Hewett on the "Constitution", Price on "Patriotism" and Henninger on "Illiteracy"

PROF. MOYER WAS SPECIAL SPEAKER ON WEDNESDAY

ner, Helm and Kinsinger, and Recital By Miss Sage Were Features of Programs.

Education Week, Nov. 17 to 21, was observed by the College in a most fitting and delightful way.

On Monday, Constitution Day, Mr.
Clyde Hewitt spoke on "The Excellency of Our Constitution". He pointed out the high moral principles, its stability, progressivism and democracy which impressed one upon reading it. On that same morning Mr.
Glenn Raffensperger sang "Songs My Mother Taught Me."

Tuesday was Patriotism Day. Mr.
Paul Price spoke on "Patriotism in Education". In this talk he told how patriotism is a challenge for all to meet tests of loyalty and sacrifice, and not only a salute or cheer for the flag which is passing. It is something unseen that will meet that challenge. Following this Miss Lois Helm sang pleasingly "A Persian Serenade".

Teacher and School Day was Wednesday's topic, and Professor Moyer, Assistant Superintendent of Lebanon County Schools, gave an address, "Responsibility of the College in Education". He contrasted the college of today with that of several generations ago, showing the need of specialization in order to become efficient in any chosen profession. He also stressed the importance of having a love for service in the field of ones chosen work. "Education", he said, "is the hope of America".
Miss Violet Kinsinger sang "Prince Charming" in a delightful manner.

Illiteracy Day came Thursday. Mr.
Arthur Henninger spoke on "Illiteracy". He said that the United States, in comparison with other countries, ranks low in its percentage of illiterates. Nevertheless, it needs its organizations which purpose to remedy illiteracy by employing teachers to teach foreigners not only our language, but also to set forth high ideals, and a desire to attain the high principles of the American people. In so doing social co-

KAPPA UPSILON PHI HOLDS AUTUMN PARTY

Banquet at Hotel Weimer And Then Attend Theatre—Several Alumni Enjoy Evening

On Saturday, November 22, after the Lebanon Valley-Albright game, the men of the Kappa fraternity with their lady friends had a dinner at the Hotel Wiemer. Everyone, including the five men of the squad represented, were hungry and the chicken and waffle dinner with all the other delicacies that went with it tasted good. In spite of the fact that the final score of the game was in L. V. C.'s favor, the spirits of those present were none the less cheerful. After the meal toastmaster Steltz called on Dr. Bowman, and the alumni present, Willard Mohn, Fred Bower, Frances Wolfersberger, Ruth Thiele and Grace Otto to respond to toasts. Each of the short talks intimated that the alumni are missing their school days. As usual the vocal solo by Miss Wolfersberger and the piano solo by Miss Thiele were delightful. An unusual treat was a selection from "Hoby" Heller.
Dr. and Mrs. Bowman chatted the

THEMISIANS DEFEAT EXCELSIORS IN DEBATE

Take Inter-Society Contest From Excelsiors On Question Concerning Recognition of Russia

WILL MEET NEO TEAM DEC. 12

On Friday evening, Nov. 14, in the College chapel the preliminary Inter-Society Debate was held. The Literary Societies represented were the Themisians and the Excelsiors.
The question was, Resolved: That the United States should recognize the present Russian government.

The representatives of the Themis-ian Society, who upheld the affirmative side of the question, were Misses Grace Snyder, Fern Stanford, Phyllis Bicher, Jessie Statler, alternate.
The Themisian team defended their argument by the following points: first, the United States owes it to herself to recognize the present Russian government; second, the Russian government is worthy of recognition by the United States; third, the relation of the United States to world affairs demands her recognition of Russia.

Messrs. Wilkes, Benfer, Grumbling, Kelly, alternate supported the negative side of the argument. They maintained that the United States should not recognize the Russian government because, first, the present Russian government is founded on Marx's socialistic principles; second, Russia has no moral code; third, Russia aims at the destruction of the present government of the

69TH ANNIVERSARY OF EXCELSIORS HELD

Short Anniversary Program Held In College Chapel—History of Society Proves Interesting

The Sixty-Ninth Anniversary of the Excelsior Literary Society was held in the College chapel, Nov. 21, at 8 P. M.

During the Processional March taking by Mr. Charles Lehman, those taking part marched to their respective places on the stage. After the march, Dr. Fluck offered the Invocation.

Mr. Glenn Raffensperger, president of the Excelsior Society, extended a welcome to those present. Mr.
Harry Wilhelm, former Excelsior and now associated with the "Russian Cathedral Sextette", played Chopin's "Polonaise in A flat" as a piano solo. This selection played with perfect technique and beautiful expression was followed with "Im-prompts" by Litz.

Mr. William Kelly, vice president, presented the History of the Excelsior Literary Society, showing the marked improvement in its development after sixty-nine years of standing.

A beautiful solo, "The Unknown Soldier", was sung with deep feeling by Mr. Glenn Raffensperger. As an encore he sang our latest popular song, "What Will We Do To Lebanon Valley".

The Wise Cracks were splendidly presented in a buff-bang manner by Mr. Ruel Dubbs.

The Society Oration was very well delivered by Mr. Kenneth Benfer.
For he who would win and attain to the highest and best from life

ALL-COLLEGE DINNER

Plan To Attend And Make The Albright Table A Large One

Requests have come from officers of the Pennsylvania State Educational Association to have Albright College participate in the All-College dinner at Erie, Pa., during the sessions of the Association, Dec. 29 to 31. The dinner is scheduled for Tuesday, Dec. 30, 6 P. M.

A year ago the Albright table attracted considerable attention, and the occasion was very enjoyable.
President Bowman desires that alumi and former students and friends of Albright who can be at the banquet this year, send him their names at an early date in order that arrangements may be made for the Albright group. A fine turn-out is expected. There will be several persons from the College itself, including President and Mrs. Bowman.

PERSONALS

Misses Helen Walbert, of Ursinus, Dorothy Buckwalter of Temple, Louise Basler, Reba Keepert, Ethel Heinze, Mr. Paul Kelly and Miss Eleanor Barnhart were visitors at the College over the week end of Nov.
16th.

RED AND WHITE LOSES FINAL GAME TO LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE, 21-6

'27 AND '28 BATTLE TO A SCORELESS TIE

Hard-Fought Class Football Game Ends With Neither Side Able to Get Farther Than 10-Yard Line

The annual Soph. vs. Frosh. football game was held on the Albright field, Monday, November 24 and resulted in a scoreless tie, the first in several years. The game was one of the hardest fought class games ever played here.

The Sophomore team although considerably outweighing the Freshman team could not gain consistently on the line. The game started as though it would be a walk away for the Sophs. They carried the ball from the 30 yard line to their own 20 yard line and were then stopped.
From then on, the game was a see saw, with neither team getting any decided advantage. With only a few minutes to go the Frosh opened up with an aerial attack but were repulsed by the Sophs.

Zellers and Harris were the individual stars for the Sophs while Brown and Mock made all of the gains for the Freshmen.

Line up:

BIG PEP MEETING HELD B-4 L. V. GAME

New Songs Learned and Sung, Hugh Bonfire Enjoyed, and Peppy Talks Given—Snake Dance Thru Town

Thursday evening, Nov. 22, Albright's pep was demonstrated in a two-part pep meeting in preparation for the L. V. C. game. During the supper hour two new songs were learned and sung by the students and a few yell were given. At 8:30 P.
M. all gathered on the athletic field for a huge bonfire. Such a heap of boxes piled toward the sky, and there, perched on the top, was L. V. C.'s effigy ready to go up in smoke.

The students were quiet and expectant when the football men, each taking a torch, turned the mass of dark, ugly boxes into a leaping flame.
According to "Ben", the students were to keep the flame of their spirit and pep burning to the end, whether in defeat or victory; and not leave it die out like the burned-out embers of the fire.

The speakers of the occasion were Miss Helm, Messrs. Mahaffey, Garrett, Fassnacht, Dubbs, Newton Miller and Coach Benfer. All of these assured the team of full hearty backing. Cheers were also given and a snappy new one was initiated by Steltz.

After joining hands around the goal post in a "personal touch" circle and singing the Alma Mater, the student body joined in a snake dance over town. This included cheers at various faculty homes. Thus ended this year's greatest pep celebration.

DRAPERY FOR MOHN HALL

The Y. W. C. A. has purchased white drapery for the new reception room of Mohn Hall. The new addition has made a great improvement in taking away the bareness of the large room. It is the purpose of the Themisian Society to add other necessary furnishings to make the room cozy and homelike.

After Leading Blue and White of Lebanon Valley For First Half Albright Loses Out

TEAM OUTCLASSED RIVALS
BY 6-0 SCORE IN FIRST HALF

Lack of Reserve Material Responsible For Albright Defeat—Team Made More First Downs But Not Enough Touchdowns—Play By Play Account

At Lebanon amid the beautiful mountain regions of Pennsylvania two ancient rivals renewed football relations. Six years have flown since Albright and Lebanon Valley met in conflict on the gridiron. This game was quite an occasion in this region.
Drab, foreboding skies, a wet, slippery field and chilly rain could not take any color away from the occasion nor the edge off of the intensity of the struggle.

Albright and Lebanon Valley, ancient athletic rivals, even though they hadn't clashed in football conflict for several seasons, plunged into the grapple with all the traditional athletic courage of the two institutions.

With the students of both colleges, their hands and their cheer leaders, it was quite a glamorous affair, and the high class of football played, as well as the fighting quality of the players, served a full afternoon of thrill. The fire and dash of Coach Benfer's charges was conspicuous in the first half when they scored their only touchdown, and held the better hand in the argument. Even in the second half Albright showed the same pep and fight as in the first half, but as reinforcements came to the aid of Lebanon Valley and none to support the fatigued Albright warriors, the Red and White fighters began to lose ground. In the first half Albright broke up all the forward passes attempted, intercepting three and knocking down two others. Two passes were intercepted by Griggs and one by Holvey, the remaining two were either knocked down or grounded. The forward passes attempted by Albright in the first half netted brilliant results; two resulted in gains of eight yards each, only one failed and the other produced an eighteen yard run and a touchdown.

In the second half the beginning of the end came when Musser leaped into the air and pulled down a pass hurled by Griggs. Two rapid fire

VARSITY DEBATING SQUAD HARD AT WORK

Are Preparing To Debate Supreme Court Question—Manager Hewett Arranging Schedule

The Varsity Debating Team has begun its work of securing material on the question, Resolved, that Congress of United States shall have power by a two-thirds vote to declare effective any law which has been declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of United States. The squad meets weekly to discuss and present material on the subject.

Recently a ballot was taken giving each man the choice of the side on which he would prefer to debate.
A number of shifts will be necessary in the lining up of the two teams.

Manager of Debate, Clyde Hewitt has completed arrangements for an excellent debating schedule, and the outlook for an active season is very bright. The following is a partial debating schedule: Muhlenburg, Jan.
16; Juniata, Feb. 13th. Debates have also been arranged with Elizabethown College and F. & M., but up until this time the dates have not been definitely set. A triangular

YE OLD TIME SPIRIT

The old time College spirit is back. There is a new attitude of mind on the part of the students, and a new enthusiasm for school activities. One needs but to review the school spirit at the beginning of the year, to draw the contrast of the spirit then and the spirit now. Two months ago there was little or no spirit around the College. The Old Albright Pep was missing. Indifference characterized the attitude of the majority of the students. A gloomy atmosphere prevailed. There was a fatalistic air about the Campus. The rooms of the dormitories ceased to give forth their chatter and clamor and the halls of Old Main were unusually quiet.

But that is all passed now, for a new spirit has been developed and born. New vitality is coursing through the veins of our school life. The Albright Pep has returned. Albright Campus is teeming and overflowing with this new life. The halls of both dorms are echoing the added enthusiasm. Hail to the new Albright spirit! Welcome enthusiasm! Welcome Pep!

No one will deny that it took the L. V. C. game to make us contented and happy at Albright. We are running in high gear now, in all phases, in all departments, in all activities. The Albright machine is moving. We are all set for rendering loyal support to the on-coming basket-ball season.

We have the spirit that has made Albright famous in the past, that spirit that makes beat faster the hearts of all good, and true sons and daughters of Albright. We have the spirit that makes us love Albright, her campus, her ideals, her sentiments, her traditions. This spirit is a spirit that makes a student body offer everything in support of a team. We have the spirit that makes men willing to do anything for a Coach and an Alma Mater. We have the spirit that makes brave and reserved men and women weep at a football game. We have the spirit that makes us strong and courageous in the face of odds and defeat. We have a spirit that makes us good losers. We have now acquired the spirit that makes for real men and women. We have Ye Old Time Spirit. "Only those who have tasted of these waters can tell of the sweetness."

A COLLEGE EDUCATION

Some one has said that it doesn't take so long to complete a college education in this day as it did formerly. The remark was rightly intended as a compliment to our modern educational methods.

It has not been so many years ago that the people looked upon a college education as an end rather than a means. Not until very recent years have people begun to realize that more is to be expected of a college graduate than of he who has not that opportunity. We have come to realize that the person who has a college education has resumed a greater responsibility instead of being granted a greater privilege.

The college graduate is looked upon as being fitted for greater service and efficiency than the one who has not had his opportunities. He has or should have better tools with which to work than the non-college graduate. The world expects more of the man with good tools than of him who has poor tools.

In the address given by Prof. Moyer during our Educational Week program, we learned that the college graduate of today must serve instead of being served. This is true in whatever profession we enter. So as we go out from college let us make "Service" our keyword.

Campus Chatter

So? Are all of us truly back again now that Thanksgiving is over? Well, then, it must be because the turkey is all eaten—and the filling, and cranberry sauce, and mince pie. All good things must come to an end, however, in order to make way for the beginning of the next good thing. That good thing for us just now is three weeks of busy business before Christmas vacation starts. And the parrot will not be contradicted. There is just as much fun, in being completely busy as there is in any holiday. Then besides at the end there is the sense of having accomplished something, which is, in reality the spring of joy in all holidays. So while we're all working hard, all we need to do is believe that we are building a good time for Christmas, and we won't feel in the least like the ordinary "oppressed Christmas martyr."

But let's see. Where did we leave off before we went home. Now—where is our memory? Confusion—hustle and bustle—signs, posters, alumni—pep-meetings. Steltz,—oh, for sure, the football team. Well say, now that we've recalled, wasn't it great, though, Albright? Wasn't it thrilling to march on to that old field, and didn't our fellows run in there like masters of their art? And wasn't it some game? The score? Oh, but a little thing like that—who cares about a score. It was some game.

We'll say, yes sir, students, and that it was a fitting game with which to end the season. Our battling heroes now, are fully entitled to the few weeks of rest before the basket-ball season gets under way. They've earned well their morning sleep, their cake and candy and smokes. We feel, truly, that no reward is too great for those who have so gallantly upheld our standards. The Parrot begs to salute you, O you warriors of the bracing autumn tide.

You have fought, you football men. You have gained our honor and esteem, and now for a few weeks, you enjoy also our reverent worship. But time goes on, always, and soon the heroes of the cage will seem to be displacing you in our minds. So be it, for must they not be feted just as you? And can we do justice to two squads at once? But remember, that even if the memory of this year's season drops forever from the consciousness of all it's witnesses, yet that which this same season has attained for Albright will never disappear, for it is an accomplished work, and the fact will always remain that Albright had one of the best football seasons of her life in the year 1924.

But besides the big game over the "Lebanon Valley week-end," Albright had also "the big talk." So much so that it is beyond the capacity of Parrot to reproduce it. The alumni, swelling with their new knowledge of life and its ways, were eager to impart friendly advice to us, the ignorant embryos. But embryos, having the capacity within themselves for growth, are swelling with confidence, if not with knowledge. And so, much that was said was over the parrot's head, just as it was probably out of the mental range of many normal adults. But nevertheless it was interesting, and very animated, and full of possibilities. Hail to you alumni, for our very jousts with you are exciting and stimulating, and just as much fun as the big game that brought you here.

And now let the reindeer and jingle bells enter, attended by red and green holly, bells, and Christmas carols. For the time of joy unrestrained is approaching. The Parrot begs to be excused. There are those fifty or more greeting cards to be organized and dispatched; and for the dear relatives, a worthy assemblage of gifts to be collected. See that your cigarette is not too hot, everybody, and then let 'er go. We're on the way to Christmas.

Eccentrix

Speaking of the Soph-Frosh game, the question is asked, "Who Won the Moral Victory?"

The trouble with owning a grouchy look is, you seldom receive a pleasant one in return. Smile, even tho the breaks are against you, and remember that it takes 66 muscles to frown, and only 16 to smile.

A mark the college students value is .300 or more in the season's batting averages.

The boys think they ought to conserve the water by observing bathless Saturday nights, especially when there is no hot water.

The administration should include among the room furnishings, alarm clocks, so that the Profs. would not need to lecture to empty seats.

Y. W. BAZAAR POSTPONED

Due to the fact that Dr. Davis' store-room will not be vacated in time for the holding of the Y. W. bazaar on the date set, the bazaar will be postponed until Friday and Saturday, December 12th and 13th.

: Who's Who At Albright :

FRANK M. EVERETT

At the beginning of last year a fine looking six-footer came to us from State College. He will graduate this year, but before he goes let us see what kind of a chap he is.

He is a football player of much ability, and in addition to playing tackle on the varsity squad, he can punt like a veteran. He also plays basket-ball and is a player of varsity calibre. Who is he? Why, none other than the quiet, reserved Mr. Frank Everett. Albright acclaims Everett to be a master in the art of sports, and from his fine physique, one would say he is admirably adapted for that art.

As for Everett, the student, well—this has been said of him. He considers classes and studies to be only the incidentals of college life.

However, we must not make you think that only sports are not incidentals to Frank. Indeed, a co-ed, Madeline, is more than an incidental to this fellow. He spends many hours with her, his most sincere pal.

SAMUEL J. MEHAFFIE

Mehaffie hails from the well-known town of Harrisburg, and has been an Albright student since his Prep days. In the activities of the school, he has always taken an active part. He has made his mark in the realm of sports, having played Varsity football, class basketball, and tennis, the latter most proficiently.

Sam, as our friend is usually called, can be depended upon in many things. He is especially in demand when the time for the mail is at hand. Of course, he is popular for this reason. It can really be said of him, that his spirit is of the right kind. He is a member of the "far famed fourth floor five", whose apartments occupy the entire floor.

We predict for this energetic and hard working young man a successful career in whatever sphere of service he engages.

passes resulted in the first tally of the game for Lebanon Valley. Then the spirits of Albright began to fall and those of Lebanon Valley to rise. In an exchange of punts Albright was pushed back to its 2 yard line. Here Gross attempted to punt out of danger, but Wueschinski broke through and caught the ball as it left the toe of Gross and fell upon it, thus registering another touchdown. The last touchdown of the game came in the final period when Gilbert heaved a pass at Fox who dashed 30 yards for the score.

It is difficult to designate any one man as the individual star of that game. However, Griggs forward passing was an outstanding feature as well as his line plunging and that of Hollenbaugh and Holvey and the broken field running of Gasull. The line led by Captain Smith presented a stone wall to Lebanon Valley's offense.

tacts and national fusion will be possible and the "homeland" ideas of the foreigners left in the background. The music of the morning was an Italian song "Lutina Conzoni," sung beautifully by Miss Josephine Strassner.

On Friday Coach Benfer spoke on the necessity of "Physical Education". Late war proved this need when it was discovered that one third of the young men drafted were unfit for active service. In all education physical fitness is a necessary foundation, for without a healthy body one can have no healthy mind. A prescription for attaining physical perfection says, "Eat right, breathe right, think right, exercise right and you will be right physically, mentally and morally."

The success of Education Week was due largely to the efforts of Newton Miller, who headed the Educational Week Program Committee.

there is only one path, Service. Service is the keynote to success and happiness. Then, too, just as the traveller, even though he was tempted by many attractions, never turned from following the call "Excelsior", so we should grasp our white banner of Service and serve for others and for the supreme God.

The singing of the Alma Mater closed this splendid program.

OUR FACULTY

JOSEPHINE STRASSNER

Small, dark, chic, with laughing eyes—that is our Voice Instructor, Miss Josephine Strassner. The latter bit of information is necessary, otherwise Miss Strassner might easily be mistaken for one of the co-eds—not from any lack of dignity, but because she really exemplifies "Comradship" while she is among us. Why, she even attends our feeds, helps in the general fun, and enters into our lively spirits as if she were one of us.

As Voice Instructor, Miss Strassner has earned the praise of all her pupils, and it's no wonder. Say, have you heard her sing? You've missed something real if you have not. One can readily understand the attitude of her pupils toward her when once you've watched and heard her sing. And it's no wonder people say that they could sing anything for her.

Miss Strassner is from the "Blue Grass State", and that accounts for her interesting southern accent and her expressions such as "You all" and "I reckon". She is a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music, and her voice has been broadcast a number of times. To her, all the students say heartily, "We love you."

—Honesty is a good policy whether you are watched or not.

United States, and to replace it by a communistic government.

Great interest was displayed on the part of the audience. The judges decided two to one in favor of the affirmative. However, each team represented its Society very well.

Through the Themisians victory they will debate the Neocosmians for the Mudge Cup. The Neocosmian Society will be represented by Messrs. Hewitt, Henninger, Dale Gramley, Clarence Miller, alternate.

Artificial lightning was first publicly demonstrated on June 5, 1923, in the laboratory of the General Electric Company at Pittsfield, Mass., when a two-million-volt spark crashed into this miniature village.

What's the use of artificial lightning?

It is mainly experimental, aiding General Electric scientists to solve high power transmission problems. Many such experiments yield no immediate return.

But in the long run this work is practical and important. It is part of the study which must go on unceasingly if this powerful force, Electricity, is to be fully tamed and enlisted in your service.

Experiments like these are particularly thrilling and important to young men and women, who will live in an age when electricity will perform most of life's hardest tasks. Know what the research laboratories of the General Electric Company are doing; they are a telescope through which you can see the future!

If you are interested to learn more about what electricity is doing, write for Reprint No. AR391 containing a complete set of these advertisements.
