Cultural Program Lists Nieuw Amsterdam Trio

The first cultural program of the semester will be presented Tuesday in chapel. The program will feature the Nieuw Amsterdam Trio. The trio includes Edith Mocsanyi, pianist; Joseph Rabushka, violinist; and Daniel Vandersall, cellist.

The trio is one of the distinguished chamber ensembles toured by Albert Morini. Like the "Virtuosi di Roma," the "Societa Corelli" and the "Duo di Roma," it has been enthusiastically acclaimed by critics for its exciting and musically interpretations of repertoire of three centuries. The performances of the complete Beethoven cycle (eleven trios in three evenings), presented at Jordan Hall in Boston and the Teatro Municipal in San Juan, Puerto Rico, have been hailed by press and public as "magnificent," "excellent," "splendid."

Outstanding Achievement

Another outstanding achievement of the Nieuw Amsterdam Trio is its Mozart cycle (eight trios in two evenings). The works of modern composers, such as Shostakovich and the American, Charles Ives, are prominently featured on the Trio's program.

Miss Mocsanyi, the pianist, graduated from the master class of the Viennese Academy of Music under the world famous pianist, Emil von Sauer, and studied subsequently with Leonie Gombrich. She toured extensively throughout Europe and the Near East as the pianist of the Koffmann Trio and the George Steiner Trio.

Pupil Of Bronstein

The violinist, Rabushka, was a pupil of Raphael Bronstein. He made his debut at the age of 14 in Town Hall. Three years later he gave his first solo recital at Carnegie Hall. He gave recitals and played as soloist with various symphony orchestras at Carnegie Hall in New York, in Chicago, St. Louis, and Philadelphia.

Vandersall, the cellist, was a post-graduate pupil of Felix Salmond at the Juilliard School of Music and graduate assistant to Louis Hassellmans at Louisiana State University. He was cellist of such noted orchestras as the Pittsburgh Symphony (under Fritz Reiner) and the Radio City Hall Orchestra (under Alexander Smallens).

Pi Tau's, Mu's Win Stunt Night Trophies

The Pi Tau Beta fraternity became this year's Stunt Night champion in the annual competition held last Friday evening in Krause Hall. Second place honors went to the Phi Beta Mu sorority for the second consecutive year.

Robert Van Hoove, '58, chairman, introduced the eight participating skits, and presented the two trophies to this year's winners at the conclusion of the three hour program.

The stunts were judged by Marguerite Voss Osman, Mrs. Robert Bruce McLean, and Alfred Merino. They awarded points to each skit on the basis of originality, continuity, coherence, organization, and effective presentation.

Presented In Verse

The Pi Tau skit, a satire on "A Day at the United Nations," was presented entirely in verse.

The Mu's were awarded second place for their presentation of "How Angels and Demons First Became Men."

Six other campus groups also competed for the trophies. The Pi Alpha Tau sorority gave its interpretation of "Green Door." The Alpha Pi Omega fraternity, last year's Stunt Night champion, centered its skit around current popular calypso music. The Kappa Upsilon Phi fraternity presented its version of "Julius Caesar."

The Zeta Omega Epsilon fraternity conducted a sightseeing tour of New York City. A take-off on wrestling techniques and personalities was presented by the Daymen's organization. The skit given by the Daywomen's organization was entitled "Charmin' Carmen."

Tonight!!

"The Babe Ruth Story", featuring William Bendix, Claire Trevor, and Charles Bickford, will be shown in Krause Hall at 8 p.m. Everyone is invited. Admission is free.

They are Grace Englemen, '60, chairman of publicity; Alexandra Karetas, '60, chairman of invitations; Nancy Ratajczak, '60, chairman of decorations and hospitality; Dorothy Bookhamer, '60, chairman of refreshments and serving; and Sandra Bressler, '60, chairman of program.

Board Sets New Fee Plan, Re-Elects Bollman President

George Bollman

The Board of Trustees set up a new plan for annual fees for students and re-elected George Bollman to his sixth term as president at its annual session Feb. 14.

In an official letter C. L. Gordon, Jr., treasurer of the college, explains the new plan as follows: "Heretofore, students paid basic tuition, an activities fee, a freshman orientation fee, a graduation fee and separate laboratory fees. The action taken by the Board of Trustees combines all these charges into one all-inclusive figure of $725.00 beginning September 1957.

Room And Board

Since all students living on campus or in college-controlled living accommodations are required to board at the college, room and board have also been combined into one charge of $575.00 beginning September 1957.

The grouping of all charges into a comprehensive fee provides a simplified statement of college costs for both parents and students. An ever increasing number of colleges and universities are adopting this procedure."

Several other officers were also re-elected at the meeting. They include first vice-president, Bishop George E. Epp; second vice-president, Luke Lutz; and secretary, Rev. Dr. Charles Kachel.

The trustees recommended further salary increases for the college faculty and staff and authorized the executive committee to appoint a permanent development committee and a full-time director of development.

The board also recommended that a new architect's drawing be submitted for a new chapel auditorium. The drawing would call for a colonial type building, with permanent seating to accommodate 850 persons and the sanctuary arranged so it can be used for both sacred and secular programs. The basement would include classrooms and accommodations for music rehearsals.

The sketch will be presented to the executive committee who will later refer it to the board for final action.

Denise Named Guest Speaker

Paul S. Denise will be guest speaker for the World University Service Week observance March 4-9 on campus.

Denise is regional executive of WUS in the Middle Atlantic and New York regions. He will speak at the Tuesday chapel meeting and at the Y Meeting March 5.

The program of events for men's sports and the rules for participation in Sports Night activities have been completed by Dale Yoder, '57, and Albert Ellis, '58, co-chairmen of the committee. Mildred Folk, '58, and Claire Vogel, '60, are planning the women's activities. Sports Night will climax the WUS program Saturday, March 9 in the Albright Fieldhouse. Martha Richards, '59, is refreshment chairman for this program.

Frank Fisher, '58, and Carol Stillwaggon, '59, are co-chairmen of the solicitation group which has set a goal of $350 to aid Hungarian students and professors.

Other chairmen include: general chairman, Barbara Cox, '59; publicity, Mary Ellen Applemen, '58; and Sports Night programs, Nancy Ratajczak, '60.

Council Passes Parking Motion

Student Council, after devoting another lengthy session on Tuesday to the discussion of the college's parking regulations, passed a motion calling for the college administration to suspend the distribution of parking-regulation booklets pending further work on the regulations by both the administration and Council. The motion was made by Robert Van Hoove, '58, and passed unanimously.

The motion came after extensive discussion of the issue, following a report by Frank York, '58, chairman of Council's Student Activities Committee, that the regulations had not been discussed with his committee before being multigraphed, as Council had understood they would be.

Administration Report

Clyde Hawing, associate professor of English, reported to Council that the administration's practice of establishing a list of approved locations for college social events has been discontinued, and that henceforth the organization involved and its advisor are responsible for planning social events in such a manner that the principles and rules of the college will be upheld.

The representatives, on the motion of Van Hoove, voted unanimously to protest to the Board of Trustees the new college fee plan because of the inclusion in it of laboratory fees and already-paid orientation expenses. At the same time, Council requested from the administration an itemized breakdown on how the tuition money is spent.

York also told the Council members that an activity evaluation program is now being conducted by the faculty committee on Student Activities.

EUB Vocations Team Makes Campus Visit

Representatives of the EUB Church were on campus last Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday as a Church Vocations Team.

The team consisted of Dr. J. Arthur Heck, who spoke to the theological students; Dr. Roy H. Turley and Rev. E. O. Fisher, who interviewed those interested in home or foreign missions; and Rev. Warren Hartman, who saw all those interested in the field of Christian education.

Albright Personality

• Lucy Pryor •

By Billie Williams

Mrs. Pryor came to Albright as Lucy Schuman, a graduate of Eichleberger High School in Hanover, Pa., where she was an honor student. During her first three years of college, Lucy lived in Selwyn Hall. She was elected to the dormitory council. In her junior year she acted as secretary of that organization, a fact of which many coeds are unhappy aware!

Speech Winner

As a freshman, she started out her college career on the right foot by winning second prize in the annual speech contest. When she became a sophomore, she entered more heartily into extra-curricular activities by becoming active in the Y. W. C. A. and the Future Teachers of America Club. She has continued her participation in the "Y" through her senior year.

This year Lucy joined the Daywomen's Organization, since she lives off campus with her husband who graduated from Albright last year.

Lucy has been a four-year employee in the Leonard Van Driel emporium, proving that she enjoys her work there. Her efficiency in the college kitchen and dining hall serve as proof that she is a good homemaker. Right now she is dividing her time between keeping house, working and student teaching. We all know that this industrious young woman will be a success in life. After graduation she hopes to secure a teaching job in the vicinity.

Lion Courtmen Set For Hofstra, Moravian Clashes

IN THE LION'S DEN

By Phil Eyrich, Associate Editor

With the rapid approach of the end of the current basketball season now in progress, it is significant to look at the newly-formed league setup by the Middle Atlantic States Conference. Under the plan formulated recently, and approved by the National Collegiate Athletic Association, the schools in the MASC were divided into a university division and a college division. Bucknell, Lafayette, Lehigh, LaSalle, Muhlenberg, Rutgers, St. Joseph's and Temple were placed in the former group. The remaining schools were further divided into a northern college division and a southern college division. Albright, Dickinson, Juniata, Lebanon Valley, Lycoming, Hofstra, Moravian, Scranton, Stevens, Wagner, Wilkes, and Susquehanna formed the northern division, while Elizabethtown, Franklin and Marshall, Gettysburg, Johns Hopkins, Washington College, Swarthmore, Ursinus, West Chester, Delaware, Drexel, Haverford, Pennsylvania Military College, and Western Maryland formed the southern division. Since that time, however, Elizabethtown and Gettysburg were shifted to the northern division at their request.

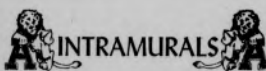

Tournament Selections . . .

The MASC selection committee picks one of the university division teams to represent the MASC in the NCAA university division tournament, held at the end of each season. Similarly, one of the colleges must be selected to play in the NCAA college division post-season tournament. To qualify to be picked, a college must have played a minimum of 11 conference games, at least six of which must be in its own division and three outside of its division. Percentage of total conference games won is the criteria for determining the division champion. If a tie exists at the end of the season, and in the event that the two division leaders met in the regular season, the winner of that game will be named champion. If the two teams have not played, a play-off game will be necessary; should more than two teams be tied, the selection committee can determine the champion. Similarly, the selection committee can exercise its discretion when choosing the tournament representative, including not only conference standing, but the over-all record as well of the two division leaders.

Albright, Dickinson, Juniata, LVC, Lycoming, Moravian, Wilkes, Susquehanna, Elizabethtown, and Gettysburg qualify for the northern division crown, while F&M, Swarthmore, Ursinus, Delaware, Haverford, and PMC qualify in the southern division. Elizabethtown now leads the northern division, with Albright in second place, and F&M leads the southern division. The Lions have beaten F&M, and play Elizabethtown in the final game of the season.

Attention: Grid Prospects . . .

Head football coach John Potskian announced this week that informal spring football drills will be started this year. All those students who have a desire to join the clinic-type sessions are urged to report at 4:00 on Monday to Coach Potskian in the boys locker room in the fieldhouse. The sessions, which will be concluded before the start of baseball practice, are for all Albrightians who have a desire to participate in the grid sport next season.

APOs Grab Second-Half Lead

By registering four straight wins in second-half warfare, the Alpha Pi Omega fraternity swung into first place in the A League. Pi Tau Beta and Zeta Omega Epsilon are tied for second with 3-1 records. In the games played in the A league on Feb. 14, the APOs beat the Dorm 56-34, Pi Tau nosed by the Kappas 34-28, while the Zetas clobbered the Independents 63-33. Dave Townly was the big gun for the APOs with 16 points while Don Matalavage paced the Dorm.

Bob Moller and Art Oplinger split 21 points for the Pi Taus, while Jerry Delet paced the Kappas with eight points. Frank Suddock threatened to make a runaway of second-half scoring as he hit for 17 markers.

In B league action, the Freshmen won by a forfeit over the Pikers, the Atomites upset the Kappas 41-36, the Zeta "Bs" won 47-38, the Gladiators nosed out the Westsiders 38-33, and the powerful Daymen whipped the Pi Tau "Bs" as Nelson Haller registered 22 points.

In action last Monday night, the APOs practically sewed up the second half by nosing out the Zetas 44-41 in an exciting game.

The Pi Taus whipped the Independents 46-39 as Moller chalked up 13 tallies.

The Dorm team upset the faltering Kappas 45-41 as Leroy Long hit for 23 points. In the important B league game, the Freshmen beat the Daymen 26-18 as Barry Gable hit for 13 points. The Zetas whipped the Atomites 39-25, the Gladiators won an overtime battle from the Kappas 28-27, and the APOs upset the Dorm 45-38.

Lafayette Here Wednesday To Battle Cagers

Continuing their quest for the MASC northern division college basketball crown, the Lions of Coach Will Renken travel to Long Island tomorrow evening for a game with the Hofstra cagers at 8:30. On Monday, Albright will meet Moravian at Bethlehem and on Wednesday will be host to the high-flying Leopards of Lafayette at 8:30. In addition to Hofstra, Moravian is also a conference opponent. Jayvee games will precede the Moravian and Lafayette contests.

Hofstra, far from the squad that compiled a 22-4 record a year ago and minus the graduated Bill Thielen, has compiled a mediocre record thus far for this season. In their last outing, Upsala edged the Hofstra five 72-69. Dick Pidgeon (6-6) and Hank Schwave (6-7) were counted on by Coach Bill von Breda Kolf to take over the pivot position of Thielen and to supply the needed rebounding strength in his pre-season plans. Other big performers for the Hofstra quintet are Dennis Costigan, a senior, and junior Harry Manner.

The Moravian Greyhounds, already 93-78 victims of Albright, will be host to the Lions Monday in a big conference battle (Albright trails Elizabethtown by one game in the loss column and plays one less conference game, thus making all future conference games vital to the Lions' hopes for the championship. Albright's final contest is with Elizabethtown). In the first meeting between the two teams, Fred Dietzel (26), Jim Foreman (25), and Bruce Riddell (20) were big guns for the Lions. Fritz Toner of Moravian led both teams in scoring with 28 markers.

Top MASC Team

Tournament-bound Lafayette will invade the fieldhouse for its annual game with Albright boasting perhaps the best team in the MASC. Last season, the Leopards edged Albright 78-74. Lafayette recently dismissed from school their ace scorer and rebounder Jim Radcliffe, but has still managed to boost its record to 20-3. Earlier in the year, Lafayette won the Richmond Invitational Tournament, and should participate in either the NCAA or NIT post-season classic. Bob Mantz, 6-7, junior from nearby Mt. Penn, is the leading defensive player for the Leopards and Stu Murray leads the visitors scoring parade.

Lion Five Tops Wagner; Avenges LVC Defeat

By Lee Swartz, Albrightian Sports Writer

Albright College ran its winning streak to three games last week by defeating Wagner College, 82-72, and Lebanon Valley, 79-64. Both games were played on the Albright court, and brought the Lions' record to 8-10.

February 13 proved unlucky for a strong Wagner club who has been having bad luck all season. Playing without the service of 6-5 Lonnie West and Captain Bob Mahala, the States Island five still displayed the speedy, well-rounded team which recently knocked off Bucknell on the Bisons home court. The Lions built up a 37-26 lead in the first half as Bruce Riddell and Ernie Firestone led the scoring parade. Up to this point, Albright's switching defense kept the visitors guessing. Wagner pulled to within five points when the initial period ended as they trailed 39-34.

Fresh Star

Harry Orlando, a freshman whiz, kept his teammates in the game with a mixture of set shots, jump shots, and drive-ins.

Orlando had 14 points in the first half, four more than Riddell's first-half total. In the second half, Orlando, along with Tom Fierce, another freshman back-court star, moved Wagner within one point at 39-38, but the Lions caught fire as Bruce Storms entered the game. Storms, Dietzel, and Riddell supplied the scoring punch to send the Lions all the way.

Last Saturday, the Lions faced the Flying Dutchman of Lebanon Valley. Led by the phenomenal shooting of Dick Shover, who scored 18 points in the first half (14 of them in a row), Lebanon Valley built up a 19-8 lead. At the end of the first half the lead had dwindled to 42-37 as Riddell's hook shots and jump shots began to fall.

The Dutchmen came back strong after intermission to build up a 51-42 advantage. Here an inspired comeback overwhelmed the visitors. Dietzel, Merrill Eckhart, and Jim Foreman gave Riddell the scoring help he needed as the Lions soared back. Foreman's jump shot put the Red and White ahead to stay as a pressing defense held the Valley five to six field goals in the second half.

Junior Varsity Wins Twice

The Albright jayvees brought their season's record to seven wins and nine defeats with a pair of hard fought wins over the Kissinger Travelers and the Lebanon Valley Jayvees last week.

Charlie Smith threw in 13 of his 19 points in the second half as the Junior Lions came back from a half time deficit of six points to take the KTA five in a "nip-and-tuck" ball game, 71-68. Richie Greene contributed 16 points, and Lew Molnar and Bob Shoup split 20 points to pace the attack.

Beat LVC

Avenging an earlier defeat by the Lebanon Valley Jayvees, the Junior Lions overcame a 51-44 halftime score to defeat the Dutchmen 93-83. Greene and Molnar led the attack with 20 points apiece, while Charlie Kachel came off the bench to score 17 points. Smith contributed 17 points and Shoup 14 as the Jayvees put on their best offensive performance of the year.

Lion Matmen Drop Close Match, 17-13

Albright College's newly-formed wrestling squad lost its sixth straight meet Saturday afternoon to Pennsylvania Military College by a score of 17-13. Three Lion wrestlers won their matches. Charlie Sample's defeat of Al Cars in the 123-pound class by a decision, Dick Jones pinned Bob Hoffman in 8:10 in the 130-pound class, and Clell Hostetter pinned Dick Monteferrante in 1:49 of the match in the unlimited class. It was Hostetter's first wrestling match. Albright meets the Lehigh Jayvees tomorrow in the final meet of the season for the Lions, at Bethlehem.
