Dr. Heck Speaks To Chapel Groups

On Tuesday and Wednesday, the chapel speaker was the Rev. Dr. J. Arthur Heck, general secretary of Christian Education of the Evangelical Church.

"You and I, as religious persons, find ourselves face to face with several issues," he said. "There is Humanism, the new paganism, which is so attractive and strong. There is the trend in Economic Security, which promises a new world free from dangers and worries. There is Nationalism, which craves men to die for their country and not God. All of these are combating Christianity and saying: 'Your way takes too long; the world cannot wait.'"

"Christianity cannot argue its way in, and never could. Yet experience is crushing with the disillusionment which follows these philosophies. Man is still a cosmic being. His basic needs can only be satisfied by religion. Let us not forget that is our search, and let us not be ashamed by it."

Dr. Heck had some private interviews with interested students while on the campus. During the afternoon, he attended a district meeting in Harrisburg. Upper-classmen will remember Dr. Heck as the father of Marion Heck, who graduated from Albright in 1938.

The speakers in the Sunday Bible Class for the next several Sundays are expressing themselves on "What Jesus Means to Me." Lewis Brink two weeks ago, and Arthur McKay last week, opened the series. This Sunday George Bingamen will speak, with Ruth Hand as leader. In listening to George, it may make his statements clearer to know his background: A senior, member of St. Stephen's Reformed Church, a pre-ministerial student and president of the Kappa Tau Chi, interested in philosophy and ethics. For the next two Sundays the organist will play numbers from Bach's cantata, "Sleepers, Wake!"

The Kappa Tau Chi fraternity met last Monday evening with the expectation of hearing Dr. Morris Elifer of St. Stephen's Reformed Church discuss "Christian Worship," but learned with disappointment.

A. P. O.'s Plan Freshman Smoker

The A. P. O. Fraternity attended the Calvary Evangelical Church in Mohnton, last Sunday evening to hear a sermon delivered by a fraternity alumnus, the Reverend Oscar Hyden.

The Social Committee set a date for the A. P. O. Freshman Smoker which will be held Monday, February 5th in the Social Room of the fraternity.

The Albrightian joins the students and faculty in deepest sympathy for William Bottonari on the recent death of his father.

Appreciative Audience Enjoys Mid-Winter Music Program

A small, but enthusiastic, audience heard the music department of Albright College present its annual mid-winter program in the Dining Hall, last evening.

The delightful and interesting musicale included selections by the Women's Glee Club, Men's Glee Club, Combined Chorus, and Symphony Orchestra. Prof. John H. Duddy, who was in charge of the program, directed the vocal groups. Mr. Hans Nix conducted the orchestra.

The highlight of the performance was 14-year-old Eric Ettelt's rendition of the "Andante" from the "Concerto in E Minor" for violin by Mendelssohn. Miss Ettelt, a pupil of Mr. Nix, showed exceptional mastery of violin technique.

Miss Jane Redcay and Herbert Quinter, guest soloists, played Gould's "Bolero Moderne", for two pianos. Later, Miss Redcay played a novelty piano composition entitled

"The Clock and The Dresden Figures" by Ketelbey. She was accompanied by the orchestra. The sound effects, including a clock, glockenspiel, gong, and rattle, were ably demonstrated by the two members of the orchestra's percussion section.

The program opened with the orchestra playing the overture, "The Bridal Rose" by C. Lavalley; and the Men's Glee Club singing Lvoosky's "Hospodi Pomiloi" and a modern arrangement of Foster's "Jeanie with the Light Brown Hair" by Fred Waring.

Following the solos, the Women's Glee Club sang "Tales from The Vienna Woods" and the "Spinning Chorus." The Combined Chorus sang the choral from "Sleepers Awake" by Bach and Closkey's "The Musical Trust." The orchestra concluded with Johann Strauss' "The Beautiful Danube" and a march by Sousa.

Zetas Hold Open House For Frosh

On Monday, January 15, the Zetas held open house for the freshmen and prospective members. There was a large turnout; in fact the place was jammed. Each one present was given a tag with his name on it, so everyone had an easy time getting acquainted. Professor Buckwalter showed a number of films which he took in Vienna and at the Olympic games in Germany in 1936. Refreshments were served.

Joe Laucks was seen passing out his favorite brands of cigars, "el ropo's" and "la stinka's."

After two cups of cidar, Rusbosin had that far away look in his eyes. The free cigarettes disappeared with the speed of Superman.

"Tough luck" Shugard received another crushing blow when his radio was dropped on the cement floor. Strangely enough, the radio still plays.

President Ray Thorpe was all smiles as he greeted the visitors.

Memming Discusses Pa. German Pow Wow Doctors In Chapel

Dr. Memming gave a short talk in chapel on Monday on one of the aspects of Pennsylvania German life in Berks County. Using his own experiences as illustrations, he discussed the pow-wow doctors and their methods.

Dividing them into three classes: those who will not talk about their work, those who speak very glibly on the subject, and those who commercialize their knowledge, he gave examples of each type and quoted a few of their chants. One of the points of interest he brought out was that three or nine is considered a magical number and, in order to be cured, a patient must usually have treatments in multiples of those numbers.

Metcalf Lectures On Art of Make-Up

Hedgerow Actor Speaks Here

On Wednesday evening, another representative of the Hedgerow Theatre appeared on the campus in the person of David Metcalf who delivered a lecture-demonstration on make-up in the college chapel.

Mr. Metcalf's part in the program was preceded by a brief business meeting of the Domino Club, during which the group discussed plans for the forthcoming week-end in New York and a possible field trip in the spring.

Mr. Metcalf, who looked decidedly different from his usual appearance in heavy stage make-up, asked for two men and two women volunteers to serve as models. Selecting people of widely-differing features, he directed the appreciation of a juvenile make-up, an old man, an aging actress, and an old woman. As he worked, he explained to the audience the reasons for the application of various types of make-up. The audience was free to ask him any questions it liked during "breathing spells." The young actor tried the effect of the make-ups he had produced under various types of lighting. He explained that it is usually best to try to get the most real effect of make-up from the middle of the theatre, since it is impossible to have enough make-up to be effective in the last row without making it seem like "a paint job" to the people in the first rows.

Mock Addresses Philosophy Club

The Philosophy Club was entertained Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Hunter, 1211 Linden street. The speaker of the evening was Dr. Charles Mock of the School of Theology.

Dr. Mock continued the general discussion on personality with a message on "Personality in Relation to Theology." The idea he emphasized particularly was that the great purpose of the universe is the production and development of persons. Informal discussion followed the address, and refreshments were served by the hostess. Rollin Reiner, Paul Ackert, and George Eppheimer are the new members of the organization.

Recently the Philosophy Club purchased the following books for the College Library: The Searching Mind of Greece; Reality, by Paul Weiss, and When, Whither, Why, by A. Goskel.

These books have been catalogued and are ready for distribution.

Registration Day On Wednesday

There will be no classes on Wednesday, January 24th. The entire day will be given over to Registration for the second semester.

All students are expected to complete their registration on this day. Professors will be in their classrooms from 9:30 to 11:30 and from 2:00 to 3:00 to advise students and approve schedules.

Students who have curriculum difficulties should consult their advisers before registration. Likewise, students who wish to consult the Dean or the Registrar should make arrangements for a conference before the 24th.

A Treasurer's receipt will not be needed to register on registration day but all financial arrangements will have to be made and a receipt from the Treasurer's office secured before a student will be eligible to begin class work in the second semester.

All students are urged to complete their arrangements and secure their class cards properly approved and ready for the professors' signature before Monday, February 5th, to avoid confusion in the office and to make it unnecessary for the professors to record "cuts" against the student who fails to present his class card for signature.

For schedule changes and special announcements, consult the official bulletin board in the main hall of the Administration Building.

Frosh Commission Sponsors Party

A delightful Big and Little Sister party was held in the Y room of Selywn Hall. It was sponsored by the Frosh Commission under the direction of Thelma Rebbert. Songs, games, and refreshments were enjoyed.

Remember, tomorrow is your last day to pay your $3.50 deposit to Robert Work or Arthur McKay for the New York week-end, February 23 to 25.

The Snooper

By ANNE ONYMOUS

Since no new romances seem to be budding on our campus, we'd like to suggest the revival of a few old ones:

Betty and Jay—because they'd like it that way.

Jimmy and Vince—because they haven't been the same since.

Peg and Wayne—just because.

Wanted: More college men as true as Cockey.

Looks as though absence made Herb's heart grow fonder of that certain junior.

Marjorie Frundt's frat pin is very pretty, isn't it?

Why does Joe Gillis read his French in such a low voice? (Hint to Miss Garlach).

When Phyllis "donned" her cap for this catch, she really landed a good one.

Ben Haus would like a date with a certain girl named Eleanore. (Courtesy of our date bureau).

Lehigh won Betty's heart and hand—by the way, take a look at her left hand sometime!

With their purpose achieved, the phone calls from the dorm have ceased. How about it, Edna?

We need some heavier chairs and tables in the library so that Bob Work can't walk off with them whenever there is a play.

Mim isn't going around singing, "Oh, Johnny," nearly so much anymore.

Just what did that prof mean when he said that the "bar" is becoming too crowded today?—Pardon us, it refers to lawyers!

The Zetas are looking for a new line—their old one seems to be losing its appeal.

The dining hall has taken on a new interest for Jimmy Snyder—especially after dinner. We're so glad that he's in a better humor and isn't seeing "red" anymore!

We dedicate "Scatterbrain" to all you people who let your semester's work pile up until now.

Woody seems to be getting places with Marian now.

Advice to love-lorn girls—Don't forget that this is leap year!

Now that Blondie and Dagwood are around, the library office seems like home, sweet home.

A bid to the Polar Bear Club for those hardy souls who think that Ray Sharpe's car parked in the driveway is an ideal place to be alone these winter evenings.

After hearing that your career affects your chance of happiness in marriage, Alan's awfully glad he chose his (career, we mean) wisely!

To all interested inquirers: those bruises for the sake of dramatic art are doing nicely, thank you!

Albright Dribblers Out To Avenge West Chester 56-42 Defeat Tomorrow

SPORT SHOTS

By CARL MOGEL

Charlie Gorden released the official home football attendance with disappointed countenance today. The total, which includes four varsity games and one freshman game, is just 6,722 paid admissions, which is far from the record of 20,000 established when Dick Riffle and Co. ran wild for our Alma Mater. If the attendance at the basketball games continues to hit the 700 marker, the ten home games will outdraw football this season.

Maybe there is a lesson to be drawn from the increasing basketball attendance, in spite of the fact that the varsity has won but two games. The increase may be caused by the spectacular showing of the freshman squad, which includes local Reading talent, or by the change in the admission price, or it may even be the combination of the two. Perhaps a policy of local talent and reduction in admission price could be applicable to football as well as basketball.

The official list of football lettermen will be released through the Albrightian sport page next week.

Before last Saturday it looked as if Ken Hashagen's Ursinus Bears were a cinch for the league championship as they breezed through Muhlenberg and Albright for their first two league wins. But at Gettysburg last Saturday, a mediocre Bulletin five found the Bears with an off-night and defeated them 37-35. Another interesting note showing that Ursinus is not a cinch, to win was the hard time they had winning from Lebanon Valley 45-41 last Tuesday.

Big Bill McKinney, blonde center from Reading, is pacing the Lions in individual scoring for the first seven contests with 61 points. Zeb Czaikoski is a very close runnerup with 59 counters while Paul Petrucka is in the third spot with 44 to his credit. The complete scoring record:

Name	G.	F.G.	F.	T.
McKinney	7	22	17	61
Czaikoski	7	24	11	59
Petrucka	7	19	6	44
McCarran	7	8	12	28

Gossler. Donald Burger is the senior who has done most for his class. Jane Buttorff and Burt Aszman walk away with the honors of prettiest girl and most handsome boy. Nick was voted the class wit, and Ray Thorpe the outstanding athlete. There was comparatively little doubt about '40's most bashful member, Bill Kirlin. The class chose Alan Duke as its outstanding all-round student. Not to neglect the faculty, the favorite professor of this year's senior class is Dr. Geil.

Frosh To Meet Baby Rams On Northwest Court

Seeking to avenge a 56-42 defeat and post win No. 3, Albright's basketballers engage the sharp-shooting West Chester Teacher five at Northwest tomorrow night. Preliminary action will see the Lions Cubs battle a strong West Chester Freshman team, whom they defeated 39-36 on December 18.

Coach Neil O. Harris will open the game with the same combination that made such a favorable impression at Villanova, Wednesday night. At forward stations are the high-scoring Henry Czaikoski who chalked up 15 markers against the Teachers in the first game, and Paul Petrucka, who manufactured nine counters at West Chester. Big Bill McKinney will again handle the tap-off duties while Steve Hydock and Ray McCarran will be in the back court. Ray Thorpe, who plays forward, center, and guard, will be on hand for first line reserve duty.

The Blue and Gold Rams boast of a powerful offensive squad which is paced by Sam Partel and Gus Brown, each having reached into double figures in the Teacher-Albright first contest on the Ram court.

The probable starting lineups:

ALBRIGHT	WEST CHESTER
Czaikoski	F. Connelly
Petrucka	F. Partel
McKinney	C. Speer
Hydock	G. Brown
McCarran	G. Gracey

Preliminary

Albright Frosh	West Chester Frosh
Rhoads	F. Saltzman
Hopkins	F. Orr
Spangler	C. Horn
Shollenberger	G. Kirk
Kane	G. Slaughter

Dick Shollenberger continues to set a blistering pace in the first six freshman games with 128 points which includes a 26-point effort at Villanova and a 27-point effort at Ursinus. Chin Rhoads is second ment that a cold kept him home. Several issues were brought up then for discussion.

The fact was complained that inadequate church provisions for college students here make it difficult for complete adjustment with religious desires and extra-curricular interests. Albright College is one of a very few, or, perhaps, the only one of the colleges sponsored by a church which does not provide a college church. Although the city has several congregations, this plurality often engenders competition rather than satisfaction in church affiliation. The historical background of this situation is not of one color, which has rendered the problem passive with inertia.

At the next meeting of the fraternity, it is expected that the guest will be Dr. Stauffer, district superintendent of the East Pennsylvania Conference of the Evangelical Church, who will give his views on "What the Church Expects of its Ministry." This meeting will be held Monday, February 5th. All pre-ministerial students are invited to attend.

IT'S A FACT . . .

there are 5,280 feet in a mile. But we'd like to point out that distance doesn't mean a thing to a telephone. When you go by "Long Distance" you can reach almost anyone, anywhere, in a minute or two. And bargain rates are in effect on most Long Distance calls every night after seven and all day Sunday. The Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania.
