IRC Maps Projects For U.N. Meeting

The International Relations Club of Albright College held its first meeting last Wednesday, Sept. 23 in Teel Hall. President Jose Sanchez, '66, conducted the order of business.

Basically, the organization's two main projects were discussed at length for the benefit of old and new members alike. IRC sponsors a high school Model United Nations on the Albright campus every year and it also sends delegates to the National Inter-collegiate Model General Assembly of the U.N.

Plans for the high school gathering were tentatively made. The Model UN, the tenth consecutive in Albright history, will take place in our Chapel on December 12. Delegations from 15 Berks County high schools are expected. These schools are assigned individual nations which they represent in three committees as well as in the General Assembly session held at the end of the day.

Discuss UN Problems

This year's committees will discuss the Cyprus crisis, the financial situation of the United Nations and possible expansion in membership of the body. Countries will be assigned this week and several briefing sessions for the benefit of the high schoolers will be conducted prior to the actual meetings.

The Inter-Collegiate Assembly will take place the first week of April in New York City. This is the second straight year that New York serves as center for the convention and the well-known Commodore Hotel will once again constitute the delegates' headquarters.

Last year Albright represented Nigeria with eight delegates—six seniors and two sophomores. The same number will probably make the trip this spring; freshmen are expected to fill three or four vacancies.

Pi Tau Announces Future Activities

Pi Tau Beta, one of four social fraternities on the Albright campus, held its first meeting of the '64-'65 year last Monday, Sept. 21 in the basement of the PTB house.

President Bob Henning, '65, led the group in a general discussion which included plans for the fraternity Open House and Homecoming participation, intramural football and the Beta Bugle — PTB's newsletter to its alumni.

The brothers expressed a strong determination to recover the coveted Achievement Trophy awarded to the fraternity with the highest number of points in inter-fraternity competition. After three consecutive trophies, Pi Tau lost the '63-'64 symbol of supremacy to Alpha Pi Omega.

Committees Formed

President Henning also announced the formation of committees for the present semester. Along with Recording Secretary Bill Gay, '66, Henning asked for volunteers for the various committees. Brothers absent from this meeting will be assigned to various groups arbitrarily.

The fraternity suffered a mediocre year in 1963-64 as it won but one trophy — second place in the now-defunct Float Parade. Several "firsts" were achieved in some minor intramural events — wrestling and badminton—but not enough to warrant a trophy. The 1605 Hampden Boulevard gang will be out to better that showing this year.

Pres. Continues Frosh Meetings

The first "follow-up" session after the initial Orientation Week program was held in Krause Hall October 1. Dr. Harry V. Masters, President of Albright College spoke on the subject of "How to Succeed at Albright."

He stated that since we are paying for our education we should get the most for our money. We should not try to see how many classes we can cut, rather we should see how much we can learn.

On the campus are many extracurricular activities and Dr. Masters believes that we should join our share; we should join those clubs which are of special interest to us. We should not, however, join every organization or attend every school function just so that we can lead the life of the "country club set." We are here at Albright to learn.

Dr. Masters also admonished the freshmen to obey the rules of the college. We should try to cooperate with our professors and Albright officials. He said that we could turn to these people if we needed help and would find them only too glad to aid us.

Freshman Dondore Assumes Editorship Of Campus Paper

By JOANN MILLER

The Albrightian, defunct for the past semester, has been revived by a member of the freshman class, Tom Dondore. Dondore has six years of experience on school newspapers. He spent a good bit of his summer on campus trying to convince school officials that he meant to make a go of the paper and that he was capable of running it. Finally, after learning the immensity of the job before him and proving himself, he was given the position of editor-in-chief.

Tom then spent weeks familiarizing himself with the operation and renewing old contacts. It was also his task to get a small staff together to put out a paper for frosh orientation. Since its first straggly beginnings this year, the staff has grown to 32. A general organization meeting was held Wednesday, September 23. At that time all students interested in becoming a member of The Albrightian staff were asked to make their desires known. Positions were and still are available to even those who have had no previous experience with a newspaper.

Masters Announces Future Changes In Chapel Talk

At last Tuesday's chapel session, President Harry Masters addressed the Freshman and Sophomore classes about Albright College, past, present and future. He started the program by telling them how privileged they were to be able to attend such an institution of higher learning as Albright. Then he went on to tell about the various achievements and plans of Albright College.

Two Evaluations

In the last few years, Albright has come through two evaluations with flying colors. Many changes have been made as a result of these evaluations. The structure of the curriculum and many courses have been changed to bring the academic program at Albright up to date. Some of these changes include senior seminars, and the Area of Concentration program.

Physical Changes

Besides these changes, there have been many improvements in the facilities and equipment made available to the student body. These include the renovation of Masters Hall and Alumni Hall and the construction of the new library and administration building.

President Masters also talked about plans for the future. A new wing for the science building has already been started and the old wing will be renovated next summer. He also announced that preliminary plans for a Student Union building were already on the drawing board but could make no promises as to when these would become a reality.

Faculty Advisor

The faculty advisor this year is also a newcomer to Albright. He is Mr. Philip Eyrich of the political science department. Mr. Eyrich graduated from Albright and received his M.A. degree from Pennsylvania State University. He has also completed Ph.D. degree course requirements.

Present Staff

Positions Available

Anyone interested in reporting is urged to fill out an application form. These are available in The Albrightian office just inside the front entrance of Krause Hall. Dondore says that the response and co-operation has been excellent so far and the prospects of The Albrightian look encouraging.

Museum to Exhibit Local Art Work

The Reading Public Museum and Art Gallery, located at 500 Museum Road in Reading, will hold its 87th Annual Juried Exhibition from October 11 to November 29, 1964.

Oils, watercolors, pastels, prints, and sculptures will be on exhibition and a presently unannounced jury will judge the exhibits. All artists living within an approximate radius of thirty-five miles of Reading were eligible to enter their works.

All interested students are invited to attend the exhibition.

STAFF MEETING

There will be an important meeting of all members of THE ALBRIGHTIAN staff today. Please report to the office in Krause Hall at 3:00 p.m.

NUCLEI RELEASES SCHEDULE FOR UPCOMING PROGRAMS

Friday, October second, the Nuclei sponsored a theater trip to see 'Becket' for the students of Albright. 'Becket', starring Richard Burton and Peter O'Toole was shown at the Fox Theatre in the Muhlenberg Shopping Plaza. The admission fee was 50¢ instead of the normal charge of $1.25.

Although buses were not available for transportation, approximately fifty students attended the ten o'clock showing. This number of students is considered quite good since 'Becket' is the first movie sponsored by the Nuclei at an outside movie theatre.

More Trips Planned

Because of the enthusiastic opinions expressed by the students upon seeing 'Becket', the Nuclei plans to sponsor more such movies.

Some of the movies that will be presented by the Nuclei at Krause Hall will be: 'The Time Machine' on October seventeenth, 'Northwest Passage' on October twenty-third, and 'Breakfast at Tiffany's' on November twenty-first. There will also be a dance on the twenty-fourth of October which will have a live band and be held hopefully in the dining hall lounge.

Lycoming Back Trys to Snag Pass

LIONS TO MEET GETTYSBURG

By DAVE MINK

Albright's gridders will face their toughest opponent of the season tomorrow when they play host to the Bullets of Gettysburg. Gettysburg has racked up a 3-0 record with victories over Hofstra, Bucknell and the University of Delaware.

After rolling up a 27-7 win over Hofstra and a 12-7 upset verdict over Bucknell, the Bullets pulled off the biggest small college upset of the young season with a 22-19 victory over the Blue Hens of Delaware.

Pass Offense

Gettysburg has exceptionally good pass offense led by flanker Ken Snyder. Against Bucknell, Snyder scored twice and intercepted a pass during a late game drive. Bullet coach Gene Haas stated that everyone is in top physical condition for the Albright tilt.

Albright, however, is not unprepared for the game and they will not be the easy mark that many of the experts predict. The Lions also will be out to make it 4-0.

REFURBISHMENT OF PINE ROOM COMPLETE

Keeping in step with Albright's face-lifting, the daywomen are carrying out plans for redecorating their lounge in the basement of Selwyn Hall, the Pine Room.

Before school began in September the room was painted and drapes were made. Local artists produced masterpieces for the walls, plans were made for purchasing new furniture, candles were melted over wine bottles and ivy was grown for the mantle.

Art Contributors

Now that classes are in session, these plans are beginning to materialize. The ivy is on the mantle, the wine bottles are on the window sills and the paintings are on the walls. Those artists which are represented are Susan B. Palms, Patricia Patterson, Linda Montz, Chris Patterson, Laurie Patterson, a junior at Brandywine High School, and Linda Ritchie, a freshman art student at Kutztown State College.

The works, all original productions, include oil paintings, charcoal and pastel sketches, and pen and ink drawings. To illustrate the variety in theme, one of Miss Palms' paintings is a still life in oils, while Miss Laurie Patterson is represented by a charcoal sketch of a covered bridge.

"New Yorker" Covers

At the far end of the Pine Room, opposite the fireplace, posters made from New Yorker covers serve as wallpaper above the dark pine paneling which gives the room its

SCRANTON HARRIERS EDGE ALBRIGHT

Last Wednesday Albright's cross-country squad lost its second start to Scranton at Lake Scranton. The loss gives the Lions an 0-2 record for this season. However, the harriers are not to be deprived of the fact that they gave a fine performance.

They managed a close 25-31 score on an unfamiliar course and with three starters missing. Succeeding Mayor Eugene L. Shirk as coach, Professor Paul Applegate says, "Their performance is not representative of their potential because they did not have a starting squad which was at full strength."

Among the first eleven finishers Albright had six. Jim Garibay, with the third-best time of 27.10 for the meet, finished first among the Lions. Herman Dale and John Clark were not far behind.

Tomorrow the harriers face Gettysburg at home at 2:00 P.M. With the squad at full strength and with a little support from the students, we can win.

If anyone who is interested in testing his ability at cross-country, is invited to try out for the intramural squads. The squads are the Blackheath featuring Garibay, Sanchez, Douglas, Stevenson, Moyer, Swartz and Reibane; the other squad is the San Francisco Olympic Club starring Dale, Clark, Arnold, Rankin, Grosh, Kirkwood and Neal. They have two meets scheduled for Tuesday, Oct. 20; at 4:15, and Tuesday, Oct. 27; at 4:15. If you are interested in either varsity or intramural see Professor Applegate in room 121 M.H.

A summary of the meet at Scranton: 1. Carl Sauhoers, S (26:10); 2. Dick Prutsman, S.; 3. Jim Garibay, A.; 4. Lou Palumbo, S.; 5. Herman Dale, A.; 6. John Clark, A.; 7. Pete Cayne, S.; 8. José Sanchez, A.; 9. Roland Arnold, A.; 10. Dave Stevenson, A.; 11. Bill Culura, S.

The magazine covers, cut into geometric figures and placed together to form abstract designs, are one of the new additions to the room.

Plans are still underway to purchase new furniture for the lounge, but this is the most expensive venture for the daywomen and will take a little longer. They hope, however, to have new furniture by Christmas, and a hi-fi by next September.

Gridders Defeat Lycoming For 3rd Straight Win

Defense was again the key to Albright's 19-6 victory over Lycoming last Saturday. Two pass interceptions and a goal line stand prevented what might have been the margin of victory for the Lycoming eleven.

The Lions scored early in the first quarter on Bill Bors' six yard plunge which capped a 57 yard advance in eleven plays. Albright's Jim Kearns added the point after touchdown. The halftime score was 7-0.

The Warriors came back in the third quarter with a Wayne Miller to Tom Crater 34 TD aerial. Miller, a well-poised freshman quarterback, completed 10 of 21 passes for 135 yards.

The Lions held a slim 7-6 lead until the fourth quarter when Albright's second TD came on Lew Nevins' 18 yard run into the end zone. Roy Shellhammer accounted for the third touchdown with a one yard quarterback sneak.

Defensive honors go to Jon Paris, Don Manlove and Bill Bors. It was Paris and Manlove who accounted for the aerial interceptions in the second and fourth quarters respectively and Bors who threw Seth Keller, Lycoming back, for a seven yard loss on a fourth down situation within the Lion's five yard line.

Albright will face the Bullets from Gettysburg tomorrow night in a bid for their fourth victory.

Faith & Heritage Group Spotlights Students, Profs In Programs

By Anita Mosberg and Sue Siebert

Stop pussyfooting through a revolution! And contrary to popular belief, Faith and Heritage is not just another group content to pussyfoot through a revolution. Faith and Heritage is a gathering of assorted persons from the community of the campus, from the community of a twentieth century world—a world of war, poverty, technology, propaganda and yet of revelation. It is a gathering of persons whose relationship to each other centers on their Christian faith and heritage.

The Sunday evening programs do not merely reiterate the old Sunday School lesson that God is love. Instead they would place this God of love among men in a "progress"—torn world and these men go out gritting their teeth, seeing defeat in victory and victory in defeat.

The meetings are, unless otherwise noted, at 7:30 in Teel Chapel and are open to all students. The following is a calendar of this semester's programs.

FORMER GRADUATE ELECTED TO BOARD OF FUND-RAISING FIRM

Charles S. Dice, Albright Class of 1935, has been elected to the board of directors of one of the nation's leading fund-raising firms, Marts & Lundy, Inc. of New York City. The announcement of Mr. Dice's election was made by Austin V. McClain, president, during the firm's recent staff conference held at the Waldorf-Astoria.

A member of the Marts & Lundy staff for 12 years, Mr. Dice has been associated with programs for schools and colleges which have raised more than 150 million dollars under Marts & Lundy direction. Among his most recent assignments for the firm have been Brown University, Dartmouth College, Massachusetts General Hospital and Cooper Union.

Prior to entering Albright, Mr. Dice attended Bucknell University. A resident of Montoursville, Pa., for many years, he now resides in Providence, R. I.

Marts & Lundy is one of the oldest professional fund-raising organizations in existence. Since its founding in 1926, the company has helped to secure more than 1.5 billion dollars from 1,700 colleges, schools, churches, hospitals, welfare agencies and other philanthropic institutions.

The firm provided counsel for Albright's two major fund-raising programs, the Nintieth Anniversary Fund in 1946 and the Centennial Development Campaign in 1955.

PATs Sponsor Open House

Girls interested in pledging a sorority will want to follow the pre-rush activities of the Pi Alpha Taus. On Monday, October 5, the PATs invited all Albright women to an Open House. From 8:00 to 8:30 P.M. There was an opportunity to meet the sisters and talk with them informally while eating refreshments and touring the PAT house which is occupied by 15 upperclass women.

Pat Sigafos, their president, announced two other social activities which should interest Freshmen and transfer women. The first is a rush party for which the girls dress according to the theme of the evening, which will be announced on the invitations. This is scheduled for Monday, November 2. On December 4, the PATs will welcome the Freshmen girls and their dates to a gala semi-formal rush dance at the Reading Country Club, and the sisters will again have the chance to become acquainted with the prospective pledges.

Dr. Stennis Speaks To Biology Group

Skull and Bones held its first monthly meeting on Wednesday, October 7 at 7:30 P.M. with Thomas Kent presiding. Dr. Stennis, a psychiatrist and director of a farm for the rehabilitation of mentally disturbed children, spoke.

Oldest Club

Established in 1930-31, Skull and Bones was named for a similar organization at Penn State. Being the oldest social and departmental club on campus, Skull and Bones was organized to acquaint the student body with professional men in all areas of biology. This is done by bringing in speakers such as graduate school faculty members, research workers, physicians, and the like. Special films and slides are sometimes included. The final meeting of the year is a banquet with an outstanding guest speaker.
