MYERSTOWN CHAU- TAUQUA A SUCCESS

Dr. Bowman Assisted By Dr. Miller
Presided at Sunday Service

PROGRAMS WERE REAL
"WORTHMORE" ATTRACTIONS Enjoyed and Patronized By Many Students

The first session of the sixth annual mid-winter Swarthmore Chautauqua was held in the Myerstown High School auditorium at three o'clock, Saturday afternoon, January 24. Dr. Goble, President of the local association, opened the session which was addressed by Dr. Cottan, the Superintendent. Marchetti's Swiss Yodlers then gave a pleasant hour of musical entertainment.

The features of the evening program were a lecture by Dr. Edward F. Miller on "The World in Your Dooryard", and an excellent concert by the Swiss Yodlers. Dr. Miller in his address spoke on the fact that today we are in intimate connection with the rest of the world. In a few hours we are able to know of events that happen a thousand miles away. Not only is this true, but we find that in all the activities of life there has been a speeding up in the last few decades. He told of how these conditions bring the whole world to our dooryard.

Sunday afternoon a sacred service was rendered, Dr. Bowman presiding, assisted by Dr. Miller, speaker on Saturday evening. The Swiss Yodlers were presented and rendered a number of beautiful selections. Dr. Cottan gave an address on "Religion, Science and Life". There is a Divine Power that rules the Universe, and every man acknowledges this fact.

REV. BENJAMIN P. WHITE ADDRESSES STUDENTS

Representative of Children's Home Society Talks on the Choice of Life Work

On Monday morning, January 26, Rev. Benjamin P. White spoke in the College chapel to the student body in the interest of the Children's Home Society of Pennsylvania.

After telling of the work of the Society which has in the last year placed over two hundred orphans in good homes, he spoke directly to the students on the subject of a life work. He said that, contrary to the general opinion, there is no overcrowding of the professional field. The choice of a life work is a very serious and delicate matter and deserves our most careful attention. Oftimes after choosing a life work and even starting in pursuit of it we see that we have made a mistake. Then we should not hesitate to make a change to a line of work for which we are better fitted. If we have found our work we have received the greatest blessing that can come to man. "Blessed is he that hath found his work. Let him ask no other blessedness."

ALBRIGHT OPENS DEBATING SEASON FEB. 2nd

Monday evening, February 2, the debating season will open with the Albright-Muhlenberg debate in the College chapel. The Negative will be upheld by the Muhlenberg team against the Albright affirmative team. The men composing this team are Benfer, Grumbling, H. Gramley and Milton Wilkes, alternate.

On Wednesday evening, February 4, the Albright negative team composed of Henninger, Gramley D., (Continued on Page Three)

COACH WOOD OF G-BURG SPEAKS TO STUDENTS

"Bill" Upholds "Fair Play" Before
Y. M.—Urges Students To Live
Lives of Healthful Influence

Seventy-five men assembled for the Y. M. meeting on Tuesday evening, Jan. 27th. Coach "Big Bill" Wood of Gettysburg College delivered an address on, "Playing the Game Square". This address was very effectively and wholeheartedly presented, and it really touched new phases in the fellows' lives.

Coach Wood's message was a simple, pointed and practical talk to boys on living lives that are worthwhile lives. He spoke heart to heart with the fellows on every phase of a man's activities at college. One thing that he especially stressed was the fact that every fellow should uphold the Christ as a real Master, Friend, and Helper. After the meeting he held an informal discussion with fellows.

On Wednesday morning in the regular chapel service, Bill spoke to the entire student body on the influence which we exert on others. To illustrate his point he read a story of the influence which one cultured woman exerted on those young people with whom she came in contact. Like this lady we should live such lives that we shall shed a wholesome influence on others. We should ask Christ to help us plan our lives toward this end. Christ can be a reality to every person, particularly the student.

STUDENT FRIENDSHIP SPEAKER ADDRESSES STUDENTS

Miss Wiggin, a student Friendship representative, addressed the student body on Monday, January 25 in the College chapel. Miss Wiggin, secured by the Y. W., gave a very enlightening talk on the Russian Relief problems.

She presented the Czechoslovakia situation as one in which the people of that country are enduring unthought-of tortures and suffering. Her appeal was directly to the Col- (Continued on Page Two.)

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORS CONDUCT CHURCH SERVICES

On Sunday evening, February 1, the College Christian Endeavor Society took charge of the regular church service. Special music and a number of talks by members of the Society made an interesting vesper service.

COMBINED Y'S HEAR TALK ON "MAN AND MUD"

Professor Walton Presents Topic of "God and Evolution"

A combined meeting of the "Y's" was held in the College Chapel, Tuesday evening, Jan. 20. The Vice-President of the Y. M., Paul Price had charge of the meeting.

Professor Walton gave a most interesting lecture on "Man and Mud". In his characteristic manner he gave the scientific composition of the human body as an "elongated, differentiated and articulate hunk of mud". God has breathed into this mud a divine spirit. A merely scientific definition of life is impossible.

The most important thing which faces us in a definition of life is "What is the origin of life?" "It is not a question of God or gorilla, but a question of God and evolution."

The story of creation is told by the Bible and also by Science. Professor Walton placed upon a blackboard the biblical order of the process and paralleled with it the geological order. These two accounts (Continued on Page Three)

COACH BENFER POSTS CLASS GAME SCHEDULE

Seniors Meet Juniors, Sophs Tackle
Frosh In First of Double-headers
Changes in Upperclassmen Line-ups

One of the most interesting series of contests in the winter intramural program, the inter-class basketball championships will begin on Monday, February 2, at 7 p. m. At that time the Seniors will meet the Juniors and at about 8 P. M. the Sophomores will meet the Freshmen.

The race this season promises to be as exciting as and perhaps more than it was last year. There have been several changes made in the line up of the three upper classes but they still remain closely matched. The strength of the Freshman team is uncertain at present. However, they should be able to muster a strong team. Last year the freshmen bore away the final honors but they won them only during the last game, the Sophs and Freshmen playing off a tie.

The complete schedule is as follows:

Mon, Feb. 2, 7 p. m: Sophs vs Frosh; Seniors vs Juniors.
Mon, Feb. 9, 7 p. m: Seniors vs Sophs; Juniors vs Frosh.
Thurs, Feb. 12, 7 p. m: Juniors vs Sophs; Seniors vs Frosh.
Mon, Feb. 16, 7 p. m: Seniors vs Sophs; Juniors vs Frosh.
Thur, Feb. 19, 7 p. m: Juniors vs Sophs; Seniors vs Frosh.
Mon, Feb. 23, 7 p. m: Seniors vs Juniors; Sophs vs Frosh.

THEMISIANS ENTER- TAINED BY 3-ACT PLAY

"Miss Fearless and Company" Title of Comedy Rendered Under Direction of Avril Heckert

LAST OF SPECIAL PROGRAMS

On Thursday evening, January 29, the last of the special programs was given in the Themisian Literary Society. Under the leadership of Avril Heckert, the group presented a three-act play entitled "Miss Fearless and Company". Between acts Mabel Hunsicker, in French costume, and Violet Kinsinger, in Spanish costume entertained with songs of those nationalities.

The play, with its touch of comedy as well as more serious plot, was well rendered and much enjoyed. The following is the cast of characters:

Margaret, of the Great House—Lois Helm.
Margars, Marion, Betty, guests of Margaret—Grace Kleingina, Helen Klisher, Janet Kaltreider.
Cousin Phemie—nervous, hysterical—Thelma Kreisher.

ALBRIGHT TRIMS U. OF M. IN THRILLER

The Red and White Quintet Holds the University of Maryland Scoreless in First Half

AN EXTRA FIVE MINUTES
PILES SCORE TO 28—18

Spectacular Shots Give Albright Five Goals in As Many Minutes

Albright College won a thriller here on Friday evening from the fast University of Maryland five. It required an extra five minute period to decide the victors. In that period the Albright quintet opened up with a spurt of dash, speed and dead shooting which completely baffled the southerners. Griggs, the brilliant Red and White forward, dropped three through the loop while Capt. Raffensperger and Zellers, the center, each tallied one, making a total of five field goals in as many minutes. It was as if the University Club had been discounted altogether from the game for the ball was almost wholly in the possession of Coach Benfer's squad.

The first half ended with a low score on both sides, 8—5. The Maryland Club did not tally a field goal during the first half nor did it succeed in caging one until the latter part of the second half. Then unexpectedly three long range shots dropped through. From then on it was a nip and tuck race. Albright held the lead, however, until the last fifteen seconds of play. Then Dailey, the big forward dropped one through and tied the score. Then came the thrilling five minute scrimmage in which Albright drew ahead. The score at the end of the regular time was 18—18; at the end of the game, 28—18.

"LEST WE FORGET" PRE- SENTED IN CHAPEL

Movie Portrays Effects of Drink in Home—Aid Solicited For Anti-Saloon League

The moving picture "Lest We Forget" better known as "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" exaggerated, was presented in the College chapel Friday evening, January 22. The picture was given under the supervision of Mr. J. F. Hartman, Superintendent of the Pittsburg office of the Anti-Saloon League.

The picture "Lest We Forget" was the portrayal of a real picture of the effects of drink in a Chicago home. The effects of drink were found in the third and fourth generations. The story was based on the actual murder of a young woman in Chicago, by a drink-crazed youth, who is now serving his nineteenth year of a life imprisonment sentence. After the movie Mr. Hartman made a few remarks to introduce his solicitation campaign for finance to aid the Anti-Saloon League.

BOYS' GLEE ANNOUNC- ES SCHEDULED TRIP

One or two week-end trips will also be in the schedule one of which will take the Club to the New Williamsport First Church. The outlook for a successful season is bright. The Club in addition to a varied musical program will also present a short humorous sketch.

A NEED

Upon graduation the Class of 1922 presented to the College a flag pole. Since that time several persons and one class presented flags which have flown from the pole. The flag which is now in service was given by the present Junior Class during their Freshman year. It has weathered many storms and it has waved proudly in the breeze. The struggle which it underwent with the elements has left it telling marks. It truly has arrived at that age when it can be figuratively "retired on full pay". It has served its purpose and should be laid away. But by all means it should have a successor. Albright, as a college which teaches good citizenship, should always float the Stars and Stripes. A great need can be supplied by some class, organization, or person who will present the National Emblem to supplant the one now in service.

THE GOLDEN RULE

A much discussed question in political circles is that of the Klan. This is not a Klan or Anti-Klan article, but there is much that may be learned from the question. The greatest harm resulting from the struggle between the Klan and Anti-Klan forces is the fact that it tends to create a line of cleavage between the two large branches of the Christian Church. From this situation we must learn that "In Union there is Strength".

We must learn and apply this lesson at Albright. We must come to learn that here at Albright the biggest thing is "Albright". The most effective means of showing this is, not so much by "rooting" for our various teams, as it is trying to live up to the traditions of Albright in our daily lives. Albright was founded for the purpose of educating the youth in the principles of Christian manhood and womanhood, one of which is respect for the rights of others. That is the first principle of good citizenship, even of Christian living. In order that we may have a common spirit at Albright which has for its aim the promotion of her best interests we must do everything to promote a common spirit of brotherhood.

That spirit can be realized only when we come to realize that we are not the only persons at Albright. We must come to see that perhaps the other fellow wants to study or sleep, two rights which are inalienable and so should refrain from making any undue noise in the halls, noise which never benefits anyone, not even the noisemakers. In other matters we should attempt to find out whether or not what we are doing is in conflict with the other fellow's natural rights. We must learn that our rights end where our neighbors' begin. In other words, we must practice the Golden Rule. We should do unto others as we would have them do unto us.

Campus Chatter

Oh! Ho! Here I am again. They've chased me from my quiet observation corner, and I've had only one week to look you over. Luckily, I've just escaped that cold plague around the Campus with a tiny tickling in my throat. But my speech is not affected. So I can still do some gossiping.

Say folks, you'd never need to fear catching colds anymore. My old sleeping abode has been radiating one hundred percent heat. I shook my feathers one evening and they fluffed up like a balloon. Then some one said, "Why the Parrot is enjoying the new gym furnace! Now we'll win all the basketball games." By the way, I have an inkling that some big stuff will be pulled off in that gym when those class teams start caging the ball. Tonight starts the fun. I warn you, Don't miss it.

It gets so hot in that gym that I have to fly out for air. Oh, how cold it has been out of doors! One night the snow was drifted four feet above my head. I saw Aunt Maggie coming from Chauauqua that night. She turned back, tearing to breast the storm. Then Mrs. Ellis spunked up and she and Aunt Maggie plowed a furrow thru the snow for the cases. Want't that kind of them? Mr. Stoner was very kind, too. One morning near 5 A. M. he was shoveling a path for dainty feet. I sorta believe the girls must not have been used to such courtesy—judging from their surprise.

That cold weather makes me think of how nature caters to the college youths. When they need nice days they get them. What a pretty day it was for observing the eclipse! I was just reading that students from the great Harvard University traveled hundreds of miles to see that event. The girls and fellows had a good time watching it thru smoked glass, negatives, and what not. It got so dark I couldn't see, but they seemed to see a lot. There won't be another eclipse until 2017. Perhaps I'll be dead by then. So I'm glad I got in on this one.

It appears like the eclipse brought more water. "Ducking the Frosh", they say. Some of them got terribly splashed. I overheard a fuss among the girls about a Mr. Garrett's ducking ceremonies. I thought I almost agreed with one girl who said she thought she was in Heaven when he sang. Night fifteen were bathed. A Mr. Wadsworth had to propose, and a Mr. Shirk had to climb that cold flag pole. But who likes to propose or climb poles when it is zero weather? It makes me shrink up to think of it.

Maybe the eclipse brought something else, too. Last Thursday and Friday afternoon President Bowman's wife gave the Senior-Sophomore, and Junior-Freshmen girls a tea. The girls are teasing me to say, "Thank you, Mrs. Bowman, We liked it very much." I thought I heard one girl pray for another eclipse. I may be mistaken.

One Sunday afternoon I did have a little fright. I heard one of those pretty Lebanon Valley girls say to the Mohn Hill girls, "Oh, we may go to the movies once a week unchaperoned!" I saw hands go up in horror, girls stamping their feet in rage, shrieks, running and banging. It looked mighty near a revolution to me. Gee, I sympathetically flew away for my life was in risk.

What do you think, Mr. Barlow says if he had known that such a pretty singer (pretty singer and girl he explained) was on the Chauauqua program he would have bought a ticket. Jolly good news that some of our Freshmen are such a tittle-loving people. Sorry I couldn't tap on his window to let him know when the beauties came, but I'll confess the Black Cats scared me away. They say they are a ferocious set, and they might put an end to my chatter. And can you picture John Smith as their judge! He ought to give me justice.

Speaking of justice and honesty, I really believe the world is getting better. Why Miss Garlach says that as she and Miss Strasser were walking on the street a little girl said she was going to hit the nicest one. Well, Miss Garlach says, "The girl threw a snowball at Miss Strasser."

Maybe I should practice a little justice and not reveal so many of my observations about the Campus, Ho, ho, ho—I think I'll say, "Ta, Ta for two weeks," and try to keep your favor.

Eccentrix

Exam week is over and relaxation has set in. During last week there was quite a bit of midnight oil burned, several kinds; but mostly the kind that is burned in Fords. Ask the Lebanon-goers.

In order to keep down overhead expenses "Hap" Landis says that he is going to buy his textbooks by the chapter.

Announcement: No more studies for seventeen weeks. Dr. Bowman put the proposition up to the student body if they would rather have a lecture on the Chauauqua program in place of the repetition of the "Bubble". You know the result, the "Bubble" is coming.

Another of the epoch-making celebrations of the "Royal Order of Black Cats" was held last Friday evening, when the first degree was given to several desirable candidates. Further entertainment was offered by aspirants flastic titles in their respective classes.

Freshmen rules are being obeyed to the "t" since the flood gates of second floor, south have been turned on. Miss Strasser has likened the descending torrents to Niagara Falls of Frankford, Ky.

: Who's Who At Albright :

GRACE ERMA SNYDER

Have you ever heard the saying "It is quality not quantity that counts"? The Bulletin presents an interesting and living example as proof of that statement in the person of Grace Snyder. Just a wee mite of a girl, but a composite of pep, vivacity and stick-to-it-iveness, that could scarcely be surpassed in one twice her size. A sweet little lassie is Grace, with eyes that laugh and question; a tongue witty in speech, sharp in rebuke but always fair; and the cheerful disposition of the born optimist. Grace is everybody's friend.

At present Grace numbers among her most important activities the Y. W. Cabinet, Management of the Girls' Basketball Team, Debate, Glee Club and "Shorty". Perhaps the last name occupies the most of her time and attention, but who can blame her for that? In spite of all her activities she finds time to be a pal to everyone.

PRESTON VENUS SHEWELL

Our friend Shewell is a proud representative of York, Pa. Since matriculating at Albright he has become one of the most familiar figures on the Campus. Especially noteworthy are his affiliations with the fourth floor gang of which he is a leading member, his achievement as a member of the justice committee during his Sophomore year, and his artistic ability as displayed in the 1925 class pennant, and numerous cartoons.

At present his chief interest is the Young Peoples' Branch of the State Sabbath School Association where he plans to devote his life as a field worker. He has spent several summers at Young Peoples' Camp Conferences where he has learned the principle of the "Four Fold Life" which he advocates as the secret of true success.

Preston has also wide knowledge of stocks and bonds and jewelry. He has a very great interest in the future of York—and of Altoona, the home of — whom he visits quite frequently. All in all, this young man is a true friend to those who pass his way.

MYERSTOWN CHAUTAUQUA A SUCCESS

(Continued From Page One) Superintendent's address. In the evening they rendered a second program, both vocal and instrumental. The address was given by Chancellor George H. Bradford, on "This Way It". The lecture was both inspiring and helpful.

The last day of the Chautauqua Tuesday, January 26, may well be termed the climax of the entire season. After the lecture by Dr. Cotman in the afternoon the Johns-Ringgold Recital Company presented a fine musical program. Both Miss Johns, soprano, and Miss Ringgold, pianist, are concert artists of marked talent. On Tuesday evening, "The Bubble", a three-act comedy by Edward Locke, kept everyone in continual laughter.

This closed another successful Chautauqua season for Myerstown.

COACH WOOD OF G-BURG SPEAKS TO STUDENTS

(Continued From Page One) pleasing and charming personality won for him a great many admirers among the student body, and his motto of "Make Jesus Your Pal" could be seen most clearly in his own life. As to the speaker himself, he enjoyed the visit and expressed the desire to come back again some time.

"Y'S" SECURE PROMINENT SPEAKERS

Sometime ago Herbert Gray sent forth the following accusations; American students are too docile. They are easily led. They do not think for themselves. They are far behind foreign students.

To many of us these statements come as a challenge, and in the light of them we are compelled to search ourselves completely. What are we as students contributing by thought or action to the solution of campus, national, or world problems? Fellows, we ought to start to think through these difficulties. Should we not be able to form our own decisions.

The "Y" at Albright wants us to help us to renew and continue our interest in present day problems. One effort to render this service is thru its regular Tuesday evening meetings. Some of the things which the program committee has in view are: Tucker Smith, of N. Y. U., who is a live wire in discussions of Jesus life and His meaning for college men; war problem, and other industrial questions. Another valuable addition which we will have on our program is Mr. F. Eugene Corbie, a very prominent Negro student and Race enthusiast. Still another expected treat for all of us will be Mr. J. Henry Scattergood, of Phila., a "shark economist".

It is hoped that each of these meetings will be followed up with "Bull" sessions and mass discussion groups. In this way real expression and mutual benefit will be found. We covet your friendship and fellowship. Give the "Y" a chance.

AS THE SNOW FLAKES SIFTED DOWN

It was midnight, cold and windy,
As the snow flakes sifted down;
All was peaceful on the campus,
Not a noise was heard in town.

In the Dorm it was quite dif'rent,
For tho most had gone to bed,
Some few staged a queer exhibit,
Till at length two hours had fled.

Stunt on stunt each other followed
In the middle of the room;
Funny tumbles and contortions
With the handle of a broom.

Three contestants were competing
In Tub Oswald's dingy den, Declinating diligently,
Doing deeds deemed derved from men.

Eddie Harris was the champion,
As each saw right from the start,
Far surpassing all the others;
Was a master of the art.

No amount of patient coaxing
Could induce the jolly host
To contest in these gymnastics
Or make good his ready boast.

George afforded much amusement
As he twisted on the floor,
And when once he had succeeded
Would not try it any more.

Then the last one had his trial.
Say, O boy! you'd sure have split
Had you watched the way he twisted
Just as tho he had a fit.

Sleep—he vowed he'd have none of it
Till he'd learned to do the trick;
All the others laughing watched him

While he got red as a brick,
Sweating freely, straining muscles,
Many times he tried his best,
Many times he nearly did it,
Many times he stopped to rest.

And so Wilkes at last relented
When the clock proclaimed it two,
Quickly doned discarded garments,
Said this waste of time they'd rue.

So to bed they quickly hastened
As the snow flakes sifted down;
All was peaceful in main building,
Not a boy was seen around.

Hewitt and Price, alternate will debate the Muhlenberg team at Allentown.

DON'T GET UP NIGHTS

John Lumpkins, Dayton, Ohio, says: "Come to 7 Carrie St., and I will show you 25 pieces of gravel that passed after taking Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula). Had to get up 15 times at night for two years. Albright Now! Lithiated Buchu cleanses the bladder like Epsom Salts do the bowels, thereby relieving irritation, driving out foreign matter and neutralizing excessive acids. These are the causes of unnatural action of the bladder at night. Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula) is not a cheap medicine. The tables cost 2 cents each. Sold at leading drug stores or Keller Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, Ohio.

they talked over a program as it related to the two associations on each campus. Sunday afternoon the joint meeting continued. The problems of this season was how to get the Y. M. C. A. W. Cabinets of the two Colleges to work together. It was decided that in order to accomplish this, joint Cabinet meetings should be held at least once a semester.

The Retreat adjourned Sunday afternoon. Lebanon Valley was represented by twelve students and Albright by twenty four students.

are surprisingly similar. The Bible is not a book of Science but shows the ultimate cause of creation—God. Science explains the changes in the life processes starting from that ultimate cause. It deals with the work of God.

Winning the West

Irrigation by electrically driven pumps has made hundreds of thousands of acres of desert land in the Intermountain West blossom like the rose.

For a few cents a month per acre, electricity—the giant worker—brings the life-giving water from distant lakes and rivers to rainless valleys, producing rich harvests of fruits and vegetables, cereals and forage.

What electricity is doing for the farmer is only a counterpart of what it is doing for Industry, Transportation, City and Country life or any of the professions. It is a tool ready for your use and which, wisely used, will make the impossible of today an accomplished fact tomorrow.

How electricity does these things is important to the student in a technical school—but what electricity can do is important to every college man or woman, no matter what their life's work may be.

The General Electric Company provides for agriculture little motors that do the farm chores and great ones that operate mammoth pumps to irrigate vast stretches of arid valleys.

If you are interested in learning more about what electricity is doing, write for Reprint No. AR391 containing a complete set of these advertisements.

Saturday, Feb. 6, is Final Date For Speculum Matters

All individual pictures, group pictures, society write-ups, and other written material must be in the hands of the editors of the Speculum by Saturday of this week, Feb.
7. Such students who do not hand in their pictures by that time, and those class and society historians who fail to hand in their write-ups before this date will forfeit publication of the same.

This notification of final date gives everyone a week in which to tend to all Speculum affairs. The editors of the Speculum are making this announcement and placing Saturday as a final date so that the publication of the annual will not be delayed until after Commencement. If all student affairs are attended to in time the annual will be published about

Intercollegiate News

"Cooper'ation", which the dictionary defines as, "to lend aid, etc.

West Chester State Normal school, activity program.

What does the undergraduate read? From Columbia, Ohio State University Bryn Mawr and Harvard come statistical reports on the mental extracurricular pubulum of the college man and woman.

Columbia University—"Within a few hundred feet of the great library which shelters a world famous collection of 800,000 volumes," Spectator discovered that a campus subway newsdealer disposes of more than 600 copies of each issue of the True story, while he finds it unprofitable to keep a single copy of the Bookman.

Ohio State University—Among the magazines: the highest and shortest stories are most popular with the students. Movie magazines, Humurous publications, and fashion papers have good sale. Among the books:
readers of Gene Stratton Porter, Rex Beach and Zane Grey are dwindling.
Students are now asking for Percy Marks' "The Plastic Age" and Homer Croy's "West of the Water Tower." Two booksellers report that two thirds of the mystery stories sold, are bought by professors.

Bryn Mawr—The girls show extraordinary catholicity of taste. One library consists of Plato, Jurgen and Corelli. Another, "The Decline of the Roman Empire, Ulysses and the Bible into friendly proximity."

Harvard—Even MacIntyre Jr., Proprietor of the Community Book Shop, reports a great interest in the "Modern sophisticates, Mencken, Nathan,

Dreiser and others. Biographies, "Outlines" of everything under the sun and books written by under-graduates and men recently out of college, also are in great demand.

Concludes Mr. MacIntyre, "what does the undergraduate read? He reads everything and anything, but he burns midnight mazda, tears his clothes his hair and his dictionary while deeply immersed in the subtle fascination of the "The cross-word Puzzle Book."

We notice in The Student Weekly that Franklin and Marshall College Black Cats organization is seeking wayward Frosh.

"Her voice was ever soft, gentle and low—"
SHAKESPEARE

The Sweetest Voice in the World

It can't be heard on the campus.
It can't be heard in the classroom.
It can't be heard at a musical show.
It can't even be heard on the victrola.
In fact, there is only one way for a College Man to hear Mother's voice, and that is—over the Long Distance Telephone.

So, if you want your pulse to tingle pleasantly; if you want to brighten your spirit as well as your intellect—let Mother greet you over the Long Distance Telephone once every week of your college life.

This little folder has been distributed on the campus. It tells you how low the rates really are.

If your home town is not included in the list, see the front pages of the telephone directory.

The Long Distance Operator will give you rates not shown there.
