All-Campus Ballot Names Leaders For 1955-56

Bubel, Davies To Lead Ys

William Davies, '56 and Barbara Bubel, '56 were elected to the presidencies of the YMCA and the YWCA during the campus-wide balloting Thursday, April 14.

Davies, an English major, is presently serving as vice president of the Class of '56 and has recently been elected president of the senior class of '56. He is acting vice president of Pi Tau Beta social fraternity and was general student chairman of the student campaign in connection with the Centennial Development Fund. Davies has participated in intramural basketball, football and baseball, and played on the varsity football team. He is also a sports writer for the Albrightian.

Miss Bubel, a history major, has been active in Y work in former years. She has served as secretary during the past year.

Cabinet To Meet

When asked about Y plans for next year, the newly elected presidents stated that the Y Cabinet will meet in the near future to discuss definite plans for next year. Davies and Miss Bubel said that there is a possibility that next year's program will contain more Fireside Chats, which have been highly successful this year and last year. The Cabinet will also consider, they said, the suggestion that the Ys participate in Mardi Gras next year and donate the proceeds to the World University Service Fund.

1955-56 Program Sketched

The officers-elect announced that traditional Y activities such as the big and little brother and sister program, the Christmas party for underprivileged children, the annual Easter Egg hunt at the Children's Home, visits to Berks Heim, a home for the aged, dawn communion services, Religion-in-Life Week, retreats at Blue Mountain, and recreational and current events programs will be continued next year.

Davies and Miss Bubel emphasized that Tuesday is Y night on campus, and that every student is a member of the Y and is invited to participate in its programs.

The Student Council Mantle Ceremony originally scheduled for Thursday, April 21 will be held at Assembly on Thursday, April 28.

Underclassmen Elect '55 CUE, Class Officers

Three key campus posts were filled by an all-campus vote at assembly Thursday, April 14. The editor and business manager for the 1955-56 Cue were elected at the junior class meeting immediately following assembly, while the freshmen and sophomores also elected officers at their meetings.

Paul Hetrich, '55, was chosen to head Student Council next year. William Davies, '56 and Barbara Bubel, '56 will serve as presidents of the campus YMCA and YWCA.

Helen Schoener, '56 was elected by the Class of '56 to edit next year's Cue. Norman Ring, '56 will take over the job of business manager.

William Davies, '56 will head next year's senior class, with Donald Wise, '56 as vice president. Sylvia Greul, '56 will serve as secretary, and Mauro Paolini, '56 as treasurer.

The sophomore class elected Lowell Perry, '57 president and Patrick D'Esposito, '57 vice president. Barbara Ross, '57 was re-elected secretary for next year's juniors, and John Mosko, '57 was named treasurer.

Clair Matz, '58 was again the presidential choice of the freshman class. Albert Ellis, '58 was elected vice president, while Barbara Smith, '58 and Terry Johnson, '58 were re-named to their respective jobs as secretary and treasurer.

Dean Morton Leaves For Convention Today

Priscilla R. Morton, dean of women and instructor of English at Albright College, will attend the annual joint meeting of the Pennsylvania Association of Deans of Women and the Women's University Club to be held Friday, April 22.

The meeting is to be held in connection with Schoolmen's Week of the University of Pennsylvania in the Art Gallery of Drexel Institute. Dr. Edward J. Shoben Jr., associate professor at the Teachers College of Columbia University, will speak on "Men, Women, and Maturity."

Miss Morton attended the eighth annual meeting of the Pennsylvania College English Association at Swarthmore College, Saturday, April 16. Robert Hillier, Pulitzer Prize poet, was the guest speaker.

Miss Morton was recently appointed program chairman of the Conrad Weiser Chapter of the American Personnel and Guidance Association.

Parents Weekend To Be Held May 7

Parents Weekend will begin officially at 9:30 Saturday morning, May 7, when parents begin registering and meeting informally with faculty members at a coffee hour, announced Paul Hetrich, '56, general chairman in charge of student planning for the weekend.

Saturday afternoon will be highlighted by the May Day Ceremony and a varsity baseball game. In the evening, there will be the banquet in the gymnasium, followed by a musical program by Trinity Lutheran Church, Norristown, in cooperation with the Albright College Glee Club, continued Hetrich.

Letters have been sent to the parents of every student, outlining the details of the weekend and enclosing reservation forms for meals.

Helen Schoener

Norman Ring

Schoener, Ring To Head CUE

Helen C. Schoener, '56, a day student from Temple, has been elected by the Class of '56 to edit next year's Cue. Norman Ring, '56, from Hillside, N. J., was named business manager.

Miss Schoener, a psychology major, comes to the Cue editorship with a journalistic background which includes work on the newspaper and yearbook of Muhlenberg High School and on the Albrightian. During the past year, she served as junior editor for the 1954-55 Cue. She is a member of the Pi Alpha Tau social sorority, the Daywomen's Organization, and the Delta Phi Alpha honorary German fraternity.

Her other campus activities include an active membership in the Dominó dramatic club, Pi Delta Epsilon, national honorary journalism fraternity, Pi Gamma Mu, honorary social science fraternity, and the Albright girls' varsity basketball team.

Ring, a business administration student, is a member of the Alpha Pi Omega social fraternity. He has served as business manager for the Albrightian during the current year.

Miss Schoener stated that selection of next year's staff will begin next week. She urged that anyone interested in working on the Cue staff contact her immediately. Typists, reporters and people to help with general planning and organizing are needed as well as writers.

The club has had a very active year singing four concerts in local churches; combining with the Norristown.

Coach Gulian Resigns Here For Navy Job In Japan

Eddie Gulian, football, basketball and baseball coach at Albright College since 1949 announced Wednesday night that he has submitted his resignation to accept the post of civilian athletic director of the U. S. Fleet activities in Yokosuka, Japan. He will leave for Japan in July.

The former Gettysburg athlete received word of his appointment Wednesday from the office of the commander of the fleet, Far East Naval Command. Gulian attained the rank of Lieutenant Commander in the Navy during World War II.

His appointment is effective at once but Gulian said he would not leave until the end of the current baseball season. He will coach the Yokosuka base football team and direct all other sports for the Navy and civilian personnel of the base.

Before coming to Albright Gulian served two seasons as backfield coach at Lafayette under Ivy Williamson, currently head man at the University of Wisconsin. An alumnus of Northtown High School, he won three letters each in football and baseball and one each in basketball and baseball.

At Gettysburg, he won three letters each in baseball, football and basketball. He headed the freshman baseball team and captained the football squad in his senior year.

Following his college days he played professional baseball in the Philadelphia Athletics farm system. Gulian played second base in the New York-Pennsylvania League, Sally League, Florida State League and Provincial League.

He has coached at Phoenixville High School, Ashland High School and Shippensburg State Teachers College. In 1942 he was civilian instructor with the Army Air Corps at Kutztown State Teachers College.

Gulian and his family expect to leave from San Francisco for Japan early in July.

Dorm Rates Set For Next Year

Dormitory rates have been standardized at $170 per semester beginning next year, announced the Administrative Committee. Previously, rental for accommodations in Teel Hall had been slightly higher than in Selwyn Hall or the men's dormitories, but the committee decided that the purchasing of new furniture for the second floor of Selwyn Hall and for White Chapel Hall would permit the same rate to be applied to all dormitory rooms.

The committee also announced that due to the trend toward a larger percentage of women boarding students, White Chapel Hall will be used as a women's dormitory next year. Men now living in White Chapel Hall will be accommodated in the Albright Courts. The recreation room in the Courts will be transferred to the basement, and the space used for apartments. Two apartments now occupied by faculty members will also be available for students next year.

White Chapel Hall, which will accommodate about 13, was used as a women's dormitory in former years, but was turned over to the men this past year when Teel Hall was purchased for the women.

The Frosh-Soph Hop will be held tonight from 9 p.m. to 12 midnight at the Woman's Club, 140 North 5th St. George Haller and his orchestra will furnish the music. Tickets for the non-corsage dance are $2.50 per couple.

Signs Of Spring

The silly season of Hell Week and stunts is almost upon us, but this year something new has been added.

The APO brothers and pledges have begun work on a new path from Sylvan Lake across the northeast section of campus to the corner of Palm and Bern Sts. The APO's are doing the digging, and the college will do the paving.

The APO fraternity men took the initiative in constructing this path because they will use it most frequently in travelling from their house at 1616 Olive St. to the main part of the campus. The path, however, will be a great convenience to other students as well, since it will help them to obey the "Do Not Walk On The Grass" signs.

Fraternity and sorority pledging has been criticized as being a great waste of time and energy. There is much to be said for this point of view, but projects such as the digging of this path show that pledging can be put to constructive use.

Albright can be proud of the Alpha Pi Omega fraternity for blazing the trail of Help instead of Hell.

Back Your Leaders

The all-campus election this year speedily and expediently disposed of the problem of who will lead and direct the main extra-curricular organizations next year.

In one assembly, the entire student body elected the new heads of the Ys and the president of Student Council, and members of the junior class elected the editor and business manager of the Cue. We extend our congratulations to the winners of these positions, but we'd like to warn the members of the upcoming junior class of their responsibilities.

These persons who are taking over vital campus posts this month, in a dress rehearsal preparation for the big centennial celebration next year, have tremendous jobs on their hands.

These jobs are not intended to be one-man jobs. This is an appeal to the student body, particularly next year's seniors—don't let your campus leaders stand alone!

Certainly they have been elected to the responsible positions, but some of the responsibility is that of those not elected. Leaders are helpless when no one will help them by serving on a committee, writing or furnishing material for school publications on request, or attending vital campus meetings and functions.

One of the unfortunate circumstances surrounding extra-curricular affairs this year, though missing in the affairs of fraternal organizations, was the fact that for every worker in an organization, there were twenty on the fringes of it, half-believing but not participating.

The same hard-working students participated in all campus activities, did their work quietly, and reaped little glory or thanks for the reward.

A new year has begun in activities, with a new opportunity for more constructive support and effort, and for less back-biting and snide cynicism.

Library News

Mrs. Paul Price has resigned her position at the library, due to the fact that the Prices are moving to Dayton, Ohio, announced Josephine Raepel, head librarian, recently.

As a result of the resignation and due to other vacancies in the library staff requirements, three new assistants have been taken on. Mrs. F. Wilbur Gingrich is taking the place of Mrs. Price as desk assistant in the library. Thomas Masters, '53, has been a desk assistant in the afternoon for several weeks. Margaret Westcott, a senior at Reading High School, is working typing catalogue cards after school.

The library has acquired several different types of pictures. One set is composed of four genuine silk-screen prints of Degas concerning ballet dancers. There are about a dozen large Currier and Ives reprints which have recently been added to the library's collection. Some of these are on display in the main reading room at present. In addition a set of 24 gold-illuminated full color facsimiles of medieval art known as the Minnesinger Miniatures has just been purchased.

Ray Kaiser, '55, a pre-ministerial student who has been a student assistant in the library since his sophomore year, is to represent Albright at the coming Lehigh Valley District Library Conference to be held at Kutztown in the near future. Kaiser will participate in the panel discussion "What We Expect of the Libraries of Our Communities".

Etiquette

Q. Is it ever proper for a faculty member to invite him or herself to a student party or dance?

A. No! Any faculty member, whether guest or chaperone, must wait until he or she is specifically invited by the organization whose party or dance he or she wishes to attend. For any member of the faculty to be so presumptuous as to actually request that any organization issue such an invitation would be an unthinkable rudeness.

Pete

Four years ago, our Dandy Lion of this week came roaring out of the coal fields of Hazleton to embark upon his collegiate career. This advocate of Webster's Dictionary has rocked his opponents from the left-end slot for four years.

Pete has been sports writer for the Albrightian, the Cue, and also has edited the Zeta Link. "The Rock" has been undefeated in his collegiate boxing career. He also serves as chaplain for the Zeta Omega Epsilon fraternity. He has been an outstanding member of the Zetas, assuming many responsibilities and always doing a commendable job.

"Pete the Cleaner" has various interests which include the Zetas, athletics, a thriving dry-cleaning service and of course, Bonnie.

We are sure that Pete LaRocco will do a fine job at law school and fulfill his ambition to become an agent for the FBI.

24 Hours To Live

—Six students and two professors would continue in their normal routine.

—Spend the time with my family.

—Rush to Penn and spend the time with my boyfriend.

—I'd play and listen to music, the most important thing to me.

—See Battle Cry again and then go to a beach and die in the sand.

—Start digging my grave.

—Dissect a corpse.

—Go to church, and spend the rest of the remaining time in prayer with my family.

—Wine, Women, Song.

—Buy everything I've always wanted and for the first time be one step ahead of the creditors.

—Get married—that's a slow death.

—Swim the English Channel.

—Take laughing gas (NO).

—Go to Israel, Mt. Sinai and die where Moses did.

—Commit suicide.

—I'd panic.

Fox Speaks

Spring is sprung, the grass is riz, I wonder where the students is?

Floating along on the warm spring breezes with thoughts of Hell week, Mazi Gras, Parents Weekend and fraternity dances. Minds that were preoccupied with geometry and chemistry are changing to ditch digging and stenography. Too fast, the end has come upon us. 'Tis growing time to lower the drawbridge and leave the Ivory Tower to enter a world of labor and paychecks.

Alas for those who have put off seeking summer employment. On sad tidings I find for some people I have in mind. Summer happens to make its bidding as swiftly through the lovers' season we fly. "Twas cruel of our creator to arrange a time of parting after a period so conducive to affection. So make haste you lovers, wherever you are, soon 'twill be summer and young lover will be far.

APOs Begin Work On New Macadam Path

Excavation for a macadam path across part of the campus was begun last Saturday morning by the members of the Alpha Pi Omega social fraternity.

The path, to extend from Sylvan Lake to the corner of Palm and Bern Sts., is being laid out by the APO fraternity in cooperation with the college, stated Eugene H. Pierce, superintendent of buildings and grounds. A six inch trench will be dug by the fraternity men, and the gravel foundation and black top finish supplied by the college.

James E. Hall, 77 Park Rd., West Lawn, president of the fraternity, announced that the APOs had taken the initiative in this project because they will use the path constantly in traveling from their fraternity house at 1616 Olive St. to the main part of the campus.

Lower Than A Pledge?

Several weeks ago a new species of Albrightians was introduced onto our campus, along with the first day of spring. This species stood off from the rest of the crowd due to the dinks it was compelled to wear on its head and the droopy, unmatched socks covering its ankles. Each individual member of this species had a small rectangular piece of metal over her heart, and half of the species had something dangling from the metal. This group also had red lips while the others had that pale, washed-out look characteristic of the student.

These newcomers have been greeted with smiles and mockery from most of the students, but a few Albrightians have treated them disdainfully. This minority group has made them carry extra trays from the dining hall, bow down to trees, write lengthy essays on absolutely nothing, and learn partisan songs. The new species displays no signs of self-defense, however. The members are indoctrinated in such a way that they willingly accept the abuses with a smile and then while away leisure hours running numerous errands.

Though the species has all the characteristics of the human being, its members are often referred to as worms by the minority groups. Since they are treated as such, it must be because no human would ask another of his kind to lie on his stomach on the floor and recite the Greek alphabet—backwards! There is a difference between these worms and the common, garden-variety type, though, because the new species can think. Thus, sometimes, the minority groups are not able to find them when a few cars need washing or several dozen pairs of shoes must be polished. This causes much consternation in the groups and they immediately plot some new and exciting projects to be carried out when the worms finally come out for meals.

The new species has the odd habit of carrying around square blocks of wood with tails attached to the ends. No matter where they go before suppertime, the worms always have these blocks along. It isn't evident what the purpose of such items is, though several of the worms have pretended to use them as weapons on certain members of the minority groups.

This past Monday, half of the worms arrived at breakfast looking suave. They were wearing fancy hats, sun glasses, white gloves and sneakers without socks. The trim and elegant group sat down, after having

Frustrated Elders

"Shine my shoes!"
"Assume the Position!"
"Where's your pin?"

These are but a few of the many commands barked by the fraternity brothers to the pledges of 1955. How are these commands taken by our martyrs? Let's find out.

The opinion of many pledges is one of tolerance for these "frustrated elders" who, remembering the days of their pledgeships, are "getting even" for their previous discomfort. The pledges realize that the brothers had to endure the same discomfort and are just biding their time. This could be a perfect plan except for the fact that six weeks is such an endless age. Endurance can only hold out for a certain length of time.

Another opinion of a few pledges is that this period of work and paddling is an excuse for not doing work. If one has to entertain the brothers Monday evening and clean rooms another night one cannot be expected to complete the required homework.

The pledging period, to the remainder of the gentlemen wearing the caps, is an opportunity to make new friends, learn new customs, and have a good time being the "scum of the earth."

elaborately greeted several individuals in the room. They were openly stared at by Albrightians and were even mistaken by one person as movie stars from the silent-film era. Such experiences are usual for this poor degraded group; they are merely puppets in the hands of a few power-conscious human beings! Can this treatment be carried too far and ultimately force the new species to sink even lower—but, what is lower than a pledge!

Overworkeditis

When you view a piece of spaghetti, do you imagine a hangman's noose? Is a pencil symbolic of an instrument of torture to you? Does the desire ever hit you to assume the carefree life of a squirrel? If the answer to the preceding is affirmative, you probably are suffering from a rare, incurable disease known as "Overworkeditis."

This affliction originates each year about September lasting through to June of the next year, and is especially serious around times known as Mid-year and Mid-term.

The victim, who is usually found in a school somewhere, first experiences the plight with a pleasant reaction. He comes to his school filled with delusions of sparkling social life, and feels a great joy at again seeing old friends and those institutional appendages known as "Prof's." Yes, at this point in the cycle all is rosy except—except for a gnawing memory way in the deepest recesses of the brain of the element of work. Oh well, we can forget that element; it'll be at least a week before classes get organized.

One or two months later, our unsuspecting victim is still going strong with a continual smile and a good word for all. He has had a few tests, and assignments are going along without trouble, when the bottom drops out. What happened to place our hero in the state of shock we now see him in? The answer is that he was hit with a barrage of tests one week, and soon afterwards unpleasant news concerning his scholastic status issues forth from the Registrar's Office. His mid-semester marks show a drastic need for a policy change.

Now the concentrated study begins. "Read that assignment, write that paper, study those notes!" are thoughts that crowd through his tortured mind as he dribbles the ball down the floor during his afternoon recreation period. After supper, a nap, and some horseplay with one's neighbors the noble quests are fulfilled.

During these next few weeks, facts by the dozens are crammed into his cranial cavity, and, of course, confusion reigns. This is the crucial period. Exams are approaching again. He must make good. Our hero is in sad shape. Symptoms of this phase are: continuous worried look on face, bleary-eyes, calloused fingers caused by dragging hands along the ground (dropped shoulders), and smashed nose from walking into doors, trees, and telephone poles (has trouble keeping mind from wandering). Will he survive?

Well, luckily he did—this time. Exams were passed and time for a vacation comes.

In a short time semester two makes its arrival, and the elation—depression cycle comes again. This semester our hero has nightmares wherein he is chased by bibliography cards and library references. Oh well, it is supposed he'll survive somehow, and may we wish the best of luck to all the readers who are similarly afflicted with this killer of students, "Overworkeditis." We're just sorry we can give no consolation to you hopelessly infected—no, running to your neighborhood psychiatrist will not help—for the only cure is a long rest in a Florida resort.

Lion Cindermen Take Two Straight Dual Meets

Bob Krize, Bill Shirk, Ken Greenawald Look Impressive

The Albright track and field squad barely edged the Swarthmore Cindermen, 64-62, in a dual meet on Saturday, April 9, here at Albright. Captain Bob Krize once again starred in the field events with three first places, copping the shot put, discus, and javelin. Stellar distance man Bill Shirk turned in a fine performance, taking the mile and two-mile runs. Willie Smith took first place in the 100-yard dash.

It was the Lion's superior depth which meant the difference, as Ken Greenawald took three second places, the 100-yard dash, the 220-yard dash, and the 220-yard hurdles; Rudy Becker grabbed second places in the mile and half mile runs, and Bob Wetzel added seconds in the 120-yard hurdles and the broad jump.

The only double victors for Swarthmore were Ed Skeath, who streaked to victory in the 220 and 440-yard dashes, and Don McKinley, who captured the 120-yard high hurdles and the 220-yard low hurdles.

Greenawald Stars

A triple victory by Ken Greenawald and double victories by Bill Shirk and Bob Krize led Albright to twelve first places as they walloped Muhlenberg College, 89-37, in a dual meet at Albright stadium. It was the second straight win for the Lion cindermen, as they took all but three events.

Greenawald ripped through the 100-yard dash, 200-yard dash, and the 220-yard low hurdles. His times were 10.3 seconds, 23 seconds flat, and 28.07 seconds, respectively. Shirk copped the mile in 4:43 and the two-mile in 10:28 for his double victory. Krize paced the field winners with victories in the shot put and javelin.

Muhlenberg's only victors were Denny Roth in the high jump and Herm Ziegler in the pole vault.

Hawks Down Lions

St. Joseph's College of Philadelphia swept a triangular meet from Albright and Juniata last Saturday at the Juniata College field. Displaying fine balance in both track and field events, the Hawks amassed 80 points to 39 for Albright and 35 for the host school.

Bob Krize in the javelin and Jack Huntzinger in the discus notched Albright's only first places. Krize also took a second in the shot put, while Ken Greenawald copped second in the 100 and 220-yard dashes and fourth in the 220-yard low hurdles.

Frank McLaughlin, Don Byrnes, and Tom O'Malley sparked the Hawks with two victories apiece, McLaughlin taking the mile and two mile runs, Byrnes the 100 and 220-yard dashes, and O'Malley the two hurdle events.

Spring Is Here

Spring came to the University of Nebraska campus with a vengeance last week as some 3,000 shouting, milling students staged a riotous party raid on seven sorority houses and one girls' dormitory.

Coads put up a stubborn defense, hurling pop bottles as raiders stormed through fire-escape windows. Several students were injured and damage was estimated at several hundred dollars.

The raiders started several fires on campus streets, then danced around them waving coeds' undergarments. Photographers tried to get pictures were manhandled by the rioters.

Baseball Team Downs Ursinus

Last Friday the Lions, putty in hands of Art Ehlers of Ursinus for eight frames, delivered three runs in the ninth to nick the Grizzlies 3-2.

Ehlers, the tall, thin, heart and soul of the Ursinus club, yielded only one hit and admitted only three Albright runners in the first six innings. He steered clear of possible trouble when Lion sticks came alive in the seventh and eighth innings, but when Ray Stoneback stroled to open the ninth, Albright was in business. Bob Sulyma followed with a line single to center and Bernie Seaman nudged the runners to the far bases with a perfect sacrifice bunt to the mound.

Stoneback Scores

Jack Krick then dribbled a slow roller to third, where Ted Scholl scooped cleanly. Stoneback broke for home and might have been an easy mark, but the young third sacker elected to go to first with the ball. His throw was low and bounced by Gene Harris as Stoneback and Sulyma chugged home and Krick moved all the way to second base.

Dale Yoder, whose sensational catch had cut off a possible extra base hit the inning before, then slammed the first pitch just inside the third base line to admit the winning tally. Yoder had come off the bench two innings before as a pinch hitter and lingered as a right-fielder.

Pollock Starts

It was a stirring victory, consummated just as it appeared that two early Ursinus runs off Tom Pollock would stand up all the way. In the first inning, Don Allebach lashed the first of his three singles to center, stole second, and scored with two out when Ehlers drove a grass-cutter inside third base. In the third inning, Larry Zartman bounced a bad hopper past rightfielder Bob Fiorindo for three bases, and scored when Allebach skied mightily to Stoneback in deep left.

Ursinus came up with back to back singles by Allebach and Paul Neborak in the eighth with two out, but Pollock fanned Ehlers to end the threat. The Albright right-hander was derricked in the same frame and Bernie Krick finished up. Krick delivered five pitches, subduing the Grizzlies on three outfield flies in the ninth and gained credit for the win.

Lions Lose To Dutchmen

Last Saturday, playing their second game in as many days, the Lions met defeat at the hands of the Lebanon Valley College Flying Dutchmen. The loss evened the Lion's record at two and two. The Dutchmen jumped in front with a two-run outburst in the first inning. An error, a walk, and two singles, the final one by Bennetch with the bases loaded, accounted for the scoring after two were out.

Coming back in the second, the Valleyites got all they needed when they counted three more. Mentzer opened with a triple and Thomas scored him with a single after one was out. Thomas then stole second and came around when George Conrad overthrew first on Ross Farlek's grounder. The latter scored on Bill Schadler's single to right.

Sulyma Scores

The Lions finally entered the scoring column for two runs in the fifth, making good use of their first three hits. Bob Sulyma started with a walk and Bernie Seaman followed with a single to right, Sulyma taking third. Jack Krick's infield hit scored Sulyma, and Dale Yoder's single brought in Seaman. Krick

Tennis Team Wins

Albright College's veteran tennis team, after a dismal 2-10 mark last year, got off to a fast start last Saturday by drubbing St. Joseph's of Philadelphia, 6-2, at the Berks County Tennis Club in Wyomissing.

The Lions copped five of seven matches, dropping one singles and one doubles match. John Schiavo, Snook Reusing, John Rosen, and Mike Daugherty, all back from last year's squad, and freshman Charlie Sample registered singles victories, while Schiavo and Reusing teamed to win the number one doubles match.

The box score follows:

SINGLES
John Schiavo (A) defeated Bob Wankmuller, 6-3, 6-3; John Reusing (A) defeated Elrich Kamimura, 6-1, 4-6, 6-1; Jack Rosen (A) defeated Joe Bartlett, 6-3, 7-5; Mike Daugherty (A) defeated Jim O'Brien, 6-2, 6-1, 6-1; Joe Girard (S) defeated Lee Hagginbotham, 6-2, 4-6; Charles Sample (A) defeated Henry Aschenbrenner, 6-4, 5-7, 8-6.

DOUBLES
Schiavo and Reusing (A) defeated Kamimura and O'Brien, 6-2, 6-3; Wankmuller and Bartlett (S) defeated Hagginbotham and Bob Brown, 6-1, 6-2.

Track Team Plays Host To Scranton

Tomorrow, April 23, the Albright track team, under the direction of coach Gene Shirk, will be hosts to Scranton University for their fifth meet of the season. It will be the Lion's fourth dual meet of the current campaign, the Lions having won the first two from Swarthmore and Muhlenberg.

Thus far this season Bill Shirk, Bob Krize, and Ken Greenawald have led the Lions. Shirk, in the mile and two-mile runs, has taken four firsts, one second, and one third place in the combined meets. Bob Krize has outclassed the field in the shot put, discus, and javelin for most of the meets, while Greenawald excels in the sprints. Rudy Becker and Willy Smith have also added strength to the team and freshman George Mach has been impressive in the two-mile run.

On Wednesday, the team will again be active, meeting Lebanon Valley and Drexel in a triangular meet at Annville in preparation for the Penn Relays the following week-end.

Both meets should be a strong test for the Lions, and will give them a chance to establish the way for the best track season of the past few years.

Tennis Team To Play Dickinson

The Albright racquetees will play their only match of the week tomorrow afternoon when they face the Dickinson team at Carlisle. Coach Leo Bloom will count on veterans John Schiavo, John Reusing, Jack Rosen, and Mike Daugherty to pace the Lions, while freshman Charlie Sample provides added strength and depth to the team.

In their first match the netmen swamped St. Joe's of Philadelphia, 6-2. All of the above mentioned players acquired victories in that test, while Schiavo and Reusing also won a doubles match. Lee Hagginbotham and Bob Brown round out the starting players. Keen competition for berths on the team has payed off in added spirit on the team.

Although Dickinson should give the Lions stiff opposition, Albright will be expected to take the match with their veteran squad.

was picked off third by catcher Tom Reinhard to end the rally.

The Lions scored a final run in the last of the ninth when Sulyma tripped to center and scored on Seaman's grounder to first.

Hetrich Wins S C Election With Ten Point Platform

Paul Hetrich, '56 has been elected Student Council president for 1955-56. A day student from Laurel-dale, Hetrich has been a two-year member of the Council.

A pre-ministerial student, he has been active in Y work and is a member of Kappa Tau Chi honorary pre-ministerial fraternity.

Paul Hetrich

Hetrich was elected by an all-campus vote on a platform consisting of ten main points:

1) The presidents of all campus organizations should have an organizational meeting at the end of this school term to: (a) go over the calendar for the first semester of next year, (b) iron out any calendar difficulties which may arise in the scheduling of such events as dances, cake sales, special projects, programs and events.

2) Student Council should schedule as many Friday night dances as possible and have a combo at each one, and should show one or two worth-while cultural movies of the caliber of the Gandhi picture which was shown on campus earlier this year during the Lenten season.

3) I will continue to support the idea of one class meeting a month taking the place of a regular Thursday Assembly program. This system will give us time to organize our classes effectively and will not rob the time from our lunch hour. The class meetings of April 14 were a direct result of the efforts in the direction of this idea.

4) Student Council must work more closely with the faculty and administration. Out of many ways, I suggest two which would be available to us: (a) the president of Student Council and the president of the college should meet some time after each council meeting to discuss the happenings of Student Council meetings, (b) one or two members of Student Council should sit in on the meetings of the Faculty Committee on Student Affairs.

5) Organizations which cover the entire campus such as the Y's, CUE and Albrightian, who at present have no representatives in council, should be obligated to send representatives (non-voting) to sit in on each council meeting.

6) Our day students must be brought into the campus pictures more readily by their being placed on all campus committees; thus giving both boarding and day people an equal voice and in turn an interest in campus affairs.

7) One outstanding change should be made in our Council Constitution—this being a stronger and more active judiciary committee to: (a) try customs violators, (b) air problems and happenings, thus saving further embarrassment to individuals from the necessity of appearing before a faculty committee.

8) Intercollegiate affairs must be pushed considerably, especially during our football season to relieve the extroverted unchanneled school spirit which individuals might have. Intercollegiate dances or combined pep rallies the night
