Senior Commencement Orators

Representing the honor group of the Senior Class, Ada Gossler and Donald Burger will be the orators at Commencement Exercises, June 10, it was announced today by school officials.

German Players Win Merit Awards At Olympics

Die Deutsche Verein's trip to the Cultural Olympics in Philadelphia several weeks ago was more than just a pleasure trip according to the rating ballot Dr. Gerritt Memming received recently from olympic officials.

With a rating of not than four—equal to very good—in all the judging categories, and a rating of five—excellent—in three of them, the German players earned for themselves an award of merit from the drama critics.

"Fine performance in every respect," said the judges. "Action free from any awkwardness, and pronunciation excellent. Special honors to direction."

"Fanne Vor Alt-Heidelberg," by Erich Funks, a play in modern German about the year 1932, was the presentation. This play is a part of the second-year German class work at Albright.

Characters who took part in the production were Arthur McKay, Geraldine Ross, Ethel Mae Yeakel, Donald Burger, and Harold Werner.

$30 For 3 Years Is Magazine Grant

The Carnegie Foundation has given Albright College $30 to buy magazines for a period of three years. Magazines to be added have as yet not been selected.

They must be used regularly in courses of instruction and must be additions to the periodical literature the college now has. An annual report must be made concerning the use of them and the college must subscribe for the magazines three additional years.

TUBERCULIN TESTS FOR SENIORS—MAY 13

Seniors, be treated for tuberculosis before leaving college. Tuberculin tests are required for teachers in many school districts.

Albright Soph Brings Applause On Bowes' Hour

"Round and round it goes and where it stops nobody knows."

It stopped in Reading last week and took Seymour Mendelsohn to New York, Thursday night to play two marimba selections on Major Bowes' famous amateur night program.

Artful wielder of the tone-producing hammers, Mendelsohn, a member of the sophomore class, is Berks county's first home-town boy to make good on the nation-wide broadcast of Major Bowes'. In fact he's the first local representative ever to appear on the amateur program.

Everything started last March when a representative of the Bowes' radio show came to Reading to auditor several of Reading's amateur "greats." Recording his prospect's ability, the talent scout went back to New York.

Last Wednesday, Mendelsohn got a long-distance telephone call asking him whether or not he would be able to appear on Thursday night's broadcast.

Thursday night, Mendelsohn was in the audience when the show started. That's where all the "amateurs" sit, he said. Incidentally the studio was at 53rd and Broadway.

Introduced as a 19-year-old marimba player, the Albright musician proceeded to bring down the house of 1,500 persons as well as perhaps a few million others listening in. He played "Old Refrain," by Kreisler

May Queen to be Crowned During Campus Ceremonies Tomorrow Afternoon

Mrs. Masters Hostess At Tea For Mothers

Long live the queen! That is, the May Queen. She's going to be crowned tomorrow afternoon on the lawn in front of the college library during elaborate ceremonies.

Caroline Hastings is her name today. Tomorrow her name will be Queen Caroline. June Yocum is official custodian of the crown which Queen Caroline will wear while she presides over the dances and other festivities connected with the affair.

Scheduled for 3 o'clock, the program will start with a short concert by a symphony orchestra. Then will follow the processional and coronation. Jane Buttorff will be maid of honor, while the queen's court will include Mildred Angstadt, Ada Gossler, Ruth Stratton, Mary Etta Filbert, Mary McCreary, Mary Lower, Audrey Goodling and Fern Dentith.

Senior girls who will form flower arches are Gene Lau, Louise Keller, Mary Capello, Jane Reed, Janet Horn, Bessie Knerr, Evelyn Goyno, Evelyn Heller, Lida Faist, Jane Dick, Mary Dunlap, Louise Eastland, Byrdie Kalish, Dorothy Patt, Mary Jane Stetler, Elva Weaver and Edith Keys.

Pages attending the queen will be June Shetron and Marian Bittenbender, while the trainbearers and crownbearer will be Dorothy Gaul and Joan Belmont, respectively.

Maypole dancers will include the following junior girls: Myrtle Stegman, Marian Phareser, Eleanor Troutman, Kay Cashe, Catherine Buzzard, Evelyn Belmont, Esther Sipple, Mary Klein, Virginia Gaul, Margaret Schmelk, Thelma Reber, Virginia Jackson, Edna Bialek, Miriam Hershey, and Ruth Ennis.

Dancers moderne will be Maxine Pankus, Helen Hain, Miriam Weidner, Virginia Black, Elaine Shade, Sally Weaver, Betty Siegel, Marie Zaffiro, Marie Kauffman, Betty Jones, June Spohn, Mary Levan, Jane Spot's, Jean Bomgardner, Margaret Wolf, Geraldine Ross, Mary Lou Houck, and Margaret Thompson.

A tea for mothers of juniors and senior girls will be held in the library by Mrs. Harry V. Masters, immediately after the out-of-doors activities.

4 Spring Formals Tonite, Tomorrow

Three fraternities and one sorority will hold their spring formal dances tonight and tomorrow night. Phi Beta Mu will swing and sway at the Berkshire Country Club starting at 7.30 o'clock tonight. One half hour later, Pi Tau Beta fraternity activities will get under way at the Reading Country Club.

Pacifist Speaks At IRC Meeting

Contending that war and Christianity can never be reconciled, the Rev. John R. Hahn, pastor of Bausman Memorial Church, Wyomissing, spoke to the International Relations Club last night.

He said that if the United States government were to enter a war today he would "still maintain the policy of working to maintain the spirit of non-violence and goodwill."

The Rev. Mr. Hahn said he opposed the present war on two points, first because it is a continuation of the last war, and second because there is no justification for it. Rev. Mr. Hahn termed it a "return to paganism and the dark ages."

New officers of the IRC are: president, Mary Klein; vice-president, Thelma Rebert; secretary, Marion Plummer; and treasurer, Christos Bratiotis.

16 Students Get Domino Bids

Bids to membership in the Domino Club were extended to freshmen and to upper class students, who had professed interest in and had worked for the organization. Initiation of new members will be held on May 15.

Those who received bids were: Evelyn Heller, Geraldine Ross, Patricia Smith, John Hertz, Dwight Dundore, Alan DeLong, Ruth Hand, Donald Blackmore, Janet Kitzmiller, Ruth Ennis, Emma Shenk, Marjorie Frundt, Virginia Black, Marie Kauffman and Margaret Thompson.

Editorial

The Albrightian will be open for business under new management starting with this issue!

Following customary procedure the new staff has taken over its new duties several issues before the term ends so a smoothly-working machine can be built for next year. However, the change of bosses does not necessarily imply change in policy. The chief aim of the Albrightian will be as it has been in the past—to voice opinions of the student body.

Whenever a faculty member has an opinion to express regarding school policy, he can take it to a faculty meeting, present his idea and then hear a discussion of the proposal.

The Albrightian is the student's "faculty meeting." If he wants to publicly present an idea concerning affairs related to the college, he can do it through this publication. If a reader disagrees, he can always dissent in this column.

There is one stipulation, however regarding publishing students' comments—they may not be anonymous. The editors will withhold names from the article if the writer so desires.

Since most of last year's staff members were seniors, someone should throw a few orchids to them for their splendid work on the Albrightian.

And just to get the ball rolling we're throwing the first two dozen

4 SPRING FORMALS

Zeta Omega Epsilon will dance at the Berkshire Hotel starting at 9:00 o'clock tomorrow night, while the Kappa Upsilon Phi fraternity will begin its evening affair at the same time at Galen Hall.

Next Friday the Pi Alpha Tau Sorority will hold its Spring formal and on Saturday the Alpha Pi Omega fraternity will dance.

Shippensburg Dramatists Here

The Shippensburg State Teachers College Masquers were guests of the Domino Club Wednesday night. Six members of the cast, the director and Dr. Albert L. Rowland, president of the college, were guests of the club at dinner in the college dining hall. Dr. Rowland spoke informally at the Domino meeting at 8 o'clock.

The Masquers presented the one-act play in which they appeared at the Cultural Olympics. It was a rather modernistic play with no stage sets and no properties. The Domino Club hopes to arrange for more exchange programs with nearby college dramatic clubs next year.

and "Arabian Minute Dance," by Green.

Now, Mendelsohn is an amateur no longer. He's signed up with Mallory and Dease Theatrical Agency in Reading. But that still won't stop him from playing to Albrightians in chapel at 10 o'clock next Tuesday and Wednesday mornings.

Sorority Holds Formal Initiation

Phi Beta Mu Sorority held formal initiation services Monday for eleven pledges. Those admitted to the sisterhood were Jean Bomgardner, Virginia Black, Katherine Geis Marie Kauffman, Ellen Whitmoyer Jane Spotts, Lucille Wolfe, Irene Snyder, Margaret Thompson, Helei Hain and Mary Levan.

Election of officers was held. The following will hold office next semester: President, Margaret Schmeelk; vice president, Katherine Buzzard; corresponding secretary Myrtle Stegman; recording sec.; Virginia Jackson; treasurer; Thelma Rebert; student council representative, Natalie Brandt.

After the meeting, the entire group was entertained at a spaghetti supper by Miss Fenili and Miss Elder.

New "Y" Cabinet In First Session

The new YMCA cabinet held its first meeting Tuesday evening in the college chapel. Devotions were led by Donald Buxton. Lewis Brine spoke on the purpose and activity of the college "Y."

New "Y" president, George Eppheimer, conducted a business session which dealt with reorganization and planning for next year's program. An amendment to one of the articles of the "Y" constitution was proposed. It will be posted for public notice, and an election held for its consideration next week.

Because of immediate business matters a special cabinet meeting will be held next Tuesday evening. These meetings are open to students.

A survey of reports about the "Y" retreat at Hamburg last week indicates that it was highly enjoyed. Seven carloads of students attended. The opening convocation and matins were led by George Eppheimer and Margaret Holtenbach. Miss Fenili led the Sunday matins.

Speakers at the retreat were Dr. Raymond Veh, editor of "The Evangelical Crusader," and Miss Louise Pfuetze, regional secretary of the Student Christian Movement.

Discussion leaders were Prof. Lewis Smith, Dr. Milton Geil, and the two speakers.

Science Notes

A peppy softball game and a "fabulous feast" were the highlights of the annual Alchemist outing, which was held last Tuesday evening, in Egelman's Park.

As usual the softball game proved to be a "thriller" with the Pre-Meds managing to eke out a slight advantage over the Chem-Majors. The "Majors," however, were hastily contesting the "Meds" supremacy with a strong rally—just as lunch time was announced.

George Hurley and his henchman provided a spread large enough for a small army and the food disappeared in typical army style. There was food everywhere—so much that even Steve Flaskonos and Butcher were stopped dead by the hounds. It was really a pleasure to see that gang dive into that "pon." Even that temperate minded individual, Alton Duke, was slinging two sodas at a time, while busily engaged in canine efforts with the remaining hand.

When each and all had had their fill of "franks" soda, marshmallows, potato salad, potato chips, and ice cream, President Epstein called a business meeting for the election of next year's officers. Dick Ziegenfus lost out on the pilot's berth by the narrow margin of one vote to his worthy opponent and next year's new president, Stanley Ronsanski. Bill McKinney is Ronsanski's new working mate, with Catherine Buzzard as secretary-treasurer.

The Aeronautic group took their exams last Tuesday night.

Dr. Clarence Horn attended a meeting of school and college health officials of New York and Pennsylvania at the University of Pennsylvania last Saturday.

Malcolm J. Reider, '36, expects to finish his work for a Ph. D. degree next month. He has accepted a position as a research chemist in the laboratories of the American Cyanamid Company at Stanford, Conn. His new work will start July 15. He majored in chemistry and biology at college.

Annual Skull and Bones banquet will be held at the Boyertown Inn tomorrow.

Dr. B. G. Wilkes, of The Mellon Institute Laboratories of Carbide and Carbon Chemists Corporations, will speak at the joint meeting of Reading Chemists and the Alchemists, Tuesday, May 21.

W. A. A. Awards Jackets, Letters

The Women's Athletic Association has just announced its awards for participation in girls sports activities. Jackets have been given to Caroline Hastings, Margaret Savidge, Evelyn Belmont, and Esther Sippel. Letters have been handed to Mary Levan and Kitty Geib while numerals have been won by Bett Dietz, Esther Whitehead, Ellen Whitmoyer, and Joan Belmont.

The Girls' Softball League has gotten under way and two games have been played. The Frosh defeated the Sophs 17-16, and the Pats took over the Mus 25-19. On Monday, May 13, the Mus will play the Non-Sorority girls and on Tuesday the Pats face the Non-Sorority group in the only two scheduled games for next week.

Next Friday the girls tennis team has scheduled Lebanon Valley for their first match. The tennis ladder stands this way:

- 1.—Betty Dietz.
- 2.—Olga Bitler.
- 3.—Mary Filbert.
- 4.—Kitty Geib.
- 5.—Caroline Hastings.
- 6.—Bessie Knerr.
- 7.—Jeanette Snyder.

Greek Festival Next Thursday

Approximately 2,400 years ago a play called "Alcestis" written by a man named Euripides was presented to a Greek audience.

Next Thursday at 4:30 in the afternoon, that same play will be presented on the science hall steps by a group of Albright students to an American audience as a feature of the annual Greek festival of the college.

Heading the cast will be: Dean Allen, Admentus; Ada Gossler, Alcestis; Arthur McKay, Heracles; Harold Anderson, Apollo; Albert Falcone, Fheres; Paul Ackert, Thanatos; Bessie Knerr, handmaid; and George Henry, leader of the chorus. Robert L. Work will direct the production.

Pats Outclass Mu's, 25-29

Pi Alpha Tau Sorority won the Pat-Mu baseball game 25-19 by a spurt of hard fighting in the last inning. During the first few innings of the game the Mu's were ahead 14-4, but were overcome when the Pats scored twenty runs in the last canto:

Racket Squad Seeks Win Over Polytech Today

Lose Match To Drew, 6-3

After dropping their second successive match on Wednesday afternoon, the tennis team plays host to the Wyomissing Polytechnic Institute squad today on the Eleventh and Pike courts. The score of the Drew University tussle was 6-3, as the visitors swept the singles and the ovals the doubles.

Coach Russell Resch's protégé showed great improvement in battling the New Jersey school which holds victories over such formidable opponents as Dickinson and Moravian. It seems the team has come a long way since the 9-0 shellacking handed out to the Lions by the powerful Muhlenberg outfit.

The match today with the Wyomissing school is the eighth scheduled and yet only two have been played. This is due to the inability of the schools to get together on the matter of rain dates as the Lafayette Rutgers, Lebanon Valley, Lehigh, and Dickinson matches have been called on account of wet courts or rain. The squad traveled to Dickinson last Saturday with the losing track team but wet courts prevented court action at Carlisle.

Give the tennis Lions credit for fighting back Wednesday. Although Ray Hain, Don Burger, Ray Sweet and Dick Walton each dropped their singles match, they paired together and captured two doubles matches from the same opponents. A third doubles match was defaulted by Drew to give Albright their third point for the day's activities.

Summary:
Singles: Klinetab, Drew, beat Hain, 6-1, 7-5; Hultsch, Drew, beat Burger, 3-6, 6-3, 6-1; Levitt, Drew beat Walton, 6-4, 6-2; Lehighbourn Drew, beat Pomeroy, 6-0, 6-1; Scovill, Drew, beat Swett, 6-3, 6-1; Frazer, Drew, beat Spatz, 6-3, 8-10, 6-2.
Doubles: Hain and Burger, Albright, beat Klinetab and Scovill, 7-6, 0-6, 6-4; Walton and Swett, Albright, beat Capnon and Levitt, 4-6, 6-3, 6-4; Drew defaulted third doubles.

Trackmen Meet Ursinus, Tuesday

Coach Bill Dietz's track aggregation travels to Ursinus on Tuesday to engage the Bears in a dual meet. The Lions dropped their only other dual meet to Dickinson last Saturday, 76 1-3 — 49 2-3 despite three firsts and third by Paul Golis.

Clem Boland, the sophomore sensation, is expected to be back in top form for Tuesday's meet. The Mt. Penn flash lacked his usual punch due to fraternity initiations. Paul Michaels, the tall blonde high-jumper, is also expected to flash characteristic good form on the Bear field after a slow start at Carlisle.

The summary of the Dickinson meet:

Track Events
100-Yard Dash—Won by Breen, Albright; second, Boland, Albright; third, Bitting, Albright. Time 10.2 seconds.
220-Yard Dash—Won by Breen, Albright; second, Strong, Dickinson; third, Bitting, Albright. Time—24 seconds.
440-Yard Dash—Won by Burdulis, Dickinson; second, Strong, Dickinson; third, Boland, Albright. Time—54.8 seconds.
880-Yard Run—Won by Smith, Dickinson; second, Romaniel, Dickinson; third, Hamilton, Dickinson. Time—2:12.6.
1 Mile Run—Won by Golis, Albright; second, Mays, Dickinson; third, Baldwin, Dickinson. Time—5:30.
Two-Mile Run—Won by Golis, Albright; second, Snyder, Dickinson; third, Gigli, Albright. Time—11:37.

Field Events
Pole Vault—Won by Breen, Albright; second, Silver, Dickinson, and Koche, Albright (tie); third, Petrucka. Height—11 feet, 3 inches.
High Jump—Won by McCabe, Dickinson; second, Michaels, Albright; third, Petrucka, Albright. 5 feet, 8 inches.
Shot Put — Won by Kaminski, Dickinson; second, Westgate, Albright; third, Gorse, Dickinson. Distance—49 feet, 3 inches.
Discus—Won by Nicely, Dickinson; second, Kaminski, Dickinson; third, Golis, Albright. Distance—118 feet, 7 inches.
Broad Jump—Won by Bitting, Albright; second, Burdulis, Dickinson; third, Golis, Albright. Distance—110 feet, 7 inches.
Javelin Throw—Won by Gorse, Dickinson; second, Garfinkle, Dickinson, third, Johnson, Albright. Distance—171 feet, 3 inches.

It did this columnist's heart good to see Dick Westgate's name in the track meet with Dickinson College last Saturday. Dick, you remember suffered a very serious injury in a football game with LaSalle College two seasons ago and it was feared Dick would never be able to participate in any kind of sport again. If you read, closely, you may have seen that the big Reading lad took second place in the shot-put event. The winning heave traveled 49 feet, 3 inches, just a few inches more than Westgate's best throw.

The short left field of the softball diamond has created another problem for the Inter-Fraternity Council. As the rule stands today any ball hit over the bank goes for all the runner can get except if the fielder catches the ball below the bank. This is obviously unfair to the batter who clubs a ball high over the bank and yet is called out because the left fielder caught the ball on the fly below the bank. It is my contention that a hitter who can give that potato such a ride as clears the bank should be entitled to all the bases he can get even though the ball is caught. After all, who can vouch for every catch claimed when nobody can see the actual putout. Any ball over the hill should be a hit.

Whitey Quiren and Dick Shollenberger got out their long rifles on Sunday afternoon while playing in the Northern Recreation League. Whitey hit a homer to put the game on ice for Hamburg over Fleetwood while Richard clubbed a three-bagger for Topton. In that Hamburg victory over Fleetwood, Jack Munley and Raymer Kent each garnered two safe blows for the losers.

The Ping-Pong tournament has reached the semi-final stage. In the first match, the A. P. O.'s will take on the Day Students while in the other match, the Faculty will battle the Theology-Dorm. In the consolation bracket the Frosh Dorm opposes the P. T. B.'s and the Zeta's oppose the Kappa's.

The Kappas took on added prestige on Tuesday night when they came from behind to nip the strong local aggregation, the Sterling A. C., by the score of 8-7. Bishop Half-foster pitched the entire game for the fraternity team.

The team composed of the freshman dorm, the second-floor theologs and outsideboarding students, are really upsetting the dope in the Inter-Fraternity League by sweeping aside all opposition and keeping their slate clean with 5 victories and no defeats. The league standing before yesterday's contests:
