

Peace Corps Volunteer Will Visit Here Tuesday

Miss Bette Parsons, a returned Peace Corps Volunteer from the Philippines, will be on campus to explain the Peace Corps, its training and service programs, and the opportunities it offers students. She will also accept applications.

Groups can arrange with Miss Anna R. Benninger, the Peace Corps Liaison at Albright, to have Miss Parsons speak and answer questions during that day.

Several Albright students are presently among the 12,000 Peace Corps Volunteers serving in 46 countries of Asia, Africa and Latin America.

The Peace Corps has more requests for Volunteers than it can fill and the need is growing greater. Students with backgrounds in all fields are in demand for overseas programs. Juniors, seniors and faculty can all qualify immediately for Peace Corps training.

Committee Studies Inauguration Plans

Dr. Arthur L. Schultz will be officially inaugurated as president of Albright College at a ceremony on Saturday, April 23 at 11 a.m. in the Chapel.

A committee of faculty, trustees, administrators, students and alumni headed by Dr. Charles E. Kachel, board secretary, is in charge of the arrangements for the event. An academic procession will precede the chapel exercises. Marching in the procession will be Albright trustees and faculty; student, alumni and parent representatives; delegates from colleges and universities; delegates from academic societies, cultural and professional associations and foundations; and representatives of state and local educational bodies.

All accredited institutions of higher learning east of the Mississippi River have received invitations to the gala affair. A luncheon in the college dining hall will follow the program at 1 p.m.

Serving with Dr. Kachel on the planning committee are Dr. William E. Maier and Robert A. Reeser representing the trustees; Dr. Samuel B. Shirk and Mrs. Humbert C. Manzillo, representing the college administration; Dr. F. Wilbur Gingrich, Dr. Edwin L. Bell and Dr. Edith B. Douds, representing the faculty; John S. Kline, the alumni association; Robert S. Smethers, Jr., director of college relations and secretary of the inauguration committee and Emmett Venett and Mary Jane Strohm, students.

New Library Hours

Dr. Josephine E. Raeppl, college librarian, has announced that the library will be kept open during dinner hours, Monday through Thursdays, from 5 to 6:30 p.m. The new policy went into effect as of February 4.

TWO CLASSES SPONSOR DANCE

The "Mardi Gras," a dance jointly sponsored by the freshman and sophomore classes, will be held in Krause Hall on the night of February 25 from nine to 12. To be decorated in the style of the New Orleans event of the same name, the dance will feature live entertainment, free refreshments, and favors. Dress will be semi-formal.

Tickets for freshmen and sophomore couples who have paid their class dues cost one dollar. For junior or senior couples, and those who have not paid class dues, tickets will cost two dollars.

The co-chairmen of the dance committee are Bill Vrooman, '69, and Tom Dundore, '68, Bill Steyko, '68, has charge of entertainment.

Herb Rogove, President of the freshman class, revealed that the idea of co-sponsorship of the dance had developed during freshman class cabinet meetings. He referred to the dance as "the first social function of the freshman and sophomore classes together." Although no admission charge had been planned originally, mounting costs to hold the dance necessitated such a change.

Peacock Heads Reviewing Group

Linda Peacock, '69, has been appointed as the chairman of a special Orientation Committee to analyze Albright's Program. The committee will study and review various freshmen orientation programs in hopes of a more successful one next year.

Special emphasis is being placed on customs. The committee is endeavoring to promote some freshmen spirit so customs will be more enjoyable to all.

Ground for New Student Centre Will Be Broken in Two Weeks

The ground breaking ceremony for the new Student Union Building is tentatively set for March 3 at 12:45 p.m., culminating the dream of many Albright students. Construction of the building is scheduled to begin during the first week of March.

Big Junior-Senior Weekend Planned

By Russ Campbell

Albright College's juniors and seniors will have a weekend all to themselves come April. Included in the exciting program will be an off-campus dance, entertainment by a big name group and a road rally.

As of this writing, however, no details had been announced by any of the organizing committees. A giant publicity drive will be launched in Chapel on March 3 and full explanation of all planned events will follow.

Zetas, Pi Taus Hold Election of Officers

Andy Mytinger, '67, and Don Clough, '67, were elected to the presidency of Zeta Omega Epsilon fraternity and Pi Tau Beta fraternity, respectively, in recent elections.

Mytinger, a History major from Scotch Plains, N. J., is currently active on the varsity basketball team and participates in various fraternity activities. Joining Mytinger as officers are Stephen Reganostreff, '67, Treasurer; Bob Engler, '67, Recording Secretary; Sal Randazzo, '67, Corresponding Secretary; and Bill Kudrick, '67, House Manager. Bob Goldell, '68, and Bill Kudrick, '67, were elected pledge masters for the spring pledge season.

Don Clough, a pre-medical student from Sayre, Penna., is a member of the Skull and Bones Club and is active on many fraternity committees. The other officers elected were Al Esposito, '67, Vice President; Dave Cook, '67, Recording Secretary; Phil Eppley, '68, Corresponding Secretary; Mike Eckenroth, '68, Chaplain; Bruce Buhrow, '68, Treasurer; and Sam Einhorn, '68, House Manager. Herm Dale, '66, and Dave Huey, '66, were elected pledge masters.

The construction project will be carried out in three phases. Phase one, the renovation of the food service building, was completed during the first week of September 1965. Phase two, the construction of the Student Center, is scheduled to be completed by January 10, 1967. The final phase, the building of an auditorium, should be finished by September 1, 1967.

Bids for the construction contract were opened January 10 of this year. The low bid was $1,087,500, submitted by the Burke Construction Company.

The projected plans of this complex include the following. In the food service building, the wall separating the lobby from the dining area will be removed to increase the dining capacity. The Student Center, a brick and stainless steel trimmed structure, will be located on the land in front of the dining hall.

On the main floor of this building there will be a large lobby, the mailroom, the bookstore, music listening rooms, and an office for the Center's director.

The basement will contain storage facilities, four bowling alleys, four billiard tables, and several table tennis tables. There will also be two meeting rooms and offices for the various student organizations. For further enjoyment there will be a snack bar utilizing vending machines. However, plumbing facilities will be installed so that a manned snack bar will be possible in the future.

The auditorium is to be constructed on the existing foundation of Krause Hall, linked to the Student Center with a bridge. The auditorium, seating approximately three hundred, will have a radial stage and film projection facilities.

The basement of the auditorium will have a shop for constructing play sets. The shop will be located directly beneath the stage so that it will be possible to raise and lower the sets through an opening in the stage floor. A multi-purpose room for such activities as the YMCA toy repair is also planned. The Albright College radio station WXAC will also move into here from its present site in White Chapel. Finally, there will be space for band equipment storage.

Injured In Falls

Two faculty members, Prof. Thomas G. Kane and Mrs. Rose S. Sack, were recently hospitalized with fractured bones resulting from falls. Kane, assistant professor of Business and Economics, suffered a broken hip when he fell while walking on campus. Mrs. Sack, lecturer in Sociology, sustained a fractured wrist in a fall outside the campus.

Council Appoints Budget Committee

To improve the method for allocating funds given Student Council from the student fee, a budget committee has been appointed by Council President, Emmett Venett, to review the procedures now used for distributing the funds.

"The campus has grown and the Student Council wants to do a great deal more," said President Venett in a recent interview. "We would like to make sure the organizations have what they need."

Twenty dollars of each student's tuition fee was given to Student Council for use in 1965-1966. Last year only fifteen dollars was allotted. It has in the past been at the Council President's discretion to divide the funds between campus organizations supported by the student fee. The new committee under the advisement of Mr. Eyrich, will review the procedures and map out plans for future committees to follow in establishing a budget.

The committee consisting of Craig Sergeant, chairman, Denise Nappe, Jeff Leber, Wayne Guenther, and Roger Mallon, will attempt to ascertain the relative financial positions of the groups on campus who receive money from the general student fund. President Venett stressed, "We are interested in what other groups have; the money should be used for student benefit rather than just to gather interest."

Comparing Albright's twenty dollars per student fee to Grove City College's thirty-five dollar per student fee, Venett emphasized the need for an increased student fee "even if it means an increase in tuition." The twenty dollars per student in the Albright student fund this year was distributed as follows; CUE, eight dollars; Albrightian, four dollars; YM-YWCA, two dollars and fifty cents; Domino Players, one dollar; AGON, fifty cents; and Student Council, four dollars.

IT'S WHAT'S HAPPENING, BABY

Long Live Everett!

By MARC RICHMAN

Many, many years ago in the pre-union days the American worker was abused and exploited by the owner. Hours were long, conditions poor, and wages low. During the earlier union years, the situation changed and became a healthy balance between labor and management. Now, however, the situation has again changed, and the owner and public is being abused and exploited by the unions. Hours are becoming very short, conditions very good, and wages very high. If the trend continues, the worker may only have to work two hours a day, three days a week with an hour off each day for lunch. For this great effort he will get paid a full week's pay. You say that this is good for the worker—are you so sure about that?

All this will be brought about by the great power of the labor unions. For Jimmy Hoffa, and others, could paralyze the country at the snap of a grubby finger and could easily force any company out of business if he so desired.

There was a time when a few men in industry had the same power that the labor leaders now have. But happily the Federal government had the wisdom to break the power of these men. Anti-trust laws were passed and implemented. Now is the time to use these same laws to break the union monopolies.

An example of the abuse of union power was the recent transit strike in New York City. The strike was called in defiance of a state law and court injunction. The leaders went to jail rather than obey the law. Who was hurt? Just the citizens and the country as a whole.

The unions would like to see section 14b of the Taft-Hartley Act repealed. I don't blame them, for this would permit the unions to force every worker in every state to join the labor unions. Then the entire country would be at the mercy of the labor bosses. Rather than repeal 14b, I would like to see a national Right-to-work law passed by Congress. This would give the worker the right to decide whether or not he wants to join the union. If dues are reasonable and the union spends them wisely and benefits the worker, then he would join. This right to join or not to join is a fundamental freedom that should be guaranteed to everyone.

The union member pays dues to the union and the union bosses decide what is to be done with it. Very often money is contributed to the Democratic party, and this is as it should be, for the Democrats have union interests at heart. But what about the 25% Republican members, or 10% who would like to support the Socialist party. These people don't want to pay money to the Democratic party—but they have no choice. If they quit the union they lose their job—under a national right-to-work law they could use the threat to quit the union as a lever to change the policies.

Suppose a union boss decides he wants a higher salary and bigger boat—well, he raises dues. And what can the worker do?—NOTHING. If he protests the union goons (who get paid with his dues) will beat him up, and if he quits the union he loses his job. With a federal right-to-work law he could quit the union and keep his job.

These are just two examples of the abuse of labor leaders, there are surely others. The only solution is to legislate against the unlimited power of the unions. The time has come to protect the union member from union totalitarianism. But L.B.J. has political debts to pay and he always tries to pay his debts.

LONG LIVE EVERETT DIRKSEN.

Dear Sir:

We are delighted that you are participating in GLAMOUR'S 1966 "Ten-best Dressed College Girls" contest.

As you know, the deadline for receiving all entries is March 8th. We hope that your on-campus competition is progressing satisfactorily and that we may expect your entry on or before that date.

We greatly appreciate your interest in the GLAMOUR contest and we thank you for the work you and your fellow students are doing on the project.

Sincerely,
Garda Foch
College Editor
GLAMOUR Magazine

Gentlemen,

We have your issue of Jan. 13th sent to us by our Grandson Terry Welcomes, '68.

In it you list the sad news of Harry A. Benfer's death. He and I were roommates as Freshmen in 1911. Our fun and escapades were noteworthy and need not be detailed here. Haps was not only a superior athlete but a fine fellow in every way. In for whatever fun we could generate but at the same time serious about his purpose in life.

We had the privilege of visiting with him last April and he seemed much like his old self, albeit much reduced in weight. His wife whom we knew as Mabel Hoffman had had a long siege in the hospital and he had not been eating right, and to that he attributed his loss of weight. It now seems he was wrong. That Haps is gone detracts much from our lives, which are also drawing towards the end.

It seems there is a mistake in your figures, 1882-1966. Haps graduated from York High in 1911. If your figure 1882 is correct he would have been twenty-nine when he finished high school. Your figure is probably a typographical error. The second 8 should have been a 9. Haps and I were virtually the same age. Congratulations on a fine paper.

Cordially yours,
Dr. M. I. Hilter-Brick
Retired Psychologist
New York City, N. Y.

Sir:

For those students involved in 300-400 level courses which require term papers, especially political science and history students, the burdening problem of financing these papers has become increasingly evident. Currently, the emphasis is on seminar-type courses for which every department requires that its students take two. These courses require detailed papers usually consisting of more than twenty-five pages.

In a discussion last semester, Dr. Raith and several Political Science majors concluded that:

- 1) Term papers must be typed. An improperly or poorly typed paper reflects on the student's grade.
- 2) Many students cannot type. Those that can often lack the time required to type the paper.
- 3) Student typists, although less expensive than the professional typist, often make errors in form or in content due to their negligence. They often skip essential words, sentences, and even paragraphs.
- 4) Professional typists charge

Films, Exhibit
Highlight New Religious Week

Albright College has scheduled a unique religious program featuring a series of films, discussions, and an art exhibit. Set for next Monday and Tuesday, the program replaces the traditional "Religion In Life Week."

The new approach to Albright's "Religion In Life Week" came from the fact that, for the first time, students had the opportunity to plan their own programs. Headed by co-chairmen Barbara Case, '66, and Don Jones, '66, the program committee decided on a schedule which would approach religion through the arts.

The film, The Loneliness of the Long Distance Runner, starring Tom Courtenay and Sir Michael Redgrave, and produced by Tony Richardson, award-winning director of Tom Jones, will be shown Monday night in the chapel. The picture concerns an arrogant 18 year old slum boy who is sent to a reformatory and wins acclaim as the school's top runner. As he is about to run against a leading opponent, he views his early life in a series of flashbacks and comes to a startling decision.

After the film, a discussion group will be led by James Beveridge, an internationally known producer with his own film company in Ottawa, Canada. Classes will be cancelled on Tuesday. (Continued on Page 5)

ALBRIGHT IRC
HEADS FOR NYC

Six full-time delegates will represent Albright College at the National Model General Assembly sponsored by Yale University in New York City on March 10-12. The representatives are all members of the Albright International Relations Club.

Albright has been assigned the Union of Burma and the six students will meet with Burmese officials in New York before the conference begins. Heading the Albright delegation is Jose M. Sanchez, '66, president of the IRC; he will be a member of the Special Political Committee.

Other Albrightians registered include Jack Latteman, '69, in the Political Committee, Janet Moyer, '68, in the Colonization Committee, Linda Sheetz, '69, Social and Humanitarian Committee, Rick Haisch, '69, Economic Committee, and Judy Mundell, '69, in the Legal Committee. Marguerite Gartman, '69, and Charlotte Miller, '66, will attend as alternates.

Coeds Sweep
Speech Awards

Karen M. Masonheimer, Lemoyne, and Valjean Clark, Pedrickton, N. J., were named winners in the first semester competition for the Kelchner Memorial Oratorical Prize at Albright College.

Miss Masonheimer took first place and Miss Clark was runner-up in the contest for freshmen held in January on the Albright campus. Both girls qualified for the finals by winning elimination rounds in their respective class sections of basic speech principles, a course required of all students at Albright.

The prizes are the gift of the late Charles S. Kelchner, an 1895 Albright graduate, who was for many years professor of modern languages and head of the physical education department.

Other contestants included: Thomas J. Bowersox, Hanover; Richard M. Kriebel, Adamstown; Margaret J. Perry, Plainfield, N. J.; Donald T. Floyd, Chalfont; Carol A. Resch, Morrisville, N. J.; Cheryl A. Dietz, Hellam; and Edward H. Dommers and Fred I. Silberman, both Philadelphia.

BLUE JAYS MUST LOSE:

Renkenmen's Playoff Hopes Ride With E-Town's Foes

After winning a thrilling 55-46 game at Moravian College, Albright's cagers must now depend on one of three Middle Atlantic Conference teams to beat Elizabethtown in order for the Lions to clinch a playoff spot at the St. Joseph's Field House next weekend.

Albright is 9-3 in the conference with one game to play (Franklin and Marshall at home this Saturday); Elizabethtown is 8-3 with three games remaining (Lycoming, Dickinson and Juniata at home). First-place Lycoming invaded the E-town gym last night (Wednesday) and a Warrior victory would all but clinch second place for Albright. However, if the Blue Jays emerge victorious, they could conceivably finish 11-3 to the Lions' probable 10-3.

The 55-46 win at Moravian Monday night was a tribute to the excellent defense which the Lions have featured in the MAC all year. Both teams played atrocious basketball for the first half, which saw the Big Red leading 24-17. The offensive pace picked up somewhat in the second half, but there were a lot of ball-handling mistakes committed—mainly due to the pressure defense used by both clubs.

Mike Klahr took advantage of nine foul shots to go with his six field goals as he led all scorers with 21 markers. Billy Kudrick, playing perhaps his finest game of the year, tallied 16, grabbed 15 rebounds and passed for six assists. The charges of Coach Will Renken were playing without the services of forward Andy Mytinger who suffered a dislocated toe in a freak accident against Juniata. Johnny Scholl started in place of Mytinger and did a fine job off the backboards; his cold shooting could be attributed to the freshman's nervousness.

Albright 85 Juniata 51
The Indians from Huntingdon, Pa., were no match for the victory-hungry Lions. Albright made its MAC record 8-3 by slaughtering the Field House visitors, 85-51, with the backcourt combination of Mike Klahr and Bill Kudrick combining for 49 points. Klahr hit on 11 of 21 efforts from the field and added seven charity tosses to finish with 29 markers. Kudrick, fully recovered from a thigh injury, chipped in with 20 and fed off for eight assists in a brilliant floor display. Freshman George Ritter led in rebounds with 11.

FROSH PHENOM — Freshman George Ritter, a 6-6 center, has moved into the starting line up for Coach Will Renken's Lions. Although Ritter is yet to play a full game, his performance has allowed Renken to rest Joe Lobichusky more often.

Delaware 75 Albright 72

Albright continued to suffer through a dismal road record by losing its seventh decision in eight trips away from Reading. The Blue Hens of Newark, Del., shook off a long losing streak (six games) at the expense of the Lions. Coach Will Renken decided to rest Kudrick for the entire game and Bill's absence was quite noticeable in the three-point loss. Mike Klahr and Mike Eckenroth split 48 points for Albright.

Susquehanna 67 Albright 66

An all-important MAC contest which could have bolstered Albright's bid for a playoff spot went against the Lions. Susquehanna, also loser of six straight and an early victim of Albright in Reading, survived a late Red and White rally to ice the verdict. Mike Klahr had a chance to win it for the 'Bright with seven seconds to go, but his 14-foot jumper hit the back of the rim and bounced out. Klahr had 22, Eckenroth 20 and Andy Mytinger 19 to go with Joe Lobichusky's 15 rebounds.

Albright 71 Moravian 59

The Greyhounds from Allentown had two torrid shooting spells at the outset of each half, but in between they were very cold as Albright pulled away in the closing minutes of each period. Riding the amazing sharp-shooting of Klahr's 11-for-15 field goal performance, the Renkenmen copped an important conference win. Klahr finished with 26

Klahr, Lobichusky Set Pace In Stats

Mike Klahr and Joe Lobichusky were leading Albright Colleges basketball team in all its offensive categories going into this week's games. The redheaded senior captain ranks first in points scored and foul shooting percentage while "Lobo" is the leader in field goal percentage and rebounds.

Klahr has assumed a commanding lead over his scoring lieutenant Bill Kudrick in the race for point-making honors. Mike had tallied 366 points in 19 games before the Moravian game Monday night for a 19.8 average. Kudrick has 283 markers in 18 contests for a 15.6 norm.

Lobichusky's 53 per cent mark from the field is good enough to lead all other Lions shooters; Joe has scored 63 times in 119 tries. In the rebounding department, "Lobo" is slightly ahead of Andy Mytinger and Kudrick. Joe has collected 170 misfires to Mytinger's 136 and Kudrick's 134.

The statistics before Monday's game:

	FG	FS	Pts.
1—KLAHR	144	78	366
2—Kudrick	109	65	283
3—Eckenroth	93	19	205
4—Mytinger	67	38	172
5—Lobichusky	63	22	142
6—Ritter	22	15	59
7—Scholl	9	13	31

markers and Mytinger with 21.

Albright 66 Upsala 63

The home forces managed to hang on to a slim lead in the waning moments of a thrilling game. Full court passes from Kudrick to Klahr broke the visitors' press time and time again. Klahr again led all scorers with 21 and Lobichusky's 16-rebound effort represented his season's best.

Wagner 82 Albright 71

The senhawks from Wagner College shifted gears halfway through the second half and, before Albright could recover, the game was out of reach. This was Albright's second conference loss and things might have been different if the Lions had not experienced an atrocious beginning—of the first 23 Albright shots, only three hit the mark. Some of the misses were easy layups which might have given the Lions a lead. Kudrick scored 21 tallies and Klahr 20.

Albright 80 Scranton 64

In the battle for second place in the MAC's Northern Division, the Royals of Scranton were jolted, 80-64. Outhustling and outclassing the visitors, Albright gained sole possession of the runner-up slot. Kudrick and Klahr divided 44 points and the former did a superb defensive job on Scranton's high-scoring Rhett Jenkins. To complete one of his best all-around showings of the year, Billy "the Kid" grabbed nine rebounds and passed off for six assists.

Albright 54 LVC 50

The Lions had to fight off another late rally to hang on to victory. A defensive battle characterized by mediocre shooting, the contest seemed to be tucked away for Albright, but the Flying Dutchmen put on a late spurt which almost spelled disaster for the Renkenmen. Klahr's 15 points were high for Albright and Mytinger's 17 rebounds set this (Continued on Page 4)

REBOUNTING LEADER — Joe Lobichusky, shown here launching a jump shot, is still leading the Albright basketball squad in rebounds. Joe, 6-7 center from Mahanoy City, Pa., had a high of 16 rebounds against Gettysburg.

"ALL ALONE AM I" seems to be saying Albright's Mike Klahr as he waits under the basket for a pass from Andy Mytinger. The pass never materialized, but Mytinger's jump shot did and that was one of the 29 points which the skilled junior scored in a victory against Susquehanna at the Albright Field House. Unfortunately, the Crusaders gained revenge by edging the Lions, 67-66, in a later contest at Selinsgrove.

Outing Club Continues To Function Despite Rejection Of Charter

In order to promote outdoor activities, an Outing Club has been formed unofficially on the Albright campus by Al Vesper, a special student. The petition of the Outing Club was rejected by the Student Organizations and Activities Committee due to a lack of definite student interest and a question of college liability for participating students. However, the organization is functioning on an informal basis until approval of its charter and has planned several activities for students who are interested and who are able to participate.

These events will be held under the sanction of the Intercollegiate Outing Club Association (I.O.C.A.) which was founded in 1932 by seven students from Dartmouth College. If the charter of the Albright Outing Club gains approval, the organization will join 100 other such clubs in the Eastern United States which are members of I.O.C.A. The Association newsletter describes an outing club as "essentially an organization created for activity, not merely exchange of information."

To this end an I.O.C.A. conference will take place at Mount Holyoke College in South Hadley, Massachusetts, from February 25 to 27. The agenda includes folk dancing on Friday night after two hours of instruction. Saturday morning and afternoon will feature skating, sledding, skiing at Mount Tom, and hiking along Holyoke Range. On Saturday night a square dance will follow a buffet supper.

All participating students, must take sleeping bags along for the trip. Boys will sleep in Outing Club cabin, at a cost of 50c per night, and will receive breakfast in the cabin each morning. Girls will sleep in the college dormitories and may have breakfast in the dorm for 80c, or may eat in the College Inn.

Also announced was an outing at the University of Syracuse, N. Y., on March 11-13. On Saturday, March 12, a steak dinner and a square dance marathon will be featured. Other activities, such as canoe trips, mountain climbing and camping are planned for both the remainder of this semester and the summer.

Domino Club Announces Play

The Albright College Domino Players will present T. S. Eliot's "The Cocktail Party," Friday and Saturday, March 18 and 19, in Krause Hall. Curtain time for both performances is 8:15 p.m. Dr. Samuel B. Shirk, director of admissions, is directing the arena-style production.

NEW POINT-MAKER — Albright's sagging offense has received a big boost as of late with the rapid development of junior Andy Mytinger. The 6-2 forward has been averaging in double figures in the last ten games.

Matmen Suffer Slump; Ericson Stays Unbeaten

A 32-2 trouncing at the hands of Delaware lowered Albright's wrestling mark to 2-5-1 as the Lions went into a four-match losing streak.

Previous to the Delaware collapse, the Lions had been edged by Haverford, 26-13, and humbled by Ursinus, 20-9, in two consecutive home contests. With only three matches remaining, Coach Joe Now is hopeful that his grapplers can win at least two more. The matmen traveled to Wagner on Tuesday, host Lafayette Saturday and close the campaign at Moravian next Wednesday night. The bouts with the Greyhounds should prove especially interesting since Albright will be looking for its first win over Moravian.

John Ericson, 160-pound sophomore, remained Albright's only undefeated man through the first eight contests. The agile Ericson sports a 6-0-2 mark, marred only by draws against Elizabethtown and Delaware. John was expected to stay unbeaten against Wagner, but this streak will be in jeopardy Saturday against an experienced Lafayette foe.

Heavyweight Dick Horst carries the second best individual slate on the team with a 5-3 record. Dick, the defending Middle Atlantic champion in the 177 pound category, has been seriously handicapped by facing bigger and stronger opponents in this weight division. He's still considering defense of his 177 title at Wilkes College in the MAC tournament March 3-4.

The fastest dog in the world? If you bet on the greyhound, you're wrong; it's the Saluke, which has been clocked at maximum speeds up to 43 m.p.h.

JV Hoopsters Show Fine Slate After 13 Games

A recent slump which saw them drop two of their last three games, has halted the winning ways of Albright's junior varsity basketball squad. After copping five straight victories to compile a 7-3 mark, the Baby Lions were at the 8-5 level before this week's three games against Moravian, Bucknell and Franklin and Marshall.

Ron Reilly, 6-6 freshman center, is pacing the jayvees in scoring (a 14.1 points a game norm) and in rebounds (10.0 claims off the boards). The charges of Coach Max A. Missbach have lost the services of six players from its original roster at the outset of the season.

Freshmen George Ritter and John Scholl were promoted to the varsity. John Spadafora, Bob Sakalovski and John Reinhart fell victim to academic probation and Chris Kraras decided to abandon the sport. Glenn Gerber, who had started the year with varsity, was demoted halfway through the year. Following are jayvee scores for the first 13 games along with the top scorer and rebounder for Albright in each game:

LA SALLE 121, Albright 81 (Spadafora scored ten and Reilly had seven rebounds).

ALBRIGHT 57, Gettysburg 54 (Reilly had 20 points and 17 rebounds).

ALBRIGHT 79, Elizabethtown 72 (Rich Peterson tallied 26 points and Don Auerbach snared 10 rebounds).

ST. JO'S 70, Albright 56 (Reilly had 24 points and 12 rebounds).

LYCOMING 62, Albright 52 (Reilly finished with 12 points and 20 rebounds).

ALBRIGHT 75, Susquehanna 48 (Reilly scored 16 and Ed Domers captured 10 rebounds).

ALBRIGHT 77, Lebanon Valley 75 (Reilly and Peterson split 40 points and Reilly took 14 rebounds).

ALBRIGHT 65, Scranton 57 (Bob Peterson scored 12 and Gerber took 19 rebounds).

ALBRIGHT 69, Upsala 50 (Sakalovski tallied 20 and Reilly took 12 off the boards).

ALBRIGHT 63, Moravian 52 (Auerbach, Peterson and Reilly divided 36 points equally among them and Gerber swept the boards for 12).

SUSQUEHANNA 50, Albright 49 (Peterson scored 12 and Gerber took 19 rebounds).

ALBRIGHT 68, Delaware 63 (Auerbach connected for 19 points and Gerber and Domers each grabbed 11 rebounds).

CALIFORNIA SPORTS SHOP 70, Albright 58 (Reilly and Gerber tallied 14 each and Glenn added 13 rebounds).

KAPPAS KEEP BOWLING LEAD

With the season more than half over, the Kappa Upsilon Phi fraternity continues to pace the intramural bowling league with seventeen wins and three losses. They are followed by the Zetas with a 16-4 log. The Conference Keglers, 12-8, lead the independent entries. The teams stand as follows:

	W.	L.	Pct.	G.B.
1. Kappas	17	3	.850	—
2. Zetas	16	4	.800	1
3. Pi Taus	15	5	.750	2
4. C. Keglers	12	8	.600	5
5. Holy Rollers	8	8	.500	7
6. APO	8	12	.400	9
7. Daymen	5	11	.313	10
8. Pussycats	4	16	.200	13
9. Walton	3	13	.188	12

The high team triple is held by the Kappas with 1614 and the Kappas also rolled up the high team single with 587. A newcomer to the league, Dave Huey, of the Pi Taus, took over high average with 186, while Don Stricker and Bill Baxter retained high single end triple with 236 and 590, respectively. The high averages roll up like this:

1. Dave Huey, Pi Taus	186
2. Bill Baxter, Holy Rollers	181
3. Ralph Weise, Kappas	180
4. Don Stricker, Kappas	178
5. Ed Rubovitz, Zetas	174

fifty cents a page. Thus a professionally-typed paper of forty pages costs twenty dollars.

We propose, therefore, that the school should:

- 1) subsidize long papers in the 300-400 level courses.
- 2) make provisions for student-prices at a professional typing agency.
- 3) establish a part-time position for a secretary who would type student papers. We are informed that this position could be subsidized by the government.

We feel that there are enough students involved to require administrative action.

There is much concern these days about bad spelling by the younger generation. For instance, a certain college senior may well be a most bewildered young man. Finding that he had left his dungarees at home, he wrote: "Dear Mother, Please send me my genes."

She replied: "Dear Son, If you don't have them by now, there is nothing I can do about it."

Moral seriousness does not resolve complex problems; it only impels us to face the problems rather than run away. Clearheadedness does not slay dragons; it only spares us the indignity of fighting paper dragons while the real ones are breathing down our necks. But those are not trivial advantages.

expression. If these are combined the supposed result is the supposed absence of a ground where people can express their ideas which, through their virility, will charge said ground with fertility.

The question posed is, are we devoid of any such ground? Hopefully, Albrightia has not sunk to the low ebb of the "wasteland." There still should be some ground that has not been enveloped by the "yellow fog." If we do not live in a total wasteland, where is our refuge? I answer that there is still a small island, which has not been enveloped by the fog. The AGON is Albrightia's answer to the void!

Through the literary medium of a student magazine the members of the AGON staff wish to assist student expression. We are now collecting a worthwhile representation of local collegiate writing, for the spring issue of the AGON, which will hopefully recharge the local terrain with new thought. All literary forms are accepted, including poetry, short story, and essay. To be printed, all manuscripts must be submitted to room 116 Masters Hall by the end of March. We hope you are interested; we await your literature!

Traffic Court Issues First Semester Report

(Ed. note: The following report was submitted by the Student Traffic Court of Albright College after completing its first semester of operation. Elsewhere in this page readers will find a complete list of all cases handled by the Court in this period).

by ROGER P. MALLON, Court Secretary

The Student Traffic Court of Albright College is a student judiciary court of appeals for all student traffic violations. The court was begun under the supposition that any student feeling his traffic violation bears special consideration could receive a more complete understanding of his situation by bringing it before a body of fellow students. The court acts as final judge of all cases, and it receives its authority from the Student Council and the college administration.

At present the traffic court is a five member body consisting of: one male senior resident car owner; one female junior resident car owner; one male resident car owner; one male sophomore day student; and one male resident freshman. At least three members must be present at each hearing, and a vote of three is required for each decision. This would mean that at a meeting in which only three justices were present, a unanimous vote would be necessary in making a final ruling. However, thus far all decisions of the court have been unanimous. The court also feels, to be completely fair to the students, a complainant has the right to postpone his hearing if he wishes to appear on a day in which all justices are present. To date, this privilege has not been used.

Meetings of the court are held twice a month on a Tuesday and Thursday at 11:00 a.m. in the Library Seminar Room. During the Fall semester of the 1965-66 school year, the Student Traffic Court met seven times and tried twenty cases. Of the total, twelve were acquitted and eight violations were upheld. Also, of the twenty cases ten involved day students and ten involved resident students.

Aside from upholding specific student traffic rules, the court has set significant precedents by its interpretation of various regulations. Such interpretations include:

1. The regulation for no parking on the 1800 block of Linden street has been upheld in four cases; however stopping to load or unload luggage at the dormitories or stopping to pick up or drop off dates at the women's dormitories does not constitute parking, and therefore, such acts are permitted.
2. There is a 24 hour period from the time a student brings a car to campus and the time the car must be registered.
3. Selwyn Hall residents are permitted to park in the faculty parking lot for loading and unloading baggage and for picking up or dropping off students.

4. All fines are doubled if students do not appear before the Traffic Court at their appointed time.

The following suggestions have been submitted to the traffic court as possible improvements to the functions of the court, and they will be considered by the court in the second semester of the 1965-66 school year.

1. The number of day student justices on the Traffic Court should be increased to form a better representation of driving students.
2. Student parking facilities next to Krause Hall should be increased by relining the student parking lot.
3. Individual parking lots should be supplied for resident and day students. Also, individually colored registration stickers should be given to resident and commuting students for control in the separate parking lots.
4. Prosecuting and defense attorneys should be supplied for each student appearance before the court.
5. Student traffic regulations should be posted in all dormitories and on the bulletin board in the Library Patio.
6. A list of traffic rules should be given to all students when they register their cars.
7. Particularly important rules should be announced in chapel.
8. Individual tickets should be made for each offense.

day and all students will be required to attend two films in the Chapel held in the morning and afternoon. One is a Japanese film, Ikiru, giving the moving account of a man who has only a short time to live. The Given Word, a Brazilian film dealing with a peasant whose religious convictions are challenged by his peers, has been described by critic Walter Carroll as "... a film of big ideas, powerful, daring, and eminently worth seeing."

After dinner, the program will be concluded with another discussion in the Chapel, also led by Mr. Beveridge. This discussion will set the pace for subsequent meetings led by faculty members and other prominent members of the community in the homes of various professors.

Along with these scheduled activities, students are encouraged to attend the art exhibits displayed in the Library and Dining Hall. If so desired, a student may purchase prints for a reasonable price.

Cabinet Discusses Class Dance, Spirit

The freshman sophomore Mardi Gras dance and the spirit committee were two of the topics discussed at the latest meeting of the Freshman Cabinet on February 2.

The joint dance, scheduled for Friday, February 25, will feature a rock and roll band. Dress for the affair has been announced as semi-formal. Any freshman who has not paid his class dues will not be admitted to the dance free of charge.

Betsy Clements, Arnie Laiken and Fred Silberman have been designated as the new co-chairmen of the spirit committee replacing Neal Goldstein. This group has been very active in promoting better student spirit at home basketball games.

Questions and complaints about meals served in the dining hall have reached the Cabinet. In conjunction with Student Council, the Cabinet is making a study of the situation and hopes to answer these complaints in the near future.

WXAC Will Air Hoop Playoffs

Final plans for a local broadcast of the four Middle Atlantic States Collegiate Athletic Conference College Division Basketball Championships are now being completed. WXAC will be cooperating with college radio stations throughout the Middle Atlantic Conference to bring its listeners the fast and furious action of the 1966 games.

On Feb. 25 and 26, in cooperation with WXDT at Drexel Institute of Technology in Philadelphia, a number of college stations will be linked by radio for the four game series. This will be a sports spectacular which has never before been attempted by a small college network.

Details of this great sporting event were not complete by press time, so that this event is not listed in the February WXAC-Program Guide. The station urges its listeners to look for more information in THE ALBRIGHTIAN and listen to WXAC as these games come closer.

Currently, Albright, Elizabeth-town and Scranton were battling for the second-place slot in the Northern Division of the MAC. The second-place club will meet first-place Lycoming the first night of the playoffs. The winner meets the Southern Division representative (winner of the Drexel-Haverford game) for the MAC title.

Assembly Features Dylan Thomas Play

The Domino Players of Albright College presented the play "Under Milkwood" by Dylan Thomas to the student assembly on Tuesday, February 8 in the chapel-auditorium.

Participants in the presentation included the following students: Donald C. Michaels, '67, Ronald W. Delp, '67, Audrey L. Miles, '67, Karen Kuss, '67, Ginnine L. Cocuzzo, '69, Katherine E. Mayo, '68, Evelyn O. Stevason, '69, and Edwin J. Rinehimer, '67. Also participating were two of Albright's English professors; Mr. Edwin H. Sargent and Mr. John Pisaneschi, who co-directed the play as well.

Stunt Night Will Feature History Theme

By Carol Heckman

Stunt Night, an annual tradition at Albright, is scheduled for 7:00 p.m. on March 25 at Krause Hall. This is a highly competitive affair in which all organizations on campus are invited to participate—creating and producing original skits to compete for the first and second place trophies provided by Student Council, sponsor of the event.

This year's chairmen in charge of Stunt Night are Joan Darby, '67, and Emily Fairclough, '67. They have announced that the 1966 theme will be "History Gone Haywire"; entries may be in any form. Up to now, only the sororities, fraternities, and Daywomen's Organization have shown interest in the project; students are reminded that all campus organizations are invited to take part, dorm groups, classes, etc.

In last year's Stunt Night, the Pi Alpha Tau sorority won first place with a skit entitled "Love in the Litter," and the Phi Beta Mu sorority took the second place trophy with their entry, "Heavenly Holiday." Pi Tau Beta took first place among fraternities.

The judges, who have not yet been selected, are usually prominent citizens in the Reading area.

Watch what people are cynical about, and one can often discover what they lack, and subconsciously deeply wish they had.

Albright Band Stages Program

A program by the instrumental music groups of Albright College will be presented on Saturday evening, March 5th, at 7:45 in the Mermer-Pfeiffer-Klein Chapel auditorium.

Taking part in this program will be the college-sponsored stage band which will present several selections by well-known popular composers and arrangers such as Richard Maltby and Don Jacoby.

The concert band ensemble will feature on its program the horn concerto by the contemporary composer, Ralph Hermann. Performing the horn solo part in this composition will be Albert Antonucci. Antonucci, who is well-known in the Reading area for his musical activities the past one and a half years, formerly was first hornist for 14 years with the Claude Thornhill orchestra and was also active for a time with the Johnny Richards group.

Besides the featured horn concerto, the program will consist of several fine classic and contemporary works for symphonic band including such works as "Somerset Sketches" by Hugh Stuart, "Symphonie for Band" by the little known 18th century composer, Louis Jadin, "Fantasia for Band" by Vittorio Giannini and others of outstanding worth.

The concert is open to the public and all are urged to enjoy attendance at this affair. No admission will be charged.

Might may not always make "Right," but it assuredly makes governments.

Twelve Co-eds Receive 'Best Dressed' Nominations

Twelve Albright girls have been nominated for honors as the campus' "Best Dressed Co-ed." In response to The Albrightian's announcement of the contest, six of the seven organizations polled submitted entries. Only the Daywomen's Association did not enter.

The twelve nominees will be presented to the student body at two future chapel periods at which time voting will take place. The candidate receiving the highest number of votes will be declared the local winner. The Albrightian will present trophies to the top three finishers. In addition, of course, the winner will take part in Glamour Magazine's national contest.

The twelve nominees and their organizations are as follows: Virginia Doyle and Carolyn Mills from Alpha Iota Sigma, Maureen Fegley and Linda Carvell from Crowell Hall, Denise Nappe and Pat Caruso from Pi Alpha Tau, Barbara Allison and Barbara Boyajian from Phi Beta Mu, Ellen Kadel and Marjorie Kochenash from Selwyn Hall and Barbara Case and Ellen Winters from Smith Hall.

Our winner will then be photographed in a typical campus outfit, off-campus daytime outfit, and a party dress. These three photographs will be sent to Glamour with an official entry form, to be judged by a panel of Glamour Editors. Last year a record-breaking 301 colleges in the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico submitted entries. These entries were so outstanding that in addition to the ten winners and a selected number of honorable mention winners, a new category was added and five special mention winners were chosen.

The winners of Glamour's Tenth Annual "Best-dressed College Girls" contest will be photographed by top fashion photographers in the late spring for Glamour's August College Issue. The first two weeks in June they will come to New York for a gala round of parties, theatre, sightseeing, and entertainment.

We know too much for one man to know much.

NEW SERVICE AIDS PRE-LAW STUDENTS

College seniors planning to go on to law school no longer have to guess which schools would be best for them.

A new organization, Law School Placement Service (LSPS), will guide individual students to the law schools most closely suited to their needs through the use of modern computers.

In its first year, LSPS has earned the support of more than 90 of the nation's top law schools. The program has also won the endorsement of educators and professional organizations alike.

Until now, the guidance available to the pre-law student has been haphazard and incomplete. Many students have selected schools on the basis of prestige or word of mouth, only to waste application fees.

Competition is increasingly keen for admittance to law school. The number of openings in first-year classes has remained fairly constant but the post-war "baby-boom" and the American desire for advanced education are flooding admissions offices with applications.

The participating law schools will provide LSPS with data about their entrance requirements, including the most frequently-reported LSAT scores and undergraduate averages in the first-year class.

In addition to his scores, the student will give LSPS his preferences as to financial restrictions and geographical location. LSPS will scientifically guide the student to appropriate schools.

Application forms are now available from Dr. Charles A. Raith, prelegal advisor. Students may also write directly to:

Law School Placement Service, Box 2052, West Hartford, Conn.
