

Tuesday:
Chagrined
By Chapel
Crudeness

The ALBRIGHTIAN

Serving Albright College Since 1879

Wishing For Wednesday

VOL. LVIII

READING, PENNSYLVANIA, MARCH 24, 1961

No. 13

Groups To Compete For Sport's Honors

Sports Night will be held April 7 and will start at 7 p.m. There will be two types of contests—individual and team, announced Beverly Barthold, '61, Chairman of special events for the YMCA-YWCA. The cochairmen for this event are Eileen McCracken, '61, and Claude Lynch, '61.

The women's events will consist of ping pong, badminton, volleyball, and a relay race. Ping pong, tug of war, high jump, rope climb relay, basketball relay, standing broad jump, wrestling, horse and rider, and a tag rally will be the activities for the men.

Participants

The Phi Beta Mu social sorority, Pi Alpha Tau social sorority, Selwyn Hall women, Teel Hall women, and the Daywomen's Organization will be the participating women's groups. The men's groups will consist of Alpha Pi Omega social fraternity, Kappa Upsilon Phi social fraternity, Pi Tau Beta social fraternity, Zeta Omega Epsilon social fraternity, the Dormitory men, the Daymen's Association.

Faculty members will be the judges for the event and trophies will be awarded to the winning women's group and the winning men's group. The winners of last year's Sports Night were the PATs and the independent Dorm men.

"What's When"

Friday, March 24

9:00 thru 12:00 a.m.—Science Fair
7:30 p.m.—Student Council Program—Krause

Saturday, March 25

9:00 thru 12:00 a.m.—Science Fair
6:00 p.m.—Science Fair Dinner

Sunday, March 26

7:30 p.m.—Vespers—Teel Chapel

Monday, March 27

1:15-5:00 p.m.—Senior Graduate Exams—Gym
7:30 p.m.—Fraternity-Sorority meetings
Resident Men Dorm Council—Court, Rec. Room

Tuesday, March 28

8:00-11:30 a.m.—Senior Graduate Exams—Gym
4:00 p.m.—Lecture on Ministry—Chapel—100

Wednesday, March 29

6:00 a.m.—Communion—Chapel after last class—Easter Recess Begins

Tuesday, April 4

8:00 a.m.—Easter Recess ends—Classes resume
4:00 p.m.—Lecture on Ministry Chapel—Chapel 100
Student Council—Teel 203
7:30 p.m.—Y Program—Pine Room

Wednesday, April 5

7:30 p.m.—Vespers—KTX-Teel Chapel
IRC—Teel 205
Sports Night Practice—Gym

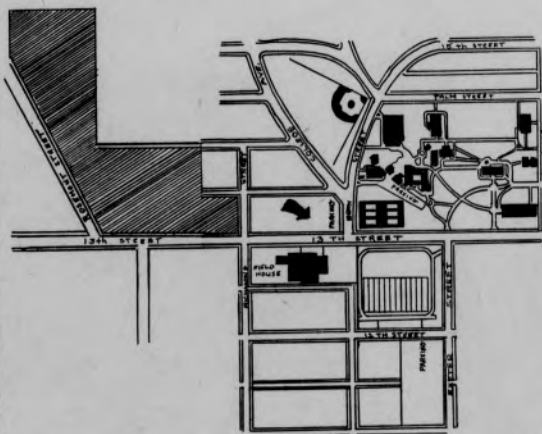

Thursday, April 6

4:00 p.m.—Y-Cabinet—Teel 203
7:30 p.m.—Skull and Bones—Science Hall
Sports Night Practice—Gym

Friday, April 7

7:00 p.m.—Sports Night—Gym

Trustees Make Plans For New Dormitories

Arrow opposite fieldhouse marks spot of proposed dormitories. Shaded area beyond fieldhouse marks new land (about 14 1/4 acres) acquired by college for future development.

The College trustees decided in favor of a revision of proposed plans for dormitory construction at their interim meeting last Friday.

The new plans, recommended by the property and finance committees, call for construction of a women's dormitory, and with adequate financial aid from the federal government, the building of a men's dormitory and a social area. The latter would connect the two proposed housing areas.

110 Each

Each dormitory would house 110 students in contrast to the original proposal at the October meeting which called for only a women's dorm to accommodate about 200 students. The site selected for the construction, the lot on N. 13th Street opposite the field house, re-

CATALOGUE

A page was omitted in printing the new 1961-62 college catalogue. The missing page may be picked up at the Public Relations Office.

Dr. Proctor Y Speaker

Dr. Samuel DeWitt Proctor will address the evening Y meeting in the Pine Room April 4. A Southern Negro leader, Dr. Proctor will speak on the topic, "The Place of the Negro in Modern America." Dr. Proctor is presently president of the North Carolina Agriculture and Technical College, Greensboro, North Carolina. Prior to this, he served as dean of the school of religion of Virginia Union University. He is active on the central committee of the National Council of Churches.

Sara Blouch, '61, Ernest Glese, '61, Paul Jacobs, '64, Paul Duhamel, '61, and Barbara Buchter, '63, compose the committee planning the event.

mains the same. No substantial change in the $922,000 approved for the project earlier was anticipated by the board.

The thirty-one trustees also re-elected Dr. Harry V. Masters, president of the college, and Charles L. Gordon, treasurer, for three year terms. Mrs. John W. Davis was re-named head of the ladies' auxiliary for a one year term. All terms begin July 1.

New Titles

Other business included altered titles for Dr. Samuel B. Shirk and Robert S. Smethers in a reorganization of the public relations and admissions departments.

Shirk, formerly assistant to the president and director of public relations, will be known as assistant to the president and director of admissions. The latter is a newly created position. Former director of church relations and admissions associate, Smethers became director of college relations. These positions also become effective July 1.

Dr. Johnson Closes Religion-In-Life Week

Plans Made For April Y Seminars

Due to the favorable reaction to the Y seminar series held last fall, the combined Y's will sponsor a spring seminar series April 11, 18, and 25 at 7:30 p.m. in the chapel classrooms. This series will feature discussions on pressure groups, mental health, and a trilogy of the modern arts.

Charles A. Raith, assistant professor of political science, will lead the discussions on the pressure groups. He will speak concerning the effect of pressure groups on the lives of citizens, lawmakers, and organizations of the United Nations.

For the trilogy of modern arts, each week a different expert will speak on one of the arts. Miss Carolyn Cox, head of the English department of Shippensburg State College, will present the first lecture on drama. She will illustrate her talk with dramatic readings.

Modern Art

Mr. Leonids Linauts, a Reading artist of Latvian descent, will lead a discussion on modern art. Mr. Linauts specializes in stained glass windows, oils, tile works, and sculpturing.

The final speaker for the modern arts is Ernest Glese, '61, president of the campus YMCA. Modern music is the theme for his lecture. A classical pianist, he has an extensive record collection, and has lectured abroad. He will illustrate his talk with several piano selections.

Mental Health

The third seminar will feature mental health. Dr. Elmer Horst, chief psychiatrist of the Reading Hospital, will open the series with a lecture on the overall mental health problem. The second week Max Silverstein, executive director of Pennsylvania Mental Health Incorporated will discuss the role Pennsylvania is playing in the mental health field. A climax to this Last evening's service concluded Religion-in-Life week. Dr. Mordecai W. Johnson, the guest speaker, spoke on the topic "Shattering Ideals" during the week's three chapel services and the three evening services. Dr. Johnson, a native of Tennessee, received the bachelor of arts degree in 1913 from the University of Chicago, the bachelor of divinity degree from Rochester, N. Y. Theological Seminary, and the master of sacred theology degree from Harvard University.

He was appointed in 1926 as the first Negro president of Howard University, Washington, D. C. and is now president emeritus of Howard. The recipient of ten honorary degrees and numerous high awards and honors, Dr. Johnson holds membership in many civic and professional organizations.

Activities

There were three evening services and two evenings set aside for informal discussion groups at the four fraternity houses. The Inter-Fraternity-Sorority choir sang at the Tuesday evening service. Also included during the week was a student presentation of T. S. Eliot's play "Murder in the Cathedral" and Graham Green's "The Potting Shed." A faculty tea was held Tuesday and a dinner for the Albright students and faculty followed by a seminar in sacred music Sunday.

The committee consisted of Beverly Yanich, '61 and James Garofalo, '61, co-chairmen, Lenore Barth, '62, Roy Campbell, '64, Sara Croner, '62, Howard Deck, '61, Edward R. Gilbert, instructor in psychology, Edith Koch, '61, William R. Marlow, chaplain, Richard Martin, '63, Bruce Moyer, '61, Barry Parney, '62, Lawrence Santoro, '64, Charles Schleifer, '62, Diane Scipone, '61, Robert S. Smethers Jr., director of college relations, and John S. Weaver, '61.

series will feature a lecture on the career opportunities in the field of mental health. The speaker will be named later.

Science Fair Nears Finish

This week Albright College is host to the 9th annual Reading-Berks County Science Fair. The Science Fair is sponsored and conducted by science teachers and the Reading Chemist Club, and supported by local industry.

Wednesday, Thursday, and today from 4 to 10 p.m., the various exhibits in the field house are open to the public. Over 500 students from twenty-one junior and senior high schools have entered. The fair is divided into three judging areas: junior group, junior individual, and senior individual. The Grand Champion will go to the national science fair at Kansas City.

This year Albright is offering a $500 scholarship to one of the senior winners. Tomorrow night from 6:30 to 8:30 an awards dinner for Senior Division Medal Winners and for the Junior Grand Champion will be held in the dining hall. Jonathan E. Rhoads, M.D., professor of surgery and provost of the School of Medicine of the University of Pennsylvania, will be the guest speaker.

Alpha Phi Omega Buys First Share In Capital Fund Drive

Presentation of check to Dr. Masters (left to right): Thurman R. Kremser, instructor in mathematics and physics; Dr. Harry V. Masters, president of the college; Leonard H. Seltzer, '63, president of Mu Eta chapter; Steven Gurland, '63, treasurer; Steven B. Newman, '63, vice-president and Dr. Edwin L. Bell, associate professor of biology. Professor Kremser and Dr. Bell are advisors.

Let's Go Albright!

We have been distressed by some unfavorable comment we have heard around campus concerning the student support of the capital campaign fund. We don't consider it as humorous as some students do when the program is presented as an 'opportunity.' To us it appears as both an obligation and an opportunity. Albright is on the move, and we only are to suffer if we don't move with it.

Sure, our school has its faults. There are courses and professors which we think are weak. There are numerous 'gripes' and differences which we have with the administration and many of its policies. There are several times when we have felt, as every student does sooner or later, that the school gave us a "raw deal" in respect to our rosters, scheduling certain courses, dormitory rooms, etc. Yearly we cringe to think of the increasing cost of college tuition. Yet we then remember that in spite of the terrific fee, we still as students pay only seventy-seven per cent of what it costs yearly to educate us. Then we become appreciative—just a little—but nonetheless, appreciative of what Albright means to us.

We have our complaints. Yet it would be foolish for us to disregard ALBRIGHT because of one professor in it, or to disdain school loyalty, in deference to that "all-important" pet grievance with one particular point in administrative policy. Policies change often, as we all can observe, and new men come and others go. To not cooperate because of one particular event, professor, of course, would be short-sighted indeed. This money is going to build facilities that will benefit US—the students. To equate school loyalty on a lex talionis basis is to regress about 3,000 years in human history. As college students, we ought certainly to move beyond the stage of child-like pouting and sulking demonstrations. "When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man . . ." It is time to put away childish things. We should by now be going on from playtime problems to broader ideals. We must forge beyond personalities to principles. It is imperative that as we mature we move from the self-engrossed inward view to an encompassing outlook of understanding and concern.

In this wider perspective, we feel proud of Albright. We desire to be an integral part of an institution which is constantly strengthening itself in all areas of endeavor—academic, athletic, cultural, and spiritual. We hear the cheer "Let's go, Albright, we want some action" at our ball games. The school is doing just this. Let's have us, as students, pitch in and help.

Development Program, Student Phase, Outlined

The student phase of the Albright College Development Campaign got under way last week with selection of pledge cards by the student volunteer workers led by Stephen Lipkiss, '61, Janelle Reed, '61, and Agnes Oaks, '61.

The student goal is $11,000 in pledges payable over a three-year period. This goal is in proportion to the amount contributed by the student body in Albright's 1955 campaign. The first reports from the volunteer workers are due March 29.

Interpretation of the development program and the campaign to the student body was completed prior to last week. A descriptive brochure with a covering letter was sent to all students.

Total Goal

The total goal of the three-year campaign is $1,500,000. Of this amount $900,000 will be spent for a new science building and equipment; $365,000 will go to endowment for faculty increments; $135,000 is earmarked to complete payment on the Merner-Pfeiffer-Klein Memorial Auditorium Chapel; and $100,000 will purchase furnishings for the new women's and men's dormitories which are being financed by a federal amortized loan.

Student Gifts

The suggested minimum gift for students is $48 over a three year period, or $16 a year. This suggestion is based on previous campaigns and the gifts needed to reach the $11,000 goal. Student shareholder award gifts have been set at $75.

The community campaign is divided into three major divisions: Leadership Gifts, Special Gifts and General Gifts. The Leadership Gifts and Special Gifts solicitations are now in progress. The General Campaign Committee begins its solicitation April 6 with a dinner meeting in the college dining hall. Results of the campaign to date will be announced at this meeting.

Albright Alumni are also being solicited by nine different regional committees and these results will also be announced as the campaign progresses. Experience in previous successful campaigns has shown that community support is influenced by what the "family" of the college—including the student body, alumni, trustees, faculty, and employees—has contributed.

This cartoon appeared in the Reading Eagle, November 28, 1960

Spring Sports Schedule

Baseball

Thur., April 6—ScrantonH
 Sat., April 8—UrsinusH
 Tues., April 11—Gettysburg.....H
 Thur., April 13—St. Joseph's...A
 Sat., April 15—MoravianA
 Tues., April 18—P.M.C.A
 Thurs., April 20—JuniataH
 Sat., April 22—BucknellH
 Tues., April 25—LafayetteH
 Wed., April 26—F. & M.H
 Sat., April 29—Susquehanna ...A
 Tues., May 2—LaSalleH
 Thurs., May 4—Muhlenberg ...A
 Sat., May 6—Lebanon Valley...H
 Mon., May 8—DelawareH
 Thurs., May 11—WilkesA
 Sat., May 13—LycomingA
 Wed., May 17—TempleH
 Sat., May 20—Elizabethtown ...A

Golf

Fri., April 7—MuhlenbergH
 Mon., April 10—F. & M.H
 Fri., April 14—St. Joseph's ...A
 Mon., April 17—MoravianH
 Thurs., April 20—JuniataA
 Mon., April 24—LaSalleH
 Thurs., April 27—W. Maryland..A
 Mon., May 1—LafayetteH
 Thurs., May 4—LycomingA
 Thurs., May 11—W. Chester ...H
 Sat., May 13—BucknellA
 Mon., May 15—GettysburgA

Track

Sat., April 8—Haverford and Lycoming Haverford
 Sat., April 15—UrsinusH
 Wed., April 19—Swarthmore ...H
 Sat., April 22—Berks Co. Meet
 Tues., April 25—Gettysburg-Johns HopkinsH
 Fr. and Sat., April 28-29—Penn Relays Phila.
 Tues., May 2—MuhlenbergH
 Sat., May 6—Bucknell & F. & M. Bucknell
 Wed., May 10—DelawareA
 Fri. & Sat., May 12-13—MASCAC Championships Lafayette
 Wed., May 17—Juniata & DickinsonH
 Sat., May 20—P.M.C.A
 Fri. & Sat., May 26-27—ICAA ChampionshipsNew York

Tennis

Sat., April 8—LycomingH
 Wed., April 12—F. & M.A
 Sat., April 15—MoravianH
 Tues., April 18—JuniataA
 Thurs., April 20—BucknellH
 Sat., April 22—Muhlenberg ...A
 Tues., April 25—LafayetteH
 Thurs., April 27—W. Chester...A
 Sat., April 29—Susquehanna ...A
 Wed., May 3—St. Joseph'sH
 Mon., May 8—Elizabethtown ...A
 Thurs., May 11—Gettysburg ...H
 Sat., May 13—WilkesA
 Tues., May 16—LaSalleH
 Thurs., May 18—Lebanon Val...A
 Sat., May 20—UrsinusH

The YOUTH COUNCIL of the Greater Reading Council of Churches invites all Albright students to a youth rally Sunday, April 9, at Grace Lutheran Church, S. 11th Street below Penn. Speaker: Rev. William Marlow
 Buffet Supper served at no cost following service.

W. B. BOYER, INC.
 PHARMACY
 13th and AMITY STS.
 Friendly, Courteous Service
 For Your Personal Needs

Early's Old Fashioned
 Chocolates
 CANDY KITCHEN
 at 1428 Amity St.
 Only "3" Blocks from Albright

Nueblings
 The Sportsman's Store
 Penn Street at Ninth
 READING
 1896-1960
 Headquarters for Bowling and Athletic Equipment
 Cameras and Photo Finishing
 Copies of Your Favorite Photos
 ★
 PHONE FR 4-8253

Patronize Our Advertisers
Laurel Lanes, Inc.
 3417 5th Street Highway
 LAURELDALE, PA.
 Dial WA 9-9481
 FEATURING
 24 Beautiful Lanes with Automatic Pinsetters
 • Sport Shop
 • Meeting Rooms
 • Nursery
 • Locker Rooms
 • Free Parking
 • Bus Service to the Door
 FORM YOUR BOWLING PARTY NOW AND HAVE A BARREL OF FUN

"Say PEPSI, Please"

NEW SPRING MERCHANDISE
 at JOHN MAZZO
 6th Street at Franklin

THE ALBRIGHTIAN
 Published by the students of Albright College, Reading, Pa.
 Editor Carl Schneider, '63
 Associate Editor Ronald Mendelzon, '63
 Managing Editor Steward Uhler, '63
 News Editor Leonard Seltzer, '63
 Business Manager April Fogosaw, '62
 Advertising Manager Nancy Young, '63; Patricia Modlin, '63
 Sports Editor Barry Farney, '62
 Circulation Manager Carol Sirken, '63
 Editorial Assistants James Matthews, '63; Alphonse Sallett, '63
 Photographers Steve Lipkins, '61; Craig Leffler, '61
 Richard Mallin, '64; Charles Kerschner, '63
 Neil Newstein, '63
 Member Associate Collegiate Press and Intercollegiate Newspaper Association.
 Entered as second class matter, July 15, 1941, at the post office Reading, Pa., under the act of March 3, 1879.
 Subscription rate $2.20 per year.

Bard's
 Birch and Amity
 SNACKS
 SANDWICHES
 and
 FOUNTAIN SERVICE

it's smart to shop at Whitner's
 ...and it costs no more
 Penn Square, Reading, Pa.
 Tel. FR 4-8321

Visit our Town and Campus Shop
 . . . second floor . . . see the favored new FANCY VESTS in plaids, polka dots and reversibles . . .
 also "Gent" white and Blue
 OXFORD SHIRTS in button-down or tab collars.
Croll & Kech
 622 PENN STREET