ANNUAL ALUMNI PAGEANT TO CLIMAX COLORFUL ALUMNI DAY EXERCISES, SATURDAY, JUNE 3rd

Dr. J. D. Shortess, Oldest Male Alumnus, To Present Portrait of Dr. J. D. Gobble, at Alumni Banquet Held Saturday Evening, at 6 O'clock in College Dining Room

June the third will be Alumni Day at Albright! The Committee has arranged an interesting program with the day chockfull of get-togethers—from basketball games, fraternity and sorority meetings and banquets, with the assurance of not a dull moment.

But for those who call "Dear Old Albright" their alma mater, the high spot of the day will doubtless be the Alumni Banquet to be held in the college dining room at six o'clock, when classmates will once more reunite for fond reminiscence. At this time, Dr. John D. Shortess, oldest living male alumnus of Albright will present to Albright College, in the name of the alumni, a portrait of Dr. A. E. Gobble, "Father and Grand Old Man of Albright." The portrait was painted by Miss Lydia Moyer, who was Art Instructor and head of the Art Department at Albright College, Myerstown. It is very fitting that the alumni present a likeness of Dr. Gobble who served the College so faithfully for half a century and whose untiring efforts helped to make Albright College what it is. There are those who will remember him as President of Central Pennsylvania College at New Berlin, Pa., and those younger alumni who recall his active service as Dean and Registrar at Myerstown. Dr. H. Franklin Schlegel, Secretary of the Board of Trustees and Chairman of the Executive Committee, and himself an alumnus of the Central Pennsylvania Conference, will accept the portrait of Dr. Gobble in the name of the Alumni of Albright College. Several humorous skits will also be a part of the program.

MLLE. BENOIT SPEAKS TO INTER. RELATIONS CLUB

Mlle. Germaine Benoit was the featured speaker at the final meeting of the present school year of the International Relations Club on May 4, in Selwyn Hall. Her topic was "The Necessity of International Relations," with this as the basis for her interesting informal talk. Mlle. Benoit traced the economic situation in France, from before the World War to the present day. She emphasized the challenge to Youth to bring about international interest and co-operation, necessary for the establishment of world peace and welfare. This may be accomplished by the purposeful activity of college clubs and by education.

Because the speaker presented unbiased opinions and observations of the economic conditions in France, the talk was particularly valuable. She has kept in touch with reliable authorities, and so the facts she stated were timely and in some cases advanced news.

Mlle. Benoit, before coming to the United States was in business in Paris for twelve years. During her six years in Reading, she has been the proprietress of a gift shop, active in church circles, and a frequent speaker on international relations.

Before the meeting closed the new president, Mr. George Deininger, and Professor Hamilton suggested among other things individual research moves and group discussions as features of the club's activity for next year.

ELABORATE MAY DAY FESTIVITIES EMPHASIZED WITH OLD ENGLISH THEME

The May Day Celebration was held on the Albright campus on Monday evening, May 15, at 6.30 P. M. The theme of the fete was Old English and was emphasized in dance and costume. Irene Fray was crowned May Queen.

Festivities started with the Selinger's Round, an Old English folk dance, given by a group of freshmen girls. Following this came the processional of the May Queen and her court. The main event of the program was the crowning of the queen, Irene Fray by her maid of honor, Sara Hoffman.

The Sophomore girls followed with the Morris dance, depicting men dancers. Next the May Pole Dance was given by members of the upper classes. Jeanette Maurer concluded the program with a solo dance.

To Miss Anne M. Kulp, director of Physical Education for Women, who had complete charge of the affair, is due the credit for a successful May Day program.

The May Queen is chosen by the girls of the college, and their choice is based primarily on popularity. Her court was made up of the following persons: Helen Buck, Esther Fenili, Ida Giamo, Geraldine Kershner, Betty Krick, Mildred Reber, Mary Ellen Venus and Cynthia Wallace. Dorothy Fessler and Kathryn Humma acted as flower girls, and Mary Bowman as crown-bearer. The heralds were Ann Wetzel and Reba Topper. Edith Smith took the part of court jester. Elizabeth Althouse and Mary Knerr also were in the fete, and the accompanists for the dances were Ruth Turner and Mildred Rothermel.

The dancers who wound the May Pole were: Miriam Becker, Agnes Bittle, Martha Felmlee, Hazel Hemminger, Helen Kummerer, Marian Myers, Betty Rimmelpacher, Lillian Slater, Ethel Sprinkle, Virginia Thomas, Harriet Venus, Alyce Ware, Catherine Winter, Margaret Wittmann, Helen Yohn and Yohn.

STUDENTS VISIT STATE HOSPITAL, WERNERSVILLE

About thirty students visited the Wernersville State Hospital on Friday afternoon. The trip was a project in Dr. Fluck's Abnormal Psychology Class and Dr. Greth's Sociology Classes. Dr. Kraus, from the staff of the institution, conducted the tour.

Many cases of mental illness were studied, feeble-mindedness, epilepsy and dementia praecox included. The application of occupational therapeutics was observed in the art rooms and work shops where the patients were engaged in needle-work, cabinet-making, weaving and knitting.

The capacity of the Wernersville hospital is 1400. At present there are approximately 800 men and 500 women in the institution. However, recently the per centage of women admitted has shown a pronounced increase in comparison with that of the men.

We are asked to remind you of the Junior-Senior Dance which will be held at the Berkshire Hotel, Saturday evening, May 27, at 8:00 P. M.

Music is to be furnished by the Colonial Serenaders and the admission is only $1.00 per couple.

Make arrangements now to attend this affair.

STUDENT COUNCIL MEMBERS CHOSEN; M. LUSTIG NAMED PRES. OF GOVERNING BODY

During the past few weeks, the various classes have been electing their representatives to the Student Council for the year 1933 and 1934. The results of the elections are as follows:

Seniors: Dorcas Haines, Catherine Yerkes, Leroy Brininger, Ralph DeFranco and Melvin Lustig.

Juniors: Madge Deiffenbach, Mildred Rothermel, John Haldeman and Lester Stabler.

Sophomores: Dorothy Dautrich, Lloyd Helt, and James Woods.

The officers of the Council for the coming year are: President, Melvin Lustig; Vice-President, John Haldeman; and Secretary, Mildred Rothermel.

During the past year the Governing Body of the college has made great progress under the able leadership of Ralph Weigle. This body should be and is the most important organization on the campus of Albright college. The power vested in its constitution is greater than the average student has realized. We suggest that each one turn to a copy of this constitution to be found in the Library, in the office, or in the hands of any one of the Council members in order that he might acquaint himself with the power which this body controls. This power, however, cannot be utilized if the students do not cooperate.

The experience of Mr. Lustig will make him a very capable leader of the student body but in assuming this responsibility he can do nothing if every student does not stand back of him and the Council in the work of next year. Mr. Lustig and the entire Governing Body, therefore, ask your hearty cooperation.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Articles have appeared in this column from time to time throughout the year concerning our student form of government, its necessity, possibilities and the seeming futility of the organization in our extracurricular activities in the past. Quite obviously our protest and criticism in this regard has been ignored. But there has been a general fire of resentment smoldering in our student body in regards to the very evident suppression of the council work. True, much has been done the past year to bring this organization to the proper level where a group governing a student body of 400 should be.

There have been slight outbreaks at times when cooperation between council and administration looked promising. The seat of the trouble seems to lie in the fact that the supposed governing body has not been entrusted with the power that is ordinarily conferred on a Student Council. There seems to be no adequate reason why this condition should exist. We may partially blame it upon the attitude a great many students take toward the organization. Certainly we have been fortunate in having worthy representation and efficient leadership composing our Council. Why should such an organization exist at all if they cannot carry out the definite purpose for which they are established.

Recently we noted a proclamation issued by the Student Council in regard to senior examinations. We could see nothing radical or exorbitant in its measures, but it was merely regarded as a request or suggestion submitted for inspection instead of a cooperative plan submitted for proper discussion and fair trial. Only through the medium of the Senate should such a plan be judged and decided. However if said body refuses to function such problems will not be satisfactorily solved.

We do not wish our aspect to appear radical in this matter, but merely to give root to a serious thought that may in turn bring action. With the inauguration of a new Student Council this week, there goes the desire to further the plans from which the lid was pried during this school year. To further the cooperation between students and faculty, and to provide a more efficient and hisher type of student government.

THE YEARBOOK

In less than three weeks the 1934 edition of The Cue will make its appearance among the Albright students and alumni. The yearbook represents the only record and pictured life of our college activities and functions. The material embodied in the annual becomes a written history of the school year. Through its pages we are able to maintain an interest and a contact that otherwise we would not have.

The staff of the 1934 Cue has experienced an exceptionally difficult year financially. They have been forced to omit certain features which have in the past graced the content of the volume, but which, certainly will not disfigure or depreciate the book in any manner. The Junior Class publication deserves the support of the individual student more this year than ever before and to insure its perpetuation a more active interest must be created.

We take this opportunity to congratulate the present Sophomore Class on their selection of the 1935 Cue editor, and in turn his selection of a most capable staff. We wish for them every possible success and achievement.

LITERARY

By James Doyle

Standing, thin-faced and nervous before the "mike," he salutes millions of listeners every Sunday night at 9:30. Most honest of the scandal mongers, most popular of the columnists, he is eagerly listened to as he flashes out his weekly quota of news flashes, scandals, witticisms and orchids. No newspaper man has ever before attained the heights to which Mrs. Winchell's little boy, Walter, has nonchalantly ascended during the last decade. He has brought into our broad land a new and sparkling language which might well be named "Winchellian."

No other columnist can equal his daring, no other can hope to cope with his scaring sarcasm, no other can even approach his inimitable style, he stands alone, the best of his class. Others may have better literary ability but Winchell is—well—just Winchell. Wives fear him husbands resent him, his bitterest enemies envy him; but Walter goes his way, the idol of millions, the despair of thousands.

Personally, I am waiting for some cigarette company to break out with the announcement that Winchell smokes their brand exclusively, for, I am told that he does smoke like a phonograph record blaring forth Ben Bernie's hottest music. Incidentally, if you didn't know it, the Bernie-Winchell feud is a phoney; but he really is burning up over "la Hitler" (how he hates that—shall I call him—"sissie"?)

Any way you look at it Winchell is a great guy, and that President's Day idea was a good stunt. An orchid to you Walter Winchell! May your children all be blessed with the good fortune of not being bow-legged (Allah be praised that I'm not. Well — not much.)

To those who like JOHN ERSKINE this will come as good news, the author of CINDERELLA'S DAUGHTER, PRIVATE LIFE OF HELEN OF TROY, etc. has broken out with a new novel TRISTAN AND ISOLDE. It is a story of those two great lovers who died by taking poison. Mr. Erskine has again changed an old legend from the poets version to a story which will suit the demands of the modern public. Tristan is painted a soldier of fortune who lives with his uncle and succeeds in seducing the wives and sweethearts of a number of his neighbors. Isolde, on the other hand is painted as a beautiful and virtuous young maiden who succumbs to his ardent wooing. Palamede enters the scene as a young and handsome heathen in search of pure and spiritual love which he has been taught exists in the land across the sea. He is quickly disilusioned by Brangain, Isolde's cousin, who tells him that love in England is on no higher plane than in his own country. The story ends in a blaze of action, with Tristan and Isolde gracefully dying, Palamede dashing off to the Holy land to give battle to the heathens, and Brangain seizing a horse, and following him. It is a thoroughly enjoyable story.

QUILLERS TO ELECT OFFICERS, TUES., MAY 23

The regular monthly meeting of the Quill Club was held in Selwy Hall, on Tuesday evening. The president, Rudolph Shook, president. Several original poems were a part of the program. Alyce Ware read some original verse in English while Virginia Thomas read some in German. Stella Hetrich recited Lowell Reese's "The Farmer," also a dramatic selection, "Lord Ullin's Daughter."

The club will elect officers at their next meeting scheduled for May 23rd.

Alumni Party Is Huge Success

New York—(Special to the Albrightian)—Another successful and entertaining alumni meeting of Albright grads living in the metropolitan district was held last Saturday, May 13, at Mr. Leonard Miller's otherwise or, better known as "Shorty," new home in South Nyack-on-Hudson, New York.

The alumni, although not so numerous as was expected by the Committee headed by Miss Thelma MacGinnis, of North Arlington, New Jersey arrived at Shorty's by bus, train and motor car and proceeded at once to enjoy themselves.

Mr. Miller opened his entire place to the old grads and other guests, and ample room gave them plenty of freedom. A spacious lawn and an excellent view of the beautiful Hudson River together with the hospitality of Mr. Miller and his wife, to say nothing of the refreshments served later on in the afternoon, all went to make the reunion in Nyack a great time and success.

Dr. Warren Klein, President of the College favored us with his presence and gave a short talk in which he emphasized the need of strong co-operation upon the part of the alumni of the metropolitan area. He stressed the value of Albright College in giving the student a thorough training while not neglecting the religious angle of education, for, he said, "Education without religion, is a dangerous thing." Other problems of great importance were then discussed in an open forum. A special appeal was voiced to alumni members living around this section of the world to attend the next meeting to be held at Mr. Fulcomer's home in New York City. For details and date write Miss Thelma MacGinnis, Secretary, North Arlington, New Jersey.

Other well-known guests included the President of the Alumni Association, Mr. Mohn, and Miss Ruth E. Helfelinger, who will be remembered as the May Queen in '30. Thanks are due to Mr. Miller and his wife for their kindness, and to Mrs. Warren L. Templin for helping along in a helpful way.

Get in touch with Miss MacGinnis now, and plan to be at the next party. There is great need for a strong New York alumni organization, and it can only be possible thru the absolute co-operation of all Albright College grads living in this vicinity. Graduates of old Schuylkill College have been lax in not giving this support. If we are to cement the friendship of college days after graduation, alumni associations must be backed to the limit. This is an age of co-operation. This is a time for earnest get-together, for serious thought as to how we may rout old man Depression. Colleges the world over need their alumni associations to help broadcast their merit to the people. If we are to advertise Albright College, and that is one of the main reasons for the Metropolitan Alumni group, then we must have the support of every Albright graduate of this area.

Let's go, Alumni members. Be at the next meeting. Show your Albright spirit as in student days.

Five hundred bibles were distributed among the students at Columbia university and within two days there were requests for two hundred more.

Undergraduates at Columbia university have spent $10,000 on social events so far this year.

Here's a bit of college life:

SPORTLIGHTS

Has the Lion lost its claws and fangs? One might well think so if he were to follow the records of the Red and White nine. There is no doubt that Albright has seen very few baseball teams to equal the present one, but the important factor is victories and these have been rather infrequent to-date. True, weather conditions have prevented sufficient practice and granted, that the opponents had good teams and that the "breaks" were against Albright, still our lads were a bit over-confident. Let us hope the tune will be different against our traditional foe Lebanon Valley, in the game to be played the third of June, during Alumni Week.

The track team, has proved a disappointment in that they haven't turned in a single victory this season. The team's strength lies in the field events, while the chief handicap appears to center about a lack of good runners. Prospects of winning the Central-Pennsylvania Class B meet for the third time and thus making the trophy a permanent Albright possession seem rather dull at the present time.

One defeat has the tennis team suffered thus far and one defeat it will remain for the entire season. There was no good reason why the team should not have had an undefeated season, but a slight error in the Juniata match has marred its record.

Juniata appears to be the jinx for old Albright this year, having floored the Red and White in debating, tennis, and baseball. Incidentally, the same Wenger who gave Juniata the deciding edge in the debate was also extremely instrumental in handing the tennis team their only defeat—no, he's not on the baseball team! The Lions shall avenge the tennis defeat, however, when they journey to Juniata for a return match—this is no idle prediction.

Did you peek in the Kappa's social room recently? Then you saw the three inter-fraternity trophies which have decided to reside there. When it is a matter of basketball, swimming, or track the Kappas take the lead. Hang your heads in shame, you other fraternities! Scholarship? Well, the Kappas don't hold any prizes for that yet. There's one trophy that the Kappas won't get, however, that is the softball trophy. A three game championship will be played this week between the Lions Club and the A. P. O.'s. These will be hard fought games, so get your box-seat early—you must supply your own box!

Congratulations Johnny Smith, as you may or may not know, has been named head football coach to fill the shoes of Frank White who leaves for Sunbury next year. Coach Smith has played second fiddle to Al "Doggie" Julian and to "Frankie" White since he has been at the Reading school; now we should see a fine brand of football, if Smith has retained the good points of the Julian and White regimes and adds to these his own knowledge. Out with the old—So long, Frankie! You take with you the best wishes of every Albright student—and in with the new—Good luck, Johnny! We're all with you!

Red & White Nine Defeated in E. C. C. Debut with Ursinus

DeFranco and Hino Stars for Red and White; Fisher, Eachus, and Scholl Lead Ursinus

Albright's baseball nine made an inauspicious debut into Eastern Collegiate Conference competition as the team suffered a close defeat at the hands of Ursinus, last Wednesday.

Ursinus barely managed to eke out its victory over the Red and White, a homer by Scholl, driving in three runs in the ninth inning to make the count 12-11. Luke Wenrich was battered quite as badly as ever before in his mound career, but with good support Luke might have brought home the bacon. Four infield errors and two miscues behind the plate hurt Wenrich's cause immensely. The records showed thirteen strikeouts credited to Albright's star hurler, many of them with runners in scoring position.

Radio DeFranco starred at bat for Albright with a single and a triple in four chances. The three-bagger came in the eighth inning, a tremendous drive over the center-fielder's head with Orr and Franny Hatton on base. Stan Hino nabbed fielding honors by accepting eight chances perfectly.

Fisher, Eachus and Scholl starred at the willow for Ursinus, grabbing nine bingles among them for over half of their team's total. The score:

Track Team Drops First Two Meets

Gass, Dittman, and Shipe Score in Field Events; Bartholomew Leads in Track Points

The Lions lost two track meets in the past two weeks. The Red and White went down to defeat 70-53 at Shippensburg and 97-29 to West Chester.

The Lions have been strong in the field events but have not had the power to gather much needed points in the track events.

As led the Lions in scoring in the Shippensburg meet with 13 points and Bartholomew was second with 10 points and Dittman and Shipe each captured a first place.

In the West Chester meet Gass and Bartholomew each contributed 10 points and Dittman captured a first in the discus.

Our next meet is this Saturday, when we take part in the Central Pennsylvania's Track Meet, which is held at Carlisle.

RACQUETEERS LOSE TO JUNIATA COL. NETMAN

The Albright netmen bowed to the rackets of the Juniata boys when they were defeated on the Eleventh and Pike Streets Courts to the tune of 4-3. The contest was a thrill from start to finish with both teams showing marked ability. Although Juniata took home the bacon they also took with them the memory of a hard fought contest. The Lions missed the stellar playing of Ray Hoffman, who was unable to play because of injuries to his foot. Probably if the doubles would have been switched the outcome would have been different. Although the tide of battle turned against Albright, "Herb" Oritsky and Willard Berger came through to win their singles and teamed up to win the only double match for the Lions.

A. P. O. Meets Lions For Championship

Remainder of Inter-Fraternity Games Cancelled Due to the Approaching Exams

Due to a late start, the remainder of the inter-fraternity base-ball game will be definitely cancelled in order to have the championship games played before examination time.

The Inter-fraternity Athletic Council has decreed that the A. P. O. will meet the Lions Club in a three-game championship series to be played on the campus field, May 16, 18, 19. This decision was reached by the Council in light of the fact that the above mentioned have both lost but one game. The A. P. O.'s, at present, are leading the flock, having an edge on the Lions, who, as yet, have to play the Betas to complete their quota of required games.

During the past two weeks, every organization has been playing a respectable brand of baseball; however, the biggest upset came when an animated Kappa aggregation caused the Lions to bow to the tune of 7 to 3, thus causing the tie for first place.

A record turn-out is expected at these games which will decide who shall become possessor of the baseball trophy for the coming year. Both teams have been greatly strengthened, and both are sure that when the smoke of battle clears away they will be the justly proud winners of the attractive laurel.

The standing of teams to date:
	W.	L.	Pct.
A. P. O.	5	1	.833
Lions Club	4	1	.800
F. O. A. S.	3	2	.600
Zetas	2	3	.400
Alphas	2	3	.400
Kappas	1	4	.200
Betas	0	6	.000

The state legislature of North Carolina did not provide for summer sessions, so the faculty of the university will instruct without salary this summer to enable continuance of the class-work.

The University of Idaho has called in a psychologist to help choose the color of its football uniforms. It seems that red is the most profitable color, because it excites the audience and increases the interest of the crowd, thereby inspiring the team to play better. The game however, is apt to be rougher, because red arouses the fighting instinct of the opponents. Oh, dear!!

Statistics show that men at Dennison university who drove cars on the campus last year made grades 26 per cent higher than those who walked. However, not the type of town car of which the Plott's boys are proud possessors.

ALUMNI DAY, JUNE 3rd

But no time to linger—it is 8 o'clock, so away to Albright's stadium where a gay outdoor Spanish Fiesta will be waiting.

The setting will be Spanish and the play chosen by Dr. Fenili has been selected from Don Quixote by Cervantes. It is the ever-fascinating story of a poor shepherd boy who marries the daughter of a rich land-owner. The wedding scene will be nothing short of spectacular, flanked by a chorus of 75 trained voices and supported by a Spanish Orchestra. There will be six main characters and twenty-five subordinate roles. Following the wedding festivities there will be a mock bull-fight. The entire production will be done in Spanish costume even to the colorful matadors and toreadors. The Spanish dancers numbering about fifty, will be under the personal direction of Miss Grace E. Faust and the Gypsy Chorus will be personally directed by Prof. George Haage.

The Stadium will be illuminated for the occasion and it is expected that a large number of Alumni will witness this flashing Fiesta—a fitting climax to a day of extraordinary festivities, and one that will linger long in the memory of the sons and daughters of Albright.

... THE COLLEGE MEN'S TELEPHONE HOUR!

HERE'S a college tradition that's one of the best... "Half past eight is the time to telephone home!" It's not in the Freshman handbook; it's not in the Rules. But here's the reason for its popularity:

At 8:30 P. M. low Night Rates go into effect on Station to Station calls. These are calls for a telephone (like a local call) and NOT for a specific person.

Take advantage of the saving—just give the operator your home telephone number. The folks are probably at home at 8:30 P. M. But best of all, and to make doubly sure, keep a regular date to telephone home each week. Then you can always make use of the inexpensive Station to Station service.

Station to Station Call 3-Minute Connection Wherever applicable, Federal tax is included.		Day Rate	Night Rate
