Judith Cohen To Reign Over Homecoming Events

U.W.F. Sponsor U.N. Discussion

The United World Federalists sponsored a debate on the United Nations Charter Revision in Krause Hall Wednesday, October 27.

Mr. Harry Hoffman, secretary of the State Department of Foreign Affairs, and Mr. Neal Potter, a United World Federalist member, were the main contenders on the subject: Should the United States support the calling for a charter revision and if so, under what circumstances and to attain what goals? Mr. Frederick Bertolet, a Reading attorney, served as the moderator for the debate.

Professor Lewis Smith, head of the social studies department, was responsible for securing the time of the United World Federalists for Albright College social science students. The meeting was open to the general public and was very informative.

Within the following year, the United States will be called upon to back the United Nations Charter Revision, which was planned for in the original charter and was to take place ten years from the signing of the original charter. The State Department took a neutral viewpoint on the subject, stating that public opinion will determine the actual backing given by the government. The positive side was viewed by the United World Federalists and a statement was made in effect to give the United Nations more power, but to have universal disarmament.

An open forum followed the presentation of speeches.

Fraternities Induct Thirteen Pledges

Kappa Upsilon Phi

Pledges to the Kappa Upsilon Phi fraternity are William Curley, '57, Gerald Scheffey, '57, William West, '57, Lee Garrigan, '58 and Michael Daugherty, '57.

Pi Tau Beta

The Pi Tau Beta fraternity inducted the following pledges: Clinton Wollbank, '57, Dean Kriebel, '56, Jonathan Kurtz, '57 and Adolph Rodriguez, '57.

Plans were made for the homecoming float.

Zeta Omega Epsilon

James Light, '57, Ernest Brodbeck, '57, Jan Musser, '57, and William Smith, '57, are the pledges who were inducted into the Zeta Omega Epsilon fraternity.

W.S.S. Sponsors Fashion Show To Be Held Thursday, Nov. 18

A fashion show to be sponsored by Women's Student Senate will be held Thursday, November 18 in Krause Hall at 8:00 p. m.

Albright coeds will wear apparel from the Lucia Sports Shop on North Fifth Street in Reading. Lucia's will also sponsor older models to model sportswear for older women.

Fashions will be described by Bonnie Borelli, who has her own radio program on a Reading station. During intermission, talented campus musicians will perform.

Admission will be charged and door prizes will be awarded to those

Student Council Discusses Various Homecoming Events

The Homecoming Committee, under the co-chairmanship of David Frankhouser and Donald Wise reported to Student Council at its meeting Tuesday, November 2, that the Homecoming Queen would be crowned at the Ivy Ball by "Pop" Kelchner. The crown, which was supplied by the Pepsi-Cola Company, was among the many other gifts presented to the Queen last night.

Frankhouser announced that a meeting of representatives from each sorority would be held Wednesday, November 3, to discuss the entering of floats into competition at the Lebanon Valley-Albright College football game.

Fraternity Flags Returned

No bill has been received from Muhlenberg College yet for the damages done to the band's instruments. James Hall informed Council that the two missing fraternity flags had been returned. Dean Smith said that one of the stolen caps from the Kenhorst Bugle Corps has been returned to him.

A letter from President Masters was read to Council by James Hall. In the October 1, 1954 issue of the "Albrightian", there appeared an editorial entitled "Let's Beat Those Book Lines." President Masters suggested that a committee of three students and three faculty members discuss the matter with Mrs. Dorothy Slapikas, manager of the Bookstore. Student Council members were asked to volunteer for the committee.

attending. Everyone is invited. Profits will go to Korean Care.

General chairman for the program is Jean Filbert. Jeanne Hagenbuch heads the ticket committee and Ann Stalneckner heads the posters and publicity committees with Sylvia Greul and Sandra Smith assisting her.

W.S.S. also sponsored the project of putting new drapes in the Pine Room. Mary Althouse and Leda PasYotis selected the material out of which Rachel Kaebnick made the drapes. Leda and Mary are making the slipcovers and they will be completed by Homecoming.

Charter Day Observed

David Frankhouser, chairman of the Chapel Committee, reported that Chapel Charter Day Observance Program scheduled for Thursday, November 4 would feature Charles Kelchner as the speaker. Fraternities and sororities will be given dates for chapel programs in the near future.

Dean Morton announced that the recreation program in Krause Hall would start Thursday, November 4. This program will be held Monday through Friday from 12:30 to 4:00 p. m. About six years ago, a program similar to this one was originated.

Mary Jo Barbera of the Student Activities Committee reported that the ballots for Homecoming Queen were tallied.

James Hall presided.

Office Staff's Party Honors Mrs. Goodhart

After this week-end, the Albright campus will be minus a very important person who is closely associated with the college. Mrs. Doreen Goodhart, of Amityville, who is a graduate of Mount Penn. High School of the class of '47, has worked in the Public Relations Office for seven years. She formerly served as the secretary to the late Mr. Lester L. Stabler and now she is the secretary to Dr. Samuel B. Shirk, Assistant to the President.

Several weeks ago, the office personnel gave a baby shower in Mrs. Goodhart's honor. It was held at the home of Miss Thelma Degler, 1627 Mineral Spring Road, Reading.

The "Albrightian" staff extends its most sincere and best wishes to Mrs. Goodhart.

Sorority Tours Dorms

The Xi Alpha Omega Sorority, the Pennsylvania Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, an international cultural sorority, heard Dean Priscilla R. Morton speak about the interior decoration of the girls' dormitories Monday evening in the Salem Room.

After Dean Morton's description, the members of the sorority toured the dormitories.

Dean Morton, who is past president of the chapter, belongs to the Binghamton Chapter Xi Alpha Lambda.

'Pop' Kelchner Crowns Queen As Climax to 'The Ivy Ball'

The crowning of Judith Barbara Cohen, '57, as Homecoming Queen highlighted the Ivy Ball held last night in the Physical Education Building. Runner-up to Miss Cohen was Bonnie Orr, '58. Other attendants were Alma Grove, '56, Barbara Burbank, '56, and Carolyn Smith, '57.

Judy, who is from New York City, is a sophomore majoring in psychology. Her activities here at Albright include the Phi Beta Mu sorority and cheerleading. On May Day, last year, Judy was one of the soloist dancers. Dancing is Judy's main interest. She is studying modern interpretive dancing and ballet. During her leisure time, Judy likes to listen to contemporary and classical music.

Judy, who stands at 5 ft. 2 inches and has dark brown hair and brown eyes, enjoys water sports, especially motorboating at Lake Hopatcong, New Jersey. Before coming to Albright, Judy attended Gunnell College in Iowa.

Bonnie Orr Is Second

Bonnie Orr, who was runner-up to Judy, hails from Perkasie, Pa. and is majoring in home economics. Bonnie with her 5 ft. 5 inches, brown hair and hazel eyes, makes an attractive appearance on the football field as a drum major-ette in the Albright Marching Band. Her other activities include hockey, HEO Club, and basketball. Sports are Bonnie's main interest.

Three Are Runners-up

Alma Grove, of York, Pa., who is a sociology major, is a member of the Pi Alpha Tau Sorority and a participant in hockey, baseball, and tennis. She is a member of Student Council and is judge master of the Pat's. She is also secretary of Women's Athletic Association.

Alma, who is 5 ft. 7 inches tall and has green eyes and brown hair, enjoys sports, especially swimming and modern, and classical music as her main interests.

A psychology major, Carolyn Smith is from Woodstown, N. J. and is a member of Pi Alpha Tau Sorority. Carolyn, who is 5 ft. 3 inches tall and who has brown hair and green eyes, is active in hockey, basketball and sports. She likes all sports, especially swimming and bowling.

Barbara Burbank of Westfield, N. J. is a home economics major, who stands 5 ft. 8 inches and has brown hair and eyes. Being very active in sports on campus, it is expected of Barbara to enjoy watching and participating in sports, especially swimming. Barbara is very fond of the shore and desires to travel.

Girls Elect Members To Dormitory Council

Freshmen representatives to the Selwyn Hall Dormitory Council are Virginia Hutton of the second floor and Rosalind Naugle of the third floor. Marlon Evans is the newly elected non-sorority representative to Student Council.

Thelma Arnold has been chosen as senior representative from Teel Hall to the Women's Dormitory Council and Jeannette Mayer will represent the juniors from Selwyn Hall.

Homecoming festivities began last night with the annual Ivy Ball, the highlight of which was the crowning of the queen, Judith Cohen, by Charles 'Pop' Kelchner. Carl F. Mogel, general chairman of homecoming presented the queen with the Alumni Trophy at that time.

Highlights of today's activities will be the Albright-Lebanon Valley football game. Miss Elizabeth Speicher, daughter of Mr. Paul Speicher, Associate Professor of Mathematics and Physics and Lebanon Valley's Queen, will attend.

Miss Speicher, Mr. Mark Schoffstale, editorial writer and columnist for the Reading Times and Frank Voss, manager of WRAW, Reading radio station will judge the floats during halftime.

The Freshman Class committee in charge of decorations for homecoming was headed by Michael Schofield.

Miss Ernestine Elder was adviser to the group. Members of the committee are Barbara Kerschner, Ginger Lloyd, Audrey Allen, Elizabeth Miller, Ella Miller, Joe Lippincott, Phillip Eyrich, Clair Matz, Rosalind Naugle, and John Luckenbill.

Chess Club Elects 2; Gets New Adviser

Competitive tournaments will begin at the weekly meeting of the Chess Club to be held this afternoon in room 210 of the Administration building. Two new officers who were elected at last week's meeting are David Kotula, recording secretary and Phillip Goldfeder, corresponding secretary. Professor Reppert, in addition to Professor Haskell, will be a second faculty adviser to the club.

F.T.A.

Dr. Thomas H. Ford, Superintendent of the Reading School District, spoke to the Albright College Chapter of the F.T.A. Wednesday evening, November 3, in Teel Hall. His topic was "Shortcomings to Student Teachers."

Debating Club

"Whether or not Chapel Attendance Should be Compulsory" was the topic the Debating Club used for discussion at its meeting on Monday, November 1. James Rogers was the moderator. The debaters included Richard Steffy, Wilbert Wollenhaupt, Suzanne Goldstein, Edna Barnett, William Mays and Larry Heinrich.

The next meeting will be held in room 210, Monday, November 8.

Skull and Bones

The second meeting of the Skull and Bones Society was held November 3 at 7:30 in the Science Lecture Hall. Two movies of interest to all biology students were shown.

Auxiliary Will Have Sauer Kraut Supper

Mrs. Earl P. Huber president of the Albright College Women's Auxiliary, announced that a sauer kraut supper will be held in Krause Hall from 5:00 to 7:00 p. m., November 20. The dinner will cost one dollar for adults and 65 cents for children. Everyone is invited.

Welcome Home, Grads!

Homecoming, 1954! And many loyal alumni are returning, in a sense, for a re-dedication of the Albright spirit of years past. This year we have a brand new plaque to unveil, and a new dormitory to point out. More important, the student body, faculty, and campus offer a remembrance of joyful and solemn days past, a re-contact with well-loved and, perhaps, too seldom seen friends, and the revisiting of a spot that was, for a while, home.

But the alumni aren't the only ones who profit from a well-planned homecoming. Students have a greater share this year than ever before, with that major event, the Ivy Ball, taking the spotlight of the activities. Perhaps we students may gain a sudden insight into the turnings of time, and foresee ourselves returning with sentiment and happy memories to the campus, sensing the thrill of college experience, and getting a little sentimental when they sing the old songs, like the song by John McKenna, '50, who summed up the feeling so well.

At the foot of Old Mount Penn
In the roaring lion's den
Gather students, teachers, graduates this day,
Here to honor and recall
As we gaze at hallowed hall;
We remember and in reverence, homage pay.
Hold high her banners—shout hurrah—
Veritas—Justitia
Ever forward shall our Alma Mater go
Show your colors red and white
Shout your rally for Albright
Shout Albright!

We Hear Ya Talkin'

If Somebody Goofed Again did nothing else, it at least brought forth a deluge of definitions of school spirit from both students and faculty. True, school spirit does consist of a lot more than vigorous cheering at football games, but we were just using the Gettysburg fiasco as the most timely example of what was lacking.

Two of the letters responding to the editorial are printed on this page. The letter from a student on campus has already been answered in part by the opening of Krause Hall as a recreation center, but we still feel that the letter is applicable to the situation. Thanks to Ursinus for the letter outlining the solution they used for a similar problem.

One passing comment—things do seem to have perked up a little, but the scribbling of signs on sidewalks and buildings, while a very positive indication of awareness and enthusiasm toward school activities, tends to give the campus more of a circus than a collegiate air—especially after a rain or two has smeared and dirtied the chalk marks.

Science Slants

Reading, Pa., October 20.

Dr. Goethe-Schiller, who was recently awarded the Nobel Prize in physics for his revolutionary research in nuclear fission, arrived here today. Dr. Schiller plans to enroll in English language courses at Albright College. He states that he wishes to improve his mastery of written and spoken English in order to be able to cooperate more fully with the Atomic Energy Commission.

"Ich sein positivem sure das course iss necessary for mein learnen to speaken der English?"

"Of course, boy, don't talk dumb!"

"But meinsel not ben understanden. Mein degrees I ben gehaffen from der famous universities in Vienna, Berlin, and Paris. Myself ben head of der researchen laboratories all over der worlden. Why dis coursen en der stars und der rocks und der leafes?"

"Put it in a sentence, boy. Don't you know how to speak English?"

"Nein! But how iss dis coursen me gerhelpen?"

"The trouble with you, boy, is that you never learned to work. Probably you never did any real work before this, did you? Well, you're going to work now!"

"Ja, Herr Professor. But I want gerasken be one question."

"Speak up, boy!"

"Das letters M=VM. Das iss der formula matmathematical mid us be serposen to usen un solven das problikeren?"

"What do you think, boy? We're not talking about the price of onions in Peru!"

"But das iss not possible, that un quantity iss the same as itselfen getimesen unudder variabeler ..."

"You talk crazy, boy. Put it on the board."

Reading, Pa., October 22.

Dr. Goethe-Schiller announced today that he has accepted a position as elevator operator with Whitneys Department Store in downtown Reading. Dr. Schiller's dramatic withdrawal from the world of science came as a shock to contemporaries all over the world. Sources close to Herr Schiller could give no explanation for his sudden decision.

Maple Lane Mutiny

"Mr. Maryeck, in view of the fact that two hands were inappropriately dressed for chow last night, all hands will be required to wear stockings all day tomorrow, and there will be garter inspection before every meal."

"Yes, Captain Queeg."

"That is all."

"Sir?"

"Yes, Mister Maryeck?"

"Might I ask what was inappropriate in the uniform of the two hands? I understood that everyone passed inspection."

"They were wearing sweaters, Mister Maryeck. Sweaters! Earrings, high heels, and angora pompons make no difference. Sweaters are still sweaters."

"Yes, Captain Queeg."

"Furthermore, from now on, all hands are to have only two overnight liberties in domestic ports, and none at all in foreign ports."

"But Capt. Queeg, sir, won't they simply sign out to go home?"

"Mister Maryeck, I am running this convent."

"Yes, sir."

"Another thing, Mister Maryeck, while we are on the subject. From now on, there is to be no lounging in the lounges. Do you hear me, Mister Maryeck? Absolutely no lounging. All lounging is to be confined to the crows' nest."

"But sir, it gets very cold up on the mountain this time of year."

"Fraternizers may freeze, Mister Maryeck. We must have more rules and regulations than possible if this ship is to run graciously."

Letters to the Editor

October 19, 1954

Dear Miss Weiherer,

Having just read "Somebody Goofed Again" in your October fifteenth edition of The Albrightian, I feel bound to write you of our meager solution.

This year our spirit here at Ursinus has increased immensely because of one seemingly small factor—the freshmen!

For our first home football game the frosh were ordered, by decree of the Soph Rule, to sit in a group and form a U in the stands. Customs have since terminated, but at our last home game, the Frosh took it upon themselves to form a U anyway.

It worked to perfection. Although we lost rather hardily, there was plenty of spirit.

At evening pep rallies (after dinner) the frosh instill in the rest of us a surge of school spirit. Even with the customs off, the frosh still show undying spirit.

I don't know, but it seems to me that the only way to form solid school spirit is to begin with the freshman class. Therein, me thinks, lies the solution.

Hoping this bit will help in some way, I am

Sincerely yours,
Roland Dedekind
Editor
The Ursinus Weekly

I feel that there is a definite lack of school spirit on the Albright campus. I do not believe that the condition exists because of a lack of interest on the part of the student body. I am convinced that the potential for a tremendous amount of school and student body consciousness lies within the roll call of Albright students.

I have seen the stirrings of school spirit upon many but wide spread occasions. It appears sometimes at pep rallies or athletic events. School spirit is not present on campus or other school activities at all times in its most intense degree.

School spirit will not be on the Albright campus until a number of things are argued upon, agreed to, organized, brought into practice, and accepted as everyday procedure by administration, faculty, and students. School spirit is not just the attitude of the student. It is the attitude of everyone in the "Albright Family."

The primary failing of Albright in developing and maintaining school spirit is the number of existing distractions taking away from the common interest ... Albright.

A great majority of Albright students are Day Students and do not have the close relationship with all other students as do the Dorm members. Dorm students are divided between, more or less, closed social, and scholastic organizations on campus that distract from the central purpose of close harmony on an equal basis for a common attainable goal ... School Spirit. Reading itself, by the fact that it is a large town, adds to the distractions that plague students.

The one major cause for lack of spirit on this campus is that there is yet to come into existence, and remain on campus, a center, or common meeting place, for Albright men and women students, faculty, and administration alike, in which a spirit of relaxed familiarity can grow and develop from a series of personality discoveries to a knowledge on everyone's part that we are all human and are bound together under the label of Albright College.

Whenever such a place exists it is either "abused" by the students, too small, monopolized by a clique, or, as in the case of the Sub, closed before the setting of the sun.

The lack of a common meeting place, general lack of impromptu post-school activity between all elements of the student body, their faculty, and administration does definitely result in lack of interest in school, your fellow students, and a general lack of value in your entire college life so far as the fun you are getting from it.

Provided there is sufficient interest shown the subject can be pursued on a basis constructive to the point where some day, sooner or later, such a common meeting place might be the prize of responsible students and interested faculty and administration.

Sadie Lives It Up

The male population of Albright was thrown to the mercy of the gals last Friday at the traditional Sadie Hawkins Day celebration. However, rumor has it that many of the girls had their menfolk hogtied before Friday even rolled around.

The new look A.B. (according to Bankus) was definitely anti-Femme. However, the coeds did look especially chick in their costumes, varying from jeans to kilts, not to forget the popular, at least with the girls, Bermuda shorts.

According to a recent survey of this cub sheet, the boys are anti-Bermuda shorts. I didn't see them turn their heads, unless it was for second looks. Speaking of looks, the Al Capp comic strip characters were well portrayed by the frosh.

Sadie Hawkins Day was originally instituted when Al Capp paid a visit to the campus several years ago. It was accepted with applause and continued, becoming an annual tradition. However this author misses the beloved "schmoos" that roamed Dogpatch.

The frosh girls who were lucky enough to catch the fleet-footed men of Albright, in due respect of the day, called for their dates at the Albright Courts. Marryin' Sam was stunned when L'il Abner said to shoot the works, while the audience was stunned at the neat little bit of art work by L'il Abner.

The dance continued after the wedding and was quite a success. The costumes are now in mothballs but the memory of being a Wolf Gal or a L'il Abner lingers on.

The Snake Pit

By Ginny Frey

Here we are back again after a much needed vacation, all ready to congratulate people and let off steam about the latest campus capers.

Tail Shakes

Bouquets of roses to our lovely Homecoming Queen. Albrightians certainly have good taste when it involves feminine beauty.

The Pat's and the Mu's deserve a pat on the back for their super rush parties. In case our male enrollment is not up on the latest, these smart co-eds certainly had wonderful themes for these events. The Pat's took a trip through the land of make-believe, while a seagoneer venture greeted Phi Beta Mu "rushes".

Also congrats to the freshman class for their swell Sadie Hawkins Dance. Square dancin' was sure keen lookin', especially in the Dogpatch Corner. Our "L'il Abner" deserves a "metal" for dyeing his golden locks in order to put "punch" in the part. By the way, Abner, your foots am real purdy. The Dogpatch characters were very realistic, from the painted eyebrows of "Wolf Gal" to the striped leggings of "Mummy Yocum".

Rattles

The fraternities seem to have "be-bop" on their minds. Little red, blue and white jazz notes are loose all over the campus ... or are those new pledges?

Several students seem to have little regard for our beautiful lawns or else they believe that football catching is a method of beautifying

Gridders Upset Diplomats, Lose To Greyhounds

In The Lion's Den

By David Widland

Upset

Two weeks ago at Lancaster, the Gullamen played their best game of the season, upsetting the favored and unbeaten Diplomats 22-13. Co-captain Eddie McNeill played a spectacular game on defense, blocking two punts and an extra point attempt. Chris Wenger, Bob Reller, and Roy Dragon all broke into the scoring column for the first time. Reller, senior halfback from Queens, New York, has never started a game before this year, but has looked very good in relief on several occasions. In fact, he has yet to have a bad day. Let's hope that the Lions can repeat this victory against Lebanon Valley today.

Post Mortem

Last week the Red and White were beaten by a Greyhound team that was no better, man for man, than they were. The difference was that Moravian was definitely up for the game, and probably every one of their men on the field played over his head. This spirit can make the difference in almost any game.

Preview

Today the Lions face a Lebanon Valley team that is winless in five starts. Six freshmen are in the starting lineup for the Dutchmen. Even though upsets are the rule in this series, Albright should not disappoint the homecoming crowd unless something very unlooked-for happens. We pick the Red and White to win by two touchdowns.

Hardwood News

Coach Gullian opened basketball practice last Tuesday night. Twenty-four candidates reported, fourteen of them freshmen. Returning lettermen from last year's team are George Conrad, Bruce Riddell, Mike DePaul, Jim Foreman, and Bill Spaide. Other holdovers are Bernie Seaman, John Schiavo, Bernie Krick, Ron Pisano, Mike Daugherty, and Dale Yoder. Jim Croke, last year's captain, has not graduated but has used up four years of eligibility and cannot play this season. His playmaking and defensive abilities will be sorely missed. Last year the basketballers had a 15-14 record, closing out the season with an impressive upset victory over F&M.

Intramurals

On the intramural football scene, the unbeaten Pi Taus have emerged as winners of the second half of the season. Since they won both halves, there is no need for a play-off.

The intramural bowling league got underway last Wednesday. Six teams are entered: the Zota's, APO's, Kappa's, Pi Tau's, Arabs, and Washouts.

Speeding Greyhound

Moravians Down Lions

Last Saturday the Albright Lions lost their fourth game of the campaign, a 13-7 reversal at the hands of Moravian College. Although Albright took an early lead, it was soon erased, as the playing of the Greyhounds proved too much for the hot and cold Lion eleven. The big difference in the contest was Jim Evanko, a 179 pound senior, whose powerful running was the keystone of the Moravian attack.

The big cog in the Red and White offense was Bob Reller, who lately has emerged as the best of the Gullian backs. Coupling another fine performance with his equally good showing at F & M, his running stood out, even in defeat.

Albright kicked off to start the game. Finding the Albright line too tough the Greyhounds were forced to punt and Bob Wetzel returned the ball to his own 40. Two plays later a fumble gave Moravian the ball at midfield. An exchange of punts followed with Albright taking charge on their 14. Bob Reller moved the ball to the 20, where Chris Wenger plowed over tackle for a first down. Dragon tossed two passes to Reller and Wetzel for another first down. Then Reller and Dragon moved for a third first, but here the attack stalled and, as the second quarter began, Mike DePaul punted to the Moravian 4.

Krize Scores

An exchange of punts gave the Greyhounds the ball and, when three straight Marsh passes were incomplete, Guman again went back to punt. This time a host of Red and White linemen blocked the attempted kick and Krize picked up the ball and raced 30 yards into the end zone. McNeill's try for the point was good, and Albright led 7-0.

Minutes later, after another exchange of punts, Moravian's Marsh tossed a scoring pass to end Harry Shropshire, who took the ball and went 30 yards to score. The try for the point was missed and the Lions still led, 7-6.

Again, after Willy Smith's 24 yard return of the kickoff, the Albright offense was throttled. Moravian, moving the ball at will, marched for three first downs when they were stopped by a pass interception by Reller. The half ended with the Lions out ahead 7-6.

Albright received the kickoff to start the second half. Failing to move, they were forced to punt and the Greyhounds took over on their own 38. Then Moravian with Evanko and Gerencser leading the way, marched to the Albright 40 where Marsh hit Gerencser, all alone, on the 15. From there he sped into the end zone. This time the kick was good and Moravian led 13-7. Albright then marched from their own 34 to the Moravian 33, racking up three first downs. A pass interception stopped the threat and Moravian took over.

Lionesses Lose

The Albright Coeds played host to Drexel on Friday, October 22. Albright lost the first game by a score of 7-0, and tied the second game 1-1. Lorraine Wagner scored the goal.

The hockey game scheduled for October 27 with Lebanon Valley was called off because of rain and will be played at a later date.

All College Tournament

The All College field hockey tournament was held at Albright on Saturday, October 30. The teams that took part were Wilson, Gettysburg, Dickinson, Lebanon Valley, and Albright.

Albright was slated to play Gettysburg, Wilson, and Dickinson. The Lady Lions lost to both Gettysburg and Wilson 4-0 and tied Dickinson 0-0.

After the colleges were finished competing, two teams of outstanding players were selected. Team I was composed of six girls from Gettysburg and five from Wilson. Gretchen Vogeler and Millie Folk were selected for Team II. The two teams were scheduled to play each other, but inclement weather prevented this.

Gretchen Vogeler was also selected to play on an All-Star Team at Harrisburg, but was unable to do this.

Today the Lionesses play Elizabethtown at home at 3 p. m.

Lions Upset Franklin & Marshall 22-13; Reller, McNeill Stand Out

On October 23, the minions of Coach Eddie Gullian invaded Lancaster to duel with Franklin & Marshall College and the Lions returned with a 22-13 win over the stunned Diplomat forces. The first half saw F&M take the lead 13-6 over what seemed to be an inadequate Albright team, but in the second half the Lions roared back.

Albright received the opening kickoff but failed to gain and Mike DePaul, starting at quarterback for the Lions, was forced to punt. A few minutes later Albright again got the ball as the Lions held and F&M's John Tullai punted to the Albright 25. Successive DePaul handoffs to Bob Wetzel and Chris Wenger brought the Lions their initial first down. A clever handoff from DePaul to Cunningham netted the Lions 5 and DePaul added another 4 on an end run. Here two consecutive 5 yard penalties stopped the Lion advance and DePaul punted to the F&M 37, where Wenger made a neat tackle of the Diplomat receiver.

Dips Score First

Franklin & Marshall then marched to their first touchdown, scoring on a line plunge from a few yards out. The kick was blocked and the Diplomats led 6-0.

After an exchange of punts, the Diplomats tried to kick, but Chris Wenger led the right side of the Lion line in to block the punt. The ball bounced into the air and Wenger grabbed the pigskin and raced 19 yards into the end zone for the first Albright score. The try for the point was blocked and the score was tied at 6-6.

Midway in the second period, F&M had a golden opportunity when they blocked a punt on the Albright 25. The Lions defense rose Moravian moved the ball to the Albright 2, but there the Lion line held the hard charging Greyhound backs. Again the Red and White built a sustained attack, but after four first downs again lost the ball on downs. Once more the Lions forced Moravian to punt and then marched across the midfield stripe. But, as before, the Lion attack stalled.

As the game drew to a close, Dragon hit Sheppard with a neat aerial pass to the Moravian 39. Here F&M ran out and the final count was the Greyhounds of Moravian 13 and the Albright Lions 7.

to the occasion and stopped the Diplomats on the 19. An exchange of fumbles was followed by an F&M interception of a DePaul pass on the visitor's 30 yard line. Again the Diplomats failed to cash in and Albright started, following a punt on their own 12. The Lions advanced the ball to the 20, but here they fumbled again and the Diplomats started a scoring march. After losing 9 on their first play, they hammered away at the Red and White line until on fourth down, as the half drew to a close, a mighty effort sent Tullai into the end zone, and the score was 13-6 in favor of F&M at halftime.

McNeill Blocks Punt

Albright kicked off to start the second half and F&M returned the ball to their own 22 yard line. The Lion defense began their terrific second half by stopping the Diplomats and Albright took over on their own 43. Roy Dragon, now in at quarterback, leaped over tackle for 6 yards, but two incompletes and a five yard penalty forced him to punt. Another exchange of punts gave F&M the ball on their own 28. The first play brought them an 8 yard loss and when a clipping penalty set them back to the 5, they sent Dale Ritter back to punt. The attempted kick was blocked in the end zone for a safety, but F&M still led 13-8.

Reller Tallies

The Diplomats kicked off and Wenger returned the ball to midfield. On the opening play, Reller, playing at halfback, swept left end for 20 yards and a first down on the F&M 30. Wenger hit the line for 4 yards and on the next play again went into the line, this time for 16 yards and another first down for the Lions. Then, after a line smash, Reller again swept around left end, this time for a touchdown and stunned Diplomat grads saw Albright lead 15-13.

F&M started on their 40 yard line, but failing to gain a first down, went into punt formation. The pass from center was fumbled, and after a series of fumbles with each team trying to get control of the elusive pigskin, Albright finally recovered on the Diplomat's 5 yard line. Here three line plays pushed the ball to the one yard line. Then Dragon, driving with all he had, slashed into the end zone and the Gulliamen led 22-13. This was the score when the game ended.

Lebanon Valley Here Saturday Afternoon for Homecoming Game

Tomorrow afternoon marks the thirty-second meeting between Albright and Lebanon Valley Colleges, as the Lions play host to the Flying Dutchmen at Albright Stadium in the Alumni Homecoming Game. The series, started in 1902, has been a close one. So far the Blue and White hold a 15-14 edge, so while two games have ended in ties. Last year the Dutchmen, spearheaded by the fine passing of Lou Sorrentino, defeated the Lions at Lebanon by a 13-0 count.

Coach Ellis McCracken's Valleyites include twelve lettermen and a crop of promising freshmen. Although Lou Sorrentino, Little-All-America quarterback, has graduated, Henry Douglass, an impressive freshman, has looked good in his place. Running from the half-back slots are Dave Bosacco, a 160 pound Junior, and Bob Longenecker, a 165-pound freshman who was converted from end. Rounding out the backfield is John Ollinger, 190-pound frosh fullback. At the ends will be two sophomores, Doug Miller and Ross Plasterer. Ronnie Weinel and Hal Benninghoff are the guards, Russ Owens and Dick Boarts the tackles, and Dave Miller is at the pivot spot. Leading reserves include ends Gene Zimmerman and Charlie Hartman, tackles Dick Sparks and Bob UMBERGER, guards Dean Becker and Bob Walker, and backs Gene Geesey, Larry Provard, and Jim Stanfield. Six freshmen will be in the lineup.

The Gulliamen are expected to be at full strength, with halfbacks Willie Smith and Tom Pollock having recovered fully from their injuries. Chris Wenger will be at fullback if his injured shoulder responds to treatment, and Roy Dragon will call plays from the quarterback slot. The line will be the same as it has been with the exception of Fred Ardito, who took over at the left guard slot. Rounding out the forward wall will be Jack Huntzinger, center, Bob Sulyma, guard, Fred Hess and Willie Goss, tackles, and Bob Krize and Ed McNeill, ends.

Just 2 blocks from the campus.

Pierce Announces Additions, Redecorations On Campus

Mr. H. Eugene Pierce has announced additions and changes in several campus buildings.

The main desk of the Alumni Memorial Library is in the process of being remodeled in order to include the steps leading to the second floor in the enclosure. This will make it easier for the librarians to check all books leaving the upstairs stacks. The desk is being made wider and longer by adding to the old one.

Additional bookshelves have been built in the library office on the second floor for long reference books.

Two gas disposal units have been installed on campus, one in the home economics laboratory in the Administration Building and the other in Sherman Cottage. These units are designed to disintegrate rubbish.

New tables and chairs have been placed in the small classroom in the basement of Teel Hall. This area will be used for special classes.

The necessary braces and supports have been installed in the minor sports wing of the Physical Education Building to be used in hanging protecting mats on the walls.

Room 307 in the Ad Building is being converted into a modern language laboratory. It has been repainted and redecorated with blackboards and additional shelving. The room will be ready for use by November 1st.

All buildings on campus are being put into proper condition for Homecoming open house.

An outdoor pay telephone booth is going to be installed in back of the Ad building near the mailbox. It will be ready for use in six weeks.

The signs that were so playfully taken by the F & M freshmen at 4:00 a. m. last Saturday are being repaired and repainted and will be nailed to their proper places as soon as possible. They are the Albright College sign from the corner of Thirteenth and Union streets and the Krause Hall sign.

A new system of checking the work of the custodians is now being developed. All areas that are cleaned will be inspected once a week and items will be listed on a check sheet. The object is to make the high housekeeping standards of Albright's custodians that much higher.

the surrounding grounds. I have heard several of my classmates speak about visiting City Hall . . . was that with the political science classes?

"Goose-pimples" are the latest on the Albright campus, and each fashion-wise P.T. student has his own special brand. Oh, for the long woolies of yesteryear.

Freshman president Clair Matz and his helpers John Luckenbill and Michael Schofield will receive commercial printing permits upon graduation—right boys??

Poisonous Digs

The subject of participation in campus affairs is really becoming very important at Albright. Last Friday was Sadie Hawkins' day and the girls were all dressed for a chase, but what happened? No chase. Could be the novelty of such affairs are wearing off for the present Albrightians or we are just a little bit too high and mighty.

Really, such affairs could be a lot of fun if we all went out and in plain words, "lived-it-up". Same goes for our football games. Our team may not be all-American, but we're letting our pride spoil our fun.

Before climbing out of the pit, I would like to wish luck to all those connected with our Annual Homecoming. Here's hoping the affair is better than ever.

Sadie Hawkins Day Observed

Although it rained Friday, October 29, the annual celebration of Sadie Hawkins' Day was held. The "Li'l Abner" comic strip characters were selected from the freshmen class. They included Bernadine Klinikowski as Daisy Mae, Jay Miller as Li'l Abner, Mary Agnes Arnold as Mammy Yokum, Philip Zullo as Pappy Yokum, Al Wenick as Marrying Sam and Barbara Kershner as Sadie Hawkins. The "femme fatales" were portrayed by Delores Xakellis as the cave girl, Josephine Polvino as Moonbeam McSwine and Billie Williams as the Wolf Gal.

During the day, they attended classes in their respective costumes. Albright coeds also were attired in their costumes which included Bermuda shorts and dungarees. The Sadie Hawkins' Day race was dispersed with because of inclement weather.

The annual dance was held in Krause Hall from 8:30 to 11:30 p. m. The first half of the dance included square dancing called by Albit Kitzner of Stouchsburg. Following the square dancing, Daisy Mae and Li'l Abner were married by Marrying Sam. Regular social dancing followed the ceremony. Refreshments were served.

Members of the Sadie Hawkins' Day committee of Women's Student Senate were Natalie Filbert, chairman, Rachel Kaebnick, Leda Pas-Yotts, Nancy Hitchner and Mary Jo Barbera.

Music Organizations Make Future Plans

Glee Club

The Albright College Glee Club is going to record the background music for a film being made for the celebration of the college's centennial in 1956.

Glee Club engagements for the year are: concert at the First Reformed EUB Church, Reading, on December 5; a combined concert with Dr. Duddy's church in Norristown, December 12; Christmas program on campus, December 14; concert on campus, January 14; first tour, February 13 through 15; second tour, April 24 through 28; and a music festival on Parent's Day, May 7.

'Y' Choir

The "Y" Choir, under the direction of Dave Lubba, started rehearsals on Tuesday, October 12, 1954. Anyone who enjoys singing should contact Dave Lubba at the Public Relations Office, and arrange for a tryout.

Hallowe'en Party Held By Josephine Raeppl

A Hallowe'en party was given by Miss Josephine Raeppl on October 29 in the Alumni Room for members of the library staff and invited guests.

Refreshments were served and entertainment provided by James Rogers.

Those present were Miss Raeppl, Mrs. Elsie Houck, John DeTurck, Ray Kaiser, Professor Donald S. Gates, Ray Faunce, Roslyn Cowen, Mary Wray, James Rogers, Professor Benjamin Brown and Larry Opdyke.

New Arrival

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Shirk October 24. Mr. Shirk is an instructor in mathematics and Faculty Manager of Athletics. Mrs. Annadora Vesper Shirk, formerly Assistant Professor of English, is now on a leave of absence.

Bob

If you ever want an enthusiastic but logical resume of why Albright College is the greatest in the world—if not in the universe—see Bob Dey from Heighstown, New Jersey, one of the calmer Zetas. Blond, blue eyed Bob, president of the Inter-Fraternity Council and of the Zeta Omega Epsilon Fraternity, has always been very active in organizing big fraternity weekends and all-college weekends like Homecoming Weekend and Parents' Weekend.

Bob will be a February graduate with a degree in business administration. His future plans will probably feature a job with either Proctor and Gamble or United States Steel, although Bob expects that his rich uncle will expect a little of his time first.

A transferred DU from Rutgers, Bob believes that fraternities represent an important part of college life. He devotes a lot of energy to promoting better and more congenial inter-fraternity relations. One of the key men in drawing up a more suitable system for fraternity rushing, he has been instrumental in pushing the new pledging rules that the I.F.C. hopes will soon be approved by the administration.

Bob's other activities include playing intramural softball, football, and basketball (for the Zetas, of course!). He is a frequent commuter to the crows nest, and is fond of a special kind of Italian food.

Albright-on-Schuylkill won't be the same without Bob, but then it hasn't been the same since he got here, either. No kidding, Bob, we'll all miss you.

"Yes, Capt. Queeg."

"One last thing, Mister Maryck. I notice that hands have been going ashore without long coats over their shorts. Also, they have been forgetting to write "P" period "M" period on their leave chits, and it's pretty bad when you miss a period. And there is to be no feeding the seals—and ship must be darkened at noon with quiet hours effective immediately thereafter—and there is to be no talking from porthole to porthole—and especially not to mermaids—and—"

"I wonder who did steal those strawberries."

Games Feature Rec Program

Ping pong was featured on the opening day of the Coed Recreation Center held in Krause Hall, Thursday, November 3. The program will be held Monday through Thursday every week from 12:30 to 4:00 p. m. Students attending will be asked to remain on the balcony where leather davenports and tables will be provided for studying.

This recreation program will be an informal sort of entertainment since the parlors are to be used during the day for only formal functions.

As of now, ping-pong is the only game but until the program proves to be satisfactory, other games, such as shuffleboard, will be included.

Mrs. T. T. Spencer is the supervisor for the programs and James Hall is going to appoint a committee to help Mrs. Spencer.

Lt. Cmdr. Sobien Will Confer on Air Program

Joseph W. Sobien, Lieutenant commander, USNR, who is a naval aviation cadet procurement officer, will be on campus the entire day, Tuesday, November 16 from 10:00 a. m. to talk to those young men who are interested in the Naval Aviation Cadet Program.

To become a member of this program, you are required to be between the ages of eighteen and twenty-five, unmarried, have two or more years of college and be physically fit.

If you are in this category, visit with the NavCad representative in the Conference Room of the Administration Building to discuss the possibilities and opportunities of this program. Or, if you wish to stay in school and complete the requirements for your degree, he will be happy to advise you about post graduation planning.
