Student Campaign To Finance Minor Sports Room

Rev. Tom Wedsworth Will Be Religion-In-Life Week Speaker

The Rev. Tom Wedsworth, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Delta, Ohio, will be the guest speaker for the Religion-in-Life Week services, March 28-31.

Rev. Mr. Wedsworth, born and raised in Mishawaka, Ind., received his A.B. in 1943 from North Central College, Naperville, Ill. In 1946, he was awarded the B.D. from the Evangelical Theological Seminary, Naperville, Ill.

Following his seminary training, he served pastorates at Peru and Indianapolis, Ind. In July, 1949, he was called by the Annual Conferences of Ohio and the General Board of Christian Education to initiate EUB student work on state university campuses in Ohio, thus becoming the first full-time minister to EUB students on state university campuses in the denomination.

While at Ohio State University, Rev. Mr. Wedsworth served two terms as president of the University Religious Council, an inter-religious body structured for the purpose of implementing the work of the religious foundations on that campus.

Later, he transferred his ministerial credentials to the Presbyterian Church, USA, and became a member of the Toledo Presbytery in which he is presently serving.

Collections Reported By Fund Committee

New collections in the Centennial Development Fund amounting to $72,200 were reported Monday, February 28, at a dinner of the fund committee in the Abraham Lincoln Hotel.

Coupled with a previous collection of $154,578, the total collection to date is $226,778. The goal to be raised in the Reading and Berks County area is $350,000.

Of the new collections $58,400 came from popular gifts and $13,800 from special gifts. Allyn C. Taylor, vice president of the Reading Gas Division, U.G.I., is chairman of the popular gifts drive and Frank R. Palmer, president of the Carpenter Steel Company, Reading, is general chairman of the campaign.

A final report dinner is scheduled for tonight at 6:30 o'clock in the ballroom of the Abraham Lincoln Hotel.

Special Assembly Sets Off Campaign Drive For $10,000

Wm. Davies Named Committee Chairman

William Davies

A special assembly Wednesday morning, March 2, marked the opening of a week-long drive to raise $10,000 for a Minor Sports Room in the Physical Education Building.

The student drive is part of the Centennial Development Program. The $10,000 goal was set by a student committee under the chairmanship of William Davies, '56. The committee also decided that the money raised within the Albright student body should be used for the Minor Sports Room instead of going into the Centennial fund.

Shares Set At $50

Names of shareholders will be inscribed on a bronze plaque in recognition of their having played a major role in the success of the Centennial Development Program. Student shares had previously been set at $60, but the student committee voted to lower this amount to $50 per share.

The purpose of the student drive is to give Albrightians now on campus an opportunity to contribute toward the further development of Albright College. Donations are in no way compulsory, nor need they be a whole share. Any amount may be pledged, with payments spread over a 30 month period. The names of all contributors, regardless of the sum donated, will be placed in a Book of Appreciation to be displayed in some prominent place on campus.

Assembly Features Speakers

The Wednesday assembly was opened by James Hall, '55, student council president, who explained why it had been called. Dr. Harry V. Masters, president of Albright College, spoke on the objectives of the campaign.

Frank K. Palmer, president of the Carpenter Steel Co., Reading, and a trustee of the college, discussed the attitude of the community toward Albright, and explained why he as a businessman is doing what he is doing in serving as General Campaign Chairman of the Centennial Development Program.

Davies, as student committee chairman, urged that the students get behind the campaign and give it their complete support.

Terrence E. Connor, '51, spoke on the inner workings of the campaign. Connor, who was recently graduated (Continued On Page Four)

In place of the annual spring Domino Club production, four one-act plays will be presented April 14 and 15 in White Chapel. The plays were written last year by students in freshmen English classes.

"For the Love of Julia," written by Jeanne Palm, will be directed by Jeanne Walker. Thalia Vaigt will direct Elizabeth Wellenmann's play entitled, "A Knight to Remember." Helen Schoener is the director of "The Purple Emperor," written by Geraldine Norrhold. The fourth play, "Gone With the Wind" by Thaddeus Tom Kiewica will be under the supervision of Roslyn Cowen.

CASTING for the plays began last evening. Rehearsals will follow soon.

Recital Will Feature Carolyn Powers, '47

Carolyn Kissinger Powers, '47, will be the featured soprano soloist at a recital to be held Sunday, March 6, at 4 p.m. in Teel Hall Chapel.

Also featured in the program will be Virginia Custer, organist. Miss Custer, Norristown, is presently studying under Dr. H. Duddy, professor of music at Albright College.

Vocal solos will include works by Tschaiakowsky, Malotte and Cadman. Organ solos will include numbers by Bach, Handel and Borowski.

This recital will be the seventh in a series of ten sponsored by the music department of the college.

The Rev. Mr. Gerald T. Wert, pastor of the Belfield Ave. EUB Church, Philadelphia, will speak at the chapel program next Tuesday, March 8.

Chapel speakers for last Tuesday, March 1, was the Rev. Homer Trickett, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Reading.

Last Thursday's assembly featured the United Theological Seminary Choir from Dayton, Ohio. The choir included two Albright alumni: John W. Russell, '54, and Ivan W. Moyer Jr., '54.

Dorothy Crawford, monologist, entertained at the cultural program Thursday, February 24.

Council To Publish Minutes Of Meetings

Arthur Saylor, '57, introduced a resolution to Student Council that the minutes of Student Council be mimeographed and posted at the meeting-places of the organizations represented in Council and at other locations on campus. The mimeographing will be done by the Public Relations Office for a small fee.

Only one trial class meeting, instead of the proposed two to replace two chapel assembly programs, will be held this semester. Consequently, a talent show, requested by many of the students, will be able to be fitted into the assembly program schedule.

James Hall, '55, president, announced the following appointments: James Schmidt, '56, chairman of Stunt Night; William Davies, '56, general chairman for the Student Campaign; and Paul Patrick, '56, chairman of Parents' Weekend to be held May 7.

While at the University of Illinois David Frankhouser will carry three-quarters of a full schedule which includes twelve hours of study per semester on his Masters degree in organic chemistry. He will teach twelve hours in inorganic chemistry.

He will begin his work at the University of Illinois this September.

Magazine Publishes Article By Dr. Merritt

An article by Dr. Thomas P. Merritt, professor of mathematics and physics at Albright College, was published in the February issue of the American Journal of Physics.

In the article, "MKS (Meter-Kilogram-Second) Units in Electricity and Magnetism," Merritt deals with the use of ampere as a fundamental physical unit. Following a strict definition of the ampere, other units in electricity and magnetism were developed in terms of fundamental units in the MKS system.

Dr. Merritt came to Albright in 1949. He earned his A.B. at North Central College, Naperville, Ill.; his M.S. at Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill.; and his Ph.D. at Boston University.

What Does College Mean?

How much does your college mean to you? Is it just an assembly line, which will eventually (you hope) dump you out into the world as one more mass-produced college graduate?

No, Albright means more to you than that. Even trying to imagine it as an assembly line gives rise to completely incongruous images. Assembly line products are all alike—in dimension, structure and color. When you look back over the time you have spent at Albright, whether it has been one year or four, you remember all the little things your professors said to you to encourage you to reach your own maximum mental dimensions, all the individual attention they gave you to make sure that the structure of your mind was developed to its greatest height, and all the ways they helped you to express your personality in its truest colors.

You realize that in an era of greater and greater uniformity, Albright has equipped you to maintain your own individuality.

If, then, your college is more to you than a "brain factory," what is it? It is, and has to be, less than a home, because a home represents life's closest ties. There is no word that will quite describe your relationship with your college—no parallel that can quite make clear the bond between you and the institution which you have both been formed by and helped to form.

Even if you were to continue your education after being graduated from Albright, and take doctorate after doctorate, the place where you spent your under-graduate days would still have a special place in your heart. You would, and will, return to the campus, if only in memory, to walk again the paths you walked in the young, gay years, when your mind first began to match its strength against other minds.

How can you express your gratitude to your college? You cannot walk up to it and say "thank you." There are two ways you can show that you are grateful. The first way is to uphold its traditions and standards. Like praying, this is something you do quietly, in your own heart. In the long run, the results show.

The second way is by giving the college your financial support. Albright College is in the midst of a Centennial Fund Campaign to increase its facilities and services to its students and the community. Through the Student Drive of this campaign, you are being given an opportunity to support your college in this way. You may not be here to enjoy the results of the drive, but future Albrightians, will be molded by the college you helped to build, and you will know that your influence is reaching beyond you to men and women who are perhaps still in kindergarten.

Even if you are having trouble keeping your own budget out of the red, give something to the Student Drive. A $5 share, with the payments spread out over 30 months, comes to less than $2 per month. If you cannot give that much, give what you can. Be a part of this thing which is so much bigger than you. You will be richer for it!

Support W.A.A. Bars

How many of us know who sells the candy bars, potato chips and gum at the basketball games? For the ones who don't know, it is the Women's Athletic Association, better known as the W.A.A. The W.A.A. is a council composed of eight girls. On this council are four officers and one representative from each class.

The main object of the W.A.A. is to raise expense money. What happens to this money that is raised? Most of it is spent on meals for the girls' basketball team on their away trips. The W.A.A. also sponsors banquets.

Each week two members of the W.A.A. council and the girls on the basketball team work at the stands at the games. These girls give much of their time to this work and the least we can do is to support them. The next time you are buying a candy bar, remember it is the W.A.A. you are supporting and buy more than one.

—Bob—

A familiar figure who can usually be found working in the kitchen is Bob. Hailing from Cabot, Pennsylvania, Bob doesn't go home often, but he is kept busy every second he is on campus.

Being president of the Albright Courts is quite a job in itself, however, he finds time to participate in K. T. X. (honorary Pre-Ministerial fraternity) and since he likes sports he naturally made a superb football manager last fall.

Bob has one more year here at Albright and then he would like to be a chaplain in the United States Air Force and then serve those in the rural areas in parastate work, so it is clear that he has quite a future to face.

Liking church work, Bob enjoys teaching his two week day Bible classes. He also enjoys outdoor life and all that goes with it.

The only time you'll find him frowning is when he hears people criticizing others, without looking into their own lives.

Always willing to lend a helping hand, Bob Miller is a definite asset to Albright.

School Spirit

What makes a winning basketball team? Is it skilled players or clever teamwork? Could it be height and experience or just a number of boys interested in playing the game? All of these qualities constitute a team, but is it a winning team?

A winning team must have confidence, support and fans. Is this where Albright is missing the boat? Our boys appear to be and seem to be healthy according to experts on the subject. They know the rules of the game and they know how to put the rules into practice. What they are lacking is the fighting spirit, the spirit to make them go forward and conquer.

That is where we, the students and fans come into the picture. We are the needed spirit to give the added push. But, where are we when the going gets rough and we should be in there yelling and cheering the team on to victory? We are downtown seeing the latest movie, bowling, watching television or sitting in Selwyn parlor contemplating the best move in a game of checkers.

New Gym

We have a new gymnasium which will accommodate the entire student body. Every student has an

Men Get Tied Up; Girls Get Dressed Up

Lawrence, Kansas—(ACP)—When a Kansas University coed discards her white socks and saddle shoes and puts on high heels, stockings, and a dress for three days on campus and in class, things are likely to happen.

And when a male student goes against the taboo of ties and wears one for three days with a white shirt and jacket, there's bound to be a hullabaloo.

Forty-eight sociology students here found out the hard way what it means to "go" against society," the Daily Kansan reports. At the urging of their professor, the students agreed to "dress up" for three straight days, not tell anybody about the experiment, and keep logs on the reactions.

Records Show

Log reports "showed how by satire, sarcasm, laughter, heckling, ridicule, and name-calling the campus sub-culture attempted to enforce and keep intact its rules," the article said. One sociology sophomore reported that her best friend said "I think you're crazy. Crazy people do crazy things—and you're crazy."

A male student recorded the following comment: "I think a tie is all right if you have a picture taken or to go to a funeral or a wedding or something—but not every day. If you keep that up, it'll be a funeral for you."

To the instructor, the experiment was "a rousing success."

activity book which assures him free admission to all home games. But we are missing the initiative and interest to go and see these games.

When we do manage to get out to see the games that is just what we do—watch them. If things get active on the court we even manage to cheer for a minute or two, but what about the intervening minutes when the team must still play? What support do the cheerleaders receive or are they there only to perform for our amusement?

Remember that no matter how good a team is, it will not have victories without support. Let's mend our ways by beginning tomorrow night to make these last three home games winners of sportsmanship, support and teamwork. Even though the actual score may not add up to a victory we will be victorious if everyone has faith to win.

"I feel so gay

In a melancholy way
That it might as well be spring,
It might as well be spring."

These famous words from one of Rogers and Hammerstein's hit songs express the recent sentiments of many Albright students, male and female alike. Of course, in the former coalition there is no visible evidence that they are affected by such an unimportant condition as approaching spring.

The men go about treating their opposites with the same indifference displayed when the college year began. They fail to notice, or fail to let others realize that they notice the satisfying change in weather which produces an even more satisfying change in the state of mind. The men cling to the outdated mox which denies them the right to experience any emotion inspired by nature. If they do have some feeling, it is shamefully concealed from the rest of the society. Those who are unafraid to express what they really feel are classified as effeminate along with the poets, artists, and dancers. It's too bad the situation exists for that standard of conduct corrupts the free thinking of men and kills much creative talent before it has a chance to develop into worthwhile channels.

Conversely, it is considered acceptable and even desirable for a woman to show her feelings. It is no shame for her to be uplifted by the first warm day in February and openly express her happiness in song or in a perpetual smile. Her discovery that the dullness of winter is nearly over and that nature will soon be at her epitome of perfection is apparent to the male bystander, but he doesn't possess the privilege of eagerly sharing this experience with her.

During the past two weeks, we have had a brief preview of the weather that is to come and its affect upon a student's study habits. Two Sundays ago the women's dorms were abandoned for the beauty of the Skyline Drive and the suburban areas of the city. Parents descended upon the campus all day long because "It was such a beautiful day that we decided to drive down to see you."

Events in the future can only be predicted and anticipated, therefore it's difficult to imagine the extreme to which spring fever will eventually grip Albright's campus. It may be safe to assume that Maple Lane will become more popular as the season advances.

Dips Here For Season Finale Tomorrow Night

Lions Avenge Previous Loss, Hand Scranton 112-76 Defeat

Albright College made mince meat out of its record book last Saturday night, as they walloped Scranton University 112-76.

Fifteen hundred amazed fans saw three floor and team records bite the dust as the Lions won two in a row for the first time this year.

Conrad Breaks Records

George Conrad erased Jerry Potts' all-time Albright scoring record of 44 points in one game, as the Mount Penn junior threw in a fabulous 14 field goals in 20 attempts and 19 out of 26 free throws for a record-breaking 47 points. The Lions' 112 points eclipsed the previous court high of 101, made by LaSalle College in 1952, and also crossed out the previous team high of 108 points against Dickinson. Sixty-three field goals in the final half set an all-time mark, as did 44 foul shots in 60 attempts.

The Lions scored 34 of 71 field goal attempts for 48 per cent, as five players hit double figures. Conrad now has 451 points this season, nearing the record of 501 set by Eddie Anlian during the 1949-50 season, and has scored 1094 points during his career. This places him within striking distance of Anlian's all-time total of 1681 points.

Fitt Scores

Albright was behind only twice in the contest, 11-9 and 13-11 after six minutes of the game had elapsed. Here a string of five points by Bruce Riddell and Conrad put the Lions ahead for good. Only Joe Fitt's scoring made a game out of it in the first half, as he scored 13 counters. The Lions led, 49-31, at halftime.

In the second half, field goals by Mike DePaul, Don Pryor, and Riddell sent the Lions off to the races once more. As Conrad drew near the record his teammates set him up excellently, and he scored the 100th point on a foul shot. Ken Eberle's free throw set the record at 109.

In addition to his scoring, Conrad led both teams in rebounding with 16 as Albright grabbed the edge in rebounds, 50-38. The Royals' man-to-man defense was of no avail, and their freeze backfired also.

Fitt's 17 points were high for the Royals, followed by Gerald Curtis and Tim McGovern with 11 points each. Bob Bessoir scored 10, in addition to grabbing 15 rebounds.

J. V.'s Win

Scranton's Junior Varsity spoiled a double victory, as they edged the Baby Lions 72-71, reversing an earlier Albright victory at Coaltown. Mike Daugherty led the Cubs with 19 points, while Joe Gilliard was high for the winners with 17.

"Don Dunks Two"

Gulianmen Defeat Dickinson, Sneak By Franklin & Marshall

Albright's roaring Lions roared back from a 20-9 deficit to defeat Dickinson's Red Devils, 83-65, before 1500 fans at Albright College Field House.

It was Coach Gulian's insertion of two freshmen, Ken Eberle and Ernie Firestone, which really paid off, as Firestone began to score on jump-shots late in the first half and Eberle began to rebound, although the latter didn't begin to score until the second half.

Pryor Drives

Dickinson moved to a 6-5 lead in the first five minutes with Bob Varano leading the way. Bruce Riddell's jump shot put the Lions back in the lead, 7-6, but the Red Devils moved to a 12-7 lead on jump shots by Varano and George Connor. The margin increased to 20-9 as John Dudas and Connor divided four fouls and two field goals with 12 minutes gone in the game. Albright's superior rebounding kept them in the game as their offense stalled repeatedly. Here Eberle came into the game and hit a jump shot and a foul, George Conrad scored a one hander, and Don Pryor a drive-in to cut the score to 32-22. Dickinson, with two minutes left in the half, Firestone hit a jump shot and a drive-in to give the Lions the lead. A pair of goals by Varano and two fouls by Dudas offset another drive-in by Firestone, and the half ended with Albright leading 31-29.

Eberle Scores

In the second half Pryor continued to hit and Eberle really opened up, hitting on six of eight attempts from the floor. Conrad also hit well and rebounded strongly, leading the Lions in that department with 16 for the game. Albright's second half percentage was 52 percent, 20 for 38, and this enabled the Lions to build up a big lead. Albright out-rebounded the Red Devils 46-36 to post their fifth win in 21 contests. They have managed to break even in home appearances, having won five out of ten at home while losing 11 straight on the road.

George Conrad ended up high scorer for the Lions with 21 points while Bob Varano and John Dudas garnered 14 and 12 points for the Red Devils.

Albright's J.V.'s also bounced back into the win column with a 78-66 victory over Dickinson's Frosh. Myron Hallock registered the highest scoring with 18, while Ron, Pisano and Frank Hoffman hit 14 each.

Dips Defeated

Albright College turned back the Franklin and Marshall Diplomats 79-75 last Wednesday, February 23, at the Armory in Lancaster.

A scant crowd of 100 spectators saw a nip and tuck battle in which the lead changed hands at least a dozen times in the course of the contest.

The Diplomats, jumping off to a 14-5 lead early in the first half, led 38-35 at half time. Bob Chase netted 16 points in the first half and was especially dangerous under the boards.

Lions Take Lead

Early in the second half, the Lions went ahead 41-38 on a lay-up by Don Pryor and a jump shot by George Conrad, but two free throws and a field goal by Ken Eberle put the Diplomats back in the driver's seat 46-45. After Chase scored a field goal to make the score 48-45, a field goal by Jim Foreman and a foul shot by Bruce Riddell knotted the count at 50 all. From then on the lead changed hands many times and with four minutes remaining, F. & M. led 69-66. Here the Diplomats went into a freeze, but Bernie Krick stole the ball and scored making the score 69-68. After Henry Eberle made a foul, Krick scored again to knot the count at 70 all. A foul by George Conrad and two free throws by Mike DePaul put the Lions ahead to stay.

Conrad High Scorer

Leading Albright's scoring was George Conrad with 20 points followed by Krick, who played an outstanding defensive game as well, with 18 points and Don Pryor and Mike DePaul with 11 each.

The Lions held a slim 47-44 edge in rebounds, but the Diplomats had a better shooting percentage, hitting on 32 of 71 field goal attempts for 45 percent. While the Lions could muster only 26 of 69 for 39 percent. The Lions, however, netted 25 of 32 fouls as compared to F. & M.'s 15 of 32, thus the margin of victory laid at the foul line.

The victory was Albright's first away from home this season and their record is now 7-17, while the Diplomats have won 4 and lost 8.

Albright will conclude its basketball season tomorrow night when the Lions will be hosts to the visiting Franklin and Marshall quintet. The Gulianmen will be looking for their eighth victory of the campaign against seventeen setbacks. It will be the second game of the season between the two schools, Albright having won the first 79-75 at Lancaster. The Lion jayvees will be after their fifteenth win; they have lost five.

George Conrad, as usual, led the Lions in the scoring department with 20 points in the first game as Bernie Krick had his best night of the season with 18 markers. Steady Don Pryor and Mike DePaul also scored in double figures, each tallying 11. It was Albright's first and only away-from-home win this season.

Lion Cubs Win

Ron Pisano led the baby Lions to an 80-76 win over the F. & M. Jayvees in the game at Lancaster, scoring 22 points. Myron Hallock, Frank Hoffman, and Mike Daugherty also provided scoring punch, totaling 39 points between them.

Last week the Lions ripped the Royals of Scranton by the score of 112-76 to set numerous school and floor records. Among the new marks, the old ones being set by Albright teams in banner years, was a new high in points for a single game, established by Conrad at 47 tallies. Coach Eddie Gulian is expected to use a starting array of Conrad, DePaul, Riddell, Pryor, and either Jim Foreman or Bernie Krick. Fresh from their slashing triumph of last week, the Lions should be able to conquer the Diplomats without very much trouble.

This year's track team is in dire need of pole vaulters, high hurdles, broad jumpers, and high jumpers. Anyone interested is asked to report to Coach Shirk as soon as possible.

Valley Downs Lions 87-61; Landa Stars

Albright College dropped the second game of the season to Lebanon Valley College 87-61 at Annville last Monday night, February 21. It was the Lions' seventeenth loss in 22 games.

Except for an early 6-4 lead, the Lions were out of the picture completely as the Valley led 14-6, 25-11, 36-20 and 43-25 at halftime. Utilizing the fast break and superb passing by Howie Landa, the Dutchmen continually have broken through Albright's defenses.

Don Reinhard and Dick Shover netted 11 and 10 points respectively in the first half, mostly on key passes under the basket by Landa.

Valley Goes Wild

In the second half Albright looked as though they might come back, as Mike DePaul hit three field goals in a row with eight minutes remaining, pulling the Lions within ten points of the pace-setting Dutchmen, 66-56. Here the Valley broke loose, scoring 16 straight points, as Bob Nelson sank three field goals and Shover and Jack Peepe, two each, to spearhead the scoring spree, thus icing the game.

High men for the night were Reinhard and Shover with 18 points apiece, followed by Landa with 16 points, Nelson with 15 and Dick Steger with 12. Leading Albright's attack were George Conrad and Mike DePaul, with 15 and 12 points respectively.

J. V.'s Win

In the J. V. contest, Albright's J. V.'s broke the Lebanon Valley court record, defeating the Valley J. V.'s 107-83. Mike Daugherty scored 28 points and moved up to the varsity game to score seven more. Dale Yoder hit 17 points, followed by Ron Pisano with 13 for the winners.

Reading Branch Of A.A.U.W. To Meet With Senior Women

The Reading branch of the American Association of University Women will meet with Albright senior women Thursday, March 17 at 8 p.m. in Krause Hall. Each senior woman will have a recent graduate who is a member of the AAUW as her hostess.

Mrs. Olive Zehner will give an illustrated lecture on Pennsylvania Dutch folk art. Patricia Schatz, '58, will sing a few selections from the Broadway musical, "Plain and Fancy."

Prior to this program, Dean Priscilla R. Morton will meet with the senior women to explain the organization of the AAUW to them. One-third of all colleges in the United States are approved by this organization and Albright College is one of these colleges. The AAUW stresses the importance of adequate facilities for women in American colleges.

Any woman graduate of Albright College is eligible for membership in the AAUW. Dean Morton will give each senior woman an introductory card which will enable her to become a member of the AAUW anywhere in the United States.

Education, international relations, social studies, the status of women, and the arts are the five main interests of the AAUW's study-action program. The organization donates fellowship to women students of this country and foreign nations.

Library News

Miss Josephine Raepel, head librarian, recently announced the display of "The American Heritage" magazine in the library. It is a relatively new magazine to the publishing field—dealing with American past and present—folklore, tradition, and history. Bound with a hard book-like jacket, the bi-monthly magazine is illustrated. Coming editions will be kept with the other bound magazines, but students may take them out. Two copies are now on the circulation desk for inspection.

Miss Raepel was recently asked by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools to help evaluate the library of Missionary Training Institute at Nyack, New York. The head librarian also wished to acknowledge the gift of a book by the name of "Pictorial Korea, 1953, 1954" by Chai Lee of Korea.

Division III, Class of '57, Thomas Pollack, division leader; Nancy Hitchner, Jean Hagenbuch, Joel May, Arthur Saylor, and Clement Cassidy, team captains; Division IV, Class of '58, Clair Matz, division leader; Sheila Laub, John Luckenbill, Jeanette Hays, Virginia Frey, Dolores Schaeffer and Jean Handorf, team captains.

Team X, a sweep-up committee to visit students who for any reason were missed by the other teams, will consist of John Cateano, '56, captain, and Richard Strauss, '55, James Kirkpatrick, '58, Norman Buehler, '55, Raymond Horan, '56.

Teams To Report

These teams will hold their first report meeting Tuesday, March 8, at 11 a.m. in White Chapel Hall. The final report meeting will be held Thursday, March 10, at the same time and place.

The goal of the Centennial development fund is $900,000, of which $500,000 has already been subscribed by the Evangelical United Brethren Church, leaving $400,000 to be raised among alumni and friends in the community.

The development fund will be used for additional endowment to assure adequate faculty salaries and for general maintenance; for construction of an 825 seat chapel-auditorium; to complete payments on the new physical education building; for construction of a three-story addition to the Alumni Memorial Library; to purchase Teel Hall, formerly occupied by the Evangelical School of Theology.

Albright Loses To Explorers

Terrific Tom Gola, a shooin for All-American honors and a recent selection for the All-time All-American team, led LaSalle College of Philadelphia, fourth ranked in the nation, to an 89-69 victory over a fighting Lion team before a capacity crowd of 3100 here at the Albright gym.

It was the 19th victory in 23 starts for the Explorers, who have met defeat only at the hands of Duquesne, North Carolina State, Utah, and Kentucky. The loss was the Lions' 16th in 20 games.

Albright put up a brilliant battle in the first half, and tied the score at 15-all after 9:19 had elapsed in the game. Then Bob Maples added two field goals and Fran O'Malley one as the Explorers began to hit. At the end of the half LaSalle led by only eight points, 43-35. Gola netted 17 points in the first half, mostly on tap-ins and rebound shots. George Conrad led the Lions' initial period attack with 12 points.

Gola Goes Wild

In the second half, superior rebounding began to tell. Gola constantly set up his teammates and three times stole the ball and drove all the way for the score. Alonzo Lewis' deadly shots netted 15 points and Frank Blatcher chipped in 11, mostly on set shots.

Gola led the Explorers' attack with 27 points, followed by Lewis with 20. Both were strong under the boards, getting 15 and 14 rebounds, respectively.

George Conrad led the Red and White attack with 22 points, hitting nine out of 18 field goal attempts. Bruce Riddell added 15 to the cause, while Bernie Krick, who played a fine defensive game, and Mike DePaul had 12 each.

LaSalle outrebounded the Lions 53-30, and hit on 39 of 86 field goals, including 12 of 23 for Gola. They had a 45.3 percentage, as compared to Albright's 38.0.

LaSalle Frosh Wins

In the preliminary encounter, LaSalle's freshmen set back the Lion Cubs, 67-56, for their fourth loss in 15 games. Ron Pisano led the J.V. attack with 12 points, followed by Myron Hallock and Frank Hoffman with 11 and 10 points, respectively.
