

Y. M. TO HOLD SOCIAL IN 'Y' ROOM ON MONDAY NIGHT

All Men Students Invited To Be Present—Snappy Program Will Be Given—Eats

PROFS. ALSO INVITED

Last year the Y. M. sponsored a stag social which created a wonderful feeling of fellowship among the members, both the ones who regularly attended the meetings and those who never came. It seemed to be one of the most successful social events of the year and many of the fellows have since stated that they enjoyed themselves very much. Because of the results obtained from that event it was that a good plan to repeat it this year, and every male student is cordially invited to be present in the "Y" room on Monday night, May 8th at 8 o'clock to listen to a good snappy program which will be topped off by light refreshments. A special invitation is also given to the "Profs" to attend this social and it is hoped that every one will be there. Last year, due to an apparent misunderstanding, only one Prof. attended, and so we are placing special stress upon the fact that all are invited to come.

THEMISIANS CELEBRATE TWENTY-SECOND BIRTHDAY

Purple And White Delight Large Audience With Fine Program

COMEDY SKIT A FEATURE

Last Friday night the Purple and White of the Themisian Literary Society floated supreme in the College Chapel as the girls of that organization treated the rest of the college to a fine program, celebrating their twenty-second birthday.

Beautiful Decorations In Chapel

On the chapel platform, beautifully decorated for the occasion the girls seemed right at home, and presented their program in classy style. The fact is that the decorations were a major part of the night's entertainment. With the big davenport, arm chairs and rugs of the 'Y' room, arranged and furnished in true feminine fashion, and with a pleasing lighting effect throwing soft beams of light on the whole scheme, the result was much more pleasing. Then to enhance the beauty of these, the girls had the floor adorned with ferns and other plants in conspicuous places, and the walls adorned with pretty mural decorations.

On such a scene as this the girls on the program marched, accompanied by a march by Kathryn Dech, the pianist for the evening. Following them came the girls glee club, occupying seats in the front rows. The program officially began as Dr. Fluck offered the invocation.

What Themisians Means

Elizabeth Pettee, President of the Themisian society for the spring term made the customary address of welcome. During the course of this speech she took the opportunity to explain the meaning of the word Themisian and its derivation. Themisian is taken from the Latin Themis, the daughter of Cleos and Terra, the wife of Jupiter, and the goddess of Law, Oracle and Ceremony. She also made mention of the healthy growth of the society in its twenty two years of existence.

The next number was furnished by the Girls' Glee Club, in a very nicely executed rendition of Dance of Spring. Elizabeth Bittle continued with a clever reading, the

Undergraduate Financier Head Budget Committee

LEON C. HOOD WILL GUIDE BUDGET DESTINY

Popular Student Financial Organized For Service For Another Year—Ellen Miles New Secretary

One of the most important events which transpired before the Easter recess was the re-organization of the new Budget Committee for the year of 1927-28. The chief item of business was the election of officers for the new year. Leon C. Hood, the famed financier of the college was the fortunate choice for president.

This position is one of great importance, as thousands of dollars are handled during the year. Hood has had plenty of experience along this line. By far the most important, however, being that of Business Manager of the 1928 Speculum, Hood's services in the behalf of this project will come to an end when his new duties begin. Ellen Miles was elected secretary of the committee. Some discussion was also raised as to the advisability of electing a treasurer, which will probably be done before the year ends.

The budget system was inaugurated three years ago, and has proved one of the most worthy organizations on the campus. It provides for immediate and copious financial support for every other organization. It is conducted entirely by the students themselves, and its efficiency and results are indeed a handsome tribute to the undergraduate body. The budget committee is formed by representatives of every student organization which receives support, and this committee then completes its own organization.

PLANS FOR MAY DAY FETE PROGRESSING RAPIDLY

Arlene Herr Directress—Elizabeth Pettee And Ellen Miles Assistants

Plans for May Day are well under way. With Arlene Herr as directress and Elizabeth Pettee, and Ellen Miles as her assistants, the entire program has been arranged, which will be given in the form of the fairy story, Cinderella. The cast of characters is as follows:

Queen.....Anna Benfer.
Cinderella.....Peg Haak.
Prince.....Rachael Painter.
Two Sisters.....Dorothy Stauffer
Catherine Kulp.

Queen's Attendants—
Caroline Mowry,
Blanche McCauley,
Laura Brown,
Margaret West.

Court Jester—Catherine Steltz.
Mabel Kelehner is the chairlady of the decorating committee and Kathaleen Miller, chairlady of the costume committee. Kathryn Dech has been elected as pianist, and the work for the group dances has already been started.

HELP! HELP! HELP!

Have you forgotten the Mohn Memorial Fund? We are now in desperate straits, and call earnestly for the heartfelt cooperation from all our Alumni, students and friends. Fifty dollars we must have! Only fifty, and yet it is impossible to go on without just that much more. Help to place the piano by Commencement! You know why this should be done, and the committee is struggling desperately to do it. But we must have aid. Ten dollars from five persons, or five dollars from ten persons, will put us over the top. Who will be the life savers that the Fund needs? Act quickly, as generously as possible. Help we must have, and that soon! Our need is very urgent!

WHAT DO YOU KNOW ABOUT ALBRIGHT'S HISTORY? BE A LUCKY PRIZE WINNER

Bulletin Will Reward Student Answering These Questions Most Correctly—Purpose To Stimulate Interest In College's Rich Legacy. Do Not Delay

The Bulletin, cooperating the 1928 Speculum with its Jacob Albright historical theme, believes that every student at Albright College should know something of the history of Albright, and the great men who have been associated with it.

To stimulate interest along this line, and to give the student body a little historical background before the Speculum makes its appearance, the Bulletin is staging this contest, and at the same time to make it profitable, will offer a copy of the Speculum to the prize winner. This will be selected by a board of judges, who will base their decision on the best answers to these ten questions.

They will not prove very difficult—several questions are generally known facts. Read the conditions carefully, then get busy and hunt up the answers to these questions and be the winner of an autographed Speculum—Hurry; YOU may be the lucky one.

wers to these questions and be the winner of an autographed Speculum—Hurry; YOU may be the lucky one.

Conditions

The contest is open to any student not connected with the Bulletin or Speculum.

Material may be secured anywhere, except from Dr. Gobbie.

The contest will close the day before the Speculum arrives.

The most definite and nearly correct answers will be the basis for judgment.

Write your name on the back of your paper, and hand it to a member of the Bulletin Staff.

INSATIABLE ALUMNI THIRST WILL BE QUENCHED IN CULMINATION OF HOPES

New 1928 Edition of Speculum Promises To Set Minds of Albrightians At Ease—Thousand Apprehensions And Paroxysm of Restlessness Will Soon Cease

Within two weeks the brand new 1928 Speculum, with the untiring efforts of a valiant class behind it will make its debut on the campus! Already the students and alumni are all steamed up over prospect of seeing the seventeenth edition of the Albright annual. For a number, the anxiety is unlimited; for the students, the suspense is terrible; for the whole college is on the anxious cat; a thousand apprehensions are haunting Albright College on every hand; a perfect paroxysm of restlessness is rampant over the campus twenty-two acres of the campus.

Good or bad, probably the latter, everyone is demanding his Speculum. Those who are tired studying want something else to read. It is extremely gratifying to the staff to be able to assuage with sincerity that their erstwhile insatiable thirst will be quenched in the near future. The 1928 Speculum is bound to be unquestionably the culmination of their fondest hopes—before they open their books, if not after.

Spec Is Modest

The present edition will not be heralded as the best Speculum ever published. The readers will be the judges of that. It can be stated, however, with the utmost confidence that the book will be worth its purchase price of three iron men. The only claim being made for its "it is just a real good Speculum." The 1928 edition is making its bid for greatness on the merits of its exclusive features which will fully be covered by the iron-clad copyright law of Uncle Sam.

Only Fifty Left!

There is only a number of limited number of books being published. Of this number, almost three fourths have been engaged. About one hundred seventy five have been sold to the student body through the budget, and alumni, and officials of the (Continued On Page Three)

GIRLS' GLEE LEAVES FOR CONCERT TOUR

Shortly after dinner yesterday afternoon twenty girls piled into cozy Miss Lebanon to display their musical and artistic wares in the coal regions. After everyone was comfortably settled, the baggage securely placed in the carrier, and amid shouts of farewell the girls glee club was off for the third concert of the year.

With its hood pointed towards Ringtown, and the soft purrings of (Continued On Page Two)

First Game On Foreign Diamond With Bucknell

The hard hitting Albright fence demolishers, victorious in two contests at home, in which they scored a total of twenty eight runs to their opponents' two will play on an alien diamond for the first time of the year when they invade the lair of the Bucknell Bisons at Lewisburg tomorrow.

This is by far the most important and will be easily the strongest game of the season. Besides beating sev- (Continued On Page Three)

PHILA. TEXTILE WHITEWASHED BY RED AND WHITE

Displays Poor Brand of Baseball And Proves Easy Pickings For Our Bludgeon Welders. Score 20-0

SHOAP LEADS HITTING

Philadelphia Textile School putting up one of the worst exhibitions of baseball witnessed in many a day on the Albright field were solidly trounced by the Albright team 20-0.

Hit after hit rang from the Albright bats, and run after run followed, until the game began to look like a track meet. The Albright bludgeons began working in the first inning and kept hammering the three Textile pitchers until the end. The Textile infield at times looked like a sieve and all the Red and White boys had to do was hit the ball to get on base, for some of the Textile infielders were the best players the Albright team had.

Shoap In Form

The combined offerings of four pitchers had the Textile batters baffled and they were only able to get three hits off all them. Shoap the premier south paw in college ranks started on the mound, but after setting them down in order for five innings gave way to Strickler, who breezed them apart for two innings. Haney and Sorochninsky who twirled the last two innings were like-wise invincible—result, one easy victory.

Leads In Clouting

Shoap led the hitting attack, gathering five hits and a sacrifice fly for a perfect day at bat, four of them being for extra bases, 3 doubles and a triple. There might be better hitters than Shoap, but it is hard to tell where, for the big left hander has proven himself the best hitter in Central Pennsylvania Colleges.

The fourth was a big inning for the home boys, seven hits coupled with two errors, and a passed ball gave them seven runs. Five of the hits were for extra bases, including four doubles and a triple. Every man on the squad got into the game, and they all gave a good account of themselves. The players were being (Continued On Page Two)

JUNIORS TO DELIVER ORATIONS TONIGHT

Contest For Kelehner Prize In Annual Event Tonight In Chapel—Support The Contestants

Tonight in the college chapel the annual Junior Oratorical contest will be held. This contest is the work of Charles Kelehner, former coach and professor at Albright, now secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in Lebanon. "Pop" as he is familiarly known to all Albrightians was associated with Albright for a great number of years in this capacity, and is still a loyal booster of this college.

The condition of the contest as specified by Mr. Kelehner are that the winner be awarded a prize of fifteen dollars, a board of judges selecting the winning oration.

This event, though not always so well attended is one of the most (Continued On Page Three)

5. Increased student activity and honor.

WHAT'S YOUR HURRY?

Dr. Bowman suggested some time ago that students should remain at the dining tables for at least thirty minutes. We consider it very timely advice, for with the hurry which is characteristic of our dining hall at the present time. There should be something done, if not for health's sake then out of a desire for the social atmosphere a longer dining period would create.

Instead of the mad rush for "grub" and the high-pressure haste to get thru, would it not be wise to take a little more time to masticate the food and engage in a little conversation. Some of our most helpful moments could be spent around the table in pleasant conversation. The minutes spent there could be put to advantage if the time element would be forgotten.

The head of the dining should at least wait 20 minutes before ringing the announcement bell to leave. The waiters could help too by keeping their carts out of sight for at least a little longer. The heads of the tables could help in guiding enlightening conversation and keeping the speedsters in check a little. Let us all work together to make our dining periods more pleasant.

IMPROVEMENT!

We are glad to note a decided improvement in our chapel singing. This means a great deal for the general atmosphere of our college, because song is known definitely to increase the buoyancy or spirit of any individual who enters wholeheartedly into such recreation. It makes one feel better to have indulged in singing; it gives one new determination and zeal for the work of the day.

Do you know that Albright was noticed and praised for wonderful chapel singing up to two years ago? Everyone joined so enthusiastically in the chapel services that visitors, and even students themselves, were thrilled by the volume and beauty of the songs as they were sung. But somehow, last year, we lost that old-time pep and vitality, and no longer held ourselves above the average in chapel singing. It is impossible to understand just why this happened, but it did, and only now are we bringing back the good old-fashioned singing that once existed. We want the chapel services to be as inspiring and as helpful as they can be. If Albright was praised for her singing before, she shall be again, for must we not always strive to do what is best for a bigger and better Albright!

So let's make our voices ring out gladly from now on. All we need is a little more pep, a little more enthusiasm, a little more interest in our chapel singing and it is certain that our scholastic, athletic, and social standards will go up still higher to top-notch speed. For singing makes every burden lighter; it drives every care away! Let's sing!

TENNIS!

Spring is in the air and with it comes thoughts of Tennis. But you can't play tennis unless there are courts to play it on. There was a little attention put on the courts several weeks ago, but still they are not in a fit condition to play, and as there is only a while before school closes, some quick work must be done on them. The persons who started the work on them deserve much praise, but these few cannot do it all. We need more to go out and complete the work. But the question is, "Who is to keep the courts in condition—The administration or the student body?" That is something that has to be decided.

We have too few sports around here in which the many can participate, and tennis is the outlet for the many, and it is imperative that they are taken care of. The policy of this school has been over-emphasis on major sports, but the time has come when sports for every one is demanded and as Tennis affords one of these means, we want good courts and if possible more of them.

NICE GOING!

There should be more places like Johnstown. Not only did it show itself to be truly the "Friendly City" while the Men's Glee Club was there several days ago, but, the people there are real Albright enthusiasts. Honestly some of the people of Johnstown think more of Albright than do some of the fellows and girls attending our college at the present time. Such persons as Rev. B. E. Coleman and Prof. Vincent Hetrick and others are invaluable to us as an institution.

The wonderful Albright spirit there accounts for in spite of the fact that Johnstown is over 200 miles from Myerstown it contributes more students than any other single town outside of Lebanon County. The real spirit was felt when the Club sang the Alma Mater and 30 Albrightians stood up and joined the boys. The entertainment over the week-end showed that they enjoyed the visit. We say, thank you Johnstown, keep up the spirit and the good work.

central theme being why a certain young man broke the habit of going to the movies. Guess the details if you were there. Part I was concluded as Catherine Steltz drew a chalk Garden Scene, which was greatly appreciated by the audience. She was accompanied by Gladys Jones, Soloist, and Grace Maurey, Violinist.

Part Two Opens With Skit

After a short interval part two began with a clever comedy skit by Arline Herr, Dorothy Dunlap, Kathaleen Miller, Susanna Heinze, and Dorothy Stauffer. It was one of the most interesting numbers of the evening. Kathryn Dech rendered the second number in the form of a piano solo.

Ann Benfer Delivers Oration

This set the stage for the society oration, which was delivered in masterful style by the master orator, Anna Benfer, winner of the Junior Oratorical Contest last year, and for three years a member of the Themisians debating team. She chose for her subject "Life's Mirror." The introduction began with the fable of the dog crossing the bridge and dropping the bone he held in his mouth to grasp the phantom bone in the creek, which reflected his image. In her discussion, Miss Benfer brought out the old, yet ever new fact that life is what we make it; laugh and the world laughs with you; cry and you cry alone. She also pointed out the great evil that greed plays in our lives. In conclusion she paid a great tribute to the Smile, which is one of the best things in life, and one that is best to reflect in Life's Mirror.

Themisians Echo

Last, and culminating an evening of good entertainment with still more, came Clara Wilkes with quips, jokes, whitticisms, etc. pressed down and running over. One of the features was the apparent originality of the Echoes as the spot light was turned on and the "low-downs" exposed on a number of unfortunate victims. It was funny—and the audience laughing heartily from beginning to end.

Thus one of the most entertaining of anniversaries of recent years came to a close. As Alma Mater was sung, the exits were opened, and the happy audience trickled out of the doorways.

the six cylinders of the bus coming as music to the girls' ears, Miss Lebanon, soon arrived at Ringtown after a ride through the picturesque neighboring mountains. The concert here was held in the town theatre, where the boys sang last year.

After the first of the three concerts here, the next town on the itinerary was Shenandoah, noted for its sunny sidewalks. After doing their best to please their listeners in the Evangelical Church where Loretta Eisenhower is a member the girls will make ready for the last lap of their journey tomorrow in Mt. Carmel.

This is the first time in several years that the Girls' Glee Club has made a tour in this locality. Last year the boys were in this vicinity, although Ringtown is the only town they visited which the girls include on this trip.

The program was the same as appeared in the Bulletin some time ago. Miss Strasser, meistersinger, accompanied the club.

U. E'S CONVEIN IN CONFERENCE AT LEBANON

Decision To Merge Delayed—Preach In Local College Church—Albrightians Attend

Thursday morning in the First United Evangelical Church of Lebanon, the annual conference of the East Pennsylvania Conference of the United Evangelical Church was opened with Bishop E. S. Woodring presiding. More than 105 ministers and 95 lay delegates attended the opening session.

The devotionals included the Lord's Supper. Bishop Woodring delivered the Episcopal address and reviewed the history of Evangelism. The remainder of the morning and afternoon session was taken up with problems of organization and the evening session with secretarial reports on missions and missionaries.

At the Friday session the conference created a new district, Reading, and appointed Rev. J. S. Heisler, of Lebanon as Presiding Elder. Then at a secret session, the conference adopted the report of the committee on the State of the Church. The conference has resolved to postpone definite action as to whether they will merge or not for another year.

Monday will conclude the sessions of the conference and then the appointments will be announced.

Last Sunday the U. E. ministers were given the keys to all the churches in the vicinity of Lebanon and entire surrounding territory. In the morning Rev. H. E. Messersmith, an Albright alumnus, a member of the Class of '12, who resides at Allentown, and Editor-in-chief of the "United Evangelical" preached in the morning, while Rev. G. A. Maurey, of Shamokin, the father of Grace Maurey and Erma Maurey, '26 filled the local pulpit in the evening service.

Both felt very much at home, they said. Rev. Messersmith, an old running mate of Prof. Keen attended the church for four years, while Rev. Maurey hailed Mr. Lubold as an old teacher in Dauphin in the years gone by.

A number of Albrightians attended the conference sessions in Lebanon, among the number being Neuman Hoffman, Elmer Deterline, Clarence Hower, Marilyn Kutz, Margaret Flexer, Grace Maurey, Ralph Todd, Prof. Dech.

college have a monopoly on seventy-five more. This means that only fifty books are left for sale. "Reach to with three dollars and help yourself" before they become a negligible quantity, and can not be bought for love or money. The calibre of the book will be such that there will be a great demand for this limited number. The best policy for any alumnus who does not wish to pass up this rare opportunity is to send in three dollars to the business manager and have him reserve a copy. The editor of the Bulletin personally vouches for the integrity of the Speculum staff, and for the veracity of these statements. However, a copy will gladly be sent C. O. D. if any should wish it that way.

Jacob Albright Theme

There are a number of interesting features in the Speculum which will be entirely new for an Albright book. Inside and outside it will be different—in many respects unique. The general stereotype of year-book themes has been abandoned, and one entirely original and genuine has been substituted. Although it required a far greater amount of work, it will be well worth while. The theme this year is built around the life of the great founder of the Evangelical church, and the indirect founder of Albright College, which proudly bears his name.

Practically every phase of his life is depicted, recorded and profusely illustrated. There are some phases which have hardly been touched before, while there are twice as many pictorial supplements of the old landmarks connected with his life than in any other book. There is in addition a special full page pen and ink drawing of the great founder, done by White Studio.

Unique Art Work

The central art theme, including the beautiful opening section, page borders and main division page borders are old inn signs, which were common in the days of Jacob Albright, and under which he doubtless spent many an anxious night. All of this will be in two colors. One is black and the other a handsome grey-green which the printers say is something entirely new in color tints. Then each of the seven main division pages will carry a drawing depicting some phase of the life of Albright. The rest of the art work includes the silhouette sub-division pages, which likewise will be new features for an Albright book. These will be modern interpretations of the names of the sub-sections which they represent.

One of the most artistic features is the unique duo-tone cover created by Molloy. The classification of the cover has been raised one grade, from Class 2 to Class 3 at a considerable added expense. The duo-tone base is exquisitely set off by a beautiful reddish bronze centerpiece and backbone; the latter likewise being new—a part of the higher classification. Passing the full signature opening section (sixteen pages), the greater part being given over to the setting of the theme.

Unparalleled Scene Section

The first book, the college begins. This contains eight of the best photographs ever taken of the Albright Campus—photo by White. The pictures will be much larger than ever before and will be printed in color on a heavily potted white cameo art paper. These scenes will come as a quickening, pulsing, vibrating breath fresh from the campus of Albright in all the glory of fresh spring. Then comes the faculty and administration sections, with individual photos of the faculty for the first time in three years, and with entirely new style of writeups. They will give real information—information not generally known.

The class section likewise will be a feature. Both the Senior and Junior sections will be done of a color tint block, the Senior on a half page tint, the Junior on a full page tint block. This will be likewise something new, and will add greatly to the aesthetic qualities of the book. The tint blocks will be portrayals of the general art theme.

Important Alumni Statistics

The next book will be Activities, and the fourth Organizations. These will be somewhat similar to the general style, yet different. Besides being constructed in a different style, they will be far more inclusive than ever before. Something of great note for the Alumni will be two full pages devoted to a historical sketch and statistics about the number of Alumni engaged in the various professions. ALUMNI! Here is your chance! Find out how many of you are teachers, ministers, lawyers, business men or domestic artists. Here will be a reliable source of information.

The Athletic section, book 5, will also be different, and twice as large as ever before. Read about our great 1926 football team! See silhouetted individual pictures! ALUMNAE! Look for the new girls' athletic section. Learn what wonders they have been accomplishing!

Each fraternity will get two pages, including the two nationals. A new feature will be the group pictures and fraternity seals for each one.

Finally we come to the red-hot (but sane) feature section, the last Book. No one can help but get a "kick" out of it! It will be real! Towards the end, interspersed among the scandal pages appear the seven hundred dollars worth of ads—greater than ever before—which account partly for the high quality of the book.

Finally, the Speculum will contain 224 pages, forty more than ever before Alumni! Do not fail to get a copy and digest them! They will bring Albright back to you.

COMBINED GLEE CLUBS RENDER FINE PROGRAM IN LEBANON

St. Paul's Evangelical Church Filled To Capacity—Both Clubs Sing Well—Feature And Glee Numbers Introduced

AUDIENCE WELL PLEASED

Last Thursday evening in St. Paul's Evangelical Church, of Lebanon, the combined glee clubs of the college rendered a very excellent and appreciated concert. The church was crowded to capacity for the glee had made a reputation for itself last year when it gave a similar program in the High School Auditorium.

All of the numbers were sung with the enthusiasm and spirit which characterizes our glee clubs. For the boys it came after a week of hard singing and the boys were well able to take care of themselves on the stage. Nor was it the first for the girls either for they had rendered very excellent programs previous to this time.

The program was a varied one, the kind that appeals to the most conservative as well as the most liberal minded person. Almost all of the feature numbers of both clubs were introduced, besides the glee numbers of both clubs. The combined numbers although few in number were sung very excellently and were much appreciated.

interesting and beneficial activities of the undergraduate body. The orations in recent years, as they probably have ever since the contests were started have been of a very high calibre, and well worth the while of any student and faculty member to attend. Besides being a privilege, it is duty which ought to be heeded by every Albrightian.

At the time the Bulletin went to press the names of the contestants were not available, but according to custom, there will probably be five or more participants. The Juniors have never been known exactly as slouches, and it is safe to assume that they will not break with their splendid tradition up to this time. Taking the past performances if the Juniors as a criterion, there is something worthwhile in store for the college tonight.

Y. M. BEGINS PLANS FOR YEAR OF SERVICE

Cabinet Members Announced—Intend To Guide Organization To Most Successful Year In History

The new Y. M. C. A. cabinet which will lead the activities of this organization during the remainder of the present school term and next year was recently organized. Under the leadership of President Morris, the cabinet has started to work and is planning to make next year the most successful in the history of Y. M. C. A. at Albright thus far. However, the only way this can be done is through the cooperation of all men students, and it is hoped that every one will do his best by trying to attend all the meetings.

The Cabinet heads are as follows:
Bible Study—Glyn Morris.
Publicity—Harry Houseal.
Finance—Edison Bates.
Music—Harry Klingeman.
Attendance—Milton Weaver.
Missionary—Bernard Zener.
"Y" Room—Robert Lundy.

FRATERNITY NOTES

Pi Tau Beta

Brother A. E. Lehman '11, visited his brother, Charles, and the fraternity last week on his way home from California, where he has been staying since his return from China.

Brother S. M. Short '12, accompanied brother Lehman in his visit to Albright.

Brother H. E. Messersmith '11, preached in the College Church last Sunday morning. He is at present located at Allentown.

At a recent dinner party in Williamsport the engagement of Brother G. Heil Gramley, '26, to Miss Martha Ellen Cole was announced. Miss Cole is a graduate of the Williamsport Dickinson Seminary, and is now organist in the Williamsport Christian Science church. Brother Gramley is at present head of the Science Department of the Adams township high school, near Johnstown.

ENDEAVORERS ELECT KNELLER PRESIDENT

Sunday evening the Christian Endeavor Society met in the College Chapel to elect officers for the rest of this year, and for next year. Glyn Morris was in charge of the meeting. After a song by the society Morris took charge of the election. The society elected the following officers: Oscar Kneller, President; Robert Lundy, Vice President; Grace Poff, Secretary, and Mrs. A. E. Goble, Treasurer. After another song the meeting was dismissed.

EXCELSIOR OFFICERS ELECT—INAUGURATED INTO OFFICE

The Excelsior Literary Society met in their hall, last Friday night for the purpose of installing the officers for the spring term. After the regular opening service President Achenbach installed the following officers: George Croyle, president; Oscar Kneller, vice president, and Robert Lundy, recording secretary. The retiring president, Achenbach, gave a short talk, after which Croyle, the new president gave an address in which he outlined a program for the rest of the year.

eral college teams, the Bisons played three very creditable games against the Williamsport Grays, and the Shamokin Indians, in the N. Y. P. A. loop. They lost to the Grays 5-0 and 9-2, and only last week threw a 5-6 scare into Shamokin.

Halicki, the brilliant sophomore twirler will probably mount the peak in behalf of "Mal" Musser, while it is uncertain whether Sherrid or Shoap will hurl the spheroids past the Bisons' bats.

ENTERTAIN OVER 2000

While most of the students of the College were enjoying a very lengthy Easter Vacation, the Boys Glee Club was making history for the institution. It has become an established fact that the Boys Glee Club should give a series of concerts during the Easter vacation, and this year was no exception.

On Monday following Easter Sunday the Glee started on a week of concerts which was to take them as far as Johnstown. The new bus of the Lebanon Auto Bus Company was used as a means of conveyance for the entire trip.

Six regular concerts were given besides the special singing the Club did in several churches at Johnstown. All of the concerts were exceptionally well and the boys were well received and entertained. The weather at times was all that could be desired, but at times rain and snow made travelling very disagreeable. In all over 2000 people heard the boys.

This was the schedule:

Monday—Newport.
Tuesday—Lewistown.
Wednesday—Altoona.
Thursday—Nanty-Glo.
Friday—Johnstown.
Saturday—Sidman.
Sunday—Johnstown.
Monday—Return to College.

The regular concert as given by the Club was this:

DR. GOBBLE ATTENDS CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION

Leaves This Morning To Participate
In Language Discussion

Dr. Gobble left Myerstown today on the 7:45 for Washington, D. C., where he will attend the annual meeting of the Classical Association of the Atlantic States. The meeting will be held in Cochrane Hall, George Washington University. It began this afternoon and lasts until four o'clock tomorrow.

At this association, teachers of the classical languages, Latin and Greek from practically all of the colleges in this Association read papers dealing with the better teaching and methods of instruction in these languages. A large portion of the time is also spent for discussion. As Dr. Gobble said before he left, "Some-times they are pretty lively, too."

Dr. Gobble expects to return late tomorrow evening or Sunday morning.

GIRLS IN GLEE AS VOLLEY BALL BEGINS

Game Proving Popular With Girls—
Physical Education On New Scale

Shrieks and laughter pierce the air. We wonder just for a moment what it is all about, then the truth bursts upon us. The girls are playing volley ball. Under the efficient coaching of Miss Van Duzer the girls have learned the elements of volley ball, and now, for some time have been thoroughly enjoying the game, and at the same time polishing and perfecting their technique.

Volley ball has not merely been popular with a few, but with nearly all the girls. Now that the weather permits, volley ball will be played on the campus. This ought to add to the interest and enthusiasm.

During the remainder of the term girls' physical education will be conducted on the basis of personal preference. There will be no regularly scheduled classes. Each girl, however, is required to spend three hours a week in some sort of physical exercise, hiking, tennis, baseball, volley ball, or swimming. May Day practice will also be credited.

On Tuesday evening, April 26th, 1927, the Y. W. C. A. held its annual election for the year 1927-28. The nominees had been posted two weeks before and the results of the election are as follows:

President—May Cooper.
Vice President—Carol Heffling.
Secretary—Orpha Hangen.
Treasurer—Marian Shaw.
Pianist—Kathryn Dech.
Town Representative—Catherine Steltz.

These newly elected officers were installed on Tuesday, May 3rd, by the retiring president, Mildred Shambaugh.

T. A. C. U. TEACHES BOYS CULINARY ART IN LAB.

New Methods Make Great Impression—Several Signing Up For Work

Mr. H. T. Staley, of Harrisburg, a representative of the Aluminum Cooking Utensil Company gave a very interesting Health Lecture and demonstration of waterless cookery in the chemistry lecture room, last Thursday evening.

Mr. Staley emphasized the need of natural foods in building health and a normal body. The group of men who heard the lecture were convinced that his method was correct and the samples of food that were served after the lecture proved that the new method was superior to the old.

The chief purpose of the demonstration was to interest the men in summer work. John Youse, Leon Hood, and Leonard Magnifico have signed up to sell Wearver this summer.

CAULWELL FALLS VICTIM TO CUPID

Deserts Old Mate To Reside In Lebanon; Romance Began In Normal School Days

"Smiling Bill" Caulwell has gone and done it! Done what? Fallen for Dan Cupid's darts of course. Incidentally he has also deserted his old mates up in his old room 63 for more pleasant and congenial domicile in Lebanon.

The lucky girl is Edna Leininger, of Tenth and Lehman Streets, who is now probably teaching in West Reading her last year. The romance started while they were attending Millersville State Normal School, several years ago. Caulwell entered Albright this year as a senior, having been graduated from the Lancaster County institution in 1924.

The nuptial ceremonies took place on the day that Easter Recess began. Unofficial dope on the bulletin board has it that the entire recess was spent in a honeymoon, but the veracity of this rumor has not been definitely established. But to get back to facts. The day, as can easily be recalled, was an ideal one of this style of an event. The sun was shining brightly, and all nature seemed to offer propitious omens. It is forgotten just when Bill had his last class, but anyhow, as soon as possible after this was over, he and his bride to be trekked to Philadelphia where they answered "yes" to the minister's queries as to whether they would "love, cherish, honor, etc., etc., etc." The great declaration was made in St. Luke's Methodist Church on Broad Street.

Bill says it's a great life, and is supremely happy. He has the congratulations and best wishes of two hundred fellow students.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

Housekeeping Course—"I guess my daughter in college isn't going to play basket-ball any longer. Seems to be taking up a more useful course."

"How so?"

"Why, she just wrote that she has made the scrub team."

Son: "Mother, who put that statue under the electric light?"
Mother: "Shh! That's the electrician."

Dentist: (to patient in chair) "Will you take gas?"
Patient: "Yeah, and you'd better look at the oil too."

Dr. Gobble: "James, when did Caesar defeat the greatest number?"
James: "Must have been on examination day."

Captain: "If anything moves, shoot."

Sentry: "Yessah; An if anything shoots—Ah moves."

Morris: "Say Oscar, how far off to the answer of that first problem were you?"
Kneller: "Only four seats."

Heisley: "What do they call those new round baggy hats the women are wearing now?"
Dettlerine: "Dunno; but it must be a new kind of bean bag."

Wissler: "Hey Fat, what's good for a sprained ankle?"

Watson: "Looks as tho you'd better try soap and water, Mike."

OFFICERS INSTALLED IN WEEKLY NEO MEETING

The Neocosmian Literary Society met on Friday night for installation of officers. After the opening devotions President Heisley installed Paul Hartranft as President, President Hartranft installed the following officers: Vice president, Bernard Zener, critic, Cyrus Beekey, chaplain, Homer Heisley, recording secretary, Valentine Beshore, corresponding secretary, William Cully, sergeant-at-arms, Paul Hangen.

After the installation the president gave an address urging faithfulness on the part of those present, that they attend all meetings, participate in programs when asked, and in getting other members to follow suit.

PHOTOGRAPHERS DISPLAY
PICTURES FOR LAST TIME
DURING SEASON

The college photographers (photographers) have a raft of pictures on display in the hall—which will be the last time this season. This is the first display which Hood and Zener, ever alert and eagle eyed artists have made for some time. This, however is not their fault, for it is not due to the laziness or negligence of the boys themselves, but because of the thefts and souvenir hunting tendencies of some of the other boys who make events of this kind as hazardous as shooting grizzly bears with a pea shooter.

The scenes which are on display include campus activities of all kinds, athletic contests, campus views, etc. If they are stolen this time it will be the end of this practice. The student body is in trial.
