Y's to Sponsor Xmas Party for Local Children

The Albright student YM-YWCA is sponsoring the annual Christmas party for the underprivileged children of the Reading area on Sun-day, December 13 from 12:30 to 4:00 P.M. Dinner is to be served in the dining hall. An afternoon of entertainment is to follow in Krause Hall. Entertainment is to follow in Krause Hall. Entertainment under the di-rection of Dennis Upton will in-clude games and a movie entitled "How the Animals Discovered Christmas."

Anita Mossberg and Dennis Upton are co-chairmen of the affair with Dan Damon supervising toy repair in Krause Hall from 7 to 10 P.M. for this past week, Ron Davis on registration, and Bob Martin and Larry Beman in charge of the collection of toys from downtown stores and local schools.

Family Service and Fellowship House are co-operating with the student Y by supplying names of children. Approximately 175 children are expected to see Santa Claus who will distribute toys, candied apples, and candy cotton, to the youngsters.

A 1:1 ratio of students to children is the aim of the program. Anyone interested in helping should report to Krause Hall tonight for toy repair, to Krause Hall tomorrow afternoon or sign up in the cafe-teria lobby as soon as possible and adopt a child for $1.00.

Glee Club To Present Christmas Concert

The annual Christmas assemblies will feature a concert of sacred music by the Albright College Glee Club under the direction of Mr. LeRoy B. Hinkle.

The programs will feature choral selections centered around the Christmas season, dating from the early seventeenth century to the present, highlighted by a short can-tata, "O Beloved Shepherds", by tata, "O Beloved Shepnerds", by the German Baroque composer, An-dreas Hammerschmidt. This work includes four-part choral portions, soprano solo sections sung by Bon-nie Schlagel '68, and instrumental accompaniment by a baroque-type ensemble of two flutes, a violincello, and a harpsicord.

Other numbers in the program include: "Sing, O Ye Heavens" by Johann Friedrich Peter; "The Shepherds 'Farewell" by Hector Berlois, "Carol of the Bells" by Leontovich; "Christ is Born", arranged by Marion Vree.

Also "To Us a Child is Given" by Heinrich Schutz; "Christmas Dance of the Shepherds" by Zoltan Ko-daly; "Te Deum" by Flor Peeters, and "Carol of Questioning Child" by Richard Kountz.

Other soloists include Andrea Bream '67, Judith Fye '68, and Lois Schieck '67. Accompanists are Jean Fister '67, and Fianna Yiengst '68.

DORM CONSTRUCTION UNDERWAY

Excavations for the foundation of the new dormitory at 13th Street and College Avenue, across from the Physical Education Building have begun. The $500,000 unit is expected to be finished and ready for occupation at the beginning of the 1965-66 school year. Photo by Butler.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,
Regarding Mr. Silverstein's letter to you in the November 20th Albrightian—It seems to me that any of us on the college level are capable of learning about Egyptian culture by reading it on his own. However, it seems that the professed lack of knowledge on the part of some persons blinded them to the useful part of Dr. Cooney's lecture on the museum science, Egyptology.

Grapplers Topple Elizabethtown

By Allen Waring
Mr. Joseph R. Now opened his career as Albright wrestling coach against Elizabethtown last Monday. Albright's opening wrestling match, three freshman grapplers won their individual matches. In the 23-12 Albright victory, Jack Arneson, a freshman from Scotch Plains, N. J., received a draw with John Boutselis, from Grantville, Pa.; John Ericson, a freshman from Branchville, N. J. won a decision from Ron Spinner; and Ed Spallar, a freshman from Newport, Pa., pinned Dan Woolcock.

In a match where good moves and aggressiveness paid off, the Albright wrestlers got three pins, two decisions and a draw to score 23 points on E-Town. Although the Albright grapplers failed to wrestle in their weight classifications, and ended up forfeiting the 137 lb. class. only one grappler, Keith Brintzen-hoff, lost his match. John Kutzer and Dick Horst in the most exciting matches of the evening got pins in the second period. Herman Rij, in a match where he outclassed his ponent in every respect won a de-

Albright Takes Second In Volleyball Playday

Saturday, December 5, Albright co-eds participated in a volleyball and swimming playday sponsored by Kutztown State Teachers College in which Muhlenberg, Moravian and Cedar Crest Colleges also competed.
The following girls led by captain
Lydia Rhoads represented Albright in the volleyball tournament: Leslie Kepler, Connie Dudek, Susan Lourds, Alice Mattox, Lenore Berg, Alice Graham, Barbara Anderson, Maureen Cawley, Marie Maly, Vir-ginia Ettinger, Kathy Schneider, and Carol Jefferson.

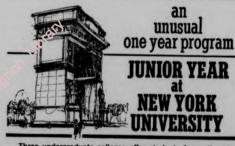

Albright won victories in volley-ball over Moravian, Cedar Crest and Muhlenberg losing only to Kutztown. Team standings are as follows:

Von	Lost	Tie
	4 3 1 1	1 2 1 2

Stunt swimming divided the colleges into teams with Marilyn Or-fuss playing for the second place Mermaids and Pam Behrens playing for the third place Porpoises. Said coach Ramsey, "I thought the girls did very well but we would've done better with more practice as team."

More practice is available for interested girls on Tuesday, December 8 and 15 during the intramural volleyball games managed by Nancy Gregory.

The first intramural games held December 2 saw the freshmen teams victorious as the Selwyn girls of Frosh I defeated the Pats 22-13, Frosh II daywomen defeated North Hall Frosh III 15-13, Frosh I defeated the Independents 21-9, Frosh III defeated the Mus 17-7, Frosh II defeated the Pats 16-14, and the Independents lost to the Mus 11-20.

Three undergraduate colleges offer students from all parts of the United States an opportunity to spend their junior year in the stimulating environment of the University's Washington Square Center. Small classes; new residence halls.

Program open to students who are recommended by the deans of the colleges to which they will return for their degrees.
