Orchestra Organizes

Fourteen new orchestra members from the freshmen class attended the first orchestra practice which was held in the College Dining Hall, Monday afternoon, at 3:30 p.m. Band practice was not held since the plans for band are indefinite. After the orchestra has been well organized, a short band practice may be held every Monday afternoon. However, both Dr. Masters and Mr. Hans Nix, director of instrumental music, are placing major emphasis on the orchestra this year.

The new orchestra members are: Robert Holtzmann and Geraldine Wentzel, piano; Marjorie Christ, Helen Carol Wright, Celia Konczewski, and Marion Swartz, violin; Chauncey DePugh, Marion Gerberich and Betty Mae Berger, flute; Owen Henry, Jack Gounder, and Margaret Walker, clarinet; Franklin Seifert and Margarite Jungblut, trumpet; Hampton Pullis, bass horn; and Richard Dexter, bassoon.

Pats Plan Party

A meeting of the Pi Alpha Tau sorority was held Monday, October 2 in the upper social room, Selwyn Hall. Vice-president Mary Jane Weber presided in the absence of President Betty Claire Voeste, who is ill.

Monday, October 23, at 7:30 p.m. is the date set for the rush party, to be held for all freshmen women. The following committee was appointed for this party: Patricia Kramer, chairman, Marian Latta, Roberta Calamara, and Betty Burnett. A social committee for the coming year was also named. Its members are: Mary Jane Weber, chairman, Rita Duncavage, Elaine Kyle, Mary Echwei. The next regular meeting of Pi Alpha Tau will be on Monday, October 16.

Club to Have Roast

Taking to the out-of-doors, the German Club will hold its first meeting of the year Wednesday, October 18, with its new president, Jean Zwayer, in charge. The event will be a doggie roast, a traditional affair of the club each year. In case of rain, the meeting will be held in the lower social room, Selwyn Hall.

As it is an open meeting, interested freshmen and upperclassmen are invited to attend. Those planning to go should sign up with any of the following officers by Friday, October 13: Jean Zwayer, Betty Claire Voeste, vice president; Mary Briner, secretary; or Alice Voit, treasurer.

KTX To Hold Service

Kappa Tau Chi, pre-ministerial fraternity, will initiate its activities for the coming year with the annual holy communion service this Thursday evening at 7:30 p.m. in Sylvan Chapel. Dr. Virgil C. Zener will be the speaker, while Cecil Pottgieger, president of the group, will lead the worship service.

The officers of KTX for this year are: Mr. Pottgieger, president; Fred Clewley, vice president; Newell Wert, secretary; and Verner Hertzog, treasurer.

I. R. C. Notes War Events

The first meeting of the International Relations Club, open to all students, was held Thursday evening, October 5, at 7:30 in the Selwyn Hall Annex social room. The main event of the evening, a discussion, in charge of Joyce Moyer, president, concerning international current events which occurred during the summer months. Topics were discussed according to the material given in the "Bulletin of International Events."

Club Will Meet

The French Club will have its first meeting for the year on Wednesday, October 18, at 7:30 p.m. in the music studio. The new president, Lura Ann Heverly, will preside. The other officers are: Rachel Willauer, vice-president; Marian Bearer, secretary, and Mary Briner, treasurer.

Raymond Heads College Library

Twelve Students to Assist In This Year's Setup

This year when conscientious students first passed through the portals of our library, they found the new librarian, Mr. Kenneth L. Raymond and several of his twelve assistants eagerly waiting to be of service to them. Ferne Allen, Margaret Ball, Irene Fisher, Margerite Jungblut, Henrietta Morrison, Margery Plowfield, Esther Savidge, Elizabeth Shroyer, Lucy Smith, Phyllis Stock, and Mary Jane Weber are the assistants whom they may have encountered at the library desk at various hours, and J. Howard Smith is the assistant whom they may not have seen. He is the general handy man who seems to do his work in great secrecy.

On weekdays the library will be open from 8:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., and from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. On Saturdays it will be open from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. For the convenience of the day students, it will also be under supervision during the noon hour. Mr. Raymond has expressed his intention to co-operate with the students' needs by making library facilities available for a longer period of time whenever the stress of examinations or term papers necessitates his doing so.

Some time in October a schedule of the large number of pamphlets which have been received by the library will be added to the pamphlet file. At the present time pamphlet and book lists are being organized. Every faculty member will receive one of the lists, and, for the benefit of the students, one will remain at the library desk. A list of the books added to the library will be printed periodically and distributed to the faculty.

Although the library is still in the early stages of organization and there is no definite program as yet, tentative plans have been made for special exhibits to be held throughout the year. These exhibits will be directly connected with either class work or the activities of campus clubs.

Home Ec'ers Learn to "Dance With Dolly" -- This One Has No Holes In Her Stockings,

There is a newcomer on Albright College Campus. She is newer than Dean Cumliffe, or Dr. Almand, or even newer than the freshmen. Who is she? Why she is Miss Mildred—known as Dolly by her intimates. Her headquarters are situated in Sherman Cottage.

In case you haven't met her yet, or seen her around campus—expect to, soon, because she is going to be a very prominent and sought after person for the next seven weeks.

She was sent here by Reading's Social Welfare Board to teach our senior Home Economic students a lesson, and a very vital one, too. Miss Dolly will teach these girls patience, ingenuity and skillfulness. She will also devote much of her time to less abstract subjects. Her students will learn the type of cooking and sewing demanded by an individual of her importance. Also, they will learn to launder the styles of clothes invariably worn by people in her position. All this may seem like a lot of work to you, and it is, but somehow, these seniors seem to love their teacher all the more for it.

This is understandable, because she is a very charming individual with a rare and fleeting smile that seems to warm the person upon whom it alights. Her eyes are dark blue and expressive, so eloquent, in fact, that she is able to convey to her students her likes and dislikes without the use of a single word. That is one of the unusual things about her teaching. Miss Dolly does not believe in her students listening to

Frosh Recognition Service Heads This Week's List of 'Y' Activities

All freshmen will be taken in as members of the Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A. at the Frosh Recognition service to be held in the College Chapel tonight at 7:30. The Rev. Robert S. Smethers, pastor of Immanuel Evangelical Church in Reading will speak on the topic "Tomorrow's Roadbuilding," with Ritzman and Cecil Pottgieger are the student leaders.

At the close of the service each freshman will receive his membership card granting him all the privileges of the "Y." Cards will also be distributed to upperclasswomen who have not yet received them.

The actual recognition ceremony is lead by the "Y" presidents. After the words of commitment, the purpose of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. is stated, then each freshman lights his candle from the central taper.

Quartet to Sing

Special music for the program will be provided by a quartet: Betty Anne Lutz, soprano; Jean Harer, alto; Orlean Pottgieger, tenor and Charles Russ, bass.

Kyle to Head Bible Class

On Sunday, October 15, Elaine Kyle will lead devotions in Bible Class, held at 8:45 a.m. in the College Chapel, while Professor Lewis Smith will discuss "Jesus' Understanding of Man." The devotions last Sunday were led by Verner Hertzog and the topic considered was "Jesus' Program for Meeting Life's Problems."

Stirn, Spindler in Vespers

Vespers this week will be in charge of Ruth Stirn and John Spindler. Last Sunday Dean Helen Cunliffe spoke on the theme, "What We Can Do With Our Lives." These services are held in Sylvan Chapel at 7:30 p.m. every Sunday evening.

Midday Worship Leaders

Leaders for the midday worship services in Sylvan Chapel for this week are: Julia Hassler, Tuesday; Newell Wert, Wednesday; Martha Friedericks, Thursday; Jack Shafer, Friday; Mary Louise Schappell, Monday. The prayer meetings are held from 1:05 to 1:20 p.m.

Pyromaniacal Pipe Makes Sparks Fly

Although he wasn't aiming to set the world on fire, Dr. minor blaze in German 3 class Gerrit Memming did start a fire the other day. The cause of the incendiaries you might well guess—Dr. Memming's pipe. Knocking the ashes into the wastebasket, he proceeded with the class until the students saw miniature Vesuvius. Some handy fireman made quick work of the embryo blaze.

Mus Set October 16 For Rush Party

Phi Beta Mu will hold its first rush party for all freshmen girls October 16. Plans for the rush season were made at the first meeting of the sorority Monday, October 2, with Ann deFarges, president, in charge. The committee in charge of the rush party is composed of Mae Jean Pickering, chairman, Jane Miller, Mary Alice Lippert, Ruth Rehr, and Virginia Woerle.

The second party will be in the form of a dinner and will be held November 20. Eleanor Schubert, vice-president of the sorority is the chairman. On her committee are Louise Trostle, Janet Luckenbaugh, and Shirley Reekon. The last affair will be a dance held December 16. The committee consists of Margaret Ball, chairman, Mary Beth Schofer, Marguerite Shalter and Charlotte Eck.

At the meeting a letter from Helen Gras, '44, now serving in the WAC, was read to the group. She is a member of Phi Beta Mu.

17 Seniors, Nine Juniors Comprise Free Cut List

Seventeen seniors and nine juniors are eligible for voluntary class valedance this semester. This list was released by the office of the Registrar.

The senior list includes: Phyllis Abrams, Bertina Blauch, Betty Bradley, Christine Calpin, Paul Deysher, Felice Epstein, Jane Helms, Lura Ann Heverly, Warren Loesch, Janet Luckenbaugh, Jeanne Miller, Jean Teitsworth, Betty Claire Voeste, Mary Jane Weber, Ailen Schearer, and Allen Snyder.

Council Will Sponsor Informal Social Activities

Janet Luckenbaugh, president, called together the Women's Dormitory Council for its first meeting last Monday, October 2, at 5 p.m. Council worked out plans to make dormitory social life more extensive by holding events like afternoon teas and Sunday evening informal suppers.

In addition to its president, the Council this semester consists of Marian Barger, senior representative; Jean Harer, junior representative; Joy Cutler, sophomore representative; Minnie Silberman, chapel dormitory representative; and Lois Taylor, temporary representative for the freshmen women.

Japanese-Americans To Come to Campus For Lecture Friday

'Y's' Will Sponsor Hour's Talk By Dr. T. Yatabe, Touring The Atlantic Coast

Through the arrangements of John Harold of the Reading Y.M.C.A., two representatives of the nationally organized Japanese-American Citizens' League will appear on campus this Friday evening in the College Chapel. Sponsored by the campus Combined "Y's", the speakers, Dr. T. Yatabe and Miss Ruby Yashino, will have dinner in the College Dining Hall and will speak from 6:45 to 7:45 in the chapel.

The Japanese-American Citizens' League was organized by such prominent figures as Pearl Buck, Rufus Jones, Clarence Pickett, and H. M. Fosdick. Dr. T. Yatabe, a former dentist, will discuss the purposes set forth by the League, which fosters the better understanding of Japanese-American relations and the abolishment of racial prejudices. Miss Ruby Yashino, concert singer, will sing several selections. There will be no attendance fee.

Touring the entire Atlantic Coast, Dr. Yatabe and Miss Yashino will remain in Reading only two days. On Friday, October 13 they will speak at St. John's Reformed Church, Rev. Howard Gaeringer, pastor. On Saturday, they will appear at the Reading Woman's Club.

Chapel Choir, Glee Club Secure Additional Talent

Vocal tryouts, held during Thursday afternoon and evening, September 28, by Professor John H. Duddy, professor of voice and piano, resulted in the following new selections for the Women's Glee Club.

First soprano: Marjorie Allen, Esther Savidge, and Gladys Savidge. Second soprano: Betty Fieitz, Margarite Jungblut, and Miriam Kramer.

First alto: Marjorie Christ, Ruth Leickel, Grace Miller, and Margaret Walker. Second alto: Jessie Mae Beck and Judith Scheier.

Chapel Choir members were selected as follows: Soprano: Marie Bonner, Betty Anne Lutz, Gladys Savidge, Esther Savidge, and Margarite Jungblut. Alto: Margaret Hendricks, Margaret Walker, Ferne Allen, Jesse Mae Beck, Jean Harer, and Judith Shearer.

Tenor: Warren Loesch, Orlean Pottgieger, and Russell Luck. Bass: LeRoy Hertzog, Cecil Pottgieger, Jack Shafer, John Spindler, and Newell Wert.

Chairman and vice chairman of the Chapel Choir are Jean Harer and Betty Anne Lutz, respectively.

Lions in Service Get Directory, Messages

During the past summer the Albrightians-in-Service committee put out a "Lions in the Ranks" directory containing a list of addresses of all Albrightians in service, Miss Ann Benninger, assistant to the dean, and Jean Harer collected and typed the addresses. The cover, on which was printed a seal with the words "Albright College" in red ink and a world map in light blue ink, was silk-creamed by Mae Jean Pickering, committee of the chairman.

In addition to the addresses, the booklet contained messages from President Masters and Miss Pickering. This project had been suggested to the committee by several of the men in the service. The list was completed and sent to all Albrightians in the service about the second week in September.

Encore!

In two days the frosh will play a return engagement in front of the science hall for an upperclass audience. It is our hope that this second lineup will be a repeat performance in many ways: in a well planned half hour like the one Jack Teger and his orientation committee provided last week; in the frosh spirit and their willingness to cooperate seen in their premiere; and in the upperclassmen's interest in lineup as THE place for organized frosh "orientation" and in their emphasis on the fun they can get out of it. So far freshmen orientation has been successful; let's keep it that way.

Best Foot Forward

Although people like to be pessimistic, Albright's social life can still be such as to label it a "normal college." But to have a successful social program in times like these requires the cooperation of everyone. Friday night will be another "test" when Student Council again will sponsor a dance in the College Dining Hall. And later on will be the traditional fall formal, the Ivy Ball. Will you be there?

Are You Sleeping, Brother John

How much do you know about the Morgenthau peace plan for Germany? Do you know when the first Haage Concert will be held in Reading? Or do you know who won the World Series? If you don't care to know the answers to some of these questions, it may mean that you, a college student, are allowing yourself to become intellectually stagnant. Remember, not all the answers to all the questions are found in textbooks and pages of notes. Wake up, Albright!

Dominoes Choose Play

"The Importance of Being Earnest" will be the spring production of the Domino Club it was announced recently. Professor Ruth C. Shaffer, director, Dr. John B. Douds and Professor Ernestine Elder, advisers, and members of the Domino Club are still in the process of selecting a play to be staged sometime this fall. At the first meeting of the Domino Club last Thursday evening, the Domino setup was discussed by its president, Jack Teger, and by Dr. Douds. It was an open meeting.

Council Plans For Ivy Ball

Plans for the forthcoming Ivy Ball were the main topic of discussion at the last Student Council meeting, held on Thursday afternoon. The social committee, headed by Jeanne Miller, is making the arrangements for the affair which will be a dinner-dance, marking the acceptance of the Freshmen Class as part of the student body. The tentative date for the dance is Saturday, November 4. It was also decided to hold an informal dance in the Collee Dining Hall this Friday evening.

On the Social Side

Dean Helen Cunliffe received the upperclass boarding women at an informal tea on Monday evening in Selwyn Hall Lounge. Mrs. Anna H. Smith and Dean Helen Cunliffe spoke to the daywomen at a meeting of that organization held last Friday noon.

Crazy, Colorful, Campus Combines Prove "Variety is Spice of Life"

Those bottles of chemicals standing in neat rows in all the chem labs of the science hall look so harmless. But did you ever think of what powerful stuff you would get if you mixed the ones that are so impotent standing side by side? Extending this dangerous thought to Albright as a whole, may we give you some of the campus side-by-side combinations, quite innocent in themselves, but put them together and—!

Over the coke bottles, note books and lunch bags which typifies last year's women day students' room. Professors Duddy and Nix have waved a magic wand and a few American Home Magazines and brought forth the new music studio. Not quite as dignified as the decoration scheme, are the noises coming from this room. Many a squeaky violin or soprano tries to outdo a banging typewriter from the neighboring office of student publications.

By JUNE PLOWFIELD

Those loud "meows" that students heard recently resounding throughout the Science Hall come from the depths of those dark leery rooms in the cellar or rather basement of that Merner-Pfeiffer establishment. The rebellious tomcat was donated (sack and all) by Allen Snyder to Dr. Horn's ten histology students. However, like many of our feline friends, this brightly striped cat courageously gave up his life to further science and aid the future histologists who will graduate in the spring.

The small crusader was used to supply tissues for microscopic slides after having the quick and, perhaps, brutal death which was necessary in his case (that is, if you call a slug on the skull with a hammer followed by a nice bloody throat-slitting job, brutal). An easier method of death (for a cat, of course) is chloroform, but that would have destroyed the body tissue so that they would have been of negligible value to this group of biologists. Nevertheless, work of this nature where one cat must give up his life will, in many instances, benefit and save the lives of countless men and women in every nation.

To return to the living, the Skull and Bones Club held its first meeting last Wednesday, deciding upon the future of its society and the part it will contribute to the advancement of biology and science. The re-organization meeting was also used to decide upon those who will bid into the club as new members. The course in general biology is a pre-requisite to membership, but freshmen can attend the meetings while taking this course.

Socially Speaking

Without a doubt, the best way to get an overall view of who's who and what's going on at such affairs as the faculty reception, freshman tea, and dance is to perch at a convenient angle from some nice unobtrusive chandelier. However, since this method of keen observation isn't exactly practical, your on-the-job reporter pursued the next best course—that of mingling with fellow students and taking mental candid camera shots all the while.

Under the dining room we have the women's day student (?) room where one can always find book worms. Jane Teitsworth, Jean Rhodes, or Marian Fiedler are doing homework in peace and quiet (?), while next door in the social room, Jean Zwayer is trying to fix the vic, Jean Fisher is playing the piano, a record of Harry James is coming full blast over the radio, some Freshman is being told to answer the phone, and Dot Scheib and Marion Latta are bouncing ping-pong balls every place but on the table.

In the administration building, it's a toss-up whether Dr. Gingrich in 208, or Dr. Fenil in 209 gets more laughs. Students trying to learn the difference between para and por may not know all their home-work, but they know every time Dr. Gingrich tells a joke, for Greek students laugh long, loud and lustily, and Greek class makes the same complaint about Spanish Class. Up in the Science Hall, Dr. Zener's visual education students are being soothed by his mild tones, while across the hall, Prof. Green's biology students are scared by his far-from-mild barking over misuse of the microscopes.

The Inquiring Reporter

What Do You Like Best About 1944 Albright?

Christine A. Schweimler, Liberal Arts '46:
 —"Laddie."

Robert H. Schneider, Pre-Min. '47:
 "The fine spirit that seems to penetrate every activity that is sponsored."

Kenneth A. Good, Chemistry '47:
 "The thing I like best about 1944 Albright is the large Freshman class and also the chapel period at ten o'clock in the morning instead of eight."

June Plowfield Lab. Tech. '46:
 "The freshman who are so full of spirit, vitality and an unlimited amount of energy. Better than the last few frosh classes."

Berrina Blauch, Lab. Tech. '45:
 "Bigger and better freshman classes—fellows not excluded! And because it's closer to having all the others back."

LeRoy Hertzke, Pre-Min. '47:
 "The thing I like best about Albright '44 is the interesting 'Y' programs that have been given thus far."

Maria Bonner, Lab. Tech. '46:
 "See."

Pat Kramer, Psych. '45:
 "The freshman class spirit—they're a great bunch. Also love not having a higher class to look up to with awe."

Jean Gaul, English '47:
 "The things I like best at '44 Albright is no Saturday classes and I can sleep once more."

Seen at the Tea: SERGIO CUEVAS giving a fancy "thank you" speech in Spanish. . . . President Master's bulldog charging after teacups. . . . MARIAN GERBERICH trying to balance a teacup while perching on a collapsible chair. . . . ERMA LEINBACH, (upperclassman) acting in the role of perfect hostess in her rose-colored formal. . . . JOHN LYON having a tete-a-tete with MARIAN DRUCKER.

Seen at the Dance: THE PLOWFIELD trio, RUTH, JUNE and MARGERY all in their smiling best. . . . BILL EBBERT waltzing away with his favorite sophomore, JEAN ANN GAUL. . . . DEAN HELEN CUNLIFFE causing a big stir within the ranks of the stag line. . . . JACK TEGER (that famous m.c.) giving the freshman girls a whirl. . . . Numerous pairs of female eyes all gazing in the direction of the several soldier and sailor uniforms present. . . . ROMAYNE TRAUGH bubbling over with her usual vitality.

The Albrightian cousin of Lee bellows mightily this week in praise of the "Y" leaders.

On the Feminine Side. Since it's chivalrous to put ladies first the opening garlands go to Y.W.C.A. prexy, Ruth Ritzman. Ruth is a senior homeec. major and assistant cook at Sherman Cottage these days. Her dexterity is not limited to culinary capers, for she has lent her nimble fingers to playing harmonious strains on her violin in the college orchestra and string trio. The soprano voice gained her membership in the Women's Glee Club and Chapel Choir. Her friendliness and sincerity are known to everyone who has attended a "Y" hike or associated with her in any other activities.

The male counterpart of this two-some of leaders is Dietz (christened Cecil) Potteiger. The Y.M.C.A. is a stepping stone in the preministerial calling of Dietz. He is certain to be supported in any undertaking on campus with two brothers to flank him on either side. Dietz sings, too, claiming membership in the Men's Glee Club and the "Sons of Albright" quartet. His off-campus activities are memorable to the Reading police force—Fraternity initiations necessitated Dietz to obtain an official statement of the absence of pigeons beneath the Penn Street Bridge.

As Y.M. leader, Dietz promises a year of supercolossal planning. From past experience, we're willing to follow the leadership of these two presidents to a busy year on the "Y" calendar.

Lions In Ranks Contact Albright Via Letters and Personal Visits

Campus certainly has been a busy place this past week. It almost seemed like old times to have all the fellows back again. PFC. TONY STISH, of Temple Medical School paid us a visit; VAUGHN BUEHLER was here with his right arm in a cast—he was on a leave from an Army hospital; SGT. GENE PIERCE was cutting capers at the first all-student dance of the year, as were DICK SCHLEGEL A/S (stationed at Drew University) and ENSIGN CHARLES MIESSE who is with the Methods Division in Philadelphia; SGT. KENNETH DISSER was here also. His company was decorated for its participation in the invasion of Normandy. PFC. DICK DOHNER of Yale, PVT. HAROLD LUEDERS of Rutgers, and SEAMAN MARK GUSS of Philadelphia also spent some time with us.

The last time we heard from JACK H. WITMAN S/1c, he was in New Guinea busy building buildings for the new camp. He is still with the band and orchestra that the Seabees organized. Several months, before he was moved, he and DONALD SPANG, S/1c spent most of their spare time together. They were stationed only a few blocks away from each other.

LT. HAROLD WINTERHALTER was another of the Albrightians to walk down the aisle in the early part of the summer. He married Dorothy Hery on June 6, 1944 in Westminster Md. Good luck!

A letter arrived from PVT. BILL STAVRIDES this week in which he asked about the weather in this part of the country. He suggested that all of us go out to Reading Museum and see all the really enchanting things there. Good idea.

From somewhere in France came this letter from SGT. GEORGE MORFOGEN:

"Of course I can't tell you very much—but believe it or not—food and merchandise in France are reasonably plentiful—the abundance of which is surprising. It's much easier to buy things here—than it was in England. Above all, though France has taken a terrific pounding, the people are endowed with a lot of—just plain "guts"—and they are cheerful—talkative—and kind. For awhile there—the weather was very wet—guess you've read about the bad weather in the papers. Lately the sun has really shone—and I find myself with a tan that rivals some of those summer vacation suntans I used to accumulate.

"Stars and Stripes" ran a football schedule for last week's football games, and I saw where Bucknell was playing Muhlenberg—I got that "old feeling." Playing a little football again ought to be a lot of fun.

"The war news still looks good—but don't kid yourselves—the "Jerries" have still got to take a lot of beating, before they say uncle. It isn't good reading about how some folks at home think the war is over—while a lot of good guys are getting messed up."

ROBERT A. REESER Y 2c has been sick and wrote to us about the time he spent in the hospital with scarlet fever. Here is what he said about it:

"Monday I finally talked the doctors into releasing me from the hospital (or maybe they persuaded me to leave—I'm not sure just which it was) but anyway, here I am back at work again and not too sad about it. I spent so much time in that hospital I was beginning to feel quite at home although it was probably just a little laziness that appealed to me—such as meals in bed, and nothing to do but read and sleep. Of course, when I was really good and sick it wasn't a whole lot of fun, that I'll admit. In fact I was so sick I didn't even pay any attention to the nurses (oh yes, we had a few) and then when I was well enough to notice them, I wished I was sick again. There's not much of a story with the whole affair except that a speedy recovery was due to two things, mainly 20 shots of penicillin and the more enjoyable shots of correspondence that I received from you Albrightians, which was certainly one compensation for being ill. I know if I had had to do without one or the other—it would have been the penicillin. All in all though, later on when I was feeling better, and got to know a lot of my "buddies in bed" we did have a good time, and that part turned out to be my summer vacation—48 days to be exact. They won't get me in the hospital again." By the way, Bob is in Alaska.

WALTER KOCH, S 1c wrote us a letter last week telling us about the list of addresses. "I received that "Greeting to Albrightians-in-Service." That was a very thoughtful gift to us. You sometimes get the urge to drop some fellow a line but have no idea where he is." Walt is at the Navy Pier in Chicago.

At present the men on campus have far exceeded the expected number. We feel that there are enough men available to have a fairly extensive intramural sports program. And we know that Mr. Harris and the Interfraternity Athletic Council feel the same way. We shall expect to see big things along this line in the very near future.

Since the freshmen male students far outnumber the upper classesmen, some sort of arrangement will have to be worked out to give aid to those teams that are a little shy on manpower. Here we think a note of caution is needed. We feel that this apportioning of freshmen to various squads should be done by an impartial citizen. Our choice would be Mr. Harris.

We also feel that a team that makes a poor showing time after times loses he desire to compete. If these entrants were given some aid on the playing field, they certainly would gain in spirit and finish out the season. This would eliminate groups dropping out of the race half way through the schedule, thus

By PAUL DEYSHER

We have just found out that the intramural sports program is being organized for this year. Although it's a trifle late to get under way, we feel sure that an adequate program can still be arranged.

Last year the setup met with little success which was caused mainly by a lack of men, and where they were needed. Thus the schedule had to be constantly changed when one or another team dropped out of the running. This year the situation should be very different.

At present the men on campus have far exceeded the expected number. We feel that there are enough men available to have a fairly extensive intramural sports program. And we know that Mr. Harris and the Interfraternity Athletic Council feel the same way. We shall expect to see big things along this line in the very near future.

Albright Women Start Autumn Sports

The women of Albright College started their fall athletic program yesterday. The electives for the season are hockey, volleyball, archery, and badminton. Bert Blaich, assisted by Meg Hendricks, is the hockey leader; Lucille Lott heads archery; Mary Briner is the leader in volleyball; and Gayle Haupt has been elected as the badminton leader.

Mrs. Eva Mosser, instructor of physical education for women, informed the girls that varsity hockey could not be chosen as an elective, but would be considered an extra-curricular activity. Three hours of gym are required of each of the women, and they choose their electives and hours to fit their schedules.

Frat Representatives Discuss Intramurals Council Plans to Organize An Intramural League

With some hope of reviving the mens intramural sports program, the representatives from the fraternities on campus held council with Coach Neal O. Harris to make plans for the fall intramural setup. In previous years member teams of the interfraternity league included the Daymen, the A.P.O.'s, the Kappas, the Theologs, the Frosh, the Pi Taus, and the Zetas.

Under discussion for sports activities for the year were touch football, basketball, and softball, with a league to be set up in each sports. Because of the increase in the number of freshmen the possibility was discussed of including the frosh on other league teams, although they would have no particular affiliation with that team.

The intramural sports program as it is today was started in 1939 and continued with success although last year a lack of manpower and enthusiasm curtailed its functioning. In spite of the absence of a league, there were several exciting contests.

In football the top game of last year was the contest between the A.P.O.'s and the Daymen's Club. In this gridiron squabble, the Daymen were victors, 6-0. Norman Telsey, now in the armed forces, scored the only touchdown of the game when he intercepted an A.P.O. pass and ran the length of the field for the TD.

W.A.A. Decides Program At First Meeting of Year

Fall sports and the point system were the topics of discussion at the first meeting of the Women's Athletic Association cabinet held Wednesday, October 4, in Mrs. Eva Mosser's office, Selwyn Hall. It was decided that hockey, archery, volleyball, and badminton would be the electives for this season. The cabinet also considered putting basketball in the same class.

By the point system, 50 points can be obtained for participation in 75 per cent of the varsity practices; 50 for action in interclass games, and 50 for gym elections. After receiving 500 points, numerals are awarded. 1000 points is needed for the chenille letter, "A." 1500 points for a sweater, and 2000 points for the Gold Key.

Members of the W.A.A. cabinet are: Erma Leinbach, president; Jane Teitsworth, vice president; Marie Bonner, secretary; Mary Eschwe, treasurer. The following class representatives were elected: Jeanne Miller, senior; Meg Hendricks, junior; Virginia Woerle, sophomore. No freshmen representative has been elected as yet.

Reading High's Footballers Are Defeated; Ben Franklin H. S. Scores 13-7 Triumph

Reading High lost its first football game of the season, on Saturday, September 30, when it was downed by Ben Franklin High School of Philadelphia, 13-7. The contest was full of action from beginning to end. Both teams clicked offensively as indicated by the 225 yards gained by the Poor Richards, against the 165 yards gained by the Red Knights.

The first touchdown of the game was Ben Franklin's. With the visitors on the twelve yard line of Reading, Hinn slipped a pass to Vince Jaras near Reading's goal. Here occurred one of the strangest plays of the game, when Elmer Wolfe failed to catch the ball, deflecting it over the head of the covering Reading back into the waiting arms of Don Ford, who was standing in the end zone. Tony Chavarria failed to catch the extra point.

After the Ben Franklin score, Reading started rolling. Helder carried the kick-off to his own 36 where Wolfe took it for four yards. Thomas got a yard when he fumbled and recovered. Wolfe then passed to Bob Leibold who caught it on the Ben Franklin 30 for a first down. After a five yard off sides penalty against Franklin, Thomas tossed a left-handed pass to Troy Burkett for the 13 for a first down. The drive was halted when Hinn intercepted a Thomas pass on the 5.

Hinn then kicked out to his 35, Troy gaining 3 yards before being downed. After a five-yard offside penalty against the Philadelphians, Helder tossed a basketball pass to Leibold who straight-armed two Franklin backs to go the remaining 20 yards to score. Ben Markowitz then kicked the extra point. The score at the half was, Reading 7, Ben Franklin 6.

With five minutes of playing time left, Hinn tossed to Ford for seventeen yards to the Reading 44 and was stopped by a rear tackle by Thomas. After several long passes failed, Hinn finally hit Ford for 37 yards to put the ball on the Reading five. Three plays later Hinn tosses a perfect pass into the arms of Jaras who was behind Readings pass defense in the end zone. Biernot went through the center of the Red Knight line to add the extra point.

Perhaps by now, the boys on campus would like to know a few personal facts about this amazing addition to our campus—well, she's unmarried, pretty, brunette, and young. In fact, she is nine months old.

The first meeting of the Alchemist Club, as announced by its president, Aileen Schearer, will be held Wednesday, November 1, at 7:30 p.m. This gathering is for only old members, but new members will be bid into the club before the December meeting.

Have a "Coke" = Welcome back

... or giving a returned soldier a taste of home

There's an easy way to make a soldier on furlough feel right at home. It's to offer him refreshing Coca-Cola. Have a "Coke" is always the hospitable thing to say. In many lands overseas, as in your own living room, Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes, —has become a happy symbol of hospitality, at home as everywhere else.

It's natural for popular names to acquire friendly abbreviations. That's why you hear Coca-Cola called "Coke."

The Alumni News

The Alumni News is published in collaboration with The Albrightian in the interest of the Alumni Association of Albright College. This Alumni News appears the fourth Tuesday of each month under date line of Reading, Penna.

Lester L. Stabler, Executive Secretary.....Editor

Editor's Note

Editor's Note:—Because of the growing number of letters to the Editor and lack of space, it is impossible to continue the "Letters to the Editor" column. However, the editor urges everyone to continue to send him news and comment. This is his best source of news.

TO ALL ALBRIGHTIANS:

Pres. C. S. Crumbling Outlines Plans For Future Activities of Association

Your officers of the Alumni Association began their duties July 1st. Until such time when annual meeting are feasible, we shall continue to keep alive the spirit of the organization and try to serve you through monthly meetings of the executive committee. These meetings are held the first Thursday of each month.

It was a pleasure to receive from some of your expressions of confidence, loyalty, and suggestions which will be presented to this committee for action. The purpose of this group is to continue those activities which have proved their worth and carry forward those projects which have been initiated but not completed.

So that you may be informed of the activities of the college and association, "The Alumni News" will be incorporated in "THE ALBRIGHTIAN" once a month during the college year and sent to each member of the association. There will also be a summer issue in July.

The Alumni Association has sponsored the alumni swimming pool for the new physical education building. Mr. William E. Maier has faithfully and effectively directed the campaign among the alumni of Berks County. He has also consented to direct the campaign outside of Berks County to give all members an opportunity to assist in this much needed addition to the college.

The committee will encourage the proper authorities to secure further affiliation with national organiza-

G. I. Bill of Rights Affects Seven Returned Veterans

Seven ex-servicemen have enrolled at Albright this Fall under the provisions made by the government for the education of veterans. Alumni should urge returning veterans to take advantage of the "G.I. Bill of Rights" and should direct all inquiries for information, etc., to the Office of Public Relations.

In Memoriam

Paul S. Deysher, '20, who served so faithfully as treasurer of the Alumni Association last year and enjoyed attending area meetings of the association, died suddenly at his home in Shillington, Penna., Thursday night, September 21. Paul had been a title-searcher for a number of years. His son, Paul E., a senior at Albright this year, is president of Student Council.

Three New Stars Mark Death of Albright Alumni

Gold stars to be added to the list of Albrightians who have given their lives in line of duty since the honor roll was published in "The Alumni News" last February are: Mark L. Titus, '43, and Philip Earl Riddle and Saul Pokrass, who had their college careers interrupted by the war.

Capt. Wilfred F. Heinbach, Jr., has been added to the "prisoners of war list." His address is Hq. Mil. Prison Camp No. 2, Philippine Is., via New York, New York. This brings the number of those killed in line of duty to 11 and the prisoners of war to 3.

1944-45 Registration Shows Upward Trend

Alumni will be glad to learn that in spite of the still existing wartime situation this year's freshman class of 107 shows a 35 percent gain in membership as compared with the freshman class one year ago. The sophomore, junior and senior classes boast 37, 44 and 38 respectively. Six special students bring the total enrollment to 232, an increase of 9 over last year's 223. Because of more rigid deferment rulings, upperclass men are hard hit in the draft.

WANTED—to complete 100 copies of "The Speculum," years 1913, 1919 to 1925, 1929. Send to Alumni Office.

Albright Year By Year . . .

1882: Dr. J. D. Shortess, Lemoyne, Penna., who is the second oldest alumnus in point of graduation, as a long record of loyal support for his Alma Mater. He is still keenly interested as is indicated by his presence at each one of the meetings of the Harrisburg Alumni Club. His presence is deeply appreciated by everyone.

1890: Harvey H. Smith's new address is Robesonia, Penna.

1895: Charles S. Kelchner's new address is Cumberland Street, Lebanon, Penna.

1898: Sarah E. Beardslee's new address is Caney Junior College, Pippapas, Kentucky.

1917: Rev. C. A. Whitehead's new address is 1032 Danforth Street, Syracuse, 8, New York.

1935: Mrs. Eva Jones Maier's new address is 9 Garden Drive, Roselle, New Jersey; David Ketter was married to Jean Wetzel June 17, 1944 at the First Reformed Church in Reading, Penna. They are at home at 406 Sunset Road, West Reading, Penna. Margaret A. Paul's new address is South Lancaster Street, Annville, Penna.

1937: Capt. Edward J. Wister married Lieut. Fae or H. Althoff, Saturday, July 19, 1944 at the Post Chapel, Leona Field, Colorado. David H. Nix's new address is 1321 Linden Street, Reading, Penna.

1937: Betty Straub Ulrich sends us her change of address, now 2102 Field Avenue, West Lawn, Penna., and expresses her appreciation for "The Alumni News." It's the next best thing to Home Coming Day to receive it and read the news of all our classmates." Betty has two sons, Tommy, 3, and Michael, 7 months. She thinks they will be good football material for 1964.

July 17, 1944. Mrs. Bingaman was formerly Martha Walker. Thelma R. Kutch married Edmund J. Lewis August 19, 1944, at the Lutheran Church in Shillington, Penna.

1941: Lt. Miriam Hershey, who enlisted last November as a dietitian and has been overseas more than nine months reports from Italy that "America is still tops in sights and living conditions."

Pfc. and Mrs. P. L. Weygandt, 23 High Street, Buffalo, New York, had a daughter, Sandra Kay, August 13, 1944. Mrs. Weygandt was formerly Kay Gasche. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gruver, 1121 Clarkson Street, Denver 3, Colorado, had a son, William Rolfe, May 31, 1944. Mrs. Gruver was formerly Marion Plummer.

1942: Sgt. Stephen Plaskonos married Olga J. Reynaud, June 17, 1944, in the Cathedral of SS. Peter and Paul, Philadelphia, Penna. Lt. and Mrs. Donald E. Buxton had a son, July 23, 1944. Mrs. Buxton was formerly Mary DeMott.

1943: Thomas H. Stoudt received his Master of Science degree from Rutgers University, July 5, 1944. Ensign and Mrs. Joseph Brand, 322 Main Street, Denver, Penna., had a daughter in July, 1944 at the Reading Hospital. Mrs. Brand was formerly Bessie Knerr ('40).

John F. Gundlach married Grace N. Houck, July 14, 1944 in the Navy Y.M.C.A. Chapel in Norfolk, Virginia. Robert J. Rhoads married Patricia Ann Plumb, Saturday, September 30, 1944, at Naugatuck, Connecticut.

Pfc. Robert Mattison and Rillie Lee Wright ('44) were married Sunday, September 3, at the Evangelical Church in Conemaugh, Penna. They are at home at 1613 Race Street, Philadelphia, Pa. Kenneth Texter married June Hoffman, September 9, 1944 at the Ebenezer Evangelical Church in Reading, Penna. Ethel Mae Veskel's new address is Apt. No. 7, 1314 North Troy Street, Arlington, Virginia.

1944: Changes of address include: Doris Armes, 331 College Street, Asheville, North Carolina; Gerald Heilmann, Seybert Hill, Naperville, Illinois; Doris Kinsey, 544 Summer Street, Stamford, Connecticut; the Rev.
