eds attending the gala event: their escorts are promised a chance to meet most of the Pi Tau brotherhood. This will be President Bob Henning's final function as an officer, for new executives will be inducted that night. Two juniors, Tom Huntzinger and Donald Jones, are the presidential hopefuls.

Ronald Himes, Charles "Big Daddy" Compton, Bruce MacDermott, Bob Kugler and Bill Wilhelm are other PTB members on the Rush Dance committee which promises one of the best affairs in the fraternity's recorded history.

Money Awards To Be Given to Agon Winners

He who hesitates is lost.

Money-hungry Albrightians would do well to heed this advice and submit their entries to The Agon as soon as possible. Albright's literary magazine is again sponsoring a contest to encourage student contributions. Twenty-five dollars in hard currency will go to the person with the outstanding piece of writing; second and third prizes are $15 and $10 respectively. Not bad for a few minutes' work.

Freshmen are especially challenged to present their creations. Most of the English 201 instructors will emphasize the possibility of contributing to The Agon. Susan Palmis and Terry Hartman, both seniors, are serving as co-editors. Prof. Paul Applegate is the magazine's advisor.

The quality of Agon material became quite evident two weeks ago when the first publicity efforts were launched. Several of the Agon posters (apparently artistic masterpieces) were mysteriously snatched by souvenir-conscious students. They will get another chance when school reconvenes and new signs—just as eye-catching as their predecessors—adorn the campus.

Lion Cagers Top F&M, E-Town

By Phil Eppley

Albright invaded the Diplomats of Franklin and Marshall College Tuesday, Dec. 8, and notched their first victory 69-64. The second half proved to be a spine-tingler as the outcome of the game was not decided until the Lions went into a freeze owning a 66-62 lead at 1:46. The Dips tried to rally, but the Lions sustained their late drive and won 69-62. Kudrick again led the Lions' scoring with 23 points; he was followed by Klahr with 22.

Diplomats Take Early Lead

The Dips opened the game on two quick jump shots by Jordon and led until 8:55 when Mike Klahr hit a jump shot from the key to tie the score at 16-16. The Lions took control of the game then and gradually built up a 38-25 lead. But the Dips fought back with eight straight points to trail only 33-38 at the half.

Albright opened the second half with a six point burst on two goals by Klahr and one goal by Kudrick to extend the lead to 44-33. But the Dips then scored 15 points, while limiting the Lions to only three in the next seven and one-half minutes to tie the score 48-48 at 11:01. The game then went scoreless for almost one and one-half minutes before King hit for the Dips. Klahr countered to tie the score 50-50, and then Albright and F and M matched goals until Albright began its freeze to win.

J.V. Loses Third

The Albright J.V. team lost its third straight game 81-60 to the F and M Frosh. F and M led at the half 42-21 behind the shooting of Russel and Dreisbach. Dreisbach again found the range in the second half to halt a short-lived Albright rally which narrowed the score to 10 points. DeHaven and Sakalovski led the J.V.'s with 13 and 11 points respectively.

E-town Faces Lions

Elizabethtown's Blue Jays, last year's MAC champions and 3-0 this year, invaded Albright last Saturday night to be whipped by the mighty Lions 74-71. Albright not only showed a superior offense, but also a superior defense as the Jays' leading scorer, 6-7 Dan Reitmeyer was held to only nine points by 6-7 Joe Lobichusky. Lobichusky also joined Bill Kudrick and Mike Klahr to form an unstoppable offensive unit scoring 54 points between them.

A POEM

By Nancy Trainor

The word "assassin" appeared in the paper again today, second time within a month. People are inhuman.

Two days ago the snow was white, clean, and beautiful; it had just fallen. I look at it now and it is dirty, jagged and ugly, trodden on all about. People find a distaste for beauty.

A once clear room is now so smoke filled you could gag. We all smoke continuously to hide our non-composure. People are conformingly funny.

Some-one walks over to you, grinning and for once cheerful. She takes your last cigarette . . . with a smile, scrutinizes your charity with adulation, and with adept airs leaves your company in search of a match. People are altruistic in behalf of themselves.

Kudrick Scores First Nine Points

Albright got off to a fast start with Billy Kudrick scoring nine points as the Blue Jays scored only five. When Kudrick's hand went cold, the Jays rolled off five straight points to take a 10-9 lead. But Mike Klahr picked up the slack as he and John Lentz engaged in a scoring battle for their respective teams with 11 and 15 points respectively in the hectic first half. The Lions held a slim 37-34 lead at the half.

Lions Pull Away

Albright started the second half with three points by Kudrick and four fouls by Klahr. Albright increased its lead to 13, 58-45, but the Jays battled back to contention as they trailed only 66-61 at 4:58. But the Lions would not quit and built up the lead, 70-62, with only two minutes, 43 seconds left. The Dips closed the gap to 72-69, but Albright would not give up its victory. The Lions rallied to end the threat with two quick fouls, and E-town could only score one more goal to lose 74-71. Lobichusky and Klahr starred for the Lions in the second half with 13 and 12 points respectively.

J.V. Notch First Victory

The Albright J.V.'s ended their losing streak as they clipped the E-town Frosh 74-73 with only two seconds remaining. With 17 seconds left, Bert Sakalovski stole the ball, but he missed the lay-up. Albright recovered the ball, and Sakalovski passed to Dave Farrell who hit a lay-up with only two seconds remaining to give the J.V.'s a come-from-behind victory. The J.V.'s trailed 28-39 at the half, trailed by 13 with 5:27 remaining, and trailed by 10 at 3:11. Bert Sakalovski featured in the second half with 17 points, and made that important assist which gave the Lions their victory. Sakalovski led the J.V.'s with 26 points; he was followed by Bruce DeHaven with 17.

Albright Invitational Tournament

Albright will host three other schools in the Albright Invitational Tournament during Christmas vacation. The other schools are Amherst College, Brown University, and Rutgers University. Preliminary games will be held on December 29th and final playoffs on December 30th. The winners of the preliminary games will face each other and the losers will participate in a consolation match. Student activity books will not be honored at the tournament.

ASIS Offers Summer Jobs in Europe

Grand Duchy of Luxembourg—Every student in America can get a summer job in Europe and a travel grant by applying directly to the European headquarters of the American Student Information Service in Luxembourg. Jobs are much the same as student summer work in the U. S. with employers offering work periods ranging from three weeks to permanent employment.

Lifeguarding, office work, resort-hotel jobs, factory, construction, camp counseling and farm work are only a few categories to be found among the 10,000 jobs ASIS has on file. An interesting summer pastime not found in America is tutoring. Numerous well-to-do European families are inviting American college students to spend the summer with them and teach their children English.

Wages ranging to $400 a month, and in most cases neither previous experience nor knowledge of a foreign language is required. ASIS, in its seventh year of operation, will place more American students in summer jobs in Europe this summer than ever before.

Students interested in working in Europe next summer may write directly to Dept. II, ASIS, 22 Ave. de la Liberté, Luxembourg City, Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, enclosing $2 for the ASIS 36-page booklet which contains all jobs, wages, working conditions, etc., job and travel grant applications, and to cover the cost of handling and overseas air mail postage.
