Coronation To Highlight Weekend

All-Campus Awards Dinner Slated For 19th

Monday, May 19, marks the inauguration of the annual all-campus awards banquet. Invitations to the banquet, which will be held at 5:30 p.m. in the fieldhouse, have been extended to both boarding and day students, faculty, administration, and donors of awards. All athletic, departmental, academic, alumni, and gold "A" awards will be presented at this time.

A new Albright College song book, published by the Alumni Association, will be introduced and distributed at the dinner. Entertainment, featuring songs from this new book, will be given by a quartet made up of members of the glee club.

Dr. Harry V. Masters, president of the college, and Frank York, '58, past president of Student Council, will be guests of honor.

Shirk Chairman

Dr. Samuel B. Shirk, director of public relations, is general chairman of the dinner. He is being assisted by Eugene L. Shirk, faculty manager of athletics, and Pearl O. Bright, instructor in home economics.

The master of ceremonies for the banquet will be George W. Walton, Dean of the College. Wilma Rieser, '58, will offer the invocation. George Mack, '59, Larry Heinrich, '58, Richard Steffy, '58, Amelia Potteiger, '59, Barbara Pelkus, '58, and Miss Rieser formed the student committee representatives from the fraternities, sororities, dormitories, and day groups.

Dinner Ticket

All students and members of the faculty can obtain a dinner ticket in the Public Relations Office by presenting activity ticket 28. The tickets will be available until May 15. The dinner will be the evening meal for the boarding students.

This banquet will replace the spring sports banquet and the final assembly programs where awards were formerly presented to the students. The inauguration of the all-campus awards banquet will mark the passing of the sports banquet and the award programs from the Albright campus.

Kappas Host Orphans' Party

More than 50 children from the Children's Home of Reading, Centre Avenue and Spring Street, were guests at the Annual Kappa Upsilon Phi Orphans' Party held last Thursday in Krause Hall. The children were treated to an evening of fun, including movies, refreshments and dozens of toys and games.

Toys for the party were collected from city residents by the Kappa pledges as part of their Hell Week activities. The expense of the other items was met by voluntary contributions of the fraternity members.

Mack Explains

In explaining the purpose of the party, George Mack, '59, Kappa president, said, "The Fraternity is more than a social grouping of young men. It has an obligation to serve its school and its community. We feel that activities such as the Orphans' Party represent one of the best ways in which to fulfill this obligation.

"After all, these children do not differentiate between the College in general and any group in particular. To them we are simply Albright students, not fraternity men. In this way the Orphans' Party serves all."

The committee in charge of the party was headed by Edward Hanbicki, '58. The fraternity was assisted in its efforts by many members of the Phi Beta Mu sorority.

Stewart Elected Council VP At First Meeting

The election of Alexander Stewart, '60, (Kappa rep.), to the office of vice president opened the 1958-59 edition of Student Council. The passing of a motion requesting stu-

Full Weekend Scheduled For Parents' Pleasure

Highlighting Parents' Weekend will be the coronation of the May Queen, Sheila Greene, '58, tomorrow afternoon at 2 p.m.

A reception for parents will follow the ceremony. Parents will have an opportunity to meet members of the faculty at this time. Following the reception the banquet for faculty, and administration, parents, and students will be held.

Tomorrow morning from 9 a.m. to 12 noon parents will be able to register in Selwyn Hall and tour the campus.

After the pages, Susan Mock, '61; and Marcia Rimehart, '61; herald their coming, the May Queen, attendants and dancers will enter the procession to begin the annual festivities. Virginia Hatton, '58, Mistress of Ceremonies, will announce the ceremony which will carry the theme of "spring in bloom". Attending the queen will be her maid of

Domino Club Inducts Six

Six members of the Domino Club of Albright College were initiated into the Mu Sigma east of Alpha Psi Omega, national honorary dramatic fraternity, last night.

The initiates are Harold Baughman, '58, Sarah Dettra, '59, Nancy Heilman, '60, Wilma Rieser, '58, Margaret Schultz, '60, and Janet Weber, '59. They became eligible for membership by fulfilling stated requirements of service to the campus dramatic organization. The induction ceremony took place following the club's last business meeting of the year.

Understudies

Twenty-three understudies were inducted into Domino Club membership this spring. They are Beverly Barthold, '61, Sara Blouch, '61, Ellen Cassidy, '61, Merrill Cohen, '61, Mitchell Cohen, '61, Ronald Eisenberg, '61, James Garofalo, '61, Ann Gilbert, '60, Jay Gould, '61, and Clair Grafius, '59.

Also Nancy Hartman, '61, Nancy Heilman, '60, Janice Hochhaus, '60, Francis Jarvis, '60, Curtis Keller, '59, Sandra Miller, '60, Sandra Nestor, '61, Ann Piel, '60, James Schuman, '60, Robert S. Sloan, '60, Steven Roth, '61, Virginia True, '61, and George Walck, '61.

Club Tours

During the month of April the club went "on tour", visiting several schools in the Reading area, and presenting the one-act play, "Aida Revisited".

The comedy, by Roy Irwin of Syracuse University, featuring Joy Detweiler, '60, as Aida, and Eustace Renner, '59, as the grave robber, appeared over WGAL-TV, Lancaster on April 12. Vaughn Mervine, '59, Domino Club president, introduced the live broadcast.

The play was directed by Patricia A. Hostetter, advisor to the club.

Zakrisson: Honorary Member Of Kappas

During a special induction ceremony Monday evening, Herb Zakrisson, '59, student council president, became an honorary member of the Kappa Upsilon Phi fraternity. The honorary membership carries with it all privileges of the fraternity except the right to vote.

Commenting on becoming a member of the fraternity, Herb said, "I feel very honored that the Kappas have accepted me as an honorary member of their fraternity. This will in no way, however, affect my impartiality as student council president."

Seniors Make Picnic Plans

The class of 1958 has scheduled its class picnic for Saturday, May 24th at Galen Hall. The cost of the picnic, which will begin at 12 noon, is $5 per person. ## Busy Day In Reading for Stassen: Visit Sets Precedent On Campus

(Ed. Note: Harold Stassen, President of the University of Pennsylvania 1948-1953.

Special Assistant to President Eisenhower and Director of Mutual Security 1953-1958.

Assistant Chief of Staff and member of Admiral William Halsey's Staff 1943-1945.

One of the United States Drafters and Signers of the United Nations Charter 1945.

Republican Governor of Minnesota for three terms 1938-1943.

Presently the independent Republican candidate for the office of Governor of Pennsylvania.)

A precedent was set last week as Harold Stassen spent a busy day in Reading—a large part of it at Albright. Guest of Honor at a dinner for political science majors, Stassen answered questions concerning the local political scene and the foreign policy of the United States. The next stop for Stassen was Krause Hall where he spoke on "Peace In The Space-Atomic Age." Following his address he entertained questions from the audience. Then he went to his local headquarters at 19 North Sixth Street for a press conference, followed by an appearance on the "Night Mayor" show.

First In Recent Years

Stassen's appearance marked the first time in recent years that a nationally known, controversial politician, actively engaged in a political campaign has appeared on Albright's campus. That his appearance set a precedent was indicated this week when the College invited Arthur T. McGonigle, Republican party candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, to our campus.

Suggesting that we must "face the world situation with faith and with hope," Stassen said that we are approaching a new trend in negotiations. Recalling the informal talks between President Eisenhower and the present Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev at the Summit Conference in Geneva in 1955, he stated that Khrushchev's formal ascension to the post of premier may lead to a new type of negotiations.

In answering questions from the floor, Stassen made it clear that he feels we must maintain our strength and "negotiate from power." Total disarmament on our part would be "folly and a foolish mistake," according to Stassen.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS BY BAKER

Welcome Parents . . . Enjoy Yourselves

This weekend witnesses the arrival of hundreds of parents of Albright students to our fair campus. All, or at least most of them—we trust, will be reading this issue of The Albrightian. What better opportunity for us to say, "Welcome parents."

Your sons and daughters have worked long and hard in arranging this weekend for you. Plans, preparations and rehearsals have filled our calendar for several days. Now your young men and women, participants in this weekend for you, are poised and expectant, hoping against hope that all will be perfect.

So we too hope that this weekend is perfect—perfect for you—our parents. Enjoy yourselves!

Council Prestige Is Student Responsibility

For some months now many of our students have been voicing the opinions that Student Council is a "farce", "a hollow organization", "a no purpose, no action group", "a group without prestige." A finger of accusation has been pointed at the administration, and the blame for this state of affairs has been laid at its doorstep.

Council, however, is not as weak and as ineffective as some would have us believe. An objective look at the record quickly dispels the worst of the charges against it. And yet, neither is Council all that it should be. There is a particle of truth in even the most malicious charges against it.

But have we been honest in placing the blame where we have? Our administration is not faultless nor is it blameless, but neither are we. Look at this week's Council attendance record. Twelve of 29 representatives did not bother to attend the meeting. Look, too, at the importance of the business transacted this week. Is this situation conducive to prestige? Does it give direction or purpose to Council? We believe not!

Until the campus organizations begin to exercise a little more care in their selection of Council representatives, until they decide to select representatives who want to see their names on the Council attendance records and not just the college activities records, until that time we must accept our share of the blame.

No one is going to give our Council prestige. We must help Council earn it!

Students Show Desire For Better Education

In an opinion survey conducted by The Albrightian this week Albright students expressed almost unanimous approval to the appearance of nationally known political figures, such as Harold Stassen, on Albright's campus. To us, this indicates more than a desire on the part of the students questioned to say the "right thing". It indicates a desire for a better education, for a fuller knowledge.

As Wilma Rieser, '58, pointed out, College should be a "training ground". Persons of Stassen's stature, regardless of affiliation, help to clarify classroom theory. Herb Zakrisson's observation that events such as the one in question are a "valuable adjunct" to our formal education is all too true.

The majority of those who attended Stassen's address were Albright College students. And the majority of those students were not forced by "heartless" instructors to attend the address. Most of them came of their own free will. Motivated by curiosity, by the desire to see and hear a famous man, by the desire to broaden their education, by the desire to learn something new.

We earnestly hope that the administration accepts this display of student sentiment, as evidenced in the attendance at Stassen's address and in the replies to this week's opinion poll. We hope that the administration will take every opportunity to supply us with more educational opportunities like this one. After all, there were quite a few members of the faculty and administration in the audience that night—and we think they enjoyed the evening too!

Retreat Held At Mensch Mill

By Dan Damon

Early this year, the Methodist Student Movement issued a statement which said our student generation was an "uncommitted" one, and appealed to the Church to search herself and see if she really was asking students to commit themselves to the Christ.

This statement seems to have been emphatically denied, not in the words, but in the attitudes of the thirty-five students who shared in this year's Spring "Y" Retreat at Mensch Mill. The group did not argue social evils, the historical Jesus, or personal moral questions. Instead, it was assumed that these issues were to be met and dealt with individually. The speaker, Dr. John R. Knecht of Dayton, Ohio, delivered a series of five meditations on the theme "God Confronts Us."

Student Devotions

The themes of his individual messages were: God confronts us with: Himself, Our selves, the Good News, His World, and Our Responsibility. Discussions were shared in by all after the student-led devotions. One of the points brought out in the discussions was that they who call themselves by the name of Christ are responsible persons and should not be ashamed of the witness to which they are called.

Sunday morning found the group communing after the fashion of the primitive Church, with a common cup and a common loaf.

Many came back with a new Will to Witness—not to the condemnations of an unthinking social group, or to the lofty ideals of a man-made ethic, but a barefaced and unashamed thankfulness for the Love of God, which sent One who gives each and every one of us new Life.

Brooklynite Is Senior Standout

By Ceil Caliendo

How would you like to consider as your future profession a physical education coach, a businessman, or a policeman? Well, Bob Moller, our versatile senior, has a chance in all three fields. With his cheery outlook on life, it's certain he could be a success in any one of them.

Pi Tau

At present, "Moe" is a business administration major and an active member of the Pi Tau Beta fraternity. He was chairman of the stunt night activities and has participated in the fraternity intramurals for three years. "Moe's" favorite sport is baseball in which he received varsity letters in his freshman and

"NAW, I DIDN'T RENT IT - I'M JUST LUCKY TO HAVE A ROOMMATE WHO OWNS A TUX."

Meditation

"Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free."

"The greatest Fool is he who fools himself."

sophomore years and hopes to also receive one this year.

Since police work runs in his family, "Moe" is also considering a career in this field. One pursuit he is definitely certain of, however, is matrimony. He sets a good example for all bachelors since he looks forward to it with a good deal of enthusiasm.

"What Next?" Is Current Senior Topic

By David Pettit

It is certainly an understatement to say that "What next?", is an overworked question. However, this trite interrogative is a very real and personal dilemma to college seniors throughout the country. There are some who are searching aimlessly for jobs, others who are contemplating a stint with Uncle Sam, some who are wondering about graduate work to broaden their education, and still others like myself who have worked for just one professional goal since orientation week, four years ago.

Old Problem

In my own particular case, I suddenly have been confronted with a new—yet old problem—Green Stuff, and I don't mean clorets. In my mind I ponder that same old cliché, "What next?" Surely, I am not the only one that has such a problem. Some men attending college and "grad" school have a wife and children to support. Many times they run up against our question of "What next?"

As we, as seniors, turn and study the past four years we have spent in college, we find it almost impossible to believe what has been ingrained into our lives. We see our views changing, our intelligence growing and our character broadening. The subjects we have studied, the students with whom we have lived, the professors with whom we have met and talked, the dates we have had, the "bull sessions" in which we have participated, and also the religious factions which have crossed our paths during our college years, will always be a part of us.

The complaining about the food, the social hours of the girls, the heat in the dorms, the administration, Prof. So and So's essay tests, compulsory attendance in chapel, the religious services which were forced on us, and even the decision of our coach to make a "poor" substitution at a crucial point in the game—were very prevalent and important in our lives throughout the past four years. Then, without any warning we really meet up with a problem and one that must be answered—"What next?"

The things that seemed so important last semester suddenly have very little worth in our lives. The women stop writing fraternity letters on the covers of their notebooks and the men "really" read the Wall Street Journal. Some of us even forego "Maverick" in order that we might send a few job applications out in the mail. There are, of course, those who are still waiting for the "right break" to come along and who are content to do nothing about seeking the answer to our question. For the most part, however, these people will be waiting for that break for a long, long time.

Right Decision

Those who are trying to answer our two word question, those who are really trying to make the right decision are those on whom I would put my money. On the nose.

Four years has taught us an abundance of things. We have benefited from every little thing that has happened. Now that we are ready to graduate and enter into the world of time clocks, commuters' trains, and those always welcome pay checks, let us make sure that we find the right answer to our question. These past years at Albright have prepared us very well, not only in the academic vein but also in our responsibilities to society, and I feel confident that we (those of us who care about "What next?") will hold our own with the best in the coming years.

What is the answer to our question, "What next?"—It's up to you. Then again—is it?

Renkenmen Record Improves - 7 To 2

IN THE LION'S DEN

By MICHAEL TEITELMAN, Sports Editor

Tuesday afternoon, Student Council voted overwhelmingly to approve the proposal that a student representative be appointed or elected to the athletic council. In this way, the student body has shown its desire to have a voice in the athletic policies of the College.

The next meeting of the athletic council is not scheduled until the fall. No special meeting is necessary to act on the petition of Student Council. But there should be some guarantee that the petition of Student Council will be placed on the agenda.

Renken Selects Four For Championships . . .

Tennis mentor Will Renken has selected four players to represent the Lions in the Middle Atlantic Championships at Haverford, today and tomorrow. They are Charley Sample and Ernie Firestone, co-captains, in doubles, and Carl Witonsky and Jack Rinehart, in singles. The Lions have a current 7-2 record with four netters, Witonsky, Glenn Ruoss, Sample and Firestone, owning 7-1 records. Rinehart and Norm Bennett are next with 5-3 marks.

Poor Year For Trackmen . . .

Coach Gene Shirk's trackmen are having one of their poorest seasons in recent years; witness the poor showing in the Penn Relays and the loss to Dickinson. The problem is simply no depth and no runners. When George Mack slipped from his customary high finishes in the 440 and 880, the Lions lost many points. An injury to dash star Dick Kelly left the Lions with only Mike Varano in the dashes. In years gone by, Shirk could depend on Bill Shirk (no relation), Ken Greenwald and Don Gottshall.

An unusual fact is that for the first time in many years the Shirkmen are strong in the field events. The Lions squad measures only 14 men, compared to 20 or more the last few years. Even a fine and respected coach like Shirk cannot be expected to win meets with little depth and only one good man in the dashes, mile events, hurdles and high jump. Track teams, as basketball and football, run in cycles, sometimes the material just is not there. This appears to be one of those years. But knowing Shirk as we do, the Lions will be more than formidable in the future.

Lions Fare Poorly In Penn Relay Classic

Coach Gene Shirk's thinclads turned in their poorest showing in years in the Penn Relays due to an accident in handing off the baton. The Lions finished ninth and last as Dick Allwein was sent sprawling on the track after he received the baton from Dick Kelly who ran the first quarter. Walt Diehm and George Mack finished out the mile but the Lions were hopelessly last.

Third In Haddleton Relay

A day earlier, the Shirkmen had finished third in the Haddleton Memorial Class One Mile Relay. The same foursome ran the mile in the time of 3:30 and followed Haverford and Swarthmore across the finish line. The Red Devils of Dickinson College edged the Lions 65 2/3-60 1/3 on a rain soaked track. Dick Kelly and Walt Diehm registered doubles in the meet with Kelly winning the 100 and 220 yard dashes in the times of 10.6 and 23.5 respectively.

Diehm copped the two hurdle events with times of 16.8 and 28 seconds. Two Lions won the high jump with a leap of 5' 8". Charlie Smith and Walt Diehm tied in the high jump and Smith also captured the broad jump with a leap of 20' 5". Brad Brenneman took first in the pole vault jumping 11' 6" while John Setticeerze was the only other Albright winner, winning the shot put with a heave of 40' 7".

Second At Bucknell

The Shirkmen finished second in a triangular meet at Bucknell. The Bisons won the meet as they amassed 85. Albright totaled 43 points and Ursinus finished third with 25 1/2 points. The Shirkmen only won four events. Co-Capt. George Mack took the 880 run in the time of 2:12.2 and Charlie Smith won the 120 yard high hurdles in the time of 17.5 seconds. The two fold events won were the pole vault by Brad Brenneman with a leap of 10' 6" and Tom Francis in the discus with a toss of 113' 2 1/2".

INTRAMURALS

The Pi Tau Betas annexed the first half softball championships with a clinching 12-8 victory over the Kappas, Monday, April 28. Second half action, which is now in progress, will terminate, Thursday, May 15.

Pi Tau Beats Kappa

In the Pi Tau-Kappa fray, Cordell Rinehart and Lee Swartz combined winning talents for Pi Tau in yielding nine hits and eight runs, while the Pi Tau batsmen staged an eight-run spurge in the first inning.

Bob Goldsmith and Art Olsen each chipped in with two hits, while Jay Miller and Jim Rouse did likewise for the Kappas. The Kappas had a three-run rally in the final inning which fell short of its mark and Bob Wool assisted by Dave Trout took the rap for the loss.

A Pair Of 7-6 Wins

Wednesday, April 30, was the date of the Dorm-Daymen and Zeta-APO encounters, which both ended in 7-6 trimmings. The Daymen got things under way against the Dormmen with a three-run first frame and clinched the game with a four-run tally in the fourth inning. The Dormmen rallied for three counters in the final frame, but Dayman Don Simmons cut them short in nabbing the victory. Neil Singer, who absorbed the loss in giving up nine hits and seven runs, was ably assisted by Dorm batters Jim Heyder and Larry Opdyke who garnered three safeties and two hits, respectively. However, Bart Smith, Barry Wurst, Gerry Noll and Guy Smith each supplied two safeties to insure victory for the Daymen.

Zetas Edge APO

The Zetas edged APO in the other 7-6 debacle in amassing 17 hits, while winning hurler Don Mazza yielded 15 swats to the APO batsmen. This contest was extended to twelve innings when the Zetas finally tallied a single run in the bottom half of the frame.

INTRAMURAL STANDINGS (First half final)

Team	Won	Lost
Pi Tau	4	1
Zeta	3	2
APO	3	2
Dorm	3	2
Daymen	2	3
Kappa	0	5

Golfers Split Two Matches

During the past two weeks, the Albright linksmen crushed Scranton, lost to St. Joseph's and had two matches, Juniata and Moravian, rained out.

The Reading Country Club was the site for the Lions victory over Scranton, 11-7. Jim Smallwood, medalist with a 75, blanked Jim Brown, 3-0. Jerry Burns won a decisive match over Frank Galligan, 3-0. Bob Carlson and Bill Prothero trounced Paul Nelsen and Bill O'Malley, 2-1 and 2-1, respectively.

Beaten By St. Joseph's

The linksmen traveled to Cedarbrook Country Club in Philadelphia where they were beaten by St. Joseph's, 12-6. Due to the absence of Jim Smallwood, the revised lineup included Roger Jones. Bill Prothero defeated the only Albright victory, defeating Bill Karns, 2-1.

Eliminations were held to decide the four men who will represent Albright in the Middle Atlantic Championships to be held Friday and Saturday at Mt. Union. The foursome will consist of Brenneman, Goodman, Smallwood and Prothero.

Witonsky, Firestone, Ruoss Spark Netmen

Albright College's netmen have amassed seven victories and dropped only two encounters to date. Coach Will Renken's crew, paced by Carl Witonsky, Glenn Ruoss and Ernie Firestone, have consistently sparkled in collegiate competition. Although the Lions have fallen before the thundering hoofs of Bucknell's Bisons and have been clawed to defeat by the Leopards of Lafayette, they are unbeaten in their home lair. Among the Lions' latest victims are Lebanon Valley, Muhlenberg and Elizabethtown.

Lebanon Valley Beaten

The Flying Dutchmen of Lebanon Valley crumpled as they were pummeled, 7-2, by the Albright netters, Wednesday, April 23. The three tennis terrors, Witonsky, Ruoss and Firestone, easily eliminated their opponents. Witonsky laced Howie Good, 6-1, 7-5; Ruoss slaughtered Bob Musser, 6-0, 6-2; and Firestone crushed Ron Hovis, 6-3, 6-1.

Albright's Jack Reinhart, Charles Sample, and Norm Bennett completed the sweep of the singles matches. Reinhart disposed of Ron Bell, 8-6, 4-6, 6-2; Sample dumped Sam McLinn, 6-3, 8-6; and Bennett reversed Bob Sensenig, 6-4, 4-6, 6-4.

Lions Lick Mules

Relishing victory, the Lions next fed on the offerings of Muhlenberg College in another home battle, Wednesday, April 30. A 6-3 victory temporarily satisfied the Lions' appetite as they copped five singles matches and one doubles contest. Witonsky, beat Bob Leighton, 6-1, 6-4; Ruoss trimmed Frank Ceasar, 6-8, 6-3, 6-2; and Firestone battered Ken Stewart, 6-2, 6-3.

Sample knocked off Mule Roger Christine, 6-0, 6-1; Reinhart tumbled Harry Berg, 3-6, 6-2, 6-2; and Bennett fell before the talents of Muhlenberg's Gil Sopher, 8-6, 7-5. Leighton and Berg teamed up to beat Sample and Kutner in sets of 6-1 and 10-8 and Ceasar and Christine combined talents to maul Lions Sam Zehner and Gabriel, 6-1, 6-0. However, the Bennett-Firestone duo proved too much for Mules Brent Fullwider and Ron Behrie to handle in 6-1, 6-3 sets.

E-Town Beaten 7-2

With renewed vigor the Lions grounded Elizabethtown's Blue Jays the next day, Thursday, May 1, in winning another 7-2 debacle. Again the three tennis terrors romped to victory with the assistance of the Reinhart-Bennett-Sample trio in copping all the singles matches.

Witonsky Wins

In the singles encounters Witonsky swept to victory over Gene Gordon in sets of 6-0 and 6-2; Ruoss stomped Replolgie, 6-3, 6-4; and Firestone whipped Curt Reiber, 6-2, 6-2. Reinhart clipped Blue Jay Charles Groff, 6-2, 6-1; Sample smashed Price in two 6-0 sets; and Bennett defeated Jerry Garland, in sets of 8-6 and 11-9.

Albright carries its 7-2 record into action against La Salle on the opponents' courts in Philadelphia, Tuesday, May 13. Meanwhile the netmen are competing in the tennis championships at Haverford today and tomorrow.

Wilkes Socks Potskklanmen 6-2, E-Town Squeaks To 13-12 Win

The Lion nine dropped a 6-2 decision to Wilkes and a 13-12 heart-breaker to Elizabethtown to run their losing streak to three straight and a 3-5 log.

Verne Engle started for the Lions against Wilkes and went seven innings, giving up four runs on six hits while absorbing his third loss of the campaign against no wins. Joe Wertz finished the game, allowing three hits and two runs.

The Lions gave Engle a 2-0 lead in the first inning on a walk to Tony Pawlewicz, Bruce Young's fielder's choice which erased Pawlewicz, Fred Dietzel's double to center which sent Young to third, Jack Shaner's walk and Jim Doremus' double to center to score Young and Dietzel.

Lions Threaten Again

The Lions threatened again in the eighth when Shaner singled to right and Charlie Kachel singled to right to send Shaner to third. Wilkes killed the rally when Frank Sudock rolled out to the pitcher.

Dietzel Hurls

Dietzel took to the hill against Elizabethtown in quest of his third victory of the season but ended up taking his first loss of the year. He lasted only one-third of an inning, in which time he gave up a single, a walk and a home run. Wertz followed on the mound for an inning and a third. He gave up five runs on four singles, a triple, two walks and a sacrifice.

Greene Relieves Wertz

Richie Greene came on for five and a third innings and was touched for five runs on five hits, including a home run. Four of the runs were unearned, as the Blue Jays capitalized on walks, throwing errors, passed balls and wild pitches. Engle pitched the final inning giving up one hit.

The Lion offense opened up in the second inning. Shaner opened with a single and Doremus was hit by a pitch. Greene fanned and Bob Moller walked to load the bases. Dietzel then singled into right for the first two Lion tallies. Pawlewicz singled to left for another pair of runs. The Lions kept the rally going as Mike Weinhold and Young walked, but Kachel ended the inning by bouncing into a double play; pitcher to catcher to first. The Lions added three more runs in the fifth to bring the score to 10-7.

Another Rally

The ninth inning saw another Lion rally. Weinhold reached second on a two base error. Young singled to left and Weinhold came over to score as Kachel hit into a double play. The Lions kept moving as Shaner walked and Doremus doubled to left. Sudock pinch hit for Engle as the Blue Jays sent in their ace lefty, Bruce Wohnseidler. Wohnseidler was equal to the occasion, striking out Sudock to end the game.

Bucknell Tomorrow

Tomorrow afternoon the Lions will be at Bucknell and on Monday the Lions will visit Lafayette, before entertaining the Scranton Royals on Kelchner Field.

Students Want More Figures Like Stassen To Visit Campus

In order to test student and faculty reaction to the recent appearance of Harold Stassen, independent Republican candidate for the office of Governor of Pennsylvania, The Albrightian asked a total of 57 students and faculty members the following question: Do you favor having nationally known political figures, such as Harold Stassen, speak on campus?

The results were overwhelmingly in favor of such appearances by nationally known political figures. Ninety-eight percent of those polled answered "yes" to the question. There was only one negative reply.

Typical of the statements made by those polled are:

Herb Zakrison, '59: "I certainly do. There is no doubt in my mind that events such as Stassen's visit to campus represent a valuable adjunct to our formal education. I am in favor of getting all the nationally known political figures we possibly can to visit Albright."

Merrill Eckhart, '59: "Yes, I'm in favor of such a program. It gives students the opportunity to hear first-hand the views held by governmental figures."

Wilma Rieser, '58: "Yes, very much. A college campus should be a training ground for civic and political understanding. Personalities of Stassen's type help to make some of the class room theory meaningful."

Jack Bright, '58: "Yes. It stimulates the students interest in national and world affairs. And it stimulates community interest in the college."

Steve Nicolo, '59: "I'm completely in favor of speaking appearances of this type. I was one of the unfortunates who had to miss the meeting because of work, and from what I've heard, I really missed something!"

Ken Eberly, '58: "Yes. Not only are such appearances beneficial to the student, but they also provide good publicity for the school."

Ellery B. Haskell, professor of philosophy: "Yes. It was a rich experience, particularly for political science majors. I think it's a wonderful idea."

Ronald E. Cocraft, instructor in religion: "Yes, I see nothing wrong with such visits by nationally known figures. I am in favor of having more of them."

Douglass Leyman, '58: "No. I think the local speakers of Berks County are more colorful and interesting than the nationally known personalities."

Stassen

Turning to political matters at his downtown press conference, Stassen pronounced the next three weeks as the most important in his campaign and expressed confidence in carrying Berks County, even though it is the home territory of McGonigle. He preferred not to say anything about McGonigle, but, rather, "To tell the people what I intend to do if elected."

For the benefit of The Albrightian reporter present at the press conference, Stassen emphasized that the number two point in his "Four-Point Program for Pennsylvania" was to establish better school opportunities for Pennsylvania youth. This part of his program includes college and university scholarship funds and merit pay raises for teachers.

Charles A. Raith, assistant professor of political science, explained that the society would form a service for the pre-legal students on campus. Skeath's motion to accept the constitution was passed.

Fantasy, Huge Success: Poff

"Spring Fantasy", the recent all-campus semi-formal dance highlighting the 1958 Student Council Weekend was pronounced "a huge success" by the general chairman Robert Poff, '60, this week.

According to Poff, over one hundred tickets were sold for the dance. However, including faculty members and alumni, the dance was actually attended by approximately 125 couples. Poff added that the support given the dance by the students "far surpassed" that shown for the spring all-campus dance last year. He stated, "It was this extra support that made this year's dance the success it was."

Poff reported receiving many favorable and enthusiastic comments about the music supplied by Mike Peditcin's Combo. "The students really seemed to like the kind of music that Peditcin played," said Poff.

This year's dance was held under the co-sponsorship of student council and the freshman class.
