J. Barrett Takes Council Presidency With 183 Votes

Rev. Shannon To Be Speaker

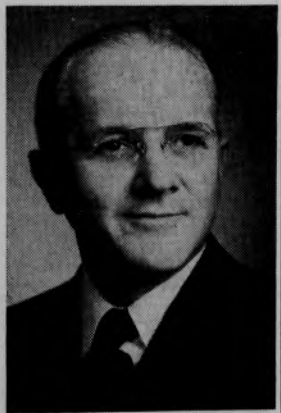

Paul E. V. Shannon, superintendent of the Pennsylvania conference of the Evangelical United Brethren Church, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon to Albright College graduating seniors, June 7, President Harry V. Masters announced today.

Conference head for the past 4 1/2 years, Dr. Shannon was previously pastor of the First EUB Church in York, Pa., where he now resides.

Dr. Shannon graduated from Lebanon Valley College in 1918 and received the B.D. from Bonebrake Theological Seminary in 1921. Lebanon Valley has granted him the D.D. degree.

Before the York ministry, he served pastorates in Dallastown, Pa., Baltimore, Md., and Dayton, Ohio. He is a member of the board of trustees of the General Church.

He has served on several boards and commissions within the General Church including Christian Social Action, Ministerial Training and Christian Education. Prior to his election as superintendent, he was Leadership Education Director and Director of Christian Education of the Pennsylvania Conference.

Active in community affairs, Dr. Shannon is chairman of the York inter-racial commission and a charter member of the conference of Christians and Jews.

Dr. Shannon will share speaking honors in the Albright commencement celebration with Andrew W. Cordier, executive assistant to the Secretary General of the United Nations, who is delivering the commencement address.

The baccalaureate service will be held in Krause Hall on the Albright campus at 10:45 a. m., Sunday, June 7.

Accounting Bulletins Donated To Library

The Philadelphia Chapter of the National Association of Cost Accountants has recently given the college library a set of papers on the subject, "Taking Inventory on Inventory Practices." These manuscripts were prepared by leading accountants and are on subjects of current interest to accountants. They are especially good for getting views on current accounting practices.

Bash, Marick Cop Top Y Positions; Others To Be Chosen By New System

John Bash and Virginia Marick were the victorious candidates for the Young Men's Christian Association and Young Women's Christian Association presidencies respectively, as decided by the entire student body. Miss Marick defeated her opponent Jean Hook, in a tally of 68-49. John Bash edged out his running mate, James Barrett, by a close margin of 113-108.

Miss Marick is a sociology major and psychology minor from Drexel Hill, Pa. Besides serving as vice president of YWCA this year, she also is a member of Pi Alpha Tau sorority and Corresponding Secretary for the Student Council, she was recently appointed as an associate editor for the '54 Cue, and has also played three years on the girls' hockey team.

Bash, a native of Harrisburg, is a philosophy major. In his three years here at Albright he has been active in the YMCA organization, and has this year served as co-chairman of the Social Responsibility Committee.

Y Revises Constitution
By a recent decision of the two groups, the YWCA and the YMCA are united under a new, single constitution. Under this revision, the presidents of each organization are to be elected by an entire student vote, but the other officers will be voted upon at the next organization meeting, on Tuesday evening. Each office will be voted upon separately, and the number of offices has been reduced. There is to be a vice-president for each organization, but whereas the other offices were also formerly separate, it is now designated that there will be a female secretary and a male treasurer to serve the organization. The candidates will have to secure a majority of the votes of the people present in order to take the office.

The purpose of this change in procedure is to better enable the organization to elect to its offices persons who are interested in working for the group, instead of leaving it to a decision of the student body, who may not know which candidates are best suited to the position.

Cabinet Membership Reduced
It was also decided in this constitution that the YWCA and YMCA Cabinet would reduce the number of its members. There will now be twelve members; formerly, there have been twenty. The number of standing committees has also been reduced.

St. Clair Presents Last Cultural Chapel Program

Margaret St. Clair, one of those rare creative artists equally talented in writing and acting, presented a program of sparkling episodes of high comedy and drama in the last cultural program of this year on Thursday. All the material in Miss St. Clair's program, entitled "Peeps at People's Perplexities," was of her own original creation.

Miss St. Clair was active in the Pitt Players at the University of Pittsburgh. She took graduate work in dramatics and creative writing at Duquesne University.

Washburn Talks To Chapel

"The Words" was the topic chosen by Rev. Paul Washburn for the first chapel program in the Religion in Life Week series last month. In his message, he defined three words—predicament, fabric, and interrelatedness. "Everyone must realize his own predicament and his relatedness toward another, for everyone is woven into a fabric of love in which God is the weaver."

In his second talk, Rev. Washburn directed his theme around "The New Creature." In this, he stated that a vast new life is really just beginning, for new man sees a new spiritual beginning, lives by love and adventures ahead. The third program, "The Community of Love," contained the message that "We should walk through the world pouring God's love over lonely people, loving them for what they are."

For his concluding chapel talk, Rev. Washburn spoke on the "World Hope." In this, he stressed that the world is a place for those who are humble enough to channel God's love and drink at his fountain."

Seniors Elect Fetterman

Jack Fetterman defeated Jack Sudol for the presidency of the class of 1954 with a seven vote margin in this week's balloting. The leadership of the class of '55 went to James Hall, who beat Gordon Oplinger, 52-41. The class of 1956 elected Robert Brown as their leader. Brown received 88 votes to his opponent, Gerald Gervasi's, 28.

Other officers elected by the prospective senior class are: Vice-president, Mahlon Frankhouser; secretary, Michelina Cacciola; and treasurer, Thomas Shultz.

The forth coming juniors chose Kenneth Nase vice-president, Nancy Althouse secretary and Frederick Hess treasurer.

David Townley was elected as vice president for the future sophomores. They also elected Margie Kane for secretary and Glenn Lambert for treasurer.

Fetterman is a business administration student from Ashland, Pa. After he graduated from Butler High School, Fetterman attended Susquehanna University for one semester before coming to Albright. A member of Zeta Omega Epsilon, he serves as secretary of the organization. He is also a member of the track team, and was a J. V. basketball in past years. This year Fetterman was co-chairman of Sport's Night and co-chairman of Mardi Gras.

A business administration student from Wyomissing Hills, Hall is a member of Student Council, in which he serves as chairman of the student activities committee, and of inter-fraternity council. Hall belongs to the Alpha Pi Omega fraternity.

A local lad, Robert Brown has served as class president of '56 for the past year. He was a member of the J. V. basketball team, track team and Student Council. At the present time he is an APO pledge.

JAMES BARRETT

Dance To Be Held Tomorrow Night

The annual Frosh-Soph ball, sponsored by the freshman and sophomore classes and open to all Albright students, is scheduled to be held tomorrow night in the college gymnasium from 8:30 to 11:30 p. m. The dance will be semi-formal and will feature Jimmy Ryan and his orchestra. Tickets are $2.50 per couple and can be purchased from members of the freshman and sophomore classes.

Gordon Oplinger, '55, and Gerald Gervasi, '56, are co-chairmen for the affair. Harold Kretzing is in charge of tickets, Marilyn Dohner is chairman for decorations, and Russell Orlando is in charge of publicity.

3 Faculty Members Win Appointments

Three members of the Albright faculty have recently made the news, two of which have received appointments and one has contributed material to an EUB publication.

Dr. Harry V. Masters has been elected to the board of directors of the Americans for the Competitive Enterprise System (ACES). Dr. Masters is presently serving as chairman of the ACES Berks County chapter and will represent the chapter on the National Board. The Berks County chapter recently initiated a complete program of economic education projects patterned after the work of the Philadelphia chapter.

Dean LeVan P. Smith attended the Annual Meeting of the Pennsylvania Association of Liberal Arts Colleges for the Advancement of Teaching on March 27 and 28. Dean Smith is the vice president of the association and the president-elect for the coming year.

Prof. Paul I. Speicher is the author of the article, "Wonders of the Sky," which is appearing in the April 11th issue of Builders, the youth weekly of the Evangelical United Brethren Church. It is the sixth in a series of "Chapel Talks" being presented by selected faculty members of EUB colleges.

Voting Count Listed Good

Neither Candidate Swings Specific Group

James Barrett, a history major from Washington, D. C., will serve as president of Student Council during the 1953-54 academic year. He defeated Robert Bieler, of Pennsburg, 183-155, in this week's all-campus election.

355 students of Albright voted in the election which proves that approximately 74% of the student body handed in ballots. This year's turnout was one of the most representative in years. Fourteen ballots were ruled ineligible because they were unsigned or the work of pranksters.

Barrett's plurality over Bieler was 28. Neither man was able to pile up a big majority of votes from a specific group on campus, as was the case in last year's election when James Buch tallied most of the daymen's vote.

Barrett was also running for Y. M. C. A. president in the all-campus election. However, he lost that position by five votes. A member of the Y. M. C. A. cabinet, Barrett is also chapel chairman of Student Council, co-chairman of Mardi Gras, and corresponding secretary of the Alpha Pi Omega fraternity.

Cacciola To Head Women's Senate

Michelina Cacciola, of York, Pa., defeated Dorothy DeLaney, 76-37, for the presidency of the Women's Student Senate in this week's balloting. Presidency of the day-women organization went to JoAnne Duffy and of the daymen's group to Mahlon Frankhouser.

In the W. S. S. voting, Miss Cacciola had an advantage among all the groups who voted. The total number of women voting was 113 which was one vote less than last year's count.

Frankhouser had almost a two to one advantage over Neil White in the daymen's balloting, polling 71 to the latter's 39. He gained his biggest plurality among the freshmen and his smallest among the juniors.

Miss Duffy had a little better than two to one margin in the voting for the leadership of the daywomen. Miss Duffy polled 39 votes to Phyllis Gruber's 18 votes. The total number of daywomen voting was 57.

All of the victors are juniors. Miss Cacciola was also elected secretary of her class in this week's election. She is a member of Women's Student Senate and Women's Dormitory Council. A member of the Phi Beta Mu sorority, she serves as corresponding secretary of that group. Miss Cacciola is also chairman of the Parent's Weekend banquet.

Frankhouser, a pre-law from Shillington, Pa., is a member of the Alpha Pi Omega fraternity and the track team. He has been elected to the posts of vice president of the class of '54 and business manager of the '54 Cue. Hailing from Reading, Miss Duffy is a member of the Women's Student Senate, Daywomen's Council and Student Council.

Better Marry Quickly

Editors of Student Life, Washington University, Mo., asked a Selective Service official last month some jacket questions about the draft—and got some unpleasant answers.

The officer was Lt. Col. Irving W. Hart, chief information officer for Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, director of the U. S. Selective Service System.

Question: Is any change likely to be necessary in the student deferment policy?

Answer: "Nearly all eligible men in the older age group have already been inducted and we are now starting to take 19-year-olds in many states. The manpower supply is running short. We cannot, therefore, afford to be as liberal with student deferments in the future as we have in the past."

Question: If drafting of students is found necessary, what consideration, if any, will be given students who are married or are fathers?

Answer: "Under current regulations a student who is drafted at the end of an academic year receives no consideration for deferment on account of a wife . . . Under current regulations fathers cannot be inducted."

Question: Speculation has been that if the need for draftees increases, the government will be forced to begin drafting either students or fathers. Which group is likely to be called upon first?

Answer: "The office has no way of knowing . . ."

Question: How many men are now being drafted and what change in the number is likely?

Answer: ". . . The secretary of defense has announced publicly that he expects to call approximately 50,000 men per month for the balance of the fiscal year. Should it be decided to increase the size of the monthly calls, that decision will be made by the department of defense."

Question: How many students are now being deferred on the basis of the Selective Service Qualification test and on ROTC enrollment?

Answer: "On December 1, 1952, Selective Service had deferred approximately 185,000 college students on the basis of class standing or test scores, while upward to 330,000 ROTC students were deferred . . . In addition, there were many more students who had not yet reached the age of liability (18½) or who were rejected for service . . ."

Our Council Communistic

The Heights Daily News, NYU, thinks there's a good chance that Congressman Harold Velde will carry his investigations of collegiate Communism to the NYU student council.

"To readers quick to refute claims of Communists in our council," declares the Daily News, "we point out that the word 'Communist' is more fluidly defined now and the result is more serious."

The editorial lists four criteria for determining if organization members are Communists, as recommended by Robert Stripling, Chief Investigator of the House Un-American Activities committee for 10 years:

They work. Others won't.

They come early and stay late. Others won't.

They know how to run a meeting. Others don't.

They demand the floor. Others won't.

"While admitting that on this basis most councilmen are exceptionally loyal," says the editorial, ". . . we fear for their brethren who have been misguided to radicalism."

". . . Protests that such men were just being good student representatives will fall on deaf ears. That facetious bit of nonsense no longer is any good."

Easy, My Son

This filial exchange appeared in the Daily Kansan, University of Kansas:

Father?

Yes, my son?

I have a problem.

What is it, my son?

I have allowed myself to become mad at another's opinion.

I am disappointed in you, my son. Have I not told you to think rationally at all times—and that only fools allow a discussion to deteriorate into an argument?

Yes, my father. But this is a bad situation. My efforts and the efforts of my friends have been belittled by a powerful man in local affairs.

Oh? my son? What could a mind no older than yours fashion in the way of opinion that would draw the ire of an elder?

Politics, my father.

Politics?

Yes, my father. I chose to believe that one man would have been better as president for this country than did a majority in this area. The powerful voice in local affairs has said in a public statement that "An occasional error in judgment or selection of editorial personnel is to be expected. It happens in the best of newspaper organizations." He is referring to me and my friends, father.

Listen, my son. Do not dignify this statement with an answer. Though every bone in your young body cries out at the injustice of the falsehood, think tolerance. You can do nothing.

This I do not understand, my father.

Hush, my son. Listen. You are young. Wisdom is gained only through the years, therefore only the elder may be deemed wise. This is a premise on which many men have built their lives. Education is chopping away with relentless strokes at their life's beliefs—and they find the strokes no more pleasant than you do their cries of pain.

I am beginning to see, my father.

Are you, my son? I am glad. The process is very slow. Only those who become directly involved are aware of its presence. Think now. Can you see where it must be very disturbing to have an opinion expressed in this area that does not conform with an older, influential opinion?

Yes, father. I do see. In the place of a mad feeling—pride is edging in.

Not too fast, my son. The attacks are not over. Mud is plentiful and words are cheap.

I understand, my father. I shall bide my time. Thank you, my father.

'Twas nothing, my son.

You Think You Know How To Study!

Come on, I tell myself, let's kick the bottles under the table and get busy. There's a big exam at eight tomorrow and you didn't start to study yet, and here it is Sunday night already. Relax, I reassure me, all I have to study are my lecture notes.

I pick up my notes. Most are written on plain, humdrum notebook paper, but a few, written on those days when I forgot my notebook, are on various bits of paper and other flat objects, including a wooden shovel on which I charcoaled a brief biography of Lincoln. Here is a matchbook cover with a few lines of what appear to be chicken tracks. That was the time I ran out of ink and didn't notice until I had gone halfway through Apollonius. Also I find an old trolley transfer with six-fifteen a. m. punched on it. It bears the complete history of Russia in small print. I should have had that when I took the history exam. Oh, well.

The most interesting thing about my notes is the vast and scandalous amount of trivia scrawled in the margins. Of course most of the trivia are my personal commentaries on the relative worth of various courses, but some are in the form of memos, such as "F nod. Thurs. 8:10", and "nackel barst—very imp." If anyone knows what an F nod or a nackel barst is, please contact me. Must be of great importance, if only I could remember what it is. Abbreviations always did get me confused, and my own are no exception. One gem I find in green at the top of a page goes as follows: "h Kay. mon 1 cast. got Tues. larp, rase. Mit tingle." At the bottom of the same page I find a benzene ring with one carbon missing and a pair of phone numbers. One is 231-R-2, the other is 47826. In one corner is a spider web and a six sided star. I could go on reading these marginal notations all morning, which it has been for two hours, but I must get to studying.

After reading a few minutes I run across another interesting phenomenon. The writing begins to wander, then ends in the middle of a word. Following it is an ink blot with two or three hairs stuck to it. Apparently I fell asleep there. I'm beginning to suspect that some of these notes are not in correct chronological order. Either that or Louis XVI was his own successor and his son was Eleanor Roosevelt, and that seems slightly illogical. Especially since the next page begins, "The invariable line, the angular velocity vector, and the axis of symmetry are coplanar at every instant." There follows a series of indecipherable and quite irrecognizable characters. Do I actually write this darn stuff, or does someone sneak this stuff in on me? That number, 231-R-2. I wonder who that is. Must be some rural joint, like Emmaus. Who do I know in Emmaus? Or is it a phone number? I don't remember. Sounds more like a lock combination. Well, there's only one way to find out. I'll simply call Emmaus 231-R-2 and find out. Right now. At four in the morning. If I find out I'll let you know. L.E.

Here And There

A college fraternity in Alabama was shut down by the school authorities when it was learned that the house mother was 19 years old. —Michigan State News.

The Gettysburgian, examining the problems of studies versus activities, advocated limiting the number of activities that a deficient student could take. Another vital problem, that of keeping awake while studying, was solved by the Moravian Weekly. The solution: study while you walk. Ursinus offers a substitute plan: mandatory arising at 5:30 and compulsory physical exercises two hours a day.

Even loonier is a letter to the editor of the Vermont Cycle, University of Vermont:

"To the Editor: I like your newspaper. It is good. It is sometimes funny. My roommate lets me read it. I read it. I have a dog. His name is Rusty. He likes to read it. I have a cat. Her name is Kitty. She reads it. I am in the 1st grade. I am 69 years old. Mother says I'm crazy. Mother is always right. I like your newspaper. I am crazy. A friend."

Somewhere a creative writing prof is crying tonight.

One News Story

This beautiful gem was turned in for a journalism class assignment as an example of how to write a news lead. "Central Theater's manager L. M. Haun's faith in man's humanity to man received a severe setback following last night's donnybrook among the after-dinner clientele of his theater. The fun began when a cashier fell over an electrician's ladder while carrying $50 in change. In the deMille-like, share-the-wealth mob scene that resulted several patrons were rendered hors-d'combat, and over $25 worth of change vanished."

The Albrightian should have news leads like this!

One Silk Stocking

Two universities, one in America and the other in England, have recently experienced panty raids in reverse—with the girls being the raiders.

At the University of Toledo, 35 girls raced through the men's dormitory, startling half-dressed male students and stealing pairs of shorts, as they stormed from one room to another.

And in England, six girl students at Cambridge University, having vowed to take baths at each of the men's dormitories in turn, are already reported to have been successful in two male dormitories.

In each bathroom the intruders have left their club's insignia—a single silk stocking.

Two Definitions

The Cavalier Daily, University of Virginia, has finally figured out the definition of education. Says the Daily:

"We have been sitting around this University, man and boy, for over five years and we have finally decided that an education is a process of deadening one end in order to liven up the other."

And Finally

Definition of "college," according to the Michigan State Normal News: "Institutions which sometimes lower entrance requirements with an end in view—not to mention promising tackles and backs."

Diamondmen Oppose Lebanon Valley Tomorrow

by Pete La Rocco

Although we're still in the doldrums of the mid-sports season, two impressive wins put the baseball team off to a fine start. While basking in the baseball weather last Saturday at the Moravian game, did any of you fans notice the condition of the field? During the day many people commented on the fine-looking diamond. No, it didn't just grow that way; it needs constant attention. Jim Spatz and his staff (including your editor) spend hours at the painstaking work.

While still on baseball, did you fans notice the efficiency of the pitching staff. The highlight of the first game against Ursinus was Bill Cohrs' inning in which he retired the side on four successive pitches. In the second game, "Steadie" Eddie McNeil became stronger as the innings passed. Both games were four hitters.

Pi Taus Predicted

Bitter rivalry looms on the horizon with the initial game of intramural softball league close at hand. The Pi Taus are the favorites with the Zetas and APO's preparing to give them a struggle, while the daymen and the frosh might have something to say at the finish line.

The Pi Taus edged out the Zeta nine to the tune of 7-6 on Lew Hallock's strong arm, while the APO's downed the Slovaks, a daymen aggregation, by a score of 8-7.

Nice New Uniforms

New red uniforms have been purchased by the athletic council for the track team. It's about time! The old tattle-tale gray sweatsuits didn't add anything to Albright's athletic reputation.

Late News

Victory is the predominant tone of this late sport news. The Albright golfers led by Jim Rutter teed off on Moravian's linksters Monday at Bethlehem. It was a complete victory for the Lion golfers who dropped only one match.

The Lion thinclads added their share to the victory list with a thorough pasting of the Muhlenberg track men. In the field events Albright reigned supreme by coping every first. Croke, Zahurak and Shirk were double winners and helped boost the final total to 89-37.

Question of Week

What becomes of the money that is collected at the baseball games?

Coeds' Tennis Schedule

Wednesday, April 22, Drexel, away; Saturday, April 25, Moravian, home; Wednesday, April 29, Ursinus, home; Monday, May 11, Temple, away.

Lions Wallop Muhlenberg In First Track Meet

Albright's thinclads launched a promising season with an 89-37 conquest of Muhlenberg Tuesday afternoon at the Albright stadium.

With the return of most of last year's standouts and the coming of several sterling replacements, Coach Gene Shirk stated that this year's track team is the most well-balanced he has coached at Albright. Pete Alberts, Middle Atlantic pole vault champ, and Bruce Tenley, outstanding in the dashes and javelin event, are co-captains of a well-rounded team.

The middle distances are under the control of Harold Kretzing, '55, Mahlon Frankhouser, '54, and freshman, George Johnson. Rudy Becker will run the 1/2 mile and mile, while two other freshmen, Bill Shirk and Gene Myers, and junior, Frank Guenther take care of the mile and two mile events. Tom Sturges is also in the running for that spot. Jim Rocktashel, Harold Fries and Ed Shurilla in the hurdles and Tenley, Jack Fetterman, Paul Gehris and George Conrad in the dashes round out the track team.

In the field Jack Huntzinger, '56, promises to replace the graduated Gerry Potts in the discus. Huntzinger will be backed up by Len Zahurak and Bill Bollman. Bob Krize, Art Bellis, John Setticerze and Fred Hess combine in the weight events. Throwing the javelin will be Hess, Krize and Tenley. The high jump is in the hands of Zahurak, Jim Croke, Rocktashel and Shurilla, while Jim Barrett, Conrad and Shurilla hold down the broad jump. Bobby Vespio, a newcomer to pole vaulting, is Pete Albert's understudy.

The Shirkmen will compete in seven dual meets this year. One, with Muhlenberg, is already out of the way and tomorrow the thinclads go against Dickinson in conjunction with the Berks County High School meet. Two triangle meets, the Penn relays and the Middle-Atlantic, and the EC4A championship round out the schedule.

Netmen To Battle Moravian Tomorrow

Albright's netmen, hoping to better last season's record of six wins and twelve losses, opened their season Wednesday at West Chester. Tomorrow they face Moravian in their first home match. Coach Leo Bloom has held regular practices in the physical education building in an effort to work up a team in time for the opening.

Jim Rutter To Captain Albright Golfers

Coach Paul Matten announced Jim Rutter will be Albright's golf captain. Other varsity linksmen are Mike DePaul, Ted Whitby, Mike Silberkleit, Ken Nase and Len Zahurak. The golfers opened their 10th match season Monday at Moravian. Their next match will be held next Monday against Franklin and Marshall.

Baseball Lions Take Opener, 1-0; Win Second Over Moravian, 4-3

Ray Stoneback singled across Mickey Harbach in the third inning April 8, to give the Albright College Lions a 1-0 triumph over the Ursinus College Bears in the opening game of the 1953 baseball season at Kelchner Field. More than 600 fans witnessed the contest.

Bill Cohrs, Coach Eddie Gulian's surprise starter, set down the Bruins with four safeties to best Andy Carter in a duel of right-handers. Carter also hurled fourth ball.

Albright's tally was registered with two away. Harbach beat out a bunt down the third base line. Tony D'Apollito strolled, and Stoneback followed with his blow to left center. Carter held the Lions in check the remainder of the engagement.

Runs Into Trouble

Cohrs, a senior making his first varsity start, ran into trouble in the first and fourth innings but the Brooklyn athlete got out of danger with clutch pitching.

In the initial frame, Jack Popowich and Dick Clock socked successive singles but Cohrs retired the next three Bears in order on infield outs.

Gene Harris hit safely to start the fourth and John Anderson reached first on a miscue but the Brooklynet again came through with one-two-three flinging.

D'Apollito's Single Pays Off

Tony D'Apollito's sharp single between first and second drove in two runs in the eighth inning to give Albright College a 4-3 baseball victory over Moravian College Saturday, April 11, at Kelchner Field before about 500 fans. It was the second win of the season for the Lions, who shut out Ursinus College April 8, 1-0, behind Bill Cohrs.

Ed McNeil went the distance for Coach Eddie Gulian's nine, allowing only four hits and retiring the last 19 batters to face him. The sophomore righthander relied on a low, sweeping curve ball and sharp control to throttle the Greyhound attack completely after the third inning.

Amole Starts Rally

Trailing, 3-2, going into the eighth, the home team began the winning rally against reliever Jerry Labanz with a two-bagger to left-center by third baseman George Amole, former Birdsboro High performer. Amole went to third when Jack Sudol's looping fly fell safely in short right for a single. McNeil then fanned, and when Mickey Harbach bounced out to third, with Sudol moving up and Amole holding, the Greyhounds had hopes of squelching the uprising.

But D'Apollito stepped into the second pitch and drove it just out of the reach of second baseman Bill Marsh for his third hit of the day and the ball game.

Until the seventh inning it appeared that a two-run third inning for Moravian would be the winning margin. Starting pitcher Dick Rauscher started with a single to left. Bob Shoop flied to right, but Marsh followed with a towering three-bagger in the same direction which drove in Rauscher. Nick Walker's bouncer to short brought Marsh in.

For this scoring activity both players settled down, with McNeil not allowing another Greyhound to reach first for the rest of the distance. Rauscher gave up only two singles until the seventh, when three singles in a row, by D'Apollito, Ray Stoneback, and Connie Detting produced one run. After Detting's run-scoring smack over second, Labanz came on and struck out George Conrad to end the frame.

The scoring started in the first inning as each team counted once. A single, two walks, and a fly ball gave the Greyhounds their tally. Albright's came on two singles, a sacrifice, and Detting's grounder. Mickey Harbach scored for the Lions as catcher Nick Walker dropped a throw at the plate.

Lions To Face E-town Wednesday

Coach Eddie Gulian's Albright College varsity nine, going on the road for the second time after winning twice here last week, collides with Lebanon Valley tomorrow afternoon at Annville. Right hander Ed McNeil has drawn the mound assignment for the Lions. Sorrentino has been given the tentative starting role for the Dutchmen.

McNeil allowed 3 runs, while limiting the Moravian Greyhounds to 4 tallies in his first start. Last year McNeil was the victim of a disastrous ninth inning as he attempted to save the game for starter Gerry Potts. We lost the game 5-4.

Lions Lineup Intact

Coach Gulian plans no changes in the Albright line-up. Freshman Bob Sulyma will be the catcher with Detting, Harbach, Amole and Sudol in the infield, and Conrad, D'Apollito and Stoneback in the outfield. Stoneback and D'Apollito delivered key hits in the victories over Ursinus and Moravian.

Cohrs to Throw Against E-town

In the second of two forthcoming encounters, the Lion diamondmen will face Elizabethtown at E-town on Wednesday. Right hander Bill Cohrs will take the mound for the G-men, while the E-town starter is as yet unnamed.

Last year the Lions eked out a 8-7 victory on the strength of pitcher, Hook Martone's homer.
