

Trustees Treat Current Issues At Meeting

Appointments of committees, financial reports, and building committee reports comprised the agenda for the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees of Albright College, held Wednesday and Thursday, Feb. 13 and 14. Several issues were considered in determining the policies for the coming year.

Four committees met Wednesday evening at the Berkshire Hotel. Three discussed the treasurer's and auditor's reports, ways and means, and nominations; the fourth considered the reports given by Dr. Harry V. Masters and Dr. J. Arthur Heck, president of the Evangelical School of Theology, that afternoon.

Major points stressed by Dr. Masters were the necessary increase of faculty, financial advancements, and the building program for the campus. No increase in the number of curricula is planned at present, but several departments will be enlarged. A full Business Administration program will be resumed in September and the Home Economics department will add a course in dietetics and industrial home economics. Because of the enlarged enrollment and the increased number of courses, it will be necessary to add six or seven new faculty members to the staff.

Within the past seven years, there has been a financial increase of $1,390,000, which creates a present net worth of $2,426,000. Unspecified gifts in the last year amounted to $21,000; $520,000 has already been received in cash or pledges for the $650,000 campaign for Albright College and The Evangelical School of Theology, formally inaugurated by the Board at its last meeting.

The Board approved the construction of additional dormitory facilities for men, to be built this summer if material and labor are available. Other building plans include a physical education building, a chapel-auditorium, and an addition to the library.

Senate Enlarges Conference Plans

Margaret Reiff, personal worker for a Philadelphia insurance company, will be another featured speaker at the career conferences for Albright women March 27, announced Anna Wartluft, president of Women's Senate, at the last meeting of that group. The Senate is sponsoring the career conferences, under the leadership of President Wartluft and Dean Helen L. Cunliffe and Professor Anna H. Smith, co-advisors.

Miss Reiff, who is now associated with Provident Mutual Trust Life Insurance Co. of Philadelphia, was awarded her A.B. at Bucknell University, and is now working for an M.A. in psychology at Temple University. She worked several years with a firm of consulting actuaries.

Miss Wartluft announced that Eileen O'Neil will be in charge of programs for the conferences. Agnes Snyder will handle advertising, and Margaret Walton will arrange personal interviews between Albright women and the conference speakers. Dean Cunliffe urges women to contact Miss Walton immediately if they wish to speak personally to a conference guest.

President of leading Reading women's groups and Lilly March, columnist of the Reading Eagle, will also be guests at the Senate career conferences. Letters outlining the program for the all-day conferences will be sent to all Albright women shortly before the March date.

Shirley Reikon presented a plan for an induction ceremony to be used in the future for all Senate inductions.

The election returns include new representatives to the Daywomen's Council and to Student Council. Louise Trostle will represent the junior class in the day council, Geraldine Wentzel the sophomore class, and Helen Capozello the freshman class until next February when the daywomen elections will again be held. They will also be members of the Women's Senate.

"Y's" To Stage Show Tonight With Darcy Musical Theme

"Dark Moments" is the title of the musical the "Y's" are sponsoring tonight in the Dining Hall at 7:30. Al Jolsen (Jake Sklover), the Ink Spots, and an all-star darcy cast will provide an evening of entertainment. Marjorie Christ and Rita Duncavage head the committee producing "Dark Moments." During intermission an opportunity will be given for new students to get acquainted.

Last Tuesday in the Lower Social Room Professor Lewis E. Smith discussed "The Anatomy of Peace," the recent book by Emery Reves. Newell Wert had charge of the informal singing and Robert Schneider led the worship period. After the program there was a cabinet meeting.

Class Schedules Trip To Hershey, March 9th

The hockey trip was the subject of discussion in a freshman class meeting held last Thursday, Feb. 21.

Going to Hershey on Saturday, March 9, the class will see the Buffalo Bisons oppose Hershey in a hockey game. Following the game will be a half-hour of skating.

Three busses have already been chartered, with at least seventy-five tickets sold; Perry Matz is handling the ticket sales. The trip is limited to the freshman class members, who may each bring a guest. Jean Long is in charge of publicity for the event.

Joseph Kubisen will fill the position of presidency of the freshman class left vacant when Franklin Hodgkins entered the service, it was decided at a class meeting on Monday, February 1. Kubisen was formerly vice-president of the class.

The action was taken at the suggestion of Kenneth Good, Student Council president, that Kubisen be shifted to the presidency until the general election in the spring.

"Cheer-a-Buddy" Drive To Send Year Book To Lions In Ranks

The "Cheer-a-Buddy" drive designed to raise funds for the purchase of paper-bound yearbooks for over 800 Albrightians still in the service was officially opened Thursday, Feb. 21 and will close Thursday, Feb. 28, announced June Plowfield, editor of the "Cue." The highlight of the drive was the "Cue Ball" held last Friday night in the College Dining Hall. The profit from the dance will be used to send "Albright in print" to service men. Students who did not attend the dance have the opportunity to aid this project financially when they are contacted by student solicitors as a part of the drive.

Dean Announces Academic Scores For First Term

Forty-seven students attained a place on the Dean's list for the academic ratings just compiled for the first semester of the 1945-46 year, announced Dean George W. Walton today. Of this number, 21 had an average of A which placed them on the honor list; 26 others had a B+ average which entitled them to honorable mention. Juniors and seniors on the honor and honorable mention lists are entitled to free cuts in the ensuing semester; two additional upper classmen also qualified for free cuts although they were not on the above lists.

The general College average in academics was 3.04, while the classes' ratings fall into order with the seniors at the top, and the freshmen at the bottom. The senior average rating was 2.53; the junior, 2.77; the sophomore, 3.17; the freshmen, 3.21.

Veterans Meet Wed. Complete Organization

The newly constituted Albright Veterans' Club is to meet tomorrow, February 27, at 12:00 p. m. in the Science Lecture Hall. It is urgently desired that veterans now on campus, including the former WACs, WAVEs and nurses, turn out for the meeting.

The Club last met on Thursday evening in the Science Lecture Hall to outline their future program. About thirty ex-servicemen were present.

Before the meeting proper, Marshall Maholic, a veteran and former Albrightian, gave a talk on National Service Life Insurance and answered questions concerning it.

In the business meeting President Dennis Ertel set up committees for the functions of the club and appointed chairmen as follows: chapel, Jacob Sklover; membership, William Walb; social, George Morfogen; memorial, Gerald Laucks, and Ralph Miller; and tutoring, Richard Major.

The Club also decided to give membership cards and collect a one-dollar initiation fee for operating expenses. Representation on Student Council was discussed, and it was decided that the Club will suggest it be allowed to seat two voting representatives.

David A. Strong Will Turn Out Gridiron Team

Albright's roaring lions of the gridiron will have as their coach for the 1946-47 season David A. Strong, a former collegiate football star and an ex-Navy man with coaching experience in several western universities, announces Eugene Shirk, Faculty Manager of Athletics today. Strong will coach the first gridiron team here since the 1942-43 season.

Beginning his football career on the freshman team of the University of Illinois in 1935 and playing quarterback on Zuppke's regular '36 team, Strong transferred to the University of Michigan in 1937 and won his letter there as halfback on Crisler's '38 and '39 teams.

After receiving his Bachelor of Science degree in Physical Education from Michigan in February, 1940, he remained there as an assistant football coach on Crisler's staff and received his Master of Science degree in Physical Education from Michigan in August, 1941.

Following a year as head football, basketball, and track coach at South Dakota School of Mines College at Rapid City, Strong entered the Navy as a athletic officer in Commander Tom Hamilton's Physical Fitness Program for Naval Aviation in May, 1942.

Assignments in Dallas, Texas and Norfolk, Virginia and a turn as an executive officer aboard ship in the Pacific preceded Strong's return to football. In the fall of 1944 he was backfield coach of the San Diego Naval Training Center football team under Lt. "Skip" Stahley, former head coach at Brown University.

Since his discharge from the Navy on March 5, 1945, Strong has been on the athletic staff at the University of Idaho and was backfield coach under Patsy Clark at the University of Nebraska for the 1945 season.

Alumnae Sorority Pledges 7 Seniors

Phi Delta Sigma, alumnae sorority of Albright College, has selected seven senior women to be pledged into the sisterhood. They are Marie Bonner, Rita Duncavage, Irene Fisher, Margaret Hendricks, June Plowfield, Elizabeth H. Pottieger, and Anna Wartluft.

These women were pledged to Phi Delta Sigma last Saturday afternoon, and the service was followed by a dinner at Mrs. Housum's Tea Room, 452 Douglass Street.

This sorority selects each year the women of the senior class whom they consider to have been outstanding during their college careers. The sorority maintains the fellowship of its alumnae members and supports the college whenever it can. The main desk in the library, bearing the sorority's Sphinx symbol, is one of the organization's contributions to the College.

Chapel Slates Keiser, Marimba Artist; Group Sings Today

Kenneth Keiser, local marimbist, will highlight Thursday's assembly program in the second of Student Council's "Little Cultural Series." Keiser, a resident of Hamburg, has given many recitals at civic clubs in Reading.

The Women's Glee Club, under the direction of Elizabeth H. Pottieger, rendered a musical program in assembly this morning. Marjorie Christ, president of the group, accompanied them. The business manager of the Glee Club is Martha Friedericks, who also fills the position of secretary-treasurer.

Members of this organization are: first sopranos: Betty Fielitz, Nancy Matten, Elaine Kyle, Carolyn Powers, Betty Thompson, and Jeanne Schlegel; second sopranos: Dorace Hornberger and Miriam Kramer; first altos: Mary Fry, Martha Friedericks, Joy Davis, and Margaret Walker; and second altos: Elaine Huber, Jean Harer, Shirley Miller, Ferne Allen, and Joyce Ruth.

"Remember Me" a radio skit boosting the "Cue" was given Thursday, February 21 in the College Chapel. This performance formally opened the "Cheer for a Buddy" drive, the three-day campaign begun to raise enough money to send the "Cue" to 300 servicemen. Margaret Hendricks, Rita Duncavage, and Robert Schneider participated in this program which was under the direction of June Plowfield, editor of the yearbook.

The Rev. Howard Goeringer, pastor of St. John's Evangelical and Reformed Church, in Reading, in the chapel program on Tuesday, February 19, talked on "Brotherhood," using the inscriptions on a Lincoln penny to drive home his thoughts on

The Shouting and the Tumult

Several times in the past week we had thought that the smoke from last week's issue had cleared sufficiently that we could see whether the debris had landed in any recognizable shape. But just as we finished describing the results, a volley burst forth from another angle, and we started cleaning up the snot all over again.

Obviously the returns are not all in yet. Indeed, it begins to look as though we have just started to uncover the real underlying issues. Although no definite results have been achieved unmistakably and permanently, still we do know that the more we talk, the more the air clears, the more we get our case understood, and the more we see our own shortcomings and possible methods of attack, and the more we see where our possible sources of help lie.

Quite unintentionally, we got our problem aired in the Reading press. The Times coverage was undoubtedly colored by the opinions of the reporter, even though we know that he had the best interests of the paper at heart when he wrote. The Administration's reply in the Eagle contained some statements which were obviously ridiculous. We do not say that the Administration intentionally stretched the facts in their press release; let us say rather that they were misinformed on some facts, and did not completely understand the situation behind others. However, charges and counter charges outside our own back yard are of doubtful value, and we hope the next time we hit the city press, a more savory note will prevail.

As we said, the issue is not closed. Much thought and planning will have to be done before satisfaction can be achieved. But no matter what we do within the paper or outside of it, our sole object is the survival and betterment of THE ALBRIGHTIAN.

Believe It or Not

There is an old truism that goes "Nobody ever gets anything for nothing." There are people on this campus who show no signs of believing this simple fact.

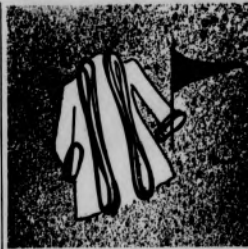

"We want the best Cue the school has ever had," they exclaim; but they themselves can't write, type, or wield a paste brush. "We want bigger and better dances," they demand; but they themselves won't part with the price of admission to the ones we have. "What we need is more school spirit," they announce; but they themselves can't budge an inch to generate an ounce of such energy.

The more they gripe, the less they work. They want to collect prizes and enjoy the prestige of position, they want lots of fun—but they want it free, if you please. They actually think they are going to get something for nothing!

Lest We Forget

A little observation in recent chapels and assemblies seems to indicate a word of reminder is in order. When we were freshmen, we were taught that when chapel is over, the people in the front rows leave first, and those in back wait until they have done so. It is a pretty good system when it is followed, but oh, brother! What a mess when we all pile out at once and the first six out hold a minor convention at the head of the steps.

To one side sophomores! Let the seniors through!

A.P.O.'s Entertain Alumni and Returnees

Several alumni of the Alpha Pi Omega fraternity were honored guests at a meeting of this organization on Monday, February 11, in the Daymen's Room. President Richard Derr presided at the meeting, at which plans for Stunt Night were discussed. Herbert Hyman and Frederick Perfect were placed in charge of the A.P.O.'s participation in this affair. The alumni portion of the meeting was held after the business was completed.

The alumni group consisted of Rev. Oscar A. Hydan, superintendent of the Eastern District of the East Pennsylvania Conference of the Evangelical Church; Charles Gruber, secretary of the Newtown Y. M. C. A.; and Elmer Knawler, prominent Muhlenberg Township business man. They discussed with the A.P.O. future plans for building a fraternity house and pledged their support in all postwar fraternity developments.

Devotions of the evening were in charge of Frederick Perfect who talked on the aspects of good collegiate life. Following the devotional part of the program, refreshments were served. James Spatz, who celebrated his birthday at this meeting, and two members who recently returned from the armed forces, Jerry Felter and George Morfogen, were honored.

Among other problems discussed were those of the increased enrollment of veterans and of increased salary for faculty members.

Members of the Board of Trustees paused to pay tribute to the 17 Albrightians who died in the service of their country. They authorized the placing of a suitable plaque on the campus in their honor.

Lions-in-the-Ranks

By JEAN HARER

One of our "correspondents" in the Pacific, Pfc. JIMMY BRAUN, came through this week with a long letter, so we'll let him take over: "Hi Everybody, here's your roving reporter, bringing you the latest news from down under. I left the States October 19 and arrived in Japan November 5. It was a very exciting trip over, as we had pretty rough water all the way. I would have enjoyed it much more if I had had a stronger stomach. Anyway, it convinced me that I make a much better soldier than sailor."

"I am living in what was formerly a Jap Technical college. We live in two-man rooms, just like the dorms back there. We have a large athletic field, gym, P.X. and theater. The college is situated in the center of what was once the city of Wakayama. I say was because there isn't much left. It is estimated that the loss in property is 52% and I believe that is understating it a lot. There are blocks and blocks that don't have more than one house still standing."

"As yet, we have had little trouble with the people. When we first came, they wouldn't even come out of their houses, but once they saw that we weren't going to hurt them, then slowly the streets started to fill up. Even then they wouldn't walk past a G. I. without bowing or saluting. Can you imagine me a PFC. being saluted? Big deal! Now, though, they are beginning to get bolder every day."

"I am in a tank outfit now. When I first came here, I was taken out every day and taught how to drive them. It was a lot of fun rather than work. I was in a line company until about a week ago. Now I am in a service company in the battalion supply office. We have to keep a record of everything that comes in or goes out of this camp."

"It is a sight to see these people with all their different kinds of dress. Their kimonos are really beautiful. They should be because they cost about seventy dollars in American money. Most of them, though, simply wrap rags around them."

Tetley-Kardos Has Appeal for Music Lovers, Creates a "Clair de Lune" Swoon Section

By JEANNE SCHLEGEL

The chapel was packed literally to the walls with students and guests two weeks ago today when Richard Tetley-Kardos appeared on the Cultural Scores program for February. Needless to say, a college audience is not always a quiet one, but on Tuesday, Mr. Tetley-Kardos held them in the proverbial state in which one "could hear a pin drop."

Though he had given a concert the night before, Mr. Tetley-Kardos played several numbers which are extremely demanding both technically and physically. He played the selections from the Beethoven Symphony Pathetique with particular ease and understanding, and the famous octaves in the bass of the Polonaise, Opus 53 by Chopin were played cleanly and with unusual speed. The Polonaise, currently very popular, brought a round of applause the like of which has not been heard in the chapel in a long time.

Mr. Tetley-Kardos was popular personally with the audience as well as musically. We have an idea that the lock of hair falling over his forehead has increased interest in music for the feminine contingent of more than one audience. To date, Albright has never had a swoon section or bobby sox brigade, but it suddenly developed one when Mr. Tetley-Kardos announced "Clair de Lune" by Debussy and "The Fire Dance" by DeFalla as his encores.

Immediately after the concert, I bucked the tide of outgoing students to the front of the chapel, hoping to get a short interview with Mr. Tetley-Kardos for the dear old The Albrightian. The gentleman had some time to spare before his train left so he kindly agreed to give me some

"I have been receiving THE ALBRIGHTIAN and enjoy very much reading about all the doings back there. I hear from Billy Miller very often. He is right outside of Tokyo, about 300 miles from here. I'd like to go to see him, but to go 300 miles on one of these Jap trains is like taking a trip around the world."

"Well, I guess I took up enough of your time for now. Give my regards to all my friends, especially the boys on the team."

Thanks for the swell letter, Jimmy. Let us hear from you again.

T/4 MARJORIE BOYER has been stationed in Washington, D. C. However, she tells us that she expects to become a civilian again in the very near future.

During his recent two-weeks furlough, HARRY HANTZES spent some time on campus. He is to report to Kearns, Utah, on the 27th and from there is to go to the South Pacific.

We hear that GENE PIERCE is still in Germany but he expects to leave sometime in March.

Pvt. DAVID KOCH is located at Ft. Bragg, N. C. Probably some of his fellow freshmen will want to write to him, so here is his address: Pvt. R. David Koch, 43014837 B 11-4 F.A.R.C.T., 2nd Platoon Fort Bragg, N. C.

Capt. CHARLES MORAVEC writes from the west coast that he expects to be discharged by the end of February. Also, Lt. Col. JAMES D. BOOK will be out soon.

In the last week or two there have been a good many visitors on campus — SEYMOUR HOROWITZ, WILLARD GRUBB, DONALD BURGER, GEORGE KOHLER, JOE BRAND, and GERRY BOWKER. All of them are out of the Service except Gerry Bowker and Willard Grubb.

Besides this, we are glad to welcome back to classes the following fellows: HARRY KNOBLAUCH, BRUCE STRAWBRIDGE, JOHN ALLEN, CARL KERN and JOHN KILLIANY.

pertinent facts of his life.

He is just as charming off the stage as on, and displays none of the temperament often associated with artists. The students of Ohio State University get plenty of chance to hear him play as he is a part time professor there. He certainly understands a college regime as could be seen when he remarked after the program that since we had a bell to catch, he would play two encores and "let it go at that."

Born in Hollywood, a small town on the West coast that is quite well known, he has always been interested in the theatre as a hobby, and gave his first concerts in the homes of movie stars. He has recently been offered the role of a pianist in a musical which is to open soon on Broadway. Some of you may have heard him on the Kraft Music Hall show on which he appeared for thirty weeks, or on the R.C.A. program on Sunday, February 10, 1946.

Mr. Tetley-Kardos can tell many stories of the humorous and unusual demands made of a concert pianist when he is on tour, and of his days when he accompanied such celebrated singers as Grace Moore, Lily Pons, and Lotte Lehman. If you think you are busy in college, Mr. Tetley-Kardos can probably go you one better. At fifteen he "soda-jerked" in his father's drug-store, attended school, composed several

Council Says:

Agnes Snyder, chairman of the chapel committee of Student Council reported at the last meeting that Kenneth Keiser, local marimbist, will be featured in the second of Council's "Little Cultural Series." Third in the series will be a lecture by John Swomley of the Friends' Service Committee of Philadelphia.

Ira Custman suggested, and Council approved, that the group ask the Administration for a trolley shelter at the Thirteenth and Exeter trolley stop. The request is being made in answer to the complaints of many students that there is no protection from the wind at that corner.

Shirley Sperans, chairman of the music night committee, reported that the musical evening will include a program by the Women's Glee Club, the Mixed Chorus, the College Orchestra, and other musical groups. Betty Burnett, chairman of the guest day committee, informed Council that the English department will present a one-act play as a part of the guest day program in the spring.

President Kenneth Good instructed Dennis Ertel, president of the Veterans' Club of Albright College, who was present at the meeting, to ask his group how much representation they wish to request in Student Council.

Absent from the last meeting of Student Council were Edward Daniels, representing the Daymen; Frederick Perfect, of the Daymen; Shirley Sperans, of the Dorm Women; Virginian Woerle, of Phi Beta Mu; Herbert Hyman, of Alpha Pi Omega; Professor Anna Smith and Professor Lewis E. Smith, of the faculty.

Mr. Tetley-Kardos expects to continue in concert and radio work. So when you tune in a pianist sometime, the music may sound very familiar.

Lions Engage Valley Forge, West Chester

On Wednesday, February 27, the Albright team will meet the West Chester State Teachers' quintet on the Chester County floor. The Lions hope to chalk up another victory against a West Chester team which they have already beaten once.

The Rams' coach, Glenn Killinger, will have even more worries now that the Red and White have fitted several vets into their smooth-working team. However, the Teachers have had time to reorganize and have such hot shooters as Dave Kirk and Sammy Drizin to vie with Russ Guensch, Hops Guldin, and Lee Cappel.

With a good record of wins, West Chester will be trying to reverse the score on their home floor, but the Lions are a fighting team—so look out, West Chester!

On March 2, the Albright Lions will again take up arms against Valley Forge General Hospital on the Northwest floor.

Early in the season the Albright quintet suffered a 58-35 setback at the hands of these war veterans. The game was played at the hospital where Valley Forge had the advantage of a familiar court. The Valley Forge quintet, composed of veteran college players recuperating at the hospital, should offer tough competition for the Lions for the last home game.

The game will finish the season for Valley Forge, but is the next to last for Albright who will travel to Elizabethtown on March 5th.

FEMME SPORTS

On February 19, the Muhlenberg High girls' team nudged the girls' freshmen team of Albright to the tune of 15-14 on the Muhlenberg home court.

Muhlenberg had a wild first quarter and racked up ten markers, only to be held scoreless the second quarter. The luckless Albright sextet found themselves trailing 10-0 at the half, but allowed only five markers in the second half. In the second half the Albright forwards began to click. Buckets rolled in 10-5, 12-9, 14-12, 15-14, but father time was against the Albright lassies and the Red and White went down in defeat 15-14.

Girls Down St. John's

Out to improve on the 26-26 tie handed up by the local St. John's team in a recent previous encounter, the Albright femme cagers nosed out a 23-20 decision at Northeast on Tuesday evening, February 19. Albright maintained a lead on their hostesses throughout, until the last quarter when the count stood at 20-20. A free throw and last quarter field goal checked the victory for the Red and White. Although the Lionesses gave St. John's ample scoring opportunity on fouls, only seven out of 19 were successfully converted, all seven to the credit of Betty Smith, the St. John's scoring ace.

Recently The Albrightian received a letter from the New York Herald Tribune concerning a coming East-West basketball game to be held in Madison Square Garden on March 30. The Tribune, through the cooperation of the college students throughout the country, is selecting the players to represent the East and the West teams in this contest.

The proceeds from the above affair will go toward a fund to give underprivileged children from New York a short county vacation period during the summer and at Christmas time. This basketball event, it is pointed out is to be the counterpart of a similar football game which is traditionally held in the fall of the year.

Albright College students are requested to help by entering their choices for the East and West teams. Those interested and wishing further details should see the Sports Editor. Incidentally those getting the highest percentages in the selections will be given due credit in the Tribune.

Under an ingenious plan set up by Coach Neal O. Harris and the Fraternity Athletic Council there will be interfrat basketball again this semester. Under the new plan all the people who are not on any frat teams and who do wish to get Phys Ed credit by playing basketball can play from 7 till 8 on Wednesday with the frat teams playing from 8 to 10.

Last Wednesday the results weren't too good with only two frats showing up. We think, however, after the new system has been better publicized the league will receive more attention from the fraternity men.

Zetas Victorious; Dorm Team Wins

Patrician Leads Attack; Gross Paces Dorm Men

By DICK MAJOR

A Zeta combine strengthened by a returned veterans handed the APO's a 54-34 jolt on the Thirteenth and Union floor Wednesday night. Paced by Johnny Patrician, who dunked eight field goals from his pivot slot, the Zetas went ahead in the first period and never yielded their lead. Bob Buxton's and Red Lamberson's taking them from the backboard and racking up 13 and 11 points besides helped handcuff the APO club. Point honors for the losers were shared by Jack Shafer and Butch Harting with four goals apiece.

The second game saw a hastily thrown together dorm team outlast a four-fifths vet "pick-up" Daymen five. The old men were slow starting but held their own pretty well until a disastrous 12-0 fourth period. Don Gross dropped them from all angles to total 26 markers for the dorm men, while "Iron Man" Savidge tallied 14 in his second game of the evening.

Lions Get 9th; Hit .500 Fouls Win, Walters High

The Albright Lions again defeated the LaSalle Explorers, 67-61, in a return match played at Northwest. Previously the Red and White had defeated LaSalle at Philadelphia, 63-59.

After the score was tied at 1-1, Mort Witman's foul permanently gave the lead to the Lions. The Frosh quickly had the score up to 15-9, and after Coach Harris sent in the servicemen, the score was run up to 23-10. The half ended with Hops Guldin sinking three straight set shots, to make the score 32-22, Albright.

In the second half LaSalle began to rally, but midway through the half the Lions still held a ten-point lead. However, the Explorers scored nine straight points, shaving Albright's lead to 51-49 with eight minutes to go. For the next five minutes the game was nip and tuck, as LaSalle twice again came within two points of tying, but buckets by Witman, Cappel, Guensch and Guldin kept Albright ahead. Foul shots won the game, as the Lions canned 23 out of 31 tries, for LaSalle had five more field goals than Albright.

Wildcats Shade Albright Quintet

On Wednesday, February 20, Villanova nosed out the Albright Lions 54-53 at Villanova College in Philadelphia. A substitute, Norman Kline, dropped the winning Villanova goal in the last 30 seconds.

The first quarter was all Albright with Russ Guensch sinking two deuces and one foul. Joe Brehmer paced the Wildcats with two picture goals to make the score at the end of the period Albright 11, Villanova 9.

In the second quarter the Wildcats really went wild. The Catholic schools' leading scorer Joe Lord and guard Bob McDonnell along with Brehmer had six points apiece. Hops Guldin, Lee Cappel, Gene Shollenberger, and Guensch contributed to the Lion's cause. At half time, the score read Albright 19, Villanova 32.

In the third quarter, the Lions came through as Guensch shone by sinking 4 consecutive buckets. Jim Reylitz topped the Wildcats in this stanza with five points. The score at the end of the third quarter was Albright 36, Villanova 45.

A thrill packed last quarter began with Bill Emerich swishing in a long shot. Brehmer scored followed by a corner set shot and foul by Lillis. Cappel then sank a pivot shot. Reylitz scored another bucket followed promptly by a score by Guldin. With three minutes to play the score was 45-50 Villanova. Henry Burr made a foul, and Red Glickman tallied a long shot. Guensch made a desperation heave for two more. Joe Lord converted a foul, followed by another Glickman goal. Score now 51-52 Villanova. Guensch then missed an important foul shot, but Whitman put the Lions out in front with a follow up shot which drove the crowd into a frenzy. Kline's heart-breaker in the last 30 seconds clinched the game for Villanova.
