Inclement Weather Fails To Dampen Spirits Of 750 Enthusiastic Alumni

"Beetle Bailey" Wins Float Competition For Pi Taus

Beetle Bailey and Sergeant Snorkel survived a sudden cloudburst to win the annual "float" parade competition for the Pi Tau Beta social fraternity. Beetle Bailey shined the Sergeant's shoes to accompany the theme of "Albright Will Shine Today." George Walck, '61, was responsible for the construction of Pi Tau's winning float.

The second place award was shared by the Zeta Omega Epsilon social fraternity and the Pi Alpha Tau social sorority.

The PATs put "Dennis the Menace" in a plastic bag to explain "I Can't Study This Way", and "Don't Squash College Knowledge." Marilyn

Speeches Are Highlight Of Alumni Lunch

Homecoming Day saw 750 alumni return to the campus although the weatherman came through with his predicted rain.

After a morning of intermittent showers, the skies burst open at half time as the marching band formed on the stadium field to play the Alma Mater and to lead the traditional float parade.

Registration was featured during the morning in the dining hall under the auspices of an alumni committee and James Garofalo, '61, Student Council representative, and also in the sorority and fraternity houses. The Phi Beta Mu and Pi Alpha Tau social sororities held a joint coffee hour for their returning alumnae in their respective houses. Guided tours were conducted by James Schuman, '60, and his committee.

Speeches

Dr. Harry V. Masters, president of Albright College, described the academic status, physical growth, faculty and staff and the student body of the college at the annual luncheon. He introduced Dr. Mahlon H. Hellerich, academic dean of the college, and Mrs. Hellerich to the alumni. Willard M. Stitzell, '60, president of Student Council, welcomed the alumni and Dr. Gerald G. Hottenstein, '38, president of the Alumni Association, reported on the activities and plans of the association. James E. Hall, '55, Richmond, Va., was introduced as the alumnus who traveled the greatest distance. Elmer T. Mohn, '02, Lancaster, was honored as the oldest alumnus present.

College Combo At Krause Hall

Willard Stitzell, '60, has announced that music for the dance in Krause Hall tomorrow night will be provided by campus talent rather than the usual popular records. Tryouts and rehearsals for the combo were delayed due to Domino Club activities in Krause Hall.

Tables and chairs will be set up along the sides and back of the hall to provide a larger dance floor.

Student Council is hoping for enthusiastic support of this dance to encourage campus musicians to play for the Friday night activities.

Lions Seek Fourth Win At Moravian

Hounds Own 2-2 Record

Moravian's Greyhounds will have 12 lettermen awaiting action against the Lions Saturday afternoon when Albright travels to Bethlehem for its seventh gridiron encounter.

Coach Rocco Calvo introduced a new attack this fall with the "Satellite offense" which he admits is a close replica of the famous "lone-some end" made famous by Army during their 1958 season. The trigger for the Greyhounds' new play will be halfback Johnny Williams, a freshman who has proven himself valuable on aerials. The tosses of Williams and Russ de Vore have placed the Moravian pigskin in the air more this year than in recent seasons.

There have been few changes made in Moravian's line; the Greyhounds lost two starting guards, Gus Rampone and Mike Payonk, tackle Charlie Bartolet, and end Gene Borvell.

Greyhound Returnees

Returning this season as starters are tackles Bob Haney and Jim Kritis, ends John Olson and Paul Moonan, and centers Fred Lepari and Sal De Luca. De Luca will also accompany sophomore Lev Rozelli at guard.

In the back field, sophomore Dave Poe has seen action as a capable replacement for George Hollendersky, most valuable player in 1958. Coach Calvo will select his halfback from a group of five proven players.

In last year's contest with Moravian the Lions suffered a 15-12 setback although they surpassed the Greyhounds in the air and on the ground. Mike Varano, key man for the Lions, was lost through an injury during later action in the Homecoming game. His 66-yard run and two touchdowns accounted for Albright's most outstanding playing.

APOs, Zetas Battle Evenly For 2nd Half

The Alpha Pi Omega and Zeta Omega Epsilon fraternities closed out the second half of the intramural football season last week in a tie for first place honors. They were scheduled to meet in a play-off battle for the second half title last Monday. Both teams had a 4-0-1 records in second half competition in which the most important battle was their 7-7 draw.

APOs On Top

The APOs won the first half toga on the strength of a 5-0 log, while the Zetas earned a 2-2-1 mark. In the second half tie game, Bob Shoup, the league-leading scorer with 55 points, notched a TD for the APOs and teammate Art Younkin scored the extra point. Chuck Kachel, runnerup in league scoring for the season, came through with the Zetas' six-pointer and Chuck Campbell got the extra point.

Following are the selections for the 1958 intramural football All-Star squads, chosen according to their seasonal point productions. The results of the second half playoff and those of a possible championship playoff will be put in the next issue.

SECOND HALF

Scranton Dampens Albright's Conference Title Hopes, 19-6

Scranton University cashed in on Lion mistakes to spoil a damp Albright Homecoming Day, defeating the Red and White, 19-6, before 1,000 returning grads last Saturday afternoon. Albright's record now stands at three wins and three defeats going into tomorrow's game with Moravian at Bethlehem. Tony LoSapio, Albright's fabulous center, was selected as the outstanding Lion grinder of the game and received the fourth annual Haps Benfer award for his efforts.

Albright controlled during most of the first half; the Royals couldn't move the ball out of Lion territory, earning only three first downs to Albright's six. It was in the second quarter that the Red and White got their lone score. With the ball on the enemy 44, quarterback Gary Chapman threw a short, shallow pass to halfback Tom Olivo, who picked up blockers and went all the way. Claude Lynch's kick was partially deflected. The Lions led, 6-0, at half-time.

Dickinson Red Devils Crush Lions, 15-44

The Dickinson Red Devils added another loss, 15-44, to the Albright harriers' already sagging one and four record last Saturday. Coach Eugene Shirk's cross-country men could not keep up with the Dickinson runners who grabbed the first five positions, four men crossing the line simultaneously with the fifth a half minute behind.

John Grove paces Albright runners with time of 25 minutes and 26 seconds in Dickinson meet.

Howie Maat, Jim Bartoli, Bill Sticlike and Wink Lebo clocked in at 24 minutes and 38.6 seconds with Norm Keyes following. John Grove led Albright across the line in 25 minutes and 26 seconds. The Red and White's Barry Goodhart and Paul Hensel charged in behind Grove with Bill Saleneck, Dave Leber, Mike Mareno and Jay Miller capturing thirteenth through sixteenth spots, respectively. The last four places went to the Lions' Gerry Polyascko, Walt Diehm, Bob Cotter and Carl Schneider.

The Lions will try to improve their record when they travel to Moravian Saturday, October 31, and to P.M.C. Tuesday, November 3.

In the third quarter Chapman tried again, but Royal end Bill Francis intercepted on his own 31 and had moved all the way to the Lion 21 before Chapman could bring him down. Three runs, a pass, and a personal foul later, Scranton knotted the totals at 6-all, then led, 7-6.

Tom Shoppie carried from the twenty-one to the fourteen. A personal foul penalized Albright half the distance to the goal, and in two plays Scranton was on the five. Quarterback Ed Zelinski threw to John Herrling for the TD. Gus Graziano kicked the point, and the Royals from then on were never headed.

Halfback Varano Injured

It was also in the third stanza that Mike Varano, Albright's leading ground-gainer with 299 yards, was forced to leave the game because of a leg injury. Varano was injured when the Lions lost the ball on downs on the Scranton 37.

Another scoring opportunity came when Olivo's fumble, one of the four that Albright lost all day, dropped into the hands of Ed Lavelle. However, Scranton couldn't capitalize on it. They waited for another break.

With more than half the final period gone, Sam Richardson gathered in a Scranton punt on his own five. In the attempted handoff to twin safety Mike Matto, the ball bounded out of control and Shoppie fell on it on the Albright three.

From there Pete Fidati tried three times to score, advancing to the one. On fourth down, John Wastak pushed over for their second score of the game. Graziano's placement was no good, but the Royals led, 13-6.

As if that wasn't enough to win, the Royals added another TD at the close of the game, this one by Shoppie, on an eleven-yard thrust which topped a 48-yard march.

Shoppie was the leading ground-gainer of the game, racking up 80 yards to his credit, which included a 33-yard single advance. Gerry Bricker led the Lions with 36 yards. The Royals held an upper hand in the overall rushing, 146 to 102, but were outpassed, 110 to 50.

Alumni Secretary Sends Letter Of Praise To Students

To the Editor:

"No alumni Homecoming Day could ever be successful without the full support and cooperation of all Albrightians now on campus.

Last Saturday's 'Welcome' to alumni and former students was again a day to be remembered . . . not only because of 'rain-dampened' people and floats, but more so because of every student's efforts, in spite of many obstacles, to make a great Homecoming!

For the Alumni Association, we want to express to Steve Lipkins, student chairman, our sincere appreciation for a job well done, and to all students our thanks for making October 24 a real Albright day."

Executive Secretary
